

War God 1071

Chapter 1071: Just Kill Him!

"Why wouldn't I dare kill you?"

Lin Mu's tone was indifferent, without a hint of emotion, "My purpose in staying in the Heavenly Square Country is to kill you!"

The purpose is to kill you!

The shock caused by these six words was even comparable to Lin Mu defeating Luo Chou!

Slaying a Centurion of the Heavenly Realm Guard, such a thing hasn't happened in the Heavenly Realm for many years!

At least in Li Mo Continent, it has never happened!

Killing a Centurion of the Heavenly Realm Guard is tantamount to breaking with the Heavenly Realm Guard!

No one dares do such a thing in the Heavenly Realm under the rule of the Heavenly Realm Guard!

Historically, everyone who has done this has perished, without exception!

No, there is one exception!

That is the current Lord of the Heavenly Realm, Daoist Master Yellow Springs!

When Daoist Master Yellow Springs rose, he also once killed a Centurion of the Heavenly Realm Guard.

Then, he ascended in defiance, overthrowing the then Lord of the Heavenly Realm, becoming the new ruler!

Besides that, there are no other precedents!

Luo Chou looked at Lin Mu with a seemingly amused expression and mocked, "Do you dare to kill me?"

The words had not been fully spoken.

Boom!

A loud crash, the Sea-suppressing Pearl smashed heavily onto Luo Chou's body!

The Fourth Tribulation Thunder Thought could withstand, even repel the Sea-suppressing Pearl, but Luo Chou's body could not!

His body wasn't even as hard as the Fourth Tribulation Thunder Thought!

In just one strike, his body was almost cracked and shattered!

"Ah!"

Luo Chou let out an incredulous roar, using the Tribulation Thunder Thought to knock the Sea-suppressing Pearl aside.

Lin Mu's gaze was cold as ice, as he walked step by step towards Luo Chou.

"Just another ant, kill it and it's done!"

"If you're not dead, how can I herald my arrival as Lin Wudi to the world!"

"If you're not dead, how can I make amends for the innocent person you killed!"

"If you're not dead, why would I stay in the Heavenly Square Country, what's the point!"

Giant dragons flew back and forth around Lin Mu.

A dragon rose beneath his feet again, becoming his stepping stone.

Another dragon crouched on the ground as if bowing to a god.

Yet another roared, seemingly chanting a name.

With Lin Mu's voice, each giant dragon lunged towards Luo Chou.

"Lin Wudi, you dare!?"

Even now, Luo Chou still couldn't believe Lin Wudi dared to kill him!

Does he think he is another Daoist Master Yellow Springs?

Daring to defy the rule of the Heavenly Realm Guard!

The next moment, he realized Lin Wudi had no intention of compromising.

When he said kill, it meant kill!

Boom, boom, boom!

Giant dragons self-destructed, blooming like fireworks.

The terrifying shock wave swept across the place once again.

Hui Lunzun opened his mouth, but said nothing to dissuade.

If it were before this battle, maybe he could still joke and say a few words.

But now, he dared not speak nonsense before Lin Mu!

Lin Mu had already proven with strength that he has the qualification to stand side by side with Thunder Tribulation Ancestors of the Fourth Tribulation.

As long as the Yulong Sword isn't completely abolished, it is so!

"Lin Wudi! Are you insane!"

Luo Chou's furious roar went in vain.

Under the self-destruction of the dragons, his Fourth Tribulation Thunder Thought couldn't protect him at all.

As each Thought crumbled, his Sea of Consciousness suffered further damage, leaving him speechless.

On the Tiger Talisman, golden light continued to shine.

But it was already too no avail.

The rate at which the dragons' explosions destroyed Luo Chou's Sea of Consciousness far exceeded the Tiger Talisman's repair speed.

Crack!

Crack!

The sound of breaking rang out continuously.

These sounds, like the footsteps of death, echoed in the ears of Luo Chou and all the Tribulation-Crossing Ancestors.

Only at this moment did the surrounding Tribulation-Crossing Ancestors realize a problem.

A Tribulation-Crossing Ancestor of the Fourth Tribulation was about to fall!

This should be the first instance in ten thousand years in Li Mo Continent, of a Fourth Tribulation Ancestor falling within the Heavenly Realm!

Moreover, it was the first Centurion to fall in the Heavenly Realm Guard!

The surroundings were silent, everyone watched this scene in silence.

Crack!

The last line of defense shattered.

Boom, boom, boom!

The dragons exploded around Luo Chou.

"Lin Wudi, don't kill me, I can lead you into the Heavenly Realm Guard, I guarantee your rank will be higher than mine!"

"Don't destroy your future!"

"Don't kill me, I..."

Like a last moment of clarity, Luo Chou regained a bit of consciousness and pleaded for mercy.

Poof!

His head exploded directly.

Boom, boom, boom!

Then his body, limbs, Sea of Consciousness!

Turned to ashes!

At the moment Luo Chou's Divine Soul was destroyed by the explosion, Lin Mu frowned slightly.

"He's not really dead!"

This Luo Chou was cautious enough to have kept dozens of Fourth Tribulation Thunder Thoughts, which hadn't come with his true self.

Probably hiding in the Heavenly Guard Commandant Office, or some other secret location.

Lin Mu now only has the power of the First Tribulation.

To kill Luo Chou relied on the power of the Yulong Sword.

The Trace Origin method, with his strength, cannot shatter those dozens of Fourth Tribulation Thunder Thoughts!

"It's fine if he's not dead, I actually want to see how the Heavenly Realm Guard will deal with a Centurion who released the Demon Race, see if there's any hope for the Heavenly Realm!"

Light in Lin Mu's eyes slowly receded, and he did not pursue to trace the origin and completely kill Luo Chou.

Even after Luo Chou was killed, the scene remained silent.

The Tribulation-Crossing Ancestors had already done their best to overestimate Lin Mu.

Even those like Ming Zhenyu and Fan Hui, who harbored ulterior motives and coveted the Sea-suppressing Pearl, only dared to hope that Lin Mu and Luo Chou would both suffer severe damages.

No one thought Lin Mu would win.

Even Hui Lunzun merely thought, after Lin Mu was defeated, in his near-death state, to intervene and save Lin Mu, extracting his secrets!

Now, the outcome was this First Tribulation, not favored by anyone, killed Luo Chou, the Fourth Tribulation Centurion of the Heavenly Realm Guard.

Moreover, he killed all of Luo Chou's subordinates as well.

Everyone instinctively looked towards Lin Mu.

Two magical treasures flew around in front of Lin Mu.

One was the Sea-suppressing Pearl emitting blue light, the other was the Yulong Sword brimming with Sword Qi!

These two magical treasures now became Lin Mu's symbol.

One can suppress the Third Tribulation, the other can kill the Fourth Tribulation!

These two magical treasures are definitely the strongest treasures below the dominion!

Lady Xin Thirteen opened her little mouth, unable to say a word.

When the Heavenly Guard Commander and others moved, she had already prepared to risk her life, ready to stake everything to stop a Third Tribulation.

However, Lin Mu merely waved his hand, sent a hundred Sword Spirit Giant Dragons, and easily wiped out these thirty people!

The gap in realm seemed to be completely erased by the magical treasures.

Lady Xin Thirteen could already imagine, after today, the Heavenly Realm would surely set off a craze in nurturing artifacts!

Such powerful nurturing of artifacts, even sacrificing several Tribulation-Crossing Ancestors would be worth it!

Langya and Li Lingqing's expressions were equally complex and difficult to discern.

Especially Li Lingqing, she had seen the Yulong Sword grow step by step into the unparalleled power it has today.

Back in the Ancient Land Sect and Qianyuan Empire, the power of the Yulong Sword was already epoch-making.

Now, the Yulong Sword has become a powerful strange treasure strong enough to kill even Fourth Tribulation Ancestors!

She suddenly felt an inescapable sense of shame.

Her progress speed seemed to be inferior even to that of a magical treasure.

"Congratulations, Daoist Lin!"

Hui Lunzun flew over, saluting Lin Mu.

In his behavior and speech, there was a taste of respect, no longer high and above, only thinking of Lin Mu as a talented junior.

Lin Mu's battle was epoch-making, enough to be recorded in history.

After today, no one in the Heavenly Realm will be unaware of the name Lin Wudi!

A First Tribulation, slaying a Fourth Tribulation in defiance.

This record of myth is without predecessors, possibly without successors as well.

Chapter 1072: Soul Communion Pill, Memories Resurface!

Northern Jambu Continent, Heavenly Guard Marshal's Mansion.

The Great Marshal is reviewing documents, when suddenly his expression shifts and he makes a calculation with his fingers.

"Luo Chou from Li Mo Continent almost perished? What happened?"

Initially confused, the Great Marshal suddenly recalls that some time ago, Na Tuo from Terrifying Continent had reported a piece of information.

The entity suspected to be an Eighth Tribulation Overlord had moved from Terrifying Continent to Li Mo Continent.

Could it be that Luo Chou's near demise is related to this person?

This person first killed a Third Tribulation at Bei Kuo Sea and then nearly killed a Fourth Tribulation at Li Mo Continent.

They are probably not an Eighth Tribulation, but their strength is undeniably formidable.

Second Thunder Tribulation defeating a Fourth Thunder Tribulation is almost impossible.

Could this person have advanced from Second Thunder Tribulation to Third Thunder Tribulation within the short span of half a year?

If true, this person is somewhat troublesome.

It seems that relying on the Warden's Mansion to resolve this matter is no longer feasible.

The Great Marshal picked up his pen and swiftly wrote a line, stamping it with the Great Marshal's seal.

The white paper transformed into golden light and vanished!

...

Northern Jambu Continent, Heavenly Guard Camp.

This place was transformed from a Blessed Land where elite members of the Heavenly Guards and Enforcement Team train.

Central Continent, under Northern Jambu Continent, sends its most elite disciples here to train.

The Centurions of Central Continent can also leave some seed Tribulation Thunder Thoughts here.

On one hand, to prevent complete extinction by others, and on the other hand, to utilize the abundant resources of the Blessed Land for cultivation.

At this moment.

Inside a concealed chamber within a massive mountain, Luo Chou's Tribulation Thought Incarnation suddenly opened his eyes, his body beginning to tremble violently.

"My true self has perished? How could that be?"

Luo Chou couldn't believe it.

