

Uzumaki 761

Chapter 761: Unknown Hero

"Ahem!" Tongcao Yebairen looked at Biwa Juzang, who was holding a kitchen knife in front of him, and coughed twice, saying, "I didn't expect that after so many years, your strength hasn't declined at all!"

"Perhaps if you hold the beheading sword, you can cause me some trouble."

"But..."

Tongcao Yebairen looked at Biwa Juzo with a sneer...

"There's no such possibility in the ninja world!!"

"It's time to end..."

"Biqua Juzo!"

He raised his ninja sword and rushed forward...

"Rebel ninja..."

"You shall not die a good death!!"

Biwa Juzang glanced at the dull kitchen knife with a wry smile, and sighed helplessly inwardly. He...

Lost to the Ninja Sword!!

Perhaps if he was holding a beheading sword...

But just as Tousou Yabaito said, there aren't that many possibilities in the ninja world!!

He raised the blunt kitchen knife again, intending to block the ninja sword from the grass-bearing bait man...

"Crack!!"

The kitchen knife broke directly!!

"Have you forgotten what I'm holding?" Tousou Yaito laughed. "This is the blunt knife, Kabutoki, which can break through any defense..."

He haven't finished speaking yet...

"Bang!!"

Under Biwa Juzo's horrified gaze...

Lying down for no reason.

What's going on?

What about hitting a car?

Biwa Juzo looked warily at the wild bait man lying on the ground with his eyes closed. How could he have fainted?

Then...

"Bang!"

"Bang!!"

Under all the doubtful gazes...

All five members of the Seven Ninja Swordsmen lay down.

But no one noticed the woods behind...

"Let's go!" A white-haired old man sitting in a wheelchair said to the black-haired young man pushing the wheelchair behind him, saying lightly, "A bunch of trash!!"

When turning the wheelchair...

The old man glanced at Chan, who was glowing yellow, and the corners of his mouth rose slightly unconsciously...

It's really interesting!

besides...

What on earth does that red-haired kid want to do?

The war could have been ended quickly, so why did it drag on until now?

Chapter 762: Eliminating Mizukage

Uzumaki Xin helplessly looked at Frostmourne, which had returned to his hands, and sighed inwardly...

What is this?

Especially the Mizukage in front of him was staring at him with anger, as if he had committed something extremely evil!

Isn't it just a ninja sword?

There are a lot of people in the Uzumaki Kingdom. Do you really need to stare at me like this?

What a headache!!

"The Daimyo of Uzumaki Country." The Mizukage looked at Uzumaki Jun, took a deep breath, and said, "If the Hidden Mist Village uses this ninja sword as compensation for its defeat, can it..."

There is no other way now. He hopes that this ninja sword worth tens of billions can allow the Mist Ninjas to return to the village safely. He doesn't want to become a sinner of the Mist Village!

He suddenly understood the difficulties faced by the Second Mizukage.

This Uzumaki Country is such a pit!!

However, before he finish speaking...

"Don't dream." Uzumaki Xin said lightly, "This ninja sword..."

What is he here for?

Sell it again?

"When you start a war, you are destined to bear the consequences..."

Suddenly, Uzumaki Xin seemed to have discovered something, and stared at the Frostmourne in his hand with wide eyes...

"Swish!!"

The Mizukage and his assistant seemed to have noticed something was wrong as well, and they also stared at Frostmourne...

"This, this..." Mizunoe Kiyomi looked at Frostmourne, which suddenly emitted an icy light, in disbelief and said, "Could it be..."

Sword Spirit!!!

Is this sword spirit about to be awakened?

Feeling the cold atmosphere around him, even he, a member of the Mizunoe clan, could feel the chill...

"Stop him!!" the Mizukage shouted, "We must not let him awaken the sword spirit!"

Isn't this the national treasure of the Water Kingdom?

How could even a Daimyo from the Uzumaki Country be able to awaken a sword spirit?

Damn it!!

If he really woke me up...

The God of Ninja World and the legendary Ninja Sword, who else in the Ninja World can stop him?

The Mizukage Assistant also came to his senses and quickly made a hand seal...

"Water Style: Great Samedan Jutsu!!"

He felt it too.

Cold!!

A chill emanated from the Daimyo of the Uzumaki Country...

