

Uzumaki 631

Chapter 631: Invisible Xin

Who am I?

Where am I?

Where am i going?

Jiraiya was also confused. It was obvious that he had already learned the Sage Art of Mount Myōboku so much. How much toad oil, how many sticks he took, and how many insects did he learn the magic, and it was not perfect.

Why can that kid be able to learn by himself?

Still three!

You know that there are three perfect fairy modes!

Jiraiya was suddenly full of sadness, said with emotion, and muttered, "Is that a genius?"

His Toad Immortal suddenly didn't want to be friends with him.

Will be hit.

But don't know...

Both Fukasaku and Shima looked at the monster with one look at Uzumaki Xin, three fairy modes...

Is this something humans can learn?

Now he have a deep suspicion in my heart, what the hell does the big toad immortal want him to do?

Teach this Uzumaki Xin the Sage Art?

Does this still need to be taught?

It is estimated that he is deeply committed to adults who want this little devil to teach!

He sighed in my heart. he didn't expect such a genius to appear in the Ninja World. You must know that the god of the Ninja World was he...

It's not so powerful!

This is simply wonderful.

So what should I do next?

Fukasaku fell into silence suddenly, and said with emotion, "Big Toad Immortal, is there anything Mount Myōboku can teach?"

Do you teach the frog team?

And Uzumaki Xin...

He narrowed his eyes, looked at Fukasaku with a smile, and said, "What should we do next?"

Xin wonder if he can take a one-day trip to the Three Holy Lands in the future?

It is also good to be familiar with the future 5A attractions of Uzumaki Country, and...

The big toad fairy...

Did it dream of something again?

Why don't you see yourself, is there nothing to bring him?

To know, he is firm on the side of Hagoromo Ōtsutsuki, Hamura Ōtsutsuki, and Black Zetsu's dutiful sons!

What does Immortal Toad want to do?

Isn't he afraid that he will release Kaguya Ōtsutsuki and let Black Zetsu mother and son get together?

But now unless you get in, you won't be able to see the toad pill that instigates the relationship between mother and child.

"Or..." After a deep thought, he said, "Shall we have dinner first?"

"Try the authentic delicacies of Mount Myōboku?"

.....

Chapter 632: Dinner? Escape!

Although it is still a bit early before dinner, it doesn't know what to do except for dinner.

however...

Hearing Fukasaku's words, Uzumaki Xin's face suddenly changed and said, "No need."

Then, walking to Jiraiya's side, he pulled him up, "Suddenly we remembered that there was still something to do, so we didn't stay for dinner anymore."

He's not a Frog, and he's not interested in eating bugs.

"Eating?!"

Hearing these two words, Jiraiya also immediately recovered, nodded and said, "Yes, we need to leave quickly."

If you don't leave, you will stay here to eat bugs.

Why did he avoid the noon before bringing people over?

Isn't it just to avoid being left behind by Master Shima?

Hurry to pull the whirlpool...

Summon a toad and use the technique of inverse psychic...

"boom--!"

Disappeared.

"Actually..." Fukasaku looked at Jiraiya who had left and said with a sigh, "I still want to wait for dinner to ask Little Xin if I want to make a contract with Mount Myōboku?"

This is what the Great Toad Immortal confessed to him, but now...

Everyone has gone.

"Forget it," Shima said, "Just wait for Jiraiyai to ask him next time."

then...

Look at the sky outside...

"What should we do now?"

It's still early!

Do you really have dinner?

"We..." Fukasaku frowned and meditated for a while, and said, "Old lady, see for yourself, I'll go to the Great Immortal again."

Tell the big fairy about that red-haired kid, by the way, what should he do next?

It seems that they don't need Mount Myōboku's help at all!

"Okay." Shima nodded and said, "Then I will go find some bugs. We will have a good meal today."

She was just shocked by the three fairy modes of the red-haired boy, so she had to eat more bugs to make up for it.

