

Uzumaki 641

Chapter 641: Konoha Village

Konoha Village

Hokage's Building.

"I'm back?" Sarutobi Haruzen looked at the white-haired Jiraiya in front of him with satisfaction, nodded, then frowned, and asked seriously, "What did you find in Uzumaki Kingdom?"

He knew that Jiraiya was also in the country of the Uzumaki, and for this reason, he did not send a spy to the country of the Uzumaki.

Konoha is still very clear about the situation in Uzumaki Country from time to time, and has been waiting for Jiraiya's information.

"The country of the Uzumaki is nothing, except that there are a bit more people than before."

Jiraiya spared his head, looked at the old man, and said, "It's just that I have something important to tell you when I come back this time."

As for the situation of the Senju Clan and Uchiha Clan...

For the sake of peace in the Ninja world, his toad immortal will definitely guard his mouth.

"I will leave when it's done."

"Is it important?" Sarutobi Haruzen groaned for a moment, and said, "What's the matter?"

It's certainly not easy to let this stinky kid take a special trip.

Jiraiya was silent for a while, staring at his teacher intently, "The legendary Weapon..."

He said word by word, "Fire! It! High! Xing."

...

Tsunade walked on the road, looking at Konoha as usual, and muttered, "Is this the village that Grandpa and Second Grandpa have to protect their lives?"

She was...

Still can't get out!

"Perhaps it's not bad to have such a peaceful life." Tsunade shook his head with a trace of self-deprecation on his face, and said, "Anyway, there is still a lot of money in the clan, and I can't spend it alone."

When Jiraiya came back, she asked him where he was fun.

She continued to stay in the village, which was quite boring. Apart from telling the medical ninjas about surgery, she had nothing to do.

Moreover, she still couldn't see blood. Once she saw blood, she was scared and could not move.

She had known that she would be able to leave with Jiraiya at that time.

"I don't know how Shizune has read the book I gave her yesterday?" Tsunade murmured, "It's been so many years..."

Shizune will also graduate and become a ninja at that time, so why not go out with her to stray.

She believe that the legacy of the Senju clan is enough for them to live a lifetime, and there is nothing good about being a ninja.

Where should she go?

Just when Tsunade pondered where he was going for the first stop.

"Tsunade."

Chapter 642: Tsunade

"Tsunade!"

Suddenly, when she heard someone calling her behind her, Tsunade's mouth rose slightly unconsciously, turned his head, and looked at the white-haired young man who waved to him, and said in a disdainful tone, "I didn't expect your crane tail to come back. ??"

She glanced up and down at Jiraiya, "What's wrong? Have you found the Son of Destiny as your apprentice?"

"Hehe."

Jiraiya also secretly glanced at Tsunade's car lights, with a wretched smile on his face, and said, "No, there is something to come back temporarily this time, and I will leave in a few days."

"Call Orochimaru at night, shall we have a drink together?"

It seems bigger than before?

Why didn't he see Tsunade's potential back then?

What a pity.

He sighed regretfully, and walked to Tsunade's side without waiting for Tsunade's answer.

Jiraiya knew that he didn't have to wait for Tsunade's answer. At night, he just needed to find a good place and bring the money to pay the bill.

"Konoha is still the same as before!" Jiraiya muttered, looking at the people coming and going, "It's still so peaceful."

When he returned, he heard about Sakumo's suicide.

Jiraiya didn't know why the old man didn't stop it? Watching the rumors intensify, he finally forced Konoha White Fang to commit suicide.

Do not know either...

Why did Sakumo's teammates betray him in the end?

Jiraiya doesn't want to know anything now.

The harmonious village that once made me proud and loved, after seeing the Uzumaki Kingdom, now looks at everything so naive and ridiculous.

"It's better to be the country of Uzumaki!" Jiraiya said with emotion.

"What's so good about that poor place?" Tsunade frowned and said with a flat mouth. "It's not like I haven't been."

In an island country, there are not many people, and the house is not beautifully built, much worse than Konoha. Apart from Joan, there is nothing special.

"..."

