Chapter 2141: Titans and Dragons

“Yeah, what’s wrong with the people nowadays? Will they only think we have done our best after we are all dead in the war? If we die, who’s going to protect them?” the general agreed angrily.

The general was obviously annoyed by the members of the Black Church. Mo Fan had been busy killing Blue Star Tyrant Titans lately. He had no idea what the Black Church had been doing to mess with the military.

Tuis had killed a Silver Moon Tyrant Titan not long ago, giving the Parthenon Temple some time to catch their breath. That being said, more tragedies were going to happen during the Year of Tyrant Titans. No place was safe in a war, and the military was always blamed for every invasion!

The Parthenon Temple had more power than the national government and the military in Greece, putting the military in an awkward position.

“Just tell us if you need any help. We won’t find any trace of Silver Moon Tyrant Titans any time soon, let alone the culprit of Green Sprouts City,” Mo Fan offered generously when he saw the general had something to say.

“Are you really willing to help us?” the general asked in some surprise.

The military had a lot of Battleimages, but not many were as strong as Mo Fan and his friends.

It was more difficult and inefficient to organize operations when there were so many people. It was not like the military could not handle the Tyrant Titans, but the Tyrant Titans were not brainless. They would just run whenever they saw an army, not to mention trying to set up an ambush for them!

Therefore, they needed the support of small groups like Mo Fan’s team to kill the Tyrant Titans.

“The Sea Demon Snakes are invading the southern coast of Crete. We have learned that the Sea Demon Snakes are from the desert to the south of the Mediterranean Sea. A Cruel Sea Serpent has summoned them here. Based on our investigation, the Cruel Sea Serpent is colluding with a Tyrant Titan we have named the Steel Mountain Titan. It destroyed several rescue ships during the Incident of the Blood Sea.

“The Incident of the Blood Sea? Wasn’t that the incident that made the Cold Prince famous?” Mo Fan remembered.

“Yes, the fresh blood that was shed dyed the shoreline of many countries red with a foul smell, including our Aegean Sea. The Cruel Sea Serpent and the Steel Mountain Titan are both wanted by the Hunter Union, yet no one has managed to hunt them down after so many years. We have been trying to find a way to hunt them down too, but even when our brilliant soldiers found them, none of them came back alive. We have plenty of clues and information about them, yet no one dares to take them on,” the general said helplessly.

The Cold Prince’s masterpiece!

Even though the Red Cardinal had been killed by the infighting within the Black Vatican, people would not forget the Incident of the Blood Sea so easily. Many unknown bays around the Red Sea still stank, even today!

“It seems like I’m quite fateful with the Cold Prince. Fine, we’ll handle the Cruel Sea Serpent and the Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan. Give us the information you have,” Mo Fan said.

“Thank you so much! If you can get rid of them, I believe Tuis’ achievements won’t be comparable to yours,” the general agreed hastily.

The competition between Mo Fan and Tuis was no longer a secret. The Cruel Sea Serpent and the Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan were infamous across the Mediterranean Sea. They were mostly active between the Aegean Sea and Africa, and were a huge threat to Greece’s southern shoreline. The bounty on their heads was higher than the Volcano Titan because of the terrifying incident the Cold Prince was responsible for.

“It seems like we have earned their trust after helping them to take care of the Blue Star Tyrant Titans,” Mu Bai noted as they left.

“Mm, there’s a chance these two creatures were responsible for the destruction of Green Sprouts City. We might become Greece’s national heroes once we take care of them; the passionate ladies will also climb onto my bed willingly. HAHAHA, that Harper is clearly no match for me!” Zhao Manyan said.

The general had to go to the frontline. Mo Fan’s trio followed him to the southern coast of Crete.

The south coast of Crete was always under attack by creatures from the southern lands of the Mediterranean Sea and the Sahara Desert, which mainly consisted of Sea Demon Snakes.

“Are these Sea Demon Snakes one of the strong tribes under Euryale’s lead?” Mo Fan asked Apas.

Apas had to hibernate in winter, and had been sleeping for almost half the season. Mo Fan only Summoned her to ask her about the Sea Demon Snakes, yet she was still fast asleep. She could not hear him at all.

“Mo Fan, you are overdoing it. She’s still a kid. You shouldn’t torture her for days and nights...” Zhao Manyan said with an evil grin when he noticed Apas was so sleepy that she could not even stand properly.

“Forget it, go back to sleep,” Mo Fan could only smile wryly.

Mo Fan remembered they were ambushed by a Cruel Sea Serpent after he first kidnapped Apas. Her sister Euryale had sent it after them.

Euryale had already lost an eye, yet she still sent her tribe to stir up trouble, instead of focusing on recovering from her injuries!

“The Sea Demon Snakes must be related to the Cruel Sea Serpent. Let’s head to the front line,” Mu Bai recommended.

Mu Bai's condition had improved a lot after he consumed the Tyrant Titan's organs. His improvement showed why the whole of Europe was so eager to get their hands on them!

The trio followed the general to the southern coast of Crete. It had a long shoreline, most likely because the Sahara Desert was across the water. As a result, the southern coast was a common battlefield.

Jade Bay City was the first line of defense for Greece. Even though the war had yet to reach the city, there would soon be chaos when more Tyrant Titans and dragons appeared.

The three reached the front line after traveling a hundred kilometers to the south.

The helicopter brought them to a fortress on an island. A strong smell of rotten fish assailed their nostrils as soon as they landed. Both Zhao Manyan and Mu Bai started coughing.

Mo Fan was fine with it. He had already gotten used to the smell.

"I'm Major General Jessica. I've been waiting for you," a female general in her thirties greeted them sternly.

"Oh, hello, general!" Mo Fan answered for them.

"We are currently at the Three Leaves Island Defensive Perimeter. The battlefield is less than three kilometers from here. I will ask someone to bring you around. You may take pictures as souvenirs, but please don't post them on social media... I will excuse myself first. I must head to the battlefield."

"Taking pictures as souvenirs? What the hell?" Zhao Manyan furrowed.

Not only did Major General Jessica greet them impatiently, but she even sounded like they were three good-for-nothing sons of rich families here on a vacation?

It was true that some rich second generations lacked capabilities and insisted on coming to the front line just so they could boast to others after they returned to their cities. It was like studying abroad to improve their resume!

Jessica had met a lot of young people like that, so she did not treat Mo Fan, Zhao Manyan, and Mu Bai, who looked nothing like soldiers, seriously.

The situation was already so bad, yet the officials were still adding trouble on top!

"Hold it right there!" Mo Fan was displeased by General Jessica's attitude when he saw her about to leave. "Didn't your superior tell you why we are here?"

General Jessica turned around and answered impatiently, "He did, but does it matter? Can you really kill the Evil Duo of the Mediterranean Sea? He's just giving you a challenging task so you can write it in your resume that you've taken part in such a difficult mission. Am I right?"

"Can you please make your decision after you have spent five minutes hearing us out? Your superior asked you to assist us, yet you are leaving after greeting us. What the Hell are you thinking?" Mo Fan demanded.

