

Uzumaki 601

Chapter 601: Sakumo's Bushido

Uzumaki Xin does know what Kushina and the others mean, but... he can only apologize now.

"I hate you!" Kushina looked at his brother Xin expectantly, but he didn't say anything. She became silent, shouted angrily, then turned and left.

Obviously, the two of them grew up together.

Uzumaki Xin looked at Kushina who was leaving, sighed helplessly, rubbed his forehead, and stopped chasing after her.

He knows, Nono and Yuki were outside waiting for Kushina.

What's the use of chasing him out now?

Only a few days have passed.

"Sure enough..." Uzumaki Xin shook his head, sighed, and murmured, "I'm still too good."

...

Konoha Village

"Dad." Seeing that his father came to pick him up as usual, Kakashi patted the classmate with thick eyebrows, big eyes and green tights around him, and then ran directly to Sakumo.

"Are you a friend?" Sakumo took Kakashi's hand and said with a smile, "Did you take classes seriously in the academy?"

Looking at Kakashi, an implied reluctance flashed past his eyes.

"Kakashi should graduate, too." Sakumoi looked at the sunset and said with emotion, "What do you want to be in the future?"

"Ninja." Kakashi had no expression on his face, glanced at the fire sleeve on the right shoulder of Sakumo, and said faintly, "Become a great ninja like Dad."

"Guard Konoha."

"Is it great?" Sakumo murmured as he touched his sleeve in confusion, "Is that really the case?"

This is what he got when he made contributions to Konoha and shed blood to become a hero.

But He didn't expect that now, Sakumo shook his head with a wry smile.

His friends all jumped out to accuse him, even the one he saved.

It seems that someone is putting pressure on it!

Obviously everything he did was for the village...

Although this chilled him, Sakumo didn't regret it. If he did it again, he would still save his partner.

Because...This is him... Sakumo Hatake.

He have always remembered my own forbearance, my own Bushido.

Sakumo looked at Konoha in the evening, and at the villagers in the setting sun.

"The Will of Fire..."

"Dad." Kakashi raised his head and looked at Sakumo, frowning and asked, "What's the matter?"

There seems to be something wrong with my father today!

"It's okay." Sakumoi returned to his senses and said with a smile, "Let's accompany Dad to stroll around today."

"It seems that I haven't walked together for a long time."

"En." Kakashi nodded and said nothing. Of course he had heard some rumors about his father in the village, but he had always believed...

His father is an amazing ninja.

Especially when I heard that my father suddenly wanted to stroll around the village today, Kakashi was indeed a little surprised, and he was even more relieved.

It seems...

Dad has already walked out.

Chapter 602: Reclamation Plan

Uzumaki Kingdom

"I am looking for you today because the above has entrusted us with an important task." Uzumaki Patriarch i looked at the infrastructure team captains on the round table, pointed to the map on the table, and said, "Now the territory of Uzumaki Kingdom has slowly Not enough."

"In order not to cause too much damage to the ecological environment, we must expand our territory."

Hearing what Lucci said, a Uzumaki Shinobi rushed to his hands and said excitedly, "Are we going to attack other countries?"

After moving the bricks for so many years, is it finally able to go to the battlefield?

"What do you think?" Uzumaki Patriarch frowned and said, "Our Uzumaki country is a peace-loving country."

"We will never start a war at will."

"What's more..." Uzumaki Patriarch looked around at the captain present and said, "The military is responsible for the war."

Gazed at Uzumaki fiercely...

Hey, no, this Uzumaki Ninja seems to be from the military department, just sent to help.

How can you talk nonsense as a soldier?

Know that this can cause confusion, especially now that there are many ninjas from outside villages in Uzumaki Kingdom.

Maybe there are other spies from Ninja Village hidden inside...

It is estimated that when we talk about war now, the large forces of Shinobi will attack tomorrow.

