

War God 661

Chapter 661 - Cyan Witch Liquid

The three thousand illusions were something that the Martial Emperor could resist after using the Martial Emperor's ring. Under the attack of the three thousand illusions, the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf's insignificant king level three was soon in danger.

"No, I must hold on!" The three thousand phantoms were very small, and the wolf cub's body was also quite large, so all the enemies would surround and attack him, one punch after another landing on the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf's body. All the wolf cub could do was use fire to burn a portion of the illusion, but on the whole, he still suffered a bit of a loss, especially the phantom image, which could actually explode beside the wolf cub.

The power of these three thousand phantoms was truly terrifying.

After a short period of time, the wolf cub had more wounds on his body, and fresh red blood dyed his black fur red. However, the wolf cub did not even bat an eyelid during this process.

"I must hold on until he succeeds!" This was the belief that the wolf cub had persevered in!

Not far below him, Huangfu Qi's tiny body was peacefully lying down within the purple colored pail. He was sleeping soundly, and he couldn't see or hear anything that was happening outside!

This was also the belief that the wolf cub was able to persevere!

As for Long Chen, he was using his fastest speed to escape into the woods, very quickly, he had covered a kilometer or two. And at this time, Feng Xuan's coquettish laughter came from behind him!

"Looking at your eyes, I had thought that you were some famous man. I didn't expect you to be a coward who abandoned his friends and ran off on his own. I, Feng Xuan, look down on people like you the most!"

As expected, she caught up and left Huangfu Qi at that place.

This was Long Chen's scheme!

She far exceeded Long Chen in terms of strength. It would only be a matter of time before she managed to catch up with Long Chen.

Long Chen instantly stopped in his tracks and turned around to look at Feng Xuan.

At the start of his escape, his expression was miserable, which was very normal. However, when Long Chen turned around, he suddenly saw a playful smile on Feng Xuan's face.

"You dare to laugh when your death is at hand?" Feng Xuan also stopped in her tracks, and stood in front of Long Chen. She sized him up, and said with some surprise: "I didn't expect you to be a Beast Fighters, and this Beast Fighters's power, seems to be very strong. It has increased your true essence by quite a bit!"

"There are many things you don't know." The Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf was still being attacked by the three thousand illusions just now. Long Chen knew that time was of the essence, so without saying a word, he immediately used the sacred art that he had long planned for, but had not used it for a long time!

"Blood Escape!" A streak of blood flashed past Feng Xuan without any warning, and disappeared without a trace in an instant!

No matter how fast the blood escape was, at the moment, it could only be said to last for a distance of 10 li. The distance from where Huangfu Qi was now was only 2 li, which meant that the true essence in Long Chen's body was definitely enough!

This was his plan!

When Feng Xuan used the Three Thousand Phantom Shadow, Long Chen had already thought of this plan.

If Long Chen were to escape now, Feng Xuan would definitely let go of Huangfu Qi and chase after him. She had the method to bring Long Chen back within the span of a dozen breaths, so how could she have imagined that Long Chen would actually have a heaven-defying blood escape technique!

In such a short amount of time, Long Chen was actually able to think of such a plan. It showed how nimble his brain was, and how ordinary people could compare to him.

Then, he successfully lured Feng Xuan here. But at this time, he began to use Blood Escape and instantly returned to Huangfu Qi's side!

This plan, was carried out with no other choice. After all, Long Chen did not expect that Feng Xuan would actually discover the both of them!

"What kind of escape technique is this?" This streak of blood-red light caused Feng Xuan's expression to become extremely blank. She knew that she had been tricked this time, and someone like Long Chen, no matter how she looked at it, did not seem to know that she would run for her life. After knowing that she had been tricked, the first thing that appeared on Feng Xuan's face was overflowing anger, and then, it was catching up to her!

She was a wind race, so she had an extremely strong innate talent for speed. Furthermore, she knew where Long Chen was escaping to, so she instantly turned around and headed towards Huangfu Qi's direction, however, no matter how fast she was, she couldn't catch up to Long Chen's blood escape. When she saw Long Chen from afar, Long Chen had already stopped by his side!

"Three thousand phantoms!" Feng Xuan immediately evacuated the three thousand illusions around the little wolf. Then, all of them rushed towards Long Chen, preparing to lock him in this place!

"It's not that simple to take him away from me! With such a big barrel in your hand, how could you possibly escape?" Feng Xuan did not panic. In front of a strong Ranker like her, even just thinking about it, she knew that Long Chen would definitely not be able to bring Huangfu Qi away.

However, she was stunned once again.

Because Long Chen directly took the wooden barrel and placed it inside the Great Void Realm. As long as they entered the Great Void Realm, unless Long Chen agreed, and if Little Cat agreed, they would not be able to come out again. Even if Long Chen died, Feng Xuan wouldn't be able to get him out!

"How is this possible?" Feng Xuan was shocked, she did not know that there was such a thing as Great Void Realm!

Just as Long Chen kept Huangfu Qi, that dense cluster of three thousand illusions appeared in front of his eyes!

However, the next thing to come was the Little Wolf's Nine Hell Devil Ancestral Fire. All of the illusions to attack Long Chen, the Little Wolf recovered its freedom, and the three thousand illusions in front of its eyes gathered together to attack Long Chen. This gave it a good opportunity to gather all of them, and it would be as easy as gathering all of the illusions together.

The Nefarious Spectral Demon Ancestral Fire was definitely able to kill three thousand phantoms. The reason that the wolf cub wasn't able to deal with them before was because he was surrounded by them. The three thousand phantoms were also very scattered; the wolf cub was unable to kill many of the three thousand phantoms at once!

Roar!

With all his might, the wolf cub spat out all of the Nine Serenities Devil Ancestral Fire he had been able to use. Under the attack of the Nine Serenities Devil Ancestral Fire, the three thousand afterimages in front of Long Chen were instantly swept out, not even ashes remained. There were only a few afterimages left, all of them attacking towards Long Chen alone.

The cooperation between the two of them had reached an unimaginable level.

Finally he succeeded, and was only one step away. Long Chen's face revealed an ecstatic smile.

If the three thousand phantoms were to finally return to her body, her true essence would quickly recover. But at this time, not only was Huangfu Qi gone, her true essence was also depleted by half, and the combination of these series of attacks had caused Feng Xuan to be so angry that she spat out a mouthful of blood!

"Let's go!" Seeing that Feng Xuan had gone berserk, Long Chen wasted no time and rushed to the side of the little wolf. In the blink of an eye, he brought the little wolf back to the Great Void Realm, and at this time, there was only a tiny bit of distance between the angry Feng Xuan and Long Chen!

"Go to hell!" Feng Xuan roared, her originally beautiful face now looked extremely sinister.

If Long Chen ran away, this time she would lose to nothing and would be considered to have completely lost!

That battle with the Martial Emperor was also wasted. At most, it was only to the detriment of Zhao Danchen.

"Goodbye. "Bitch!" Long Chen turned around, gave her a mocking smile, and then burnt all of his remaining Zhen Qi. Using Blood Escape, he instantly moved his body eight kilometers away, and from eight kilometers, it could not be said to be long or short. Furthermore, Feng Xuan was still trying his best to catch up to her from behind, if he was unlucky, he might still be caught!

"Big Brother, let me do it!" In the Great Void Realm, the wolf cub said.

"I still have another move!"

During the process of speaking, Long Chen had used Reverse Time on his body!

From the time he had displayed Blood Escape to the distance of eight kilometers, not even ten breaths of time had passed. This Great Void Dragon Symbol's skill time was able to reverse flow, and was able to restore Long Chen's body back to ten breaths of time ago. Above ten breaths of time, Long Chen's body still had at least eighty percent of his True Essence.

Under the heaven-defying power of Time Reversal, the dried up True Essence in Long Chen's body was able to recover eighty percent in an extremely short amount of time. This was a power outside of the laws, and eighty percent of the True Essence seemed to have appeared out of thin air.