"Hear you out? I just came from the battlefield and waited ten minutes for you to arrive. I have wasted another five minutes talking to you and will waste ten minutes getting back to the battlefield, and yet you are telling me I should waste another five minutes to hear you talk about your impressive background? Do you know how many of my men are going to die in that period?" General Jessica snarled.

Her eyes were red as she was speaking. She was obviously forced to be here.

They had assigned her to do such a meaningless task just because she was a woman. She was a warrior fighting at the front line too! The number of demon creatures she had killed was higher than any of the other Major Generals!

Yet her superior kept treating her as a secretary and assigning her to do petty tasks like this!

Jessica left after finishing her sentence. She was afraid that she could not hold back her urge to kill these men!

Why could not they just stay in the city and enjoy their lives? Why did they come to the front line and trouble her? She had enough of these assh* and their formidable backgrounds!

Mo Fan, Zhao Manyan, and Mu Bai were speechless as they watched her leave.

"Seriously, why did we have to stumble into a resentful woman?" Zhao Manyan complained.

"Forget it, she must have been annoyed by some rich second generations. She already gave us the information. Let's find them ourselves," Mu Bai sighed.

"By the way, isn't this place a little too close to the front line? Look at the mist and the clouds. They are like a black storm!" Zhao Manyan pointed at the water two kilometers away.

The whole fortress was shrouded by a mist. It wasn't because it was raining, but because the waves of the battlefield that was only a few kilometers away were rolling fiercely in this direction under the influence of the strong wind. Even the helicopter had been shaking violently when it was trying to land.

The fortress was very simple. The soldiers were soaked and in a hurry. Mo Fan, Zhao Manyan, and Mu Bai felt a little awkward, as they had no idea what to do.

"Tyrant Titan!"

"It's a Tyrant Titan!"

The soldiers in the fortress started screaming in fear. The wind and the storm grew fiercer. The light that the soldiers' magic was emitting dimmed all of a sudden, like the light of a fishing boat surrounded by huge waves.

"Fall back, fall back at once! Everyone, withdraw from the Three Leaves Island Defensive Perimeter and retreat to the bay!"

"Move!"

The soldiers in the fortress were constantly moving around. They were even more nervous after the Tyrant Titan showed up, and immediately went to secure their positions.

Around ten minutes later, Major General Jessica came back into the fortress. The bloodstains on her were being washed away by the mist as more blood seeped out from her wounds, dyeing her military outfit red.

"Why are you still here? We are going to lose the Three Leaves Island Defensive Perimeter soon!" General Jessica yelled at them.

"Is it because of the Tyrant Titan?" Mo Fan studied the chaotic sea in the distance. He could see a faint silhouette approaching the fortress.

Most magic was effective against the Sea Demon Snakes, but it was a different story when a Tyrant Titan showed up.

The Tyrant Titan was like a mountain as it stepped forward to protect the demon snakes. Every spell that landed on it was like mere fireworks without any damage. The Tyrant Titan could easily press forward with an army of demon creatures. They did not have enough Advanced and Super Mages to stop its progress!

"We are here to take out the Tyrant Titan," Zhao Manyan declared.

"Idiots!" General Jessica shouted at them.

"We've killed two seventy-meters Tyrant Titans this week," Mu Bai said.

"You are nothing but fools!" General Jessica yelled.

Mo Fan kept staring at the sea, noticing the tyrant's head alone was around the height of the fortress. Mu Bai estimated the height of its head to be around forty meters.

Could it be a Silver Moon Tyrant Titan?

That was not possible. If it was a Silver Moon Tyrant Titan, General Jessica would not have come back alive. There would be no reason to retreat, since no one could possibly survive.

The figure in the mist rose as Mo Fan was still having his doubts.

It was rising as if it was climbing up a flight of stairs. It was more than a hundred meters high when it was less than a kilometer away from the fortress!

The fortress was currently at the Tyrant Titan's waist, which meant the Tyrant Titan was around two hundred meters tall!

Mo Fan, Zhao Manyan, and Mu Bai raised their heads. They were confident that it was a Blue Star Tyrant Titan, but they had never seen one so tall before!

The tallest Blue Star Tyrant Titan they had encountered so far was only ninety meters tall. They had never seen a Blue Star Tyrant Titan above one hundred meters, let alone two hundred meters!

A two-hundred-meter-tall Tyrant Titan was still a city destroyer, even if it was only a Blue Star Tyrant Titan. No wonder the defensive perimeter had collapsed so easily!

"The Blue Star Tyrant Titans we killed so far were like children in kindergarten compared to this guy..." Zhao Manyan swallowed hard.

"Ye...yeah!" Mo Fan nodded in awe.

Its size alone was enough to scare the crap out of people. The pressure it gave Mo Fan was stronger than the Volcano Titan!

Chapter 2143: Catching Lightning with Bare Hands

Translator: Exodus Tales Editor: Exodus Tales

A military fortress was as small as a sandcastle in front of the Tyrant Titan. The Blue Star Tyrant Titan was merely approaching the fortress, yet so many people had yet to evacuate the area. They were all going to perish under the Blue Star Tyrant Titan's feet otherwise!

"Is this guy the Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan?" Mo Fan looked up. He was having trouble breathing properly.

"Most likely! I didn't expect it to be a Blue Star Tyrant Titan, but judging from its size alone, I'm afraid many Silver Moon Tyrant Titans are no match for it!" Mu Bai analyzed.

"If the Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan is here..." Mo Fan was just about to look around when a piercing screech suddenly came from the cloud above him.

A long snake tail was undulating in the mist. Its huge body slowly glided into sight as it came down from the sky. Its huge wings were beating continuously, firing strong gusts of wind at the fragile fortress.

"The Cruel Sea Serpent!" The injured Jessica was overwhelmed by fear when she saw the creature.

A two-hundred meter tall Blue Star Tyrant Titan was already a destructive blow to the Three Leaves Island Defensive Perimeter, not to mention there was a Lesser Dragon that was as strong as the Tyrant Titan!

Lesser Dragons were mostly above the strength of a Commander-level creature. Some that had lived longer could even surpass the restrictions of their lineage and reach the Ruler-level.

The Cruel Sea Serpent was such a creature. It had kept killing and plundering resources to grow stronger, and had been committing evil acts with the Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan for many years. It was even infamous in the Sahara Desert, and the tribes in the desert did not dare challenge it!

“They have indeed colluded...” Mo Fan subconsciously backed away.

The information from the general was from a few years ago. The Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan and the Cruel Sea Serpent were obviously a lot stronger than the information had described. Mo Fan began to feel great pressure.

The Cruel Sea Serpent opened its mouth. Many Battlemages forgot how to cast their spells, frozen by terror after seeing its red tongue and white fangs.

The stomach and the chest of the Cruel Sea Serpent were vibrating hard. It spat out a huge waterfall, pouring down at the fortress!

The fortress was located on an isolated island, barely as tall as a hill. It was just like a tiny pebble in the eyes of the Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan and the Cruel Sea Serpent!

The waterfall knocked out almost every Mage in the fortress. The number of Battlemages in the fortress was nowhere enough to fend off the ferocious creatures. That being said, the outcome would still have been the same, even if they had several times their current number!

