

Uzumaki 731

Chapter 731: Bombing the Ninja Alliance

"Hit me!" Sasori squinted his eyes and roared, "Hit me hard."

Blocked?

It depends on how long you can withstand the overwhelming and continuous chakra bombardment.

"Sasori Platoon Leader, this will consume too much energy." Hai Zhen sighed and said helplessly, "Continuing like this won't cause much damage to them."

"No." Sasori shook his head, the corners of his mouth slightly raised and said, "Yes."

"Them..."

"The damage has already occurred."

Indeed, they blocked it, but the impact of that nearly A-level ninjutsu was not that simple.

Plus, it's still at sea, and...

Sasori watched the chakra cannon being fired again...

So many chakra cannons exploding at the same time is not as simple as an A-level ninjutsu!

Even if it is blocked, what about the boat? What about the people on board?

If they keep shaking like this, we'll see if they can even stand firmly on the shore!

Of course...

It would be best to shake the boat apart and let them all swim over!!

"So, don't stop." Sasori said with a dangerous smile, "Keep firing like this!"

That is...

I don't know if I have enough chakra!!

...

"About two minutes a round?" Minato rubbed his chin and muttered, "This can't go on!"

Under the strong impact, the sea began to shake.

However, not only have they not made any progress so far, they have even regressed a lot, and...

Minato looked at the group of ninjas holding onto the railings and sighed helplessly...

I'm going to get seasick!!

When we get off the ship, how can we still have the energy to fight against the Uzumaki Country?

"It seems like we need a solution." Minato frowned and looked towards the direction of the Uzumaki Country with a serious face, saying, "Otherwise, staying here is not a solution."

Some ships were even damaged.

If you continue like this, it will definitely fall apart and break down.

By then...

Do I really have to swim across or tread water?

"Uzumaki Country." Orochimaru licked his tongue, squinted his eyes, and said, "How interesting! I didn't expect there is such a method."

It is indeed an idea to shake them to death here!

But...

How long can they consume such a huge amount of chakra?

Chapter 732: To Sannin in Uzumaki Kingdom

"Lord Orochimaru." Minato turned his head and looked at Orochimaru, who was smiling, and said, "I'll trouble you with the fleet." He took out a special kunai that was different from other kunai...

"I'm going to go to Uzumaki Country first."

Let's see how the Uzumaki Country managed to get the Rasengan out of control.

Certainly...

If it were possible to destroy...

Minato looked at the Uzumaki Kingdom with a serious face.

He will show no mercy.

"Go ahead." Orochimaru nodded and said with a smile, "I will protect this place."

The old man didn't come over, but pulled him out of the laboratory in order to intimidate the shadows of other ninja villages.

So... With Orochimaru here, nothing will happen.

But...

When I saw that Minato-sensei was going to the Land of Uzumaki.

The Minato Team looked at each other and suddenly panicked.

There won't be any problem if you go this way!!

"Minato-sensei..." Kakashi was about to say something...

"If you have anything to say, wait until I get back, Kakashi." When the next round of bombardment began, Minato immediately threw out a kunai, used the Flying Thunder God Technique, teleported over, and then...

In the two minutes of free time, he stepped on the stirred sea and rushed towards the Uzumaki Kingdom with a serious face.

"I..."

Kakashi helplessly looked at Minato-sensei who rushed out.

I sighed inwardly...

It shouldn't be a problem.

After all, Master Jiraiya and Master Tsunade are here...

Therefore, he was not worried about anything happening to Konoha from the beginning. Although Jiraiya-sensei and Tsunade-sensei seemed to be living well in the Land of Uzumaki, they were still Konoha's ninjas!

I believe they will not just sit there and watch the Konoha ninjas get hurt!

only...

I wonder if Minato-sensei will beat them up then?

Chapter 733: Feeling Deceived?

"Do we really not need to worry about Sasori?" Xizi carefully held a small baby, teasing her while saying to Qian Luo who was fiddling with something in front of her, "The war has already begun!"