Would you like to talk to Shikkotsu Forest and Ryūchi Cave next time?

Chapter 633: Penniless White Zetsu

Oh." Jiraiya glanced at Uzumaki Xin with a complicated expression, then sighed without saying anything.

He doesn't want to see this person now, he just wants to find a good place to collect materials.

"What's the matter?" Uzumaki Xin looked at Jiraiya's expression, questioningly.

Why do you look like sighing?

It's not as funny as it used to be.

Was it hit by your own three perfect fairy models?

Right...

He don't look like what a ninja should have at all. You must know that Jiraiya didn't learn the fairy mode when he died!

Sure enough, he is too genius.

Uzumaki patted Jiraiya on the shoulder, and said with emotion, "I'm not sad anymore."

"I'm not better than you..."

Just when Jiraiya raised his head, looking expectantly at Uzumaki Xin, waiting for his comfort...

"Be more handsome than you, better than you, richer than you, better than you..."

Xin said in a comforting tone, "There is nothing more."

"So, be optimistic."

"..."

He don't want to talk to you.

Is he shameless toad immortal?

Jiraiya hid his face and shook off Uzumaki's hand, he he... he wants to leave here!

Never want to see this nasty kid anymore.

"Why is it so expensive?" White Zetsu looked at the quotation that the infrastructure team gave him, and asked, "I remember that it doesn't cost so much for renovation and reconstruction, right."

I'm almost catching up to buy another set.

"This guest." The captain of the infrastructure team sighed and said, "Your place is so big! It's almost 400 square meters, and the price has been 9.9% off."

"Quite discount."

"..."

9.0% off...

White Zetsu didn't know what to say.

With doubts on his face, he said, "But this price is almost catching up with the money I bought this house at that time."

"The times have changed." The captain of the infrastructure team closed the quotation sheet and said, "Your land, this location, so much area, has now tripled."

The house price is one price a day, you think it is still before!

"So expensive?" After White Zetsu heard it, he slapped his tongue. How long has it been!

Is the house price in the country of Uzumaki so high?

"Yeah!" The captain of the infrastructure team sighed and said emotionally, "Fortunately, I bought it early." Then, looking at White Zetsu, "And the price of this reconstruction is actually not expensive. You have to know that all the materials used are good materials. what!"

"We will connect you with underfloor heating for this reconstruction, chakra hot water, just twist the faucet slightly, and hot water will come out, and..."

"Actually, I can boil the water myself." White Zetsu said weakly.

Chapter 634: Uzumaki Kingdom's State

The captain of the infrastructure team ignored what White Zetsu said, and still said to himself, "At the same time, after the renovation is completed, we will also give away some furniture, such as sofas, dining tables, chandeliers, toilets, chakra furnaces..."

"It's quite cost-effective to calculate it like this."

"And so..."

Handed over the contract, showing eight teeth, smiling and saying, "What are you waiting for?"

"Sign it!"

If you buy it, you earn it!

"In fact, we are a poor family, and we are used to living in a hole in the ground." White Zetsu shook his head and said resolutely, "I'm used to living a hard life and I'm not used to enjoying it."

No Money!

The interest rate is too high, and if this price continues to be built, it will have to cut back on food and clothing.

"In that case..." Hearing what White Zetsu said, the captain of the infrastructure team retracted the contract, sighed, and said, "Just rebuild according to the previous specifications."

"We need to know how many people want this new type of house, which is comfortable, stable, and smelly, if..."

The captain of the infrastructure team looked at the surrounding ruins and shook his head with a regretful expression.

"If it is rebuilt in this way, it can be at least four or five times, or even ten times higher!"

"Pity..."

"Such a good place."

"Ten times?!" Hearing the words of the captain of the infrastructure team, White Zetsu suddenly raised his eyelids, and then said faintly, "In fact, my family is not short of money."

"Bring the contract."

"Just like the new type of house you just mentioned."

