Chapter 2761: Hawaii Has Grown Taller

Song Feiyao came from Licheng Afterglow Island, and Mo Fan had run into her by accident. Her knowledge of the Godly Horde Prophet's puppets was close to zero.

Most of the Godly Horde Prophet's puppets were in major organizations such as the army, the government, Magic Association, and other big organizations. It was only by joining these systems that the Godly Horde Prophet could obtain their desired information.

Mo Fan and his group had a high chance of victory if the Green East Sea God went along with them to the Pacific Ocean.

Mo Fan nodded. There was not much time left for preparation. They could not wait for Mu Bai and Zhao Manyan's arrival. They had to immediately depart.

"Mo Fan, take this with you."

Just when Mo Fan was about to jump onto the Green East Sea God's back, Ms. Tangyue ran over to him and passed him a tiny bead.

"Totem Orb?" Mo Fan said in surprise.

"Yes. The guy is too big. It's inconvenient if it moves around in that size," said Ms. Tangyue.

When the Black Totem Snake molted, the Totem Orb remained the same except the Black Totem Snake grew small and burrowed its head into the tiny bead.

The Moon Moth Phoenix transformed into an exquisite and delicate Moon Elf, then sat on Mo Fan's shoulder. It was convenient to bring it along. If the Black Totem Snake had not burrowed into the Totem Orb, it would have caused a commotion everywhere.

"Big guy, I think it's best to travel by air. The Ocean Demons can easily detect us if we travel by sea," said Mo Fan to the Black Totem Snake.

After the Black Totem Snake burrowed into the Totem Orb, Mo Fan and Song Feiyao got onto the Green East Sea God and headed to Hawaii.

The Green East Sea God flew at a breakneck speed. If not for the old injuries caused by the lightning chains, Mo Fan and his Black Dragon Wings may not have been able to catch up with it.

In terms of its stamina only, the Green East Sea God was capable of flying to the Pacific Ocean in a single breath.

The Green East Sea God was very smart. It strove to fly higher, away from land and sea at first. But when the higher altitude got colder and hampered its progress, it glided a little lower.

It slowly descended from the sky, then glided for several meters above the sea surface. By the time they saw the sea veering up to them, the Green East Sea God flew suddenly up and away.

It repeatedly flew in this manner. It was a long journey and they ascended to the highest point and descended almost to the sea all the time.

Flying in this manner would not speed up a short-distance flight. But it was obviously much faster if they flew from the East Coastline to the middle of the Pacific Ocean, which was otherwise a very long distance to travel. After all, it was only natural for all flying creatures to take their physical strength into consideration when traveling long distances.

Mo Fan had been to Hawaii once. It was a romantic vacation island once upon a time. Later, it became an army fortress for scouting and fighting the Ocean Demons. After that, it was practically abandoned.

It was not because the Americans and people from the Sacred Hall of Liberty had refused to bear responsibility for Hawaii that it was abandoned. It was because regardless of how strong the army was, it was extremely difficult to face the Ocean Giant Beasts and Ocean Demon army's repeated attacks on this lone island in the Pacific Ocean. Even if the elite American mage team were sent over to guard Hawaii, they would all be wiped out.

But the people from the Sacred Hall of Liberty were obviously reluctant to give up their precious island. Even though the army could not defend the island, they occasionally assigned some squads to do some surveys and gather information.

The powerful Ocean Demons basically came from the center of the Pacific Ocean. Therefore, Hawaii was the most strategic stage station for scouting the Ocean Godly Horde and its underwater country. If humans lost Hawaii, it would be close to impossible to gather any understanding about the Ocean Demons.

The Ocean Demons knew this. So, they would not let an island like this exist. They would attempt to destroy it by any means so that humans could lose their strategic advantage.

However, when Mo Fan and Song Feiyao reached Hawaii, they were surprised to see that the island hadn't been destroyed. Instead, it expanded and became larger than the original. Even the hills were higher than before.

"What's going on? Could it be that the sea level has dropped?" Mo Fan asked in confusion.

Song Feiyao gave him a funny look. Mo Fan sensed that he must have blurted out something stupid. He instinctively touched his nose. 'Was my question that stupid?'

"The island is floating," said Song Feiyao.

1

Indeed, Mo Fan had asked a stupid question. The sea level did not rise or drop so easily. Otherwise, why would zero altitude be taken as a benchmark? The four greatest oceans were connected, and the sea water flowed in constantly. The South and North Glaciers were the only possible factor that would cause a rise in sea level.

The tide rose and fell. Some islands looked much bigger when the tide fell, revealing the areas that were submerged. This was a phenomenon of low tide, revealing much of Hawaii's surface area.

Mo Fan had the impression that Hawaii had expanded five to six times compared to its original size. Even the highest mountain seemed to have grown much taller.

“Will the island continue to grow taller?” asked Mo Fan.

“I remember our ancestors once told us about some people using a forbidden system to seal an island under the sea in order to avoid conflicts. The islanders continue to live their normal lives. But the sea water above the island will never pour into the island. The fact that Licheng Afterglow Island was not discovered in the past was because someone had cast a similar spell,” said Song Feiyao.

“That’s pretty amazing,” said Mo Fan.

“They can move the sea mountain and detach it from the sea surface with another kind of spell. The island will then grow enormous. Look! There are many cracks, broken rocks, and some molten lava around its edges. If I’m not mistaken, some powerful force must have squeezed the island before dragging it up.” Song Feiyao had a deeper knowledge about islands than Mo Fan.

If the sea flooded the world and the sea level reached 8,000 meters, then Mount Everest and other mountains above 8,000 meters would become islands in the middle of the Earth filled with sea around them.

The island was like a mountain that was taller than the level of the sea. Only the movement of the Earth’s plates would show such significant changes. It would also take a long period of time for something like this to happen.

But Hawaii seemed to have undergone a change that would otherwise require thousands of years to manifest. How powerful would one have to be to make something like this happen?

Chapter 2762: Squid King

Hawaii was an archipelago that consisted of eight large islands and more than one hundred small islands. The surface area of the Hawaiian Islands increased as it rose in altitude.

The islands had old-growth forests, mountains, valleys, coastal wetlands, ponds with algae, and volcanic rocks.

Although Commander Hua was in Hawaii, Hawaii was not a small island. The plane under the island had risen. Its surface area was close to half a small province in China!

Mo Fan had no way to contact Commander Hua. It would be difficult to find his location in this vast archipelago.

Many Hunter Dirty Demons were wandering around the archipelago. They crawled out of the sea to the land in groups to search thoroughly for prey.

Green East Sea God hovered over Honolulu. It did not rashly decide to land on the island.

Many Ocean Demons were looking for Commander Hua. The army of Ocean Demons had occupied several important islands and cities, so it felt like they were in the nest of Ocean Demons.

“Mo Fan, a large group of Hunter Dirty Demons is rushing towards a county. Should we follow them?” Song Feiyao asked.

“Let’s go and take a look.” Mo Fan nodded.

Green East Sea God was in the air, and flew faster than the Hunter Dirty Demons could move.

When they looked down from the sky, they could see many Hunter Dirty Demons crawling between the valleys and forests, and they seemed to have a clear target. There were so many of them that it looked like they were a turbid river flowing in waves.

The Green East Sea God made a sound. The sound it made was such that it could clear up the fog and clouds blocking the way. The sight became clearer.

Mo Fan looked and saw an island city surrounded by mountains. The island looked like a ring. On the inner side of the ring were houses, streets, and beaches. At the center was a blue bay that looked like a deep blue eye when he looked at it from above.

