

Uzumaki 721

Chapter 721: Profiteers and Patriotic

However, in order to prevent other Shinubi villages from stepping on the water, or even diving sneaking fish from other directions, the Uzumaki country still deployed troops on the border of the entire country, only focusing on the direction of the three countries.

Simultaneously...

The bridge that was built during the founding of the nation and connected to the country of fire was also blown up early by the Uzumaki ninjas...

What a pity.

Back then, the bridge was slowly built by the captives of other Ninja villages.

Originally, Uzumaki Xin planned to wait a few years for the entire Ninja world to be truly peaceful, and then erect a stone monument there to serve as Uzumaki country and other Ninja villages.

Proof of friendly coexistence.

But it is probably impossible now.

Although the atmosphere of the war is getting more and more tense, there is no confusion in the country under the management of the country.

Because everyone knows that the situation this time is too serious. The union of the five ninja villages is a small country...

How to win?

Now they can only pray for their inner country, and they dare not hold back at all.

Especially a few days ago, I caught a few people who were spreading the Uzumaki that was about to perish, and they are still in prison, waiting for the end of the war to be expelled from the country!

During this period of time, many people left, including civilians, wandering ninjas, and most businessmen.

Seeking advantages and avoiding disadvantages is the essence of all businessmen.

Many shops have been closed in the commercial street again.

Fortunately, Uzumaki Xin has made preparations a few months earlier, and the prices of domestic materials and daily necessities have not increased.

As for food, under the cultivation of Yota and the research of Hida, Uzumaki The country is not short of food, so it is also in a stable state.

At the same time, the police from the Uzumaki National Police Station went to every house from morning to night, calming the mood of Uzumaki nationals, allowing them to stay in the country and obey the arrangements. The country will never give up or abandon them, and...

When the Uzumaki country's army does not lie down, they will definitely guard them...

Guard with life!

Under the management of multiple policies and fists, no one will come out to make trouble at this time. Most people are aware of the current situation and actively cooperate with the work of Uzumaki in their hearts.

Chapter 722: Uzumaki's Daily

June

The weather is getting hotter gradually.

"It's so hot!" Obito put out his tongue, looked at the notepad in his hand, and said helplessly, "This area has been notified, and it's time to go to the next place."

He has been running errands these days, whether it is to pacify the civilians and go home, or to go to various families to conduct investigations, he has never stopped.

It can be said that the past few days are really exhausted.

Not only him, but the entire police station is very busy during this time.

Not only does it need to monitor the situation in Uzumaki for 24 hours, to prevent some spies from making trouble at this time, but also to make 24-hour preparations to prevent accidents.

Therefore, most of my colleagues can only sleep less than three hours a day.

Ninja's words are okay. Under such high pressure, some ordinary colleagues are really unable to handle it.

Many even fainted because of staying up late, but after they recovered a little, they still put into work.

Maybe they can't help on the battlefield, but...

They will still do their best to provide a stable rear for the soldiers in front.

Fortunately, the Chief Kamisuri revised the rotation plan ahead of time and distributed enough health care products, otherwise things will definitely happen if he continues.

"Actually, I can also go to the front to help." Obito sighed and said helplessly, "My strength is still quite strong."

Although he hasn't opened his eyes yet, Uchiha's throwing techniques and some fire escapes he can already use skillfully.

However...

Chief Fugaku disagreed, thinking that he was always losing the chain, worried that he was too busy to help on the battlefield.

Finally, after forgetting to bring the cutting tool bag, he would never be able to return, and there was no requirement for police officers to participate in the war, so they only had to execute themselves well.

The task is fine, don't trouble others.

Uchiha Obito took the soil and shook his head helplessly...

What a headache!

Obviously he promised that he would take it, so why didn't you believe him?

Then, cheer up...

"Hurry up and finish today's task!"

I really envy Big Brother Qi and the others for being able to go to the front line. I had known that he had also joined the army.

Chapter 723: Future of Senju and Uchiha

"Take it." Kei Uchiha handed the boxed lunch to Mu Xinsu, and said lightly, "Your boxed lunch."