Even though they were told to retreat, not many were going to survive in the end.

“Mo Fan, go do your thing now. Once this fortress is destroyed, we won’t have anywhere to stand on, let alone fend them off!” Mu Bai said.

The truth was, Mo Fan already had an urge to run away. They were clearly no match against the two creatures.

However, he had no choice but to fight them, since he was already here!

The timing when using his spells was very crucial against powerful foes. Mo Fan started constructing seven Star Constellations when the two demon creatures were not watching him.

Ruler-level creatures were quite smart. When they realized certain magic posed a threat to them, they would keep going after the person relentlessly, so they would not have time to Cast their spells. Every powerful spell needed some time to construct the complete Star Palaces. A powerful Super Spell required 2401 Stars and could not have any mistakes. If one of the Stars was unstable, all their efforts would be in vain. They had to start all over again!

The Battlemages were so terrified that they were struggling to connect their Star Orbits after seeing the Cruel Sea Serpent and Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan. It was not easy for Mo Fan to complete a Super Lightning Spell under such great pressure.

However, he could not miss out on the opportunity to execute his strongest blow with his Super Spell!

“Thousand Lightning Crows!”

The lightning took the shape of crows with flickering strands of lightning as their feathers!

Dark red lightning strikes had initially been appearing from the storm, but the dark sky for ten kilometers around was soon filled with Mo Fan's lightning!

The lightning crows fired lightning arcs at the surface of the sea and triggered a series of explosions across the water.

The lightning crows were targeting the Cruel Sea Serpent in the sky. Mo Fan believed the Cruel Sea Serpent was not as strong as the Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan, based on its size and aura. He was planning to inflict serious injuries on the Cruel Sea Serpent first to prevent the two creatures from attacking at the same time!

The proud Cruel Sea Serpent did not expect a Super Mage to be at the fortress. It began to flee in a panic when it saw the dense lightning crow flock diving from the sky.

The Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan suddenly let out a roar. Its speed was completely unlike the leisurely pace it had when it was approaching the fortress. It reached out its arm right before the lightning was about to land on the Cruel Sea Serpent and stopped it all by grabbing the lightning with its bare hand!

The lightning sizzled and crackled wildly. The Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan's outstanding reaction speed caught Mo Fan by surprise. More importantly, it had managed to catch his lightning in mid-descent!

He was using the Lightning Tyrant with a twelvefold damage amplification! That flock of lightning crows could disintegrate a Ruler-level creature, yet the two hundred meter Tyrant Titan had caught the whole group, like a warrior clenching the throat of a giant bird that was attacking him!

The Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan let out a roar. Its hand emitted a magical blue light that significantly improved its strength.

It started squeezing the whole flock of lightning crows, intending to crush the Super Lightning Spell to pieces!

The lightning crows eventually shattered, and the strong lightning magic began to dissipate. Even the lightning in the sky had faded away!

"That's...that's ridiculous!" Zhao Manyan almost dropped his jaw.

Crushing a Super Spell to death with its bare hands?!

The Lightning Element was Mo Fan's strongest Element too... he had never seen anything like it!

"I'm afraid we have kicked an iron plate..." Mo Fan muttered.

Even he was shocked by how strong the Blue Star Tyrant Titan was.

The Blue Star Tyrant Titan had seen through his plan of trying to injure one of them at the start of the fight. The fight was only going to be harder from here on!

Chapter 2144: Boiling the Sea with Fierce Flames

Translator: Exodus Tales Editor: Exodus Tales

The Cruel Sea Serpent let out a furious screech after it was frightened so. Its eyes had almost popped out of their sockets, and were now fixed on Mo Fan.

The Gaze of the Snake!

Mo Fan knew it was a common ability of snake species. He immediately focused to protect his mind. The stare from the Cruel Sea Serpent was merely trying to overwhelm him with fear. It was effective against many humans, but that was not necessarily the case for Mo Fan, who was not even afraid of the Medusa's Stare!

The Cruel Sea Serpent was enraged. It dove from the sky and swung its claw at Mo Fan. A black Aura burst out from its claw, most likely possessing the power of the Dark Wither.

The Dark Wither would prevent its target's wounds from healing and would serve as a deadly poison. The victim would suffer from severe dehydration in no time and turn into a dried-up mummy.

Mo Fan dodged the claw agilely, yet the withering Aura of the claw still caught him on the back. The skin on his back immediately dried up.

The Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan made its move as soon as he dodged the attack from the Cruel Sea Serpent. Mo Fan could not see its whole body. He could only see a huge foot over his head that was about to stomp onto him.

The Tyrant Titan was two hundred meters tall, so its stomp was exceedingly terrifying. Half of the hill on the island collapsed, leaving a huge hole across the surface of the sea. The sea water around began pouring into it.

Mo Fan was currently inside the hole. A golden barrier with an arc-shaped ceiling was shielding him, protecting him from being trampled to mush!

The golden barrier had stopped the Tyrant Titan's foot from falling, but it soon had cracks on it. The cracks quickly spread further, like a piece of glass that had just taken a heavy blow.

"Its strength is too crazy! Mo Fan, you must get out of there now!" Zhao Manyan yelled.

The golden barrier was obviously Zhao Manyan's defensive spell. However, the Tyrant Titan's strength was too ridiculous. It was enough to leave a hole in the deep ocean!

"I want to leave, but it's pressing onto me. I can't move!" Mo Fan shouted back.

The Tyrant Titan was exerting great force. The hole its stomp had created was like an entrapping abyss. Mo Fan was unable to escape from it, even with his Shadow Element and Space Element.

"It's the Force of Oblivion. You must figure out a way to overcome it, or Mo Fan won't be able to make it out of there!" Mu Bai blurted out.

"As if I know how to do that!"

Zhao Manyan had never heard of a power like that. The Tyrant Titan was still pressing its foot down. The hole continued to sink deeper into the sea. More water was pouring into the hole, applying greater pressure to the barrier.

“You must hurry. Once the hole is filled, Mo Fan will be stuck forever at the bottom of the sea!” Mu Bai said.

“I really have no idea what to do. If Mo Fan’s Super Lightning Spell can’t even hurt it, my Light Sword will only be scratching its back!” Zhao Manyan said.

A huge whirlpool appeared in the sea. The surrounding water was diving fiercely into the hole, forming a circle of waterfalls.

Mo Fan was right in the middle of the hole, with the Tyrant Titan on top of him. Mo Fan was clearly a few hundred meters away, yet he felt like something was binding him down. He was struggling to leave the hole.

The water began to cover the hole. Mo Fan forcibly swept the water to the side with Telekinesis.

No matter how strong a person’s Telekinesis was, it was impossible to stop the rolling waves. The water weighed thousands of tons. Mo Fan was already at his limit trying to stop himself from drowning.

Mo Fan finally realized how terrifying the two-hundred-meter-tall Blue Star Tyrant Titan was.

“I’m almost at the bottom of the sea!”

Mo Fan was surrounded by over ten thousand tons of seawater in a hole he could not climb out of. Once the water covered him, he would be trapped at the bottom of the sea for eternity!