The Hunter Dirty Demons gathered in Ring Island City. Most of the people in the city had migrated to America. However, the Hunter Dirty Demons seemed to have sensed the presence of some humans who still remained, so they were chasing after them.

“Let’s fly lower. We can’t see clearly at this height,” Mo Fan said to Song Feiyao.

“If we fly too low, some of the chiefs of Hunter Dirty Demons will spot us,” Song Feiyao said.

“Then we’ll go down, and Green East Sea God can stay here,” Mo Fan said.

There were thousands of members in the army of Hunter Dirty Demons. When they looked down from a high place, the scene made their hair stand on end. Song Feiyao admired Mo Fan. He jumped without frowning in the face of such a terrifying scene. Was he not afraid of being killed by the army of Hunter Dirty Demons?

They landed in Ring Island City. The island city was just a street around the bay. Most buildings and shops had three or four stories at most, and they were all unique. Honestly, if people lived in such a romantic and quiet place, their personalities and moods would be better too.

However, the ugly appearances of the Hunter Dirty Demons had ruined the scenery. There were Hunter Dirty Demons crawling through most parts of Ring Island, which made things even more frightening.

There were too many of them. In the past, Mo Fan often faced countless enemies on some battlefields, but he had never faced as many enemies as this. There were so many of them that some Hunter Dirty Demons needed to crawl on their companions’ backs to move forward.

After the army of Hunter Dirty Demons surrounded the city, Ring Island City looked like a layer of blood-colored quicksand that kept moving.

“They’re Americans. Are they from the Sacred Hall of Liberty?” Mo Fan soon discovered the people who were trapped. There were more than a dozen, and they all had a high level of cultivation.

With the help of the street and city, they formed the Cross Wind Formation. A layer of heavy wind protected people standing in this Cross Wind Formation. It could sweep away the Hunter Dirty Demons that attacked them and killed these demons in mid-air.

“It seems that they don’t really need help. Are they the last guardians of the Sacred Hall of Liberty, or are they international rescuers?” Mo Fan could not quite tell which side they belonged to.

These people were strong. Well, they would have to be if they dared to stay back in Hawaii in these circumstances.

Mo Fan did not want to waste time on them since they were doing alright. He decided to leave and continue his search for Commander Hua.

Among the Hunter Dirty Demons, some Hunter Dirty Demon Queens sensed Mo Fan’s presence. Their eyes were turning strangely, trying to find Mo Fan, who was hiding in the shadow of a cloud.

Mo Fan frowned. These Ocean Demons had powerful senses. Fortunately, he did not make a move. Otherwise, the army of Hunter Dirty Demons would not let him go.

“Mo Fan, Mo Fan, come up quickly!” Song Feiyan said to Mo Fan anxiously.

Mo Fan transformed into a Shadow Bird and flew to the sky along the giant shadow of dark clouds. The Green East Sea God flew a little lower. After Mo Fan got on its back, it quickly flapped its wings and rose higher.

A roar came from the ring-shaped blue ‘eye’ of the island. All the seawater in the bay drained and turned into a bottomless pit. A squid tentacle covered with strange lumps all over its body came out of the bottomless pit.

The Strange Lump Squid King attacked blindly, and the island city instantly turned into bubbles. The Cross Wind Formation that the Mages of the Sacred Hall of Liberty relied on also disappeared because of the attack.

The people who were supposedly members of the Sacred Hall of Liberty stared at the Squid King in horror when they saw its pointed head sticking out of the bottomless pit.

The Strange Lump Squid King roared again. The things that came out of its mouth were rocks, shipwrecks, and the bones of other giant sea monsters with countless acid and squid venom. The Squid King poured all these on the members of the Sacred Hall of Liberty.

Suddenly, they were screaming. The squid venom reduced several people into disgusting pools of liquid. Those who only had some venom on their skin wailed in agony.

This group of people were doing alright with their protection magic under the siege of the Hunter Dirty Demons, but the appearance of the Strange Lump Squid King made them helpless.

Mo Fan looked at this terrifying scene from the sky. Hawaii right now was too dangerous. Ocean Demons and top ruler-level monsters were everywhere. The mastermind behind this – Black Claw Emperor – really wanted Commander Hua to die in Hawaii.

Chapter 2763: The Provocation of the Squid King

Mo Fan and Song Fei Yao both had lingering fears, but fortunately, the Green East Sea God flew up in time. They went to a place where the Strange Lump Squid King could not attack.

The Strange Lump Squid King's vicious aura made it clear that it would not allow any humans within ten kilometers of it to survive.

"Let's go. There's no need to waste time with this demon," Mo Fan hurriedly said to Green East Sea God.

The Strange Lump Squid King kept raising its pointed head, and its fully protruding eyes stared at Green East Sea God in the sky. It seemed to be able to sense the presence of Mo Fan and Song Feiyao.

Suddenly, the Strange Lump Squid King opened its maw, which seemed like a small crack in a huge cave. Mo Fan and Song Feiyao thought it would spray deadly venom toward the Green East Sea God but it only spat out a few white bones towards them.

These bones did not harm the Green East Sea God, but the action was full of contempt and provocation.

Those bones belonged to the Mages of the Sacred Hall of Liberty, whom the Strange Lump Squid King had swallowed just now. The Strange Lump Squid King was mocking Green East Sea God and provoking Mo Fan and Song Feiyao by spitting out the bones towards them.

The Green East Sea God did have a temper. The Strange Lump Squid King was just a squid in the sea, which only dared to move at the bottom of the ocean. And yet it acted like it was so formidable on land and looked down on the eagle king that flew above the sea.

"Damn it! If this mission wasn't urgent, I would jump down there and slaughter it! Then, I will bake it and make a nice squid omelet for myself," said Mo Fan angrily. How dare the creature mock him?

"Forget it. There are many Hunter Dirty Demons around it. We can't kill all of them in one go," Song Feiyao said.

The Moon Moth Phoenix which stood on Mo Fan's shoulders was afraid of the Strange Lump Squid King. It was even more scared that Mo Fan would let his anger get the better of him and fight it. So, the Moon Moth Phoenix cast a calming magic around Mo Fan. Mo Fan took a deep breath and stood at the tail of Green East Sea God. Then, he made a beheading gesture toward the Strange Lump Squid King.

However, the Strange Lump Squid King also was unrelenting. It chased after the direction of flying Green East Sea God through the land below.

When Green East Sea God flew over a mountain, the Strange Lump Squid King climbed it as well. The mountain almost shattered under its rigid body, and the rocks rolled down in all directions.

The Strange Lump Squid King chased after Green East Sea God for more than ten kilometers and then they finally lost it. But on a hill, they could still see the Strange Lump Squid King at the highest point, making threatening gestures towards them.

The Green East Sea God stared icily at the creature for a while and ignored it.

The Green East Sea God's eyes were sharp. At an altitude of thousands of meters, it could still see those tiny creatures on the road even if countless clouds were blocking its vision.

It was indeed convenient for Mo Fan. He could observe the entire Hawaiian Islands from a relatively safe area. Otherwise, he might have been dragged by a group of Ocean demons if he was on land.

"Mo Fan, a group of people is in the north of Honolulu. They walk carefully and covertly," Song Feiyao said.

The Green East Sea God had good eyesight. From the current height, all Mo Fan could see was just a bumpy green plate even if no clouds were blocking the entire thousands of square kilometers of the island. Even the towering mountain range seemed to be indistinct folds in his eyes.