"Our main task starts from here..." Patriarch said, pointing to the eastern part of the country of Uzumaki, "reclamation of the sea to make land."

"Reclamation of the sea to create land?" Rōshi frowned and looked at the map, and said puzzledly, "Is it using soil to escape?"

In this case...

Will it be too depleted Chakra?

He remembers that there are not so many ninjas in the Uzumaki Kingdom. If you only rely on these ninjas, how long will you want to build a land!

But his heart was relieved. He had heard of expanding the territory, but he thought it was going to start a war. What did he still want to do?

Should he inform Hidden Sound Village?

Fortunately, it is just reclamation.

At least he don't need to be condemned in my heart, and...

He bought a house in Uzumaki Kingdom!

"En." Patriarch looked at the captain present, and said, "A batch of tools will be issued tomorrow, which we will use for reclamation."

"What the hell is going on, I haven't got it yet, I don't know yet."

"I guess it will be clear tomorrow." Uzumaki Patri said helplessly, "I am calling you today because I want you to gather all the ninjas together."

"It will be convenient to manage at that time."

He also received the news temporarily. Although time is a bit tight, since it is Little Xin's request, as a father, he can only work hard and try not to hold back.

"Yes!" Everyone's eyes condensed, and then nodded in response.

"Then everyone gets off work." Uzumaki Patriarch said with a smile, "It may be a little busy later."

After all, the above requirement is to quickly fill in enough territory for the people to produce and live.

however...

Everyone here showed a knowing smile and said, "Is it because His Royal Highness Xin is getting married?"

"The Minister will invite us to have a drink at that time!"

"Haha." Hearing what everyone said, Uzumaki Patriarch laughed, "Well, no one will fall by then."

Chapter 603: Hatake Sakumo's Ending

Regarding the fact that they knew that Uzumaki Xin was going to get married, Uzumaki Patriarch was not surprised. After all, it was the marriage of a big name in a country, and there were also patriarchs and elders behind it...

The country of Uzumaki

Until now, it is no longer possible to rely solely on the Uzumaki family as before.

Therefore, for the future stability of the country of the Uzumaki, it is necessary for Little Xin to marry girls from other families, and even some apprentices from other families must be recruited, but Little Xin is relatively busy, and the people above don't ask for it.

Just...

"It's a pity." Uzumaki Patriarch sighed and shook his head.

he...

Back then, he still liked that girl Kushina.

As a result, the stinky boy proposed to someone else without a word.

Konoha Village

"What sound?" Kakashi rubbed his eyes, stood up, and murmured, "Why is there such a loud noise suddenly?"

Today my father seemed to be very happy, so he was a little tired from playing.

By the way, he had a barbecue outside with my father.

It's been a long time since their father and son have walked around like today.

"The voice just now." Kakashi regained his energy, looked at the next room, frowning, "It seems to be from Dad."

He stood up and walked towards the next room...

"Dad!" Kakashi knocked on the door and shouted, "What happened?"

however...

There was still no sound in the room.

Kakashi frowned suddenly, feeling something wrong in his heart, especially...

"Smell of blood?"

Suddenly lied, pushed the door open and looked inside...

"Dad!!"

"Are you dead?" A villager frowned and looked at his companion beside him, hesitated for a moment, and said, "We..."

"Is it wrong?"

"I..." The villager opened his mouth, sighed, and said, "Perhaps."

"When I think about it now, although Master Sakumo gave up the task, it seems that we have nothing to lose!"

and so...

Why did this news appear suddenly?

Then, suddenly there was a lot of rumors?

Chapter 604: Bad News Come Out

Konoha Village

Konoha White Fang, who made great achievements for Konoha, committed suicide in his room last night due to guilt, leaving only the last blood of the Hatake family...

Hatake Kakashi.

With reliable news, someone saw Sakumo Hatakei met Shimura Danzo, a notorious high-level consultant of Konoha, who was dismissed by the village because he made a mistake, offended the name and spied.