This vibration...

It hasn't stopped since the beginning. It seems the battle outside is very fierce!

"It's okay." Qian Luo didn't even raise his head, frowning at the machine in front of him, and said, "The Uzumaki Country will win."

"Win?" Xizi was stunned for a moment when she heard Qianluo's words. Then, she sighed and said worriedly, "Those are the five major ninja villages!"

Why did the Uzumaki Country win?

The number of ninjas alone is far behind. How can they win? Are they going to rely on the chakra cannons on the border?

That thing is powerful, but it is too troublesome to move.

The limitations are too great.

"Just the five great ninja villages." Qian Luo raised his head and blinked at his little daughter, then said with a smile, "As long as you have absolute strength, you can win."

"Absolute strength?" Xizi asked with a frown, "What kind of strength can withstand the attack of the five major ninja villages?"

"Hehe." Qian Luo lowered his head again, fiddling with the machine in front of him, revealing a mysterious smile, and said, "The power of the God of Ninja World!"

That was the power that dominated the entire ninja world back then!

I just don't know what that kid wants to do?

Why not just show your strength and intimidate other ninja villages, instead of choosing to stir up trouble like this?

But...

He had already seen the boy's strength, so he was at ease!

I can actually drink tea so leisurely at this time...

I believe that the Daimyo of Uzumaki Country will not let Uzumaki Country perish!

"You mean..." Xizi widened her eyes when she heard Qianluo's words, then nodded slightly and said, "No wonder..."

Last time, she saw His Highness Xun leisurely peeling an apple for Mikoto in the obstetrics and gynecology department!

Only...

"But it's still a battlefield..." Xizi sighed and said, "Sasori..."

"Don't worry." Qian Luo smiled and said helplessly, "That brat is not simple either!!"

That is...

Gundam??

What a piece of crap!

It's so big, it's not convenient to move around, it's difficult to operate, and it consumes a lot of energy...

It's as useless as a tank!

Qian Luo shook his head helplessly...

Sasori's armor is more convenient, but that kid...

Always said it can be achieved.

I haven't found a solution yet!

Could it be that he was deceived?

.....

Chapter 734: Trying to Convince Xin

"Platoon leader, there's someone coming over the waves." Hai Zhen raised his binoculars and said, "Huh? Is that a teleportation technique?"

How dare you go ashore alone?

Are you here to die?

"I saw it." Sasori nodded and said seriously, "That's not the instant body movement technique."

Space ninjutsu?

He frowned, looking at the blond young man walking on the water...

Once you throw a kunai, you will instantly move to the location of the kunai!!

"Is it the same space ninjutsu as His Highness Xin's?"

He is very familiar with this!!

At that time, his father planned to make a mecha that could move instantly to improve the inconvenience of the mecha's movement, but he took him to study His Highness Xin's space ninjutsu, which seemed to be called Flying Thunder God Jutsu, a ninjutsu created by the second generation Hokage of Konoha.

Only...

I didn't expect that besides His Highness Xin, someone else had learned such a difficult ninjutsu.

You know, he also tried to practice at that time, but...

In the end, it didn't work.

Therefore, he is very clear about this technique.

"Don't worry about him." Sasori said calmly, "Continue firing your cannons."

This guy...

Just leave it to him!!

He wanted to see...

What strength does this Konoha ninja have to come here alone?

Then...

He pulled out a scroll from his back and channeled it directly...

Breastplate, wrist guards, knee guards...

A set of golden armor.

"Sure enough..." Hai Zhen sighed after seeing Sasori's movements and the armor on the ground, and said, "Although this armor is good, it's really too low-class to wear."

And you have to put it on yourself!!

"..."

Sasori glared at Hai Zhen fiercely and said, "Shut up!!"

Still lazing around here?

Do your job quickly!!

then...

Dexterous...

Put on the armor of your own design one by one...

...