It's okay to be a little bit tired.

As long as Lord Madara lives comfortably.

Lord Madara is already very old.

So, he, White Zetsu. It will definitely give you the best living environment for Lord Madara.

Let Lord Madara take care of the elderly.

Today, the weather is fine.

Thinking of nothing, Uzumaki Xin didn't stay in the office, planning to go for a walk.

Looking at the enthusiastic reclamation project in the eastern sea, Uzumaki Xin nodded with satisfaction. This is a great project in Uzumaki Kingdom!

Especially because of this project, the migrant workers in the country of Uzumaki are very excited and their enthusiasm for work has greatly improved.

After all, the larger the territory, the more household registration issued by the vortex country, and the greater their chances.

After living here for two years, no one wants to go back anymore.

There is a guarantee here in the Uzumaki Kingdom. As long as you don't break the law and violate the Uzumaki Kingdom's rules, then no one will care about you. Even if you are bullied, you can still call the police...

In the beginning, they would not believe it, after all, how could the superior ninja help them?

Until one day, a family of three came to the country of Uzumaki, but because they had lost their money, they had no money to eat and rent, and finally tried to go to the police, although they didn't have much money, but that was their life. Hope to go down.

Once hope is gone...

Then he won't care about that much.

As a result, on the afternoon of the call to the police, the police helped him find the money.

As for the thief, because it was the first day that he came to the country of Uzumaki and broke the law, he was driven away by the country of Uzumaki, and he was refused entry forever.

After seeing this scene...

They abide by the laws and regulations of the country of the vortex even more, because no one wants to leave here.

Chapter 635: Earth's Reclamation Method

"His Royal Highness." Ping watched Wuxi Xin come here, quickly put down his work, ran over, and said, "The Old Patriarch is out to sea, do you need him to come over?"

"Dad?" Xin looked at Ping, and said in confusion, "Why is he going to sea as the Minister of Infrastructure?"

Don't you need to watch it here?

"Should I go to open the sea reclamation equipment?" Uzumaki looked at Ping's weird expression and shook his head helplessly. It seemed that he had guessed it correctly.

Nothing...

Since Dad loves sailing so much, let him go.

He patted the shoulder flat, and said, "Forget it, you go and work on you, I just come to see it at will, and it won't disturb your work."

If not equal, walk directly to the sea in front.

Uzumaki Xin didn't know that the earth's reclamation method would not work in the Ninja World. After all, this kind of thing was only the first time, and no one could tell.

But if it fails, it is estimated that by then the Uzumaki Kingdom will really only be able to transform into the peace messenger of the Ninja world, leading more civilians in the Ninja world to bathe in the light of red doctrine.

Fortunately, there were no surprises in the preparations during this period, and it seems that it should be feasible at the moment.

Feeling the working atmosphere around him, Uzumaki Xin nodded in satisfaction. It seems that everyone is very motivated.

Especially, Xin narrowed his eyes to look at a piece of equipment under construction at sea, and muttered, "Four tails of human strength!"

This Rōshi's work attitude is quite diligent!

He heard that this beard is the most reclaimed, so this uncle has not had time to sell chakras in recent days.

"Oh." Uzumaki Xin shook his head regretfully, and said, "I also want to see if I can save a little more four-tailed chakras."

Prepare for the future!

He hope he will not indulge in reclamation.

Otherwise, without enough Chakras, Hiruko will definitely catch him to fill the Golem.

Chapter 636: Four-Tails and Roshi

"Yawn, yawn." Roshi rubbed his nose, looked at the energy controller in front of him, and muttered, "Is it because the sea breeze has blown too much these days, coupled with such serious work, has made me sick?"

"Don't be silly." Four-Tails said lightly in Roshi's mind, "I guess someone is scolding you."

"Impossible." Roshi shook his head and said, "I have been working in the country of Uzumaki for several years, and I haven't offended anyone. Who would call me?"

