Chapter 871: Chaotian City

When the Dawei Dynasty was discussing the mystery of the demon.

Other places in the Land of Hundred Dynasties also caused a sensation because of this issue of "Stories of Hundred Dynasties".

"Have you read this issue of "Hundred Dynasties Records"? The Secret Realm of Heavenly Demons, once held for a hundred years, is about to begin again."

"Really? This is a huge event every 100 years in the Land of Hundred Dynasties, and every time the Mysterious Demon Realm is opened, it will have a certain impact on the pattern of the Land of Hundred Dynasties."

"Yes, I remember that the last time the Heavenly Demon Secret Realm was opened, it directly led to one more high-level dynasty and five middle-level dynasties in the Land of Hundred Dynasties. It also led to the destruction of some dynasties. I don't know what will happen this time."

"Oh, it's a pity that this secret realm is too far away. If I can enter it, how good it would be. Maybe, I can also become the king of martial arts and become the overlord of the dynasty."

"Wake up, the number of places in the Heavenly Demon Secret Realm is very scarce. Under the Martial King, the people who usually let in in each dynasty are basically half-step Martial King masters. After all, these people have the greatest probability of surviving in the Heavenly Demon Secret Realm, and the probability of being able to break into the Martial King Also the highest."

"But there are also ordinary martial arts who can enter."

"Haha, is that an ordinary Wu Zun? Are they all the geniuses of the major dynasties? After all, there is a rare opportunity, either a half-step Wu Wang powerhouse who has the opportunity to break through to the Wu Wang, or a potential genius Wu Zun in the future. They will make the most profit if they enter, and if they want to enter the Heavenly Demon Secret Realm as a genius, the minimum qualifications must be the sixth-tier early martial arts before the age of twenty-five. Generally, there are only a few inferior dynasties. ?"

This is happening in almost every city in the entire Hundred Dynasties. Discuss this issue of Hundred Dynasties.

And everyone's eyes are concentrated on the first news of Fengyunlu, as for the other news, almost no one pays attention.

Even the news that the ancestor of the middle-class dynasty was almost dead and his whereabouts was unknown, no one paid attention, let alone the trivial matter of the Dawei dynasty destroying the Dazhou dynasty.

Immediately, all major dynasties took action and began to select candidates from their dynasties.

And Qin Chen began tailor-made pill for Xiao Ya and others.

Three days later, with the help of Qin Chen, Xiao Ya and several people also broke through the early stage of Tier 6.

"Let's go!"

Three days later, the Dawei Dynasty and his party set out for Chaotian City.

Chaotian City.

Located in the core area of the Land of Hundred Dynasties, it does not belong to any dynasty. It is a city established by various dynasties, organizations, and forces in the Land of Hundred Dynasties.

In the beginning, Chaotian City was just a market established by various dynasties in the center of the Land of Hundred Dynasties, the purpose of which was to reasonably gather some news for the transactions between the Land of Hundred Dynasties.

But gradually, more and more forces are stationed here in the land of a hundred dynasties, and the transactions between them are getting bigger and more frequent, and more warriors have come to Chaotian City.

Slowly, Chaotian City expanded.

At the same time, some of the top forces in the Land of Hundred Dynasties, such as Tianji Pavilion and Xuanyin Valley, are stationed in the Land of Hundred Dynasties.

After thousands of years of development, Chaotian City has now become one of the top cities in the Land of Hundred Dynasties, covering a huge area, and at the same time has become the face of the Land of Hundred Dynasties.

No matter what event occurred in the Land of Hundred Dynasties, or the top forces of the Northern Heaven Region came down, they would stay in Chaotian City.

In addition, the Dange Headquarters, Qidian Headquarters, and Bloodline Holy Land Headquarters in the Land of Hundred Dynasties were also established in Chaotian City, serving as a bridge between the Dan pavilions of the Northern Heaven and the Land of Hundred Dynasty.

So many forces are intertwined, which has also led to Chaotian City hiding dragons and crouching tigers, masters are like clouds, and the young generation of geniuses are endless, countless, and it is definitely a place where warriors from a hundred dynasties meet.

The huge Cang Feather Eagle cut through the sky and flew over the tall hills covered with trees. They did not know how far they had flown. Qin Chen and his party sitting on the back of the Cang Feather Eagle finally saw that they were sitting on a large plain. Chaotian City in China.

Chaotian City is very magnificent. It is made up of blocks of boulders close to the square meter. The height of the city is more than one hundred meters. From a distance, it looks like an ancient behemoth, nestling on this plain, giving people endless oppression. Breath.

Moreover, in Chaotian City, there is an ancient great formation. Once you encounter danger, you only need to open the great guard formation to ensure the safety of Chaotian City.

Rumor has it that more than a thousand years ago, when the Blood Demon Cult was in its heyday, it almost broke Chaotian City several times, but they were all resisted by Chaotian City's ancient great formation and repelled back.

Today, this place has become a symbol of the land of a hundred dynasties. Any force who dares to attack Chaotian City is to fight against the land of the hundred dynasties.

"It's such a rich heaven and earth."

As soon as he entered Chaotian City, Qin Chen's first feeling was that he was full of true energy.

Here, Zhen Qi is almost several times that of the Dawei Dynasty, and it is obviously a treasure of geomantic omen.

"This is the center of the Land of Hundred Dynasties. The top seven upper dynasties of the Land of Hundred Dynasties are located near this Chaotian City. The heavens and the earth are naturally abundant."

Standing on the back of Cang Feather Eagle, Liu Xuanrui said with a look yearning: "Sooner or later, the territory of my mighty dynasty will also spread to this Chaotian City and become the top dynasty in the land of a hundred dynasties."

His eyes were sharp, as if to Qin Chen, and as if to himself.

In Chaotian City, it was forbidden for birds to fly in directly, and Qin Chen and his party fell outside the city. After registering, they entered Chaotian City.

Walking into Chaotian City, you can see warriors with strange costumes everywhere. They come from various dynasties and come from the north to the south to experience the Chaotian City. They will bring the treasures obtained from the adventure to the Chaotian City for trading and exchange the resources needed for cultivation.

Especially in the land of hundreds of dynasties, some of the top San Xiu fighters, including the famous San Xiu King, almost all gathered in Chaotian City.

Because here is the center of the stage in the land of a hundred dynasties, the closest place to success.

Because of the news from "Hundred Dynasties", when Qin Chen and his entourage came to Chaotian City, there were already warriors from various dynasties gathered in Chaotian City. The streets were crowded with people, but they did not appear to be crowded. There was a sturdy reputation everywhere. The strong.

A sloppy warrior in his thirties, dressed in shabby clothes, with an animal skin tied around his waist, gnawing on the claws of a blood beast, and a half-human axe hanging from his waist, swinging in the street. , Judging from the breath, he turned out to be a half-step martial arts master.

A group of extremely beautiful women, dressed in white dresses, graceful and immortal, with long swords hanging from their waists, and their temperament out of dust. Each of them has extraordinary cultivation. The long skirts are embroidered with the symbol of Xuanyin Valley, and a girl is surrounded by them. , Walking on the street.

The warriors are very respectful to this group of women, and apart from peeking at them, they dare not make any blasphemy.

Even some young talents who are obviously disciples of various dynasties and families are the same, showing fiery eyes, but don't dare to bother.

Because they are the disciples of Xuanyingu.

"Huh, is it her?"

It was just that after Qin Chen saw the group of women surrounded by people, he was taken aback.

Actually saw an acquaintance.

Chapter 872: Chance encounter

The group of girls surrounded by Xuanyingu disciples was Zhou Zhiwei who had dealt with in the Black Death Swamp.

Today's Zhou Zhiwei is no longer the cultivation base of the peak of the late fifth-order, but has entered the realm of the sixth-order martial arts, and even reached the peak of the early sixth-order, surrounded by the crowd.

"It seems that the last Huazun grass at the beginning allowed Zhou Zhiwei to enter the sixth-order Wuzun realm, and also reached the initial peak of the sixth-order. It seems that Xuanyin Valley is indeed the top power in the land of a hundred dynasties. ."

The difficulty of refining the Huazun grass into the Huazun Dan is already not low, and if Zhou Zhiwei can reach the initial peak of Tier 6 in a short time, it is also not something ordinary forces can do.

"Little Chen, what kind of power is that? They are all women, just don't know whether to accept male disciples?"

Zhang Ying came over, her eyes gleaming, and her eyes were as if a wolf saw meat.

If you can join such a force, wouldn't it be so cool?

"This is from Xuanyin Valley, silently."

The five prince Liu Yuanqin who followed with him changed his face and said hurriedly.

Xuanyin Valley is the top power in the land of hundreds of dynasties. In terms of strength, it is much stronger than the average middle dynasty, and it is comparable to the upper dynasty. With the power of the mighty dynasty, it can't be offended.