He didn't expect that Frostmourn would awaken at this time.

Damn it!!

If he had known earlier, he shouldn't have let Mizukage-sama take it out. Now... Our national treasure was actually awakened by the enemy.

This is simply shameful and infuriating!!

However, just as the Mizukage and the ninjutsu assisted by the Mizukage swept in front of Uzumaki Xin...

Suddenly!!

All Ninjutsu were frozen?!

The Mizukage and the Mist Village ninjas on the boat all gasped and stared at the scene with wide eyes!

It truly is worthy of being the ninja sword that can defeat ten ninja gods!

Mizunoe Kiyoi was in tears. Why was it not the ninja from the Hidden Mist Village who awakened the sword spirit?

What should I do next?

Now they can no longer think what they want...

Suddenly...

"Ice..." Uzumaki Xin roared loudly with an ugly expression, "Throne!!"

It seems like he used all his strength!

As soon as the words fell...

"Giggle—!"

"Ah!!!"

The entire sea surface is a hundred miles in radius, and wherever you look...

In an instant...

All frozen into thick ice!!

Even the Mizukage and the Mist Ninjas on the fleet were all frozen!!

Chapter 763: 'Real Power' of Legendary Sword

"Is it so powerful?" Mu Xinshu stared at the sea level with wide eyes. The coastline of the Uzumaki Country was frozen. This was too exaggerated!

That ninja sword...

It truly is the legendary ninja sword!

Even the ship was frozen solid, with several icebergs forming in front of it...

And Uchiha Kai...

He nodded in approval and said, "This power..."

"Too strong!"

Then, he looked at Mu Xinshu's chest...

"Your eggs..."

"Oh, you're talking about this!" Mu Xinshu took out the crushed egg and said helplessly, "What a pity~"

He was accidentally hit during the battle just now!

"I told you to eat it early!" Uchiha Kai said lightly, "It's a waste now!"

"It's okay." Mu Xinshu sorted out the broken eggs, buried them, and said with a smile, "Anyway..."

The war is about to end~

Only Chan took one look at His Highness Xin and shouted, "Hurry up, stop looking. No matter how you look, it's still His Highness Xin."

"There are many people lying here!"

Now is the time to look at the ice, why don't you come to rescue people?

"Oh-oh!"

Mu Xinshu and Uchiha Kai also came back to their senses. Although they didn't know why the Five Ninja Swordsmen suddenly fell unconscious for no reason, but...

This is not bad, at least it is finally over.

This group of newcomers is so weak, there are even ninjas who are trembling with fear in the war?

They are all teenagers.

We should learn from other ninja villages. When they graduate from the ninja school, let them kill bandits or wandering ninjas!

Otherwise, if this continues, something unexpected will happen sooner or later...

If you become weak once you meet a strong person, what else can you do?

Just surrender.

"I'm coming." Mu Xinshu hurried over and said, "If anyone can move, come and help!"

Saving people is the most important thing now. As for other things, let's wait for His Highness Xin to come back!

"Why are you still holding this kitchen knife?" Biwa Juzang looked at Fuguki Suikazan who picked up the broken kitchen knife and asked, "It's useless now."

You still plan to use a knife that has seen human blood to scrape fish?

Aren't you afraid of customer complaints or the health department closing the store?

"This is such an honor!" Fuguki Suikazan said happily, holding up the two pieces of kitchen knives. "It represents that the two owners of the grilled fish shop stood up and protected the Uzumaki Country when it was invaded."

When the time comes, just hang it up in the store...

The turnover will definitely increase dramatically!!

"..."

There is also this kind of operation!!

Biwa Juzang looked at Fuguki Suikazan speechlessly, and suddenly sighed in his heart...

He truly deserves to be the hero who betrayed the ninja village for his Mist Ninja brothers!

My brain is very flexible and I can think of this.

But no one noticed...

Behind the woods, a man with a pair of green, bean-shaped eyes leaned against a tree, his hands folded across his chest. He was looking indifferently at Uzumaki Xin on the sea level and muttered, "It seems that the price of this ninja sword is going to go up again!!"

Chapter 764: Those Who Will Suffer Afterwards

In the northern part of the Uzumaki Country...

"Why haven't we seen Kumogakure for so long?" Nagato yawned helplessly and said, "Is that Raikage coming or not?"