When all families heard this news, their hearts immediately condensed.

This incident... definitely has something to do with Shimura Danzo!

Hokage Building.

"Oh!" Sarutobi Haruzen heard the news this morning, took a breath, sighed, and murmured, "It's a pity."

It seems that he and Danzo are still doing too much.

Obviously he just wanted to give a warning to those families whose minds were starting to think again, and by the way let the ninjas in the village carry out their tasks seriously.

After all, the first rule of a ninja is to perform tasks!

But I didn't expect...

Suicide even at a young age.

"Danzo..." Sarutobi Haruzen looked at the complaints from the people below, "It seems that everyone is dissatisfied with Danzo's behavior now."

Although Sarutobi Haruzeni finally...

But the ending was good, and these families began to feel scared again.

"The Will of Fire." Sarutobi Haruzen stood up, walked outside, and murmured, "This is all for the peace of the village."

It's time to go to the meeting now.

Appease the other ninjas by the way.

Hidden Rock Village.

"Sarutobi Haruzen." Ohnoki said with a sneer from the corner of his mouth, "It's really ridiculous!"

You know Konoha White Fang...

This is the strong man recognized by the entire ninja world!

Even a strong man who was loyal to his village was forced to death, the high-level Konoha really...

A bunch of idiots!

"Cut it, continue to cut it." Onoki muttered, narrowing his eyes, "If this goes on, Hidden Rock Village may become the strongest forbearance village."

and so...

continue!

Uzumaki Kingdom

Madara Uchiha closed his eyes and lay on the recliner.

He returned to the house that White Zetsu bought. Although the health care products of Uzumaki Kingdom are quite useful, but...

He is old after all, and it is time to retire.

Chapter 605: Deception and Hypocrite

He has to wait for White Zetsu to come...

After listening to Uzumaki Xin's words that day, he was finally sure...

He, the Ninja God... 's opponent was actually deceived.

"Otsuki Kaguya." Madara opened his eyes and murmured, "Unlimited Moon Reading."

"Illusory?"

"Black Zetsu..."

The corners of his mouth rose slightly, revealing a sneer, and said, "I didn't expect to be someone who has lived for a thousand years!"

As for whether Uzumaki Xin is right...

He, Uchiha Madara was just bewitched, and he is not stupid. He has calmed down over the past few years, and he has also discovered that it seems...

Everything he did before was the absolute suggestion.

Then, he thought that since it was definitely his own will, it must be what he thought, so he agreed.

Thinking about it now, everything is indeed full of weirdness!

What Uchiha Madara wanted was true peace, letting Hashirama know that what he was doing was right, instead of letting all humans perish.

Madara looked out the window with confused eyes, touched the mask on her chest, and muttered, "Hashirama..."

After so many years, he should also go to see you.

He wonder if you are surprised to see me live longer than you?

And also... Uchiha Mikoto...

"Granddaughter." Uchiha Madara's mouth raised slightly, a smile flashed, and he shook his head, and said, "It's really interesting."

After a while, it should be Uchiha Mikoto who got married. He had participated in the inter-column mixing, but he did not expect that the blond girl is now so big now, and he...

Still a bachelor.

But...

After all, it was his Uchiha clan who won!

"Dad..." Kakashi looked at the tombstone in front of him, with tears in his eyes, holding a short knife tightly, and muttered, "Why is this?"

Is the task of being a ninja really more important than a partner?

That's not how the teacher educates him!

And the Will of Fire...

Obviously Dad did nothing wrong, so why did those people force him?

Why don't you understand.

"Kakashi." Sarutobi Haruzen patted Kakashi on the shoulder, and said apologetically, "Sorry, it's all because I didn't notice Sakumo's heart that caused the current situation."

"Don't be sad."

"I believe your father doesn't want to see you like this."

"Sakumo..."

"It is Konoha's hero, sacrificed for Konoha."