Hear what Tsunade said. Jiraiya also fell silent for a while.

At that time, it was Tsunade who said nonsense to him, making him think that Uzumaki was a poor place, so he could do it by himself, and as a result...

he declared bankrupt on the afternoon of the day I went.

He smiled helplessly and said, "Now the country of Uzumaki has changed a long time ago."

"It's not a poor place anymore, it's even richer than Konoha in a certain way."

Or...

If no one stops it, Uzumaki will definitely surpass Konoha in the future.

Senju, Uchiha, Kamizuri, Chiyo Clan...

So much blood continues to gather together, and give the Uzumaki country a little more time...

Jiraiya did not know how strong the Uzumaki Council was.

Fust...

"Really?" Tsunade looked at Jiraiya suspiciously, and said, "No matter how small a place is, can it surpass Konoha?"

This is impossible.

As the granddaughter of Grandma Mito, it's not that she doesn't know the real situation in Uzumaki Country.

Little people and few people, there are not many resources at all, coupled with the whirlpool clan's appetite like a rice bucket, if you can not starve to death, the god of fate will be blessed.

Still want to drop?

Jiraiyai also smiled and didn't refute it.

"If you have time, go and check it out." The corner of his mouth raised slightly and said, "You will definitely feel incredible."

Although he promised Senju Hen not to tell Tsunade, what if Tsunade discovered it himself?

Then it doesn't matter to him toad immortal.

"By the way, where's Orochimaru?"

"What have you been doing these years?"

Chapter 643: Legend Weapon Continue

The country of wind.

Looking at the barren desert in front of him, except for the sand or the sandy desert, Uzumaki Xin sighed and murmured, "This is the result of arbitrarily logging!"

There is still some distance from the Rōran but...

Not far or near is just right.

"That's it." Xin frowned and looked around. Not far from the village, there were no people nearby, and there was Dragon Veins not far away.

The legendary Weapon does not appear here, where does it appear!

If it's just dragon veins...

Although very curious about what will happen in the future.

Whether the son of destiny is blond, black or red, or whether the road of Roran in the country of Uzumaki will work, Uzumaki is very curious about all of these, but it is not the time yet!

"Let's go and see when everything is resolved."

Uzumaki Xin sighed. Now the situation of the war is not clear, and the Uzumaki country is still unstable, he doesn't dare to run around at will.

Take out a sand attribute Shinobi from the space.

Sand of the wind? fool?

After looking at the hilt of the knife that had been engraved with primitive characters, Xin sighed. He still couldn't think of a good name!

Feel free!

Anyway, what do you care about so many things that will be mass-produced?

In order to make the plot perfect, some props are still necessary.

Just...

Tens of billions...

Can't give up thinking about it.

"Don't worry, I will pick you up in a few days." Uzumaki Xin murmured as he stroked the sands of the wind, "Now..."

You can play the legendary Ninja sword here quietly.

Konoha Village

"What do you think?" Sarutobi Haruzen looked at the high-level man he had selected in front of him, sighed, and said, "Would you like to participate in this auction of Konoha?"

"This..." Koharu glanced at Homura, and finally shook his head, and said, "Now Konoha already has Frostmourne. If we are happy with the fire, other Ninja villages will definitely Will be dissatisfied."

And..

What the hell is that Frostmourne?

Why hasn't anyone awakened the sword spirit after so many years?

Now it's almost a chicken rib, although Shinobi is very useful, but...

Who is it for?

Who dare to use it?

What should I do if I get robbed?

You know that this ninja sword is worth tens of billions anyway!

Chapter 644: Elder's Plan

"Is that so?" Sarutobi Haruzen frowned when he heard Koharu Utatane's words, and said, "You make sense."

As for why the Uzumaki Kingdom will be auctioned?

Sarutobi Haruzen guessed that it must be because the country was too poor due to the absence of Shinobi Village, and the Shinobi sword was put out for auction because no one could wake it up.

Otherwise...

Who doesn't want the power of the god of ninja world?

What if it accidentally caused other Shinobi to awaken the sword spirit?

