

Uzumaki 701

Chapter 701: Hiruko and Jiraiya

Hiruko helplessly patted Jiraiya, who was holding his arms around his neck, and said angrily, "Morning!"

Seeing that Jiraiya looks like this, you know that he...

It's here to eat and drink again!

Some time ago, this bd still lived in his house and didn't go there. He just waited to bring him food and kept hiding in the room. I heard that he would retreat and write.

It's really a headache. Obviously he himself has a dormitory in the college, and there is also a free dining hall, why do he cheat and drink everywhere?

And Jiraiya is also the Moonlight Clan...

At the end of each month, I would ask myself to borrow money, saying that he was preparing a masterpiece that would be completed in a while.

Once completed, he would be able to become a great writer in the Ninja world with a steady stream of beauty and money.

Now he has no money to eat.

Now I only need to lend him one hundred thousand silver taels to fill his stomach, and he will surely return it a hundred times when he becomes famous.

But until now it is still a salted fish! !

Anyway, after so many months, he never saw a word written by Jiraiya.

"You don't need to go to class today?" Hiruko looked at Jiraiya, and said helplessly, "Running around, aren't you afraid of being seen by your dean?"

"I didn't run around." Jiraiya said indifferently. "Today is my vacation. It's legal."

He planned to go to the door of the textile factory to collect materials today. You must know that there are so many...

Gee!

No, you have to finish breakfast quickly.

"Let's go." When Hiruko heard Jiraiya's words, he knew that he couldn't hide it today. I guess he would have to go to his house at night to find him to drink and talk about his writer's dream, and let him make money by the way...

Ugh...

I knew I would not rest today.

"Hehe." Jiraiya also patted Hirukou on the shoulder with satisfaction, and said, "I really deserve to be a good friend."

When he saw Hiruko, he didn't know that Hiruko had come to the country of the Uzumaki earlier. You must know that the old man had also sent the wanted warrant to him. He originally planned to take the person away. but...

In the end, I still didn't do it.

Since that kid has taken in Hiruko, what do you care about so much?

and...

He is hiding from the old man!

Don't show up if there is nothing wrong, or else maybe the old man wants him to do something again!

Chapter 702: Two Tail of The Crane

"The boss has a bowl of sweet and a bowl of spicy" Hiruko walked into the tofu flower shop and said, "I'll have another pickle and sauced duck neck."

The sweet ones are his, and the spicy ones are from Jiraiya. For so many days, he has known the taste of Jiraiya for a long time.

"A bowl of sweet." Qian Luo said with a smile, "There is also a salty package. By the way, five duck feet are also packaged, not spicy."

"Okay, Dean Hiruko asks you to wait for a while." The waiter looked at them and said with a smile, "It's all right now."

And around, the diners who heard the sound also looked at Hiruko with respect...

They have recognized that the silver hair is a little cute, and the one who is a little short is the current professor of biology and the dean of the school of biology...

Dean Hiruko

Won many major awards such as the highest biology award in the country of Uzumaki and the gene genetics award.

It often appears in newspapers and magazines in Uzumaki, everyone is already familiar with it.

"Unexpectedly!" Jiraiya also saw the expressions around him, and said with emotion, "The tail of the cranes back then became the dean."

And he...

Still a teacher.

I feel sad to think about it!

Hearing Jiraiya's words, Hiruko said in an annoyed manner, "Back then, you were the tail of the crane."

You know that he is still ahead of Jiraiya...

Penultimate! !

"Haha." Jiraiya also smiled awkwardly and said, "Forget, forgot."

That's really the case!

If it weren't for being accepted as an apprentice by the old man and encountering Mount Myōboku, I guess I would still collect materials from all over the college!

Hiruko rolled his eyes and said, "I haven't forgotten it!"

Maybe I used to hate others for calling myself a crane tail, but now...

I don't care anymore.

Because he is also a genius, but not a ninja genius.

Some time ago the affiliated college of Uzunokuni was officially renamed Uzunokuni Experimental School, and began to be divided into Polytechnic, Biology and Ninja College.