"Fifth brother, why should you be so nervous? I'm just a disciple of Xuanyingu. In terms of talent, I may not be worse than them."

Seeing the fairy-like Xuanyingu disciple walking high-profile on the street, Liu Lingyun looked uneasy.

While Qin Chen saw Zhou Zhiwei, Zhou Zhiwei seemed to have all thought, staring at him.

"Well, is this guy?"

Zhou Zhiwei's complexion instantly cooled down.

She clearly remembered that in the Black Death Swamp, Qin Chen had detained Master and how much of her Huazun grass, and almost made her lose the qualification to enter the sixth-order martial arts. Now seeing Qin Chen, her heart is naturally unhappy.

That group of people should be from the Dawei Dynasty, right?

"Sister Zhou, what's the matter?"

Seeing Zhou Zhiwei stopped, a group of Xuanyingu people asked.

"Nothing?" Zhou Zhiwei shook her head and took a deep look at Qin Chen. Although Qin Chen had put it together at the beginning, she was too lazy to pursue the matter after so long. Moreover, now is the critical moment for the opening of the heavenly demon secret realm. .

I heard from the master that with his current cultivation base, even if he joins the Northern Heavenly Misty Palace branch, he can only become an outer disciple.

Now that the mystery of the heavenly devil is about to open, if I can get an adventure in it and break through to a higher level, I will become the inner door and core disciple of the Misty Palace branch in the future, and I will completely leap over the dragon door and step on the mainland stage.

At that time, the so-called grievances in the land of a hundred dynasties were not worth mentioning.

"Let's go, Lord Valley Lord said that this time there is an important person in the Misty Palace branch, we still rush to meet, so as not to neglect the distinguished guests."

After speaking lightly, Zhou Zhiwei ignored Qin Chen and left here with Xuanyingu's disciples.

Although Qin Chen had offended her in the Black Death Swamp, Zhou Zhiwei had already regarded herself as a member of the Misty Palace after breaking through the sixth-order martial arts. In her eyes, even if Qin Chen was somewhat capable, it was only one of a hundred dynasties. The identity gap between the warrior of the earth and her is too far.

Holding on to it, just lowering his identity.

"Little dust, that woman knows you?"

Zhang Ying was taken aback and glanced suspiciously at Qin Chen and Zhou Zhiwei. Although there was no communication between the two, Zhang Ying still felt something in their eyes.

"I have seen it once." Qin Chen smiled, but did not say much, but his eyes were cold.

He clearly remembered that Zhou Zhiwei's master Luoying made it clear that Zhou Zhiwei broke through the sixth-order martial arts in order to join the Misty Palace branch. I don't know if this Heavenly Demon Secret Realm is opened, the Northern Heavens Misty Palace branch will not Will come.

With clenched fists, Qin Chen showed a hint of killing intent.

"Isn't it? This is killing intent? Did Chen Shao ever be abandoned by this woman?"

Zhang Ying's eyes turned, and her heart felt distressed.

You Qianxue and Liu Lingyun also looked at them, with a trace of vigilance in their eyes.

The appearance of Zhou Zhiwei made them feel a faint sense of crisis.

The episode passed, and the group continued to move forward.

As a force in the land of hundreds of dynasties, the Dawei Dynasty naturally had a resident in Chaotian City.

The officials of the Dawei Dynasty stationed in the land of a hundred dynasties had already come to greet them and welcomed everyone into the mansion.

This mansion is not large in size, the facilities are not so luxurious, and the location is quite remote, but the Dawei Dynasty, as one of the many inferior dynasties in the land of hundreds of dynasties, can have such a mansion in Chaotian City. , Has been extremely difficult.

"Little dust, you have to rest first. My ancestor and I will go out and try to get the place in the secret realm of heavenly devil."

As soon as Liu Tai and his party arrived at the mansion, they hurriedly left.

He broke through the middle stage of the seventh stage. After all, the time is extremely short, and the Dawei Dynasty still belongs to the ranks of the inferior dynasties. If you want to get ten places, you must identify it as soon as possible.

This is also the most important thing for Liu Tai and the others. After all, this time, the number of geniuses coming from the Dawei Dynasty is extremely large.

Qin Chen, Black Slave, You Qianxue, Wang Qiming, Yu Wenfeng, Lin Tian, Zhang Ying, Liu Yuanqin, Liu Lingyun, Xiao Ya, Zi Xun, Zhao Lingshan, Qin Batian, Qin Yuanhong, Qin Ying, Di Tianyi, Leng Wushuang, a total of seventeen people.

Most of them are friends of Qin Chen, as well as the black slaves and second uncles who are going to let them run the Chendi Pavilion in the future.

In the future, if they want to gain a foothold in Chaotian City, their strength must be improved.

The fifth prince Liu Yuanqin and the ninth princess Liu Lingyun are geniuses to be cultivated by the royal family.

What Qin Chen didn't expect was that Di Tianyi and Leng Wushuang were also favored by the royal family.

Two of them, one is the son of the city lord of Xuanzhou Dixin City, and the other is the first genius of Tianheng Academy.

Later, after getting an adventure in the Great Southern Metropolis, he possessed the silver spirit seed in his body. Although he did not have the help of Qin Chen, he also broke through to the sixth-order Wuzun. As soon as he entered the Emperor Star Academy, he broke the record of the Emperor Star Academy one after another. Liu Xuanrui liked it and brought it with him.

When the two saw Qin Chen, they were extremely cautious, for fear that Qin Chen would target them.

When they were in the Emperor Star Academy, they also heard the rumors of Qin Chen. They founded the Chendi Pavilion and designed the four top forces such as the Leng Family. Although the two of them have grown by leaps and bounds under the cultivation of the Emperor Star Academy, they have already Not at the same level as Qin Chen.

When the two came this time, they actually didn't have any hope of entering the mysterious realm of the heavenly devil.

After all, even if the Great Zhou Dynasty was rated as a middle dynasty, there were only ten talents. It was almost impossible for them to get it.

Even though I thought so, I still couldn't help but follow along. Even if you couldn't enter the secret realm of the heavenly devil, and to see the so-called top geniuses in the land of the hundred dynasties, it would be of great help to their future.

Chapter 873: Places are scarce

Fortunately, Qin Chen saw the two of them, but was a little surprised, but didn't say anything.

Although they were in Ancient Southern Capital at the beginning, the two of them and Hua Tiandu were Xuanzhou Tianjiao, and they did not attach much importance to Qin Chen, a disciple of the Five Kingdoms.

But the two did not have much hostility towards Qin Chen, unlike Hua Tiandu who directly wanted to kill Qin Chen, in which Di Tianyi had said a few words for Qin Chen.

However, after seeing Di Tianyi and Leng Wushuang both broke through to the sixth-order Wuzun realm, Qin Chen couldn't help but shudder.

In addition to Di Tianyi and the others who got the Silver Spirit Seed back then, there was another one, the magic power of the Blood Demon Sect.

The strength of Mo Li must be far above Di Tian Yi and the others, and even Di Tian Yi and the others have broken through to the early stage of Tier 6. With the help of the Blood Demon Cult, how terrible is that Mo Li now?

Moreover, the Blood Demon Sect has always been hidden in this land of hundreds of dynasties, and it will definitely receive news of the Heavenly Demon Secret Realm. The leader of the Blood Demon cult, only because of the adventures in the Heavenly Demon Secret Realm, will become a powerful Martial Emperor. This time he knew that the Heavenly Demon Secret Realm was opened. After the news, I will definitely not miss it.

After Liu Tai and the others went for a long time, they returned to the mansion.

"boom!"

Upon returning to the mansion, Liu Tai looked ugly, and directly photographed a stone table in the mansion to pieces.

"Ancestor, what happened?"

Liu Yuanqin and others rushed out when they heard the movement.

Liu Tai and Liu Xuanrui looked very ugly, even with a trace of anger.

"What's the matter?" Qin Chen also walked out upon hearing the movement.

"Little dust, those guys in Chaotian City are too disgusting." Liu Tai squeezed his fist and said fiercely: "The other party does not recognize that our Dawei dynasty has the strength of a middle dynasty, and only gives us the qualifications of the lower dynasty. The qualifications for the three geniuses of the Wei Dynasty are too much."

"What, only give three places?" Everyone was shocked, their faces hard to look.

There are so many disciples in the Dawei Dynasty, and three places, which is enough?

"Didn't the Great Zhou Dynasty be destroyed by us? Even if we are only a lower-ranking dynasty, if I wait for the Great Zhou Dynasty to be destroyed, there will be at least six places, right?"

"These Chaotian City talents don't care about these, obviously they want to deduct our quota." Liu Tai said angrily.

Everyone on the court looked hard.

Especially Liu Tai was trembling with anger.

The middle and lower dynasties are not just a question of quota, but also a question of qualifications.