"So you're here!" Jiraiya walked to Uzumaki Xun's side, sat down directly, looked towards the direction of the Fire Country, and said, "War is inevitable after all."

Uzumaki Xin turned his head, glanced at Jiraiya calmly, and said, "The Uzumaki Country did not want a war. These were all initiated by you, Konoha."

"The Uzumaki clan has always longed for peace."

"But you clearly have the power to stop this." Jiraiya looked at Uzumaki Jun seriously and said, "Why don't you take action?"

Those are the three perfect immortal arts!!

This lazy brat definitely has the strength of a ninja god.

"Take action?" Uzumaki Xin, still holding the telescope, leaning on the top of the mountain to watch, said without turning his head, "And then?"

Chapter 735: Jiraiya's Plead

"Then..." Jiraiya opened his mouth after hearing what Uzumaki Jun said. Finally, he sighed and said, "At least this way the war can be avoided!"

"Avoid?" Uzumaki Xin chuckled disdainfully and said, "It just postponed the war."

"When I'm gone, the war will start again."

"The conflict between the Uzumaki Country and the five major ninja villages is not something that I alone can mediate."

Not to mention...

After training as a soldier for so many years, I always feel a little uneasy if I don't take it out for a walk!

And there are so many cannons, wouldn't it be a waste if we don't fire a few?

"..."

Jiraiya was stunned for a moment, then looked helplessly in the direction of the Fire Country and murmured, "Is it really impossible for the Ninja World to have peace?"

Indeed...

The Red System of the Uzumaki Country...

The relationship with other ninja villages was already predetermined.

The power of the God of Ninja World...

Jiraiya glanced at Uzumaki Jun and sighed inwardly...

The first generation also brought peace to the entire ninja world because of his peerless strength, but after his death, the war...

Still broke out!

So...

Jiraiya frowned and looked towards Konoha... Ninja...

How to change it?

"Don't worry." Uzumaki Xin said calmly, "It will be peaceful."

He has always believed that only the path of communism can save the ninja world!

If you can't... He would tell them with his fists.

Just so tough!

"Maybe!" Jiraiya sighed and murmured, "Originally, the Great Toad Sage always wanted me to find the child of destiny, but..."

"I haven't seen the Great Toad Immortal in the past few years. I don't know what the situation is like."

Then...

He looked at Uzumaki Xin with a strange look, as if...

Ever since this kid went to Myoboku Mountain, Gama Sage has been in seclusion!

Why is that?

"What are you looking at me for?" Uzumaki Xin put down the telescope and looked at Jiraiya and said, "Are you really not going to the battlefield?"

"What am I going there for?" Jiraiya was stunned for a moment, then said, "Aren't you afraid that I will help Konoha?"

"Don't worry." Uzumaki Xin said nonchalantly, "I will also take action when the time comes."

"..."

Thank you so much!!

"Well, in that case..." Jiraiya sighed and said, "I hope you'll show some mercy!"

"But your apprentice has already reached the shore." Uzumaki Xin spread his hands and said, "Aren't you worried?"

"Disciple?" Jiraiya frowned and asked, "Yahiko... could it be Minato?"

"Yeah!" Uzumaki Xin nodded and said helplessly, "That kid also knows space ninjutsu. If I take action at that time..."

"Sorry." Jiraiya quickly stood up and said, "I'll go stop him."

That stupid Minato...

You already have a girlfriend, why are you still running around?

Aren't you afraid that the ninth rank will remarry?

It seems that as a master, I need to educate him well.

Chapter 736: How Hypocritical

Minato held the kunai and looked at the red-haired man in front of him wearing a gold armor, and suddenly fell silent.

This is...

What does it mean?

What about the ninja's three-piece suit?

Vest, netting, tool bag...

Why is there nothing?

Could it be...

Minato's heart suddenly sank. Those who could wear such unique attire were basically strong people, just like Jiraiya, Tsunade, and Orochimaru. After they became the three ninjas of Konoha, they basically stopped wearing these ordinary ninja equipment.