When the time comes, Mu... won't the Shinobi world be very dangerous?

It is not that Ninja Village is like Konoha, who loves peace so much.

"Actually..." Koharu Utatane thought for a while and said, "Perhaps the situation is not that complicated."

"Oh?" Sarutobi Ri was taken aback for a moment, watching Xiaochun turning to bed, and asked, "What can you do?"

Koharu Utatane looked at Sarutobi Haruzen, and said faintly, "Change."

"That Frostmourne exchanges the joy of fire."

"Maybe we were wrong at first..."

"It's not that no one in Konoha can awaken the sword spirit, but it is impossible to awaken it at all?"

Turning to bed, the corner of Koharu Utatane's mouth rose slightly. As the brain of this organization, her responsibility is still great!

"Frostmourne was originally the national treasure of the Water Country, and maybe only the ninjas of the Water Country have the hope of awakening."

"And the fire is happy..." Koharu Utatane narrowed his eyes and said word by word, "It has been in the country of fire since ancient times."

When he heard Koharu Utatane.

Sarutobi Haruzen and Danzo suddenly felt bright, frowned and thought for a while, and said, "What you said is possible."

Otherwise, why didn't Konoha so many proud of heaven awaken the sword spirit?

Since the sword spirit is wise, maybe people are so patriotic?

"What if others don't change it?" Sarutobi Haruzen frowned and said, "If it's the Hidden Mist Village, it would be nice to say, other Shinobi Village..."

If they think so, they will definitely not change. After all, if they can't wake up, why do they change?

Let Konoha appear the god of ninja world? This is simply impossible.

"Let Hidden Mist Village take action." Koharu Utatane thought for a while, and said, "Tell Hidden Mist Village that if they get the joy of fire, the Uzumaki Kingdom will exchange it with them."

I believe that for the sake of national treasures, Hidden Mist Village and Water Country will both fight desperately.

As for no money...

"Konoha will be humanitarian and will lend to them at a very low interest rate."

"This..." Sarutobi Haruzen heard Homura Mitokado's words and was silent for a while, and said, "Just do what you said."

"For interest..."

"Forget it, it's Hidden Mist Village anyway, if you push them too much..."

"Ri Zan..." Hearing the words of Haruzen, Homura Mitokado suddenly cried out uncomfortably, "Know Konoha..."

However...

Chapter 645: Indecisive Haruzen

Koharu Utatane and Homura Mitokado finished speaking, Sarutobi Haruzen shook his head, sighed, and said, "Ninja world has just calmed down for a while, and Konoha can't start a war."

"And..."

Looking at them with deep gaze, Koharu Utatane.

"That mysterious organization is still watching from behind, and we absolutely cannot relax for a moment."

Hearing from Jiraiya, they seemed to be plotting something, especially collecting the legendary Ninja sword. There must be some conspiracy.

It may take five Ninja villages to unite.

"You..." Koharu Utatane looked at Sarutobi Haruzen, and finally sighed and said, "It's up to you."

Haruzen was still too indecisive.

"In that case, I will arrange it."

"En." Seeing that his friend hadn't rejected his decision, Sarutobi nodded with satisfaction, and said, "Then this mission..."

Glancing at Danzo...

Forget it, maybe Danzo will be so lucky when it comes to awakening the sword spirit?

It is still unclear what Danzo wants to do, Sarutobi Hiruzen will not easily let Danzo leave his line of sight.

His apprentices have all come back, and they happen to be familiar with Jiraiya, so let Jiraiya run with Tsunade.

Especiallly Tsunade...

It's not bad to go out for a break.

"Let Jiraiya also go with Tsunade." Sarutobi Haruzen took a cigarette and said, "I believe the two of them will be able to handle all this."

As for the Five Shadows League...

When have they seen him leave Konoha for nothing?

You must know that he is Konoha's shadow, and you must protect Konoha!

Nothing big is going to leave the village.

Moreover, Konoha is so talented that he does not need his presence.

"That's the decision." Sarutobi Hitoshi looked at Koharu Uatatane, and said, "You are ready for the funds you need this time, pay attention, and don't hand it over to Tsunade."