There is no division of subjects at the basic stage, most of which are compulsory courses. After the third grade, they will be divided into subjects so that students can choose jobs after graduation. I heard that the school system will be extended in the future.

Anyway, it's still unclear.

He is the dean of the School of Biology, and the dean of the School of Science and Engineering is Qianluo in front of him.

He also has a lot of achievements in the field of science and technology.

He could have won a lot of honors, but he did not know why he refused.

Therefore, his popularity is not Own high.

Chapter 703: New Uzumaki Kingdom System

Uzumaki Xin yawned and looked at the intelligence in his hand. It was time to go to the transitional stage. The system that was originally applicable to the early days of Uzumaki Kingdom's Red Doctrine was no longer suitable for now.

Such as...

The Uzumaki Public Security Bureau is short of manpower again, but it is a bit unsuitable to continue recruiting public officials like this.

"It looks like a branch is about to be established." Uzumaki Xin touched his chin and said, "Otherwise, if it is too bloated then it will not be conducive to management."

Moreover, the future of the Uzumaki country will definitely have more than a few territories.

If it only expands the number of people every time, it is a bit wrong.

It just happens that in the newly filled territory, some factories and residents have already moved in, and it is indeed necessary to establish a branch office. .

Otherwise...

The new city is a bit far away from here, it is too inconvenient to manage, and it will be built at that time.

"Established the Uzunokuni National Security Department and appointed Chief Kamizuri as the Minister of National Security."

"Appoint Fugaku to replace the director of the Public Security Bureau."

"Appointed Senju Hen as the director of the Xincheng Branch."

Just take advantage of this time to improve the public security system.

"Understood." Lucci nodded, "I will make arrangements." Then, he handed over a document and said, "Konoha asked us to send the traitors from each village back to their villages at the same time, and give them to each village. deal with."

"Say that our country of Uzumaki has no right to take in those rebellious people."

Hearing the words of Lucci, Uzumaki Xin was stunned, then rolled his eyes and said, "No right?"

It's so funny!

What can't you catch in the country of human relations?

"Don't worry about them."

It doesn't matter whether it is deported or not.

When the Uzumaki Kingdom receives the rebellious ninjas and blood stains from each ninja village, the root of the war has been buried.

The country of Konoha and Uzumaki is still a nominal ally, and for the sake of their village's reputation, they certainly can't fight the Uzumaki country for no reason.

At that time, even if he is sent back, Konoha will find a reason at will, or demand compensation from the Uzumaki Kingdom for the damage caused by the rebellion, or declare war.

and...

You say deportation is deported?

Uzumaki country doesn't need face!

so now...

Uzumaki country should be prepared!

Chapter 704: War of Words

Konoha's end of April.

Hidden Mist Village criticizes the Uzumaki Kingdom for not observing the morality and justice of Ninja Village, and privately takes in other Ninjutsu rebels, and also abuses space ninjutsu to sneak into Hidden Mist Village and take away the rebel families, which seriously violates the Ninja Village's establishment treaty and The basic principle of ninja, this is immoral, uncivilized behavior.

At the same time, he said that only when the various Ninja villages strictly abide by the various rules and regulations can ensure the harmonious and stable development of the Ninja world.

I hope that Uzumaki can recognize the mistakes it has made, correct them in time, and send the rebellious Ninja villages back to each village.

Accept the interrogation of their village chief, and don't continue to make mistakes.

In the same month...

The other Ninja villages jumped out to accuse Uzumaki country of improper behavior, and severely condemned Uzumaki country, hoping that Uzumaki country can repent seriously and compensate each Ninja village for the losses caused by the rebellion.

Konoha did not dare to show weakness and resolutely stated that although Uzumaki and Konoha have been allies since ancient times, as the guardians of peace in the Ninja world, they are deeply saddened by Uzumaki's wrong behavior.

Konoha will never compromise easily just because he is an ally of the Uzumaki Nation, and Konoha will also feel angry and guilty about the actions behind the Uzumaki Nation's tall and small actions and arbitrarily prying at the corners of allies.

