

Uzumaki 551

Chapter 551: Recognized by Others

Uzumaki Kingdom

Seeing the pedestrians coming and going, Qian Luo was taken aback for a moment, and murmured, "Many people!"

This is the commercial street of Uzumaki Country, and they follow passers-by at will, and then they walk here.

But he didn't expect...

Will there be so many people?

"Because it's late." Xizi said with a smile, "These people are off work."

During this period of time, when Qian Luo was resting, she would walk out alone, intending to see what the Uzumaki Kingdom was like, so she was still familiar with everything in the Uzumaki Kingdom, but...

She really didn't expect the Uzumaki Congress to be so bustling.

Especially in a country without Shinobi Village...

How did the Uzumaki Kingdom develop?

Or in other words, where did the courage of Uzumaki Kingdom protect these, you must know that the entire Ninja Village now believes that this way of abandoning the Ninja Village is self-defeating.

Xizi and Qianluo didn't see any decline, they only saw something that they couldn't see in Sand Ninja Village or even Konoha...

Hopeful smile.

"Get off work?" Qianluo looked at Xizi puzzledly and asked, "Are these civilians?"

He could see that most of the people here are civilians.

"There is no distinction between civilians and ninjas here." Xizi shook her head and explained, "Uzumaki Kingdom provides construction, weaving, fishing, etc., whether you are a ninja or a civilian, you can sign up."

"Now that these people are off work, they should come to the commercial street to eat or go to the market to buy vegetables."

And so...

This kind of system is simply unheard of!

"Is that so?" Qianluo was silent for a while when he heard Xizi's words, "Where are those ninjas?"

"No need to perform tasks?"

"No." Xizi said, "Uzumaki does not rely on ninjas to perform tasks to earn income, but on business."

"For a ninja, you can choose to go to work, or you can choose to join the army, or even..." Xizi looked around, pointed to a ninja in the uniform of a Uzumaki country police officer, and said, "You can be a policeman."

"The police department?" Qianluo nodded and said, "Is it the same as Konoha?"

"It seems different." Xizi pondered, shook his head, and said, "As for what's going on, I don't know yet."

She couldn't tell her heart, but she could feel that the police here was different from Konoha's.

"No, I know." Qianluo looked straight ahead, with a sudden smile on his face, and said, "One is disgusting, the other..."

"Recognized by others."

Chapter 552: Mist Traitor's Condition

"Uncle Fuguki."

A little boy walked over with a happy face, carrying a lunch box in his hand, and said, "Mum made this. Let me bring it to you and Dad."

"Yuta!" Fuguki Suikazan put down his tools, looked at the little boy, and said with a smile, "Eating so early today?"

"Because mom said you are tired at work." Yuta scratched the back of his head and said cheerfully, "So you must be hungry soon."

"Yes!" Fuguki Suikazan nodded, touched his stomach, and complained, "I'm a little hungry indeed."

"Wait a minute, your father is still busy inside, I will call him now."

He turned around and walked in.

Since his resignation with His Royal Highness Xin, he has found a job in the lumber yard, and there are several other Wu Ren with him.

Although their actions of Mist Shinobi have not yet gained the trust of Uzumaki Country, Uzumaki Country has gradually relaxed their surveillance of them, so I believe that they will truly integrate into Uzumaki Country in the end.

But he, Fuguki Suikazan is different! !

He...

He was already a member of the Uzumaki Kingdom.

Only in order not to be suspected by other other, he will bear the humiliation and be a lumberjack here, let alone...

It's easy to move wood with Water Ninjutsu.

Poke one by one, tie it up and take it away.

"This feeling is really good!" Fuguki Suikazan smiled and murmured, "Hero? Recognition?"

Now these Mist Shinobi saw him, that expression of gratitude made Fuguki Suikazan feel a different kind of feeling in their hearts. You must know that he has not felt this feeling for so many years as one of the Seven Ninjas.