"Let's get in touch with them. Maybe those people came on a rescue mission like us. I wonder if they have any news about Commander Hua," said Mo Fan.

When flying down, the closer Mo Fan got to the ground, the more shocked he got. A group of Ocean Demons had occupied Honolulu. It was common to see a Blue Haired Ocean Demon holding a strange coral cane. It had silver scales covering its whole body. It looked like a thin woman in a silver leather coat with fluttering blue hair from a distance.

When he took a closer look, he realized that this blue-haired humanoid Ocean Demon had an ugly salamander face, and its webbed feet were as large as Bigfoot's.

These Blue-Haired Female Demons often rode on a Deep-Sea Lizard Dragon Demon that could gallop on land while holding the coral cane. A large group of undersea monsters surrounded them.

From time to time, several commanders of Hunter Dirty Demons with strange silver-blue lights all over their bodies came from a distance, making strange sounds. The Blue-Haired Female Demons ordered all the undersea monsters to move towards the commanders of Hunter Dirty Demons.

There were quite a few such Blue-Haired Female Demons and undersea monster corps. They were in the surroundings of Honolulu, and they considered this Hawaiian City an important investigative target. Everywhere they passed was destroyed, leaving a mess behind.

The group of people that the Green East Sea God discovered seemed to be avoiding these Blue-Haired Female Demons. They planned to retreat deeper into the forests along a valley north of Honolulu.

Mo Fan realized that no matter how powerful the human group was, they had to keep a low profile after entering Hawaii. They were very quiet and careful. The number of the army of Ocean Demons in Hawaii exceeded anybody's expectations. It was as if the Ocean Demons had made this their home.

'Fortunately, Zhang Xiaohou had destroyed the Underwater Underground River Tunnel leading to the Bo Sea. Otherwise, the army of Ocean Demons would constantly enter China's Bo Sea from the Underwater Underground River Tunnel. Maybe we can escape through the Underground River Tunnel and return to Bo Sea, if need be,' thought Mo Fan.

When Zhang Xiaohou was looking for the Dragon King Ant, he accidentally discovered the Underwater Underground River that could lead to the middle of the Pacific Ocean. The large Ocean Demons could not pass through the underground river after the silver mines destroyed it, but humans might be able to go through the gap.

Besides, Mo Fan was a Space Element Mage. As long as there were some cracks where the underground river had collapsed, Mo Fan could teleport people to the other end by jumping in these spaces.

Mo Fan had heard Zhang Xiaohou mention that some Ocean Demons were still gushing out of the Underground River Tunnel. However, there were not many of them, and they were only small Ocean Demons.

After the Underwater Underground River Tunnel collapsed, the Ocean Godly Horde had given up that route.

"Let's hurry and find Commander Hua," said Mo Fan.

Mo Fan approached the valley. Song Feiyao and Green East Sea God remained in the air. He did not want to be targeted by Ocean Demons on land but he thought this arrangement was the safest. Song Feiyao and the Green East Sea God could investigate the situation around Honolulu from the air.

Among the Ocean Demons, many could fly. The Giant Shark Beasts were constantly patrolling like hot air balloons.

Chapter 2764: Stingray Legion

Low altitudes, especially below five thousand meters, were out of the question for the Green East Sea God. It was where the Green East Sea God patrolled.

From time to time, they could see stingrays with very long tails in the air. At first, Mo Fan thought Honolulu was holding a stingray kite competition. The stingrays were in the air all disorderly. The scene was almost spectacular.

After landing in the valley, Mo Fan turned into a Shadow Bird and was about to approach the group of people who were walking quietly.

Suddenly, the stingrays below the clouds moved toward him, and their eyes, which emitted red light, stared in his direction.

'Are they after the people in the valley?' thought Mo Fan. 'No! They found me instead'. Mo Fan was shocked. Could these stingrays see through the concealment of Shadow Element?

Mo Fan started to move away from the valley, and the stingrays followed. Suddenly, the forest where Mo Fan was at began to dim. The stingrays had blocked the light!

They were indeed a group of Ocean Demons that were used to find Forbidden Mages. They were sensitive to all hidden methods. No wonder the group of people in the valley were so careful.

Mo Fan opened the ancient magic portal and summoned a Dark Night Dream Beast. 'Think of a way and help me divert them.'

The Dark Night Dream Beast was a night elf creature which looked like a deer. It had antlers like a dreamy tree and black hair, and it was an elf creature on the same level as Mighty Cliff Demon King.

Mo Fan did not need to combine with the Shadow Element. He just summoned it from the ancient magic portal and let it divert those stingrays.

He could summon the Dark Night Dream Beast back through the ancient magic portal, so he did not have to worry even if those stingrays surrounded the Dark Night Dream Beast. It could safely return to the Thousand Tribe Elf Tower.

This Summoned Beast was quite reliable. It first appeared and pretended to panic. Then, it escaped into the shadows and fled to the south through the trees. Those stingrays were sensitive to motion. They chased in the direction where the Dark Night Dream Beast ran.

Mo Fan stayed where he was and did not dare to move. The Shadow Element could still give his location away. If he stayed still, he might be able to conceal himself completely. A Light Element Mage with high cultivation might not be able to locate a Shadow Element user who stayed still.

Mo Fan was very patient. He waited until all the stingrays followed the Dark Night Dream Beast. He then tried walking very slowly.

'I mustn't underestimate these Ocean Demons. Most of them who came here are the elites under the Black Claw Emperor.' Mo Fan let out a sigh of relief.

Only after entering the valley did he move freely. The valley would provide cover. The Dark Night Dream Beast had completed its mission. Mo Fan opened the ancient magic portal and recalled it to the Thousand Tribe Elf Tower.

"Who is it?"

"Who is approaching?"

A voice rang out. Mo Fan was stunned. How had they discovered him? Was his concealment really this poor?

Mo Fan did away with the concealment and walked towards the group of people. He saw an old acquaintance with a long beard and old wrinkles on his face. However, he still looked energetic.

"Mo Fan, it's you!" Pang Lai said in surprise.

"What a pleasant surprise!" Mo Fan smiled.

"Oh my, Mo Fan, it's been a long time!" Jiang Yu squeezed through the crowd and ran to him. He gave Mo Fan a big hug.

Mo Fan was surprised to see him here as well. However, it wasn't so unusual. Jiang Yu was Pang Lai's direct disciple. If Pang Lai was here, it was not uncommon for him to be on the team.

"What are you doing here?" Mo Fan asked in confusion.

"We are here to rescue a Forbidden Mage. He is trapped..."

"Jiang Yu!" A mature woman said sternly.

Mo Fan saw a woman in her thirties. She was tall, thin, and had a stern face. She gave people the impression that she was in charge.

"What a coincidence. I'm here to rescue a Forbidden Mage as well," Mo Fan said with a smile.

The stern woman walked over and stood in front of Jiang Yu. Her eyes were sharp. "Do you think we will believe that a rescue team only has one person?"

"Ye Mei, this is Mo Fan, the winner of the World College Tournament. He is a trustworthy person, so you don't have to be so nervous," Pang Lai said.

"The rescue is not a game or a trial for young people. The Stingray Legion was leaning toward us just now. They probably noticed when he entered the valley. Hmph." Ye Mei was still wary of Mo Fan.

"All right, I promise that there won't be any more problems. Mo Fan, why are you here?" Pang Lai was still very gentle and friendly to Mo Fan. It was just like way back when he used to be his student.