"Maybe it's Iwagakure?" Four-Tails pouted his lips and said disdainfully, "It's just your stubborn temper. You have forgotten those who had offended you before."

"..."

Hearing what Four-Tails said, Roshi was silent for a moment, and finally sighed and said, "You said, what if I bring the system of the Uzumaki Kingdom back to the Earth Kingdom or Iwagakure Ninja Village?"

"Being killed!!" Four-Tails squinted, without thinking, and said directly, "When you are going to die, remember to let me out. I don't want to go with you."

"How could the stubborn elders in Iwagakure Ninja Village agree to you."

"And so..."

"Don't dream, young man." Four-Tails sighed and shook his head. "You should stay here honestly."

With a house to live in and fruit candy to eat, what else do you want?

"Yes!" Roshi nodded with emotion, and said with a wry smile, "It is impossible to turn Iwagakure Village into Uzumaki Country."

Those stubborn groups will not give up their power and let the ninjas serve the people unless...

Like Uzumaki Country...

Directly destroyed Ninja Village.

"Forget it." Roshi shook his head and said, "I don't want that much anymore. I'm not a ninja from Iwagakure Ninja Village anymore."

With a smile on his face, he looked at the sea in front of him, "Quickly Four Tails, output more. Some chakras, today we have to fill in at least this area."

The more you fill, the more salary!

And so...

Why are you still stunned?

"The same way, one hundred each." Four-Tails said, "If you don't agree, just wait for overtime."

Roshi touched his teeth, raised his head and looked at the sun hanging in the sky, and muttered, "I'm going to have lunch."

Fruit soup...

When you get off work, you should do some dental care yourself.

Chapter 637: Technology Upgrade

"Are there any new inventions?" Uzumaki Xin looked at Qian Luo who was excited in front of him, and said curiously, "Come to me in such a hurry?"

Uzumaki Xin originally planned to visit the country of the vortex today, but I didn't expect that Qian Luo would be pulled over when HE saw half of it.

Looking at Qian Luo's appearance, there must be something good again.

"Successful." Qian Luo said excitedly, "That thing has succeeded."

"What did it succeed?" Uzumaki Xin looked at a Chakra balance car floating at low altitude next to him...

Is it this kind of thing?

impossible!

You must know that this kind of thing is not complicated. After all, even floating cars have come out. It is too simple to be a balance car, a pulley car.

So, it's definitely not this.

"No need to look."

Qian Luo knew what he was thinking when he saw Uzumaki Xin's gaze. He shook his head and said, "The balance bike has been successfully developed, and the production line will be established tomorrow and production will begin."

This suspension balance car is definitely easier to use than a car, convenient, simple, and able to adapt to a variety of environments.

"But this is not what I'm talking about."

Qian Luo took out a small box and said excitedly, "It's this."

"Mobile phone!"

"I have successfully developed it."

Looking at the box in Qian Luo's hand, Uzumaki Xin said in a daze, "Success? What about the number?"

To know...

The most important thing about a mobile phone is the difference between the numbers. If it can't be identified successfully, isn't it the same as a walkie-talkie?

"Successful." Qian Luo nodded and said seriously, "I got inspiration from the 'Computer Programming and Application' that you showed me."

"Dividing chakras into 0 and 1 based on the difference in concentration and frequency."

"Put these numbers together into numbers of different lengths."

"Finally, the signal tower will receive, process, distinguish them, and connect them to the numbers of their respective frequencies."

Qian Luo looked at the frowning Uzumaki Xin and asked, "Do you understand?"

"..."

Probably understand.

Uzumaki nodded expressionlessly, unexpectedly...

Ninja's phone number has actually become a computer language, forget it, 01 is not bad, anyway, it is just a recognized character.

just...

Now Uzumaki will start to rebuild the base station?

.....

Chapter 638: A Boy

"Are you going to graduate?"