"Thank you." Mu Xinsu nodded, took the lunch, and said, "What are you eating today?"

It's just that they can eat boxed lunches during this time. When the troops of the Five Ninja Villages enter the sight of the Uzumaki Kingdom, they may not have time to eat canned food at that time!

Because Mu or Senju and Uchiha were Konoha's big family in the past, they were all assigned to the eastern battlefield, mainly facing the troops in the village of Mist, avoiding Konoha's battlefield.

Although Mu Xinshu doesn't mind starting with Konoha Ninja, but...

This is also good.

At least the patriarch should not worry about it in their hearts.

Mu Xinshu sighed, opened the lunch box, and said, "Today there are soy pig's feet, which is quite rich!"

An omelette, some vegetables and a bowl of hot soup...

Gee!

I wonder if the ninjas in Ninja Village are like this?

Uchiha Kai picked up the box lunch, suddenly caught a red egg beside Mu Xinshu, and said faintly, "I haven't eaten it yet?"

How many days have it been?

"Hehe." Mu Xinshu picked up the red egg at hand, shook it in front of Uchiha Kei, and said, "I plan to wait until the war is over."

This egg was given to him by an old grandfather he met at the entrance of the troops when he escaped.

What did Mu Xinshu think at the time?

Why are there so many people in the military department delivering eggs and old hens?

Until I heard that old grandfather said that he could not go to the battlefield, and that he was too old, he couldn't help much. There was nothing good except for some eggs laid by his own old hen, so I planned to give these eggs to soldiers in the army to try. Taste because they...

You can only do these little things.

And this red egg is very interesting. Grandpa said as he grabbed a few eggs and put them in his hands, saying...

I hope they can all return safely in the end, and the country of Uzumaki will look at them.

Although there is no shortage of these eggs in the army, but...

Mu Xinshu still took a heavy load, this is the blessing of these ordinary people, and it is also his responsibility...

So this red egg has been kept by him, and he is very grateful.

He will look down on himself for the rest of his life.

"If it's broken, it's broken." Mu Xinshu smiled at the corner of his mouth, quietly looking at the red egg in his hand, and said, "I believe it will bring me good luck."

"So, I won't eat it at this time."

As long as he looks at this egg, he feels at ease, because he is not alone, there are many companions behind him, and a group of ordinary people quietly praying for them behind.

This responsibility may be very heavy, but he will not let it go, because he...

Is a soldier...

A soldier who almost became a deserter!

"It's up to you." Kei Uchiha said faintly while eating his lunch, "I guess it stinks at that time anyway."

Senju Clan are hypocritical!

See how you eat it when you arrive!

Chapter 724: Jūzō and Fuguki

"You're not staying at home, what are you doing here?" Fuguki Suikazan took a sip of the cigarette in his hand and looked at the Jūzō Biwa, who was quietly sharpening his knife. There will be no business, what kind of knife do you sharpen?"

The shops nearby are closed, and the factory is on holiday. Most people will stay at home if there is nothing wrong with them and will not go out.

This is also the requirement of the Uzumaki Kingdom, so...

No one would come to eat grilled fish at night.

Fuguki Suikazan wiped out the cigarette butt after smoking, took out two bottles of beer in the refrigerator next to it, and threw a bottle to Jūzō Biwa...

"In this kind of weather, you have to drink cold beer to be comfortable!"

It's too hot.

Fortunately, Wuzhizhi has a state-owned refrigerator and air conditioner. Otherwise, if you eat grilled fish in this weather, it won't be too hot.

The refrigerator and air conditioner are too consuming Chakra.

Fuguki Suikazan shook his head helplessly and murmured, "The cost has increased again. It seems that the price of grilled fish should also be increased."

Otherwise...

You can't make much money at all! !

Jūzō Biwa took the cold beer, took a big gulp into his mouth, raised his head, glanced at Fuguki Suikazan, and said faintly, "I just think it might be useful. Take it out and polish it. Don't be dull. Up."