Otherwise...

It's easy to disappear.

...

Hidden Sand Village

As usual, everyone wrapped their heads and covered the dust, continuing their lives.

Suddenly...

Rumble!

All the Sand Ninja villages felt a violent vibration and unconsciously raised their heads to look around.

Until...

"what is that?"

Chapter 646: Sandstorm

"Sandstorm!"

Everyone raised their heads and looked incredible at the terrifying dust that chakra integrated into the sky.

This this... too frightening! !

They who live in the village of Sand Ninja, have never seen a sandstorm, but...

They had never seen such a terrible huge sandstorm.

Cover the sky!

The turbulent yellow sand rolls in like a huge wave.

"Swish-!"

Sand Shinobi looked at each other as if they felt something.

Chakra!

They felt the fluctuations of Chakra from the sky full of yellow sand, and their eyes immediately condensed. This time the sandstorm did not seem to be a natural occurrence!

It's just such a terrible sandstorm, what a huge chakra is needed!

"Cangxiang, hurry up and report to Master Kazekage." One of the foreheads tied up with a headscarf, Sharen said with a solemn expression, "The rest of the people sounded the alarm and followed me to evacuate the villagers."

This sandstorm...

It's definitely not simple. Who could be able to make such a huge storm?

Or maybe...

What is he going to do to Sunin Village?

"Yes!" Everyone felt that things were not easy, and nodded seriously, and then started their own actions.

No matter who the enemy is...

As Sand Ninja, they won't let anyone hurt but Sand Ninja Village.

"It's magnificent!" Uzumaki Xin looked at the ninjutsu he used, and said with emotion, "It is estimated that the sand ninjas should be aware of something wrong now."

This is the scenery that the legendary cutting tool should have!

Nothing special how can he bluff others, and...

Seeing this scene in front of you, other ninjas in Ninja Village will definitely notice that something is wrong, and when that happens, they will come out and give Black Zetsu hatred, tusk...

He wish you good luck.

He hope Black Zetsu can carry it a little longer.

"Master Kazekage." Pakura hurried to the Kazekage Building and said, "Outside..."

However, she haven't finished speaking yet.

"I already know." Kazekage nodded, with a pensive expression on her face, and said, "Did the villagers disperse?"

He had noticed such a terrible sandstorm a long time ago. If he hadn't closed the windows in time, the office might be covered with yellow sand.

"What an amazing Chakra!" Kazekage said emotionally, "Go down immediately, let all the ninjas be defensive, and open the whole village to prepare for battle at the same time."

"And send ninjas to explore around."

"Look at who the hell is doing the trick?"

A ninja with such a huge chakra is definitely not an ordinary person.

"Yes!" Pakura condensed, nodded in response, and immediately turned around to arrange Master Kazekage's task.

Right now...

She can't relax for a moment!

.....

Chapter 647: Own Condition

"Sister, don't you go out and take a look?" Ebizōg said with a blank expression, shaking his hook, "There seems to be something wrong outside."

Even the preparatory alarm sounded.

Isn't it just a few years, the war has begun?

These ninjas are too boring.

"Hey." Chiyo smiled and said, "No, no."

"Since we are all retired, don't join in the fun, or else what should I do if it gets in the eyes of Master Kazekage?"

"I believe Master Kazekage will take care of Sura."

In the past few years, she has been staying in the back mountain with Ebizo, and will not go out if nothing happens.

Now she also want to understand, what to do with so much contention?

It is estimated that Master Kazekage hopes that the two of them will be fishing here honestly, and don't go out to brush their faces!

She just saw Sasori a few days ago, and it has grown a lot taller!

Just join the army...

Qian Luo's couple is also true, can't you let Saori stay by their side?

It's not bad to be a teacher or do experiments with Qian Luo in the mechanical department!

Peace...

It will not last long.

That red-haired kid is too naive, as long as there are ninjas and strength, then war is inevitable.

If Sasori had an accident at that time, their young couple would have to bear it.