"Well, I received a mission at a critical and difficult moment," Mo Fan replied.

"I'm happy that you came." Pang Lai pulled Mo Fan aside. He lowered his voice. "This matter is urgent. Our country's Forbidden Mages have to supervise in the key base cities, so it is difficult to transfer them. I thought there was little hope this time, but I forgot about your existence. What do you think of turning into a demon?"

"Old Pang, to tell the truth, my Essence Orb is almost empty now, and I haven't recovered from the sequelae of the last time yet," Mo Fan replied with a bitter smile.

It was no wonder that Pang Lai was so excited when he saw Mo Fan. It turned out that he was hoping that Mo Fan could turn into a demon.

Pang Lai was speechless. The expectation and joy were fading from his face.

"What are you doing here then?" asked Pang Lai.

Mo Fan did not know how to answer. He thought carefully about it. 'Was Tang Zhong also hoping that I could turn into a demon and complete the mission?'

"To tell you the truth, it doesn't matter. I am here now, and Jiang Yu is here as well. And you! It's so nice to meet you all."

Pang Lai glared at Mo Fan. "His Night Rakshasa can find Commander Hua. The life of Commander Hua is more important than Jiang Yu's life, after all."

"Master..." Jiang Yu said.

“Shut up. I said I only wanted the Night Rakshasa to come, and you didn’t have to follow.”

“How could I let Night Rakshasa come to take risks alone? It is my Contracted Beast,” Jiang Yu said.

“You are worried about your cat, and you don’t care about me at all, right?” Pang Lai said angrily.

Chapter 2765: Big Snakes in the Volcano

“Meow.”

The familiar voice of Night Rakshasa came from a deeper part of the valley.

Mo Fan followed the sound and saw Night Rakshasa in black boots and gloves running toward them. Its movement was as light and agile as ever.

“Meow?” Night Rakshasa landed on Jiang Yu’s shoulder and stared at Mo Fan with moonstone eyes. Its eyes were questioning Mo Fan’s presence.

Mo Fan extended his hand and touched Night Rakshasa. This little dark elf cat was still so adorable. The dark hair on its whole body made it appear noble and ancient.

Mo Fan felt that Jiang Yu, instead, was the servant and Night Rakshasa was a laid-back but noble queen.

“Are there any clues yet? We’re counting on you to find Commander Hua,” said Pang Lai.

“Meow,” Night Rakshasa responded.

Jiang Yu’s eyes lit up. “Hurry up and take us there. We must find our National Commander as soon as possible!” he said to Night Rakshasa.

They followed Night Rakshasa to the deeper part of the valley. It turned out there was a dark path. It was probably a small tourist attraction in the past. The demons could not find it, but there were obvious signs along the way.

They passed through this path and walked about a dozen kilometers in a tropical jungle before a mountain appeared in front of them. When they arrived at a place where the view was clear and not blocked by mountains and trees, they found they were very close to a cone-shaped volcano.

Some active volcanoes were easy to identify. They could identify it by looking around and making sure if there were lush plants around it. If there were only bare rocks around then they needed to be careful. The volcano still might erupt.

It was the case with the cone-shaped volcano in front of them. At first glance, there was a little white smoke on the volcanic rocks. It had probably just spewed out red and hot magma not long ago. However, it seemed to be a small eruption.

Their destination was not the cone-shaped volcano, but a mountain separated by it. The cone-shaped volcano was much higher than the mountain ridge they were on. They felt as if a giant creature watched them as they walked up the ridge.

The cone-shaped volcano suddenly made a strange sound like a muffled thunder. Something red-hot condensed and flowed little by little along the crater of the cone-shaped volcano halfway up the mountain like a snake. Several lavas overflowed down the steep mountain like a stream.

“Find cover. There’s something inside!” Pang Lai’s expression suddenly changed.

Everyone rushed down the ridge and hid at a place facing back to the cone-shaped volcano. The cone-shaped volcano suddenly burst out countless fireballs.

When the fireballs were in the crater, they looked like candle fire. However, when it rolled in mid-air and fell to the ridge where Mo Fan and others were, they found that the fireballs were as large as a house. The fireballs could create pits and cracks on the surface of the ridge.

There were quite a lot of such fireballs that flew out from different directions of the cone-shaped volcano. Several heads raised up from the crater, and their long necks moved in the flames. They were huge and terrifying.

Mo Fan glanced at it. Although it was dozens of kilometers apart, Mo Fan could not help but take a deep breath in concern.

Those heads belonged to volcanic snakes with molten fire scales all over their bodies, and there were many of them. Some snakes had their heads in the mid-air, some hung halfway up the mountainside, and some swayed back and forth. The ones protruding from the cone-shaped crater were all snakeheads. Only a small part of the snakes were exposed. Their long bodies were still hidden in the volcano.

“There seems to be five snakes in total. Is there a nest of volcanic snakes there?” Mo Fan asked.

Each of their heads was different. Some had a terrifying eye on their forehead; some had a single horn on their heads; some had huge fan-like gills; some had a poisonous crown. These volcanic snakes were not ordinary ruler-level. The intimidating aura they radiated seemed much stronger than that of the Strange Lump Squid King.

A strange sound wave came from mid-air. Above the thick smoke, a stingray with a dark metallic body slowly flew to the volcanic snakes. It was so big that it looked like a dark cloud over the volcano.

Under its open wings were all flat fan-like air holes, and some smaller stingrays flowed in and out of those holes.

The metallic black stingray king seemed to be communicating with the big snakes in the volcano. After a while, the metallic black stingray king flew again, and the five big snakes in the volcano also slowly returned to the cone-shaped volcano.

Mo Fan frowned. The level of the stingray king would not be lower than that of Green East Sea God. Fortunately, he had always been careful and left the Green East Sea God in the sky. It would be difficult to escape if they ran into this stingray king.

All of them were high-level creatures. Hawaii was about to become the den of Ocean Demons. The Black Claw Emperor had gone to great lengths to get rid of Commander Hua.

“The most important thing to be careful of is that thing in the sky. It has strong detection capabilities, and its strength is formidable,” Pang Lai said to everyone.

Even the small stingrays could detect Mo Fan’s shadow ability, so the stingray king could undoubtedly do it too. It was no wonder everyone was careful not to use magic along the way. They were afraid of being detected if they used even a bit of magic

“What about the five big snakes in the volcano?” Mo Fan asked.

“We better not let that one target us. Otherwise, we will end up dead,” Pang Lai said.

Mo Fan was puzzled. Pang Lai had said “that one” but there were five snakes.

1

Pang Lai did not explain further. Night Rakshasa led the way, followed by the masters of the Forbidden City. Everyone’s faces showed that they were still a little nervous and uneasy.

As people from the Forbidden City, they were already the top among the Mages in China. Even if they faced some fierce demons in the country, they would not be afraid.

But after they came to Hawaii, they had been very cautious. In front of the tyrannical Ocean Demons, they could only hide, tremble, and pray that Ocean Demons would not detect them.

Chapter 2766: Silver-Blue Valley Trap

Night Rakshasa had been leading everyone forward. They could not use magic at will, so their progress was slow.

After passing through the mountains near the cone-shaped volcano, they entered a valley with a long silver-blue river. The terrain in the valley was vast, and there was a town with gray and silver buildings.

The town had not been damaged and was relatively well preserved. It was probably because the residents here had completely migrated not long ago. The whole town seemed alive, and the streets looked very clean.