You must know that the Heavenly Demon Secret Realm is a secret realm that even the King of Martial Experts attaches great importance to, in which the King of Martial Experts get adventures, and even make their own strength advance by leaps and bounds.

However, according to the rules of the Land of Hundred Dynasties, the lower dynasties did not have the quota of martial kings, and only three martial masters were allowed to enter.

And the middle dynasty allowed to enter five powerful kings and ten places.

The difference is too great.

Liu Tai and the others even calculated the number of five martial kings, namely Liu Tai, Liu Xuanrui, Fu Xingcheng, Mo Tianming, and Xia Wuhong, the ancestor of the Xia Dynasty.

The Daxia Dynasty will give one of the three Wuzun quotas to the Dawei Dynasty.

Now if Chaotian City really meant it, Liu Tai and the others would not be able to enter the Heavenly Demon Secret Realm, and the loss would be too great.

"Medium dynasty, can't you apply to the Tianji Pavilion? Since the Land of Hundred Dynasties currently treats us as an inferior dynasty, then go to Tianji Pavilion to apply." Fu Xingcheng said coldly.

How could they easily give up on such an important place in the Secret Realm of Heavenly Demon.

"Hahaha, little dust, we are back."

At this moment, there was a burst of cheerful laughter outside the mansion, and three figures walked in from outside the mansion.

It was Zhuo Qingfeng, Nangongli and Yelu Hongtao.

The three of them also came to Chaotian City with the team this time, but after entering Chaotian City, they went to their respective headquarters to report on their duties.

As the leaders of the respective forces of the Dawei Dynasty, although they came from the top forces such as Dan Pavilion, they were not qualified to enter the mysterious realm of Heavenly Demon.

After all, the Heavenly Demon Secret Realm is too important, and the entire Chaotian City Pill Pavilion headquarters has only five Martial Kings and ten geniuses.

But how could the three of them give up on such a major event as the Heavenly Demon Secret Realm?

Therefore, as soon as I came to Chaotian City, I went to the respective power headquarters to report on my duties, and at the same time, I was also trying to get my place.

Now that the three of them come back excitedly, it is obvious that their affairs have been done.

"Little Dust, this time when I return to the headquarters of Chaotian City Pill Pavilion, the old man not only obtained his qualification to enter the heavenly demon secret realm, but also asked for the qualification to enter the heavenly demon secret realm for Xiao Ya. Therefore, Xiao Ya's qualification, the Dawei Dynasty need not worry about it. One place is missing."

Zhuo Qingfeng said with a smile.

"Brother Nangong and I also got a quota to enter the Heavenly Demon Secret Realm, and Brother Nangong and I also got an extra quota for everyone. As for the more, I am afraid there is no way." Yelu Hongtao said with a smile.

The three of them broke through the King of Martial Arts, and in their respective fields, they also had amazing improvements. After returning to the Chaotian City headquarters this time, they immediately received great attention.

After all, in the entire land of Hundred Dynasties, there are only a handful of Seven-Rank Medicine King, Sixth-Rank Peak Bloodline Master, and King-Level Crafting Master.

Even as long as they are willing, they can leave the land of a hundred dynasties at any time and go to the three branches of the northern sky to report on their duties.

And all this was brought to them by Qin Chen.

"Little dust, the pavilion owner of the Pill Pavilion Headquarters in the Land of Hundred Dynasties, even hired an old man to be the deputy pavilion leader of the Pill Pavilion in Chaotian City." Zhuo Qingfeng said with a smile.

"Zai Xia is already the vice president of Chaotian City Headquarters, the Holy Land of Blood." Nangong Li smiled.

"The same goes for the old man." Yelu Hongtao's face was also smug.

Once the long-cherished wish for many years was fulfilled, how could the three people feel unhappy in their hearts?

The three of them were talking excitedly, but when they saw Liu Tai's expressions, they were still very ugly, and they were taken aback.

"Little dust, what happened? Why are your faces so ugly?"

"Yes, what is the application you mentioned before?"

The trio of Zhuo Qingfeng looked suspiciously and saw that the atmosphere on the court was not right.

Liu Tai said the previous incident immediately.

"This Chaotian City official is really arrogant."

When Zhuo Qingfeng heard this, his face suddenly sank.

They also knew that the Dawei Dynasty needed a lot of places this time, so they tried every means to get a place from their respective forces.

Unexpectedly, the Chaotian City official directly cut the ten places of Dawei Dynasty to three at once.

In this way, how can everyone make arrangements?

"The official dynasty appraisal is the establishment of the seven upper dynasties in the Land of Hundred Dynasties. It is naturally arrogant. But rest assured, the Dawei Dynasty can apply directly through the Chaotian City official if it wants to be promoted to the middle dynasty. As long as the conditions are suitable, the Chaotian City official There is no right to make the Dawei dynasty, which clearly has a medium dynasty power, a lower dynasty."

Zhuo Qingfeng said coldly.

Chapter 874: Master of Medicine King

Today's Zhuo Qingfeng, under Qin Chen's guidance, has been able to refine ordinary seven-tier pill, and is already the seventh-tier medicine king.

Coupled with his background in the Northern Heavenly Pill Pavilion, at this moment, he has fulfilled the master's request and can return to the Northern Heavenly Pill Pavilion at any time.

Therefore, I am not so afraid of Chaotian City officials.

"In this way, you don't need to pay attention to Chaotian City's official words, ancestor Liu Tai, you go directly to Tianji Pavilion to apply for promotion to the middle dynasty. With the conditions of the Dawei dynasty, you can completely withstand the review. In this way, you can get ten places. ."

"In addition, there is a quota for the Daxia Dynasty, and the three of us to come, a total of fourteen quotas."

"In this way, there will be a gap of three places in the end. According to the rules of the Land of Hundred Dynasties, a power similar to the inferior dynasty can have three places. We only need to establish the Chendi Pavilion in Chaotian City, and Let it become an inferior power, and naturally there will be three places, so that all places will be enough."

Zhuo Qingfeng said in detail, it was obvious that all the quota sources had already been planned.

"Build Chendi Pavilion into an inferior power?"

Everyone looked at each other, their eyes brightened.

This is an excellent way.

In this way, all places will be resolved.

However, how difficult is it for Chendi Pavilion to become an inferior power?

After all, now that the Heavenly Demon Secret Realm is open, one inferior power has three places. If it is really so easy to apply, I am afraid that someone would have taken advantage of it.

Zhuo Qingfeng said solemnly: "As far as I know, the application of the inferior power is the same as the dynasty promotion. It needs to go to the Tianji Pavilion to apply and be reviewed by Chaotian City officials. The most basic requirement for an inferior power is to have three people. King Wu, this is simple. I, Nangongli, and Yelu Hongtao can be counted in the Chendi Pavilion. Secondly, they must have a certain degree of economic strength and influence. There is no doubt about this."

"The only difficulty is that because of the opening of the Heavenly Demon Secret Realm, the review of the inferior forces has almost stagnated. After all, this method is too easy to take advantage of the loopholes. It must be spoken by a person or force with sufficient influence in the land of a hundred dynasties. "

People or forces with enough influence?

Liu Tai and others looked at each other and smiled bitterly.

The Dawei Dynasty is only an inferior dynasty in the Land of Hundred Dynasties. It has always been unknown. Where can I know the influence and people in the Land of Hundred Dynasties?

"At this point, I am ready, Shao Chen, I know a senior here who has an extraordinary status in Chaotian City, and Shao Chen, you didn't ask me to look for the awakening flower, etc., to improve my spiritual power and break through my spiritual power. Is the shackles panacea? That senior should have it somewhere."

"Does that person have a magic flower?"

Qin Chen stared intently, his expression agitated.

Xing Shen Hua, the seventh-order elixir.

After the treatment, the spiritual power of the alchemist can be transformed.

However, because of its domineering nature, the risk of taking it is also great. If you are not careful, it will cause the pharmacist to have a mental breakdown. In addition, it is difficult to cultivate. Therefore, it is extremely rare on the market. The average pharmacist will not really use it to wake up. Flowers enhance mental power.

During this period of time, Qin Chen was struggling with his cultivation and it was difficult to break through, and he had also thought about finding a way to increase his mental strength.

Now Qin Chen's spiritual power has already reached the sixth-order peak, comparable to the half-step Wuwang, but it is still a bit short of the real seventh-order spiritual power.

Because of the limitation of cultivation level, Qin Chen wanted to upgrade this thread, and it was extremely difficult.

But Qin Chen knew that the Awakening God Flower had such an effect, allowing him to break through the mental power that he couldn't break through, and enter the seventh step.

As long as the spiritual power reaches the seventh stage, even without Zhuo Qingfeng's help in the future, Qin Chen can easily refine some seventh-grade pill.

Moreover, Qin Chen's swordsmanship will become stronger after his spiritual power is improved, which is enough to threaten the general martial king.