You must know the Uchiha clan since ancient times They are all part of Konoha.

I hope Uzumaki country can explain why Uchiha clan people appeared in their country.

Otherwise, the alliance between Konoha and Uzumaki country will be broken.

Suddenly everyone in the Ninja World realized the unusual atmosphere, this country of uzumaki...

It's going to cause trouble!

I dared to provoke the five great Shinobi villages at the same time, and look at the last country, the country of rain, to know what will happen to the country of Uzumaki in the end.

There were only three Ninja villages that invaded the Rain Country, but after so many years, Rain Country still has not recovered from the defeat, and even the leader of Rain Ninja Village, the demigod Hanzo, is now at war.

It is full of shadows, after all, all the savings in the country have been spent because of the last battle, and now the country of rain is a bleak ah!

Hungry and cold, coupled with the long rainy season, the country's citizens have fallen ill, and there are scrawny beggars everywhere. They can no longer see the future, numb, confused, and don't know what to do with their lives?

Apart from dying in this hellish world, there is nothing else to do.

Chapter 705: Hanzo's Suppression

At the same time, Hanzo began to block the country, denying the entry of foreign populations, and not allowing the domestic people to go out.

Some people in the country of Rain who escaped said that Hanzo is no longer the heroic integrity that can bring to the country of rain.

The guardian of the rainy country of hope, he began to suppress domestic geniuses, regardless of right and wrong, suspicious personality, I heard that many young talents died in the hands of Hanzo.

The country of rain...

There is no future!

Anyway, Hanzo of the Salamander is now infamous in the Ninja World.

Therefore, in contrast to the fate of the Kingdom of Rain, no one is optimistic about the Kingdom of Uzumaki at all.

A mere island country, the territory is not as large as the country of rain, and its population is not as large as the country of rain. Why do they win?

Only relying on the name of the smallest shadow in the past, the Uzumaki Kingdom?

Don't be kidding, the five great ninja villages are full of talents. How can a single shadow protect the Uzumaki Kingdom?

You know, the younger brother of the god of the Ninja world, the Konoha forbidden technique expert didn't dare to be so confident!

You ask now the strongest Hokage, see if you dare to be so skinny?

Everyone sighed, the country of Uzumaki...

It will be finished sooner or later!

The country of Uzumaki

Uzumaki Xin looked at today's newspaper with gusto, and sighed in his heart. It is indeed the Five Great Ninja Villages!

This face is simply...

Too thick! !

You know that there is no Shinobi in the Uzumaki country. What rules of Shinobi must be followed?

Not to mention...

That rule is simply a joke. There are no more ninjas who have defected over the years, and if you don't see the ninja running to a country, you just condemn one!

Uzumaki Xin shook his head, put down the newspaper in his hand, looked at the senior officials of Uzumaki Kingdom in front of him and said, "What do you want to say?"

This is a must for the war mobilization conference.

"Is it unavoidable?" The patriarch looked at the intelligence in his hand, sighed, and said, "Know that this is the Five Great Ninja Village!"

Just comparing the number of Shinobi, they couldn't compare with the country of Uzumaki.

Not to mention the other...

If the war starts, even if the Uzumaki Kingdom wins, the losses will surely be heavy!

Chapter 706: Unavoidable War

"It's unavoidable." Uzumaki Xin sighed and said, "Do you really think that this war is just the reason Uzumaki has accepted the rebellion?"

This is just one aspect.

On the other hand...

"The Uzumaki Kingdom is too rich now." Uzumaki xIn reluctantly pointed to the location of the Ninja World Map, and said, "With just such a small amount of territory, Uzumaki Nation now has wealth comparable to the five great Ninja villages.

It even surpassed some poor ghosts in Ninja Village...

"Listening to the news from Kakuzu, now all the major Ninja villages and countries have begun to suppress trade in the Uzumaki Country, increase various taxes, and even confiscate the Uzumaki Country's commodities for no reason."

Uzumaki Xin sighed...

"Kakuzu is touching!"