It was Mo Fan’s first time feeling so desperate and hopeless. He had underestimated the Tyrant Titan. He was still not strong enough to take on a two-hundred-meter-tall Tyrant Titan!

“Ling!~”

Mo Fan suddenly saw a bright light amid the darkness as he was about to be devoured by the sea. Why was there such a bright light at the bottom of the sea?

Why does that cry sound so familiar?

Mo Fan heard the sound of water boiling. He looked around him and saw the seawater at the bottom of the sea was turning into white steam.

Steam? Did the water evaporate? Why don’t I feel its weight pressing on me?

White salt fell continuously down from above. The seawater collapsing onto him had disappeared. He was surrounded by insane heat, as if he had just gone from a deep cold abyss into a steaming furnace.

The terrifying force that was binding Mo Fan disappeared with the water. He quickly turned into a shadow sparrow and left the hole.

He returned to the half-destroyed fortress. He was curious who had helped him in the nick of time when he saw Zhao Manyan pointing at the sky in disbelief.

“Little...little ... no, it’s the Flame Belle Empress!”

Zhao Manyan remembered Mo Fan’s Little Flame Belle had evolved into the Flame Belle Empress and driven away the Nazca Monster Birds by herself when the national team was trapped in the old fortress in Peru. He remembered the unforgettable sight of the Flame Belle Empress dancing amid flames in the sky even today.

The same Flame Belle Empress surrounded by scorching flames had shown up again. The water had thoroughly evaporated in front of her Calamity Fire. Her stunning appearance left everyone staring in awe!

“Little Flame Belle!” Mo Fan yelled in surprise.

It really was her!

However, unlike her adorable childish appearance, she was now an unstoppable empress of flames!

A Flame Belle in the Adult Phase!

Her flames were boiling the sea like a brilliant sun. This was the real Flame Belle!

Chapter 2145: Now This is Telekinesis

1

Translator: Exodus Tales Editor: Exodus Tales

The mist in the air had disappeared. It was not just sunny, but the clouds were burning now.

The water continued to evaporate. Mo Fan was not a fan of water, as it not only hindered his movement, it also greatly weakened his magic! However, the water in the area had completely disappeared, leaving a dried land behind.

White salt was scattered across the ground. It looked like the sands of a desert.

Mo Fan looked up and stared at the Flame Belle Empress that had secured the limelight. For some reason, he suddenly recalled her birth.

An unstoppable Flame Belle had left as a new Flame Belle was born. He recalled the resentment in Fiery Sorceress Jiang Feng’s eyes. The only reason she was unwilling to depart from this world was because she could not live until the day Little Flame Belle grew into an adult.

Little Flame Belle had finally grown up. Her Calamity Fire was purer and stronger than Jiang Feng’s, just like the destructive flames that had swept across the North Burning Valley!

The Calamity Fire was still dominating even when Little Flame Belle was at the edge of the sea. The sea had dried up, while the sky was burning!

The Cruel Sea Serpent let out a piercing screech.

It was a vicious yet cowardly creature. It immediately hid behind the Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan when it saw the sacred spirit of the flames.

It kept hissing, but it did not dare get close to the Flame Belle Empress.

The fearless Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan stepped toward the Flame Belle Empress. The blue magical light it was emitting grew stronger and eventually formed a membrane over its body.

The blue membrane was flowing continuously, and was able to ward away the heat of the Flame Belle Empress' flames.

The Flame Belle Empress showed no intention of backing away as the Tyrant Titan approached her.

“Ling!~”

Heavenly Flames of Destruction!

Fire began to fall from the sky. The whole place was scorching red within an instant.

The heavenly flames landed in the dried seabed and formed a forest of flames several hundred meters high!

The Tyrant Titan tried to get closer, but its protective blue membrane began to melt from the flames. Even its sturdy skin began burning!

A Tyrant Titan's skin was effective at reducing the damage of spells, especially that of a two-hundred-meters Tyrant Titan, whose skin had been refined over a long time. It was extremely impressive if the spells that landed on it still inflicted twenty percent of their normal damage.

Fire and Lightning were some of the Elements that the Tyrant Titans were not afraid of. It had torn Mo Fan's Lightning Crows apart with its bare hands, despite its twelvefold damage amplification!

The Tyrant Titan was trying to use the same approach now. It kept stomping the ground, stirring up blue shock waves and trying to extinguish the Empress Flame Belle's flames.

However, it did not get its wish this time. The flames did not weaken even after it began stomping the ground. Instead, its skin sustained serious burns!

The Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan lost its temper. It tore up a part of the island and raised it above its head before hurling it at the Flame Belle Empress.

The rock was as big as a meteor. The airflow around it was visible as it was hurled forth at incredible speed. The Battlemages on the ground could feel its overwhelming force as it hurtled at them.

The Flame Belle Empress did not dodge the rock. Her burning eyes suddenly emitted a silver light.

The rock approaching her rapidly was covered by a silver edge, as if another force was being applied on it. It gradually slowed down and came to a stop before her.

“The Space Element!” Mo Fan was astounded by Little Flame Belle’s power.

Flame Belles possessed the Space Element. Her Telekinesis was far stronger than that of a Space Mage like him!

The Flame Belle Empress threw the rock back with even greater force.

The wind the rock had produced coming in was strong, but the turbulence produced by the rock as it flew back at the Tyrant Titan almost razed the fortress to the ground!

The Cruel Sea Serpent was obviously weaker than the Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan, and was struggling to remain stable in the strong wind. On the other hand, the Tyrant Titan was knocked a great distance away, leaving a shocking ravine across the dry seabed.

Major General Jessica was dumbfounded when she saw the Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan being knocked away.

The sacred flame spirit might actually defeat the Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan!

Mo Fan had taught the Flame Belle Empress to attack an enemy relentlessly, so they would not have a chance to catch their breath.

The area already had a huge forest of flames. The Flame Belle Empress flew across the fires and crossed her arms to gather the flames around her!

She only had the appearance of a petite young woman, yet the moment her palm touched the back of her hand, thousands of flames ignited wildly around her before flying at the Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan!

The Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan wanted to keep pressing forward, but the flames kept pushing it back further away. Its skin was growing scorched brands like blossoming flowers!

The Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan swayed and eventually fell onto the salt. Calamity Flames crawled all over it and continued to torture the creature.

The creature let out a furious cry!

“Ling!~”

The Flame Belle Empress was very angry. How dare it step on her father!

She did not give the Tyrant Titan any chance to rise to its feet. Her will pressed down on the Tyrant Titan like a heavy mountain!

The mountain was invisible, yet a loud blast was audible when it slammed onto the Tyrant Titan. The Tyrant Titan was crushed deeper into the seabed. The Battlemages could hear its bones crack.

“Ling!~”

The Flame Belle Empress was a lot scarier than the Tyrant Titan when she was mad!

She began using her Telekinesis to grab something else.

“Calm down, my little ancestor, that’s an island!” Zhao Manyan exclaimed in alarm.

The Three Leaves Defensive Perimeter was made up of three islands in the shape of a clover. There was another island around three kilometers away from the fortress.