He doesn't know what will happen to the final result of Uzumaki Kingdom?

Although the country of Uzumaki was defeated by the country of Uzumaki following the second generation of water shadows at that time, it was different from this time. The country of Uzumaki could not be the same as last time, hiding everyone and slowly dragging down the enemy. of.

Not to mention...

Five Ninja Villages...

Jūzō Biwa sighed with a wry smile.

Maybe give the Uzumaki country some more time, the Uzumaki country really don't need to be afraid, but...

There is no time now!

"Aren't you going home?" Fuguki Suikazan looked at the cold beer that he had almost finished drinking, shook the bottle, and said, "What are you doing here with me, a bachelor?"

Your mother, your wife, and your son are all waiting for you at home!

"It's arranged at home, there will be no accident." Jūzō Biwa put down the beer, continued to sharpen the knife, and said, "I will stay in the store during this time."

This kitchen knife is too short.

It would be great if I could get the decapitation knife, but...

I don't know what's going on at the slaughterhouse?

"It's safe." Fuguki Suikazan said indifferently, "There will be nothing wrong with Uzumaki Country."

He just saw His Royal Highness Xin a few days ago. Since His Royal Highness Xin didn't care about it, there will be no accidents in this war. Otherwise, how could he accompany his wife to the obstetrics and gynecology department with peace of mind now?

Chapter 725: Platoon Leader of the Mechanical 'Sasori'

"Lady Tsunade." Senju Hin looked at Tsunade, who basically lay in the hall except for taking a bath, eating, and going to the toilet, and said helplessly, "We..."

"Stop making noise!!"

However, before he could finish his words, he was interrupted by Tsunade.

Seeing Tsunade like this, Senju Hin felt relieved. It seemed that Lady Tsunade was not angry about her clan members sneaking away.

What a bunch of bastards.

If you want to sneak away, why come here?

Wouldn't he simply ignore the orders of the clan leader?

It's such a headache!

Senju Hen sat cross-legged, squinting his eyes. Now he...

All I have to do is watch over Lady Tsunade here. I hope Lady Tsunade can wait here quietly until the war is over.

Don't let any more accidents happen~

I sighed inwardly...

Sudden...

A shrill alarm sounded.

Tsunade and Senju Hin suddenly opened their eyes and looked at each other...

them...

Here it comes.

"Are they here already?" Sasori muttered, looking towards the Fire Country through a telescope. "There are so many of them!!"

The fleets of the three major ninja villages of the Land of Fire have appeared in sight, a huge and mighty force.

"Sasori Platoon Leader, aren't we from the Mechanical Department?" A soldier nearby, also looking through binoculars, asked, "Why are we staying here at the artillery position?"

They should be holding advanced weapons, wearing exclusive armor, and fighting the enemy in a narrow road where only the brave will win. Why are they now hiding in the back and mixing with the artillery?

"It's arranged by the higher-ups." Sasori put down the binoculars, looked at his comrades, and said, "Because the battle line is too long, there's not enough artillery, so they asked us to come over and help. Moreover, the unit's orders are for us to keep the enemy out and absolutely not let them in."

"so..."

Looking at the coalition forces approaching, Sasori narrowed his eyes...

As expected, the Fire Nation battlefield progressed faster than the other battlefields.

"If you don't want to fight, you can only go to logistics."

"Well..." The comrade sighed helplessly and said with regret, "Then we can't use the armor you invented, platoon leader?"

He also plans to put on some cool armor to show off in front of the enemy!

"Wouldn't it be better if we couldn't use it?" Sasori smiled and said, "We can keep the enemies out, and the country's losses won't be so severe."

"Hehe." The soldier scratched the back of his head and said, "That's right! It's best if we don't need it!!"

"Okay, stop being so ridiculous." Sasori shook his head helplessly. The fleets of the three major ninja villages stroked their chins and muttered, "Is there any way to take him down?"

"At this distance..." Hearing the platoon leader's words, Hai Zhen narrowed his eyes, measured it, and said, "It's too far, out of reach."