Looking at the graduate firm watch in hand with confusion, he murmured, "How fast it is!"

Unexpectedly, the six-year compulsory education would pass unconsciously.

Although...

He has always been the tail of the crane in the academy, and until now, he still can't release the basic ninjutsu taught by the academy and the family, let alone the family's ninjutsu.

But he was not afraid of bringing the soil.

He has always believed in the quotations that His Royal Highness Xin had hung on the academy...

He am born to be useful! !

Even if he is not proficient in ninjutsu and hasn't turned on the writing wheel, he believes that he will succeed.

At least...

The police in Uzumaki no need a ninja, and he...

The family throwing technique is still quite proficient, of course, this is in the absence of accidents.

Brought the soil to touch his pocket, sighed, and said helplessly, "Sure enough, I forgot to bring today's shuriken."

Forget it, anyway, there will be no danger in the country of Uzumaki.

So he didn't care about bringing the soil, still with a smile on his face, and looked at the sky.

Let's go home quickly!

After dinner, go out to practice.

Today, at least one has to be proficient in the family's fireball ninjutsu.

Otherwise, continue, according to my current strength...

It is estimated that he will not be able to graduate.

How can he apply for a post in the Public Security Bureau if he don't have a diploma?

With Tu's right hand clenched his small fist, he slapped himself inwardly, then raised his head and looked at the traffic light not far away. After a moment, he hurriedly shouted, "Wait a minute."

The trotter ran towards the intersection of the traffic lights, with his hands resting on the back of the wheelchair of an old man with grey hair and wrinkled face.

With a smile on his face.

"Grandpa, let me push you over."

The traffic light intersection is so dangerous, why is this old man here alone, his family?

Really, no matter how busy you are, you can't let such an old man come out alone.

The old man raised his head and looked at the boy in front of him quietly. Suddenly, he felt something in his heart, and then nodded blankly and said, "Okay."

Chapter 639: The Five-Year Plan

It's been a long time since a five-year plan came.

Uzumaki Xin shared the information from today's meeting with Uzumaki people, saying, "This five-year plan mainly includes the "Eastern Sea Area Reclamation Plan of the Uzumaki Country" and the "Comprehensive Vortex Country". Communication Coverage Plan."

"It's all covered in detail above, you can take a look."

For this kind of major construction, it is better to make a safe plan.

It is necessary to ensure that sufficient living land is filled in within five years, and the nationwide communication in Uzumaki will be realized.

"Mobile phone?!" The patriarch looked at the introduction above and said with emotion, "I didn't expect it to be actually invented."{

With such a small box, he didn't expect to be able to exchange information. If he hadn't seen it now, he would have thought that Maelstrom was deceiving people!

"It is not possible for the Ninja world to achieve large-scale communication." Uzumaki shook his head and said, "But I believe it will be possible in the future."

The satellite launch and communication satellite related technologies have been handed over to Qian Luo. I believe that he will break through and develop the communication technologies that belong to the Ninja world.

he don't know what the big the people on the moon would think when he saw a small tail suddenly appear in the sky?

If it is destroyed by then...

Uzumaki Xin squinted his eyes and murmured, "It seems that I will have to go to heaven and tell them at that time!"

if possible...

By the way, let them take care of the satellite and perform regular maintenance on it.

Perhaps the establishment of the sky station in the future will depend on these lunar giants.

After listening to Uzumaki Xin's words, Father Uzumaki nodded and said, "Understand, I will let the infrastructure team work together."

He was dragged over for a meeting if he didn't go to sea early this morning, so he could just say what is the matter, this kind of trivial matter.

What a waste of time.

Xin is so busy, wouldn't he just look at that girl Kushina?

however...

"No, this is not the focus of today." Uzumaki Xin shook his head and said with a serious face, "Next, there is an important thing that needs your cooperation."

The five-year plan is just for convenience, and the next thing to talk about is the main point.