He was tense for several days, but...

Nothing?

The Fire Nation is over, and the Water Nation...

He guess it will be soon.

Just these, not a single shot was fired during the entire process!

Nagato sighed inwardly and muttered, "I was planning on trying out my new improved Rasengan!"

Now, he guess if the Hidden Cloud Village really dares to go ashore, they will definitely be beaten up!

Only problem is, are they coming yet?

Mid-June

The war that lasted for more than ten days was officially over!!

Most of the ninjas from Konoha, Sand Village, and Iwagakure Village were captured...

The Third Kazekage died in battle, and Konoha's commander Orochimaru was captured. Only the Tsuchikage of the Iwagakure Village escaped with the remaining few Iwagakure ninjas by relying on his super-light and heavy rock technique and Dust Release.

The Hidden Cloud Village did not participate in the war. It seemed that when they saw that something was wrong, they immediately returned to the village.

As for the Third Mizukage and the Mist Ninja...

What a miserable death!

Our national treasure was frozen to death on the sea. They heard that the ice hasn't melted yet. The scene is really spectacular!

But they heard that the Daimyo of Uzumaki Country was able to awaken the sword spirit just by accident. After using the ninja sword, his entire arm was frostbitten, and the situation was very serious. He would not be able to recover without rest for three or four months.

To recover normally...

It is still unknown at this time.

Suddenly...

The legendary ninja sword reappeared in the eyes of the major ninja villages.

While feeling fortunate that the Daimyo of Uzumaki Country had not yet been fully recognized, he began to dig holes everywhere in his own country, wanting to see if their country had any ninja swords that had been passed down for thousands of years.

As for Konoha...

Because of this awakening incident, he was once again targeted by a group of ninja villages.

Especially in this war, Konoha suffered heavy losses and the village's strength was greatly reduced...

Chapter 765: Uzumaki Country Won

Three days after the war ended.

The people of the Uzumaki Country began to resume their daily production and life.

However...

War will eventually result in casualties. Although the casualties in the Uzumaki Country were not heavy due to early preparation, some people still left forever.

After the short and solemn funeral attended by the entire country, life slowly returned to normal.

Death is the most common theme in the ninja world, especially for these poor people, who see death every day outside...

Starved to death, frozen to death, died of illness, killed by ninjas...

They used to it.

Certainly, the attacks on the coast and the ruins left by the explosions still indicate the tragic situation that the soldiers of the Uzumaki Country faced in that war.

Countless chakra cannons were destroyed, and countless soldiers faced the enemy's kunai, shurikens, and ninjutsu head-on. After that...

How many people...

Lying down?

Especially recently, the hospitals have been overcrowded, and many people have gone to visit the surviving heroes, bringing with them their inner gratitude and a little bit of their thoughts...

A thank you, some apples, a basket of eggs, or a bowl of rich chicken soup, porridge...

All these made the soldiers lying in the hospital beds feel warm and let them know...

Their sacrifice is worth it!

Because they protected this country and the simple people of this country.

Each college also organizes visits for students!

For a time, the cohesion of the country was elevated to a new level. Everyone understood the difficulty of war. They were able to work and earn money in peace and contentment, eat, wear clothes, and sleep in the country, all because of a group of lovely people who silently carried everything for them behind the scenes!

At the same time, recruitment slogans were quickly posted across the country...

"One person serving in the army brings honor to the whole family!"

"Join the army to fulfill your duty, guard the border and defend national defense!"

"..."

After seeing these, and the soldiers who sacrificed their lives for the country and the people...

The young man seemed to have found his goal and joined the army with the intention of defending his country.

Although the Uzumaki Country is still immersed in sadness, but...

The victory of the war is still an exciting thing. Relying on a small island to resist the five major ninja villages, in the end, the Uzumaki Country actually won!

This is such an incredible thing, yet it makes people have to believe it!

The entire ninja world was in an uproar because...

The Uzumaki Country relied on its own national strength to achieve victory. Although the Daimyo of Uzumaki Country eventually intervened and annihilated the Hidden Mist Village by awakening the Water Country's national treasure, 'Frostmourn', it is still undeniable that the Uzumaki Country, relying on a small island nation, was able to withstand the invasion of three major ninja villages!

This is incredible!

Suddenly...