His true self hadn't gone to the Heavenly Battlefield and was still in Li Mo Continent; how could it have perished!

Could some dare kill a Centurion in the Heavenly Realm?

Luo Chou was thoroughly baffled.

Just as he suddenly rose and prepared to send a Tribulation Thought back to Li Mo Continent to investigate the cause of his true self's death, a voice sounded outside the door.

"Centurion Luo Chou of Li Mo Continent, proceed immediately to the Enforcement Team!"

Upon hearing the words 'Enforcement Team', Luo Chou's body trembled again, even more tense than when his true self had perished!

The Enforcement Team, in the Heavenly Guards, is almost synonymous with demons.

Ordinary Heavenly Guards generally apprehend those Tribulation-Crossing Ancestors who violate heavenly laws, punishing them by stationing them in the Heavenly Battlefield!

But once the Enforcement Team takes action, there are no survivors!

Simultaneously, the Enforcement Team also serves as an internal inspection and enforcement department within the Heavenly Guards.

If any Heavenly Guards violate rules, they will be summoned by the Enforcement Team.

Anyone summoned to the Enforcement Team among the Heavenly Guards basically doesn't survive.

Even at the level of Centurions, entry means shedding a layer of skin!

The true self has just perished, and now the Enforcement Team arrives; for Luo Chou, this is undoubtedly a disaster.

Unfortunately, there is no soul synchronization between the incarnation and the true self, so he doesn't even know what heaven-defying deeds his true self did that warranted the Enforcement Team's involvement!

With unease, Luo Chou headed to the Enforcement Team.

On the way, all the Heavenly Guards looked at him with some pity.

The entire camp now knew the true self of Luo Chou had perished.

Now there was only this incarnation with a few dozen Tribulation Thoughts.

If nothing unexpected happens, this would likely be the end of Luo Chou.

For the rest of his life, it would be near-impossible to replenish his lost Tribulation Thoughts, let alone transcend tribulation again.

This exiled immortal among the Heavenly Guards seemed to have his future utterly destroyed.

The Enforcement Team was in the most central location of the Blessed Land.

Upon seeing the guide lead him to this place, his eyebrows raised.

This was the headquarters of the Northern Jambu Continent Law Enforcement Team.

The Enforcement Venerable stationed here was no less than a Six-Tribulation Overlord!

He could not comprehend what his true self did to alarm a Six-Tribulation Overlord!

"Li Mo Continent Centurion Luo Chou, brought here!"

With an announcement, Luo Chou slowly stopped and bowed respectfully.

"Luo Chou, do you know your crimes!"

Luo Chou dared not look up, but the Enforcement Venerable's first words caused his mind to buzz.

He aware of the rules of the Heavenly Guards.

If ordinary Tribulation-Crossing Ancestors committed grave mistakes like harboring the Demon Race, they might still have a chance to be stationed at the Heavenly Battlefield.

But if a Heavenly Guard commits such offenses, death is certain!

Let alone a Centurion like him, even an Overlord above Five Tribulations would face execution!

"Venerable, perhaps there is some misunderstanding here..."

Luo Chou did not believe his true self would do such foolish things.

Without a trace of emotion, the Enforcement Venerable coldly stated, "Whether there is a misunderstanding is not for you to decide as an incarnation."

Hearing the Enforcement Venerable's tone, Luo Chou realized matters were heading in the most undesirable direction.

Just when he thought he was doomed, the Enforcement Venerable's words pivoted, saying, "Originally, your crimes warrant elimination of nine generations, but the Great Marshal personally intervened, offering you a chance at redemption!"

"Thanks to the Great Marshal, thanks to the Venerable!"

Luo Chou was overjoyed.

The Enforcement Team never errs.

Although he didn't know why, his true self must have harbored the Demon Race.

Now, to fortunately obtain a chance for redemption, Luo Chou was ecstatic.

"This is the Soul Communion Pill; consume it and reveal everything you know, and your family can receive absolution!"

The Enforcement Venerable stated coldly.

Upon hearing this, Luo Chou felt like he was struck by lightning, unable to control his emotions, looking up at the Six-Tribulation Enforcement Venerable.

Regrettably, all he saw was a golden light, unable to see the figure's face.

But Luo Chou could imagine that face would be expressionless.

The Soul Communion Pill synchronizes the memory of a Tribulation Thought Incarnation with the true self's memory.

The cost is that after one hour, the incarnation cannot withstand the true self's memory and will crumble, the soul will scatter!

Consuming the Soul Communion Pill means death!

But Luo Chou had no choice.

Not consuming it means death for nine generations together!

Consuming might mean only him dying!

"Thank you, Venerable, for the elixir!"

With a face full of bitterness, Luo Chou bowed respectfully.

He chose to consume it because he also wanted to know why his true self harbored the Demon Race and how he perished!

Beside him, a guard with One Thunder Tribulation immediately brought a jade box to Luo Chou.

Inside the wooden box lay an elixir exuding a rich medicinal scent.

Wisps of mist surrounded it, filled with a mysterious and enigmatic feel.

Even Divine Rune could be seen slowly flowing within the elixir.

If not knowing it was a Soul Communion Pill, no one would think this elixir resembling an Immortal Pill could be deadly!

"Luo Chou, rest assured, after you die, I will promote one of your descendants into the Enforcement Team, allowing them to reach Fourth Tribulation within fifty thousand years!"

The Enforcement Venerable slowly spoke.

Luo Chou felt bitter.

This was clearly a tactic to win over hearts, and more importantly, was done for the viewing Heavenly Guards still alive.

It demonstrated the might of the Heavenly Guards, that even if you make mistakes, as long as you're willing to sacrifice for them, there will always be rewards.

"Thank you, Venerable, for your grace!"

Sincerely, Luo Chou performed a bow, then swallowed the pill in his hand.

Boom!

A bolt of lightning exploded from the incarnation's brow.

Luo Chou's eyes were filled with disbelief.

"The true self actually perished at the hands of a One Thunder Tribulation?!"

Chapter 1073: Immortal Reincarnation!

Northern Jambu Continent, Heavenly Realm Guard Grand Commander's Mansion.

"Reporting to the Grand Commander, the Law Enforcement Team's Enforcement Venerable, Mo Liu Overlord requests an audience!"

The voice coming from outside startled the Grand Commander.

Although the Law Enforcement Team and the Grand Commander's Mansion both belong to the Heavenly Guard, they are independent and do not interact.

Before today, Mo Liu Overlord, as the Enforcement Venerable, had never visited the Grand Commander's Mansion.

The matter in Li Mo Continent actually made Mo Liu Overlord break protocol?

The Grand Commander was somewhat surprised and ordered Mo Liu Overlord to be invited in.

"Grand Commander!"

"Venerable!"

After greetings, Mo Liu Overlord took out a Jade Slip and said, "This is the Memory Jade Slip left by Luo Chou, I think you need to see it."

This time, the Grand Commander was really taken aback, he didn't expect it to indeed involve the affairs of Li Mo Continent.

With a thought, the Jade Slip fell into his hand.

He immersed a thought into the Jade Slip.

A moment later, his expression changed slightly, and he said in surprise, "The Heavenly Realm actually has such a miraculous method of nurturing magical artifacts?"

The fall of Luo Chou's true self did not concern the Grand Commander.

Even though Luo Chou was an exiled immortal, he was just a Four Tribulation Thunder.

In the eyes of the Six-Tribulation Grand Commander, it is nothing impressive.

What he truly cared about was the Artifact Nurturing Method used by the young Lin Wudi when he killed Luo Chou.

The Sea-suppressing Pearl and the Yulong Sword, these two magical treasures aroused great interest in the Grand Commander.

The method of nurturing magical artifacts has always been viewed as a useless technique in the Heavenly Realm.

Nurturing a magical artifact requires consuming all the life essence of three or four, even four or five, same realm Thunder Tribulation Ancestors.

And the effect is only marginally comparable to those ancestors of the same realm.

The investment and return are extremely disproportionate!

However, the nurturing technique displayed by Lin Wudi this time was different from any nurturing method he had seen before!

The Sea-suppressing Pearl was one thing.

The Yulong Sword, however, could accommodate thousands of Tribulation Thought Incarnations!

How long would it take to accumulate so many Tribulation Thought Incarnations?!

That First Thunder Tribulation Lin Wudi must have discovered these two magical treasures from the ancient ruins, right?

And combined with the intelligence from Na Tuo earlier, the tracking methods Lin Wudi demonstrated, these are indeed three formidable magical treasures.

"Does Lin Wudi possess an ancient ruin?"

The Grand Commander vaguely felt as if he had guessed the reason Mo Liu Overlord came.

If it were an ancient ruin, it would indeed be worthy of the attention of a Six-Tribulation Overlord.

Mo Liu Overlord shook his head disappointedly and said faintly, "Aside from those magical artifacts, didn't you notice anything else?"

Seeing the disappointed expression of Mo Liu Overlord, the Grand Commander felt a bit discontented.

No matter being of the Law Enforcement Team, how dare he have such an expression...

Once again immersed in the Jade Slip, the Grand Commander's attitude became more meticulous.

This time, he finally found the anomaly.

"The Tribulation Thought Incarnations that make up the Sword Spirit Giant Dragon inside the Flying Sword Magical Treasure, though just a One Tribulation, have power comparable to a Second Thunder Tribulation?"

"No! It's not just that..."

"The Spherical Magical Treasure and the Tribulation Thought Incarnations in the Flying Sword Magical Treasure are of the same origin?!"

"How is this possible!"

After discerning the clues, the Grand Commander found it somewhat unbelievable.

Even the weakest One Thunder Tribulation would take several months to recover a Tribulation Thought Incarnation.

If powerful like the Sword Spirit Fei Long, restoring an incarnation might take years!

With thousands of Tribulation Thought Incarnations, wouldn't it take tens of millions of years?

Even an Eighth Tribulation Overlord doesn't have such long life essence!

"There's something peculiar about the Tribulation Thought Incarnations in this Flying Sword and Orb!"

The Grand Commander concluded.

As a result, he looked up to see Mo Liu Overlord's eyes still filled with disappointment as he looked on.

The Grand Commander felt a bit regretful inside.

Had he really been ensnared in paperwork for too long and become muddle-headed?

If it was just like that, Mo Liu Overlord wouldn't have dared come to see him; he could simply have the Law Enforcement Team apprehend Lin Wudi and interrogate him for the whereabouts of the ruins.