Sarutobi Hitoshi touched Kakashi's head...

"Konoha will never let the hero shed blood and tears."

Kakashi still didn't answer anything, but looked at the tombstone quietly.

Sarutobi Haruzen sighed, and after calling Anbu hidden in the dark to take care of Kakashi, he turned and left.

Danzo...

It should also be over.

Chapter 606: Konoha's Situation

"Sakumo Hatake..." Jiraiya looked at the newspaper in his hand, sighed, and murmured, "Danzo..."

Unexpectedly, he had only been out for a few years, so why did this happen?

Is Konoha all a bunch of shit?

You must know how much Sakumo has given to the village, how much he loves the village in his heart, and he actually forced people to death.

Not to mention... Isn't it right to save your partner?

"The old man is really confused." Jiraiya casually grabbed the wine glass next to him, looked at Senju Hen in front of him, and said, "Really don't plan to go back to the village?"

"Not going back." Senju Hen shook his head and said with a wry smile, "Konoha is not suitable for Senju now."

Especially the news this morning...

Even Konoha's heroes can be pitted to death, why are they going back now?

Fill the pit?

Especially when they concealed and left Konoha...

You know this is tantamount to betrayal!

Going back is definitely a dead end.

"Oh!" Jiraiya sighed when he heard the words of Hidetoshi Senju, and said helplessly, "Where is Tsunade?"

She thought her people and relatives were dead!

"Princess Tsunade, I..." After hearing Jiraiya's words, Senju Hen was taken aback, lowered his head, and said, "I'm sorry."

"I know." Jiraiya also saw that Senju Hen looked like this, nodded, took another sip of wine, and said, "I will hide it for you."

Not going back...

Maybe it's not bad.

In the past few years, he has also watched the Uzumaki Kingdom seriously, and the Thousand Hands Clan living here has not been treated unfairly, even...

It's better than Konoha!

He knows, Konoha is impossible to implement this way.

Give the military power to the daimyo...

Jiraiya also believes that he has just proposed it today, and he must betray the village tomorrow.

Now that you are out, don't care about things in the village.

The group of consultants will make the decision by themselves, so he shouldn't talk too much.

Who can be sure that the one country, one village policy of the God of Ninja is not good?

"Since it's all right." Senju Hen stood up and said, "I'll go back first. There will be important things on the team tomorrow."

"Oh? Oh!" Hearing what Senju Hen said, Jiraiya quickly wiped the corner of his mouth, put it down, and said, "Wait a minute, I'll go to the toilet first."

"There is one more thing I forgot to tell you."

"You wait here first."

Then, quickly stood up and walked towards the back...

Although Senju Hen really didn't know what was going on with Jiraiya-sama, he sat down and decided to wait for a while.

And Jiraiya also...

"That person will pay the bill later." Jiraiya also pulled the bartender over, pointed vaguely at Senju Hen who was sitting in the chair, and said seriously, "Remember, he pays."

He walked towards the back door without turning his head...

When did the toad immortal pay for a drink with others?

"It seems I should get a job." Jiraiya also shook his head helplessly, and said, "Otherwise, selling chakras every day would be enough for one day's consumption."

After all, he...

Not a ninja with a huge chakra!

Chapter 607: Land Reclamation

Reclamation of the sea to build land can be said to be a major event in the country of Uzumaki. After all, relying only on a small island will greatly restrict the future development of the country of Uzumaki.

However, although land reclamation can expand the territory of the Uzumaki country, it will have a certain impact on the ecological environment. Therefore, in order to weaken these effects, we must also pay attention to construction.

Fortunately, this is the world of Shinobi, and unscientific methods can be used to transform the ecological environment.

"So pay attention to hygiene." Xin said, looking at his father, "Don't cause too much damage to the ecological environment."

There is no need to take the path of development first and then governance.

