

Uzumaki 96

Chapter 96 - Naga's Home

Five kilometers from the original site, Naga Uzumaki finally come out of the shadow, she can't help but to look back at the place she just left with curious gaze.

"Those idiot..... "

"They never expect that the are already sold as goods..... "

"Trying to use me as bait? Let me see how you escape this one... "

She then pull a strange device on her hand and push one something.

The connection enter, she then heard a Young Master's voice.

"Are you safe?

A smile appeared on Naga unconsciously, she can't help but to feel warm knowing that her Young Master first question is her own safety.

It's really feel good having someone taking care of you even if you are far.

"I'm safe Young Master, don't worry."

"Good, if something that you can't solve use the money to attract the attention of your enemy, I don't really care about the money, your safety is the first priority."

'Of course I know.' Naga inward said, how can't she don't know her own Young Master's attitude, because of this she is willing to accept any dangerous situation for him.

She can still remember as clear as day when her Young Master reach out to help her.

Actually she is not natural born in Uzumaki Kingdom, her family is from distance relative of Uzumaki Clan.

They are the people who did not join the Uzumaki Kingdom and chose to continue to become a nomads.

And because of this hey become target of slave trader and some dangerous organization and village.

Maybe because of their own pride their leader did not chose to come back and ask for help but to continue to hide on any cave while trying to hide their identity.

Uzumaki Naga is the Four Generation of Uzumaki Clan, and because of the constantly fighting the population of them decrease every year.

Not fast but still the death evey year is huge blow to the group, until when the First Ninja World War explode.

They become the target of everyone because of the Uzumaki Clan Heritage.

Because of the death of Ninja God, the last string of restraint finally broke, the huge backer of Uzumaki finally died.

And because of this the hundred or so population of them start to decrease faster and faster until her family chose to separate from the group.

If they go in one huge group they will only get target easier so they chose to go on their own way and hide.

But Thai thing did not last long, six years ago, Naga still four that time see her family get killed by the slave trader from Land of Snow.

She was devastated, and not only that she got caught by them, for own whole month they keep her like a dog until one fateful day a handsome young boy suddenly appear on front of her cage asking.

"Do you want freedom?"

Naga don't feel freedom is safe

"Do you want to take revenge?"

Naga don't have any thoughts of getting revenge.

"..... Why not I give you home?"

Naga's eyes slightly move.

Home? Such luxurious and nice to hear, but home? She can't remember any place that she can call home.

"Want to come with me? I can give you home?"

"Really?"

"Yes, from now on, I'm your home that you can go if you are tired and need to rest."

"... Please... Take me home... "
