

Uzumaki 651

Chapter 651: Obito and Madara

Uzumaki Kingdom

"What a waste!"

Madara looked at a little devil who was training physical skills and Uchiha's exclusive ninjutsu-the art of fireball.

He sighed, shook his head helplessly, and muttered, "If not If you turn on the writing wheel, the kid will be like this for the rest of his life."

He could feel the potential of this little devil, he was a variant of Uchiha who had good thoughts and a bad brain.

Originally, he had to train Uchiha's throwing technique today, but...

There is no cutting tool bag.

And...

Looking at the appearance of this kid, Madara probably didn't forget to bring it once or twice.

He wanted to get angry, but after thinking about it...

Forget it.

I'm all old, and I haven't had a good life for a few years, so I don't care about that much.

Madara really didn't see, closed his eyes and lay on the wheelchair, basking in the warm sun.

However...

"Is Grandpa Madan tired?" Seeing that Madara closed his eyes, Obito immediately ran over, with a smirk on his face, and asked, "Should we just stop here today?"

"Come again tomorrow."

"I think with the help of Grandpa Madara, I have made great progress."

Last time I helped Grandpa Madara push his wheelchair across the road, and then...

Unexpectedly, this grandfather Madara is actually a legendary teacher in the academy, and taught the teachers of genius seniors such as Mu Xinsu, Uchiha Kei, Uzumaki Nagato, Conan, Yahiko and so on.

Suddenly...

Obito was excited, and hurriedly begged Grandpa Madara to teach him.

He also wants to become stronger!

Then, every day when he is free at noon, he will follow Grandpa Ban to train.

"Shut up, don't want to be lazy." Madara opened his eyes and looked at the dirt with a smirk on his face, and said lightly, "If you can't use the fireball technique skillfully today, don't go home."

Still want to leave?

Really, when he was a class teacher a few years ago, he was in vain!

"Okay, Grandpa Ban." When Obito saw Grandpa Madara's appearance, knowing that Grandpa Madara was angry, he quickly turned his head back to the training ground.

He knew that if he was not obedient, Grandpa Ban would definitely beat him.

Just...

"I'm obviously training very seriously." Obito murmured, "I'm not lazy."

"Humph!"

Madara's cold snort suddenly came from behind.

"Don't hurry up to train."

"Yes." Obito shivered and said quickly, "I will train now."

Don't talk nonsense and train hard.

And spot...

Looking at the soiled back, he shook his head, the corners of his mouth rose slightly, and he murmured, "Maybe..."

"It's not bad not to open the writing wheel eye."

Chapter 652: 'Lucky?' Kazekage

"Is it the legendary ninja sword?" Kazekage muttered, looking at the quaint ninja sword handed by the ninja below, "this kind of ninja sword also exists in the Kingdom of Wind?"

Unexpectedly, that horrible sandstorm was caused by this ninja sword.

Just...

Land of Wind...

Is history so far?

"I don't know." A Shinobi shook his head and said, "Ninjas have been arranged to investigate, but I found that the history is still the same as in other countries."

"Disappeared."

After flipping through it all afternoon, the ancient books are still beautiful.

He has arranged for someone to investigate in the Daming district of the Kingdom of Wind to see if he can find anything?

"Unknown thousand years!" Kazekage said with emotion, then, taking up the Shinobi sword, staring fiercely, "The power of the god beyond the world of Shinobi."

It is indeed a ninja that can send out sandstorms to cover the sky and the sun!

For such a huge Chakra, Kazekage's mouth raised slightly, and he gently stroked the quaint sword hilt. If he could be recognized by the sword spirit...

Ninja world is the world of Sand Ninja Village.

As for the name of the Kingdom of Wind?

Now let's see if he dare to get stuck with the funds of Sand Shinobi Village.

Just...

How to wake up the sword spirit?

He knew that Konoha had not succeeded in any ninja until now.

"It seems that I will really participate in that auction in a few days." Kazekage sighed and said emotionally, "Maybe I can find something?"