‘Could it be that Commander Hua was hiding in the Silver-Blue Valley City to recover from his injuries?’ wondered Mo Fan.

Mo Fan used his dragon sense to observe the surroundings, including the distant mountain, to ensure there were no traces of Ocean Demons or Hunter Dirty Demons.

“You all go to the hilltops and keep an eye out for the enemy. If there is any news about the Ocean Demons, you must send us a signal immediately. Understand?” Pang Lai instructed several Royal Mages.

These Royal Mages were all middle-aged. Some of them looked very familiar. They had probably attended the Magic Association or some important events since they were the experts of the Forbidden City. Their cultivations had all reached the top, but they were still careful.

According to Pang Lai’s instructions, the three Royal Mages occupied three mountains which overlooked the Silver-Blue Valley City.

“Let’s go. The Scroll of Dawn that we brought should be able to make Commander Hua recover faster,” said Pang Lai.

The mission of the Royal Mages was not to rescue Commander Hua. It was impossible to save a Forbidden Mage from the pursuit of an orthodox emperor in the middle of the Pacific Ocean with their cultivation. What they had to do was get the Scroll of Dawn to Commander Hua.

It was a magic scroll engraved with a great healing method. By reading the forbidden language on it, they could apply pure great healing magic to one of them. Even a Forbidden Mage could restore life functions, mental state, and repair damaged souls in a short period of time.

“Night Rakshasa, are you sure that Commander Hua is here?” Ye Mei was somewhat skeptical.

Night Rakshasa was running along the street. It only stopped when it reached Hexagon Fountain Square in the center. Tall buildings surrounded the fountain square.

The floor of the fountain square was not flat tiles but countless pieces of transparent semi-blue tempered glass. When they looked at the glass floor, they saw the water in the hexagonal fountain flowing outward in a beautiful vortex.

Many buildings around the square had glass walls, which made the entire Hexagon Fountain Square look very modern and artistic. It could be a symbol of Silver-Blue Valley City.

Night Rakshasa ran a few laps along the hexagonal fountain. After a while, it picked up a military glove from the clean water in the fountain. The glove was very thin, and there was blood on it. It was unknown how long it had been soaking in this fountain.

“Where’s Commander Hua?” Ye Mei became a little anxious when she saw the military glove.

Night Rakshasa found a military glove, but there was no trace of Commander Hua.

“Is that Commander Hua’s blood?” whispered Jiang Yu.

Night Rakshasa nodded.

“Why would Commander Hua throw the bloody military glove here? Is it to confuse the Ocean Demons?” Pang Lai said.

“In my opinion, we might have fallen into a trap.” Said Mo Fan.

Right then, signals appeared on several mountains in different directions. The Forbidden Mages, who were on the lookout, had sent these signals.

1

Pang Lai’s face darkened. Could it be that this was a trap set by the siren?

They knew that humans would send experts to rescue Commander Hua, so they deliberately dropped a bloody military glove left by Commander Hua when he fought against the Black Claw Emperor to lead the human reinforcements into this trap.

“These bloody Ocean Demons! Let’s go!” Pang Lai shouted.

Ye Mei glared at Night Rakshasa. Night Rakshasa was innocent. How could it have known this was a trap? It had only followed the scent.

"Night Rakshasa?" Jiang Yu hugged Night Rakshasa. He touched its small head and comforted it. "It's okay. I believe you will find Commander Hua."

"Meow." It seemed to be telling Jiang Yu something else.

Jiang Yu listened carefully. Then, he began to search around. It wasn't clear what he was looking for.

The Great Mages who were assigned to keep a lookout for the enemy in the mountains returned with solemn faces.

"Chief, we're surrounded. There's an army of Hunter Dirty Demons in the west."

"The Stingray Legion is coming from the south."

"There are a few big monsters in the north, and they are coming."

The three Great Mages reported.

Pang Lai's face became serious. He observed the terrains around the Silver-Blue Valley City.

"Chief, what are you waiting for? Hurry up and choose a place to attack right away!" Ye Mei said.

"Don't panic. Instead of rushing and attacking randomly, it's better to set up Heavenly Bottle Magic Formation here. Then, we can look for an opportunity to escape. Did you three do what I specifically told you before?" Pang Lai asked the three Royal Great Mages.

The three Royal Great Mages nodded.

"Great!" Pang Lai's face softened a little. "Ye Mei, you go get some water from the river. Make sure that the water source is not interrupted."

"Guards of Four Directions, you guys immediately go to the entrance of Valley City, which is the intersection point. Make sure you defend it."

"The rest of the people attack the city!"

Pang Lai appeared formidable when giving commands. He instantly transformed from an old and gentle man to a battle-worn veteran. His steady commands and razor-sharp focus inspired others.

Mo Fan had never seen Pang Lai like this. Most of the time, Pang Lai was an old, gentle professor in a big hat. He was full of knowledge but had no power, until now. Mo Fan had admired the chief Royal Great Mage.

Pang Lai stood in the middle of the square street and cast some spells. He was a well-known Formation Mage in the country, and Mo Fan had always been weak in the profound meaning of formation. He knew nothing about formation.

"What is the Heavenly Bottle Magic Formation?" Mo Fan asked Jiang Yu next to him.

Jiang Yu was absent-minded. He was still looking around.

“What are you looking for?” Mo Fan asked again.

“Night Rakshasa said that the bloody glove was not the only thing it smelled. There should be something else,” Jiang Yu replied.

Chapter 2767: Aquarius Magic Formation

Strange sounds came from the mountains. At first, they were not so loud but the sound built on itself and rose to a crescendo.

Hunter Dirty Demons were coming from the direction of the mountain.

Hunter Dirty Demons were a special species among Ocean Demons. The smaller they were, the more vicious they appeared to be.

In the vast army of Hunter Dirty Demons, they could see some thin and fierce shadows moving at an impossible speed. They were only equivalent to large voles, but the aura they emitted was terrifying.

They surrounded the Silver-Blue Valley City, and many of them had already circled behind to attack directly from the heights of the valley and the steep terrain.

For Ocean Demons like Hunter Dirty Demons, even the lowest-level Hunter Dirty Demons had the strength of warlord-level creatures. Such terrain could not hinder their attacks as they could climb vertical rock walls with sharp claws like insects!

1

Mo Fan stared at the back and found that a group of Ice Claw Hunter Dirty Demons was getting closer. However, all the Royal Mages, including Pang Lai, did not seem to care much about the enemies coming from behind, and they all stared at Silver-Blue Valley City’s narrow entrance.

“What about the enemies coming from the back?” Mo Fan asked.

“Ignore them. They can’t come over,” Jiang Yu said.

‘Why could they not come over?’ Mo Fan felt the Ice Claw Hunter Dirty Demons had stepped into the city streets.

“Start the formation!” Pang Lai shouted.

A large group of dreamy and beautiful light like stardust suddenly shone from the three mountains where the mages had been moments before. If they looked closely, they could find countless zero crystals of different shapes embedded in the light. Their edges and corners refracted so many colors, and these visible lights shrouded the Silver-Blue Valley City entirely.

The lights were vivid. They were not transparent. They were constantly absorbing energy and gradually condensing into a solid porcelain form.

There were more and more zero crystals. They were arranged in a very tight structure in the light. The lights they released had also changed. From Mo Fan’s direction, it looked like huge translucent-colored porcelain that wrapped the entire second half of the Silver-Blue Valley City.