The Flame Belle Empress was grabbing the whole island with Telekinesis. The people at the front line almost fainted when they saw the entire island being lifted into the sky and hurled at the Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan!

Chapter 2146: Sky-Spanning Fiery Bow

Translator: Exodus Tales Editor: Exodus Tales

Luckily, the sentries on the island had already retreated, or the Flame Belle Empress would have caused a massacre when she threw the island at the Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan. It might not even inflict any serious damage to the creature!

The Flame Belle Empress was very angry. After the small island hit the Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan, it surprisingly started to struggle back to its feet. Not only was its body covered by burns, it had been knocked to the ground by something so huge!

The Cruel Sea Serpent screeched when it saw its protector being beaten up. It beat its wings and rose to a height above the Flame Belle Empress.

A loud cry suddenly echoed across the area. Most of Battlemages fell to the ground before the power of a scream that made their souls shiver. Not only were they unconscious, there was blood coming out of their nose and ears!

“It’s the Sound Element. Stop it!” Mo Fan told Little Flame Belle.

The piercing shriek did not affect the Flame Belle Empress much. She could set up a barrier with her Will to stop the sound from reaching her, but the Cruel Sea Serpent’s cry had spread across the whole Three Leaves Island Defensive Perimeter. If it lasted for more than half a minute, every Mage below the Advanced Level would be reduced to a vegetable!

Pure fire magic danced around the Flame Belle Empress, as elegant as butterflies.

As she tapped her fingers softly in the air, an even fiercer Calamity Fire spread wildly. A line of flame with a slight arc to it stood in the air.

When the solid arc of flame several hundred meters long first appeared, it was difficult to tell what ability the Flame Belle Empress was using. However, when a burning arrow was placed on it, Mo Fan realized it was a bow.

A huge fiery bow!

The bow extended from a height of several hundred meters to below sea level. The arrow was more than half the length of the island where the fortress was built. It would look very strange even if the Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan was holding a bow so much larger than it!

The bow was just too big. The Flame Belle Empress was petite, like an ordinary young girl dressed in a burning red dress. However, she fancied exceedingly large toys!

2

She had just thrown an island at her enemy, and now, she had summoned a Sky-Spanning Fiery Bow. The Cruel Sea Serpent didn't look like a ferocious creature before it. It was the size of an insect in comparison!

The piercing screech stopped when the arrow was placed on the bow. The Cruel Sea Serpent actually displayed the dignity of the dragon species when it did not choke in fear after seeing the bow.

As the Flame Belle Empress waved her hand, the string on the bow was fully stretched back. The burning arrow sprang forward when it was released, followed by clouds of flames behind it!

The Cruel Sea Serpent fled for its life, but it was useless. The burning arrow landed right on its back.

It was unlikely that such a huge arrow was going to pierce through the Cruel Sea Serpent's body. Unlike a normal arrow that would pierce its target, the arrow the Flame Belle Empress had produced rammed into the Cruel Sea Serpent like a truck instead. It was sending the Cruel Sea Serpent into the sky so far it looked like it was side by side with the sun!

The Cruel Sea Serpent was using the greatest advantage of the dragons, flight! Its airspeed was higher than most flying species because of its powerful wings, yet it was slow as a turtle before the burning arrow, which seemed as quick as a hare. It had taken off earlier, yet the arrow still caught up to it with ease.

Half of the Cruel Sea Serpent's body fell from the sky in the distance, landing close to the third island farthest away.

The flames on it were burning fiercely. The Cruel Sea Serpent had a high level of fat, and the Calamity Fire burned on its remaining carcass for a long time, even growing stronger as it did.

If the other half of its body had not been blasted into pieces by the impact, it might have burned like an active small volcano!

The island of the fortress and the third island were around two kilometers apart. Mo Fan, Zhao Manyan, Mu Bai, and General Jessica stared at the huge pillar of smoke in disbelief.

Did the infamous Cruel Sea Serpent of the Mediterranean Sea just turn into scorched remains, just like that?

Exactly how strong was the Flame Belle Empress? She had just killed the Cruel Sea Serpent with a single blow!

The Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan finally rose to its feet. It was enraged when it saw the Cruel Sea Serpent had turned into a pile of burning fuel.

It started charging at the fortress recklessly, despite the meteors that the Flame Belle Empress was throwing at him.

“Is it trying to take us down with it?” Zhao Manyan cried.

“Have your men retreated?” Mo Fan asked General Jessica.

“They...they have withdrawn further!” the general confirmed.

“Old Zhao, we’ll use the Earth Element at the same time!” Mo Fan proclaimed.

“Got it, but I’m not sure if we can stop it!”

“Circle of Crystal Teeth: Heavens Gate!”

Mo Fan had gathered hundreds of shards during the battle. The shards could not form up earlier because of the seawater, but they had returned after the seawater in the area had dried up before Little Flame Belle’s power.

Little Flame Belle, the Cruel Sea Serpent, and the Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan had provided Mo Fan with plenty of shards while they were fighting. The shards rapidly constructed an enormous gate in front of the fortress when Mo Fan activated them.

“Titan Body!”

Zhao Manyan also used his Earth Element specialty. A rock statue appeared in front of him and enlarged rapidly. It grew from Zhao Manyan’s height to a hundred-meter-tall giant!

The Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan might be taller than Zhao Manyan’s blocker, but that did not mean Zhao Manyan’s defense would lose to the Tyrant Titan in terms of sturdiness!

“Baxia’s Seal: Harden!”

Zhao Manyan was well aware of the Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan’s strength, and did not dare to preserve his strength. He quickly applied Baxia’s Seal to his spell, doubling its effectiveness.

As a matter of fact, Baxia’s Seal had improved after Zhao Manyan became a Super Mage. The constraints on the wooden clapper had been lifted slightly, meaning that his defense had improved.

The Baxia’s Seal was also stackable with the Blessing of the God’s Seal. Given enough time, Zhao Manyan’s defense would be on par with the destructive power of Mo Fan’s Lightning Element!

BANG!

Two deafening blasts occurred. The Circle of Crystal Teeth: Heavenly Gate that was in the fore was shattered to pieces, but blood was now pouring out of the Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan’s shoulders and chest. It had obviously been injured by Mo Fan’s Circle of Crystal Teeth!

Chapter 2147: All Grown Up At Last!

Translator: Exodus Tales Editor: Exodus Tales

The Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan charged at Zhao Manyan's Titan Body right after it shattered Mo Fan's Heavenly Gate into golden dust!

Zhao Manyan's Earth Element was obviously better at defending, as it was his specialty. The Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan's body distorted severely when it collided with the Titan Body. Its bones were visibly bent out of shape!

In the end, the remaining fortress still did not survive. The Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan had decided to destroy everything it could see indiscriminately, but it paid a huge price for it!

The Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan was lying in the debris, and could no longer get back up. Its arms, chest, and face were charred beyond recognition. The Flame Belle Empress' Calamity Fire had already broken down its defenses, so it was merely killing itself to get some revenge when it charged forward so recklessly.

Many Battlemages had died horrible deaths. The force of the collision had blown them into pieces since their cultivation was too weak. It had been a horrifying sight.