If they don't have money in Ninja Village...

But it's okay to join in the fun.

"Go down." Kazekage said to Jonin in front of him, and then looked at Shinobi sword again.

The legendary Ninja sword...

He will study it hard tonight.

And...

"Ninja World..." Kazekage muttered, looking at the Ninja Village, which had returned to peace after pulling out the Ninja sword, "The wind is about to rise again."

No ninja village wants to see other ninja villages mastering such a powerful force.

Unless...

They also own it.

.....

Chapter 653: Food Planning

Uzumaki Kingdom

"The new corn seed you want has been researched." Hiruko pointed to the experimental product next to him, complaining, "If you want to increase production, you can inject life medicine."

"Why is it so troublesome?"

"You don't understand." Xin shook his head and said, "Is this genetically modified corn harmful to the human body?"

How precious are life potions!

Is it possible to let others know casually?

He just wanted to see if Hiruko could study foods that are beneficial to the human body.

It would be too monotonous to rely on life medicine alone.

"That's not true." Hiruko shook his head and said, "Even this modified gene corn tastes quite good. It is easy to cause obesity for ordinary people, three highs."

"Elevated nutrients?" Uzumaki Xin said, frowning, "Where is the ninja?"

If I remember correctly, this corn is a plant!

Even if there is too much vegetable oil, there shouldn't be this kind of problem.

"En." Hiruko nodded and said, "I implanted a wild boar gene in it, and it turned out that the obesity gene can actually recombine with the maize gene."

"As for the ninja..."

"Because the ninja is able to absorb food quickly, this kind of corn can quickly be converted into the nutrients the ninja needs."

"..."

There is this kind of operation!

Uzumaki Xin was shocked, he deserves to be someone who can synthesize himself into a monster!

Actually recombined the genes of plants and animals.

"Work hard." Uzumaki Xin patted Hiruko on the shoulder, and said with emotion, "You will definitely leave a fortune in the history of the Ninja world."

The country of Uzumaki needs an expert like you.

It is estimated that the gods of the Ninja World will not be as famous as you!

Have to experiment.

Uzumaki Xin touched his mouth, and pondered for a while. After all, genetic modification is possible. Maybe it's okay now. What happens if you take it for a long time?

"It seems that we have to let Card play a good advertisement!"

Xin shook his head and said emotionally, "Sell more expensive."

Sell it to the nobles in the Ninja world.

I believe they will be interested in this new type of crops.

Hearing what Xin said, Hiruko didn't care, people like him who were so cruel to him, let alone to others.

And... This kind of corn is undead.

Although he did not stay long in the Uzumaki Kingdom.

But this Uzumaki country daimyo really didn't want him to do other things.

Just... There are so many boring things to experiment...

"Others, I'm doing it too." Hiruko sighed and said helplessly, "It might be necessary to be late."

"It's okay." Xin nodded indifferently, and said, "The Uzumaki country is not short of food now."

Chapter 654: Winter

Early Winter

This winter came later than the winter of previous years.

And the country of iron...

Because of the legendary Ninja sword, this year is particularly lively, whether it is rich or not, the big ninja village or the small ninja village come to join in the fun.

After all, the Frostmourne that was frozen thousands of miles away sounded too scary.

If it hadn't been for someone to witness it.

It is estimated that no one will believe it, so this time, they all came to pay respects to the legendary Shinobi, as for the film...

After thinking about it, stop making trouble.

The Five Ninja Villages weren't made by themselves, but by their strength!

"Konoha, hum." Raikage looked at the Konoha team that appeared in the Iron Kingdom and sneered, "That old monkey's face is really big."

They are all the heads of their respective villages, but where is Konoha?

Actually sent the apprentice over.

Is this looking down on their four Ninja Villages?

Even if it is two of Konoha Sannin, but...

That's just the hard blow of Hanzo.