In addition, he can also begin to practice the third stage of the Pantheon Art after Spirit Storm and Illusion Prison Cage-the Eye of Breaking the Forbidden!

Once the Eye of the Forbidden is successfully broken through his cultivation, his strength will increase again, which will also greatly help the improvement of his cultivation.

just.

Scarce elixir like Xingshenhua is too rare to be found in Dawei Dynasty.

Now that Zhuo Qingfeng said that he knew there might be a place to wake up the gods, how could he not get excited?

Zhuo Qingfeng said: "If there is little dust, I am not sure whether that person has a awakening flower, but there is a probability of more than 50%, it should be no problem, and if there is little dust, you can't find awakening from this person. Shenhua, then I am afraid that the entire land of the hundred dynasties cannot be found. This person has a very special position in Chaotian City, and is also a Medicine King, but her prestige is still in the Zhao Tiansheng Pavilion at the headquarters of Chaotian City Dan Pavilion. Above the Lord."

"Pavilion Master Zhuo, are you talking about the Master of Medicine King Garden?" Liu Tai seemed to think of something, and said in shock.

Hearing this name, Nangongli and the others were all startled, as if this name was a taboo.

"Yes, it's her." Zhuo Qingfeng nodded.

The faces of Liu Tai and others instantly became very strange.

"The Master of Medicine King, is there any problem?"

Seeing that the atmosphere on the court had become a little dignified, Qin Chen questioned.

Liu Tai said solemnly: "The owner of the Medicine King Garden is a very special person in my land of hundreds of dynasties. This person is extremely powerful. He came to Chaotian City about 50 years ago. , A medicine garden was built directly in the place where Chaotian City's true energy is strongest."

"And the elixir planted in her medicine garden are extremely rare elixir, the worst of which is also the elixir of the sixth-order peak like Huazun Grass, which caused a great sensation in Chaotian City at that time. "

"Others thought that the elixir she planted was definitely for sale, so they came to buy. Who knows that this person has a weird personality and is not in favor of others. Her elixir is never sold, even if you give it more money. . "

"As a result, it naturally attracted a lot of dissatisfaction from Chaotian City forces."

"So there are some forces that want to attack the other side's idea, secretly want to steal the other side's medicine garden."

"Unexpectedly, the other party's medicine garden has an extremely terrible formation restriction. The two martial kings who had been planning for a long time at that time were directly trapped in the medicine garden before they saw the medicine garden."

"The two martial kings come from a fairly powerful middle-level force. Normally, since the other party did not cause any damage, it is enough to let them go after a lesson. But the medicine king garden master, without saying anything, directly combined the two People are killed."

"This immediately caused an uproar in Chaotian City."

"The seventh-tier mid-level martial arts king of the middle power was also furious and asked the other party for an explanation."

Speaking of this, Liu Tai showed a trace of horror on his face.

Chapter 875: Great dynasty

Qin Chen and the others also listened intently.

Although they came to Chaotian City for the first time, they knew quite well.

It is definitely a place where the laws are strict and extremely harsh.

But the owner of the Medicine King Garden didn't say a word, and directly killed the two Martial King powerhouses who invaded. Even if he took the reason, it would definitely cause an uproar.

Moreover, the other party is still an outsider.

"What happened?"

Everyone looked at Liu Tai.

Liu Tai smiled bitterly and said: "Who knows that the Master of Medicine King is more overbearing, the middle-powered seventh-order Martial King came to the door, before he could say anything, he was directly bombed by the Master of Medicine King, and he was seriously injured. ."

"This is also how fast he ran, otherwise I am afraid he would be beheaded here like the two Martial Kings before."

Even the Martial King in the middle of the seventh rank was seriously injured and driven away?

Everyone was shocked, this kind of strength was at least the peak of the seventh-tier mid-term, and in the entire hundred dynasties, it would not be an unknown person.

However, the other party is so arrogant, can people in the land of a hundred dynasties really bear it?

Everyone was puzzled, and listened to Liu Tai continuing: "The actions of the master of the Medicine King Garden are too strong, coupled with the middle-level forces, who have been operating in the land of a hundred dynasties for so many years, it is not without a backer behind them. In response to the wrath of the Shang Dynasty in the upper dynasty, the ancestor of the Shang Dynasty, Lord Shang Zhou came to Chaotian City in person to seek justice from the other party."

The ancestor of the upper dynasty and the Shang dynasty?

Everyone's expressions shrank.

In the land of a hundred dynasties, the dynasties are divided into three levels: inferior, medium, and superior.

Inferior dynasties only need to have King Wu sitting in charge, while in middle dynasties, there must be a middle seventh-order Wu Wang sitting, while in the upper dynasties, there must be a late seventh-order Wu Wang sitting.

The ancestor of the upper dynasty and the Shang dynasty, it can be seen that he must be a master of martial arts in the late seventh stage.

Can the Master of Medicine King be able to handle this kind of strong action?

"What happened afterwards?"

Everyone couldn't help asking, looking curious.

Liu Tai smiled bitterly: "As soon as Shang Zhou came out, he had to ask the owner of the Medicine King to clarify the situation and give a fair one. The owner of the Medicine King naturally refused to agree. The two sides immediately fought, but no one knew the final result. Only knowing that after Shang Zhou fought against the Master of the Medicine King, he returned to the Dashang Dynasty and never mentioned that he had to explain it."

"The matter of the fall of two martial kings from the middle powers, that's what passed."

This.....

Everyone was dumbfounded. Although the final result has not been spread, anyone with a discerning eye can see that the Shang Chong must not have been able to please, otherwise, the dignified ancestors of the dynasty would give up like this.

"Since then, the owner of the Medicine King Garden has become a legend in Chaotian City, and no one dares to disrespect." Liu Tai smiled bitterly.

"But the owner of the Medicine King, although his personality is perverse and unkind, he is not completely unreasonable. After that happened, the land of the hundred dynasties had a very bad impression of the owner of the Medicine King, and some even wanted to encourage the Seven Great Masters. After the dynasty, he was expelled, but the owner of the Medicine King would occasionally heal people or refine pill. Everyone knew that this person was still a Seven-Rank Medicine King, and he was on the path of the pill. The cultivation base is not even under the pavilion master Zhao Tiansheng at the headquarters of the Chaotian City Pill Pavilion."

"With the rise of fame, the attitude of the Land of Hundred Dynasties to this person is not so hostile. After all, no one is sure if he will encounter a dangerous day. There is such a powerful medicine king. Even if it is not close to humanity, it is equivalent to another way. Moreover, although the owner of the medicine king has a perverse personality, he only guards his own medicine garden and rarely participates in things in the land of a hundred dynasties. Just close one eye and no longer target this person."

After listening to Liu Tai's narration, everyone was stunned that there are such amazing people in this world.

And Pavilion Master Zhuo wanted Qin Chen to visit him. It was such a weird person. Everyone seemed to feel that it was a bit unreliable.

Would such a person really help Chendige speak for them if he doesn't speak about world affairs?

"In fact, the owner of the Medicine King Garden is not as weird as everyone thinks." Zhuo Qingfeng smiled lightly: "I know a little bit about the origin of this person, and I have some connections with the old man. Moreover, this person is not for sale. Any elixir that wants to get a elixir from her must be exchanged with more rare elixir. Therefore, if the other party has a magical flower, it is not impossible that Chen Shao wants to get it."

Is there some connection with Zhuo Qingfeng?

Everyone thoughtfully.

Everyone knew about Zhuo Qingfeng's origins, but he came from the Northern Heavenly Domain Dan Pavilion, his master, and even a great figure in the Northern Heavenly Domain Dan Pavilion.

Could it be that the owner of the Medicine King also came from the Northern Heaven Domain Pill Pavilion?

Although doubtful, this is also a method. At the moment, everyone is divided into two groups, all the way to the Tianji Pavilion to apply for the middle dynasty, and the other way is Zhuo Qingfeng and Qin Chen to the medicine garden.

"Little dust, the Master of the Medicine King, Zhuo Mou has only met once before. This time I have not been fully confident that the other party will agree to it. However, it is reasonable and I have to visit. After a while, by I will come out and Shao Chen can just look at it. If the other party disagrees, Shao Chen must not force it. Let's think of another way."

On the way, he hesitated, Zhuo Qingfeng said.

Although he has some origins with the other party, he is not familiar with him after all. This time he was bold enough to ask about Chendi Pavilion, but he was not sure about the result.

However, in Zhuo Qingfeng's view, even if the other party does not stand out for dust less, if there is a awakening flower, exchange it with some elixir, it will also be rewarded.

"Don't worry, Ben Shao knows." Qin Chen smiled.

The opponent came to Chaotian City more than fifty years ago, and he was already a master of Medicine King, and the time for Zhuo Qingfeng to come to the land of the hundred dynasties was shorter than that of the opponent, and at that time, Zhuo Qingfeng was obviously only a Tier 6 alchemist. , Or even lower, the so-called relationship between the two parties should also be the relationship between Zhuo Qingfeng's previous generation, or the master.