"What's the matter?" The patriarch frowned and said, "If we need our cooperation, you can arrange it directly."

"In that case." Uzumaki Xin nodded and said, "Then I'll talk." He sighed and looked at them with deep eyes, "War..."

"It's going to start again."

"?!"

Hearing what Uzumaki Xin said, everyone looked at Uzumaki Xin incredulously. It hadn't been long since the end of the war, why did it start?

If it's a war, wouldn't it be okay for Uzumaki to be the same as last time?

"No." Uzumaki Xin shook his head with a wry smile, and said, "This time Uzumaki country can't hide."

"Don't you find out today..."

Chapter 640: The Hero, Black Zetsu

Xin sighed and said helplessly, "This time the corner has gone out to perform the task."

What Jiraiya said about leaving was not a joke, because he was worried about other and the mysterious organization.

He left a few days ago, and Kabuto also set off with him, but he would not go with Jiraiya.

Konoha's will turn to the country of iron at the halfway corner, after all, take the Shinobi sword to Konoha...

He guess, he won't be able to say "I fought against the god of Ninja World" anymore.

Uzumaki is about to change Minister of Finance.

"You also know the real situation in Uzumaki Country."

He had already picked up so many blood heirs, coupled with the opening up to the outside world, so many civilians and ninjas have poured into it. If so many years have passed, he would not believe it if other Ninja villages still don't know those blood heirs!

"So..." Uzumaki Xin squinted his eyes and said, "We can only buy more time if we muddy the water."

The current situation in the Uzumaki Kingdom is definitely not suitable for domestic warfare. Once war is declared, they must be blocked outside.

So many people, so many buildings, so many base stations...

Even if you win a war in the Uzumaki Kingdom, you will suffer heavy losses!

"But it won't be long." Xin shook his head and said, "At most two years or so, at least three months, that's when the war begins

How long it can last depends on whether Black Zetsu is hard or not.

"So, now we are about to enter the pre-war preparations."

"All materials, equipment, and plans must be prepared."

Xin looked at the patriarch and them, and said seriously, "The country of Uzumaki can only win, not defeat."

Once defeated, Uzumaki will die without a burial place, and now everything will make wedding dresses for other countries and Shinobi Village.

And so...

It's all on you...

Absolutely! !

Forty years in Ninja World, late autumn.

"Yawn, yawn." Black Zetsu shivered and murmured, "Why do you suddenly feel a little cold?"

"It should be winter." White Zetsu editated for a moment and said, "This autumn is almost over. What should we do with pollen?"

"Is that so?" Black Zetsu frowned and said, "Even if it really enters winter, I shouldn't feel cold!"

He is his mother... Black Zetsu, he is not a human at all, how could he be afraid of the cold?

"I don't know." White Zetsu spread out his hands and said helplessly, "I can't feel it anyway."

"..."

Black Zetsu looked at him speechlessly, sighed, and asked, "Is there any news from the recent White Zetsu clone?"

Still have to investigate clearly!

You must know that Black Zetsu can rely on the strength of such a dish to survive until now, relying on caution.

and so...

In any case, you have to check it out. .

"Yes." White Zetsu nodded, pondered, and said, "White Zetsu from Land of Earth, there was news yesterday."

"He found a nice flower field in North Part, and asked if we should go pick it?"

"..."

Is this important?

Black Zetsu raised a black line on his forehead, raised his eyelids, and asked, "Are we gathering enough funds now?"

"It's a little worse," White Zetsu said, "But the nearby flower fields have to be collected."

Hearing this, Black Zetsu was silent for a moment. Finally, he sighed and said, "Then go."

If there is no money, the mother's organization will not develop.

"Hurry up and take advantage of this time to collect more."

"Otherwise, it will be late in winter, by the way..."

"Let White Zetsu ambush in the major Ninja villages take a look, what happened recently?"

Be careful, he must be dark...

In order to rescue mother, there must be no accident.