Now, however, Mo Liu Overlord came personally, clearly indicating the matter was not that simple.

The Grand Commander frowned and continued to probe the Jade Slip.

Suddenly, the Grand Commander's face changed dramatically, and he exclaimed, "Are those his own Tribulation Thought Incarnations?!"

At first, the Grand Commander hadn't even considered this possibility.

A mere One Tribulation was not something the Grand Commander would concern himself with.

So what if he killed the Four Tribulation Luo Chou, it was merely with the aid of magical treasures.

After reaching the level of Five Tribulations and above, magical treasures like these have almost no significance!

Now, upon reexamining the images and aura within the Memory Jade Slip, he was surprised to discover that the aura of the previously ignored One Tribulation junior matched exactly with the Yulong Sword and Sea-suppressing Pearl!

"How could a One Tribulation junior possess so many Tribulation Thought Incarnations? It's impossible!"

The Grand Commander couldn't fathom it.

If the Tribulation Thought Incarnations forming the Sword Spirit Giant Dragon were all owned by Lin Wudi, then how many years did Lin Wudi spend nurturing them?

Tens of millions of years, fifty million years?

How could a mere One Tribulation have such a long lifespan!

Could it be, he is the reincarnation of a Ninth Tribulation demigod?

That's unlikely too; even a Ninth Tribulation doesn't have fifty million years of lifespan!

For a moment, the Grand Commander found himself at a loss.

Mo Liu Overlord said indifferently, "Whether his lifespan is incredibly long, or he is a reincarnated immortal, we must take this matter seriously!"

No matter the reason, a One Tribulation junior possessing thousands of Tribulation Thought Incarnations, is far from normal!

The Grand Commander was startled and said, "You suspect he is the reincarnation of an immortal?"

If it was merely a suspicion regarding Lin Wudi's lifespan, Mo Liu Overlord wouldn't have told him.

Only if it were a reincarnated immortal and Mo Liu Overlord felt unable to handle the situation, would he notify him!

Sure enough, Mo Liu Overlord nodded gravely.

The Grand Commander's eyes flickered, his thoughts churning.

If there's a possibility of an immortal reincarnation, then they must not act rashly.

According to information from the Heavenly Battlefield, many Great Thousand Worlds within the Ten Thousand Realms have witnessed the rebirth of immortal reincarnations.

Such reincarnated individuals mostly possess life-saving trump cards from their previous lives.

If someone attempts to harm the reincarnated immortal, these trump cards will activate.

The power unleashed by an immortal's trump card is something neither of them, as Six-Tribulation beings, can withstand.

Let alone them, even an Eighth Tribulation might not withstand it.

Noticing a faint trace of blood on Mo Liu Overlord, the Grand Commander understood that anyone who had encountered Luo Chou's Tribulation Thought Incarnation today had likely been silenced by Mo Liu Overlord.

The suspected reincarnation of an immortal must not be leaked.

Otherwise, the Northern Jambu Continent might find themselves entangled in a feud with a reincarnated immortal, which would leave them with no way out!

Moreover, it's probable that the Lord of the Heavenly Realm also wouldn't want a reincarnate immortal to emerge within his Great Thousand World.

If a reincarnated immortal grows, who will be the authority then?

The awakened reincarnated immortal, or the Lord of the Heavenly Realm?

The famous rumor from the Heavenly Battlefield recounted a Great Thousand World Lord killing a reincarnated immortal, triggering the immortal's trump card.

The result of this is unknown, but that Great Thousand World has been sealed for a million years!

"Send Ku Lou and Jing Zixuan to Li Mo Continent! Meet this Lin Wudi!"

The Grand Commander said.

Ku Lou, a Five-Tribulation Overlord of the Law Enforcement Team, rebellious by nature, has always been at odds with Mo Liu Overlord.

Jing Zixuan, the Left General of the Heavenly Guard, a Five-Tribulation Overlord, is a spy planted by another faction in the Grand Commander's Mansion.

Chapter 1074: Every Invincible Disciple Is Invincible!

The Heavenly Guard Enforcement Team is dispatched, never leaving survivors.

Every mission they execute is a bloody storm.

Of course, even the Ancestors transcending tribulation who violate normal celestial laws don't trouble the Enforcement Team.

The Enforcement Team's moves are always to punish the great evils, those who collude with the Demon Race, or the extremely wicked.

This time with Lin Wudi, suspected of being an Immortal reincarnate, if the Mo Liu Overlord directly calls the Enforcement Team, it would be a fight to the death.

If Lin Wudi is indeed an Immortal reincarnate, he would not be killed so easily.

Then, the Enforcement Team of the Northern Jambu Continent will have severely offended this Immortal reincarnate.

Therefore, the Mo Liu Overlord found the Great Marshal, having the Heavenly Realm Guard lead the mission, with the Enforcement Team assisting.

The missions of the Heavenly Realm Guard usually involve capture, so if Lin Wudi is indeed an Immortal reincarnate, he won't be fully offended.

As long as there's a chance for negotiation.

As for the two leaders sent, whether they are killed clearly doesn't factor into the Great Marshal's or the Mo Liu Overlord's calculations.

Moreover, Ku Lou and Jing Zixuan both have slightly unsavory endings.

Even if they die, it's only advantageous for them.

In mere words, they formulated a "proper" plan.

If Lin Wudi is captured by Ku Lou and Jing Zixuan, it proves he is not the reincarnated Immortal.

Then, how they handle things is merely a matter of their word.

...

East Victorious Divine Continent, Ming family.

Due to Ming Zhen being killed, the Ming family has dispatched a Third Thunder Tribulation Practitioner to Barbarian Continent.

When this Third Tribulation Ancestor arrives at Barbarian Continent, they get news that Lin Mu has already left Terrifying Continent, crossing Bei Kuo Sea, heading to Li Mo Continent.

The Ming family Third Tribulation Practitioner immediately sets out for Li Mo Continent.

As for Earth Blessed Land, he doesn't get involved.

Because when he arrived at Barbarian Continent, he received a message.

While on the way to Li Mo Continent, Lin Wudi killed the Heaven's Guard Commander, a Third Thunder Tribulation Practitioner!

Investigating Lin Wudi's rise in the Heavenly Realm, this Ming family Third Tribulation Ancestor realizes that such a genius, if can be avoided offending, shouldn't be offended.

If the Ming family now invades or destroys Earth Blessed Land, and Lin Wudi dies outside, it's still fine. But if he doesn't die, the Ming family will face endless calamities.

This Lin Wudi dares to kill even the Heaven's Guard Commander, a ruthless character.

Even the Terrified Continent Heavenly Guard, not having apprehended Lin Wudi, doesn't touch Earth Blessed Land.

Just as Miao Chen predicted, as long as Lin Mu leaves Earth Blessed Land, before his fall, Earth is safe.

No one would rashly offend a potential unlimited genius who dares kill Heavenly Realm Guards when crazy!

While Lin Wudi lives, Earth Blessed Land remains unharmed.

This time, the message Ming family received is from Li Mo Continent.

"Ming Zhenyu sacrificed all communication jade pendants just to deliver a message?"

A Ming family Ancestor opens his eyes, full of doubt.

In the Heavenly Realm, cross-continent communication methods barely exist.

The only usable method is a single transmission alarming jade pendant.

According to Ming family rules, if all pendants are shattered at once in a short time, it indicates Li Mo Continent has discovered an immeasurable treasure.

"Li Mo Continent? Didn't Ming Xu report that Lin Wudi from Barbarian Continent also went to Li Mo Continent?"

The Ancestor seems to recall something, murmuring.

The disciple in front quickly bows, answering affirmatively.

"It appears that Ming Zhenyu's message should also relate to this Lin Wudi."

The Ancestor closes his eyes, silent for a long time before speaking: "Notify Ming Xu Si to go to Li Mo Continent!"

Ming Xu Si, a Ming family Fourth Tribulation Powerhouse, and also a Hidden Guard member, possesses formidable strength.

The disciple's pupils contract suddenly, within less than a year, those tracing Lin Wudi's trail had progressed from Second to Fourth Tribulation.

Who exactly is this Lin Wudi?

...

Heavenly Square Country, Capital.

Three days have passed since Lin Wudi's reversal battle against Fourth Tribulation, but Lin Mu has yet to leave and chose to seclude here.

On the day of departure, some Thunder Tribulation Ancestors returned to the Heavenly Square Kingdom Capital.

No one dared to approach the palace location.

Lin Wudi's remnants after killing Fourth Tribulation still intimidate many.

"King, are you truly decided?"

In a tavern within the capital, four guests sit face to face, yet no one drinks.

Everyone's gazes are somewhat uneasy.

The leading figure is the King of the Golden State, Fan Hui.

He laughs slyly, proudly saying, "Relax, I've comprehended these past few days, that Lin Wudi must be experiencing some issue; otherwise, he wouldn't choose to seclude now."

The three clan elders of the Fan family hesitated to speak.

What if Lin Wudi faced issues?

No matter the condition Lin Wudi is in now, as long as he holds the Sea-suppressing Pearl and Yulong Sword, he remains undefeated below Fourth Tribulation!

Seeing their faces, Fan Hui disdainfully said, "Look at your lack of courage; we are delivering a gift, not provoking! If you dare not go, I'll go myself!"

Saying this, he disappears in front of the three.

The three clan elders beat their chests, helpless against their unruly Family Head and King.

A few days prior, Fan Hui clamored about reclaiming the Sea-suppressing Pearl, their family's heirloom treasure, from Lin Wudi.

Now, it has transformed into delivering gifts to Lin Wudi.

The three clan elders are now terrified at Fan Hui inadvertently offending Lin Wudi, leading to the Fan family's annihilation, and the Golden State's ruin.

Considering Lin Wudi's power and disposition, crushing a family or toppling a state is merely a matter of lifting a finger.

They can only follow, watching their King stir trouble.

The four appear at the Heavenly Square Royal Palace gate, only to discover someone already waiting.

One of them is the King of Juchi Country from Yaozhou, Ming Zhenyu, a Second Tribulation Practitioner.

The other is even more distinguished, Hui Lunzun, a Fourth Thunder Tribulation Practitioner!

Seeing Hui Lunzun, the Fourth Tribulation Practitioner merely waiting outside the palace, Fan Hui feels somewhat shocked.