After changing direction, Long Chen used Blood Escape once more, and when he was eight kilometers away, he was truly exhausted. He could only let the little wolf come out, and the superficial wounds on its body were of no concern to him, nor did it affect his speed. The previous distance, although not in a straight line, was at least five kilometers away, which meant that it was already rather difficult for Feng Xuan to catch up to them.

On the little wolf's back, Long Chen quickly recovered the true essence in his body. Because there was no blood refinement method for refining the blood and Qi, Long Chen could only absorb the martial Yuan inside the king crystal and use it to recover his own strength.

The two of them constantly changed directions, quickly escaping from each other.

A very short period of time passed, and Feng Xuan's silhouette, appeared in the place where Long Chen had used Blood Escape for the first time, then used Reverse Blood Time.

"Not here?" Feng Xuan's face became extremely ugly.

"Bastard!" I, Feng Xuan, will definitely dismember your body into a thousand pieces, and actually dare to destroy me to seize wind meridian! Damn it, damn it! If I ever meet you again, I will definitely let you die a horrible death! "

Her expression became quite ferocious!

Then, she suddenly laughed out loud.

"What use can saving that little girl be? Under my 'Green Sorcery Liquid' soaking, that little girl has long since lost her life force, and her brain was dead, just that her body is still alive, what's there to be happy about saving a dead person? "Haha!"

Feng Xuan's beautiful face was filled with a frightening hostility.

She clenched her fist, and the veins on the back of her hand began to bulge out. It was clear how angry she was right now.

Chapter 662 - Sky Island

"Long Chen, you two stop." After they had traveled over fifty kilometers and determined that it was impossible for Feng Xuan to catch up to them again, the little cat girl suddenly said.

At this time, Long Chen was anxiously recovering while the little wolf was running around frantically. A man and a wolf had already entered a barren mountain area.

Hearing Little Cat's words, Long Chen and Little Wolf were both startled. They stopped and Long Chen said: "fat cat, do you have anything to say?"

When Long Chen said these rude words, the little cat was somewhat displeased. He laughed mischievously and said: "I really do have something to say. Bring that little girl out here, that bad woman already can't catch up to his. Look at the condition of your little darling's body."

Long Chen did not frown.

He had a bad premonition.

Long Chen immediately jumped down from Little Wolf's back. The moment he landed, he took out the purple colored wooden bucket that Huangfu Qi was in from the middle of Great Void Realm, and carefully and steadily placed it on the ground.

After sensing it for a bit, Huangfu Qi's heart was still beating. This meant that she was still alive. Long Chen had felt that she was still alive before, and thus did not think too much about it.

In the cyan colored liquid, Huangfu Qi was motionless, and his face looked extremely green.

The little wolf turned from a Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf into a human and also stood at the edge of the barrel. It looked at Huangfu Qi somewhat nervously, then scolded the shadow of the kitten beside him, "fat cat, are you full?"

"Aiyo, little black dog, you still dare to argue with me? If it wasn't for this brat, this god would have already killed you with a single breath." The fat cat looked at Mo Xiaolang disdainfully with its big belly.

"Alright, stop being so noisy, quickly tell us what happened with Qi Qi." Long Chen's voice turned cold. Amongst the three of them, he had the most authority, and even though the little kitten's mouth was a bit cheap right now, it was led by Long Chen. Everyone became serious at this moment, so it said directly, "Let me be direct with it."

"What!" Long Chen and the wolf cub cried out in fear at the same time as they looked at the little kitten with malicious expressions, with expressions of disbelief in their eyes.

"Why are you guys glaring at me? It's not that I'm the one who killed her, it's that woman you guys were fighting against. " Cat was depressed.

Long Chen calmed down and said: "fat cat, stop talking nonsense. Tell me exactly what happened, is there any hope?"

"It can be saved, it can be saved." The kitten first said this, but if it wasn't for this, Long Chen and the wolf cub were really worried to death.

Hearing that there was hope, Long Chen and the little wolf heaved a sigh of relief. Although it was just a possibility of hope, at least there was hope. As long as there was a sliver of hope, Long Chen would not give up.

"Then tell me the specifics." Long Chen said.

It has a special effect, which is to cause the brain to die. The organs of the body, etc. are all still alive, and this little girl has been soaking in this liquid for a very long time, so she has already lost her consciousness, and the only thing left is a body that can still function. That woman is trying to take the wind meridian out from within her body.

"Green Magic Liquid?" Long Chen clenched his teeth, he did not expect Feng Xuan to be even more vicious than him, so he clenched his fists tightly, and his chest was already filled with anger!

"I won't stop until I kill this fellow!" In his heart, Long Chen roared crazily.

"No, I have to take Qi Qi out from the Green Shaman Liquid, what the hell is this thing!" The originally calm Little Wolf heard the news, and his eyes were filled with rage. It was this Cyan Witch Liquid that caused Huangfu Qi to do this, so he was preparing to pull Huangfu Qi out from within.

"Stinky dog, you better keep your hands!" The kitten said lazily.

The wolf cub stopped what he was doing. He did not get angry when the cat scolded him directly. Instead, he asked, "Why?"

"Her current body is absorbing nutrients from the Azure Potion. If you can get her out of there, she'll be dead. Even if you save her, there's no way to save her." The kitten said seriously.

It could be seen that both Long Chen and the Little Wolf cared a lot about this little girl.

"fat cat, just tell me the method to save her. We'll listen. " At this time, Long Chen, who was looking straight at Huangfu Qi's small cyan face, said coldly.

The little cat quickly said: "There is only one solution. I heard that in this Holy Martial Empire, there is a place called Divine Sea of Immortality, and above this Divine Sea of Immortality, there is a Spirit Demon Beast called — — Divine Phoenix Bird! The blood of this Divine Phoenix Bird possessed a powerful regenerative ability. The Divine Phoenix Bird had a certain degree of indestructibility, as long as we kill the Divine Phoenix Bird, and let this little girl soak in its blood for three days and three nights, he would be able to reform the consciousness of his dead body. Moreover, it would be of endless benefits to her!"

Divine Phoenix Bird!

"So, the only way is to kill these king level four's Divine Phoenix Bird?" Long Chen raised his head.

When he had just arrived at the Holy Martial Empire, he had already heard of the Divine Phoenix Bird's reputation. The king level four, according to the legends, was an existence at the same level as the Martial Emperor.

The Divine Sea of Immortality was not a sea, but an enormous sea of fog that existed in the skies above a certain region of the Holy Martial Empire! In this endless sea of fog, there was a floating island in the sky. This island in the sky was where countless birds and demon beasts gathered, and it was also where the Divine Phoenix Bird resided. The endless sea of mist beside it was where the birds and demon beasts fought, lived, and soared!

The Divine Sea of Immortality was a place even more dangerous than Yun Mengze. Although its name was pleasant to hear, it was an extremely fiendish land known as an eternal life. However, basically, as long as one was a human, they would definitely die if they entered that place. Of course, there was an exception to those at the Martial Emperor's level.

There were quite a few king level demon beast in the Divine Sea of Immortality. The entire layout of the demonic beasts was comparable to that of the Holy Martial Empire's. There was a Divine Phoenix Bird with king level four, and there were even many king level two demon beasts. As for king level one demon beasts, they were practically the same as the martial kings of Martial Alliance.

It was a good thing that the Divine Sea of Immortality's demon beasts only existed in the sea of mist forever, and basically did not appear in any other place. Otherwise, with their natural advantage of flying in the sky, even if all the Martial Alliance sent out, they might not be able to fight against the Divine Sea of Immortality's demon beasts.

A demon beast with king level four and even a trace of the Ancient Phoenix's bloodline, its strength should not be much weaker than the injured Feng Xuan. However, if Long Chen wanted Huangfu Qi to revive, the only way was to go to the Divine Sea of Immortality to complete this seemingly impossible mission!