However, that outcome was totally acceptable compared to the whole army being wiped out. Otherwise, the Three Leaves Island Defensive Perimeter would have been littered with corpses by now. Even General Jessica would not have survived the attack.

As for the three islands, Little Flame Belle had thrown the smallest one at the Tyrant Titan. The island furthest away had become the Cruel Sea Serpent's crematorium. The island with the fortress was now razed to the ground!

Seawater was slowly filling up the empty spaces, and soon covered the land of white salt. The Three Leaves Island Defensive Perimeter turned into a shallow beach.

The water kept rising as the dried area quickly reclaimed its initial appearance. The shattered remains of the three islands and the debris soon disappeared.

The Flame Belle Empress inspected the Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan's remains. She confirmed the creature was dead before flying toward Mo Fan.

General Jessica had no idea why the Flame Belle Empress had shown up. She might have defeated the Evil Duo of the Mediterranean Sea, but if she was merely looking for a fight, she could have burned the humans up instead! The general was on high alert when she saw the Flame Belle Empress approaching them, yet she could not help but tremble in fear.

When the Flame Belle Empress reached Mo Fan, her burning dress disappeared with a puff of smoke, replaced by a warm aura. Her appearance of a regal empress was gone. An adorable Porcelain doll jumped into Mo Fan's arms and rubbed her head on Mo Fan's chest with a soft purr.

It had been months since Little Flame Belle had last seen her daddy. She immediately acted like a spoiled child, which was a great contrast to her imperious manner when she was bullying the Cruel Sea Serpent and the Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan. General Jessica was utterly dumbfounded by the sight.

Is this little thing the same sacred spirit that dominated the fight just a moment ago?

General Jessica finally gathered up her courage and asked, "Is...is she your Contracted Beast?"

"Mm, she's a little clingy," Mo Fan had no choice but to hug Little Flame Belle in his arms until she was satisfied when he realized she had no intention to get off him.

"I've seen such a powerful Elemental Creature," General Jessica exclaimed.

Mo Fan smiled sincerely.

Mo Fan had been feeding Little Flame Belle pieces of Fire Seeds ever since she was born. He only fed her Spirit-grade Fire Seeds at first, but soon she was eating Soul-grade Fire Seeds like they were potato chips!

As a result, Mo Fan never had enough money. Only he knew how costly Little Flame Belle's milk powder was.

And now... She had finally grown up!

Didn't he put in so much effort to raise her, just for things like today?

Most importantly, the Flame Belle Empress was stronger than Mo Fan had expected. The Cruel Sea Serpent and Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan were not minor characters among the Ruler-level creatures, yet the Flame Belle Empress had played them like a fiddle. Mo Fan almost had the urge to burst into tears while he was watching the spectacular fight.

He no longer had to live like a pover from today onward. He could finally afford to buy himself some useful magic Equipment to replace the junk he had been wearing since his days as a student. He could finally buy a few seaview mansions and look after a few young and gorgeous models!

"Sir, yes, this is General Jessica from the Three Leaves Island Defensive Perimeter. We are about to transport the Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan's remains to Crete, please send a few of our largest warships... Sir, you heard that right, it was the Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan of the Mediterranean Sea. It's dead. Those three who came to visit... I mean, who came here to kill the Tyrant Titan, have killed it!"

General Jessica was reporting to her superior, yet even she was having a hard time believing what she had just said. Everything felt like a dream to her.

The infamous Evil Duo of the Mediterranean Sea had shown up at the Three Leavens Island Defensive Perimeter. Everyone thought the defensive perimeter was going to fall, while the whole army would end up at the bottom of the sea. No one had expected the two ferocious creatures to die during the battle. It was the last thing they expected to happen!

Mo Fan's group did not stay at the Three Leaves Island Defensive Perimeter for long. They headed back to Crete.

The news spread at a shocking pace. They saw banners across Jade Bay City proclaiming the Evil Duo of the Mediterranean Sea had been killed before they reached Harper's inn.

Many people were doubtful at first, whether they were the locals or the Hunters who had come to hunt the Tyrant Titans. No one had managed to kill the Evil Duo of the Mediterranean Sea for so many years, yet the two had been slain so suddenly.

Weren't creatures of their level supposed to cause a massive tragedy first, before the officials held an emergency meeting to gather experts from across the world and fight an epic battle with the two creatures for a few days and nights and eventually kill them? How could they die so easily? It was not like they were just some Sea Monkey Monsters you could find by the sea!

However, those who were doubtful were left in awe when the military fleet transported the remains of the Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan and the Cruel Sea Serpent back to Jade Bay City!

It really was the Evil Duo of the Mediterranean Sea. A few Hunters had been there for the Incident of the Blood Sea. They had seen the Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan and the Cruel Sea Serpent in person.

The Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan's remains were currently on the ships. It took four ships just to transport its body. The harbor was bottlenecked by its bulk!

Chapter 2148: The Guild of the Wicked, Again

Translator: Exodus Tales Editor: Exodus Tales

"This titan... those four battleships are at least two hundred meters when they are tied together. I never knew a two-hundred-meter-tall Tyrant Titan existed!" Some Hunters on the shore were still shocked by the sight.

"How strong is a two-hundred-meter Tyrant Titan going to be? The military must have paid a huge price just to kill them!"

"No, no, apparently, only the Battlemages who did not retreat from the Three Leaves Island Defense Perimeter died. There weren't too many casualties in the operation."

"There must be some Super Level experts here then. They must be quite reputable in Greece if they were able to kill the Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan and the Cruel Sea Serpent!"

The Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan's death gave the people of Crete some much-needed relief. The Tyrant Titans were not invincible. They would also fall miserably if they dared to invade human territory!

A meeting was held right away. The general with long brows was smiling so hard when he saw Mo Fan, Zhao Manyan, and Mu Bai that his face was about to secrete oil.

"Mister Mo Fan, you did not let the Highnesses down. The Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan was a malignant tumor in the Mediterranean Sea. It might be clumsy, but we always failed to kill it because of the cunning Cruel Sea Serpent. Not only did their deaths bring people of Crete the peace they have long been waiting for, you have also avenged the dead from the Incident of the Blood Sea!" Poseidon complimented them

"How did you do it? That's a two-hundred-meter-tall Tyrant Titan. Many people have never even seen one of its height before!" a few Golden Sun Knights blurted out.

They were no longer putting on airs. Most of the Golden Sun Knights who were present did not think they could take on the Steel Mountain Tyrant Titan.

"It's only a Blue Star Tyrant Titan. Why are you all making such a big fuss about it?" Tuis mocked their accomplishment.

"Tuis, a two-hundred-meter-tall Blue Star Tyrant Titan is actually stronger than many Silver Moon Tyrant Titans. Mo Fan has done a great job, and has won a magnificent battle for the Saintess' Hall, helping the Parthenon Temple to earn back the people's trust. A victory like this is the most convincing to the people at a sensitive time like this!" Poseidon rebuked him.

"Indeed, we need more victories so the Tyrant Titans will no longer dare to set foot in our territory. We must teach them to be afraid of us!" general long-brows declared.