You must know that because of the country's vigorous development of science and technology in the past few years, the products of the country are of high quality and low price, but they are very competitive in other countries, and their local products are almost crowded with no room for survival.

It is estimated that the Five Ninja Villages are waiting to destroy the Uzumaki Kingdom, and then divide the Uzumaki Kingdom's property and technology! !

Even in some small countries, Ninja Village is halving a share of the soup.

"The current system of Uzumaki is different from that of other countries. It not only harms the interests of the nobles, but also threatens the dominance of the ninja, so..."

"The five big Ninja villages, the five big countries, and even the entire Ninja world are staring at Uzumaki."

Especially in the era of extinction organizations, I believe that the five great Ninja villages have a deep understanding of redism, knowing that this system is different from one country and one village, and it will bring disaster to them sooner or later.

After all... No one will give up the shadow!

As in the anime, why are the Twelve Guardian Ninja just half cut?

Isn't it because some people don't recognize that Hokage is in control of domestic military power, thinking that this should be in the hands of the Daimyo?

He was killed by a certain rebellious youth who left the village.

Hearing what Uzumaki said, everyone fell silent, indeed...

War is inevitable if a country wants to become strong.

"In that case," Patriarch said with a serious face, "it's unavoidable, so let's fight!"

"Fight hard, to show the momentum of the country of the Uzumaki."

The patriarch clenched his fists...

When the Uzumaki clan was about to subdue the country and the clan, didn't they survive it?

"Our Uzumaki country is not afraid of any war!"

What's more, now, the country of the Uzumaki is already much stronger than it was in the past, that is...

The Five Ninja Villages are really a lot...

"But if there is a war..." The patriarch frowned, hesitated for a moment, and said, "Those rebellious and bloody clan..."

How to deal with it?

As the patriarch, he still feels a little bit about these alien ninjas...

Chapter 707: Clan Participation

"Sorry, the Kamizuri Clan is already a citizen of the Uzumaki Country." Kamizuri Gate pushed his sunglasses, sat in a chair, and said with a smile, "Since someone wants to fight our country, Kamizuri Clan will defend the country to the death."

As a senior in Uzumaki Country, Kamizuri Gate is also eligible to participate in the meeting.

And no one of the Kamizuri Clan wants to go back to the cave again. It is obvious that there are food, drink, and villas here. Why should they go back and suffer sins?

Sorry...

The Kamizuri Clan has no affection for Thunder Country.

"Huh." Uchiha Fugaku snorted faintly and said, "The Uchiha clan will obey the order. If someone violates the rules, I will deal with it personally as the patriarch."

Konoha...

The diehards were already dead in that battle.

And the Senju Clan...

"The same is true for the Chinoike Clan." En Oyashiro nodded and said with a smile, "Whether it is a material or a ninja, the god crane clan will seriously cooperate with the Uzumaki Kingdom's arrangements."

It can be said that at this point, they have long been unable to turn their heads back. There is nothing left but a dead end when going back to the major Ninja villages, not to mention...

Living well in Uzumaki, why should you leave?

You know, the Chinoike Clan is the biggest rich man in the Uzumaki Kingdom now!

Seeing the answers of the patriarchs, Xin showed a smile at the corners of his mouth. He knew that the patriarch proposed at this time deliberately to reassure the major families. After all, as a famous name in the country of Uzumaki, such things cannot be allowed. He brought it up.

As for why Patriarch Chinoike is not here...

People are still moving bricks!

How could it be possible to participate in the high-level meeting, and from the Senju clan to join the Uzumaki Kingdom, the Chinoike Clan leader seems to have deliberately avoided the political center of the Uzumaki Kingdom, although there are still some newly born clansmen joining the Uzumaki Kingdom army.

For example, Senju Hen...

They are now the captain of the Second Army of the Uzumaki Kingdom.

But this is all of the younger generation.

"Since we are already citizens of the Uzumaki Kingdom, we should trust them."

Xin looked at all the clan chiefs except the Chinoike Clan, and nodded with a smile.

Although there may be those who love the village outside the rebels, who can't bear to go to war with the village of Shinobi, but...

Now they have joined the vortex country.