Most of the small countries in the ninja world have begun to doubt their original one-country-one-village system, and are also ready to re-examine the red system of the Uzumaki Country. What are its advantages?

Why was it possible for a small island nation to rise in such a short period of time and become known as the sixth largest country?

Even...

Some people even call it the number one country!!

Because the Uzumaki Country won by fighting against the joint forces of the five major ninja villages.

certainly...

Chapter 766: The Wind of War Suddenly Changed

While the entire ninja world was pondering its future path, what the path of communism was, whether it should be taken, and how to proceed, Konoha was facing a serious crisis...

The Hidden Cloud Village initiated a war on the border of the Land of Fire. Their reason was that Konoha had violated the Ninja World's "Pacifism Pact" and had secretly led the other three major ninja villages to wage war against a small, peaceful country on the coast.

As one of the guardians of peace in the Ninja World, the Hidden Cloud Village condemned Konoha's immoral and uncivilized behavior and...

Konoha must pay the price!!

Then...

The Iwagakure Village also declared war on Konoha.

As one of the only two remaining Kages among the four ninja villages that invaded the Uzumaki Country...

The Tsuchikage's big nose, he never spoke about what happened during the Uzumaki Country War. No matter who asked him, he remained silent...

And the Sand Village and the Hidden Mist Village...

After their third Kage died, in order to stabilize the order in the village, the top leaders quickly selected their own fourth Kage.

The Sand Village still chose the ninja who could use magnetic escape technique——Rasa!

As for the Hidden Mist Village...

They chose a cute little boy with a scar on his face - Yagura Karuji!

Aside from looking a bit cute, there's nothing special about the water shadow!!

Suddenly...

The families in the village who didn't know the truth were furious and suspected that someone was behind the scenes. This Karuju Yagura...

Which family is it?

It looks like he was just randomly found from outside and then pushed out by the top management!

But, one night, after the Fourth Mizukage invited them to "discuss," everyone remained calm and said in agreement...

This is a great water shadow!!

And because the Hidden Mist Village suffered the heaviest losses in this war!

The national treasure that they bought with great difficulty and loan was awakened by the enemy...

It hurts!

The village began to fall into a deficit crisis again.

So they don't care about the melee between the three major ninja villages on the continent!

As for the Sand Village...

As the ninja village that loves to join in the fun the most, how could they not participate?

After the Fourth Kazekage was chosen, Rasa led the remaining Sand Ninjas to the battlefield...

Indeed, the number of ninjas was a little less, but this time they were just shouting 666. Although they despised the Hidden Cloud Village for deserting the battlefield in the Land of Uzumaki, but now...

We absolutely cannot let Konoha get the joy of fire!!

So...

The Fourth Kazekage accepted the alliance of the Hidden Cloud Village and agreed to condemn Konoha on behalf of the Sand Village.

For a moment...

Our Third Hokage took a few more puffs of his cigarette in the office!!

Chapter 767: Sky High Price

"Alas!" Sarutobi Hiruzen looked at his team with a worried look on his face. They were the backbone of Konoha and the leader of Konoha towards a powerful core group. He said, "What do you think we should do now?"

He also didn't think that the alliance of the five major ninja villages would be defeated.

And they were defeated so completely!!

What the hell!!

Especially the Hidden Cloud Village...

How dare you declare war on Konoha?

If they hadn't deserted, the alliance of the five major ninja villages would have destroyed the Uzumaki Country long ago.

But now... Most of Konoha's ninjas were captured by the Uzumaki Country. The representatives of the younger generation, Orochimaru and Minato, were also captured. As for Jiraiya and Tsunade...

Now I don't know where to hang out?

Sarutobi Hiruzen felt so tired!

There is no one in the village who can fight!

"Isn't Uzumaki Country returning the captives from the villages?" Utane Koharu frowned and asked, "What do they want to do by holding so many captive ninjas?"

Waste of food?

You have to know that when each ninja village captured ninjas from the enemy village, they would either kill them all or...

Pay money to redeem the prisoners!

But that wouldn't be too many. After all, too many ninjas from the enemy village would cause chaos to our village.

So, what Konoha did was...

Let go~

After all, Konoha is the messenger of justice!!