At that time, the three ninjas were all tired, and if it weren't for the end of the war, Hidden Rain Village would suffer heavy losses if they continued to fight. It is estimated that Hanzo would want to be ruthless.

Even if their strength has strengthened in the past few years, his Lei Ying won't be persuaded!

Tsunade glanced at the three generations of Raikage, then turned her head and walked in.

She was really not in the mood to play with them. If the old man asked her to come and relax, she wouldn't want to come. Konoha's casino is still waiting for her to kill the Quartet. It.

And Jiraiya also...

"Teacher, he is not free." Jiraiya also looked at Raikage cheerfully, Tsunade can be so self-willed, but he can't come by himself!

In any case, he now represents Hokage, so...

You can't lose your momentum, nor can you lose your politeness.

On the way to the country of iron, Jiraiya also discovered...

That book is simply cheating.

If you don't find Tsunade, people can ignore you all the way.

and so...

He is a toad immortal, the dream of thousands of young girls in the Ninja world, so why go to school with books.

It's just that I got a lot of punches along the way, it still tastes the same, I'm used to it.

If you don't get beaten, you feel uncomfortable.

"Humph." Raikage saw the hippie smile of Jiraiya and the disdain of the granddaughter of the god of the Ninja world, and said nothing, snorted coldly, and walked in.

He... Disdain to quarrel with juniors.

Chapter 655: Kakuzu's Journey

"Has it already started?" Xin muttered, looking at the intelligence in his hand, "I don't know if I can't hold Kakuzu?"

After all, so many shadows.

If there are only one or two shadows, the old Kakuzu can still resent and yell that I will be five to five times away from the god of Ninja World.

If you meet five...

Hey, don't think about it. If you continue to think about it, he will have to figure out the next Minister of Finance. People are all outside as the country of the Uzumaki. If you do, I'm so sorry to him.

When Kakuzu left, he had already reminded him not to get into the eyes of the money, no matter how much money, in the end, you must sell the Shinobi sword, otherwise...

Surely many people will block him on the road.

"I hope he can remember it." Xin sighed and murmured.

If you forget...

Uzumaki Kingdom really wants to change the Minister of Finance.

As for now...

"Since Kakuzu has left." The corner of Xin's mouth raised slightly, "It's time to finish the rest of the scene."

He...

As the most talented screenwriter in the Ninja world, the best director and the most dedicated actor...

Will not let the script eunuch.

Uzumaki Kingdom

The whole Ninja world has begun to enter the cold winter.

Although the lakes and rivers in the country of the Uzumaki have not frozen yet, some people have already begun to prepare winter supplies.

After all, sea fishing has stopped, and some fish and meat must be prepared.

"There will be winter catches in a few days!" A commoner looked at the colleague who was carrying the big bags in front of them home, and said in surprise, "Why do you buy so much?"

Moreover, the Uzumaki Kingdom is not short of meat now, even if there is no fish, it can still be replaced with other meat.

"It's important to know that the winter catch is quite lively."

"Every year, foreign merchants will come to the country to buy head fish at that time. I heard that head fish can bring them good luck."

"Head fish?" A man looked at the civilians in confusion, and said, "What is a head fish?"

"Sorry, I just came this year, so I am not very familiar with these."

Chapter 656: Winter of Uzumaki

Every year to the end of the year, if economic conditions permit, they will buy more things to prepare for the winter and welcome the new year. After all, things at that time are very expensive.

But because of the annual war and the high food tax, it is a blessing for people not to starve to death, let alone other things. If there was a fish at that time, their whole family would be very happy.

As for coming to the country of Uzumaki, just because at that time, the people who returned to the country of Uzumaki said that the country of Uzumaki was good here and there.

They were full, with meat on the meal, and new clothes to wear, so they followed. .

Anyway, the original village was either starving to death or freezing to death. If this is the case, why not take the whole family to the country of Uzumaki for a try?

Result...

What a great place!

"Oh, it turned out to be like this." The civilian said, embarrassingly, "I was two years earlier than you."