A graceful woman walks out from the palace, speaking firmly, "Three of you are invited, the rest wait outside."

Her words carry an undeniable tone.

No one present dares to voice opposition.

Integrate Dao!

Fan Hui recognizes this woman of Integrate Dao Stage as one of Lin Wudi's disciples, seemingly named Langya.

Truly fortunate to become Lin Wudi's disciple.

"Did you attain Dao through martial arts?"

Hui Lunzun looks at Langya, suddenly asking.

Langya remains silent.

Hui Lunzun furrows his brows.

He, a dignified Fourth Tribulation Ancestor, faces a junior of Integrate Dao, daringly arrogant.

Suddenly, his expression changes, surprised, "No, you did not attain Dao through martial arts; you still follow the Martial Way!"

With this remark, both Fan Hui and Ming Zhenyu look at Langya, filled with suspicion.

Martial Way followers are rare in the Heavenly Realm.

Because the endpoint of Martial Way is basically the Foundation Establishment Stage.

During Core Formation, ninety-nine percent of Martial Artists choose to attain Dao through martial arts.

Since when Martial Artists reach Foundation Establishment Peak, there's practically no path left.

Yet now, they see a Martial Artist of Integrate Dao Stage!

"Indeed, those who become Lin Wudi's disciples are truly extraordinary!"

Chapter 1075: Are You Satisfied With This Answer?

"Tsk tsk, this Lin Wudi is truly an iron-hearted cultivation fanatic."

Upon seeing the changes within the Heavenly Square Country's Royal Palace, Fan Hui murmured softly.

Since Lin Wudi took over the Royal Palace of the Heavenly Square Kingdom, all the palace maidens have been dismissed.

Now, there are only five people in the palace, including Lin Wudi.

As King Fan Hui, he found this scene somewhat unbelievable.

As the saying goes, one should balance work and rest. If it were him, after a great battle, he would relax with women.

Yet, Lin Wudi has been constantly in seclusion.

Turning a blind eye to the matters of the Royal Palace.

Such people are not absent in the Li Mo Continent, but they are few and far between.

Due to the imperial system, the Li Mo Continent is much more active in gender relations than other continents.

Hui Lunzun saw not these, however.

Even without releasing his Divine Sense, he could perceive that this Royal Palace of the Heavenly Square Country was filled with various formations.

Just looking at these formations was enough to amaze Hui Lunzun, a practitioner of the Fourth Thunder Tribulation.

Nowadays, the Royal Palace of the Heavenly Square Kingdom could withstand not only the Unity Realm Stage or the First Thunder Tribulation but even the Second Thunder Tribulation would require at least a breath's time to break through.

These formations are unseen and unheard of, completely different from the Heavenly Realm's formations.

Moreover, they are evidently the work of Lin Wudi's disciples.

This Lin Wudi is not only powerful and unparalleled in the Artifact Nurturing Method but his formations are also equally mystical.

To Hui Lunzun, it seemed as if this person came from another Great Thousand Worlds, possessing a system entirely different from the Heavenly Realm.

"A celestial reincarnation?"

The rumor he heard on the Heavenly Battlefield surfaced in Hui Lunzun's mind.

His heart suddenly skipped a beat.

Could it be?

If Lin Wudi is a celestial reincarnation, then his plan would likely be futile!

A celestial reincarnation might disdain the so-called ancient relics of the Heavenly Realm.

Among the three, Ming Zhenyu's feelings were the most complex.

The further he walked, the stronger his unease grew.

Lin Wudi's capabilities across every aspect were simply too formidable.

Is he really someone that a Prestigious Family or Renowned Sword can lure?

Renowned Sword itself is only a practitioner of the First Thunder Tribulation; how could it possibly have the power to recruit someone who could easily suppress and kill a Fourth Thunder Tribulation being?

If not recruited by Renowned Sword, then what of this Imperial Sky Flying Boat from the Renowned Swords Holy Land?

Suddenly, Ming Zhenyu regretted his rashness this time.

If Lin Wudi is an enemy of the Prestigious Family, isn't he just walking into the lion's den?

Yet now it's clearly too late to leave, for the group had already arrived at the main hall of the palace.

Upon entering the main hall, they saw Lin Wudi seated high upon the throne.

"Greetings, Lin Wudi!"

The three bowed in unison.

Even Hui Lunzun of the Fourth Thunder Tribulation was no exception.

Although Lin Wudi was only in the First Thunder Tribulation realm, after slaying the Heavenly Realm Guard's exiled immortal-level expert Luo Chou, it was enough to warrant Hui Lunzun's caution.

Even Hui Lunzun himself might not be Luo Chou's opponent, let alone kill him!

"Speak, you have sought an audience outside the Royal Palace for three consecutive days. What do you want?"

Lin Mu said indifferently.

Fan Hui twitched at the corners of his mouth, instinctively looking at Ming Zhenyu and Hui Lunzun.

He had just arrived today, but these two had already waited for three days?

Moreover... sought an audience?

This Lin Wudi sure knew how to speak!

They exchanged glances, and no one opened their mouth.

Lin Mu's gaze turned indifferent, coldly saying, "Langya, see them out!"

Upon hearing these words, the three below became anxious.

Ming Zhenyu promptly spoke, "I have a matter to inquire and hope that Lord Lin will graciously advise me."

With that, without waiting for Lin Mu to ask further, he quickly said, "I wonder how the Lord obtained that Imperial Sky Flying Boat?"

Upon hearing this, Lin Mu showed little reaction, but Hui Lunzun and Fan Hui were both taken aback.

No way?

Both simultaneously recalled a detail they had overlooked.

The Renowned Swords Holy Land, Renowned Sword, could that name actually be the Divine Continent's Prestigious Family, especially Ming Zhenyu's name?

This peerless genius who could kill a Fourth Thunder Tribulation being is one of the Prestigious Family?

Hui Lunzun and Fan Hui both found it incomprehensible.

Prestigious Families in the Heavenly Realm are extremely famous, rumored to have an Eight Thunder Tribulation Overlord.

If Lin Wudi was one of the Prestigious Family, then the family would indeed become as though a tiger growing wings.

Moreover, with the resources of the Prestigious Family, Lin Wudi would inevitably rise rapidly!

Even the Heavenly Realm Guard would not lightly pursue the matter of Luo Chou's death.

Eight Thunder Tribulations are already at the pinnacle of the Heavenly Realm's martial prowess!

Even the Heavenly Realm Guard must show some respect.

A Centurion of the Heavenly Realm Guard with Four Thunder Tribulations is insufficient to start a war with a family having Eight Thunder Tribulation Ancestors!

Lin Mu looked at Ming Zhenyu with a faint smile, "Are you from the Prestigious Family?"

Ming Zhenyu replied with a bow, "I am Ming Zhenyu!"

At this moment, he already felt an ominous foreboding.

If Lin Wudi was recruited by the Prestigious Family, his tone of speaking about the family should never be like this.

Sure enough, Lin Wudi's next words sent shivers down Ming Zhenyu's spine.

"In the Barbarian Continent, I killed the Prestigious Family's Renowned Sword, Ming Wuxing, and also Ming Zhen from the Divine Continent's Prestigious Family itself. The Imperial Sky Flying Boat was snatched by me. Are you satisfied with this answer?"

Lin Wudi's words felt like a dagger stabbing Ming Zhenyu, causing him to almost flee.

"Misunderstanding, there must be some misunderstanding in the middle, I can represent the Prestigious Family..."

"You, a mere Second Thunder Tribulation practitioner, represent the Prestigious Family?"

Ming Zhenyu wanted to explain but was interrupted by Lin Mu as soon as he started.

With a tone of indifference, Lin Mu said, "I won't kill you. Deliver this message to the Prestigious Family: I don't like people from the Prestigious Family. If another appears before me, then between me and the Prestigious Family, it will be a fight to the death!"

To fight to the death with a family having Eight Thunder Tribulations.

If any other First Thunder Tribulation practitioner said this, it would garner laughter.

But no one present laughed.

On the contrary, a pang of regret surged through Ming Zhenyu's heart as he began to reconsider contacting his family.

Let's hope no trouble arises!

Hui Lunzun and Fan Hui shared similar thoughts.

If the Prestigious Family confronts Lin Wudi, it's uncertain who would have the upper hand.

Although Lin Wudi is currently only at the First Thunder Tribulation, the attributes he possesses make all families in the Heavenly Realm wary.

Hui Lunzun, Fan Hui, including Ming Zhenyu, all noticed that Lin Wudi bore the world-flying and heaven-blessed purple aura.

This indicated that Lin Wudi ascended to the Heavenly Realm less than fifty years ago!

In less than fifty years, he overcame a Thunder Tribulation, and even managed to slay a Fourth Thunder Tribulation!

With such talent, what of the Overlord family?

Given a few thousand or tens of thousands of years, Lin Wudi will certainly grow into an Overlord-level powerhouse!

"I take my leave, and I will surely deliver the message!"

Ming Zhenyu turned and departed.

Once outside the palace, his back was drenched in sweat.

He had just narrowly passed through the ghost gates.

If Lin Wudi wanted to kill him, it would just take the flick of a finger.

A single Sea-suppressing Pearl could obliterate him without a trace!

Within the Royal Palace.

Lin Wudi looked at Fan Hui and Hui Lunzun.

Seeing Ming Zhenyu's outcome, Fan Hui felt a bit conflicted.

He was contemplating whether to stall for time and be the last to speak, only to notice Hui Lunzun's icy gaze.

Well, he couldn't afford to offend this Fourth Thunder Tribulation practitioner either.

"The little king possesses a secret treasure and wishes to exchange for the Artifact Nurturing Method with Lord Lin."

Chapter 1076: Tribulation Thought Characters

Exchange Method of Nurturing Instruments?

Upon hearing these words, even Hui Lunzun looked at Fan Hui in astonishment.

Who gave this guy the courage!

Lin Wudi's Artifact Nurturing Method can slay a Fourth Tribulation Thunder!

What could a mere King of a small kingdom possibly have to exchange for such a mystical Artifact Nurturing Method?

Lin Mu heard this and chuckled slightly.

In reality, his Artifact Nurturing Method wasn't anything special.

The only unique aspect was his powerful Divine Sense, which, during the Lightning Tribulation, nurtured countless Thought Seeds!

Thus, he could, in a short time, inject a massive amount of First Tribulation Thunder Thought into the Yulong Sword and Sea-suppressing Pearl.

