

Uzumaki: I can comprehend anything

Chapter 7 - Youngest Patriarch

Hearing this, everyone even feel more appropriate Xin in their heart, he did not only thinking about what he see but he is thinks more higher than any of them.

For someone or anyone, civilians is just bunch of people who don't have strength or money, they are just unfortunate people who can only follow what the world gave to them.

Helping them in their situation is actually hard, no one know what will happen next or if they can even save their self from incoming danger.

But Xin is different, not like other, he prepared everything beforehand, he come up with solution that no one ever expect, his is like a well prepared palm that can foresight the future ahead of any of them.

"Now listen to Young Master arrangements and order."

Hearing that they were finally obedient to him, Xin start to give order

"The first step is to appease out family."

The first step in the war is to calm people's hearts. After all, this kind of war will exhausted the whole country and clan, if they let people start to panic, it will be deadly.

.....

Facing the confused face of citizens who suddenly gather around, one of the advantages of a small country start to show fast and only small people can notice this.

With one summon, everyone arrive, no one left behind and everyone is on time

Seeing their Patriarch and the Elder standing, the people around start to feel something not right, they only feel Thai when wat is about to start, and this is not good.

The Patriarch walked out from the left side of Xin first, he said loudly.

"First of all, I want to apologize, because of my stupid decision, the whole country and our clan was in face of extinction, so please accept out deepest apologies!"

The Elder and everyone deeply bow showing their sincere to what they did to everyone.

Behind them is also the members of their own family including Xin's Mother and Kushina's parents.

They bow together." I'm sorry!"

Everyone taken back and hurry try to let them get up.

"No! No! It's not the Patriarch's fault!"

"Yes, it all the Konoha fault!"

"That's right, we just try to follow the agreement to us with our friend!"

"There's nothing wrong about the decision of you Patriarch!"

"Stand up please, Elder, Clan Leader!"

When they hear the citizens forgiveness, their eyes can't help but to tear up. The cause of this scene was their fault but they still forgive them even though they put their life on line Thai time.

Because of their decision, they did not only endangered their life but also killed those who serve to guard them.

For the first time, Patriarch feel bad, he never feel such grief even his father died in front of him, with giant of his eyes, he look back at them and finally announced something that no one expected.

"I as Patriarch feel not worthy for all of your trust, even if you forgive me I can still feel hurt deep down, it's my fault that we lost so many of our family, so I decided to pass my position to my son, Uzumaki Xin, please help him, this decision is not only me but from all the Elder, trust Xin because he is the only one who try to stop is even though we are blind trust our allies."

The Patriarch then pull Xin in front of them, but to everyone surprised Xin don't look like nervous at all not like his age

He look at them full of respect that they can easily feel just by his look at them.

"I as the Young Master of the Clan accept the position, I will try to help our clan to ensure to survive the incoming catastrophe, the only thing I want to all of you is your full cooperation."

"Yes!" Everyone said loudly.

"Good, now follow the people who waving red flag around, they will bring you to our temporary settlement, bring your clothes and food, just leave those things at home behind."

"As for those who are 15 age and up, please stay, we need you guys for the next plan."