"At that time, we were the same as you. At the beginning, we bought large and small bags at home, especially for food. Basically we bought rice, not meat, just because we were afraid of starving to death."

"Later I discovered that as long as you work hard and don't be lazy, you can make money, eat food and meat, and then slowly change."

After all, it is a poor family. If there is no food in the family, the psychology will be panic.

"As for the head fish, let's leave it alone. We can't afford it."

An ordinary fish, without knowing what the group of merchants thought, actually sold hundreds of thousands, millions.

"And you bought so many things." The civilians looked at the things their colleagues bought and said with emotion, "It is estimated that there will be no need to buy them for the New Year."

"You have to know that there will be discounts at Jianguan Commercial Street."

Basically New Year's stuff, they will be ready in those few days.

"Years?" my colleague asked puzzledly, "Is there such a thing?"

"Yeah!" The civilian nodded and said with emotion, "During those days, we will go shopping and prepare for the New Year. This is a holiday in the country of Uzumaki. We will post new couplets and wear new clothes at that time."

"It will be lively then."

"Furthermore, after the New Year, there is also a festival in the Uzumaki Kingdom, which is also very lively."

"It's so happy to live here!" When my colleague heard the commoner's words, his eyes were longing and said, "If only I could live here forever."

This way his wife and son don't have to go hungry forever, and the citizens of Uzumaki have compulsory education. Even if they can't become ninjas by then, working here is better than they were in the soil.

"Yes!" The civilian nodded and said, "Let's work hard."

Chapter 657: Movement of Five Kage

Hidden Sand Village

"Everyone, be careful, and be sure not to let anyone in." A commander of sand ninja looked at the ninja surrounded by ninja swords, and said with a serious face, "If there is an accident, all of us will have to die. "

Because Lord Kazekage went on a business trip, they temporarily took care of this ninja sword, and it is still under 24-hour care, after all, this is the legendary ninja sword!

Although I don't know why Lord Kazekage didn't let Master Chiyo and Master Ebizo go out of the mountain, after all, there are two of them, and Ninja sword is definitely safer for them.

but...

No matter what, this ninja sword is related to the rise and fall of Sand Ninja Village!

They will definitely perform the guardian mission seriously.

But thinking that Hidden Cloud Village and Hidden Rock Village suffered heavy losses from the kaleidoscope because of their cutting tools, they panicked.

After all, Sand Ninja Village is different from YHidden Cloud Village and Hidden Rock Village.

Their Kage...

Not in the village.

"Understood." All the ninjas stared, nodded, and said, "We will never let anyone steal the Ninja sword."

If you steal...

It is estimated that not only will they suffer, but their families will also have to die with them.

however...

"is it?"

As soon as the voice fell, a cold voice came out.

"Who?!" The sand ninjas were shocked, and quickly used the ninjutsu start-up style, shouting, "Who is it?!"

...

Land of Iron

The Five Ninja Village looked at the middle-aged man with green eyes and a pious face covering his chin. He carefully held the delicate tray and walked in.

For this person, they are already familiar.

Minister of Finance of Uzumaki Country!

Because of Akatsuki's entrustment, Uzumaki is now fully responsible for this Shinobi sword.

They don't know why the leader of the Akatsuki organization has such a big heart. They must know that it is a legendary cutting tool!

As long as the sword spirit is awakened and recognized by it, you can gain strength far beyond the god of the Ninja World.

But...

Thinking of the strength of others, it is estimated that this kind of powerhouse would also look down on external forces, and it is estimated that they have tried it, and only sell it when they can't wake up.

After all, the ninja sword that cannot be awakened is simply a special ninja sword of better quality.

This auction will be hosted by a neutral third party, the New General Mifune of the Iron Kingdom.

"Presumably everyone has heard of this ninja sword." Mifune took the tray carefully, looked at the five great ninja village sitting in front, and said with a serious face, "I won't talk more about it here."

Let's hurry up and end the auction!