Tuis was obviously irritated when he saw everyone in the meeting talking about the feat.

"No one can beat Tuis. It's only a two-hundred-meter-tall Blue Star Tyrant Titan. I can kill ten of them. Just you wait!" Tuis could not stand it anymore, and strode out of the room angrily!

Tuis never thought Mo Fan would kill a two-hundred-meter Tyrant Titan after he heard their group was focusing on killing Blue Star Tyrant Titans. He assumed these amateurs would never track down a Silver Moon Tyrant Titan, let alone kill one!

They were just lucky they stumbled into a two-hundred-meter-tall Blue Star Tyrant Titan that was old and weak. His target was not those low-level creatures!

Zhao Manyan was humming as he walked along the path covered in pebbles. He had been quite pleased to see Tuis lose his temper. Most importantly, the whole of Crete was talking about the two-hundred-meters Tyrant Titan. The three of them were soon going to be famous!

They went back to their inn. They were used to the place, so they did not bother finding another place to stay. Harper might be scum, but he was quite an interesting person. They felt comfortable staying at his inn.

“Assh*, what is this junk you brought me? Did we purposely come here to collect this rubbish!?” a faint voice came from the grove beside the inn.

Mo Fan heard it from a great distance away, and looked in its direction.

“I think someone is talking in the grove, but I can’t hear him clearly.” Mu Bai had heard it too.

“Why didn’t I hear anything?” Zhao Manyan asked with a confused face.

“Your cultivation is too weak... I’ll go eavesdrop on them. I had a feeling those people who are staying at the inn are a strange bunch. I wonder what they are up to,” Mo Fan told them.

Mo Fan hid among the shadows in the grove, and soon located the group of visitors.

There was a simple shed in the grove, surrounded by weeds. Even the path leading to it was covered. No one would come here under normal circumstances.

The man with dark tattoos on one side of his face sat in the shed with the demeanor of a ruffian. He was cursing his lackeys scathingly.

“Boss, these are the freshest organs we can get from the Hunters,” the man with a black bandana said.

“What I need are the organs of Silver Moon Tyrant Titans, and the organs of the two-hundred-meters Tyrant Titan. You have three days to do your job. If you can’t find any of them, I’m feeding you to the snakes!” the leader said.

“Boss, it’s really difficult to get them. You do know the military has the two Silver Moon Tyrant Titans...”

“Who cares if the military has them? Our guild has been controlling the supply of the Tyrant Titans’ organs for many years. Last time, we failed to provide Su Lu’s men with enough hearts from the Tyrant Titans. This time, the Liden Royal Family is offering us a lot of money. We must get them at any cost!” the leader said.

“Boss, give us more time. We just need to figure out a way. We do have connections in the military. We also have people in the Parthenon Temple. The organs won’t fall into the wrong hands this time,” the man with a black bandana promised.

“Just get out of my sight. I will send someone to negotiate with the man from the Tuis.”

Mo Fan went back to the inn after he was done eavesdropping on the group.

A few minutes later, the man with black tattoos on his face came back. He was alone.

“Where have you all been for the past few days?” the man asked.

“We went to restock our supplies. Crete has been short on supplies lately. We have to cross a few mountains if we want to buy some fresh fruits,” Mo Fan replied calmly.

“What fruits do you have? Get me some and bring them to my room,” the man ordered.

“Not a problem,” Mo Fan retained his smile and watched the man leave.

The smile on his face lost its warmth as soon the man was out of his vision.

“The road is narrow for enemies indeed. I didn’t expect to stumble into them here!” Mo Fan spat.

“You know who they are?” Mu Bai was surprised.

“They are from the Guild of the Wicked!” Mo Fan stated confidently.

Chapter 2149: Run!

Translator: Exodus Tales Editor: Exodus Tales

Mo Fan brought a plate of sliced fruits to the tattooed man’s room. He had also asked for a plate of salad, so Mo Fan conveniently grabbed some maggots with Telekinesis when he was passed by the stable. It was brilliant mixing these maggots that had fed on horse dung with the fruits and the salad.

“You did great. Here, take this and spend it as you please,” the tattooed man smiled when he saw the young attendant doing such a great job.

“Enjoy!” Mo Fan flicked his finger and fired a wisp of the Dark Material into the man’s body.

Mo Fan heard the man calling for him when he was about to leave. “Wait!” the man stopped Mo Fan.

Mo Fan’s heart skipped a beat. The man was no ordinary person. He was actually aware of the Dark Material? It seemed like he had no choice but to take him down first. He could learn what they were up to by slowly interrogating him!

“The fruits are pretty good. The sauce on the salad is fine too. Bring me more of them,” the man continued.

“Oh, sure, not a problem,” Mo Fan responded with a smile. He immediately withdrew the flame on his palm.

Mo Fan could not help but curse under his breath as he turned around, “What a fking idiot!”

Mo Fan waited patiently for the Guild of the Wicked to make their moves. He knew exactly where the tattooed man was.

“Mo Fan, are they really from the Guild of the Wicked?” Zhao Manyan said doubtfully.

“We’ll soon find out. They should be on the move tonight. Those scum have stumbled right into us. Why shouldn’t we get rid of them once and for all?” Mo Fan said.

Mo Fan had not forgotten the cruel things that the Guild of the Wicked was responsible for. They had used children’s hearts as a substitution for the Tyrant Titans’ hearts. They never found out how many lives were lost because of these assh*. Mo Fan would feel uncomfortable if he did not take them out!

“We have no clue what they are up to. If they are only a bunch of small fries, we should just report them with an anonymous call,” Mu Bai commented.

“They are here to steal the Tyrant Titans’ organs. They don’t sound like small fries to me,” Mo Fan said.

These people had caught Mo Fan’s attention on the first day mainly because he could sense a strange Aura in their bodies. It was the ability of his Dark Vein, something like a sixth sense.

As he suspected, these people were not just some ordinary dealers on the Black Market. They were members of the infamous Guild of the Wicked!

“Harper is really something, too. He managed to attract a bunch of crooks to be his guests!” Zhao Manyan said.

“By the way, where’s Harper?” Mo Fan asked.

“He left a while ago. He was all dressed up too. He must be meeting some lusty woman again. That son of a bch seemed very unhappy when he saw us. He even scolded me. I didn’t bother getting back at him. Otherwise, he would be going to his date with a limp tonight!” Zhao Manyan said dismissively.

“Mm, I think he wants to chase us away because we haven’t paid him after staying here for so long,” Mu Bai said.

“Get over it, he’s just a greedy pervert,” Mo Fan said helplessly.

Mo Fan stayed at the inn the whole night. He thought the tattooed man was up to something tonight, but he had stayed in his room instead.

Mo Fan was a little confused. Could it be that he had sent out his lackeys instead?

He was watching the wrong person if that was the case. He did not have a chance to spread the Dark Material onto the man with the black bandana.

The man with a black bandana and the other two blond men who barely talked came back to the inn late that night. They did not stay in the lobby for long, heading straight to their leader’s room.

“Boss, I saw those three on my way here,” the man with a black bandana said.