"Just wait until they're closer."

Although the chakra cannon is very powerful, its range is not far.

"Well..." Sasori sighed regretfully, then raised his head, staring sharply ahead, and said, "When they get within range, fire hard!"

"No need to save chakra!"

To think of invading the Land of Uzumaki, you've never died!

After this war is over, he will come up with a plan to increase the range of his weapons so that these ninja villages will feel the pain of being bombarded as soon as they enter the sea!

And this war...

The corners of the scorpion's mouth slightly raised...

He is a Sasori...

The platoon leader of the mechanical unit will definitely be awarded a first-class merit medal and will give it as a gift to his newborn sister!

Chapter 726: The First Wave

When the alarm sounded, Uzumaki Xin left Mikoto, who was waiting to give birth in the hospital, and habitually found a mountain with a telescope, looking at the coalition forces from the three major ninja villages of the Land of Fire.

He sighed inwardly and murmured, "Can't you come back in a few days?"

Mikoto is going to give birth in a few days. Now that the war has broken out, I don't know if I will have time to accompany Mikoto.

Although I could have pushed forward in one go relying on my own strength.

But...

The strength of a country does not depend on one person. If the Uzumaki Country continues to rely on him, what will the Uzumaki Country do if an accident occurs?

So...

The Uzumaki Country needs a war, a war that can demonstrate the country's strength to the entire Uzumaki Country!

He would not take action unless it was absolutely necessary, not to mention that if the Uzumaki Country could really win without relying on him, then he would be able to put his mind at ease to do something.

Something he was very curious about!!

Uzumaki Xin quietly watched the cooperation of the Uzumaki Country army and breathed a sigh of relief. As long as Konoha and the others had not landed, the situation in Uzumaki Country would not be too dangerous.

The war situation changes rapidly. Although he has set up artillery batteries around the Uzumaki Country and required them to stop the enemy on the beach, who knows what will happen in the war?

So...

He will stay here forever. If something really gets out of control...

He will take action!!

"This is?!"

When a loud noise sounded, everyone turned their gazes in the direction of the Uzumaki Country in surprise, looking at the large blue sphere that suddenly appeared and was getting closer and closer to them...

"What's this?!"

Although they didn't know what the ball was, the commanders of each team, who were sensitive to chakra, felt a sense of danger when they saw the spherical object, and quickly used their respective ninjutsu!

"Magnetic Style: Sand and Iron Wave!" When the Third Kazekage saw the strange thing spraying towards them, he immediately used magnetic style to form a huge wave to block the fleet. No matter what, when seeing something unusual at this time, the right thing to do was to defend.

This is the basic quality of a ninja!!

"Earth Escape·Earth Flow Wall!"

"Earth Escape..."

Everyone reacted and quickly used defensive ninjutsu.

"Boom!!"

At the moment when the spherical ninjutsu hit the three major ninja villages, a loud noise was heard instantly, and accompanied by a powerful impact force, the fleets of the three major ninja villages began to sway and rock in the sea!

Chapter 727: Minato's Helplessness

"Rasengan?!"

Minato looked at the ninjutsu that was suddenly launched from the Uzumaki Country, frowned and muttered, "No?! This power is a little weaker than the Rasengan, and..."

This distance...

It's a bit far!

This...

How did the Uzumaki Country do it?

Can the chakra remain stable when the Rasengan is out of control?

"This is interesting!" Orochimaru came over, licked his lips, squinted his eyes, and said, "This may be a Rasengan, but it is now..."

"More like the Tailed Beast Ball!"

I didn't expect that there is such a thing in the Uzumaki Country?

Although it is weaker than A-level ninjutsu, it is quite effective if the number is large enough.

Only...

How is this done?

The distance here is too far, and his snake eyes can't see the situation in the Uzumaki Country clearly.

However...

"A Tailed Beast Ball?" Minato frowned, touched his chin, and after a moment's hesitation, he said, "A Rasengan with such a large range..."

"It's a unique skill of the tailed beasts." Orochimaru smiled and said, "It's very similar to the Rasengan. I guess this ninjutsu was developed based on the tailed beast ball."