In those days, apart from a group of subordinates who would respect him, where else would anyone admit him and be grateful for him?

Although I still feel a little bit reluctant to give up those silver couples and houses, Fuguki Suikazan has no regrets abandoning them.

"Kenji." Fuguki Suikazan looked at person who was still cutting the wood, and said, "Your son has brought food here, don't hurry up."

"Yuta is here?" Kenji put down his tools and said happily, "Go, let's eat."

Although there is a cafeteria here, but...

He is still used to cooking at home!

"Wait a minute." Fuguki Suikazan grabbed Kenji and said with a serious face, "Wash your hands first, then eat."

"This is a matter of principle!"

"It's easy to get sick if you don't pay attention to hygiene."

"Oh." Kenji scratched his head embarrassedly and said, "I almost forgot."

Chapter 553: Unexpected Person

"Would you like this guest to be sweet? Salty?"

A little girl about sixteen years old looked at a beautiful woman, helped a pale-faced man, smiled and said, "Or spicy tofu?"

"Tofu brain?" Qianluo looked at the girl curiously and said, "What is this from?"

"This is a kind of dessert." The girl said with a smile on her face, "The specialty food of Uzumaki country is very delicious."

"Qianluo, you are not in good health." Xizi helped Qianluo and whispered, "So you can't eat spicy food."

Although she doesn't know what tofu brain is, the doctor said that Qianluo's diet during this period should also be paid attention to.

It's best to eat some supplements, such as fish soup, chicken soup, rib soup...

Can make his body recover faster.

"In that case." Qianluo nodded and said with a smile, "I'm going to choose salty as Xizi's words."

Looking at Xizi with gentle eyes, "I remember you always like sweets."

"En." Xizi said, "I want sweet ones."

One is salty, one is sweet.

What is so special about this tofu brain?

"Okay, wait a minute." The girl wrote down the order Qianluo ordered, and said, "There is a place inside, please sit inside."

"Trouble you." Xizi said with a smile, and then she helped Qianluo slowly find a place inside and sat down.

"Do you want tofu brain?" Qian Luo muttered, watching someone around him eating something milky white, something that seemed elastic, "What will the taste be like?"

And this country of Uzumaki...

It's amazing! !

Along the way, they saw too much, too much.

Maybe this is only part of the Uzumaki Kingdom, but...

But it still shocked them.

Ninjas and civilians live in harmony, doing the same work, eating the same things, without any rejection or jealousy.

If they hadn't seen it with their own eyes, they couldn't believe it!

And all this...

Qianluo had asked about it, and it was all made by the daimyo of the country of the vortex.

The youngest shadow in the ninja world.

"I really want to see the name of the Uzumaki Kingdom." Qianluo said with emotion.

Really an amazing person, but I don't know what the daimyo of Uzumaki Kingdom wants them to do?

While Qianluo was meditating...

"Coincident."

A red-haired boy walked in with a smile and said, "I'm looking for you too."

Chapter 554: Normal Citizen

Early morning, Uzumaki Kingdom

As usual, they get up as usual at 7 o'clock in the morning, and they are ready to go to work after breakfast.

Now the country of the Uzumaki is getting stronger and richer.

All citizens living in Uzumaki can feel...

How many years has it been?

From the beginning of their parents, they have not experienced life like the present, which is simply unimaginable in the Ninja world, especially when seeing other refugees who came to the country of Uzumaki because of the war, these people living in the country of Uzumaki The original inhabitants will hold their chests tall and hold their heads proudly.

And now, among the people living in the Uzumaki country, there are some people who have not obtained Uzumaki country citizenship. They are eager to live here more than anyone else, and become the one who has no war, no oppression, food, and housing. National residents.

And so they abide by the law more than anyone else.

"Thai, good morning!" A middle-aged man greeted, looking at the short-cut middle-aged man next to him, "Waiting for the bus?"

