For example.

"Why change School?" One Elder asked.

"The change should not start with he elderly people but to the youngest people of the clan, not like the elder people, the youngest member of the clan is all clean paper that we can paint as much as we want."

"The change will start to the future of the clan, and this younger people will being the change to the older members."

"Maybe it will take huge time to change because of the difference way of thinking, with he help of our younger people, the way of thinking of the older will change slowly."

"The focus of th school is not for the people who can't attend th school so we only focus to the students."

"The school is the place children learn half of the knowledge they know, if we change old tradition of our clan using the school, the progress of our clan will be faster."

"But Little Xin, why so much year to train our kids?"

"More time they spend in school, the more things they can learn, we can give them long time to learn more than sending them in early age."

"But, that's the age Ninja send to war."

"The War just end, what we need is not Shinobi, and besides we don't need to send Shinobi to other Village because we fight for our self."

"And having long time of schooling can also open new opportunity for the children, this is just my idea but I don't understand why there's only school for Ninja when there's so many type of Job available around."

All the Elder start to think, 'Is there any job that the children can chose except Ninja?'

Seeing their expression, Xin smile at them.

"Swordsman, Blacksmith, Doctor, Medicine Master, Agriculture, Masonry, Potter, Animal Breeders, and many more, you just need to think a job that available around you."

Thats right, there's so many job available for everyone, but the problem is the first thing they come up for their children is Ninja. But the question is, Why Ninja?"

"Why Ninja when there's so many safe and no need to gamble your life to earn money."

"Is it for fame?"

"But fame is the easiest thing you can get in this world, creating new things, defeating certain amount of people, earning huge amount of money, being powerful can gain you fame and titles."

"Is it for money?" Xin look at them watching their expression.

"You can eat money by being a waiter, being nanny, teaching kids, planting rice, making money is easy and you don't need to use your life to gain money."

Xin is right, there so many way to earn money if they want to, like planting, building, teaching and even a guard they can earn huge amount of money.

But why Ninja?

This is the question that everyone can't answer.

"To protect our self?" One of them doubtful said.

"You can protect your self even if you don't become a Ninja, if you are rich you can find Ninja to hire to protect you, if you are Business Man you can find bodyguard to protect you, if you blacksmith you can hire people to protect you."

"Remember, if you have money, you can protect yourself even if you're not a Ninja, the world revolves in Money, the more you have, the safer you are."

"But there's a ridiculous question appear. How to earn Money? It you ask, that the long year of school enter, the school not only teach to be a Powerful Ninja but also to teach student to earn money so someday you don't need to take mission to protect someone but to pay to protect yourself."