"What a genius idea!!"

The name of the Uzumaki Country?

He is quite famous...

"I hope I can meet him this time."

Orochimaru narrowed his eyes and looked in the direction of the Uzumaki Country.

This round of ninjutsu only caused some trouble for them. Although several ships were damaged, it did not affect their navigation.

"The Daimyo of Uzumaki Country?" Minato smiled when he heard Orochimaru's words and murmured, "I'm really looking forward to meeting you..."

Only... I didn't expect it to be on the battlefield...

He sighed helplessly in his heart. He had received favor from the Daimyo of Uzumaki Country in the past.

However, now that he is a Jonin of Konoha, he can only carry out the orders of the Hokage.

Just as they were daydreaming, the familiar voice sounded again...

"Boom!!"

"Damn it!" The Third Kazekage's face suddenly turned ugly, and he said angrily, "This kind of power, this kind of scale of ninjutsu, can the Uzumaki Country release it infinitely?"

If that's the case, we're in trouble.

After all, they are in the ocean!

Some ninjutsu are quite troublesome to release and consume chakra. What if you are exhausted when you get ashore?

As a Kage, he would not really think that the Land of Uzumaki is easy to fool. Just look at the Hidden Mist Village. Didn't the Second Mizukage look down on the Uzumaki clan?

What happened in the end?

Failed!!

Moreover, they suffered heavy losses and had no choice but to move the battlefield and fight with the Iwagakure Ninja Village...

I believe that all the ninjas here know in their hearts that war should never be taken lightly. Even if they are the coalition of the five major ninja villages, who knows what the background behind the Uzumaki Country is?

Only now...

Chapter 728: Konoha Ninja Different Feelings

The Third Kazekage sighed inwardly and told the ninjas below to defend themselves quickly. Otherwise, if this kind of impact happened a few more times, the boat would be shaken to pieces and they would have no choice but to walk on the water to get across.

And here in Konoha...

Minato was also surprised that such a powerful ninjutsu could still come so overwhelmingly. He frowned as if thinking about something and said, "Two minutes?"

Then, he raised his head and looked at the ninjutsu that was getting closer and closer, and quickly performed ninjutsu to defend himself.

The five major ninja villages cannot lose this time!

Otherwise...

Where is the face?

I sighed inwardly...

I hope the Uzumaki Country will not resist stubbornly, otherwise they will definitely not be able to bear the final result.

Lord Hokage has already said that the Land of Uzumaki's is an ally of the First Hokage no matter what, and has done Konoha a great favor, so all we need to do is bring back the rebel ninjas of Konoha, and there is no need to kill them.

Minato looked at the Land of Uzumaki helplessly, thinking of the red-haired kid who gave him the chakra refining manual and the Rasengan ninjutsu. In his heart, he really didn't want to become his enemy.

Even...

He also had some ideas about the Rasengan that he wanted to discuss with the Daimyo of the Land of Uzumaki.

But now...

He's just a ninja after all.

"Teacher Minato..." A little girl walked up to Minato, hesitated for a moment, and said, "Um..."

"What's wrong? Rin." Minato showed his signature smile, looked at Rin Nohara and said, "If you have anything to say, just say it."

"Uzumaki Country..." Rin Nohara looked at Kakashi and Shizune who were looking up at the sky behind them, and was stunned for a moment.

Finally, she said carefully, "Are we really going to go to war with Uzumaki Country?"

Master Jiraiya and Master Tsunade are still in the Land of Uzumaki!!

The thought of this gave Rin Nohara a headache. She had promised Lady Tsunade not to tell anyone, but now...

If I don't say it, what will Minato do when he sees Master Jiraiya?

Besides, Kakashi and Shizune were so mean, they actually asked her to come over and talk. But if she said it...

Will Lady Tsunade beat her up then?

Only now the war...

Chapter 729: Right and Wrong

"I'm sorry, Mr. Minato, there's just a ninjutsu that I don't understand." Rin Nohara thought for a moment and decided to wait and see what the situation was before deciding whether to tell it or not!