"Good morning." Tay nodded politely and said, "Yes, I haven't driven a carriage anymore since this thing called a car appeared in the country of Uzumaki."

The carriage is not only slow, bumpy, and very uncomfortable to sit in. It is better to be a bus so that he can sleep a few more minutes in the morning.

"Dajia, what line are you on?" Tai asked curiously, "I'm a bus on Line 1."

"Line 3." Dajia said helplessly, "The team will go to undeveloped places to survey the terrain in a few days."

Prepare new infrastructure.

"The country of the Uzumaki is still too small." Tai sighed and said, "If the territory of the country of the Uzumaki is as big as the country of fire, it would be great!"

"Yeah!" Dajia nodded and said, "It would be great if the entire Ninja Realm was the country of Uzumaki."

Then, a complaint appeared on his face, "I heard that it is because the territory is too small, we newcomers. Only those who cannot get the nationality of the country of the Uzumaki."

"You want me to say..."

"It would be good if the entire Ninja World belongs to the Uzumaki Kingdom. The idiot nobles and ninjas outside will only exploit us, and even kill us for no reason."

"Don't be stupid." Tai shook his head and said, "This is impossible."

All Ninja World is the country of Uzumaki...

This is simply impossible. You must know that the Five Ninja Villages are very strong!

"Haha." Dajia said cheerfully, "Just complain."

"It would be great if other countries were the same as the Uzumaki Country."

"Bus No. 3 is here." Dajia quickly stood in the line, lined up, and said, "I'm leaving now."

Anyway...

They are now considered as citizens of half of the country of the Uzumaki, so they must abide by the law and be civilized, and they should not be ashamed of the country of the Uzumaki!

"En." Dajia nodded and said with a smile, "My estimate is coming soon."

He felt a moment of emotion...

He has to work hard too!

You are just a little bit short of points before you can join the Uzumaki country.

Chapter 555: Uzumaki Military Plan

"I have already worked out what you are going to invent." Qianluo said with a grumbling face, "Tell me to say, what use are you doing with this thing?"

"Car!" Uzumaki Xin didn't care about Qianluo's tone. He was invented, and his temper was a bit weird. Although he used to be a doll, it is undeniable that he still has real skills in his body. That's a good thing!"

Do you really want to learn from the world of Ninja...

Hurry by running, communication by roar? ?

Don't be kidding, science and technology are the primary productive forces, and this is the country's policy to become a powerful country!

There is no special place, how can you make others feel different?

Therefore, after the research of Chakra Motors, he established the New Energy Bus Co., Ltd., by the way, re-divided the road, divided into motor vehicle lanes and sidewalks, and established traffic lights, and traffic rules...

Uzumaki Kingdom really has a more and more familiar flavor.

"But, according to what you said is handsome and cool." Qianluo said helplessly, "It affects performance very much."

After getting acquainted for this period of time, he has already understood the character of the daimyo of the Uzumaki country in front of him, let alone... People are nice.

As long as you abide by disciplines and the law, and earnestly complete the tasks assigned to you, you will basically not be treated to you.

"It doesn't matter whether the performance is good or not." Uzumaki Xin said casually, "Anyway, it's also for export."

Automobile industry...

It's also making money! !

Especially when technology is monopolized.

"Don't do it so well, leave some shortcomings." With a familiar smile on his face, Xin narrowed his eyes and said, "I optimize it every other year so that I can make money."

What kind of cars are divided into first generation, second generation, A5, A8, etc.!

The same style has been sold dozens of times.

Anyway, cars are only available in Uzumaki State, and they are not sold in other places.

"Whatever you want," Qian Luo said helplessly, "I just came to work anyway."

Take it as a life-saving grace in the country of return to the Uzumaki.

"How is the development of the Ninjutsu Tank?" Uzumaki Xin asked curiously, "You must know that this is the country's most important weapon!"