Even if he were to teach the Artifact Nurturing Method to Fan Hui, it would be futile.

With Fan Hui's aptitude, perhaps only after countless generations and millions of years of accumulation would there be a glimmer of hope.

Seeing Lin Mu not speak, Fan Hui thought he disagreed and hurriedly said, "Our Fan family's secret treasure will surely not disappoint you, Lord Lin!"

Lin Mu replied calmly, "The Artifact Nurturing Method is not to be shared."

In one sentence, all of Fan Hui's hopes were dashed.

His face turned shades of green and purple.

Lin Wudi refused without even listening to what secret treasure it was.

This left Fan Hui extremely disappointed.

But it also indirectly demonstrated the rarity of Lin Wudi's Artifact Nurturing Method.

"Lord Lin, my secret treasure is indestructible. Even a Six-Tribulation Overlord took action on the Heavenly Battlefield, yet it remained unharmed..."

Fan Hui hurriedly sent a transmission to Lin Wudi.

Unfortunately, these words did not move Lin Mu at all.

Just when Fan Hui was in despair, Lin Mu suddenly asked, "When was the last time you interacted with the secret treasure?"

Fan Hui was stunned, then immediately exclaimed with joy, "Thirty thousand years ago, my last..."

After he finished speaking, he couldn't help feeling awkward.

If it were truly a secret treasure, how could he have only interacted with it once every thirty thousand years and not carry it with him daily?

Unexpectedly, after hearing this, Lin Mu said calmly, "Alright, we shall discuss our business later. First, go fetch the secret treasure."

"Alright! I will set off at once!"

Fan Hui was overjoyed.

He had just taken a risky gamble and unexpectedly succeeded.

Without even bothering to take the Imperial Sky Flying Boat, he directly rode the Thunderbolt away.

Even after Fan Hui left, Hui Lunzun still found it somewhat unbelievable.

A Second Thunder Tribulation King's secret treasure could persuade Lin Wudi to exchange his Artifact Nurturing Method?

Even Hui Lunzun was slightly tempted.

Before he could speak, he saw Lin Wudi's slightly amused gaze.

Hui Lunzun's heart sank, realizing that Fan Hui's secret treasure might not be as simple as he imagined.

Suppressing his inner agitation, Hui Lunzun cupped his hands and said, "I too have a request and hope to seek Lord Lin's aid."

Lin Mu, with a detached tone, asked, "What are you willing to offer?"

To ask for help, one must give something in return; this was Lin Wudi's rule.

Hui Lunzun was silent for a long while, realizing he had nothing to offer that could move Lin Wudi.

After another long pause, he finally said awkwardly, "Helping Lord Lin advance to the Second Thunder Tribulation sooner, would that be..."

Even as he spoke, Hui Lunzun lacked confidence.

Given Lin Wudi's talent, advancing to the Second Thunder Tribulation was merely a matter of time.

Using that as leverage was utterly futile.

Lin Mu glanced at Hui Lunzun, his tone unwavering, "I will undergo the Second Thunder Tribulation in a year's time; how much sooner can you make it happen?"

Upon hearing this, Hui Lunzun's heart skipped a beat.

Originally, he estimated that Lin Mu would need at least thirty years to undergo the Second Thunder Tribulation, yet it was only a year away!

Knowing his leverage was insufficient, Hui Lunzun hastily said, "What about a special attack technique involving the Thought of the Thunder Tribulation? Not the Tribulation Thought Blade!"

Upon hearing this, the three women Langya, Li Lingqing, and Mia Qing looked at Hui Lunzun suspiciously.

A special attack technique involving the Thought of the Thunder Tribulation, could it be more miraculous than the unique techniques transmitted by Lin Mu?

Lin Mu's application of the Thought of the Thunder Tribulation far exceeded the Heavenly Realm!

It's just that in the recent battles, the opponents were too powerful, thus Lin Wudi hadn't used that attack technique!

Noting the disbelief in the eyes of Lin Wudi's disciples, Hui Lunzun realized that unless he demonstrated sincerity, he wouldn't be able to convince Lin Wudi.

Next moment, Hui Lunzun's Divine Sense stirred, and a Thought appeared in the void.

Fourth Tribulation Thunder Thought, one thought, one world.

As the thought appeared, Langya and the others immediately felt a terrifying oppressive force.

It was as if a world was pressing down on them.

Lin Mu flicked his finger.

The terrifying oppressive force instantly vanished.

As if it had never appeared.

Surprise flashed in Hui Lunzun's eyes.

No wonder he could defeat a Fourth Tribulation Thunder; he could dispel the oppressive force of a one-thought-one-world with a mere flick of his finger.

"Please have a look, Lord Lin!"

In the next moment, the form of that Fourth Tribulation Thunder Thought transformed into an ancient seal character: "镇" (Zhen - suppress)!

With the emergence of the character "镇," the space within the Royal Palace was suppressed!

Mia Qing and the others, including the Second Thunder Tribulation Lady Xin Thirteen, were pinned in place, unable to move.

Lady Xin Thirteen had a look of shock, wanting to resist, but was completely unable to.

Langya and the others were enraged, suspecting Hui Lunzun intended to attack Lin Mu.

At that moment, Lin Mu suddenly spoke with a slightly surprised tone, "Tribulation Thought Characters, has the Calamity Script Clan not been eradicated?"

Tribulation Thought Characters were a very special existence, combining the Thought of the Thunder Tribulation with Divine Rune characters, possessing immense power.

At their peak, this clan held a prominent status in the Immortal Realm.

Yet by the time of Lin Mu's past life ascendance to Emperor Zun, the Calamity Script Clan had already vanished.

Only a small portion of the Calamity Script Clan's Cultivation Techniques survived.

The most representative being Lin Mu's current Twelve Forms of Slaying Gods, Banishing Immortals, and Slaughtering Demons!

When performing the Decide Fist, the appearance of the two ancient seal characters "Godslaying" are the Tribulation Thought Characters.

However, the Calamity Script Clan's inheritance was particularly unique, requiring character seeds to generate Tribulation Thought Characters.

Even Lin Mu's Twelve Forms of Slaying Gods, Banishing Immortals, and Slaughtering Demons were mere imitations.

This was why Lin Mu mostly used only nine of the Twelve Forms.

Because the other three required Tribulation Thought Characters for assistance.

Helplessly, Lin Wudi supplemented the latter three forms with the Heavenly Dao Myriad Laws Record.

But compared to the original three forms of Tribulation Thought Characters, there was still a slight gap.

Thinking there was no chance to complete the Twelve Forms of Slaying Gods, Banishing Immortals, and Slaughtering Demons, he hadn't expected to hear news of the Calamity Script Clan in the Heavenly Realm.

"You... you actually know the Tribulation Thought Characters and the name of the Calamity Script Clan?"

Hui Lunzun was greatly surprised.

He thought he was the only one in the entire Heavenly Realm who knew this secret.

Unexpectedly, as soon as he displayed it, Lin Wudi recognized it instantly.

Could it be that Lin Wudi truly is an Immortal reincarnated, knowing everything?

Lin Mu did not answer but instead performed the Deicide Fist.

Rumble!

The heavens trembled, and the Deicide Fist emerged!

The two ancient seal characters "Godslaying" left Hui Lunzun dumbfounded.

"This... this is a simulation of the Tribulation Thought Characters' Divine Skills Dao Arts!"

Even he himself was merely in the exploratory stage.

Still imitating others, following step by step in using the Tribulation Thought Characters.

Lin Wudi had already managed to simulate the Tribulation Thought Characters, creating fully developed Divine Skills Dao Arts!

Chapter 1077: Treasures Move the Heart

"Speak, what do you want?"

Lin Mu retracted the Deicide Fist.

Hui Lunzun took quite a while to regain his senses, feeling a slight bitterness in his heart.

Upon receiving this opportunity, he believed himself to be the Child of Destiny, with limitless future achievements.

This was also why he gave up his Empire.

He didn't travel around but practiced in secret places!

This time, he originally sought Lin Wudi's help to obtain more Robbery Thought Script.

Unexpectedly, just when he was about to show a glimpse of his opportunity, Lin Wudi displayed an even more familiar demeanor.

Compared to Lin Wudi, he, so-called Child of Destiny, truly felt humble.

With a sigh in his heart, Hui Lunzun said, "The land of inheritance of the Calamity Script Clan has a limit on entries. Each realm can only enter three times. I have used up my entries, so I hope Lord Lin can enter the land of inheritance for me and obtain the Calamity Scripture!"

Originally, he was thinking of negotiating terms with Lin Mu, or deceiving Lin Mu a bit to downplay the importance of the Tribulation Thought Characters.

Now, he could only speak the truth.

Lin Mu's understanding of the Tribulation Thought Characters and the Calamity Script Clan was even greater than his own.

"How far is it from here?"

Lin Mu asked.

Hui Lunzun thought for a moment and said, "Imperial Sky Flying Boat takes half a year, one Heavenly Tribulation takes a month, four times Tribulation takes five days!"

A world in a single thought brings not only strength but also an increase in speed.

Back then, if Luo Chou hadn't encountered the Yulong Sword, a magical treasure that sealed him from all directions and defied reason, he could indeed have escaped using his speed.

One could only say Luo Chou had bad luck, meeting an existence that completely countered the Four Times Tribulation.

Lin Mu considered the time it would take to reach the Southern Spirit Divine Continent and nodded, saying, "Alright!"

Hui Lunzun was overjoyed!

He quickly explained to Lin Mu the things to note in the land of inheritance of the Calamity Script Clan.

In the land of inheritance, everyone will have all their power restrained and can only use the Tribulation Thought Characters.

Periodically, a Calamity Scripture will appear in the land of inheritance.

By obtaining a Calamity Scripture, one can gain the seed of the Tribulation Thought Characters and comprehend them.

Apart from Hui Lunzun, all others in the land of inheritance are talents from the Myriads of Worlds.

To seize a Calamity Scripture, one must stand out among these geniuses.

Despite Hui Lunzun's strength, entering the land of inheritance twelve times, he only obtained the Calamity Scripture three times!

The talent Lin Mu exhibited gave Hui Lunzun hope, prompting him to take the risk of contacting Lin Mu.

Of course, if Lin Mu wanted to monopolize all the Calamity Scriptures, Hui Lunzun would also be helpless.