“I know, I’m keeping an eye on them.”

“Should we take them out too?”

"The military and the Parthenon Temple are nearby. They are on alert at the moment. We'll do it once I erase our traces. Mm, just a little longer," the tattooed man said.

"We did our job too. Hehe, we made it look like the guy was attacked by a robber in a dark alley..." the man with a black bandana reported.

Mo Fan was not eavesdropping on the group. The tattooed man was being very cautious. He had set up some well-hidden magic Formations to confine their voices. Mo Fan had no clue how strong these people were, so he did not dare to expose himself.

"I didn't expect he was only sending his lackeys out. We missed out on the opportunity to follow them and see what they were up to," Mo Fan muttered.

The tattooed man had come back alone after the meeting in the grove. His lackeys did not return before now, thus Mo Fan never had the chance to mark them. He had no clue where they had gone.

"We are using a long line to catch a big fish. We shouldn't alert them for the time being," Mu Bai said.

Thud! Thud!

There were knocks on the door as they were talking.

"HAHA, I thought Harper would fool around until the next morning. I didn't think he would come back so early. (Sigh), so what if he has hooked up with a lot of ladies, he couldn't even satisfy them!" Zhao Manyan rose to his feet and went to the door.

He was stunned as soon as he opened the door. A strong smell caught him by surprise!

The man at the door was covered in blood from his chest to his pants. Even his hands had bloodstains everywhere. If Zhao Manyan had not recognized him as Harper, he would have reflexively sliced him with his Light Magic!

Mo Fan and Mu Bai smelled the blood too. They immediately came outside.

"Mu Bai, save him!" Zhao Manyan helped Harper into the room, but the man was grabbing onto the door frame tightly. He was oddly strong for a dying man, and reluctant to come inside.

"Ru...run!" Harper grabbed Zhao Manyan by his collar.

"You're almost dead!" Zhao Manyan was not sure what to do. He was not a Healer.

Harper had sustained serious injuries. The spot his hand was covering kept bleeding. Mu Bai tried to treat the wounds, but he was not a Healer, either. His methods were not very effective on a dying person.

"Ru...run! They..." Harper was using all his strength to utter the words.

Chapter 2150: Choose a Way to Die!

"It's too late for you to run now!" a hoarse mocking voice called out from the room behind them.

Mo Fan turned around and saw the tattooed man standing in the yard, along with his lackey with a black bandana and the blond-haired brothers.

The four were standing in the yard with evil expressions. They obviously had not planned to stay here peacefully from the start.

"How righteous of you all, let me see... you crawled all the way back here from Saifu Street, that's around a kilometer or two. Are you really that impressive? Or did I go too easy on you?" the man with a black bandana sneered.

"Run, they... they are from the Guild of the Wicked!" Harper gasped.

Mo Fan looked at the blood-covered Harper and the four members with evil smiles. He immediately realized what was going on.

"You idiot, you should go treat your wounds first. Why did you come here instead? So what if they are from the Guild of the Wicked. We told you that we are very powerful Mages. Not many people in this world can kill us!" Zhao Manyan swore angrily.

Harper was still bleeding. He could no longer move his eyes.

In the end, he finally reached his limit, and could no longer support himself. They slowly lowered him to the ground.

"Do a clean job next time, you almost let him live, you idiot," the tattooed man scolded.

"Got it. What should we do with these three?" the tattooed man asked.

The tattooed man stepped forward and looked at Mo Fan with the same smile he had in the afternoon. "Your salad tasted really good. With that in mind, I've chosen a more comfortable way of dying for you. For example, the three of you drowned in an accident when the tide rose at night during a trip."

"Trust me, it's the wisest decision. People in our field know how much difference different ways of dying have!"

Mo Fan did not look at them. His eyes were fixed on Harper.

A dagger was stuck in Harper's chest. It looked like a normal stab, but it made him bleed out non-stop. The man with a black bandana was clearly the one who had put it there.

What a pity, if only Mo Fan had made it back a little earlier, he could have eavesdropped on their whole conversation and found out they were planning to kill Harper tonight. He could have saved Harper's life!

Life was too unpredictable. To Mo Fan's surprise, Harper had still crawled all the way back here to warn them!

He knew he was going to die. He knew he was going to where his murderers were. Mo Fan could imagine how tough the journey here was.

“You could have run away on your own, seriously,” Mo Fan told the already-dead Harper quietly.

What a pity. If Harper had known how strong they were, or had he truly believed that they were indeed here to kill Tyrant Titans and were some of the strongest Mages in the world, he would not have had to suffer so much.

The clumsy stab had turned out to be deadly. Normally, a victim could only lie on the floor until they bled to death, but Harper had a strong desire to live. If he had climbed to the city, he might have survived.

However, he chose a deserted road and climbed such a great distance. They were only strangers coming together by chance. They had never thought he was a noble person. Why didn't he focus on saving himself after he was stabbed?

“If only he could have lived a little longer. He might not have made it, but at least he knows we are going to be fine,” Mu Bai said softly.

Harper gave his everything, including his life, to make sure they escaped. However, he saw the four crooks of the Guild of the Wicked when he was gasping his last breath. He must have thought Mu Bai, Zhao Manyan, and Mu Bai were going to end up like him. If he could have lived a little longer, he could have died in peace.

“Make your choice. Don't waste our precious time!” the tattooed man sneered at them.

“I have two things to tell you.” Mo Fan rose to his feet and faced the tattooed man.

“I'm interested,” he answered confidently.

“The three plates of fruits and salad you ate, I actually used the maggots from the stables as their sauce. They must have tasted very unique. I've told you my secret recipe, but unfortunately, you won't have a chance to try it again,” Mo Fan said.

The smile on the tattooed man's face froze. He turned around and looked at the stable not far away. There were indeed a few white maggots crawling on the pile of horse dung. His face began to twitch uncontrollably.

“It seems like you can no longer choose how you are going to die. Tell me about the second thing,” the tattooed man swore.

“As for the second thing, I will let you choose how to die. I can't be bothered asking you why you wanted Harper dead. I just want to see you die now,” Mo Fan declared.

Asking the enemy to choose how they were going to die was only something one would say when they completely outmatched an enemy.

A few Asians who were working at an inn dared to ask them to choose how they were going to die? Did they really think Advanced Mages and Super Mages were everywhere?

“Kid, do you know who we are?” the tattooed man said.

“The Guild of the Wicked,” Mo Fan nodded.

“We are the Black Ornaments of the Guild of the Wicked! We aren’t your usual pirates, thugs, or human traffickers. I can sense some magic from you. You might have learned a few Basic Spells to light fires, cook dishes, or build walls. Those aren’t real magic...” Something exploded beside the tattooed man as he was speaking.

A thick sauce, like a salad dressing, splattered all over him when he was in the middle of his sentence, but it was bright red.

The smell of blood was so strong that he had an urge to throw up. He turned around in disbelief.

The lackey with a black bandana standing right beside him had exploded!

His ribs, arms, and head had been blasted to pieces. Only his legs remained, but they were covered in blood too!

He’s dead?

Did he die, just like that?