"I don't know what you think." Qian Luo said with a serious expression on his face when he heard Uzumaki Xin's words, "These things can bring harm to the ninja."

Even ordinary people can master powerful power...

He doesn't even know what will happen to the ninja in the future?

"But it will bring peace to the Ninja world." Uzumaki Xin said seriously, "Power is not good or bad. As long as the people who master it use it in places that are useful to the people and the world, it is good."

"And..."

"Aren't the ninjas of Uzumaki country living well now?"

With a smile on his face, Uzumaki Xin looked at Qianluo, he was not a pedantic person.

Chapter 556: Nagato's Worry

"Why do you want us to accompany you to the pet hospital on the big weekend!" Nagato yawned and said, "I fell asleep very late yesterday."

During this period of time, energy is too strong, so he...

Physical training is carried out very late every night before he can fall asleep.

"Now..." Nagato looked at the sky and complained, "It's only six o'clock!"

Even if your cat is sick, it doesn't have to be so early! !

"All day long." Conan looked at Nagato with a disappointed look and said, "You have changed and become so lazy. You used to be very hardworking!"

"The piece of paper was ill last night, and the diarrhea was very painful, do you have the heart to watch it?"

Conan raised her hands, showed him the white kitten she was holding, and said, "Look, I'm not energetic."

"..."

Nagato scratched the neck of the piece of paper expressionlessly, really lacking energy!

Just... he used to sleep until eight or nine o'clock before waking up!

"Where is Yahiko?" Nagato felt that he still shouldn't reason with girls.

This is what Brother Xin taught him...

"Why didn't you see him?"

You know, the three of them have always acted together!

"Dad Yahiko is sick." Conan rolled his eyes and said helplessly, "So he has to take care of Dad Yahiko."

It's really annoying!

How obedient Nagato was before!

Then, standing on the bus stop with the kitten in his arms, he glanced at the passing car, and quickly waved to Nagato, "The car is coming, we are going to get on the bus."

"Okay." Nagato sighed helplessly, and said, "I hope there are not too many people in the hospital today."

In this case...

He can also go back to sleep early.

He glanced at the cute white cat that Conan was holding.

This cat was a birthday present that he and Yahiko gave to Conan.

Unexpectedly, Conan liked it quite a bit.

The corner of Nagato's mouth rose slightly. At that time, they approached Brother Xin and asked him what gift he wanted to give a girl. After all...

After so many years, he knew that many people liked Brother Xin.

For example, Sister Kushina, Sister Haruhime, Sister Nono, and Sister Mikoto...

Therefore, Brother Xon must understand girls' thoughts very well.

Just... do not know why...

Ever since he told Mikoto's sister Mikoto's liking for brother Xin, Kushina has been sharpening the knife.

Your lord's world is too complicated, so he shouldn't get mixed up...

Chapter 557: Mother's Worry

"Aho!"

Uzumaki Xin rubbed his nose and murmured, "Have a cold?"

It seems that he should go to the hospital after get off work and ask Nono or Hime.

He has beaten Ninja Invincible, how can he catch a cold?

"It's a bit cold!" Uzumaki Xin tightened his clothes and looked at Naga and said, "It seems that this winter will be very cold, and we must prepare for cold everywhere."

"Already preparing." Naga nodded, the pity in her eyes flashed by, and said, "I will notify you later."

A few days ago, His Royal Highness Xin's mother, Meiling-sama found her and asked His Highness Xin what he was doing recently?

She am planning to blow a wave of His Royal Highness Xin's diligent governance, for the country and the people, working late every day...

Uzumaki Xin saw that Meiling-sama was followed by someone he couldn't afford to provoke...

Miss Kushina

She immediately put away the memo with a serious face, and quickly reported the journey of His Highness Xin over the past few days, especially where he went during this period and which women he saw... heh heh, who he said. It's clear.

If you don't say it clearly...

She absolutely must not be able to contribute to the country of the Uzumaki in the future.