But Lin Mu could carry out a promise, bringing Lady Xin Thirteen to the Heavenly Square Kingdom for revenge, which is undoubtedly why Hui Lunzun chose to trust Lin Mu.

A man who honors his promises must hold faith in high regard!

After some conversation, Hui Lunzun left the Royal Palace to prepare for the journey to the land of inheritance.

"You four, no need to wait here for me; head to the Southern Spirit Divine Continent directly. We will meet at the Gu Yuan Ancient Land."

Lin Mu said to the three women of Mia Qing.

After they nodded, he looked at Lady Xin Thirteen.

Lady Xin Thirteen hurriedly said, "I have nowhere to go. Benefactor avenged me; I hope to serve by his side. I can escort the three of Mia Qing..."

Actually, Lady Xin Thirteen was not entirely without family.

When the Xin Family was annihilated, quite a few Xin Family members were training outside and escaped the calamity.

However, in six thousand years, none of them dared to contact Lady Xin Thirteen in Bei Kuo Sea.

Nor did any of them offer her any shelter.

This time, with the Heavenly Square Queen slain, these so-called relatives suddenly emerged.

They even persuaded Lady Xin Thirteen to ascend the throne as queen.

Lady Xin Thirteen found it very annoying.

Now that Lin Mu was leaving, she naturally chose to follow.

Lin Mu nodded and did not persuade her otherwise, saying, "If nothing unexpected happens, I will use your Sea-suppressing Pearl to exchange for Fan Hui's secret treasure, just giving you a heads up."

Lady Xin Thirteen was taken aback.

It's not that she was unwilling to part with the Sea-suppressing Pearl; after all, she had already traded it to Lin Mu.

But what exactly was this secret treasure of Fan Hui that Lin Mu found it worth trading the Sea-suppressing Pearl?

One must know, the Sea-suppressing Pearl can suppress those who have transcended the Third Tribulation.

It can even forcibly suppress the Thunder Tribulation Thought of the Four Times Tribulation, a world in one thought!

"Benefactor, do as you please; the Sea-suppressing Pearl is already yours!"

After gathering her thoughts, Lady Xin Thirteen hastily said.

Lin Mu said, "You should set off now and go meet Fan Hui. I worry something unexpected might happen!"

Lin Mu's words made Lady Xin Thirteen startle again.

Although she didn't understand why Lin Mu had such a thought, she still respectfully complied and flew into the sky.

...

Fuzhou, Golden State.

"Did Lin Wudi really agree to exchange the Artifact Nurturing Method for this so-called secret treasure of yours?"

Several Fan family ancestors still found it somewhat unbelievable.

The Artifact Nurturing Method of Lin Wudi is immensely powerful.

Don't speak of a Second Tribulation; even for Overlords above the Five Tribulations, it would be tempting.

Such a miraculous method agreeing to exchange for Fan Hui's secret treasure is simply incredible.

That so-called secret treasure of Fan Hui, in fact, many of them had seen it.

It was brought back by a distant ancestor of the Fan family from the Heavenly Battlefield.

At that time, two Eighth Tribulation Overlords were fighting.

Everything within the battle range was utterly destroyed.

After the two Overlords left, the Fan family ancestor found this so-called secret treasure from the place of battle.

That it survived a battle between Eighth Tribulation Overlords without destruction is not unworthy of being called a secret treasure.

But the secret treasure has been passed down to the present, and countless methods have been tried by the Fan family over the generations, yet nobody could wield this so-called secret treasure.

Apart from being indestructible, it has no other wonders.

Many almost forgot about it.

If not for Fan Hui mentioning it this time, they would have forgotten this item existed in the family.

Holding a Jade Box, Fan Hui gleefully said, "Of course, with my silver tongue, I finally convinced Lin Wudi."

A clan elder hesitated for a long while and cautiously said, "If Lin Wudi discovers he has been tricked, won't he destroy the Fan family in anger? King, you are playing with fire!"

The surrounding ancestors took a deep breath.

Upon reflection, it seemed to be the case.

Angering Lin Wudi, the Fan family's future would be grim.

Fan Hui was momentarily stunned. At the time of the exchange, he hadn't considered such an outcome.

"Perhaps not? It's not our lack of destiny that failed to discover the wonders of this secret treasure. With Lin Wudi's unparalleled talent and awe-inspiring destiny, he could surely find what we couldn't."

It's unclear whether Fan Hui was saying this for the clan elders to hear or to convince himself.

He indeed was gambling.

If he won, the Fan family would have an unprecedentedly bright future!

Possessing Lin Wudi's Artifact Nurturing Method, with his Second Tribulation cultivation level, he could completely counteract the Four Times Tribulation!

Elevating the Fan family to unparalleled heights, turning the Golden State into the Golden Empire!

If he lost the gamble and angered Lin Wudi, the Fan family might perish!

"King, I think we should arrange for the elite disciples of the family to take refuge in other continents..."

A clan elder suggested.

They were willing to gamble but needed to protect the core strength of the family first.

Just as Fan Hui was about to agree, a sudden explosion echoed in the sky.

"Du Lu! Has your Crimson Beryl Kingdom gone mad, daring to attack our Golden State capital?"

Chapter 1078: A Single Shot Shatters Ten Thousand Formations!

The Crimson Beryl Kingdom lies adjacent to the Golden State.

The two countries have never gotten along, and historically, large and small battles have occurred fifty times.

The most severe one was eighty thousand years ago, when two Second Thunder Tribulation Ancestors died in the war.

Since then, both countries have become much more cautious and have not rushed into war again.

The loss of a Second Tribulation Powerhouse is something these kingdoms simply cannot bear.

Each kingdom has only two Second Thunder Tribulations.

Losing one is equivalent to losing half the nation's power!

Hearing the Clan Elder's angry roar, Fan Hui's expression changed greatly, and he immediately soared into the sky.

The other Clan Elders hurriedly followed!

Outside the capital of the Golden State.

The previously shouting Clan Elder of the Fan family looked pale, with a listless spirit and an unsteady breath.

It was obvious that one of his Tribulation Thoughts had been shattered by someone.

In front of him stood King Du Lu of Crimson Beryl Kingdom, along with eight First Thunder Tribulation practitioners from the Crimson Beryl Kingdom.

But the most attention-grabbing was an elder standing in the void beside Du Lu, who was also a Second Thunder Tribulation!

With Du Lu there, two Second Thunder Tribulations appeared, and a bad premonition suddenly arose in Fan Hui's heart.

"Du Lu, what do you intend to do?"

Fan Hui's voice was somewhat cold.

Du Lu scrutinized Fan Hui from top to bottom, clicking his tongue in praise, "Fan Hui, if I hadn't specifically sent someone to watch you, I wouldn't have believed that you actually made a deal with Lin Wudi..."

"Nonsense, when did I ever make a deal with Lin Wudi?"

Fan Hui was furious and hurriedly denied it.

This Du Lu actually had someone follow him!

However, this matter absolutely could not be admitted.

If admitted, not only would he have to face Du Lu causing trouble now, but later he'd be targeted by all the coveters from Li Mo Continent!

Not revealing wealth is the best strategy.

Du Lu sneered, "Fan Hui, at this point, you still want to deceive me! After leaving Lin Wudi, you didn't even take the Imperial Sky Flying Boat, but directly drove the Thunder Tribulation Thought back to the Golden State. If it wasn't for a deal, why were you in such a rush?"

Only then did Fan Hui realize that he had been too eager and let it slip in front of someone with a keen eye!

Indeed, there was no room for carelessness!

Fan Hui sighed inwardly and said indifferently, "Since you know I have a deal with Lin Wudi, you still dare to stop me? If you ruin Lin Wudi's big deal, you can't afford the consequences!"

Lin Wudi had just killed the Fourth Thunder Tribulation Centurion of the Heavenly Realm Guard.

Fan Hui didn't believe Du Lu would dare go against Lin Wudi's wishes at this time.

Du Lu laughed heartily, pointing at Fan Hui and scolding with a smile, "I used to call you an idiot, and you wouldn't admit it! What kind of entity is Lin Wudi, would he care about a small figure like you? He only cares about the deal with you!"

"Now, hand over the item, and I can leave with my people, or I'll wipe out the entire Fan family!"

Du Lu's words were extremely venomous.

Like a heavy hammer, it struck Fan Hui on the head!

To choose the family, or to choose the deal?

Before Fan Hui could figure it out, a Clan Elder beside him sent a voice transmission, "King, later, when we take action to stop Du Lu and his people, you leave immediately to complete the deal with Lin Wudi!"

Another Clan Elder also sent a transmission, "We will delay, and you escape quickly!"

The Clan Elders understood very well.

If they had to gamble, they might as well gamble big.

If Fan Hui escapes, they don't believe Du Lu would dare annihilate the Fan family.

Does Du Lu not fear Fan Hui making a deal with Lin Wudi on the condition of exterminating Crimson Beryl Kingdom?

Fan Hui gritted his teeth, his heart filled with anger.

"Du Lu, I'll remember you!"

He decided that once he acquired the Artifact Nurturing Method, he would first close off for cultivation.

Once his cultivation succeeded, he would surely destroy the Du family and the Crimson Beryl Kingdom!

Du Lu didn't expect Fan Hui and his people to be so tough and waved his arm.

Boom!

A Blade of Thought formed from a thousand second-stage Tribulation Thoughts turned into a great knife, slashing toward Fan Hui.

At the same time, the Second Tribulation Ancestor beside him also suddenly made a move.

Thirteen hundred second-stage Tribulation Thoughts!

The elder's attack was even fiercer than his.

The two Second Thunder Tribulations struck, instantly shrouding the capital of the Golden State in blinding light.

"King! Go quickly!"

A First Thunder Tribulation Ancestor roared, releasing all the Thunder Tribulation Thoughts to form a shield, just to buy time.

At the same time, the other Tribulation-Crossing Ancestors of the Fan family made their move, all using Tribulation Thought Shields!

Delaying was their only aim.

Even a delay of a few breaths would buy Fan Hui time to flee!

Seeing this scene, Du Lu's gaze turned cold.

"Seeking death, I shall grant it to you!"

In the next moment, the Tribulation Thought Knife, carrying endless light, slashed toward these Fan family Elders!

Fan Hui was controlling the Thunder Tribulation Thought to flee, roaring angrily, "Du Lu, I won't let you go!"