"That's right." Ebizō nodded and said, "Our sisters and brothers have already retired, so let's just leave it alone."

Looking at the small pond in front of me with emotion...

"It's better to fish!"

It's just that this fish pond is a bit small and there are no fish.

"By the way, my sister went to see Scorpion a few days ago."

...

Konoha Village

"It's going to work hard for you to go out again." Sarutobi Hiruzen looked at Jiraiya in front of him, nodded in satisfaction, and said with a smile, "This task is left to you and Tsunade, I hope nothing will happen. ."

He think the shortest one he brought back then has grown up now.

And...

From the back of the crane that year, they caught up with Orochimaru and Tsunade step by step.

Chapter 648: Jiraiya Try to Escape Again

"Old man, since you know that I've worked hard, why are you sending me out?" Jiraiya said helplessly, "Can't you change to someone else?"

He only came back yesterday.

Is this going to perform the task again?

Jiraiya also plan to come back to collect some money, live for a period of time, and then go to the country of Uzumaki!

To know...

The little ghosts of Uzumaki Kingdom are still waiting for him to go to class.

"Oh." Sarutobi Haruzen sighed, stood up, took a cigarette, and said helplessly, "Who can Konoha send out now?"

"Except for you and Tsunade who can reassure me, the rest..."

It is too dangerous.

What if the sword spirit is awakened suddenly for no reason?

Although he believes in his heart that Konoha's ninjas love Konoha and insist on the will of fire, but...

What should I do if there is an accident?

And this time, although it was an auction on the surface, it was a Five Shadows Conference anyway!

As Hokage's apprentice, if the old man doesn't come forward, doesn't he need you to come forward?

"Where is Danzo consultant?" Jiraiya also pondered for a while, and said, "He is also very suitable!"

It's not suitable at all, OK!

"He has other missions." Sarutobi Haruzen shook his head and said helplessly, "Although Danzo is also very suitable for him, he has other important missions and he cannot go to the Iron Country."

"So..." Jiraiya sighed and said, "Tsunade's situation..."

"I know too." Sarutobi Haruzen waved his hand, interrupting Jiraiya, and said, "Tsunade can't do it because of a panic disorder, but..."

"Maybe it's all right to go out and relax?"

"And..."

Sarutobi Haruzen had a kind smile on his face.

"Not only are you two this time, I will also arrange other ninjas."

As long as Tsunade doesn't see the blood, he will be fine. The strength is still good. With the rest of Shannin, I believe that even if he encounters trouble, he can solve it.

"In that case." Jiraiya nodded helplessly, and said, "I'll run again."

It seems that the old man will not let him go.

but...

"Where are the rest?"

As soon as Jiraiya's voice fell, there was a knock on the door.

"Boom!"

"It's already here." Seeing that Jiraiya agreed, Sarutobi Haruzen nodded, and smiled at the door and shouted, "Come in."

"Lord Hokage."

A blond young man with a gentle smile on his face walked in and said respectfully to Hokage, then turned his head and looked at Jiraiya...

"Teacher Jiraiya..."

Chapter 649: Xin Plan, Minato

After feeling the sand ninja, Uzumaki hides behind him.

he plan to wait a few days for the entire Ninja world to know that after Sand Ninja Village dug up the legendary Ninja sword, they will go to the show to perform the whole trick. As for now...

Let's go back to the country of Uzumaki.

He believe that the horns should arrive in the country of iron, and other Shinobi villages should also receive the auction information...

At that time, the Shinobi sword from Sand Ninja Village will be added.

Other countries will definitely think that their own country also had the legendary Ninja sword back then.

It was just lost.

Especially Hidden Rock Ninja Village and Hidden Cloud Ninja Village...

As the five big countries and the five big Ninja villages, who would think that oneself is worse than others?

So he will definitely think...

When Uchiha Shino went to their Shinobi village, he was stealing Shinobi. Then, his heart was full of anger, new hatred and old hatred. Finally, he declared war on the Goddess League and asked them to return the Shinobi.

Otherwise, there are only two of them in the Five Ninja Villages, and they will definitely fight.