So, could this person in front of me also be as strong as Jiraiya?

Why should it be golden?

Aren't you afraid of being made a target?

This color... It's too obvious.

However...

Sasori also have a lot of troubles that they can't explain!

It's armor after all!

It must be made of metal that conducts chakra well. That way, I can control it as I wish through the chakra lines. And it can't be too heavy, otherwise it will be difficult to move. It also needs to be sturdy...

Except for the golden gold sand, other metals are not so good.

Therefore, he spent all his savings and four years to develop this set of holy clothes.

There is no impurity on the whole body, it is all gold sand!!

Of course, he also thought about painting a layer of paint on the outside, but this would reduce the flow of chakra, which is really not worth it!

And...

It's so golden, my mom said it's good after seeing it!!

Sasori's eyes narrowed. At least he couldn't lose now. He represented the Uzumaki Country!

He said calmly, "Konoha ninja?!"

"Get out of here!!"

"You are not welcome in the Uzumaki Country."

These five major ninja villages are really disgusting.

"Sorry." Minato raised his special kunai, narrowed his eyes, and said with a wry smile, "There's an order from above. As long as the rebel ninja is handed over to us, Konoha will retreat immediately."

As a ninja, he could only carry out the Hokage's orders seriously.

That is...

"..."

Konoha retreats? ?

Stop joking.

What about other ninja villages?

Sasori curled his lips in disdain, looked at Minato, and sneered, "How hypocritical!"

Not to mention...

As a country, if we hand over people just after a few condemnations, how will other rebel ninjas join the Uzumaki Country in the future?

You know how much the Uzumaki Country is short of ninjas now!

With more and more students enrolling every year, the college's educational resources are insufficient.

Basically one teacher has to teach five or six classes.

As a result, they force people outside...

I'm really dreaming!

So...

Since you don't want to leave, then stay here!

"boom!!"

Chapter 737: Sasori vs Minato

Seeing that the Uzumaki Ninja in front of him refused to retreat, especially when the bombardment sounded again, Minato could only cautiously throw a kunai at Sasori, and then...

Sasori immediately used his armor to block the kunai, and then released chakra lines to tie up the kunai...

Swish!!

Suddenly, three cylindrical objects emerged from behind the armor and pointed at the kunai.

"..."

Seeing this scene, Minato's expression suddenly froze...

What's going on?

Shouldn't you dodge the kunai yourself, then directly use Flying Thunder God to grab the kunai from behind, and then retract the Rasengan to knock the person down and be done with it?

Why did he suddenly use the armor to resist and hold on to the kunai?

Besides...

What is that cylindrical thing that suddenly appeared behind him?

How come chakra is still gathered?

Anyway, Minato was frightened when he saw it.

There's a dangerous smell!!

"It seems that the person in front of me already knows the Flying Thunder God Technique." Minato frowned and looked at him, then looked around...

Oh, the sea!

You are all water!!

If I throw out all those kunai, I'll probably sink into the sea.

Only...

Minato dodged another bombardment, turned his head and looked at the fleet behind him that was still shaking under the impact, and sighed...

Now we really have no choice but to take action.

Then...

He grabbed a handful of specially made kunai from his ninja tool bag and threw them directly in front of Sasori.

Seeing this, Sasori immediately activated the accelerator tube behind him...

"Bang!"

A sound.

The figure disappeared immediately.

Seeing this, Minato quickly used the Flying Thunder God Technique, then took the kunai and wanted to throw it forward again, but he didn't know...

Sasori suddenly appeared behind them, and a round hole about the size of a basketball suddenly appeared in his golden armor, and a powerful suction force burst out.

Minato was startled and immediately threw a kunai to the side to get out of the suction range.

"Flash Body Technique?" Minato breathed a sigh of relief, looked at Sasori, and muttered, "No, it's faster than Flash Body Technique."

It's basically catching up with his Flying Thunder God Technique.

Even his eyes couldn't catch it.

Looking at the two short barrels behind the showy armor...