"I'm afraid that the beasts with king level four will be very hard to deal with. If the two of you go, it's very possible that you won't be able to save the little girl. It's very likely that she's dead as well, so I suggest that you guys stop going. This girl's life is not good, so if she's gone, she's gone. What are you guys doing? "

While Little Cat was muttering, Long Chen had already summoned Huangfu Qi into the Great Void Realm without a second word, and then, the little wolf had once again transformed into the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf. With his strong recovery ability, the wounds on his skin had already started to gradually heal, and in the battle just now, the little wolf had only used the Nine Hell Devil Ancestral Flame, it was slightly exhausted.

On the other hand, Long Chen was on the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf's back, recovering his True Essence.

"Hey, how did you decide?" He had just finished speaking about the Divine Sea of Immortality and didn't know what Long Chen and Yue Yang had decided to do, but the two of them had already ended up like this.

"Nonsense, let's go to Divine Sea of Immortality."

"You guys can't beat that Divine Phoenix Bird, you're just looking to die." The kitten was depressed again.

"If we haven't fought before, how would we know?" Long Chen said.

Helpless, Cat could only enter the Great Void Realm.

"You won't think like this until you've seen the power of the Divine Phoenix Bird, before you're about to die." The kitten said.

No one paid any attention to him.

The Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf s travelled nonstop, and a blurry black shadow moved quickly through the mountains. Ordinary people would find it hard to see what passed by them.

As for Long Chen, he was recovering his true essence.

The battle between the Martial Emperor and the others, as well as the last two consecutive times of exhaustion, had actually brought Long Chen quite a few benefits. As he recovered his strength at the same time, Long Chen's mind unceasingly played back the battle with his fists and kicks, and during the process of cultivation, Long Chen subconsciously followed the movements.

The three great Martial Realms all had one word: Martial Arts. To a certain degree, it was equal to fighting. The more battles there were, the stronger the feeling of being in the Martial realm. Through his own dangerous battle just now, as well as watching the battle between the Martial Emperor and Feng Xuan, Long Chen gained a lot of insights, and now, while he was rushing to the Divine Sea of Immortality, he was gradually digesting these insights.

On the back of the wolf cub, this was his only chance for cultivation.

Ever since he had left the Warring Clan, Long Chen had been running about several times in a row. Next up, it might be his last time, so as long as he succeeded this time and revived Huangfu Qi, Long Chen could concentrate on waiting for the ancient tombstone token s to do something.

Chapter 663 - Third Stage of the Earth Martial Stage

The Martial Emperor had already died, and replacing him was Zhao Danchen. At the same time, there was also Feng Xuan, who was even more difficult to deal with. Although Long Chen had help from Long Shan, wanting to obtain the ancient tombstone token was still a pipe dream for him.

Because it meant that he did not have the qualifications to see Ling Xi.

If he did not obtain the ancient tombstone token this time, it would mean that he would have to wait a few more years. Over ten years, how could Ling Xi wait till that time?

She was currently in Sword Soul Imperial Palace, what was going on?

Sword Soul Imperial Palace, what kind of power is this?

These are unknown.

Therefore, Long Chen had no choice but to go all out!

Fight to the death!

Cultivate, train nonstop! 's previous advancement had been too smooth, and the cultivation of the martial realm allowed him to understand the difficulty of cultivation. Even he felt that his speed, which defied common sense, was slow, not to mention the others who were in the same realm, would have to stay in it for several years, or even be unable to progress for the rest of their lives.

In the Sea of Consciousness, his comprehension ability was countless times that of others!

Relying on observing the battle, from everyone's actions, to Long Yue's guidance earlier, to her thrilling competition, in the process, the last membrane of the third stage of Earth Martial Stage, was finally broken by Long Chen!

It was at this time that Long Chen jumped off his back and landed on the ground. His eyes were tightly closed, and he clenched his fists tightly.

For a moment, Long Chen felt as if his entire being was connected to the earth, and his pulse had become the pulse of the earth. The rhythm and frequency of the two movements were practically the same as one punch after another, as though his fists were connected to the endless earth itself!

Heh!

In the midst of the last explosive shout, Long Chen was completely engulfed by the yellow sand.

Whoosh!

Huang Sha suddenly turned into a tornado and swept around Long Chen. Then, the earth vein spirit in the veins started to surge towards Long Chen crazily! There wasn't much earth vein spirit here in the first place, but under Long Chen's absorption, countless amounts of spirit energy gathered towards this place, and the ground within a radius of one kilometer was completely covered with the earth vein spirit. Countless spirit energy surrounded Long Chen, and then, like a storm, it rushed into his body, and was completely absorbed by him, and transformed into his own dragon soul true essence!

The surrounding ground, because of the appearance of the dense earth vein spirit, all of it emitted a crystal clear brilliance.

The wolf cub watched this scene in a daze.

Under the Dragon Jade, was the Primordial Blood Spirit Dragon's inherited blood essence, and above the Dragon Jade, was Long Chen's formed dragon martial spirit. At this moment, after Long Chen had comprehended the word 'martial', his dragon martial spirit became a lot more corporeal again, and had once again reached the third level of the Earth Martial Stage.

A dragon-shaped martial spirit definitely did not exist in the entire Dragon Sacrifice Continent. Even if there were other Dragon Fighter in this Dragon Sacrifice Continent, it was impossible for it to be as powerful as Long Chen's, a warrior with a ancestral dragon blood!

After all, in the ancient times, the entire Dragon Sacrifice Continent was ruled by the Primordial Divine Dragon. Of the billions of Divine Dragons, even if they were destroyed, there would still be some who would leave their own bloodline behind.

And that, she was destined to be the strongest enemy in Long Chen's life. Although Long Chen had never seen his face before, he was the one who already felt the pressure, Wang Chen!

Even within the Imperial Domain s, the inherited blood of Wang Chen was still quite rare. This was definitely not the inherited blood of an Ancestral Dragon!

The Ancestral Dragon would only have Long Chen!

With the powerful transformation ability of the dragon soul true essence, a hundred portions of earth vein spirit turned into a portion of a dragon soul true essence, and the endless earth vein spirit wildly entered Long Chen's body. The amount of dragon soul true essence, on the other hand, continued to increase exponentially, until it was at the level of ten times stronger than it used to be! Long Chen's profound strength increased exponentially, and at the same time, his profound strength increased by leaps and bounds.

At this moment, Long Chen truly had the True Essence of the third stage of the Earth Martial Stage.

After using Dragonsoul Transformation, he would be an expert at the fourth stage of the Earth Martial Stage!

When he decided to go to the Divine Sea of Immortality, Long Chen didn't expect that he would make a breakthrough before then. He went there with a death wish attitude, and on the way, he reached the third stage of the Earth Martial Stage, which undoubtedly gave him a huge guarantee for his mission this time, and also gave him the qualifications to challenge the Divine Phoenix Bird!

Everything became quiet!

Long Chen opened his eyes and two blood-red rays of light suddenly flashed across his eyes!

At this time, Long Chen's entire body was releasing a vast amount of power. Even the Little Wolf, who was at the same level as him, was trembling in fear. Long Chen's current strength, was not only reflected in his true essence, but also in the fact that after his martial soul had been upgraded, he felt an invisible pressure pressing down on him.

Martial spirits were the foundation of the Earth Martial Stage!

A Martial Spirit's advancement was the true advancement!

"Brother, did you really succeed?" The wolf cub's face revealed an expression of pleasant surprise.

There was already no road in front of them, but who would have thought that there would be another one in the dark.

Long Chen now already possessed the qualifications to fight Zhao Danchen's Ancient Devil's Corpse, or even Feng Xuan!