This relationship is the weakest.

If you want to rely on such a little relationship, let the other party come forward, and even take out the awakening flower, the difficulty is high, it is almost impossible.

What Qin Chen thought was to rely on himself.

Since the other party is the King of Medicine, there will naturally be many shortcomings. By then, relying on his own medicine refining skills, he may not be unable to find a way to get the other party to come forward.

Chaotian City was huge, and Qin Chen, led by Zhuo Qingfeng, took a special transportation bird, but it took a full half an hour before he saw a magnificent manor.

The medicinal garden covers an area of thousands of acres. In this city, it looks very abrupt, and it is surrounded by a faint mist. You can see that there is a large formation guarding it.

And within ten miles of the medicine garden, there is no other building that can create such a territory in the Chaotian City, which shows the status of this person.

Chapter 876: Medicine King Talisman

"The front door is the medicine garden, let's go down."

Controlling the birds, Zhuo Qingfeng and Qin Chen landed at the gate of the medicine garden.

I thought the owner had a quirky personality and was inaccessible here, but when he came, Qin Chen and Zhuo Qingfeng were stunned.

I saw a crowd of people gathered at the entrance of the Medicine King Garden, and each of them had extraordinary aura. The aura on their bodies was extraordinary, and they were obviously not people of ordinary forces.

Many of them are actually Wu Wang masters.

It is worthy of being Chaotian City, a strong king of Wu, in the land of a hundred dynasties, has always been extremely rare, and the entire Dawei Dynasty is only a handful of them.

But in Chaotian City, there were no fewer than ten at the gate of Yaowang Garden alone.

"Pavilion Master Zhuo, didn't you say that the Master of Medicine King is withdrawn and inaccessible?"

Qin Chen said.

"This....."

Zhuo Qingfeng was also dumbfounded. He had also heard the news, but he was here for the first time.

What made Qin Chen and Zhuo Qingfeng even more depressed was that when they came together, the eyes of many experts around them instantly stared at them, each of them turned out to be hostile.

Qin Chen wondered in his heart? what happened? I don't seem to offend these people, why are the auras on these people so unfriendly?

But he didn't bother to bother, and as soon as He Zhuo Qingfeng was about to step forward to button the door, he heard a sound from the side.

"Two of you, are you also planning to invite the Master of Medicine King to come forward and establish a new force?"

The speaker was a middle-aged man, his eyes squinted, and he said with a smile.

After hesitating, Zhuo Qingfeng nodded.

Suddenly, the coldness around him became even worse.

"Hehe, I think the two are very prettier. They should belong to a small dynasty. What identity is the owner of the Medicine King Garden? Two people can climb high? Xu Xu advises them. Don't waste your thoughts and go back. ."

The face of the middle-aged man suddenly became cold, and his face changed faster than turning a book.

"Thank you, please." Zhuo Qingfeng frowned, but seeing the other's extraordinary temperament, he didn't say much, and moved forward.

"Your Excellency, I am also doing good for you, so as not to bring about killing for yourself and the dynasty, don't toast or eat fine wine!"

The middle-aged man, his eyes sinking, stopped in front of Zhuo Qingfeng, the threat was clearly revealed.

"Ok?"

Zhuo Qingfeng's face suddenly sank.

From the other party's words, he also heard that the group of people gathered at the gate of the Medicine King Garden clearly wanted to ask the owner of the Medicine King Garden to support them in forming a new force.

However, no matter what the other party's purpose is, what they want to do, it's not their turn to care, right?

"It's not your turn to talk nonsense for what Zhuo does, so go away!"

He is a member of Pill Pavilion, how can he be afraid of some dynasty forces.

"presumptuous!"

The middle-aged man's face suddenly became gloomy.

"Xu Long, you are a grand master of the Yan Dynasty, the other party doesn't seem to care about you."

The other warriors around also sneered.

Xu Long's face became more and more ugly.

"Boy, Xu just kindly reminds you that since you don't appreciate it, you can blame Xu for being rude."

boom!

A terrifying killing intent came from Xu Long's body, and it was obvious that he would immediately act on Zhuo Qingfeng.

The Dayan Dynasty was a middle dynasty in the land of hundreds of dynasties, and it was not weak among the middle dynasties.

These powerful dynasties all have big stations in Chaotian City, and they are very clear about the masters of the top dynasties.

And Zhuo Qingfeng's face was very fresh, he was clearly not a person from the top dynasties, and the aura on his body seemed to have only broken through the realm of King Wu for a long time, such a person, he did not pay attention to it.

Originally, he only wanted to drive Zhuo Qingfeng away, but he didn't expect that Zhuo Qingfeng toasted and didn't eat fine wine, and immediately angered him, ready to teach Zhuo Qingfeng a severe lesson.

"Hehe, that guy angered Xu Long, and he seems to be out of luck."

"I don't look at what place it is here, Chaotian City, that person is used to being arrogant in his own dynasty, so he thinks he is the King of Martial Arts, which is amazing.

"I also brought a junior over here. He doesn't understand the rules. Who does he think he is, a member of the seven upper dynasties?"

The other strong people around all said with a sneer, looking at Zhuo Qingfeng like a theater.

Zhuo Qingfeng's eyes condensed, and he didn't expect that, the other party said he would do it.

Moreover, the opponent's aura was extremely terrifying, and his cultivation had obviously reached the peak of the initial stage of the seventh stage, which was only stronger than the original Yan Wuji.

If he was only a member of the Dawei Dynasty, he might have to swallow his anger, but as a member of the Pill Pavilion, would he be afraid of a Wuwang of the middle dynasty?

His body was violent, and he was obviously about to fight the opponent.

"What's the noise? This is Yaowang Garden. If anyone makes another noise, get out."

At this moment, the door of the Medicine King's Garden opened instantly, and a person who looked like a maid came out and said coldly.

The noise on the court instantly quieted down.

The group of powerful men who had sneered at their mouths instantly became as serious as a mouse saw a cat.

Even Xu Long, who had almost taken a shot before, jumped suddenly, immediately stopped, and looked at the maid flatly.

"Don't dare, don't dare, how can I wait to make a noise at the gate of the Medicine King Garden."

The arrogant expression before, there is nothing left but flattery and flattery.

"I have already reported your matter to the lord of the owner. The lord said that if you have the Medicine King Talisman on your body, you can come in. If you don't, just go back wherever you came from."

The maid looked at everyone on the field indifferently.

The maid was just a sixth-order Wu Zun, but she was not afraid of the many strong players on the field, obviously she had seen such scenes a long time ago.

It's just that as soon as his words fell, some were pleasantly surprised, while others were anxious.

"Can you be accommodating? It's from the Great Zhao Dynasty next time. Next time you must donate a Medicine King Talisman. This time, time is urgent, so..."

"Yes, Medicine King Talisman, we must donate it later."

Many Wu Wang experts hurriedly said.

The maid's face sank: "I said that if you have the Medicine King Talisman, you can come in. If you don't have the Medicine King Talisman, let me leave. Otherwise, just stop blaming me for being polite."

When the voice fell, the maid's eyes were cold, the group of Martial Kings who had been arrogant before, did not even dare to say anything, and even retreated obediently.

But there were also seven or eight people who even took out a talisman from their bodies and entered the garden excitedly. Xu Long was one of them before.

Seeing that no one still had the Medicine King Talisman, the maid was about to close the door, when Zhuo Qingfeng saw it, she hurried up.

"Under..."

"Is your Medicine King Talisman?"

Before Zhuo Qingfeng could speak, the maid said coldly.

"This... there is no Medicine King Talisman here, here..." Zhuo Qingfeng explained quickly.

"Why are you messing up without the Medicine King Talisman? When my words are in the ears?"

The maid's face suddenly became cold, and a sharp light shot in her eyes.

Originally, their expressions were depressed, and the other strong men who were about to leave saw this scene suddenly became interested and looked at them with excitement.

Myrrh Wang Fu also dared to step forward, which dynasty is this guy from? Isn't it looking for death?

Chapter 877: Is it sick

At this time, the eyes of many powerful people all focused on Zhuo Qingfeng.

Where did this guy come from? It's too reckless, I don't know anything, and I dare to disobey the meaning of the maid in the Medicine King Garden, ha ha, really looking for death.

The owner of the Medicine King has a surly personality. This is well known to everyone in Chaotian City. If the other party is in a bad mood, even the face of the superior dynasty ancestor can not be sold.

There used to be a prince of a middle dynasty who was seriously injured and Chaotian City Pill Pavilion could not be cured. So the ancestor of the middle dynasty, with the prince, tried his best to ask the owner of the medicine king to help him.