At the same time, the lights in the other two positions also refracted similar solid porcelain light. The two side lights formed were just hyperboloids that were asymptotically inward. Eventually, a huge ceramic bottle mouth formed at the narrow entrance of the Silver-Blue Valley City!

Song Feiyao anxiously looked down at the situation on the ground from the sky. It was too late for her to fly down to support them. The black stingrays formed a terrifying cloud over the city making it impossible for the Green East Sea God to fly down.

Before Song Feiyao's vision was blocked, she saw a scene that surprised her. The entire Silver-Blue Valley City suddenly dazzled as though seen inside a huge porcelain light bottle.

A bottle that could hold an entire city!

Song Fei Yao had never seen such magic before, but it made her feel a little more at ease. At least the Ocean Demons would not besiege Mo Fan and the others from all sides.

She had to think of other ways to rescue the group of people trapped inside instead of impulsively attacking the monsters.

Silver-Blue Valley City was in the bottle. The bottle was lying on the ground. The mouth overlapped with the entrance of the city and the bottom of the bottle covered the back of the city.

The bottom of the bottle was generally the thickest and most sturdy part. Mo Fan saw the Ice Claw Hunter Dirty Demons slamming into the colorful bottom of the huge bottle. Their claws broke but they couldn't even scratch the surface of the bottle. Mo Fan understood why Pang Lai had told him to ignore the enemies at the back. With such an incomparably powerful Aquarius Magic Formation, they did not need to concern themselves with the enemies attacking from behind.

The curved surface of the bottle was the weakest part of the entire formation, but the Ocean Demons also needed to recuperate to smash the curved surface.

They seem to be in a solid bottle. No matter how large the number of enemies was and where they came from, they must pass through the narrow mouth of the bottle if they wanted to attack them.

What a good formation! Mo Fan could not help but admire Pang Lai even more.

He lamented his lack of knowledge. If he had learned this formation earlier, he would not have to worry about facing a large number of enemies.

The three Great Mages were already guarding the bottle mouth.

Aquarius Magic Formation was a tactical magic formation, not a protective barrier. Its purpose was to prevent a small team of Mages from being besieged from all sides. In this way, they could concentrate on dealing with enemies from only one direction.

The enemy could still come in through the mouth of the bottle, so fighting was inevitable.

The Ocean Demons would not retreat. They tried to break the bottle many times, but they could not even scratch it. They slowly found an opening at the entrance. But the entrance was small so not many Ocean Demons could enter at a time.

Bang!

Suddenly, there was a loud noise from the side. Many tentacles with strange lumps wrapped around the side of the bottle.

The strength of the tentacles was astonishing. Every attack of it would cause the surrounding mountains to tremble. The Silver-Blue Valley City also trembled slightly.

"It's that creature again." Mo Fan recognized the Strange Lump Squid King.

Strange Lump Squid King began to climb on the wall of the bottle. Its long and soft body quickly covered the top of the Hexagon Fountain Square. When it climbed to the top, many of its tentacles spread and tightly stuck to the lower half of the bottle.

Strange Lump Squid King began to use all its strength to crush the bottle!

"It's wasting its energy." Jiang Yu looked very calm and was not frightened by the monster above his head that was several times larger than a building.

Mo Fan had been paying attention to the lights of the bottle, and he found no cracks on the bottle yet.

Strange Lump Squid King used various means, including the venom that could melt steel, to attack the bottle but it could not even scratch the surface.

Strange Lump Squid King was furious. It stared at Mo Fan abgily.

"Puny human, do you think it's safe to hide inside? I'll strangle you when I climb in!"

A strange voice rang in Mo Fan's mind. The voice was female and shrill. It sounded vicious and mad.

Chapter 2768: Arguing with the Ocean Demon

Mo Fan was shocked. 'T-The Squid King can talk?! What the hell?! Can it understand human language?!'

'Not. That's not it.'

It was a kind of psychic communication. Even though Mo Fan did not hear any voices, the Squid King with the strange lump transmitted its messages to his mind through telepathic means.

'Come in and I'll kill you! We have a type of food called squid skewers that are seasoned with salad and BBQ sauce! It tastes even better if it's fresh. Come in and I'll roast you alive!' Mo Fan cursed at the Squid King.

'That's very daring of you, puny human! Come out now! I'll ask my men to get out of the way and personally kill you!' the Squid King said angrily.

'Do you think I'm an idiot? Come inside if you dare! I'll ask my comrades to stand aside and slaughter you by myself. Do you really think you're a ruler among the Ocean Demons just because you have so much power?! I thought you and your horde proclaimed yourselves as the supreme rulers of Earth! You call yourselves the Ocean Godly Horde and that you're better than every other race, right?! Hah! Are the rest of the Godly Hordes as stupid as you? Do you know what it means to fight one-on-one? When humans are in conflict with each other, it's an unwritten rule that they fight each other one-on-one, and the others are not allowed to interfere. It's a fair fight. Otherwise, it is a thing of shame to interfere and cheat. And do the filthy and despicable Ocean Demons fight in this civilized and noble manner? You're just lowly creatures in this world and don't know how to fight in the right way. Do you know what art is?! Are you aware of the code of a mage?!' Mo Fan continued to cuss at the Squid King.

The Squid King flew into a fit of rage and smacked the Aquarius frantically with its tentacles. The Aquarius was extremely hard, and it could even scratch it. It would have certainly ripped Mo Fan with its teeth if it could.

Meanwhile, Jiang Yu stared at Mo Fan in shock. Night Rakshasa was equally stunned. Its jaw dropped, revealing its little cat teeth and tongue. Both Jiang Yu and Night Rakshasa were impressed.

Mo Fan was already impressive since he had argued with the entire national team while he was still in school. But they never expected him to argue with the Squid King.

The Squid King was enraged. It charged at the bottleneck of the Aquarius violently.

The bottleneck of the Aquarius was narrow. It was equivalent to the entrance of a valley with limited areas, and the entrance was crowded with Hunter Dirty Demons and the Stingray Legion. They had blocked the bottleneck of the Aquarius with their numbers, and not a single gap was left. It was not an exaggeration to say that the Ocean Demons had piled up into a mountain at the entrance.

The Squid King removed the Hunter Dirty Demons and Stingray Legion with its tentacles. It flung the Ocean Demons away with its terrifying tentacles in order to pave a path for itself. After that, it burrowed into the Aquarius through the bottleneck in fury.

Since the Aquarius could take in all of Blue River Silver Valley, its bottleneck was not actually too narrow. When the Squid King made its way through the bottleneck, it ignored the three Royal Great Mages and charged at Mo Fan.

"Be careful! It's an Overlord!" Pang Lai screamed.

Usually, mages worked hand in hand to defeat such a formidable foe. The four Guardian Mages were well-prepared to fight it.

The four Guardian Mages under Pang Lai's lead were outstanding. They were top-notch Super Level mages who had completed their cultivation in the four elements. Therefore, they could face even the strongest among the Ruler-level Ocean Demons.

However, the Squid King had no interest in any of the mages. It just charged toward the city center.

"Stop it! Don't let it get behind us!" said one of the four Guardian Mages.

"The Blue-Haired Female Demon and the Deep-Sea Lizard Dragon Demon troops are coming!"

"Be careful of the Ruler-level Hunter Dirty Demon! That one with a red-blue head!"

Pang Lai frowned. It was clear that the four Guardian Mages could not cope with so many Ocean Demons at once. Pang Lai had to personally confront the Squid King.