His strength had truly advanced to the realm that the Holy Martial Empire s decided the most. If Long Shan was still the same type of person who could only bring out the power of the fourth stage of Earth Martial Stage, he probably wouldn't be Long Chen's match anymore!

Long Chen smiled and nodded.

The path of the Divine Sea of Immortality was already quite clear.

"Let's go, Little Wolf. This time, we brothers will advance together!" After reaching the third stage of the Earth Martial Stage, even if Long Chen did not transform into the Dragon Soul Transformation, his speed would still be around the same as the little wolf.

The wolf cub nodded excitedly.

"Target, Divine Sea of Immortality!"

One man and one wolf, they finally felt a sense of relief.

However, it had only been a little easier. The Divine Phoenix Bird had dominated the Divine Sea of Immortality for so many years, so how could they be easily dealt with?

Even Zhao Wuji did not dare to rashly go up the Sky Island. As long as the Divine Phoenix Bird found out, it would be the outcome of the battle. If there was no need for Zhao Wuji, then he would definitely not go to Divine Sea of Immortality.

After spending four days and four nights, Long Chen and Yue Shan finally arrived at their destination.

This was an ordinary prairie.

In front of him was an endless expanse of grass. Grass as tall as his knees covered his entire field of vision. The fact that the grass could grow so tall meant that no one had come here for a long time. Even horse-type wild beasts would not dare to come here.

However, the grass here did not have much luster. It was even a bit sickly.

raised his head. In the sky in front of him, other than the dense white mist, there was nothing else. The scope of this white mist seemed to be even wider than the area of the prairie.

In the midst of this sea of mist, the cries of birds could be heard.

Those who were able to live in the Fog Sea were basically all demon beasts. This area of the Fog Sea was the domain of the bird-type demon beasts.

"Little Wolf, I'll enter the Fog Sea. You can enter the Great Void Realm. Once I find the Divine Phoenix Bird, we'll work together to kill it! "

If Mo Xiaolang was in human form, he wouldn't have much combat power. Furthermore, the body of a demon beast was easy to notice, so he could only nod his head.

However, he believed that Long Chen would definitely be able to do it!

Very quickly, the little wolf entered the Great Void Realm, and Long Chen took a deep breath. He circulated his True Essence, and with the power of one eye of the sky, he started to soar into the sea of mist in the sky.

Moving through this sea of fog was surrounded by a vast expanse of white. This kind of feeling wasn't much different from the feeling of being in the ocean. The only difference was that moving here was a bit easier than moving in the ocean.

In front, back, left, and right, all that was left was a vast expanse of whiteness.

At this realm, Long Chen's control of true essence and aura was already not inferior to that of Long Chen and the others. He carefully controlled his own aura so that he would not be discovered by other demon beasts, and with the help of the Spirit Devouring Demon Pupil, basically, on the way to Sky Island, there were many birds and beasts, but none of them found him.

Of course, Long Chen was not afraid of these Goblin Beasts. It was just that, before even reaching Sky Island, he would be besieged by these Goblin Beasts, which would inevitably bring him trouble.

On the other hand, Divine Phoenix Bird was a bird beast, and was good at fighting in the air. On the other hand, Long Chen was not very familiar with Soaring Sky, so if they did not fight on the ground, both Long Chen and the wolf cub's fighting strength would be greatly reduced.

Therefore, since he could not lure the Divine Phoenix Bird to the surface, Long Chen could only go to Sky Island, as Sky Island at least had land, and could borrow some power. At that time, it would be much more convenient to fight, and in addition, that was the big lair of the Divine Phoenix Bird.

Before reaching the Divine Sea of Immortality, Long Chen had already found a person among the Scarlet Souls in a nearby city, and asked them about the location of the Sky Island. Although the Divine Sea of Immortality was extremely mysterious in front of the common people, there were still some information inside the Scarlet Souls.

In front of him, the aura of the demonic beasts was getting stronger and stronger.

The number of demon beasts should be at least tens of thousands, or even hundreds of thousands!

Chapter 664 - Six-winged Firebird

After passing through the thick dense fog, Long Chen headed towards the Sky Island on the map.

In the past, the birds that Long Chen had seen before were mostly used as transportation after being tamed. But this time, he had seen too many unexperienced demon beasts.

There were skylarks, Four-winged Firebirds, and so on everywhere. Maybe it was because of the Divine Phoenix Bird, but most of the beasts here were fire type. This might be a good thing for the cub. At the very least, this Divine Phoenix Bird's beast core would allow the wolf cub to improve once more!

There were many battles between demon beasts in this Fog Sea, so it was not as peaceful as Long Chen had imagined.

Long Chen carefully avoided these battles. With the Spirit Devouring Demon Pupil, this misty ocean of fog was no longer an obstacle for him, and all sorts of demon beasts turned into soul fragments that appeared clearly in his field of vision. Before the demon beasts could even discover Long Chen, Long Chen had already avoided them from far away.

As long as he was on land, he would be able to make the best use of his fighting strength.

This misty sea was quite large and Long Chen was within it. He flew diagonally for about half a day before he finally saw the Sky Island in the distance.

Long Chen realized that the closer he got to this place, the higher the surrounding temperature. As expected of the Divine Phoenix Bird, just the flames on its own body was enough to create such a temperature!

The Sky Island was shrouded in a thick layer of dense fog. At this time, what appeared before Long Chen's eyes was a faintly discernible Sky Island amidst the rolling clouds. Above it, were some dilapidated buildings and even some ruins!

"This Sky Island is actually in ruins?" Could it be that this place was originally another place that was occupied by Divine Phoenix Bird? " Long Chen pondered.

He continued to approach the island in the distance. From afar, the size of the Sky Island looked not very big, about half of the size of the Martial Imperial City s, but it was not small either. After all, the Martial Imperial City's territory was the biggest city Long Chen had ever seen!

Above the ruins, there were numerous demon beasts living there. Every demon beast had their own territory, and the closer they were to the center of the Sky Island, the bigger the ruins were and the stronger the demon beasts were!

The outermost Demon Beasts were also Heaven Stage. Without Heaven Stage strength, it would be difficult for them to survive on Sky Island.

After seeing the Sky Island, Long Chen no longer had any other worries. He immediately increased his speed and rushed into the center of the Sky Island, immediately stepping on the grey ground. It was just as he expected, although the island was in the sky, it was very stable.

However, it could be seen that this place was a mess. There were traces of birds and beasts everywhere, and very few people had come here. The surrounding buildings were all dilapidated and full of mottled marks, so they must have existed for many years.

Even if he was on this island, the surroundings were still shrouded in mist, and the birds that lived here, probably because they had stayed here for a long time, had sharp eyes. Just as Long Chen arrived on this Sky Island, countless of bird demon beasts found him.

The smell of his body that belonged to the human race was completely different from that of a demon beast. Long Chen charged into the midst of the beasts like a demonic beast rushing into a crowd of humans. For a moment, the sky island released countless sharp bird cries, each one more shrill than the last!

The entire island seemed to be trembling.

Thousands and thousands of demon beasts soared into the air one after another. In an instant, the sky above Long Chen was filled with a black mass. The sharp bird cries were about to pierce his eardrums!

BOOM!

Countless demon beasts, fire, wind and other attributes pounced towards Long Chen at once. All of them were engulfed by the flames and gale in an instant.

But a demon beast like this did not scare Long Chen.

The attacks of the Heaven Rank demon beasts had no effect on him at all, but in order to avoid trouble, Long Chen had the wolf cub come out. The wolf cub was a demon beast of king level three, and just by standing there, he was able to give the demon beasts a huge shock!

A burst of black flames surged out from Long Chen's chest, instantly becoming incomparably large. And then, in a very short period of time, the black flames evolved into a gigantic pitch-black Goblin Beast, standing in the middle of the Sky Island, roaring towards the sky!