He knew that the Fan family Elders were finished!

Just as several Fan family's First Thunder Tribulation Clan Elders were about to be slaughtered by Du Lu, a voice echoed in everyone's ears.

"Break the formation!"

With the sound, a stark cold spear light exploded before everyone's eyes.

Both Du Lu and the Second Thunder Tribulation elder were dazzled and found themselves in an illusory realm.

There were Immortal Demons, deities, and vast armies.

A Long Spear broke through the formation.

Poof!

The illusion shattered, and the Second Thunder Tribulation elder let out a shrill howl.

"No..."

The elder wanted to struggle but was already too late.

With a poof, his head, and his Sea of Consciousness, were pierced by a single spear thrust.

His Divine Soul had just fled his body, trying to fly toward the Tribulation Thought, when it was crushed by the spear tip!

"Lady Xin Thirteen!"

Only then did Du Lu, Fan Hui, and others see who delivered the fatal blow!

It was Lady Xin Thirteen, who due to her personal grievance with the Heavenly Square Queen, had led Lin Wudi to Danzhou, resulting in the death of the Li Mo Continent Heavenly Guards Centurion.

Now, this woman appeared in Fuzhou!

"Lady Xin Thirteen, dare you meddle in the affairs between Crimson Beryl Kingdom and the Golden State!"

Du Lu's face turned ashen.

The Second Tribulation Powerhouse he invited at great cost was actually killed by Lady Xin Thirteen with one spear thrust!

Not only that, but he too had been enraptured by the illusory realm just now.

If that spear of Lady Xin Thirteen had targeted him, not the elder, he would have died too.

Lady Xin Thirteen's spear was unstoppable!

It was a Thunder Tribulation Thought Attack Method never seen before in the Heavenly Realm.

Holding the Robbery Thought Spear, Lady Xin Thirteen appeared awe-inspiringly gallant and said coldly, "Crimson Beryl Kingdom seeks to ruin Fan Hui's deal with the Benefactor, an unforgivable sin!"

After speaking, without waiting for Du Lu to respond, she thrust the spear again.

Not far away, Fan Hui had already stopped and looked at Lady Xin Thirteen in disbelief.

Lady Xin Thirteen had advanced to the Second Thunder Tribulation just a few days ago.

That elder was clearly at the Second Thunder Tribulation for many years, perhaps even at the peak of the Second Thunder Tribulation.

Such a powerhouse was actually killed by Lady Xin Thirteen with one spear!

Could it be that just being close to Lin Wudi made one also unbeatable?

Fan Hui simply found it unbelievable.

Du Lu, on the other hand, was terrified and urgently shouted, "Lady Xin Thirteen, don't do it, I withdraw, I won't target Fan Hui anymore..."

However, Lady Xin Thirteen paid no attention to Du Lu's words and thrust the spear again.

Illusory realm reappeared.

"Break the formation!"

This spear, Lady Xin Thirteen's attack aimed not only at Du Lu but also at the eight First Thunder Tribulation Ancestors behind him!

Formation breaking is, after all, a battlefield expertise of overpowering the many with the few.

Spear shadows flickered, making one dizzy.

Poof, poof, poof!

Several crisp sounds.

All the First Thunder Tribulation Ancestors were killed.

Leaving only Du Lu!

One spear breaking ten thousand formations, along with slaying several Ancestors!

Chapter 1079: This Man Has Great Fortune!

"Lady Xin Thirteen, have you gone mad? You actually dare to kill a Tribulation-Crossing Ancestor!"

Du Lu roared, attempting to awaken Lady Xin Thirteen's "reason"!

In the Heavenly Realm, killing a Tribulation-Crossing Ancestor is a major offense against heavenly laws. If caught by the Heavenly Realm Guard, one would be punished to guard the Celestial Tribulation Battlefield until death!

Upon hearing Du Lu's words, Lady Xin Thirteen merely sneered coldly, without a hint of trembling in her spear!

Back in the Heavenly Square Country, she had already killed several Tribulation-Crossing practitioners.

Not to mention, her benefactor is currently in an endless conflict with the Heavenly Realm Guard. How could she possibly care about the guard's pursuit!

At worst, she would just die in battle alongside her benefactor!

Seeing the indifferent gaze in Lady Xin Thirteen's eyes, Du Lu realized that his words had no effect whatsoever.

Lin Wudi kills the Centurion of the Heavenly Realm Guard; his companions are also madmen!

Killing a Tribulation-Crossing Ancestor is as easy as slaughtering chickens or dogs to them!

In their hearts, there is not a shred of awe for the Heavenly Realm Guard.

"Ah..."

Du Lu howled, recklessly using the Tribulation Thought Blade to attack Lady Xin Thirteen, attempting to perish together with her.

Bang!

A loud explosion, with giant waves rolling.

A terrifying surge of energy swept in all directions.

Fan Hui had taken action!

He used the Tribulation Thunder Thought to block Du Lu's desperate strike!

"Fan Hui!"

Du Lu's heart turned to despair.

Lady Xin Thirteen's spear arrived!

Poof!

Du Lu's head was directly pierced through.

His divine soul and the sea of consciousness were shattered together!

After killing, Lady Xin Thirteen's gaze did not waver, she said indifferently, "Let's go, let's not make the benefactor wait too long."

Fan Hui hurriedly cupped his hands, "Thank you, Lady Thirteen, for saving the Fan family's lives."

The Tribulation practitioners from the Fan family, who had undergone a single Heavenly Tribulation, also stepped forward to salute Lady Xin Thirteen.

Had Lady Xin Thirteen not intervened just now, they might all be dead by now!

While grateful, they were filled with awe.

They had heard of Lady Xin Thirteen's talent.

But.

They never imagined she'd be this strong!

This prowess was surely linked to Lin Wudi.

Reflecting on this, everyone sighed again.

Lin Wudi's strength was not just in personal combat power or talent.

It was the kind of once-in-a-millennium reversed destiny, bringing astonishing fortunes to those who followed him.

Lady Xin Thirteen calmly said, "It was the benefactor who instructed me to protect you. If you are grateful, then thank him."

In Lady Xin Thirteen's heart, Lin Wudi was paramount.

She would not take undue credit for these thanks.

Fan Hui, upon learning that it was Lin Wudi's instruction, was filled with deep emotion.

Lin Wudi's ways were truly at odds with the Heavenly Realm.

If it were a strong practitioner from the Heavenly Realm, not directly seizing would already be considered charitable.

How could anyone actually send someone to protect a trader?

After Fan Hui and Lady Xin Thirteen left, silhouettes appeared above the Golden State.

"Did you all understand the spear techniques Lady Xin Thirteen just used?"

One of the Second Tribulation practitioners spoke.

"Du Lu and others were slaughtered without any chance to fight back, it should be a technique targeting the divine soul."

"An unprecedented new combat method, wielded with the Tribulation Thunder Thought, to manifest Dao methods!"

"Who exactly is this Lin Wudi?"

"Lady Xin Thirteen was only in contact with him for a few months, yet trained to such an extent!"

"It's a good thing we didn't intervene, otherwise, we'd now be dead under her spear."

The practitioners discussed fervently.

The spear techniques displayed by Lady Xin Thirteen, were considered unrivaled below the Third Tribulation!

Unless a Third Tribulation practitioner acts, Lady Xin Thirteen cannot be subdued!

However, even defeating Lady Xin Thirteen was meaningless.

Taking something from Fan Hui might be doable, but from Lady Xin Thirteen? Do you really think Lin Wudi is that easy to deal with?

He had killed half of the Li Mo Continent Heavenly Guards and annihilated the Centurion of the Heavenly Realm Guard.

"Forget about it!"

"Who knows what kind of treasure Fan Hui has that caught Lin Wudi's attention."

"It must be extraordinary; Lin Wudi possesses the Sea-suppressing Pearl. Ordinary treasures wouldn't catch his eye."

The Thunder Tribulation Ancestors dismissed the thought of robbing Fan Hui.

With Lady Xin Thirteen protecting, no one dared to act against Fan Hui.

Lady Xin Thirteen now represented Lin Wudi.

To attack her was to incur Lin Wudi's wrath.

Swish, swish, swish!

Dozens of Tribulation Ancestors disappeared from sight.

Shortly after their disappearance, several figures reappeared.

They were the Heavenly Realm Guard!

Only, they weren't clad in the standard armor of the Heavenly Realm Guard but in plain clothes.

"I never expected Lin Wudi's companions to be so powerful!"

"What should we do? Should we act?"

"The Director's strength should be sufficient to capture Lady Xin Thirteen, right?"

"If you want to die, go yourself, don't drag me into it, I'm not going."

The last speaker was a Leader.

As soon as he spoke, the other Heavenly Realm Guard members, including four Directors, gave him strange looks.

This guy volunteered at the last moment to join the hunt for the Demon Race, leaving Luo Chou's side.

At that time, everyone thought this kid was a sycophant.

Wanting to please Luo Chou, he was overly obsequious.

Now, thinking back, perhaps this kid never trusted the Centurion from the start, so he purposely found an excuse to leave Luo Chou, didn't he?

It was quite possible.

Now all those who stayed by Luo Chou's side in the Heavenly Realm Guard were wiped out.

Only this kid got lucky and survived.

"If Lin Wudi can kill a Centurion, we can do nothing. Wait for the Enforcement Team to take action!"

"Yes, Lin Mu's killing of the Centurion will surely alert the Enforcement Team."

"For now, let's gather information and report Lin Mu's whereabouts to our superiors."

The Heavenly Realm Guard members reached a consensus, and their figures disappeared once more.

In today's Li Mo Continent, Lin Wudi had become an existence not to be provoked.

The other Fourth Tribulation practitioners in Li Mo Continent remained silent, pretending to be unaware of the situation.

They, as Directors and Leaders, had no right to interfere.

How lamentable it seemed.

Second Tribulation, Third Tribulation practitioners were still strong forces, capable of subduing a country.

But now, they had no qualifications to intervene in a First Tribulation matter.

Lin Wudi's prowess had transcended the boundaries of realms.

...

Heavenly Square Royal Palace.

Fan Hui appeared again before Lin Mu, filled with a myriad of emotions.

This man possessed great fortune!

After expressing his gratitude for Lin Wudi's life-saving grace, Fan Hui handed over the secret treasure within the jade box to Lin Wudi.