Unexpectedly, the master of the Medicine King Garden was in retreat at the time, and the middle-class ancestor was directly stopped by the maid of the Medicine King Garden. No matter how the other party interceded, the maid did not open the door.

The ancestor was worried about the prince, and he ignored the maid's words, and broke into the Medicine King Garden, almost hurting the maid.

As a result, after the Master of the Medicine King learned about it, he was furious, and Feihua didn't treat the prince, but instead severely injured the ancestor of the middle dynasty and expelled him.

The middle dynasty made a lot of enemies. After the surrounding dynasties learned the news, they immediately secretly assassinated the middle dynasty ancestors, and in the end the middle dynasty ancestors almost fell.

Since then, no one has dared to be disrespectful to the people of Yaowangyuan, even if it is a maid, they dare not listen.

Because everyone knows that once the owner of the medicine king becomes angry, no matter what your identity, even if you are an ancestor of a middle dynasty, you will kill if you say kill.

Therefore, after everyone heard that the maid said that a Medicine King Talisman was necessary to enter, many strong people who did not have the Medicine King Talisman turned around and left, because they knew that this maid was very difficult to talk, splashing water did not enter, and stayed and entangled. Instead, it's making trouble for myself.

But now seeing that Zhuo Qingfeng and Qin Chen, without the Medicine King Talisman, didn't even listen to the maid's words, and wanted to go in, everyone suddenly became interested.

I want to see how Zhuo Qingfeng and Qin Chen died!

Seeing the maid getting angry, Zhuo Qingfeng also looked embarrassed, and hurriedly explained: "This girl, next to the master of the Dawei Dynasty Pill Pavilion, has some connections with the Master of the Medicine King Garden, and she is also the Pill Pavilion of Chaotian City..."

As Zhuo Qingfeng spoke, he took out the token of Dawei Dynasty Pill Pavilion Master from him, and at the same time wanted to introduce himself as the Deputy Pavilion Master of Chaotian City Pill Pavilion. "I care if you are the pavilion master of the Dawei Dynasty Pill Pavilion or some dynasty pavilion master not the pavilion master. Do you have the Medicine King Talisman? If you don't have the Medicine King Talisman, let go. I am very clear. You must have the Medicine King Talisman. Come in, don't you understand or how to drip? Still have a connection with our owner? Ha ha, what can you have

What origin? In this case, grandma, I listen a lot. "

Just before Zhuo Qingfeng finished speaking, the maid had already frowned, and said with her right hand as if she was driving a fly.

To be honest, she is not targeting Zhuo Qingfeng, but in the ordinary days, there are too many people who want to get in touch with the owner of the Medicine King Garden. Let alone the words that are quite related, she listens to even more exaggerated words. Over.

But as the maid of the Medicine King Garden, she knew very well that her master was not a person from the land of a hundred dynasties at all, how could she have any connection with the person of the land of a hundred dynasties?

As for the identity of Dan Pavilion Pavilion Master, she even looked down on it.

There are countless branches in the Pill Pavilion of the Land of Hundred Dynasties, at least one or two hundred. Not to mention the pavilion masters of these dynasty Pill Pavilions below. Even the pavilion master Zhao Tiansheng of Chaotian City headquarters may not be able to meet the master. See.

Now she was just the pavilion master of a small dynasty, it was even more impossible for her to let the other party in.

She angered the owner, but she was going to be punished, and, as a maid, she just closed the door, but couldn't let all cats and dogs come in and disturb the owner.

Zhuo Qingfeng's face suddenly froze, and he looked at Qin Chen awkwardly.

Originally, I was here to bring Qin Chen to see the owner of the Medicine King Gardener, and he was going to ask him for a favor, but he didn't expect that he couldn't even enter the door, and suddenly felt his old face flushed and embarrassed.

This person is a bit big.

"Then I don't know what the Medicine King Talisman the girl is talking about? The old man also comes from the Northern Heaven Domain Pill Pavilion. He seems to have never heard of this Medicine King Talisman?"

Although blushing is okay, Zhuo Qingfeng is not discouraged. If it is only for himself, he may turn around and leave, but now, it is for Chendi Pavilion. He doesn't mind getting angry.

Since the identity of the Pill Pavilion cannot be entered, just ask what the so-called King Talisman of the medicine is, and then find a way to get one.

This guy doesn't even know the Medicine King Talisman, so he dare to come here?

It's just that when Zhuo Qingfeng's words came out, all the major forces on the field were shocked.

What about the people from the North Heaven Domain Dan Pavilion, this guy brags, and he just opens his mouth.

The maid was trembling with anger, her face suddenly ugly, her eyebrows even had a hint of chill, and she said angrily: "Are you here to entertain my Medicine King Garden?"

Even the King of Medicine Talisman didn't know, and he dared to say that he had a connection with the owner of the garden, and said that he was a member of the Pill Pavilion of the North Tianyu.

"Girl, I think this guy is here to make trouble, do you want to drive him away for you, lest you disturb the owner?"

Xu Long hurriedly stepped forward, dedicated his words, and at the same time, his murderous intent erupted. He looked at Zhuo Qingfeng coldly, with murderous intent in his eyes.

He naturally had to grasp such a good opportunity for flattering, and only waited for the maid to give an order, and then thunderous shot.

At that time, the owner of the Medicine King was satisfied, and it was not necessarily true that he directly agreed to his request.

Thinking of this, Xu Long's killing intent was even worse. When other strong men saw it, they were all envious. This guy would really seize the opportunity. Why didn't he expect such a good flattering opportunity just now.

"Girl, I really have something to do with your Medicine King Garden Master..."

Zhuo Qingfeng was also anxious immediately, he was not afraid of Xu Long, but he didn't want to offend Yaowangyuan.

"Girl, do I say you are sick?"

At this moment, Qin Chen, who had not spoken, walked up, looked up and down the maid, frowned, and suddenly said something.

"call!"

In an instant, I don't know how.

The field fell silent in an instant, and even a needle could be heard on the ground.

For an instant, it was as if all the voices had been choked off, everyone stared with wide-eyed eyes, staring at Qin Chen and Zhuo Qingfeng in horror, each of them was dumbfounded, almost astonishing.

What did the kid say? Said Yaowangyuan's maid was sick?

Gosh!

It's over! At this moment, everyone was horrified, their entire body erected, and they quietly stepped back a few steps, looking at the gazes of Qin Chen and Zhuo Qingfeng as if they were looking at two dead men.

Chapter 878: Kuiyin Bloodline

The maid's face was only angry at first, but after hearing this, her eyes almost popped out.

My heart was so angry that it exploded.

Are you sick? Where did this guy come from? How dare you scold yourself for being sick? Do you want to live?

She has never been so angry since she was a child. Even seven or eight years ago, when she was injured by the ancestor of the middle dynasty and broke in, she was not as angry as she is today.

Last time, the other party also acted recklessly because of an emergency.

But this time, if he didn't let him in, this kid would dare to scold himself in front of so many people. This was a rebellion.

It was the first time she had been scolded in front of her face since she became the maid of Yaowangyuan.

"you....."

Shaking her body, she pointed at Qin Chen with her fingers. She was so angry that she couldn't control too much. She immediately ordered Xu Long to do something to kill Qin Chen and Zhuo Qingfeng on the spot.

"I think you have a bad temper. When you talk, your face turns pale, the blood in your body fluctuates, and you can't even control it. If you read it correctly, is there something wrong with your bloodline? Every time you stimulate the bloodline, you feel pain all over your body. , There is a feeling of not being able to use it?"

"You guys, give me..."

The maid was furiously making people start her hands. Hearing what Qin Chen said, her voice stopped abruptly. She looked at Qin Chen in shock with her original angry expression.

What the other party said was not bad. During this period of time, my bloodline did seem to have a problem. Every time I was stimulated, I had shortness of breath and blood deficiency, and I couldn't breathe a little bit. It seemed to be stabbed by someone with a ten thousand needle, and it didn't hurt.

She also went to the bloodline sacred place in Chaotian City to see the bloodline master. Unfortunately, the other party checked it and found no reason. She only said that it might be an individual situation. She prescribed some medicine and took it every day, but it always It didn't get better, and over time, I recognized it.

Why did this kid say it all at once?

Suddenly, thinking of a possibility, the maid raised her brows, and her anger was about to rise again.

Isn't this guy going to the Holy Land of Blood to inquire about his situation secretly to see the owner? Just about to get angry, I heard Qin Chen say again: "Your bloodline should be Yin attribute bloodline. In order to relieve the pain on your body, while you take the medicine prescribed by the Holy Land of Bloodline, you also secretly take some meridians that soothe the meridians and warm the air. The elixir, I think this problem should be caused by the blood

It was caused by patency. It was only after taking these elixir that the problem was not alleviated, but it got worse. Well, it should be that the illness got worse. "

"You... how do you know?"

The maid's mouth grew up and she was startled, and her eyes stared again.