Awoo! Awoo

With a loud roar, a wave of black flames with bared fangs and claws swept across the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf's body. All of the beasts that were near to it burned and fled into the distance while shrieking, and many of them even died instantly. Their king level three s were not for show, as the tens of thousands of Heaven Rank beasts that pounced towards Long Chen had all run away the moment the wolf cub appeared.

They were not stupid, and after realizing the strength of the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf, they knew that on the Sky Island, there would naturally be people who would take care of Long Chen and the others, so there was no need for them to be killed here by the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf for no reason.

The fear of demon beasts was much more serious than their fear of humans. Especially the wolf cub's huge body. Those demon beasts that weren't even at the king level had no courage to fight back.

When the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf came out, it easily forced away all the beasts nearby.

After transforming into the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf, the little wolf could still use the Spirit Beast Language to communicate with Long Chen. The moment he came out, she said to Long Chen, "Big brother, I feel the existence of the Divine Phoenix Bird, follow me!"

With that, the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf took a step forward, stepping on the pitch-black ruins as it headed towards the center of Sky Island. The further it went, the hotter it became!

Wherever the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf went, the surrounding demonic beasts would all flee. They simply didn't have the courage to fight against the little wolf!

"Who are you!" Just at this moment, a hunchbacked youth with a body burning with scarlet flames appeared in front of the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf. This person's eyes were a brilliant blood-red, and his long hair was actually also red.

This was clearly a king level beast, and it had intelligence. Otherwise, it wouldn't have taken human form and directly communicated with Long Chen.

"This is the Emperor's territory! "Outsiders, humans, leave!" Looking at Long Chen and the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf, the red-haired young man said coldly, his face filled with a sinister expression!

"Wolf, get rid of him!" Long Chen was too lazy to talk with it, so he asked directly.

This red-haired young man had the aura of a rival against the little wolf. He should be a king level three demon beast!

Sure enough, after Long Chen shouted those words, the red-haired youth became furious. Red flames swirled out from his body, like a fiery red lotus, and then it suddenly exploded, as a fiery red divine bird suddenly emerged from the flames and spread its wings!

Long Chen had seen this giant Divine Bird before. It looked similar to the Four-winged Fire Bird that he had seen before outside, its body was filled with blazing feathers that flickered with light. On its back, unlike the Four-winged Fire Bird, this bird had a total of three pairs of wings!

This should be the Six-winged Firebird!

A Four-winged Fire Bird was originally in its normal form, but the Fire Bird in front of him had most likely evolved. Normal demon beasts could also evolve slightly like the little wolf. This Six-winged Firebird was at the level of king level three, which was a full four levels higher than that of the Four-winged Fire Bird!

The Six-winged Firebird's wings spread out, and it quickly flew high up in the sky. Its body shape was more or less the same as the wolf cub's, a total of three pairs of wings spread out, and it was even longer than the wolf cub!

Sharp bird cries accompanied by bursts of scarlet flames swept towards the Little Wolf and Long Chen!

To the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf, showing off the flames in front of him was simply a provocation! The Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf roared, its sharp fangs, biting towards the Six-winged Firebird!

The claws of the Six-winged Firebird also slashed towards the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf!

With a loud sound, the attacks of the two Goblin Beasts collided. The Six-winged Firebird obviously couldn't compare to the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf in terms of strength, and was directly grabbed by the claws of the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf.

BOOM!

A loud explosion resounded!

The vast ruins were directly smashed into pieces by the Six-winged Firebird's body. Under the burning flames on its body, a large piece of land directly turned black!

However, this kind of damage was nothing to the Six-winged Firebird, it only made it angrier. It frantically spread its three pairs of wings and flapped them, instantly soaring up into the sky, leaving the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf far behind!

Spirit Demon Beasts who were all of the same king level three, all had their own pride, but this Six-winged Firebird was directly thrown to the ground by it in their first clash, which was absolutely a huge insult to it. Hence, it angrily flapped its three pairs of wings, and the fiery red flames, like a meteor shower, crazily descended towards the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf.

"Competing with the wolf cub in flames?" Long Chen laughed.

Just at this moment, the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf suddenly opened its mouth, and a huge black vortex appeared at its snout. The crazily swinging flames were directly swallowed into the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf's stomach, how many there were!

Such a terrifying demon beast, the Six-winged Firebird just had a bit of consciousness, where had it seen it before? It was abnormally angry, and seeing that the flames could not burn the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf to death, it started to fan itself even more happily. More flames fell onto the Little Wolf's body, like pieces of flaming meteorites.

Chapter 665 - Divine Phoenix Bird

However, to Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf, these flames were not even enough to fill their stomachs!

When the Six-winged Firebird had run out of skills and was panicking to the point of spinning, the vortex around the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf's mouth disappeared. The Six-winged Firebird was overjoyed, thinking that the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf had no other options, it dove down towards the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf and grabbed towards its eyes. Who would have known, that at this moment, the wolf cub suddenly spat out the Nether Demon Ancestral Fire!

The Nefarious Spectral Demon Ancestral Fire instantly engulfed the Six-winged Firebird!

It was likely that under the scorching of the Nefarious Spectral Demon Ancestral Fire, it was in extreme pain, but the pain quickly passed. When the Nether Demon Ancestral Fire was gone, the Six-winged Firebird completely turned into a huge, lifelike, black ice sculpture, appearing in front of the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf.

Long Chen suddenly recalled the ice sculpture into the Great Void Realm. If it had been slightly slower, the ice sculpture would have fallen to the ground and completely shattered.

"Such a beautiful thing. If I can give it to Lil 'Xi in the future, she will definitely like it." Long Chen said while laughing.

He then looked at the depths of the Sky Island.

From the moment the Six-winged Firebird was completely incinerated by the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf's Nine Hell Devil Ancestral Flame, a tremendous aura seemed to gradually awaken in the depths of Sky Island.

This must be the legendary king level four demon beast, the Divine Phoenix Bird!

On this Sky Island, other than the Divine Phoenix Bird, the strongest one was the Six-winged Firebird of king level three. This Six-winged Firebird was a demon beast that was comparable to a Black Water Serpent! Right now, all of the Six-winged Firebird s had died in the sky island. All the other Spirit Demon beasts, even if they were king level level level level first or second stage beasts, had flown far away into the air, screaming at Long Chen countless of times. On the faces of all the Spirit Demon beasts, their expressions were all ferocious!

In the entire Sky Island, the only people left were Long Chen, Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf, and the Divine Phoenix Bird that were important in Sky Island!

Long Chen and the wolf cub looked at each other. After taking care of the Six-winged Firebird, without saying a word, they rushed towards where the Divine Phoenix Bird s were. Under the huge body of the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf, the already destroyed ruins were broken into pieces.

"What a high temperature, it's almost at the same temperature as nine nether regions's animal fire, this Divine Phoenix Bird is really abnormal!" Long Chen was secretly shocked.

In front of him was still a huge building complex. This building complex was in ruins and was in ruins. However, it could still be vaguely seen that a long time ago, this place should have been an organization similar to a sect!

Long Chen was certain that a long, long time ago, this Sky Island must have been the base of a great sect. Then, for some reason, it turned into such a ruin, and a long time later, Divine Phoenix Bird and a flock of bird demon beasts were stationed at the center of Sky Island.

Under the unconscious destruction of the demonic beasts, the imprint left by the ancient sect in this world had almost completely disappeared.

Nothing can resist the power of time.

The rules of time were the most terrifying.

The surrounding buildings, walls, and floor, due to the extremely high temperature, had already been completely burnt black. Long Chen and the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf were shuttling within the black trash, and very quickly, they were nearing the center of the Sky Island!

Long Chen raised his head and his Spirit Devouring Demon Pupil looked forward. Just as expected, at this moment, a huge lifeform appeared a mile away. This lifeform's soul was extremely large, even larger than the current Little Wolf, but Long Chen felt something strange, as if this lifeform was awakening from its slumber.