Finally, seeing Master Meiling's satisfied expression, she was immediately relieved, and she was really a real mother!

It's Miss Kushina's squinting dangerous expression...

She can only say to His Royal Highness Xin that love is helpless.

"A lot of people have come to Uzumaki Kingdom during this time." Uzumaki Xin glanced at the file and said, "Be careful!"

"If they are found to be spies, they will all be caught in the labor camp."

During this time...

The labor camp is a bit empty!

"I will let the police station increase inspections," Naga. "At the same time, we will issue an announcement to the people to let them pay attention to the people around them."

"En." Uzumaki Xin nodded, frowned, looked at the file in his hand, sighed, and said, "Sure enough, the cultivation of Ninja Beast is not so easy!"

Because the farm has not been able to cultivate Ninjamon, the Uzumaki Country opened a pet system not long ago.

Although it is a joke to keep a useless pet in this era, Uzumaki Xin still has a trace of desire in his heart...

He don't know if other raising abilities can raise psychic beasts.

After all, people are different from person to person.

Therefore, he suggested that Nagato give it to Conan to raise the white cat.

Maybe there will be unexpected gains in the future.

Of course, some constraints are still necessary for unnecessary trouble.

What a triptych! Rabies vaccine!

It's all on time!

At the same time, it is necessary to pay attention to hygiene.

Get the frames out from the beginning, so as to reduce unnecessary troubles in the future.

Chapter 558: Traffic Violation

"Is this the country of Uzumaki?"

A young man with a white hedgehog head, sitting on a toad, frowned and looked at the surrounding scenery, muttered, "Why not like what Tsunade said?"

The country of Uzumaki is not poor at all...

This place is more beautiful than Konoha!

Did he come wrong?

Especially the beautiful and exquisite house, the spacious and sturdy avenue, the iron box that comes from driving...

All made him wonder in his heart that he really went wrong.

Just... What does it mean to have white stripes painted on the road?

Jiraiya also looked at the neatly spaced white bars on the road, and was lost in thought. He was curious about everything in the Uzumaki Kingdom!

He glanced at the person standing next to him.

Why don't they go there?

Forget it, no matter what, let's find a place to rest first.

I'm really tired after such a long journey then...

"Loyal Toad, let's go." Jiraiya said to Toad below.

"Little Jiraiya" Toad loyal and gentle voice sounded, and said, "The other people haven't left, don't we ask why?"

"Forget it." Jiraiya also said, "I am a toad immortal, I must be different from others."

"Okay." Toad faithfully nodded and said, "In that case, I'll listen to you."

Then with a kick on your legs, a light leap forward, at the moment of landing...

"Beep--!"

A harsh whistle sounded.

"This...white-haired ninja, please wait a moment, according to the traffic rules of Uzumaki Kingdom, the first..."

"You have violated the traffic rules of Uzumaki Country."

"Please show your driver's license."

Driver's license?

Jiraiya looked at the police officer with a white hat in front of him with a blank expression. He was only riding a toad. Why was he stopped?

The person in front of him should be the same as Konoha's police department.

It's just that when did the police department take charge of people riding toads?

And that driver's license...

What is that stuff?

Why didn't he hear such things after he traveled to so many countries?

"Sorry, I..." Jiraiya poked his hands embarrassedly, "That driver's license..."

However, the words are not finished yet...

The traffic policeman in Uzumaki knew what it meant when he saw Jiraiya's expression.

This is a... Driving without a license.

Chapter 559: Strange Place for Jiraiya

"Where's the Uzumaki Country Pass?"

The traffic police frowned, but seeing Jiraiya's confused expression, it became clear that he didn't know anymore. He sighed helplessly, and said, "Just came into the mirror?"

"Yes, I just came from outside." Jiraiya also said with a self-confident smile, "I'm Toad immortal, Sannin Jiraiya."