Lin Mu opened the wooden box, his expression slightly disappointed.

Initially, when he heard Fan Hui claim that this secret treasure was indestructible, he thought it might be the Nine Tripod Fragments.

After the initial disappointment, Lin Mu laughed softly.

If the Nine Tripod Fragments were so easily obtained, they wouldn't be the treasured artifacts they are.

However, Fan Hui's secret treasure was indeed a good item.

Setting down the jade box, Lin Mu said lightly, "I can't possibly share the Artifact Nurturing Method with you!"

Hearing this, Fan Hui's face changed dramatically, thinking Lin Mu intended to forcibly seize his treasure and possibly silence him.

The next moment, Lin Mu's words left him incredulous.

"However, I can exchange it with the Sea-suppressing Pearl. What say you?"

Fan Hui almost thought his ears were deceiving him.

Exchanging with the Sea-suppressing Pearl?

That was even more tempting than the Artifact Nurturing Secret Method for him.

Because the Sea-suppressing Pearl can now suppress thousands of Thunder Tribulation Thoughts from the Third or even Fourth Tribulation!

Even if he obtained the Artifact Nurturing Method, nurturing such a magical treasure would require unimaginable time.

"Are you really willing to exchange the Sea-suppressing Pearl?"

Fan Hui's voice trembled slightly.

Lin Mu nodded, taking out the Sea-suppressing Pearl and erasing his Divine Sense from it.

Bam!

Without the support of Divine Sense, the Sea-suppressing Pearl fell directly to the ground.

If Lin Mu hadn't used his Tribulation Thunder Thought to hold it, it might have created a bottomless pit.

Overjoyed, Fan Hui hurriedly released his Divine Sense to begin refining the Sea-suppressing Pearl.

Chapter 1080: Si Bo Mountain Range

It took Fan Hui a full day to finally refine the Sea-suppressing Pearl.

When he finished refining the Sea-suppressing Pearl and sent his Divine Sense inside to probe, he almost failed to catch his breath and nearly suffocated on the spot.

Tribulation Thunder Thoughts!

Inside the Sea-suppressing Pearl, it was packed densely with masterless Heavenly Tribulation Divine Senses!

For a moment, Fan Hui actually couldn't even discern how many First Tribulation Thunder Thoughts were inside!

At this moment, there was only one thought in Fan Hui's mind.

If he could take out all these First Tribulation Thunder Thoughts from the Sea-suppressing Pearl, wouldn't he be able to create a huge batch of Tribulation-Crossing Ancestors?

After thinking about it, he still forcibly suppressed this thought.

No matter how many Thunder Tribulation Ancestors he created, they still wouldn't compare to a single magical treasures that could suppress Third Tribulation, or even Fourth Tribulation Thunder Thoughts!

Only after obtaining the Sea-suppressing Pearl did he truly grasp how powerful this thing was.

And he also understood Lin Wudi's terrifying strength even more!

Each of these First Tribulation Thunder Thoughts inside was comparable to a Second Thunder Tribulation!

With such a cultivation level, he could probably attempt the Second Thunder Tribulation at any time!

Moreover, that Second Thunder Tribulation would definitely be a perfect one with a full one thousand and twenty-six thoughts!

Lin Wudi was likely the first existence in the Heavenly Realm who might reach the absolute limit of Tribulation Thunder Thought quantity at the Fourth Tribulation.

After the exchange, Fan Hui could actually have left.

But he still had a doubt in his heart; if he couldn't resolve it, he would always feel a bit regretful inside.

"Lord Lin, I wonder, that secret treasure of mine... what exactly is it? To actually make you willing to trade the Sea-suppressing Pearl for it..."

As he asked this, he saw Lin Wudi's half-smiling expression.

Fan Hui hurriedly said, "I spoke out of turn. I'll leave now, I'll leave now!"

With that, he left the Royal Palace without even looking back.

Everything felt like a dream.

Before entering the Royal Palace, he had only been an ordinary Second Thunder Tribulation.

Now, even if a Fourth Tribulation Thunder Practitioner appeared, he could still step out and fight!

After today, Fan Hui would definitely lead the Fan family onto the path of the Empire!

Leaving Fan Hui aside, even Lady Xin Thirteen, Mia Qing and the others were curious about what that treasure actually was.

But Lin Mu did not tell them, he merely announced he would go into seclusion for two days.

Two days later, he would depart together with Hui Lunzun, heading for the Calamity Script Clan's land of inheritance.

Like a white horse darting past a crack, time flew by.

The two days passed in the blink of an eye.

Lin Mu emerged from seclusion again, his face once more ashen pale.

However, this time Mia Qing and the others no longer had any doubts.

This round of seclusion was certainly for nurturing a magical treasures again.

Lin Mu left the Royal Palace; Hui Lunzun was already waiting outside.

Beside Hui Lunzun stood a middle-aged man with a Third Tribulation cultivation level.

"This is my clan nephew, Hui Yao. If Lord Lin requires it, I can have him act as protector and escort your several Disciples out of Li Mo Continent."

It was clear that for the Calamity Script Clan's inheritance, Hui Lunzun was willing to spare no cost.

He was actually sending a Third Tribulation from his clan as a guard.

Most likely, after this time, his reputation as the Absurd Emperor would become even louder.

Lin Mu said calmly, "Thank you for the kindness, but they can protect themselves just fine."

Hui Lunzun was first puzzled, then his expression subtly changed.

He thought of one possibility.

Could it be that this Lin Wudi had bestowed that Yulong Sword on Lady Xin Thirteen?

No way, right?

If he gave the Yulong Sword to Lady Xin Thirteen, wasn't he afraid of putting himself in danger?

Hui Lunzun didn't dare delve deeper into this thought.

If he thought too much, he feared he might end up doing something wrong.

He waved his hand, sending his clan nephew Hui Yao away.

"Offense."

After offering his apology, Hui Lunzun transformed his Fourth Tribulation Thunder Thoughts into a Flying Sword that appeared under Lin Mu's feet.

The two of them rode the sword into the sky and vanished in an instant.

Only after the two had disappeared from sight did Lady Xin Thirteen and the others board the Imperial Sky Flying Boat and set off.

Once both groups had left.

One figure after another appeared high above the capital of the Heavenly Square Kingdom.

"They actually split up?"

"Does Lin Wudi really not fear his Sect Disciples being taken hostage?"

The person who said this quickly realized he'd just spoken something idiotic.

As long as Lin Wudi was alive, would anyone really dare to lay a hand on his four Sect Disciples?

If Lin Wudi got wind of it, it would definitely be a fight to the death!

He could even kill a Fourth Tribulation; under the overlords, there was basically no one who dared provoke him!

Besides, taking Lin Wudi's Disciples hostage was utterly pointless.

A true powerhouse cannot be threatened.

If you dare kidnap his Sect Disciples, he'll dare charge into your clan and wipe you out!

"He truly has the skill to back that kind of courage."

"That Lady Xin Thirteen is far from weak; a mere Second Thunder Tribulation is absolutely no match for her. You'd probably need a Third Tribulation to make a move!"

"Heh, how do you know the Sea-suppressing Pearl isn't currently in Lady Xin Thirteen's hands?"

That last sentence silenced everyone.

If the Sea-suppressing Pearl was in Lady Xin Thirteen's possession, then even a Fourth Tribulation might not be able to take her down!

"Disperse, the show's over!"

The Thunder Tribulation Ancestors who had been watching for half a month all left one by one.

After everyone had gone, the Heavenly Realm Guard appeared again.

This time, no one spoke.

They also very much wanted to chase after them and capture all of Lin Wudi's Sect Disciples.

But if the Sea-suppressing Pearl was in Lady Xin Thirteen's hands, then going after them would just be marching to their deaths.

With the Sea-suppressing Pearl in hand, any number of Third Tribulations were just fodder.

"He's finally leaving Li Mo Continent. Let's hope he never comes back."

One Heaven's Guard Commander muttered.

The others all had looks of full agreement.

Especially two of the Commanders, who were Luo Chou's absolute confidants; compared to hating Lin Mu, they hated the Terrifying Continent Centurion Na Tuo even more.

If not for that bastard, Li Mo Continent would never have clashed with Lin Wudi, and Luo Chou wouldn't have died!

Once the Enforcement Team arrived, they absolutely had to pass this information on!

Capital of the Heavenly Square Kingdom.

On the street, a little girl dressed like a beggar, seven or eight years old, stared up at the scene in the sky, her small face wrinkled up.

"Third Sister told me to investigate Ninth Sister's cause of death, but this enemy is someone we simply can't afford to provoke."

Hu Yao was quite distressed.

She had a Third Tribulation cultivation level.

If it were an ordinary enemy, she could personally act to avenge Ninth Sister.

But this person could even kill a Fourth Tribulation; as a mere little Third Tribulation, she was far too weak.

If she really charged up there, she might just get pinched to death with a casual gesture.

"Should I kill that villain's Sect Disciples to avenge Ninth Sister?"

Hu Yao sucked on her finger, hesitating in her heart.

Ninth Sister had actually died at Lady Xin Thirteen's hand; she was the true culprit.

But if she killed Lady Xin Thirteen, she would definitely incur Lin Wudi's retaliation.

Provoking a peerlessly unparalleled genius like Lin Wudi was not a good thing for the Demon Race!

"I'll follow and watch. If no one else makes a move, I won't either. But if someone harbors evil intentions, I'll seize the chance to kill that Xin girl! What kind of thing dares have 'Third Sister' in her name too!"

Hu Yao's figure flickered and vanished, heading in pursuit of the Imperial Sky Flying Boat.

She wasn't the only one harboring this same intention.

The lure of the Sea-suppressing Pearl was far too great.

If Lady Xin Thirteen slipped up and they got the Sea-suppressing Pearl, they could run rampant across Li Mo Continent!

Of course, no one wanted to be the one who jumped out first.

They were all waiting for someone else to make the first move.

...

Five days later, Si Bo Continent.

Hui Lunzun brought Lin Mu to a remote mountainous region.

The mountains here stretched for a hundred thousand li, with almost no end in sight.

Within the mountains, Demonic Beasts below the Integration Path Boundary were everywhere.

On the outer fringes of the range, Disciples from several Holy Lands of Si Bo Continent were in the midst of demon-slaying trials.

No one noticed that a Fourth Tribulation and a First Tribulation had appeared in the Si Bo Mountain Range.