A mile's distance away, Long Chen quickly arrived. In front of him appeared a large black building complex, presumably until this place should be the sect's core, and those black buildings, were simply taller than even the body of the little wolf. These buildings were like a black ancient fortress, standing horizontally in front of Long Chen.

"It's inside." The location of the Divine Phoenix Bird passed through some ruins in this large building complex. It was only when Long Chen noticed that the surrounding ruins had already turned from black into a fiery red color, and from time to time, flames would start to burn from these walls.

After arriving here, the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf had become extremely excited, he enjoyed the environment here very much.

Fire was the food of Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf.

Long Chen held his breath, and walked through the final layer of ruins. A gigantic plaza appeared in front of him, and the plaza was empty. There was only a piece of land that had been burnt into a fiery red color!

In the center of the plaza, Long Chen saw the thing he was looking for. It was a huge egg, and just by its height, it was already at least ten meters tall. The egg was a fiery-red color, and its color was much darker than before.

A vast aura exploded from the giant egg!

"The Divine Phoenix Bird is an egg?" Long Chen was shocked.

The moment he stopped, the huge egg suddenly cracked open from the countless engravings and cracks appeared on the huge egg. Then from the cracks, countless flames spewed out, blowing the egg clean!

Hu hu!

In the middle of the scarlet light, streaks of golden flames began to grow crazily from the size of a small ball. It was as if the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf had transformed from human to a demon beast!

It was much larger than the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf. At the same time, a pair of giant flaming wings appeared from the flames with a loud bang, and countless balls of fire rained down from the sky, like a torrential downpour, creating a series of crackling sounds!

A sharp cry came out from the cluster of fire, this bird cry immediately covered the countless of birds chirping in the sky, other than this sound, the entire sky quickly became deathly silent. All the birds and beasts closed their mouths when they saw the Divine Phoenix Bird come out, and landed in a position lower than the Divine Phoenix Bird, looking at it with eyes of reverence!

In the flames, the figure of a gigantic Divine Phoenix Bird gradually appeared.

This Divine Phoenix Bird had huge wings and looked extremely similar to the phoenix in the legends. Its entire body was covered in scarlet feathers and burned with fiery red flames, and in the middle of these scarlet red feathers, occasionally there were golden lines, outlining the Divine Phoenix Bird, making it look extremely beautiful.

The Six-winged Firebird's appearance was completely different from that of the Divine Phoenix Bird. From the looks of it, the Divine Phoenix Bird was the king of all the beasts, its pair of eyes were completely gold, burning with golden flames, it was magnificent, its wings slowly flapping, and a powerful pressure swept towards the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf and Long Chen.

The eyes of the Divine Phoenix Bird stared fixedly at Long Chen and the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf, without the anger in the eyes of the other beasts. This Divine Phoenix Bird seemed to be rather calm, even cold.

From this, it could be seen that the Divine Phoenix Bird's intelligence was already quite high. At least, it was higher than the Six-winged Firebird and Black Water Serpent.

"Little Wolf, I'll be the one in charge this time. When the time comes for you to help, just use the Nether Demon Ancestral Fire." Long Chen said with a calm voice.

At most, Little Wolf only had one more Nine Hell Devil Ancestral Fire. He and the Divine Phoenix Bird were weaker by one level, so in a normal fight, without considering the Nine Hell Demon Ancestral Fire, he should not be a match for the Divine Phoenix Bird. Therefore, Long Chen did not want him to be injured!

He had just reached the third stage of the Earth Martial Stage, the best time to test out his own strength!

While speaking, Long Chen had already started to gradually use the Dragonsoul Transformation. The blood-red colored dragon scales quickly covered his entire body. The rigid lines on his body, the sharp bone spikes and claws, were the most perfect form of attack!

Previously, the Divine Phoenix Bird's attention was still mostly on the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf, but as they were both demonic beasts, and the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf's body also had a terrifying flame aura, when Long Chen executed the Dragonsoul Transformation, the Divine Phoenix Bird's eyes revealed a trace of astonishment. It stared at Long Chen and retreated a few steps while flapping its wings!

Long Chen's body had an aura that made him feel fear. This fear actually came from the prideful bloodline of the past! This bloodline was very small, to the point where it was almost non-existent. But just this small bloodline had allowed it to grow to its current state. But today, this bloodline actually felt fear? What sort of concept was this?

Could it be that this little boy had a bloodline that was even more terrifying than his own?

The initial shock of the Divine Phoenix Bird had then gradually turned into doubt.

The strength of this youth's body didn't seem to be much weaker, especially his true essence. It actually carried an even hotter fiery red flame, even more terrifying than the golden flames on his body!

Only then did it understand that this young man was the expert that was going to be even more difficult to deal with!

And at this time, Long Chen directly passed the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf, and rushed towards the Divine Phoenix Bird in the sky. Among the two of them, one was specializing in the ground, and the other in the air. If Long Chen did not drag it down, who knows how long it would take before the Divine Phoenix Bird made its move!

Just like a ray of blood light, Long Chen instantly appeared under the Divine Phoenix Bird's body!

Behind!

The image of the divine dragon appeared on his body.

Compared to before, Long Chen's speed alone had increased by more than ten times!

A punch was thrown out!

With his comprehension of the third level of the Earth Martial Stage and Long Chen's Quintessential Essence which was comparable to the fourth level of the Earth Martial Stage, the power of Long Chen's punch had already surpassed the level of a king level beginner battle skill.

Chapter 666 - Phoenix Bloodline

The current Long Chen, had to at least unleash the might of the five dragons breaking the heavens, in order to create an attack that was stronger than his own simple punch!

Pop!

In the middle of the nine big chakras, dragon soul true essence surged, and in the middle of the fiery red pill, a blood red picture of a Golden Crow vaguely appeared. A wave of blood red flames extended from the pill all the way to Long Chen's fist, condensing Long Chen's fist into a fire red picture of a Golden Crow!

Other than the bloodline of the Primordial Blood Spirit Dragon that was hidden at the deepest part of the body, what the Divine Phoenix Bird was afraid of, was the terrifying aura of the bird demon beasts on Long Chen's body. The Undying Phoenix and the Eternal Golden Crow were said to be the most powerful bloodlines amongst the bird demon beasts, and the Divine Phoenix Bird only had a sliver of the Phoenix bloodline.

However, after being an emperor for so many years and possessing the Phoenix bloodline, the Divine Phoenix Bird had its own pride. Even if it was once Long Chen who was quite difficult to deal with, it still wouldn't flee this place.

Long Chen's huge punch was like a mountain rushing over, provoking the anger in the Divine Phoenix Bird, it could not be provoked, but Long Chen had already provoked it, and even killed the strongest warrior it sat on!

When Long Chen and the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf appeared, the Divine Phoenix Bird had already felt that the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf was strong. As for Long Chen, he had been completely ignored, and only then did it send out the Six-winged Firebird to stop Long Chen and the others, and then, it would immediately regenerate after breaking the egg. Unexpectedly, in that short period of time, the Six-winged Firebird had already been killed by the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf.

When did Holy Martial Empire have such a terrifying young Ranker like Long Chen? Could he be from another Holy Dynasty?

Long Chen's pressure was already close to its eyes, the Divine Phoenix Bird did not care at all. When Long Chen's vast fist came smashing down, it let out a sharp cry and pounced towards Long Chen with its huge body that covered the sky. Its entire claw, which was even bigger than Long Chen's body, grabbed towards Long Chen's fist!

In their first clash, an earth-shattering force came from the body of the Divine Phoenix Bird!

It had to be said that in terms of power, a demon beast far surpassed a human. If Long Chen were to cultivate a king level medium or even a high level king level body tempering technique, it would be easy. But without cultivating it, just relying on true essence would be extremely difficult for him to compete with a demon beast's power and body!