If facing the enemy, you can't even lift the kunai in your hand, why should the Uzumaki Kingdom protect you?

He didn't force these people to join the army in person and kill the enemy, but if an enemy attacked the country, these people still wouldn't make a move. If they watched from the side, it would be overwhelming.

"It's voluntary." Xin sighed and said, "We can't stop anyone from defending their homes, nor can we force anyone to defend their homes."

Especially at this time, what should I do if they betrayed when they are forced to go to the battlefield?

Although his heart is very confident in the Uchiha clan, Senju Clan, and the Chinoike Clan, other rebellious and bloody successors...

Who knows if anyone wants to return to the village?

You know this is a world where you can even be forgiven for killing your whole family and slashing your father!

Chapter 708: Senju Hen Helplessness

The condemnation of the five great Ninja villages and the muddy water fishing in some small Ninja villages all ignored the Uzumaki Kingdom.

The domestic high-levels began to assign tasks to prepare for the start of the war.

But...

The tense atmosphere still infected the citizens of Uzumaki Kingdom. Some civilians seemed to have noticed something wrong, but there was no news in the morning paper, and Uzumaki country officials did not come out to explain, so...

They still work as usual.

However...

There are some families who have someone working in the Uzumaki government, and they still have some news.

That is...

It's going to war again!

"Five Ninja Villages!" A brick mover wiped his sweat, drank his saliva, and said helplessly, "If you want me, why do these ninjas like to fight so much?"

Obviously living well, what are you calling for?

"These ninjas are so annoying!"

"Shut up." A worker hurriedly pulled his partner and said embarrassingly to their captain, "Sorry, head, Bao didn't mean it, he was just a stunner!"

Then, he gave Bao a fierce look, knowing that his head is a ninja!

Didn't you scold your head in this sentence?

And your Highness Xin, Officer Fugaku...

There are many ninjas in Uzumaki country!

Bao also seemed to notice that what he said was wrong, and said with a sneer, "Tou Tou..., I am not talking about our country's ninja."

"It's from a foreign country, from the Five Great Ninja Village!"

"These ninjas are terrible!!"

"It's okay." Senju Hen took a sip of water and said with a smile, without paying attention, "I know what you mean."

But my heart is full of wry smiles...

As a ninja, he can certainly see the current tense atmosphere in the ninja world, and...

The Five Ninja Villages!

I don't know if the Uzumaki Kingdom can hold it this time?

Senju Hen shook his head helplessly. Although they had already migrated to the country of Uzumaki, Konoha was a Shinobi village created by Master Hashirama anyway, and Master Tobirama and the head of the clan were all sacrificed for Konoha....

He... I'm still a bit tangled inside!

This is why when he was looking for a job, he did not choose positions such as the Uzumaki Kingdom Political Center. After all...

The Senju Clan is not always the Uchiha clan!

Although he is also gradually diminishing Konoha's position in the hearts of the Senju Clan, the purpose is to allow the Senju Clan to gradually integrate into the Uzumaki country in the future, become a part of the Uzumaki country, and thrive and thrive here steadily

Chapter 709: Scar of War, Loyalty

Although he is also gradually diminishing Konoha's position in the hearts of the Senju Clan, the purpose is to allow the Senju Clan to gradually integrate into the Uzumaki country in the future, become a part of the uzumaki country, and thrive and thrive here steadily. ...

The effect seems pretty good.

Many young people from the Senju Clan have begun to join the Uzumaki Kingdom's army, or the public security department, and other political central positions.

but...

Today, Tsunade-sama is among the Senju clan!

He didn't know what to do anymore, although Tsunade-sama didn't say anything, nor did she let him leave the position of patriarch, and took over by himself. She didn't even care about the life of the Senju clan in Uzumiya.

She just kept eating and drinking in the clan.

However...

She has always been the granddaughter of Master Hashirama, the daughter of Master Patriarch, and one of Konoha's Three Ninjas...

As long as Tsunade-sama stays in the Senju clan, he will not dare to speak to the Senju clan, let's dry Konoha!