Because who can be sure that Konoha and the others will not be able to wake up the sword spirit in the end?

Therefore, for the peace of Ninja Village, either no one has the legendary Ninja sword, or everyone has the legendary Ninja sword.

It can be said...

If only Konoha possesses the legendary Shinobi, the situation has not been broken. The four major Shinobi villages will not be afraid of Konoha, and Konoha has not been able to awaken the sword spirit, who is afraid of whom.

But when peace was broken...

The number of Ninja villages who get Ninja swords is equal to two, or more than two...

Who can be sure that these Ninja villages won't unite?

Especially as the village head, they will never rest assured that they will trust the peace in the verbal agreement of other Shinobi villages.

"Happy for a few more days." Uzumaki Xin murmured as he looked at Sand Ninja Village, "You know this is a ninja sword worth tens of billions!"

These poor ghosts in Sand Ninja Village must have never seen such a huge sum of money.

But...

He will be back for recycling in a few days.

"Teacher Jiraiya." Minato said with a signature smile on his face, looking at Jiraiya, "It's been a long time since I saw you."

When he worshipped Jiraiya and became a teacher, he did not expect...

Except for signing the Mount Myoboku contract, Mr. Jiraiya ran away and didn't teach him anything.

In the end, he could only look at the notes handed to him by Jiraiya, and study it slowly by himself, really...

An irresponsible teacher!

"Haha!" Jiraiya also saw Minato's complaining eyes, and quickly turned his head away, slapped haha, and said, "Yes!"

"Unexpectedly, Minato is now on Jonin."

"It really deserves to be my apprentice!"

"..."

Chapter 650: Jiraiya Uncertainty

"..."

Teacher Jiraiya is still the same, not changing at all.

Minato smiled helplessly and said, "How long will Teacher Jiraiya stay here this time?"

"How long do you stay here!" Jiraiya looked at the peaceful Konoha in front of him, and said in silence, "How does do you feel about Konoha?"

"Very good." Minato was taken aback, and then, with a gentle smile on his face, said, "It's quiet and harmonious."

"I believe there should be no other Shinobi Village like Konoha in the Ninja World."

"Really?" Jiraiya also heard Minato's words, shook his head, smiled, and said, "Perhaps you are right."

Don't tell me about the Uzumaki country.

This is also for the good for Minato.

After all... Minato is a ninja after all.

however...

"Teacher, what's the matter?" Seeing Jiraiya's expression, Minato said curiously, "Is there a Ninja Village more harmonious than Konoha?"

How do you feel that the teacher seems to be hiding something from him.

"No." Jiraiya also regained his senses, and said cheerfully, "Teacher has been in the Ninja World for so many years, and I have never seen a Ninja Village better than Konoha."

Absolutely not!

Uzumaki is not Ninja Village, so the toad immortal made no mistake.

"Yes!" Although he thought the teacher was a little weird, since the teacher didn't say anything, Minato didn't continue to ask. He nodded and said emotionally, "It's better for Konoha."

He was an orphan back then, and he didn't starve to death by relying on Konoha's relief, until now he has become Jonin.

He absolutely does not allow anyone to sabotage all of this.

"Hokage." Minato said firmly in his heart, "I will definitely become Hokage."

Guard all this with your own life.

Jiraiya was also pleased to pat Minato on the shoulder and said, "Let's go, our master and apprentice have not eaten together for so long."

"In the afternoon, if you don't understand ninjutsu, you can come and ask me."

"And so..."

"You paid for this meal.... "

He really has no money.

Tsunade, who inherited the huge legacy of Senju, was so stingy that he actually ate the most.

It makes sense for her to grow bigger.

It's just Orochimaru...

It seems to have changed.

Jiraiya couldn't say anything, although he was still as untalkative as before, but this time his smile seemed to be even more gloomy.

What is Orochimaru doing in the past few years?

Asking Tsunade didn't know.

Oh, forget it.

Anyway, staying in the village, nothing should happen.

Moreover, Konoha looked at the old man, even if something went wrong, it wouldn't be a big deal.