Fortunately, humans could create and train combat skills!

Whoosh!

Long Chen flew backwards, his Qi and blood tumbling!

However, he quickly stabilized his body and chuckled: "Your strength is not bad!"

With his insignificant body, he was actually able to collide with the Divine Phoenix Bird, this kind of terrifying existence. From this, it could be seen how powerful he was right now!

In their first clash, the Divine Phoenix Bird discovered that although it had an even larger body size and power than Long Chen, it had to sacrifice a part of its flexibility to fight him. As a result, at this moment, its entire body ignited with flames once again.

When one reached the king level, even beasts would have the ability to shrink his body, not to mention the fact that a demon beast like the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf was only at the Earth Stage. However, the mini size of the wolf cub did not allow it to have any fighting capabilities, and was different from the mini size of the Divine Phoenix Bird.

king level demon beasts could shrink the size of their battle form, and within a certain limit, they had this ability to freely change their own bodies. There was a limit to this kind of ability, for example, Little Wolf, right now, he could at most control his own body to the size of a fawn, but for Divine Phoenix Birds, it could at least change its wings to a total of six meters!

The only difference was, the larger their body, the more energy the beasts could exert, and the more restricted their agility was. If their bodies were smaller, their agility would increase a lot, but the strength of their bodies would only decrease a little! This change in strength was extremely limited, and it was no different for the beasts.

Of course, to demon beasts, their most favorite form would be their original form, because this was the most comfortable form for them. And up until now, whenever Long Chen met demon beasts, the bigger the body, the stronger the strength would be.

Therefore, if they had no other choice, the Divine Phoenix Bird would not fight with Long Chen in this form!

Because he felt that Long Chen's body was simply too nimble in the air!

"So the catkin with wind was used in the air!" Honestly speaking, this was the first time Long Chen had ever battled in a situation where he was completely in a high altitude state. This was only his first try, if not, he could return to the surface at any time!

Under the use of the catkin with wind, the current Long Chen was like a tiny willow leaf in the sky. Previously, when such a huge force from the Divine Phoenix Bird struck his body, it actually caused him to fly backwards.

Its attacks did not hit Long Chen in the slightest either.

And at this time, after shrinking, Divine Phoenix Birds whose speed and agility had once again increased dramatically spread its wings and soared in front of Long Chen, staring coldly at Long Chen!

It had already treated Long Chen as a difficult opponent to deal with!

Scarlet flames burned on the body of the Divine Phoenix Bird, traces of which were circulating through its body.

Whoosh!

This time, without saying a word, the Divine Phoenix Bird immediately pounced towards Long Chen. It turned into a fiery red figure, instantly appearing in front of Long Chen!

His speed had actually increased by more than half!

Furthermore, after changing its body, its agility had increased a lot. In terms of agility, Long Chen no longer had an advantage!

The Divine Phoenix Bird's wings were like two sharp blades that instantly appeared in front of Long Chen's eyes. What Long Chen saw didn't seem to be wings, but two sharp side blades that were even burning with flames!

Shoo! Shoo! Shoo!

Those pair of wings were like a blade at the moment, dancing with the wind, transforming into a tide of blade shadows, pouncing towards Long Chen. The flames engulfed everything and a blade edge, bringing about a scorching heat, pounced towards Long Chen.

This move was not the slightest bit weaker than a human's battle skill!

"Wind God Leg Art, storm type!" Long Chen could only unleash the second form of the Wind God Leg to deal with the blazing blade image that came from the Divine Phoenix Bird's wings. Just like the Divine Phoenix Bird, Long Chen's legs were burning with the blood red colored fire of Golden Crow!

There was still a gap between blood-red and scarlet. The Divine Phoenix Bird's flames were slightly tilted towards yellow, but Long Chen's fire of Golden Crow, like the color of blood, was dense and bloody, yet it was overbearing!

The battle between Long Chen and the Divine Phoenix Bird bathed the entire sky in the scope of the flame attack. The shadows of a man and a bird quickly swept across the sky, moving quickly in the air above the Sky Island. A Divine Phoenix Bird was forcing Long Chen to retreat for a period of time, and after a period of fierce kicks, Long Chen, with one move after the other, pushed the Divine Phoenix Bird back like a sharp knife!

"Soulcatcher claw, Five Dragons Breaking the Heavens!" With the last move, Long Chen retracted the attack on his leg, and instantly turned it into a claw. The five claw images condensed into five divine dragons, and they instantly arrived in front of the Divine Phoenix Bird!

This fight was quite intense!

It could be said that the Divine Phoenix Bird had its own specialties, and Long Chen similarly had its specialties as well.

However, Long Chen was secretly afraid, the Divine Phoenix Bird's attack was not just for show. If he did not break through to the third level of the Earth Martial Stage before coming here, even if he and the little wolf joined forces, he would still not be a match for the Divine Phoenix Bird!

Merely the terrifying attacks from the blade shadows previously had been able to hack Long Chen and the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf into eight pieces. How could Long Chen rely on the Wind God Leg Technique and the fire of Golden Crow to directly force him to retreat?!

When Five Dragons Breaking Heaven came out, the Divine Phoenix Bird was immediately in a passive state, but it could be seen from its eyes that it did not panic. Long Chen had claws, and the Divine Phoenix Bird also had wings, and when the wings attack just passed, the Divine Phoenix Bird spread out its wings and a pair of sharp golden claws, suddenly extended forward. In its claws, there was an unparalleled amount of strength, and it was extremely hard, even harder than Long Chen's dragon claws!

Kacha!

In the clash between the claws, an intense friction sound erupted!

Five Dragons Breaking Heaven's power had directly killed the flesh and blood on the Divine Phoenix Bird's claws, causing it to fly into the air. The Divine Phoenix Bird's claws and strength had similarly caused quite a bit of damage to Long Chen's claws, almost breaking them.

A burning sensation came from his hand.

Long Chen quickly retreated, at the same time, his heart was filled with lingering fear. Just now, if he was careless, he might have been killed by this Divine Phoenix Bird!

A human and a bird, under a direct confrontation, were already injured. However, the Divine Phoenix Bird was clearly more furious, a beast was a beast, for the time being, its intelligence would not be higher than normal. Under Long Chen's attack, the Divine Phoenix Bird was completely enraged!

A sharp bird cry caused the surrounding clouds to tremble, and his vision became clear!

At this time, the fiery red flames on the Divine Phoenix Bird's body quickly retreated. Golden flames burned fiercely and quickly covered its entire body. A wave of explosive power congealed on the Divine Phoenix Bird's body.

"He's going to be killed?" Long Chen was shocked.

Chapter 667 - Mysterious Tablet

At this time, the Divine Phoenix Bird was already bathed in the flames, and then it began to spin at high speeds. At some point in time, it suddenly stopped, and the golden flames on its body were still spinning at high speeds, burning fiercely, and becoming bigger and bigger!

From the golden flames, came a terrifying power. Long Chen felt that it was as if the Divine Phoenix Bird had used all of its demonic powers in this attack, and a destructive force made Long Chen feel a huge pressure!

BOOM!

Just at this moment, the terrifying golden flames left the Divine Phoenix Bird's body and pounced towards Long Chen. In the process of pouncing, the golden flames actually started to quickly evolve, quickly turning into a golden bird. Although the bird wasn't large, its appearance was even more noble than the Divine Phoenix Bird by a few levels!

"Is this the appearance of the legendary phoenix?" Long Chen muttered to himself.

As the king of a hundred birds, even though Long Chen had only caught a glimpse of it, he was still deeply shocked by its appearance. However, though he was shocked, Long Chen knew that he was still in a life or death situation under such a terrifying attack, and did not have the time to care about the Phoenix's appearance!

"Little Wolf!"