"They'll only discuss the prisoners with us after we pay them 100 million each for the 250 chakra cannons destroyed by Konoha, 5 billion for Uzumaki Nation's losses in the war, and 1 billion for Uzumaki Nation's ninja casualties!" Sarutobi Hiruzen said helplessly. "This is worth over 30 billion!"

How could Konoha possibly take it out?

Especially the money they lent to the Hidden Mist Village last time, which they still haven't repaid, plus the blades they bought for this war...

He no longer had the money to protect Konoha.

And he heard that on the battlefield, the blades seemed to have gone awry, which caused...

But now we can't find the leader of Akatsuki to ask for compensation!

"..."

After hearing Sarutobi Hiruzen's words, Utane Koharu and the others fell silent. The Land of Uzumaki was simply...

The lion opened its mouth wide!!

These indemnities amount to hundreds of millions, so when the prisoners...

Not hundreds of billions?

But now...

The initiative is not in Konoha's hands!

They had been in charge of Konoha for so many years, having emerged from the ostracism of the major families, becoming the top leaders of Konoha, and leading Konoha to become the leader of the five major ninja villages, yet they had never encountered such a difficult situation as the one they were facing now...

"The Hidden Cloud Village's goal is to force Konoha to hand over the legendary ninja sword." Utane Koharu frowned, pondered for a moment, and said, "Is there no one in Konoha who has awakened the sword spirit yet?"

If someone could awaken the sword spirit, everything would be easy.

"No." Sarutobi Hiruzen shook his head and said, "All the ninjas in Konoha have tried."

Still no one succeeded!!

Sarutobi Hiruzen showed a wry smile...

He now doesn't know how the Daimyo of Uzumaki Country awakens the sword spirit.

"In that case..." Utane Koharu sighed and said helplessly, "The only way is to use the ninja sword..."

Currently, there are only two places known to have ninja swords, one is Konoha and the other is the Land of Uzumaki.

After seeing the Daimyo of Uzumaki Country awaken the power of the ninja sword, many ninja villages must have begun to itch, hoping that someone in their own village could successfully awaken the sword spirit and lead the ninja village to become stronger.

The Uzumaki Country flexed its muscles in a war, so no one would rush to provoke it now, and Konoha...

The losses were heavy and the village's strength dropped significantly. If we don't fight now, when will we fight?

So now...

The only solution is to hand over the ninja sword.

Chapter 768: Uzumaki Hero

The Land of Uzumaki Morning.

Today is a heavy day...

All major factories, enterprises and workshops have stopped working.

The large square of Uzumaki Country was filled with people.

Before dawn, all the people of the Uzumaki Country came to the square with heavy hearts and looked at the center of the square...

Those soldiers, standing straight and straight, wearing the uniforms of the Uzumaki Country, with serious expressions on their faces...

There are even quite a few people who lost their lower limbs due to the war and are unable to stand normally...

But they still insisted on standing... With the support of his comrades, he held his head high and looked forward!

At this time... No one would show fear or cowardice, because they are soldiers, soldiers defending their country!

They will not let the people of their own country see their inner fragility. Only in this way will the people of Uzumaki Country have confidence in them and in their country...

Live a stable life in the Land of Uzumaki

"West Mountain Open Peak." Uzumaki Xin shouted seriously, "Step out!"

"Defeat two Genin and one Jonin on the battlefield, cling to the enemy with your body and refuse to let go, and finally, detonate the detonating tag to stop the enemy's progress!"

It wasn't Kaiyue who came to confer the honor...

It was his sixty-year-old father!!

Kaiyue did not graduate from the academy, but was a wandering ninja who came to the Uzumaki Country from outside.

Xuwo Xun looked at the old man whose hands were shaking but still trying to stand up straight, and his heart trembled...

He... Did he do something wrong?

"Feel sorry!"

Uzumaki Xin handed the medal over with both hands with a serious face, and silently said... Then, shout, "Grant..."

The old man also took the medal with both hands, and tremblingly gave a non-standard military salute to Uzumaki Xin and everyone below. With tears in his eyes, he looked at the medal in his hand quietly and murmured, "He is a hero..."

Kaiyue, don't worry, I will take good care of Kairen.

Your father and children will be proud of you!!

Then... He walked down slowly with his hunched body...

Because he is the father of a hero and cannot bring shame to his children!

Although he really want to cry...

But... He held back!

Holding the medal tightly in both hands...