Otherwise, he would be really uneasy if such precious and dangerous things stay in the country of iron!

"Everyone, please bid."

Chapter 658: Auction

Unsurprisingly, this auction is basically the three ninja villages of Hidden Cloud, Hidden Rock, Hidden Rain Village are competing.

As the big brother of the Ninja World...

Konoha had a good price at the beginning, and then began to quietly watch the excitement, especially Jiraiya. When he came, the old man specifically asked him not to be hippy smiley, and watch the show honestly. Join in!

And the Sannin Ninja Village...

With a sneer on his face, they watched the Hidden Cloud Village bidding, and their Hidden Sand Village now has the legendary Shinobi.

Therefore, no matter who gets this ninja sword in the future, they won't be afraid of Hidden Sand Village. Three generations of Kazekage even wanted to pat the table and shouted, "We don't want this ninja sword in ninja village, but this is the last one to sell the knife. money..."

They have to divide the sand Ninja Village in half.

But thinking that this time it was not Konoha selling Legendary Sword, but Uzumaki Country, Kakuzu felt that it was fine.

after all...

Back then, Kazekage had a thick-skinned face and wanted to share the benefits of the tail beast with Konoha, and finally gained his reputation to the present.

Three generations of Kazekage took a look at Konoha's representative...

One of the three ninjas, Jiraiya, who is known as a toad immortal, touched his chin, and suddenly fell into contemplation. You must know that in their five major ninja villages, only Konoha had touched the ninja long ago, so he planned to ask Konoha in the end. Research out what.

Anyway, no one can awaken the sand of the wind in Sand Ninja Village until now...

It's just this kind of confidential things that Konoha won't tell them.

It is more realistic to go back to the village and send a spy to Konoha to investigate.

He turned his eyes back to the fire-happy sword hilt on the exquisite wooden support. It was rumored that this was a ninja sword entangled in flames, but now it was the same as the sand in the sand village, and it had not been activated.

Of course... If the sword spirit has not been awakened, and it is only active, this legendary Ninja sword is not powerful.

Had it not been for the power of Ninja Shinobi who had seen Frostmourne with his own eyes in the past, Kazekage now thinks that these Ninja swords are deceptive things.

just...

"Who cast these legendary Shinobi swords?" Kazekage muttered, touching his chin, "Six Dao Immortals?"

With such a powerful Ninja sword, he could not think of anyone other than the six immortals who founded the Ninja Sect in the legend.

As far as the three Ninja swords I have seen so far, they all have very similar appearances, and it is estimated that they may have been cast by the same person.

And now...

The auction, which has lasted for a long time, can be said to have come to an end.

Although the three generations of Kazekage squinted his eyes, although there was no other expression on the surface, he still had a calm expression, but when he saw his right hand held tightly underneath, he knew that he was not at peace now, and I probably didn't know that he was cursing inside.

How many times Konoha.

Borrowing money from Konoha like this...

What do you need to pay back then!

just...

The legendary Ninja sword, no matter how it is for the water country or for the Ninja village, they have the responsibility and obligation to welcome back the national treasure of the water country. As for whether it will be placed in the water country or in the Hidden Cloud village...

I can only talk about it then.

Anyway, this money must be paid by the name of the water country. Otherwise, Hidden Mist Village can only start a war. As for the money?

Do not make jokes!

Why should they pay back such a large sum of money in Hidden Mist Village?

.....

Chapter 659: Desperate Mizukage

Either it has been owed, or it is a war, as for the repayment?

Konoha is wealthy and loves peace, so he wouldn't care about such a small amount of money.

And so...

Three generations of Mizukage raised his right hand faintly, and said blankly, "Ten billion!"

The thought of not having to pay back the money makes my heart much easier.

And Kakuzu also...

He was really frightened by Mizukage's courage, and he didn't know what the old man thought, it was billions, tens of billions!

Just lent it to other Shinobi villages so easily?

You know, as the old man's apprentice, how hard he had been in the Uzumaki Kingdom some time ago!