"Is it Jiraiya?" The traffic police nodded and wrote a note in the notebook, only to see that it said...

Jiraiya, driving without a license, running a red light, did not apply for a pass...

"Since it's a newcomer." The traffic police frowned and said, "You should know the laws of the Uzumaki Kingdom, right?"

"Please show me your entry certificate."

"..."

Jiraiya also looked stunned again...

What is this entry certificate?

In the Ninja World, when is it so troublesome to go to other countries?

He is Konoha Sannin!

Hasn't the person in front of him heard of the one who is close to the Ninja demigod last war?

Unexpectedly, news of the Uzumaki Kingdom was so lagging behind.

"One of the three ninjas in Konoha." Jiraiya said with a serious face again, "Toad Immortal, Jiraiya."

The traffic police simply ignored the person who violated the traffic laws in front of him. He sighed, shook his head, and said helplessly, "There are thousands of roads, safety first, irregular driving, and tears for loved ones!"

Picked up the walkie-talkie next to him.

"You found someone entering the country illegally, please send someone over quickly."

Raising his head and looking at the still fascinated Jiraiya again...

The traffic police nodded. It seemed that this ninja was quite honest, and he didn't run away, so he shouldn't be a spy.

In this case, why not go through the immigration formalities directly at the entry gate?

"I take the liberty to ask." Jiraiya asked cautiously, "What is the entry certificate?"

"When you came to the country of Uzumaki, didn't you see the entry gate. Are there any staff in uniforms similar to mine?" The traffic police frowned and said, "It shouldn't be!"

"Thirty-four entrances, the Uzumaki Kingdom has basically set up a gate!"

"..."

Jiraiya also heard what the traffic police said, and immediately understood what was going on.

He scratched his head smirkingly, he...

When he saw a ninja at the gate, he sneaked in and he doesn't know anything!

And isn't this a basic operation in Ninja?

The country of Uzumaki, why is it different from outside?

Chapter 560: Jiraiya's Punishment

"What are you talking about?" Uzumaki wiped the tea that was accidentally sprayed, and said calmly, "Is Jiraiya here too?"

"Yes." Lucci was used to washing with water and wind, nodding, and said, "Currently at the traffic police department, but it is estimated that it should be transferred to the Public Security Bureau."

"..."

What did he do?

Uzumaki Xin looked at Lucci with a puzzled look. How could this Jiraiya be arrested when he came to the country of Uzumaki? ?

Also transferred from the traffic police department to the public security bureau...

The matter is serious!

"Smuggling, entering the country illegally, driving without a license, running a red light, and failing to apply for one pet and one license." Lucci pushed his glasses and said, "Now he is suspected of being a spy."

That's it.

Uzumaki nodded suddenly.

This is what it deserves!

Fortunately, Jiraiya did not drink alcohol on a toad as usual, otherwise he would have to add a drunk driving!

Just, why did Jiraiya smuggle into the country of Uzumaki for no reason?

Could it be that he received an order from Hokage to inquire about the true situation of the Uzumaki Kingdom?

"How to arrange in the game?" Uzumaki Xin said with squinting eyes while touching his chin.

"They asked me to inquire about you." Luccisaid, "After all, it is Konoha Sannin anyway."

See if you need to do something special?

"You..." Hearing what Lucci said, Uzumaki Xin shook his head disappointedly and said, "This is a privilege!"

What happened to Konoha? What's wrong with Sannin?

As long as you violate the laws and regulations of the country of Uzumaki, he will be severely punished!

"What do you mean..." Lucci nodded immediately when he heard Xin's words, and said, "I will arrange it."

"Remember, the country of Uzumaki is a country governing the country according to law." Xin said with a serious face, "Everyone is equal before the law."

"Anyone who violates the laws of the country of Uzumaki will be exercised in accordance with the law."

Give him a severe punishment! !

Best, Punishment Jiraiya also works in the country of Uzumaki.
