

Uzumaki 68

Chapter 68 - Finally Meet both Party

"Little Xin." The Great Elder frowned and ask." Is there really no need to make any other preparations?"

"No need." Uzumaki Xin rolled his eyes and said.

He already anticipated this, it's normal for them to be nervous for their first negotiation, the Uzumaki Clan rarely wins to any fight, and beside never getting into a war, they never join any form of negotiation away from Uzumaki zone of comfort.

Well, it's their own blame, why they have to be Konoha's thug for the past years.

And more than that, Konoha never give any money for them as form of compensation, as if the job of Uzumaki is free.

Konoha is really like a blackhearted enterprise.

The Uzumaki Kingdom face enemies, they fight on their own, while Konoha on the other hand come late and ask every good things for their own.

And the most hateful thing is everything happen if favor for Konoha when they are not even involved to any fight.

In any case, Uzumaki Kingdom is now on Xin's hand, this kind of white glove moves will never going to happen, they will never going to help Konoha on any form.

Maybe it's time for Uzumaki to separate from the ofl rotten tree

But, no need to hurry, after all, Uzumaki Clan hole everything, it's not up to Konoha to decide what Uzumaki Clan need to do.

They are allies in the past and not parent and children relationship that they need to supervise everything.

Xin look at Senju Shinobi besides them, their face is not good, well it's not that wrong, getting another secret messages from the Village and it seems the Elderly of Konoha really want to hold everything tightly.

Xin can't help but to shake his head, this relationship is really chaotic and stupid.

"Captain, are we really going to do this?" One of the Senju look at Senju Hen with worry face, they see the content of the message and the mission given to them is something that Senju can't swallow.

Senju Hen shake his head, he pass the letter to another Senju Shinobi and said." Pass it to Nara Shinobi, let them solve this problem."

"What we need to do now is to stand up with Uzumaki until the end."

"When yorns comes, I will go ask Hokage-sama for forgiveness."

"Now listen up, follow Uzumaki Clan and protect them when the negotiation suddenly turn into worst."

"Yes!"

The representative of Uzumaki Clan is here!"

Hearing that the representative of Uzumaki Clan finally come, everyone from the Hidden Mist Shinobi finally take a deep breath.

Finally they come, it's so late but at least they did not forgot the negotiation.

Originally, according to the normal routine of the negotiation, both parties would stand up and say hello to each other, then shake hand as the sign of the start of negotiation.

But this time it's different, if both party come almost at the same time, this is the procedure, but now.

Kiri Shinobi Leader and Kiri Negotiator still sitting with stinky face, ignoring them, just squinting their eyes at the Uzumaki Clan Representative in front of them.

They can't help but to think.

Are they to old that they can't forget to eat their breakfast in the morning?

Or they are so old and disabled popi?

That's right, most of the people who hst of rs are basically Elderly people.

Although their mental outlook and complexion are good, thei gray hair shows that ther are old.

With of being Uzumaki Clan famous for their lon longevity.

At that age, they can still jump around like you g people, don't they afraid hurting their waist in process?

As for the youngest, what can a ten years old kid do to a negotiation except to see the excitement, this group of Uzumaki are did not show any respect to them.