The reclamation machines are ready, and they are basically rebuilt from some old wooden boats. Today, even the science and technology house Senjuo also came here. He will explain the use of reclamation tools and how to avoid possible accidents here.

"I'll make arrangements." Uzumaki Patriarch nodded and patted Uzumaki Xin, feeling that his son has grown up so much, and he should get married in a while, but...

He can't say anything about emotions, after all, if you talk nonsense, Meiling will beat people up.

He wanted to say something and stopped saying, "That girl Kushina..."

"The words from the patriarch..."

"Hey." In the end, Uzumaki Patriarch said nothing, shook his head and sighed, "You can figure it out."

"..."

Uzumaki Xin looked at his father helplessly, he...

Decided to find Kushina after some time.

Looking at the patriarch who is patrolling next to him, on this important day, the senior officials of the Uzumaki Kingdom are basically present, and even Kakuzu has appeared here today.

He needs to estimate the funds required for this operation, as well as for the Uzumaki.

Advantageous place of the country.

Although the country of Uzumaki is no longer the poor country it used to be, relying on huge trade exports, it can be said that the country of Uzumaki is already the most developed country in the Ninja world.

Kakuzu is still a qualified finance minister.

Anything about money, he will carefully review, analyze, and allocate funds to them only when he thinks it is appropriate.

Chapter 608: Land Reclamation 2

"Uncle Hen." Xin looked at Senju Hen and said, "How is the situation?"

"There should be no problem." Senju Hennodded and said, "I have made a fool-like operation method in the way you said, and I have basically learned it after reading it all."

Can't learn...

What kind of ninja?

"But..."

"It consumes too much of Chakra." Senju Hen sighed and shook his head helplessly. "Although there is a chakra converter, it's just a ninja here, it's still not enough."

"So if you want to create enough continents, it may take a long time."

"No way." After hearing this, Uzumaki Xin spread his hand and said, "Currently, most of the people in Uzumaki are civilians, and there are too few local ninjas."

This is also because there are already few ninjas in the ninja world.

"Only one step can be counted as one step." Xin sighed, looking at the reclamation tool that was already in operation, "You have made an amazing thing!"

If you sell this thing to the Nation of Water, perhaps their small island will be able to connect into a continent that is not inferior to the Nation of Fire.

It is impossible to sell this kind of thing to the Water Country.

"Yes!" Senju Hen said emotionally, "If you hadn't rescued me then, I guess I wouldn't be able to see this scene anymore."

He already... From wood to steel.

Nowadays, the subject of iron and steel equipment has also entered the affiliated college of Uzumaki Kingdom. Scorpion was learning when he first transferred. the kids also graduated from the college last year, and it has been several years before he knew it.

"Post-maintenance may be troublesome." Qianluo who beside them looked at the huge tools he had created, "I just don't know the service life of these things."

"You can figure it out." Xin nodded and said, "I don't know anything about this."

How much sea area can a small island fill?

His plan need more time, what he need to do now is to prepare for what's coming next.

"It's not time yet!" Xin said with emotion.

"What's not the time yet?" Qianluo asked curiously, "Is there anything else I need to pay attention to?"

"It's nothing..." Uzumaki Xin patted Qianluo on the shoulder and said, "I'll get married after a while. Come over and have a drink."

He has something to do.

Because he felt it, Black Zetsu came over.

"Okay..." However, before Qian Luo could finish speaking, Uzumaki Xin flew away from Thunder God, and could only helplessly shook his head. They still knew about the wedding of Uzumaki Kingdom.

Chapter 609: Future Plan for Son

"Qianluo."

And at this moment...

Hearing someone calling him, Qianluo quickly put on a serious expression and turned to look at his wife with a smile.

He is a good man of twenty-four filial piety!

"What are you eating today?" Qianluo took the lunch box that Xizi brought him and said, "It's really hard for you."

You will never make mistakes of principle.