"Accelerate through a sudden burst of chakra power?"

Minato frowned...

Where do so many strange blades come from in the Land of Uzumaki?

This thing seems to be somewhat similar to the blade gloves that Akatsuki bought!!

Could it be a new invention of Akatsuki?

Only...

If there are too many of these armors, this mission will not be so easy to complete.

Then...

Looking at the kunai in my hand...

After throwing out so many, in the end, only this one can be saved.

He wonder if Hokage-sama can reimburse me?

You have to know that this is the special kunai he bought with his savings of many years!

It is three or four times more expensive than ordinary kunai!

He took a deep breath. Now is a war time, so I should stop thinking about it and quickly get rid of other irrelevant things from my mind.

Chapter 738: Weapon vs Creativity

The environment here was too restrictive, limiting his ability. He couldn't throw kunai all over the ground, nor could he carve seals in the sea. Moreover...

The person in front of him seemed to know the secret of his improved version of Flying Thunder God Technique.

What should I do?

Minato held the kunai and took out another kunai from the tool bag. He only had the last five kunai left.

Looking at Sasori in front of him, who would not attack unless he attacked, he glanced at the large black hole on his chest and the short barrel on his back...

We must find a way to destroy it all.

But...

He wonder how resistant that thing is?

He quickly made a handprint...

Shadow Clone Technique!

Two Namikaze Minato immediately appeared in front of him, and then...

Shuriken Shadow Clone Technique!

Suddenly...

A barrage of shurikens burst out.

Sasori frowned, watching this scene...

There are quite a lot of shurikens this time!

And most of them are shadow clones...

He was familiar with these two ninjutsu, as they were both taught in the academy, but...

It will disappear if it touches something, and the suction force only changes the trajectory of the shot.
The range is really too large.

But if I just ignore it, wouldn't I be giving the yellow-haired guy in front of me a chance?

So...

Can't hide!!

Sasori raised his hands and said calmly, "Secret Technique: Flame Prison Formation!!"

Turn on full power!

Two huge flame guns burst out from the palms of his hands.

"Bang!"

Under the flames, the shurikens in front of me kept disappearing...

However...

Sasori's eyes suddenly widened...

"Transformation Jutsu!!"

A kunai suddenly turned into yellow hair, and then Minato threw a secret kunai behind him.

"Damn it!!"

Sasori quickly raised his flamethrower and sprayed it at the secret kunai behind him.

But...

"Bang!"

Shadow Clone!!

His expression suddenly changed...

"Bang!"

Suddenly, a secret kunai appeared behind him...

"Rasengan."

Minato's face was calm, the corners of his mouth slightly raised, and he held a dazzling ball in his hand and smashed it directly at the acceleration tube...

Chapter 739: Third Mizukage Plan

The Hidden Mist Village.

Due to the failure of the last invasion of the Uzumaki Country, only one of the ships of the Hidden Mist Village returned to the village, and the rest were destroyed, causing serious damage to the fleet.

In addition, the Daimyo of the Land of Water was dissatisfied with the defeat, so the Hidden Mist Village has not received any funds and has not recovered until now.

So... This time we only managed to gather about ten large ships.

"Mizukage-sama." The Assistant Mizukage looked at Mizunoe Kiyomi and said, "We can already see the Uzumaki Country. I believe we will be able to land in about four hours."

"Yes." The Third Mizukage nodded calmly and said, "Are Kurochi Raiga and the others ready?"

"They have already set out," The Assistant Mizukage said, "and as per your instructions, they have not told anyone else."

"Keep it secret." The Mizukage stood up, walked to the deck, looked towards the direction of the Uzumaki Country, and said, "The Hidden Mist Village must be prepared."

Although this action is not the same as the Second Mizukage's, the alliance of the five major ninja villages, and this time the Uzumaki Country can't hide everyone like last time, so...

Their five major ninja villages should be sure to win.

But...