"But it seems that Minato-sensei is not available right now. I'd better wait until we get back to the village to ask."

As soon as the words fell...

"Boom!!"

Minato helplessly watched the Uzumaki Country launch another ninjutsu, nodded with a wry smile, and said, "Sorry, I really don't have time now."

This Uzumaki country...

What do you want to do?

Is it possible to consume such a huge amount of chakra just to disrupt their offensive pace?

Minato frowned and looked towards the direction of Uzumaki Country...

"I really can only wait until I return to the village to have a chance to answer you."

What a headache!!

Compared to the continuous bombardment on the Fire Nation side, the Lightning Nation and the Water Nation side remained calm...

Them...

Not here yet!!

"Ha~, so boring!" Nagato yawned and looked at Yahiko and said, "How long do you think it will take for the Kumo Ninjas to arrive?"

It seems like the battle over there in the Fire Nation is very exciting!

From such a distance, one could hear the sound of artillery fire, and...

Such a strong vibration!!

The entire Uzumaki Kingdom began to shake.

I don't even know what the situation is over there now?

"Come on," Yahiko said, rolling his eyes. "This is wartime!"

Still want to doze off?

Why does Nagato, a member of the Uzumaki clan, not have the spirit and energy of other Uzumaki clan members?

It's really decadent.

"It's okay." Nagato stretched, waved his hands, and said, "The Uzumaki Country will not lose."

He believes in Brother Xin!

Although Brother Xin has always been lazy, if the Uzumaki Country was really in danger, he would have taken action long ago. He would not be like this now, doing nothing and just watching from behind.

Chapter 730: Uzumaki Condition

Seeing Nagato like this, Yahiko sighed helplessly and said, "You will affect others like this."

After all, the lazy atmosphere is contagious!!

"That's right!!" Nagato came back to his senses after hearing Yahiko's words. After a moment of contemplation, he said, "This is definitely not good!!"

But...

"It's still so boring!"

Nagato looked around...

"Has Konan not come back yet?"

"She went to deliver detonating tags to her comrades on other battlefields." Yahiko sighed and said, "No matter what, we can't let our guard down!"

To know about war...

Maybe.

"So you..."

"Yes, sir!" Nagato quickly interrupted Yahiko's sermon and said helplessly, "If you ask me, what kind of war are we fighting?"

"Wouldn't it be better if everyone just sat down and had a chat?"

"Alas." Yahiko sighed, patted Nagato on the shoulder and said, "Because no one wants to see the rise of the sixth country."

He who had experienced the Rain Country War knew...

War is so terrible!!

Does Hanzo Salamander really not want to quell the chaos in the Rain Kingdom?

Not really!!

It's because no one wants to see a country with the title of demigod in the ninja world stabilize.

Now the Uzumaki Country has money and connections, and with His Highness Xin...

Therefore, war is already inevitable!!

"Alright." Nagato spread his hands and said, "I understand, but..."

"It's so annoying."

What's good about war?

He... I still prefer a peaceful life!!

"It will end." Yahiko stared at the direction of the Land of Lightning and said lightly, "As long as the Land of Whirlpools continues to grow stronger..."

Stronger than all the ninja villages...

No one dares to offend the Whirlpool Kingdom.

Ally...

Uzumaki Xin sighed, put down the telescope in his hand, and muttered, "It seems impossible to use the chakra cannon to cause too much damage to Konoha and others."

After all...

The attack was too obvious.

With such a loud noise and a rigid attack route, perhaps the enemy's ship is large enough to be easily attacked, but...

People will resist!

If the chakra cannon's attack was a little stronger, it might be able to cause damage.

But nowadays...

A ninjutsu that is slightly stronger than a B-level ninjutsu and almost as powerful as an A-level ninjutsu is still not enough!

Uzumaki Xin touched his chin and murmured, "It seems that in the end, we still have to rely on real swords and guns!"

In this case, the loss would be quite serious.

What should I do?
