Chapter 9 - Abnormal Condition

"Next is Water and Lightning."

This time only one step in, a small and sick looking man that is coughing from time to time.

"You?"

"Cough!... Cough! Yes Young Master.... Cough!"

They look at this sick looking man coughing like he is going to die, they don't think he can do this job because of his situation.

"Young Master..."

"He is not sick."

"?"

Looking at their confused face, Xin said again." He is not sick."

"He look pale and sick because of the a normal amount of Water and Lightning Element inside of his body."

"This made his body sick after long time of not having proper training."

"Cough! You mean I can still be cured?"

"Yes, the thing you expirence right now is not any kind of sickness but a special deficiency that makes your body start to fall off."

"What you need is to release all of the abundant Element and start to train your body so you will not get sick again."

"I see."

"Wait Xin, are you sure about that?"

"You are?"

"Third Elder, thats my Grandson, Uzumaki Storm."

"I see, I think you already sense that abnormal amount of Chakra inside of Storm right?"

"Yes, I can sense that but I can't find why he can't use any of our Jutsu while with his weak body he can't follow any training procedure at all."

"First, Uzumaki don't have a lot of Lightning and Water Element Jutsu, second is the kind of training he need is a rough but at same time perfect to the kind of body he has right now."

"If you train him hard, he will only get sick, if you train him weakly, you will not get any results, what he need is a perfect training to prevent hair body from falling out."

Xin take a note from his pocket and wrote something on it and pass to Third Elder.

"Get that item above, try to complete all the training program that I prepare and come back to me after his face trun healthy."

"No time limit?"

"Base on my calculations, it will only take two days for him to recover, and also take this, he need to perform this Jutsu twice before resting."

Third Elder take the scroll and look at it.

"Storm Release: Great Thunder Storm?"

"It's a wide range Jutsu that need huge amount of Chakra, and base on Uzumaki Storm's Chakra reserve, he can perform two every one hour."

"I see."

"Okay, the last is Fire, Wind, and Earth Element, triple Element or even Five Type Element with the three Type of Elements I call."

Surprisingly four actually step in.

"Four?"

"Yes!"

"Excellent, you are greatly need for the defense of the village, I don't expect we have triple Element on our clan, good good."