The Land of Uzumaki cannot be predicted by common sense. That little kid back then was already a Kage. So many years have passed, who knows how strong he would be?

Moreover, ever since the Uzumaki Country changed its leader, the Uzumaki clan has changed and is no longer the honest and simple Uzumaki clan of the past.

Since the Daimyo of Uzumaki Country dares to confront their five major ninja villages, he must have some basis for his confidence.

Only...

He doesn't know now.

"Remember our purpose this time?" The Mizukage said, closing his eyes and feeling the sea breeze. "We must get the blueprints for the sea-reclamation machine and the airship."

Their Water Nation is full of reefs and other things, it's too scattered. If they could get that machine, the Water Nation could definitely fill in a continent larger than the Fire Nation!

So, this time we want to arrest all the rebel ninjas.

But the main thing is to bring the reclamation machine, the airship and the remaining two ninja swords to the village later.

Otherwise... After so many years, the Seven Ninja Swordsmen of the Ninja Swordsmen are about to become the Five Ninja Swordsmen of the Ninja Swordsmen.

"It has been arranged." The Assistant Mizukage nodded and said, "Raiga and the others will be careful."

Of course he knew what Mizukage-sama was worried about.

Wasn't the second generation master also full of confidence back then, carrying the hopes of the whole village, and sailing across the Uzumaki country with high spirits?

He originally planned to just go all the way there, but what happened?

The Uzumaki clan is so despicable!

After a set of Xao operations...

The second generation could only die to atone for his sins, to prove that he had done nothing wrong as a shadow, and everything he did was for the Hidden Mist Village!

"Yes." Mizunoe Jingyi nodded slightly, a smile appeared on the corner of her mouth, and said, "In that case..."

He haven't finished speaking yet...

boom!!

A loud bang was heard.

Chapter 740: Xin's Helplessness

The only advantage of the alliance of the five major ninja villages is that it disperses the military forces of the Uzumaki Country.

Xin sighed and put down the telescope.

The troops from the Hidden Mist Village also arrived.

If the Uzumaki Country is given a few more years, it will indeed not be afraid of the five major ninja villages, but...

The time is still too short.

From the reform of the Uzumaki Country to the present, it has only been a short period of more than ten years.

He would not follow the example of that old scoundrel Sarutobi Hiruzen and send young children to the battlefield. What role could those children play?

I just graduated from the Three Body Technique and went to the battlefield...

Either you can only shout 666, or you can be cannon fodder...

Sarutobi Hiruzen is selecting the truly strong. Only those who survive the battlefield will have the opportunity to listen to his teachings of the Will of Fire!

But for the Uzumaki Country, these students...

They are all hope for the future!

Perhaps there are only a few true geniuses, but they do not all need the strength of an elite jonin. As long as they have the strength of a genin or a chunin, it will be enough. Anyway, there will be suitable positions for them in the Land of Uzumaki. Whether it is moving bricks or burning bricks, they do not need too strong strength.

The Land of Uzumaki...

There is a real shortage of labor!!

Especially the ninja workforce.

This is also why there are many Genin-level rebel ninjas or wandering ninjas coming to the Uzumaki Country...

After all, doing some work here is better than risking your life on a mission! !

Didn't you see the Four-Tails Jinchuriki doing a good job?

So, why would you want to be cannon fodder when you could keep your life to build the motherland?

What's more, if he doesn't have the talent of a ninja, maybe he is a scientific genius?

You can always find a position that suits you.

Uzumaki Xin sighed, picked up the telescope again, looked at the battlefield on the Fire Country side, and murmured, "It's really worthy of being Minato!"

In such a harsh environment, they were able to find a way to escape.

All he had to do next was log in.

After landing, the powerful Flying Thunder God Technique can be used to its true power.

After all, Sasori's shabby fighting style just now did give him a huge advantage in the ocean...

Just keep an eye on the special kunai.

And in the sea, Minato couldn't use the Heavenly Flower Scattering Technique!

So...

Just stare at the kunai floating in the air.