“Old Pang, leave it to me. It’s coming for me,” said Mo Fan.

“Why are you still joking around at a time like this?! You youngsters should escape while you can!” Ye Mei’s voice came from the bottom of the Aquarius.

Mo Fan turned to her, only to realize the not-so-friendly female mage was standing at the river waterfall. The river flowed from the city center to the sea through the mountain valley. The blue silver river was the axis that connected the city and the Aquarius.

It was clear that the river was a key position in the magic formation. Ye Mei’s strength was second only to Pang Lai. Hence, she could not leave her position.

“Ye Mei, trust him. He’s not one to brag,” Pang Lai said to Ye Mei.

“Pang Lai, it’s a very powerful Ruler-level demon that even the four Guardian Mages might not be able to take on. Yet you allow the young mage to take it on alone, are you mad?! We can’t let him die!” Ye Mei shouted. She was anxious. The situation was dire.

“You hold on to your position and leave the rest to me,” Pang Lai said firmly.

Ye Mei was annoyed.

If Ye Mei insisted on helping, the sturdiness of the Aquarius would drop significantly, and the lives of her teammates would be at stake. Even Commander Hua would be affected adversely. She closed her eyes imagining the horrible things that were bound to happen.

Meanwhile, Mo Fan was facing the square avenue at the central hexagonal fountain square.

The square avenue was spacious and magnificent. There were many tall buildings and malls along the street. The buildings were built in American architectural style.

However, when the Squid King made its way here. The buildings along the street collapsed. They smashed onto the ground. The buildings along the streets looked as if they had been blasted by bombs. It was terrifying to behold.

Jiang Yu looked pale. He did not want to confront such a monster!

‘Arsehole! If not for the fact that there’s no light under the sea, an ugly monster like you would never find a mate to produce an offspring. Go back and produce a bastard with a Sea Monkey! I don’t want to slaughter you and lead your species to extinction. We like having delicious squid dishes!’

Jiang Yu almost fainted seeing Mo Fan provoke the creature.

‘It’s coming in a fit of rage. Can you stop cursing so that it will at least show some mercy to you?!’

‘I’ll kill you! I’ll kill you! I’ll kill you!’ The Squid King was furious. It slammed its tentacles across the buildings like slamming toy blocks.

As Mo Fan kept provoking it, he slowly reached out for the Totem Orb on his waist. The Totem Orb glowed in dim light. A wisp of eerie fog spread out from it and gradually enveloped the fountain square area.

The Squid King burst into anger. It was not afraid of its enemy despite being inside the Aquarius. Humans were too weak to kill a powerful Ruler-level demon!

The fog grew thicker, and the bottom of the Aquarius was barely visible. They barely saw an enormous and lengthy figure appear in the middle of the fog. Jiang Yu stepped forward to be able to see it. He saw part of a snake body on the glass wall of a tall building. When he looked back, he noticed there was a long body of snake slithering behind him between the buildings...

How could this snake be so gigantic?!

"Black Totem Snake, destroy it!" Mo Fan sneered.

Chapter 2769: The Descending of the God of Sword

The poisonous fog enveloped the area. It was only after the Squid King barged into the Black Totem Snake's territory that it realized it had fallen into Mo Fan's trap.

However, the Squid King did not panic because of its invincible strength. It stared at Mo Fan begrudgingly and slammed its powerful tentacles at the square avenue. It wanted to smash Mo Fan into pieces.

Meanwhile, Mo Fan remained motionless in his place.

The Black Totem Snake attacked. It swung its tail at the Squid King's tentacles before its tentacles reached Mo Fan. Then, the Black Totem Snake slammed at the Squid King, creating a loud thwack.

The Squid King crashed onto the buildings. The buildings were reduced to dust. The Black Totem Snake's strength was comparable to the Squid King's. The Black Totem Snake was larger than the Squid King. The Black Totem Snake moved between the buildings and approached the Squid King. It wrapped itself around the Squid King and squeezed.

The Squid King found it hard to move its tentacles. The Squid King was a little dizzy after the Black Totem Snake had slammed it with its tail. It took a while for it to realize that the Black Totem Snake in the middle of the fog was a Supreme Ruler.

The Black Totem Snake decided to use the most primitive method of attack: biting.

The Black Totem Snake bit a large part of the Squid King's monstrous flesh. The Squid King's ink blue blood gushed out and splattered on the buildings. When the blood hit the buildings and the pavement, they started melting.

The Squid King's blood got onto the Black Totem Snake's skin. But its scales were too tough and impervious to any kind of poison. In fact, The Black Totem Snake's poison was more lethal than The Squid King's which was why it had decided to bite the monstrous beast.

The Squid King struggled. Its tentacles had often been of advantage in fights because enemies usually found it very difficult to fight the multiple tentacles.

However, the Black Totem Snake had bound its head, body and tentacles with its snake spell. The Squid King could not break itself free of the Black Totem Snake.

The poisonous snake gas permeated in the air. If the Squid King was trapped within the Black Totem Snake's territory filled with poisonous gas for a very long time, the Squid King would turn stiff and die of necrosis.

"Well done! Big guy, don't let it get a chance to catch its breath. Kill it!" said Mo Fan.

The Squid King grew more furious when it heard Mo Fan's voice. It had fallen into the despicable and shameless human's trap! Single combat, civilized fight, and the code of a mage had been all nonsense!

The Black Totem Snake's kept constricting. The Squid King was squeezed so hard that some of its blood vessels began to explode.

"Be careful of the Squid King's Lump Thorns!" Jiang Yu warned them.

The Squid King was covered in strange lumps. The lumps exploded as the Black Totem Snake's constricted, revealing tiny poisonous thorns. As the lumps exploded, the Squid King became smaller and attacked the Black Totem Snake with its tentacles.

The Squid King was the strongest among the Ruler-level Ocean Demons. It was not an easy feat to kill it. The Squid King shrunk, and its Lump Thorns grew drastically. It soon transformed into a sea urchin covered in thorns.

It was hard to imagine a soft-bodied creature transforming into a sea urchin to defend itself in times of crisis. Perhaps, the Squid King and its kind were often prey to other enormous sea creatures. They had evolved and adapted to shrinking itself, exploding its lumps, and growing thorns.

Usually, the Black Totem Snake's scales were indestructible. However, the Squid King's Lump Thorns were bizarre. The endpoints were so sharp that it could easily pierce any hard object.

The Black Totem Snake was no exception. It stopped squeezing the Squid Sea Urchin monster.

The Black Totem Snake began to relax its long body, and the Squid Sea Urchin Monster took advantage of the opportunity to break itself free from it. The Squid King quickly slipped out through the gap. Its hard Lump Thorns softened and slipped through the gap.

The streets were filled with its remnants. A ball of soft object was wriggling. It looked like a chewed bubble gum rolling on the floor. Its color was strange, and its body was enormous.

The Black Totem Snake glided along the buildings to chase after the deformed Squid King. Whenever the Black Totem Snake launched an attack, the Squid King became fully armed and hardened its soft Lump Thorns. No matter what the Black Totem Snake spat at it, the Squid King was immune to its poison.

The Squid King wanted to escape. It was aware that it was no match for the Black Totem Snake. It had been too careless and fallen into the despicable human's trap.

Mo Fan chased after the Squid King. He attacked it with several powerful magical powers. However, the Squid King was immune to most of his power. For a moment, Mo Fan and the Black Totem Snake did not know how to defeat it.