And now...

No one dared to laugh at this old man with a stern back, his great, sad and proud back...

Everyone watching this scene was silent...

Peace...

It is always hard-earned!!

No one knows how many lives have been sacrificed and how much has been given up for this peace. At the same time...

No one knows how long the peace will last...

Uzumaki Xin sighed inwardly...

He might be a little cruel, but...

This is a process that a country must go through if it wants to become strong...

A process of blood and tears!!

Many problems were exposed during this war. New recruits, fresh out of the academy and untested by blood, were terrified, trembling, and vomiting on the battlefield. Some were even so frightened they could not move.

On the contrary, those ninjas who had already experienced war and those wandering ninjas from outside were able to react more quickly, defend themselves, and even attack the enemy.

Most of the dead were veterans!

They were silently teaching a lesson to this group of recruits with their lives.

War... It's going to kill people!!

Uzumaki Xin may feel sad in his heart, but he will not regret his indifferent attitude. If a recruit wants to become a veteran, he must experience blood.

Especially in this chaotic ninja world...

Fear...

But it kills people!!

As far as he can see now...

His goal is to allow the Uzumaki Country to grow step by step.

Otherwise, what if something unexpected happens one day and you disappear?

"Qianye..." Uzumaki Xin's eyes showed determination, and he read out the next one...

The strength of a country does not rely on just one person...

He just...

It's just the name of the Uzumaki Country!!

Chapter 769: Tsuchigumo Clan

The end of June in the XX year of Konoha.

War is about to break out!

Especially during the Uzumaki Country War, the Kumogakure Ninja Village completely preserved its combat power...

This is awesome!

Since he had already prepared for the war, he led the Cloud Ninjas westward towards Konoha.

And the Iwagakure Village, they dare not wander around casually anymore!!

The Third Tsuchikage remained silent throughout the entire process, dispatching a commander to the front lines. As for himself...

He decided to learn from the Third Hokage...

A gentleman does not stand under a dangerous wall!

Countless Kage in the Ninja World have already used their lives to illustrate a truth...

Wandering around will lead to death quickly.

Anyway, this time I was just going there to force Konoha, and I could just shout 666 at the side. As for the rest...

That's all the business of the Hidden Cloud Village.

Who asked them to escape from the battlefield?

You must know that among the five major ninja villages that participated in the Uzumaki War, only the Hidden Cloud Village remained intact. Even if they really succeeded in forcing Konoha this time, what about next time?

It must be the Hidden Cloud Village!

After all, now the Kumogakure Ninja Village is too powerful...

And each ninja village...

There is no real friendship. Who knows if the Hidden Cloud Village will share the legendary ninja sword with them after obtaining it? In this case...

Why work so hard?

Therefore, the war cry of Iwagakure Village this time is...

If you can hide, hide!!

At the same time, in the Tsuchigumo Village...

This small ninja village, like the Uzumaki Village before it, was also founded by a family. However, it was different from the Uzumaki clan's Uzumaki Country...

They are just a small ninja village that lives under someone else's roof.

A small ninja village where people work hard for others in order to survive...

"Konoha?" The Tsuchigumo clan leader looked at the alliance petition sent by Konoha, pondered for a moment, looked at the clan elders, and asked, "What do you think?"

"This..." An elder looked at the expressions of the elders around him, thought for a moment, nodded and said, "I think it's feasible!"

"Although Tsuchigumo Ninja Village is a ninja village, it is just a family."

One's own family knows one's own affairs...

The entire ninja village has only a few hundred people, and most of them are not ninjas.

Therefore, it would be a good thing if we could form an alliance with Konoha!

"After all, our forbidden techniques are too tempting."

The elder sighed and looked at the patriarch...

A forbidden technique can destroy a city. Who wouldn't want to see it?

But now...

The population of the Tsuchigumo clan is declining, and the number of ninjas is also decreasing. In addition, the family's forbidden techniques are difficult to practice, so if they continue like this, they will sooner or later be targeted by others.

So, forming an alliance with Konoha is an opportunity?

After all, a lean camel is bigger than a horse. No matter what, it is one of the five major ninja villages, and Konoha will not be destroyed so easily.

"What the Third Elder said makes sense." The clan leader nodded and said, "In that case..."

"Wait.

Sudden...