Thinking about it, I feel sad...

In order to survive...

As Konoha Sannin and Mount Myōboku Toad Immortal, he loses his face, and if he has no money, he will cheat and drink, or else...

Sell chakras!

It's sold so much that I'm a little bit weak now.

"Or..." Jiraiya also narrowed his eyes and murmured, "Borrow some money from the old man at that time."

As a teacher, an old man should be happy to come.

Tsunade was stunned when she saw this scene. As Konoha's gambler, she knew Konoha's financial income.

The last war spent a lot of money on airships and scientific tools, and the village was in deficit. Now, where did the old man get the money?

Finally, I thought of the Uchiha clan and the Senju clan...

An inner meal.

Wouldn't it be the sale of land?

Because the Uchiha clan has no heirs, all the land is returned to the village, and Senju...

Just to illustrate the idea of the god of the Ninja World, Tsunade sold a large piece of land of the Senju clan to the village at a low price, leaving only a small row of land covering the ancestral house.

After all, although she is the only heir to the Senju Clan, she still wants to live, and a small piece is enough.

Tsunade sighed inwardly.

She can only do so much for Konoha. After a while, when Shizune graduates, she will be taken away, Hokage...

It's all a bunch of idiots.

Her grandfather, second grandfather, father, mother, younger brother, clansmen...

All fighting for this dream, and finally...

It's all over.

Therefore, they are idiots too!

"Oh!" Tsunade sighed, stood up, took a selfie, and said, "I will leave the rest to you."

She was... she can't help it anymore.

Only after Nawaki left, she discovered that she had been obsessed with gambling, and her heart would calm down as long as she was in the casino.

And so...

Now let's go to the casino in Iron Country to play two games.

She likes the feeling of losing, as long as she keeps losing...

Will not be afraid.

Chapter 660: Undercurrent

"Tsunade..." Jiraiya also looked at Tsunade's back, opened his mouth, and said nothing in the end, still closing his eyes, he knew...

Tsunade was always scared in his heart.

Just like the sudden panicemia, she...

She was afraid that the people around me would die.

"Perhaps after it's over, it's time to take Tsunade to Uzumaki Country."

She was... There are still people alive.

...

"Mizukage!"

Raikage stared at Mizukage angrily.

The money was too much.

They couldn't get out of the Land of Lightning at all, let alone Hidden Cloud Village.

After all, the Land of Lightning didn't.

Like Konoha, with fertile land and a suitable climate, you must know that the living environment of Land of Lightning is too bad.

Although it has long been known that only their three big Ninja villages will compete, but...

Hidden Mist Village is so proud?

He... Smell of conspiracy.

Raikage also guessed in his heart that Konoha should have been in alliance with Hidden Mist Village, and wanted to exchange Frostmourn for Fire's happiness.

It seems that he and Hidden Rock Village should also...

Turned his head and looked at Tsuchikage beside him.

If they don't cooperate, they will really fall behind to Konoha.

Raikage nodded faintly, now they both must unite, absolutely cannot give the Shinobi sword to Konoha, otherwise...

After the exchange, did Konoha really awaken the happy sword spirit of the fire?

You must know that the joy of fire is originally from the country of fire, and so..... definitely stop Konoha!

As for the last Ninja sword, what should I do?

Can only...

Raikage, and Tsuchikage looked at each other and nodded.

Seal it up!

Don't touch anyone.

At the same time, he scolded the Uchiha letter fiercely in his heart.

Now Raikage and tsuchikage feel more and more that the rumors they released are correct. Otherwise, why Konoha has a Shinobi sword, Hidden Mist Village has a Shinobi sword, and even Sand Ninja Village, but Hidden Rock and Hidden Cloud Villages do not?

and so...

They must be there too.

It's just being robbed!

"Damn goddess alliance." Raikage cursed angrily in his heart.

This organization will be destroyed sooner or later!

And...

Let them return the Ninja sword in Hidden Cloud Village!