If they let it escape, the Squid King would return and kill them. By then, the Squid King would bring along its Ocean Demon army as reinforcement, and its army would overwhelm them. It would become too difficult to kill it.

“Mo Fan, you can’t kill the Squid King with a rod. You have to cut it!” Jiang Yu warned him.

“I don’t have a large blade to cut it!” said Mo Fan.

“Use slashing type magical power. You can cast Chaos elemental magic spells, can’t you? Use Chaos Slashing Blade,” suggested Jiang Yu.

“But my level of cultivation for the Chaos element is too low. I don’t think I can slash the Squid King,” Mo Fan said with a little embarrassment.

“Then...”

Before Jiang Yu finished speaking, a bone-chilling light glowed outside the city. The light was much brighter than the usual sharp slashing magical power. It was like a Titan’s heavenly sword. The sword surface was so thin that it could split anything in a single slash!

Before Mo Fan and Jiang Yu recovered their senses, the Squid King’s soft body had been slashed into several pieces. It was cut so neatly that one would have thought the slasher was a highly skilled chef.

Mo Fan was puzzled. He turned around, only to see that more than half of the city behind him had been split in three cuts.

Mo Fan looked at the person who had cast the spell. He saw Pang Lai in a grayish white robe and his beard was fluttering. He radiated a murderous intent. Pang Lai was the one who had slashed the Squid King.

He was a Super Level Light element saint...

Pang Lai had slashed the Squid King like the God of Sword!

Chapter 2770: A Jerk

The Squid King had been split into four. It was still a Ruler-level Ocean Demon and refused to die easily. Mo Fan asked the Black Totem Snake to continue to attack it.

After the Squid King had been cut into pieces, it could not harden its Lump Thorns. The Black Totem Snake opened its ferocious mouth and devoured the part of the Squid King with its eyeballs.

After the Squid King’s strange lumps exploded, its flesh remained juicy and fresh. Its nerve senses were still active. When the Black Totem Snake swallowed it, it still struggled and groaned.

“There are three of its parts left.” Jiang Yu summoned an Ice Elf. One of the Squid King’s split parts attempted to escape through the sewer under the city. But the Ice Elf froze it.

Freezing inflicted great damage to the already mutilated Squid King. It would die of the cold.

“Little Flame Belle, roast its tentacles!” Mo Fan summoned his Little Flame Belle.

Little Flame Belle could not be happier. It was about time to demonstrate her great roasting skill. The burnt smell wafted all over.

As for the Squid King's last part, Mo Fan decided to personally take on it. He soaked its last part in the dark quagmire, allowing the darkness and very low temperature to slowly destroy the Squid King's vitality.

One had to admit that the Squid King was extremely tough. Even though they had used four different methods to kill its split parts, they could still sense its struggle. The tentacles still moved in fury. When the Little Flame Belle roasted it, its tentacles lashed out and destroyed many buildings and streets

The Black Totem Snake was a great helper. It swallowed the Squid King's tentacles raw. The Black Totem Snake's stomach was truly bottomless.

The tentacles still wriggled inside the Black Totem Snake's stomach. It let out a flood of gastric juice to finally digest them. Snakes usually devoured its food alive. The Black Totem Snake could digest anything. The Squid King was no exception.

The Black Totem Snake was used to eating fresh lobsters, prawns and other seafood with Mo Fan. It was extremely picky with its food. After it swallowed the Squid King, the Black Totem Snake found it to be tasteless. It looked disappointed.

Mo Fan could not eat the Squid King, even if it was roasted, because the creature was poisonous. But the Black Totem Snake had no such qualms. No poison could harm it.

"There's still a large piece of the Squid King over here. Do you want to save it for your Black Totem Snake?" asked Jiang Yu.

The Black Totem Snake was a guardian at Hang Zhou. This was Jiang Yu's first time seeing it. No matter how many times he had seen it from the photographs or videos, he was awed to finally see it in front of his eyes. The photographs and videos did not do justice to the majestic beast that stood before him.

"It dislikes frozen seafood," said Mo Fan.

The Black Totem Snake was not interested in frozen squid, as well as the flesh soaked in dark mud.

"I didn't expect you to have such a totem beast with you. You nearly scared the hell out of me! But it was very cool of you to bring along the Black Totem Snake from Hang Zhou!" Jiang Yu gave Mo Fan a thumbs up. It was no wonder Mo Fan had dared to come to Hawaii alone.

"We won't disperse the poisonous fog yet. We will use the fog as a weapon to deceive as many Ruler-level Ocean Demons as possible," said Mo Fan.

The poisonous fog lingered in the air throughout the process of killing the Squid King. Ocean Demons basically had no idea what was going on. Even Ye Mei might not necessarily have seen the Black Totem Snake at the bottom of the Aquarius.

Usually, the Squid King would not be so stupid as to confront the Black Totem Snake. If not for the fact that Mo Fan's strategy had successfully blinded the Squid King to some extent, they might not have been able to kill it.

“Meow!”

The poisonous fog began to disperse. Night Rakshasa meowed.

Night Rakshasa flashed and climbed up a vintage tower. The next moment, a huge splash of blood spilled on the clock tower and trickled down the brass hands on the clock.

Mo Fan and Jiang Yu turned towards it. They saw a mouse-like carcass fall down and smashed on the ground.

“A Hunter Dirty Demon?!” Jiang Yu cried out.

They had to be extra careful with the smaller size Hunter Dirty Demons. A crimson Hunter Dirty Demon with the size of a rat had achieved Ruler level. Even though the Hunter Dirty Demon’s size was tiny compared to the giant ocean beasts, they were vicious and strong.

Night Rakshasa was also small. However, not many could match its combat skills. It had killed an advanced Commander-level Hunter Dirty Beast in the blink of an eye...

“Meow!”

Night Rakshasa stood on top of the clock tower. Its eyeballs moved, scanning the city. Jiang Yu instinctively understood what it meant.

“There were many high grade and Ruler Level Ocean Demons here,” he said to Mo Fan. “However, we’ve yet to discover their exact location. They are coming for us and Aunt Ye Mei.”

“It looks like the Ocean Demons know how to destroy the key to magic formation,” said Mo Fan.

“They must have smelled the Black Totem Snake. So, they are acting cautiously. They didn’t swarm up to us at a time. They are taking advantage of the opportunity to get rid of one of us,” said Jiang Yu.

“You handle them, I am sure. Meanwhile, I’ll take on the Ruler level Ocean Demons,” said Mo Fan.

Jiang Yu refused to give in. “Don’t underestimate me. Do you know what level Night Rakshasa is now?”

“I didn’t stop Night Rakshasa from taking on the Ruler level Ocean Demons. I’m referring to you,” said Mo Fan.

Jiang Yu was speechless. Without Night Rakshasa, Jiang Yu was just a jerk.

Wasn’t most of the Summoning level mages the same? They all had to rely on their certain powerful Contracted Beasts.

Jiang Yu had put in a lot of effort in training Night Rakshasa. Night Rakshasa had achieved Great Ruler level. If Jiang Yu was too weak, he would become a burden to the team. Thus, Pang Lai had come with him to Hawaii.

Night Rakshasa was a Dark Holy Spirit that was as powerful as Little Flame Belle.

Mo Fan possessed eight elements of magical power, but Jiang Yu was different from him. Jiang Yu only had to put in all effort in his Summoning element magical power. He had spent most of his resources on Night Rakshasa.

Night Rakshasa had advanced to Perfect form earlier than Little Flame Belle.