It's normal for the other party to be able to find out his own problems in the bloodline holy place, but he secretly took the meridian soothing elixir, which caused the pain to increase. I have never told anyone about it. How could this guy see it at a glance?

You know, she has been having problems with her for some time, even the owner of the host, did not realize that this guy actually saw it at a glance. How did she do it?

"No matter how I know, I can only say that you are not only sick, but you are also very sick."

Shaking his head, Qin Chen sighed: "If you can't handle it well, I suggest you buy a coffin. I guess it won't be long before you can use it."

Everyone was dumbfounded, what does this kid mean? Is this the maid in the King of Curse Medicine is dying?

"Boy, what are you talking nonsense."

Xu Long was overjoyed when he heard it. Before the maid ordered, he slapped Qin Chen over.

The maid lives in the Medicine King Garden. If there is a problem, the master of the Medicine King Garden can't tell? Qin Chen talked nonsense, just giving himself a chance to make merit.

Zhuo Qingfeng's figure shook, and instantly came to Qin Chen, stopping the opponent's blow.

boom!

When the two forces of Wu Wang collided, Zhuo Qingfeng's figure shook and took a step backward.

"Good fellow, dare to be wild at the entrance of the Medicine King Garden. Didn't the two pay attention to the Master of the Medicine King Garden? If I didn't kill the two today, how would Xu Long explain to the Master of the Medicine King Garden?"

Xu Long yelled violently, full of righteous indignation, as if he was a member of the Medicine King Garden, and Qin Chen insulted him.

When the voice fell, Xu Long's figure shook, and he was about to make another move.

"Stop!" The maid of Yaowangyuan hurriedly said, stopping Xu Long, then looked at Qin Chen with an ugly face, and said with a tremor: "I don't know how you know what's wrong with me?"

If Qin Chen just said casually, she might not care too much, but what Qin Chen said before was very detailed, and what she said was exactly the same as her situation.

In addition, many things about her alone have also been said, so how can she not be nervous?

Everyone is concerned with their own body, although she is the maid of Yaowangyuan, it is no exception. Seeing that the maid refused to do it herself, Xu Long asked Qin Chen suddenly: "Girl, this person is just nonsense and nonsense. Don't the girl be fooled by this person? There are some in this world. People are very good at observing words and opinions, and use other people's psychological loopholes to frighten people

It works. The girl is the maid of the Medicine King Garden. This person must have ulterior motives in doing this. If the girl really has a problem, will the Master of the Medicine King Garden fail to see it? Why do you have to prepare the coffin as soon as possible? It is obviously cursing you girl. "

The maid's eyebrows twitched, and what Xu Long said made sense.

Her master is a pharmacist with the highest alchemy skills in the land of a hundred dynasties. Even if the bloodline problem cannot be seen, if her life is really threatened, the master will not be able to tell? On the contrary, this kid saw that something was wrong.

Seeing the other party's expression shaken, Qin Chen didn't know what the other party was thinking, and said lightly: "If you don't believe me, it doesn't matter, but there are some things I still want to say." "The blood in your body belongs to the blood of Yin attribute. If you guessed it correctly, it should be Kuiyin bloodline. And you take care of medicine in the pharmacy all the year round. Over time, your body will naturally be contaminated with some medicine breath. If it is a general elixir, it is fine, but if it is a king of rank 7 or higher Level elixir, every

In a king-level elixir, each has its own unique aura of elixir. "

"This kind of breath will accumulate in the carer's body all year round. If the two fit together, there is no problem, and there will even be certain benefits. However, if it is an elixir of mutual restraint, the breath is contaminated, but it is easy to cause problems." "From the aura of your body, there should be a Qiyanghua in this medicine garden. Qiyanghua is a powerful elixir with fire attributes. Qiyanghua less than three hundred years old will have nothing, but Qiyanghua's. Once the medicinal properties are more than 300 years old, a inflammatory yang factor will be born, which can be incorporated into the bloodline and affect the bloodline."

Chapter 879: Thanks for your advice

Qin Chen paused, and continued: "If it's another bloodline, it's okay. This kind of influence won't be too great, but your bloodline is the Kuiyin bloodline. Once you incorporate the Yanyang factor, your bloodline will slowly change. It's not stable, and in the end, it will even collapse."

"It is precisely this inflammatory factor that causes your blood to become unstable and even painful." "You go to the Holy Land of Blood. It is true. In this case, the Holy Land of Blood will usually give you medicines to stabilize the blood and nourish the blood. , You only need to take it daily, although the symptoms will not be relieved, but it will not be aggravated. Unfortunately, you do not want to use other elixir to relieve the meridians and warm the air.

, The medicine should be Zimaicao. "

Qin Chen shook his head: "Unfortunately, although the idea is good, it is quite wrong, and it aggravates your condition."

The maid shivered, looking at Qin Chen in shock, her eyes widened and she could not speak.

Qin Chen said that there was no mistake.

Not only did she tell her bloodline attributes, she even revealed the Qiyanghua in the medicine garden.

If only Qiyanghua is mentioned, it's fine. Even the year of Qiyanghua is clearly understood. If it is not certain that Qin Chen has never entered the Medicine King Garden, she even suspects that the other party has been peeping in secret. By myself.

Indeed, there is a 300-year-old Qiyang flower in this Medicine King Garden, and it is her favorite elixir.

Because she herself has the bloodline of Kuiyin attribute, and the cultivation technique is also the cold ice technique. As a female, her body naturally belongs to the yin attribute. Therefore, every night, her body feels cold, her hands and feet feel cold, and she often sleeps. By daybreak, the feet are still cold.

Therefore, when she takes care of the elixir, she likes staying with Qiyanghua the most, because Qiyanghua's medicinal properties will make her feel warm. Staying with Qiyanghua for an hour during the day, and every night, her hands and feet are not so cold. Up.

Who ever thought that the problem with her was actually caused by Qiyanghua.

In addition, Qin Chen even noticed that she secretly took Zimaicao. What kind of eyesight was this?

"Nourishing meridians can nourish the meridians and harmonize the sea of qi, but it cannot be mixed with the breath of Qiyanghua. The reason why the meridians can nourish the meridians is entirely due to the purine factor in it. Once the dopurine factor encounters the inflammation-yang factor, it will react, extraordinary

It cannot nourish the meridians, but will cause damage to the meridians. "

"Your bloodline has already had a problem, and the meridians are damaged, and this will last forever--"

"I'm afraid it's hard not to die!"

Qin Chen looked over slightly.

The maid's face turned pale, she stared at Qin Chen blankly, followed the Master of Medicine King Garden all the year round, she still had some insights, what Qin Chen said was not a compilation, at all.

As for the other powerhouses, they were completely dumbfounded. They didn't understand the purine factor and the inflammation factor.

The body shook, and recovered from the shock, the maid hurriedly said: "I wonder, is there a solution?"

The other party is such a god, and she can't help but believe it completely. "To solve it, it is actually very simple. You should cultivate a technique with the ice attribute. First activate the technique for a week. At the end of the week, activate the blood. Remember, no matter whether the blood is painful or not, Must be activated to the extreme, and then use the true power in the body to urge the blood to the Neiguan point of the wrist

, Neiguan point is one of the points with the highest positive index of the body. The most important thing is that its location is very special, which can preserve the positive power, so that over time, the inflammatory factors in your body will converge to the Neiguan point in your hands. No longer affect the blood in your body. "

"Run it once a day and run it continuously for a week, and it will heal. Of course, within these ten days, you'd better not be close to the Qiyanghua. Even if you are close to the cooking, it should not exceed a quarter of an hour each time, and nothing will happen."

Qin Chen said.

"It's that simple?"

The maid was startled.

I thought the problem was so serious that I needed all kinds of treatments and all kinds of elixir. Who knows, I only need to run the exercises.

Can't help but try it now.

The true power in the body, running Zhou Tian in the major meridians, suddenly a hint of chill bloomed on her body, and the surrounding temperature seemed to drop a lot in an instant, causing people to look at her.

Although this woman is only the maid of the Medicine King Garden, she did not expect that her cultivation technique was so overbearing, and her cultivation level had reached the peak of the late stage sixth stage. Even if she was compared to some of the veteran powerhouses in the dynasty, she was not at all Weak.

A week later, the maid urged the blood, and suddenly felt a sharp pain coming. She endured the pain and continued to run the real power, suddenly felt a sense of ice, poured into her hands, and finally gathered in Neiguan. hole.

The whole person's eyes widened suddenly. According to Qin Chen's method, although she initially evoked the bloodline and had severe physical pain, when the force of the ice rushed to Neiguan Point, the pain in her body was instantly relieved of her weakness. What shocked her even more was that Mingming Neiguan. The acupuncture point has gathered a lot of ice power, but the palms of both hands are actually hot,

Very comfortable.

"Thank you for your advice!"