Senju Hen listened to the murmurs of the surrounding workers and cursed the Five Great Ninja Villages, thinking that the ninjas of the Five Great Ninja Villages did not see that these civilians had a good life in the Uzumaki Kingdom.

While talking, some even picked up and moved bricks.

It seems that if there are ninjas from the Five Ninja Villages in front of him, he will definitely move bricks.

Sighed inwardly.

He raised his head and looked at the sky of Uzumaki Country in confusion, muttering, "Konoha, the will of fire..."

Lord Hashirama...

Is your idea right or wrong?

"Humans are really a bunch of boring creatures." Four Tails said faintly in Roshi's heart, "Wars and wars have always been wars."

"For so many years, it has never stopped."

Why did the six immortals spread the chakra?

Isn't it just for people to trust and assist each other, but I didn't expect...

Failed.

It even made Chakra a weapon of war, which is ridiculous!

"You humans are so greedy."

"Perhaps..." Roshi was silent for a moment and said, "Perhaps human beings are so greedy."

Statement of the Five Ninja Villages...

It is estimated that any ninja can see that this is the country of the five ninjas who want to conquer the Uzumaki.

As the captain of the Uzumaki Country's infrastructure team, he has already acquired Uzumaki's nationality and he has no idea what to do now, from Iwagakure from Uzumaki Village who bought a house in Uzumaki's Land...

Originally, he left Iwagakure Village because of his different political concepts from the three generations of Tsuchikage.

Now...

I found a world that fits what I thought in my heart, but when it faced danger, my heart was tangled.

Chapter 710: Hateful War

"So I am not as great as I thought!" Roshi sighed and murmured with a wry smile.

Is it to protect this pure land, or to maintain the Shinobi Village that nurtures and nurtures oneself?

Roshi looked at the worker who was still working next to him.

Is there really only war?

"I said..."

And just when Roshi was tangled up, Four Tails said again, helplessly, "You are the only one to move bricks, what do you want to do so much?"

"Not to mention a bunch of rubbish, even if it is really killed?"

War, war!

This group of rubbish that can only be war, the Ninja World is estimated to be at peace.

"Haha!" Hearing Son Goku's words, Roshi was stunned for a moment, then smiled unconsciously, and said, "You are right, I'm a bricks-moving guy, so what do you do?"

It is estimated that the country of Uzumaki did not expect him!

"As for garbage..."

Roshi said to Son Goku earnestly, "Perhaps human beings have so much rubbish and greedy, but..."

"There are still many outstanding people."

"Just like the original Hokage, the god of the Ninja world, Senju Hashirama, gave up his powerful power for peace in the Ninja world."

However, when Son Goku heard the name Senju Hashirama, he rolled his eyes and said uncomfortably, "It's really annoying name."

Ignoring Son Goku's words directly, Roshi still smiled and said, "The name of the Uzumaki country that created this paradise."

"There are also some unknown people who have contributed to the peace of the Ninja world."

"They..."

Look up at the sky...

"Like the stars in the sky, they have been guiding mankind to the right path."

He has always believed in his heart...

Believe, real peace will surely usher in the Ninja World!

"It's early morning, where are the stars?" Son Goku looked at the sky through Roshi's gaze, then looked at Roshi like a fool and said, "You won't be foolish!"

"..."

Old Roshi's face was stagnant...

There is something in his heart that he doesn't know if it is appropriate to say it!

He sighed helplessly...

What an annoying tail beast!

Don't think about sweets tonight.

...

Uzumaki Xin did not pay attention to the domestic situation, and now he has an important thing to do.

That is...

Konoha contacted Kakuzu and needed to see him, the leader of Akatsuki's organization.

In his heart, Uzumaki Xin didn't know why the old monkey wanted to see him at this time.

If he just wanted to buy a ninja, just contact Kakuzu directly.

You must know that the Ninja World knows that Akatsuki and Uzumaki are allies!

See you this time...

Uzumaki Xin suddenly smelled an unusual smell in his heart.

The corners of his mouth rose slightly, he...

Let's see what Konoha wants to do!