"You have been staying up late these days, so I helped you boil the fish soup." Xizi carefully opened the lunch box and said with a smile, "I'll make up for you."

"Really?" Qianluo moved Xizi's hand and said, "Xizi is so kind to me!"

"Naughty." Xizi chuckled, covering her mouth and arranging things before asking, "Sasori has also graduated. He decided to join the mechanical army. What do you think?"

"Mechanical troops?" Qian Luo took a sip of fish soup, frowned, sighed, and said, "The child has grown up and has ideas that belong to him. As his father, he can only help him in the back. good luck."

Although he still refused to join the army in his heart, he hoped that Sasori could come to the mechanical department for internship for a few years, gain some knowledge, and finally be able to engage in development. After all, war will kill people.

The mechanical unit was formed just last year. It uses Chakra energy guns, Chakra guns, and Chakra tanks that have not yet been developed. Of course, there are also unapproved Gundams...

"But Sasori is..." Xizi opened her mouth, wanting to say, what if Sasori appeared on the front line and was seen by Sand Shinobi?

Will it be a problem?

Therefore, it is best to stay behind like them.

"Oh." Qianluo sighed, put down the bowl and said, "It is estimated that in the mind of Sasori, Sand Ninja Village is already a strange place."

Although in the past few years, my mother would come over if she was free, but when she returned to the village that day...

"Sasori has become the traitor of Sand Ninja Village."

The rumors were deceived by a mysterious reincarnation eye.

"En." Hearing Qianluo's words, Xizi nodded with a smile on his face and said, "I see."

She thinks the same way, let it pass if it has passed.

She just worried about the Sasori...

As a mother, she just wants Sasori to be safe, and wait a few years for Sasori to marry and have a few children. By then, she is still young, and she will definitely be able to see her grandchildren and granddaughters in the college.

Such a life...

Plain...

Also very happy!

Chapter 610: Hiruko's Genius Biologist

Do you use this!

Uzumaki Xin sighed inwardly as he looked at White Zetsu's body that had become a tree again...

He wouldn't do anything to Absolutely. Why does he always turn into a tree after passing the news?

Could it be that White Zetsu's body can be wasted like this?

Can you change the place for greening?

He cut down the tree himself last time, and now he has to cut it again.

The greening of the office is not done like this.

"Hiruko" Uzumaki Xin touched his chin, and the corners of his mouth rose slightly, murmured, "I finally waited for you."

Hiruko...

A genius biologist who was delayed by a ninja, because of his inferiority complex, created his own ghost shoots art, and since then he has reached the pinnacle of his life.

Those who were able to live a happy life were going to provoke an external class, but they were beaten up and regretted, and even their own dog was destroyed. Life is really miserable!

"I don't know where the dog met?" Xin sighed and said, "A dog that is both capable and capable, and beautiful, is rare."

It should be almost time now. He didn't want to meet Konoha, so he only showed up until Hiruko avoided Konoha ninja...

Give him a chance to realize the value of life.

Ninja...

Not suitable for him.

...

"Are you gone?" Black Zetsu looked at White Zetsu and said, "It's time for us to act."

As long as Master Madara is taken away this time, he will never go to the Uzumaki Kingdom again, he...

The third son of the mother of Chakra also has his own dignity.

"En." White Zetsu nodded and said, "White Zetsu's body following Hiruko has returned the spores and saw that little demon appear."

He doesn't care!

Everything acted with the will of Black Zetsu.

Of course, there is also White Zetsu.

Do you want that fool to take it back?

"Then let's go." Black Zetsu said with a sigh of relief in his heart, "Otherwise Master Madara can't wait."

After all, Lord Madara is also a little older.

And the eyes of reincarnation...

That's the key to saving my mother!

Therefore, there must not be any mistakes.

After feeling Black Zetsu's return, he slowly sank to the bottom...

Time is running out!

He wanted to take advantage of Uzumaki to leave, quickly take Master Madara and White Zetsu away.