He hurriedly bowed his hands and said respectfully to Qin Chen.

Although Qin Chen was younger than her, the respect in his heart remained undiminished.

She also had a little knowledge of pharmacology, and it was natural to see that the method Qin Chen gave could indeed cure her illness.

The anger in my heart was swept away, followed by rejoicing.

If it weren't for Qin Chen, she would continue the headless treatment, maybe when the blood burst, it wouldn't be guaranteed to die.

"You don't need to thank you. I'm waiting for the Master of the Medicine King Garden. I have a slight connection. This time I saw something. You are the maid of the Medicine King Garden. You should give me a pointer."

Qin Chen said lightly, "I wonder if I can go in if I wait now?"

"This..." The maid hesitated, and then said: "Since the son has a slight relationship with the owner of the garden, it is of course possible. The two of you can also invite me in. Let me report to the owner of the garden later."

The maid arched her hands and stopped blocking.

The ability to see her problems at a glance, and to treat them, is beyond the reach of ordinary characters.

Such a powerful person may not be nonsense to say that he has a connection with the owner of the garden.

"This....."

Seeing Qin Chen and Zhuo Qingfeng being led into the gate by the maid, the other strong men outside were all dumbfounded.

What's the situation?

The other party didn't take out the Medicine King Talisman at all, and actually let it in?

Suddenly someone said, "The two of them don't have the medicine king charm, right? Why did they put it in?"

"Yes, didn't it mean that only Medicine King Talisman can enter?"

"It's not fair."

Many strong men who were planning to leave, suddenly became anxious.

Don't suffer from lack and unevenness!

Everyone can't go in, it's fine, but why these two Myrrh King Talisman can also go in?

"Who said they were the two myrrh king symbols?"

The maid glared at the beads, "What's more, even if they are myrrh king talisman, this girl loves to let them in, what do you want? Do you want to teach me how to do things in Medicine King Garden?"

With a cold snort, the maid closed the door directly. Only the people who looked at each other were left.

Chapter 880: Can't explain

Under the leadership of the maid, Qin Chen and others walked into the medicine garden.

As soon as I entered, a strong panacea breath came out, which made me intoxicated, and every pore in my body was relaxing.

"Good place."

This place is only the periphery of the Medicine King Garden, and there is still a distance from the medicine garden where the elixir is planted. There is such a strong elixir aura that makes the body's true essence work faster.

If you really practice in a medicine garden, what effect will it have?

Just thinking about it makes me feel shocked.

"Such a strong spirit medicine atmosphere is definitely not something that ordinary pharmacies can do. It's not easy here!"

Unlike the others, Qin Chen stared at the building in front of him, but his brows were tightly furrowed, and his eyes were sharp.

He has seen too many medicine gardens. Although the spirit medicine garden in front of him has not yet seen the whole picture, it is definitely not at the level of the land of a hundred dynasties.

The many buildings in front of him are scattered and scattered, and are related to a formation that he once understood, and this formation is by no means an ordinary person can master, it is hidden in the style of the medicine garden of the military domain.

Who is the owner of the Medicine King?

Suspiciously, Qin Chen and his party had already passed through a long corridor and came to a hall.

"Wait a few moments, the lord of the garden will come over immediately." The maid gave an order, and then stepped back, leaving only Qin Chen and a group of people in this hall.

As soon as the maid left, everyone immediately started talking.

"I'm afraid everyone is here for the opening of the heavenly demon secret realm, right?"

"Hehe, the Heavenly Demon Secret Realm has only been opened once in a hundred years, and the number of places is scarce. I heard that this time, some forces outside the land of a hundred dynasties will participate, which force does not want to take up more places?"

"In the entire land of a hundred dynasties, the seven upper-level dynasties have almost divided the quotas. The rest of the dynasties and forces also occupy a lot of quotas. Those of us in the middle dynasties who want to get additional quotas can only obtain from the establishment of inferior forces."

"How can the inferior forces be so easy to build? Especially at this time, only the top forces of Chaotian City can speak, and there may be a glimmer of hope. And now, in Chaotian City, the only one who has the strength but does not participate in the secret realm of the heavenly devil, there is only this Yaowangyuan family."

"However, the owner of the Medicine King has never liked dealing with external parties, and wants her to speak, it's difficult!"

"No matter how difficult it is, you have to try it, at least it is an opportunity."

Those who can come in basically have the Medicine King Talisman, and they know each other well, and they don't hesitate to talk about it.

Qin Chen also heard a lot of things from these people's conversations.

The seven or eight teams that can come in are basically some medium forces in the land of a hundred dynasties.

In the land of a hundred dynasties, the middle dynasty looks powerful, but it is not.

The entire land of hundreds of dynasties is actually controlled by the seven upper dynasties. Although the middle dynasties are extremely powerful and terrifying in the eyes of the lower dynasties like the Dawei Dynasty, in fact, they have to take orders from the upper dynasties.

For example, this time when the Heavenly Demon Secret Realm was opened, there were three places for Wuzun masters from the lower dynasties, ten for the middle dynasties, and a full 100 for the upper dynasties.

In other words, a high-level dynasty can allow a hundred martial masters to enter the heavenly demon secret realm, which is ten times that of the middle-level dynasty and more than thirty times that of the low-level dynasty.

This shows the gap between each other.

Therefore, many middle-level dynasties all want to occupy a few more places so that they can develop faster. In case, there are more martial kings in the dynasty, which will also have a great influence on the structure of the middle-level dynasties.

And they had no other way, just like Qin Chen and the others, relying on the establishment of inferior forces to obtain a quota.

In this regard, those upper-class dynasties also closed one eye. After all, a lower-ranking power, with three ordinary quotas, didn't care much for them.

"The Lord of the Medicine King, didn't participate in the Heavenly Demon Secret Realm?" Qin Chen couldn't help being surprised. Seeing Qin Chen's doubts, Zhuo Qingfeng continued to say: "Little Chen, I also heard the news at the Pill Pavilion Headquarters in Chaotian City, so I prepared to let the Master of Medicine King help him speak. I heard that the Master of Medicine King, I was not interested in the secret realm of the heavenly demon. After the news that the secret realm was about to be opened, the secret

The Pavilion and the people from the seven upper dynasties visited the Medicine King Garden together and asked about the quota, but the owner of the Medicine King Garden made it clear that the Medicine King Garden would not participate in the secret realm of the gods, so there are so many forces. Ask the owner of the Medicine King Garden for help and establish a lower-level power. "

The strength of the Master of Medicine King Garden is extraordinary, and the number of warriors that the Heavenly Demon Secret Realm can accommodate is also limited. Therefore, after the news of the opening of the Heavenly Demon Secret Realm, people from the Seven Kingdoms and the Heavenly Secret Pavilion will come to visit specially.

It's just that the owner of the Medicine King Garden, like the seven upper dynasties, dominates a large number of places. After all, the unreasonable character of the Medicine King Garden owner is famous for Chaotian City.

Unexpectedly, the other party actually didn't care about the secret realm of heaven demon at all, and even said that he would not enter the secret realm of heaven demon.

This made the seven great dynasties breathe a sigh of relief, but they also felt inexplicable, and the entire Chaotian City was also shaken by it.

"I'm surprised, that's it. Listening to you, this Medicine King Garden owner should be just a seventh-stage late martial king? He is also qualified to enter the Heavenly Demon Secret Realm, but he is not interested at all?" Qin Chen frowned.

It was this that puzzled Qin Chen.

From Liu Tai's mouth, Qin Chen also has some understanding of this heavenly demon secret realm. It is a place that can greatly improve the martial artist, even if it is a great attraction for the Martial King of the late seventh stage.

Back then, the leader of the Blood Demon Sect, after entering the Heavenly Demon Secret Realm, he stepped into the realm of the 8th-order Martial Emperor from a middle-ranking seventh-order martial king in one fell swoop.

In these places, even the ancestors of the seven upper dynasties were extremely hot. With the strength of the Medicine King Garden Master, they could clearly occupy a place, but they did not participate.

I can't explain what I think.

"Who knows?" Zhuo Qingfeng shook his head with suspicious expression on his face, and said in thought: "It may be that there are too many rare elixir planted in the Medicine King Garden. Other forces, even if they have entered most of the strong ones, there are some strong ones sitting in town. , Will not be attacked, but this medicine king garden, only the master of the medicine king garden, ten thousand

As soon as she entered the secret realm of the heavenly devil, King Wu secretly attacked the Medicine King Garden and stole all the elixir. Wouldn't it be a heavy loss, perhaps because of this consideration. "

"Perhaps."

Qin Chen nodded. At present, this explanation seemed reasonable.

"Everyone, we all know each other. After a while, the owner of the Medicine King will come over, and everyone can say it. No matter which one the owner of the Medicine King promised, don't mind the others, how about it?" Then, come in. Seven or eight forces in China have begun to discuss specific matters.