This time, Long Chen knew that he had already suppressed the Divine Phoenix Bird, and was completely confident in defeating it, so he was not willing to risk his life to fight the Divine Phoenix Bird. This move of the golden Flaming Phoenix, if Long Chen were to fight head on with it, he would naturally be able to block it, but he should at least be able to receive some damage.

And what was even more heaven-defying was the Nine Hell Devil Ancestral Fire!

At this time, the little wolf was already prepared. After the Divine Phoenix Bird used the final killing move, he had already started to worry about Long Chen, since she could not even dodge that golden flame. If Long Chen was struck in the face of it, it was very possible that all the previous battles would have ended in failure!

Therefore, even if Long Chen hadn't called out, the Little Wolf would have still attacked at this time. He had always been paying attention to the situation of the battle, and the place where the battle took place was between Long Chen and the Divine Phoenix Bird.

The moment the Nefarious Spectral Demon Ancestral Fire appeared, the temperature dropped to an extremely low level! The black flames exploded like a torrent, sweeping towards the golden phoenix in the sky. The golden phoenix was fast, but the Nether Demon Ancestral Fire was already prepared. The black torrent instantly submerged the golden phoenix!

Just like that, they met in front of Long Chen's eyes. Long Chen hurriedly used the Nine Revolving Fire Shield, and only then, was he able to blow away all of the netherworld Demon Ancestral Flames and golden flames that were pouncing towards him. Of course, these were all just aftershocks, otherwise, Long Chen would not be able to deal with them!

As an Ancestral Fire, the Nine Serenities Devil Ancestral Fire was a supreme existence within flames. If it was the main body of the Nine Serenities Devil Ancestral Fire, even if it was the Golden Crow's flame and the phoenix's flame, it would still not be a match for the Nine Serenities Demon Ancestral Fire. Although the golden phoenix was strong, it was still unable to withstand the little wolf's control over the Nine Serenities Demon Ancestral Flame.

At first, when the wolf cub had engulfed the Nether Demon Ancestral Fire Avatar, he was only able to use a tiny bit of it, but the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf was able to use a tiny bit of it now, transforming into so much Nether Demon Ancestral Fire. This showed that although the Nether Demon Ancestral Fire may seem huge, it was actually only a tiny bit!

No matter what was said, his strongest attack was actually absorbed by the strange black colored demon wolf below, causing the Divine Phoenix Bird to be stunned. It was obviously a demon beast, but at this moment, it revealed a dumbstruck expression.

The innumerable birds and demonic beasts were also silent.

When the golden phoenix appeared a moment ago, every bird's demonic beast was trembling and did not dare to move. But now, there was nothing left for them to fear. What was going on?

No one knew.

Glancing at the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf on the ground, a look of fear appeared in the Divine Phoenix Bird's eyes.

Ever since it was small, this was the first time it had ever been afraid!

Long Chen could tell from this sliver of fear that after risking his life for so long, he didn't want the Divine Phoenix Bird to escape at this time. Therefore, the moment the golden phoenix disappeared, Long Chen seized this opportunity and pounced towards the Divine Phoenix Bird with his fastest speed!

"Devouring Blood Realm!" At the last moment, Long Chen finally used the ultimate move that he was most proficient in. The blood-red fog instantly replaced the white sea of mist, enveloping the Divine Phoenix Bird and Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf within the blood-red fog. Because of the increase in true essence, the might of Long Chen's Devouring Blood Realm also increased.

The appearance of this mysterious being called Devouring Blood Realm, made the Divine Phoenix Bird feel even more fear. Having met on a narrow path, the brave will prevail, and now that the Divine Phoenix Bird had lost its noble pride and courage, it could not even withstand a single blow. Relying on the suppression of the Devouring Blood Realm, Long Chen instantly appeared in front of the Divine Phoenix Bird!

"Soulcatcher claw, Nine Heavens of Absolute Killing!" At this time, Long Chen used the Soulcatcher claw, and released his strongest technique! A total of nine Divine Dragons instantly wrapped themselves around the body of the defenseless Divine Phoenix Bird. Their immense strength tightly strangled it, strangling countless pieces of flesh and blood on its body!

For a moment, feathers and flesh flew everywhere!

"Wind God Leg Art, Divine Wind Style!" The last kick landed directly on the Divine Phoenix Bird's head. The Divine Phoenix Bird was originally under Long Chen's attack, and was already badly mangled, but under Long Chen's last kick, it let out a painful scream!

The Wind God Leg directly lashed out at the Divine Phoenix Bird on the Sky Island, causing it to suddenly fall. After it smashed onto the ground a few more times, Long Chen estimated that the Divine Phoenix Bird was done for. After all, the Divine Phoenix Bird was not far from death after taking the strongest attack from Long Chen!

Seeing the Divine Phoenix Bird fall, without saying a word, the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf below pounced in the direction it fell! Long Chen used a little more power, causing the Divine Phoenix Bird to fly like a cannonball towards the depths of the Sky Island!

BOOM!

Long Chen had already caught up to it at this time. Suddenly, he saw that in the direction of the Divine Phoenix Bird's descent, there seemed to be a stretch of pitch-black stone tablets that were around four to five meters tall!

At first, Long Chen did not pay much attention to the stone tablet. He felt that if the Divine Phoenix Bird's body were to decline, the stone tablet would probably shatter, since the ruins here were almost decayed. But what shocked Long Chen was that not only did the Divine Phoenix Bird not knock the stone tablet down, it was even blown away by the light film on the stone tablet!

Long Chen was not mistaken. When the Divine Phoenix Bird touched the mysterious stone tablet, a layer of grey lines suddenly flashed on the stone tablet, and directly blew the Divine Phoenix Bird away. The Divine Phoenix Bird immediately rolled a few rounds on the ground, then stopped.

At this time, the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf rushed over, opened its mouth wide, and directly bit onto the Divine Phoenix Bird's head. His mouth was burning with the netherworld Ancestral Devil Fire, and without him trying to bite it, the Divine Phoenix Bird's head was directly split open by him. Very skillfully, the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf picked out a golden, fist-sized beast core from within the head, and swallowed it!

Without the Spirit Demon Core, the Divine Phoenix Bird would definitely not be able to live.

After it was defeated by Long Chen, the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf rushed over and ended its life with the Nine Hell Devil Ancestral Fire.

But Long Chen had already killed the Divine Phoenix Bird, so he could use the Divine Phoenix Bird's blood to save Huangfu Qi. Thus, Long Chen hurriedly kept the Divine Phoenix Bird's body in the Great Void Realm to prevent its blood from being wasted.

"Big brother, I will carefully refine the power of this beast core. I hope that during the last stage of the competition for the ancient tombstone token, I will help you out, so I will leave Qi Qi's matter to you." Mo Xiaolang said anxiously as he took human form in front of Long Chen. After consuming the Spirit Demon Core, he had to refine the medicinal power as soon as possible.

Long Chen nodded his head, without saying a word, he also kept Mo Xiaolang inside his Heaven and Earth Pouch.

When the Divine Phoenix Bird died, all of the beasts that had been fighting previously fled in fright. They did not dare to land back on the island, and only dared to clamor endlessly in the sky, including many king level one or two beasts.

Long Chen's strength had given them a deep shock.

Long Chen was too lazy to bother with these demon beasts. He surveyed his surroundings, and first looked at the extremely ordinary but extraordinary stone tablet in the distance.

Just now, the Divine Phoenix Bird was actually knocked back by the stone tablet, it was obvious that there was some secret on the stone tablet.

However, the most important thing was to save Huangfu Qi. Long Chen had plenty of time to look at this stone tablet.

From the looks of it, this building should have at least been here for tens of thousands of years, or even tens of thousands of years ago, it should have been a ruin of the Middle Paleogene. And within this stone tablet, there is still a remnant of a martial arts battle skill from that sect. The kitten said proudly as it came out of the Great Void Realm and caressed its stomach.

What it was proud of was its own knowledge.

Chapter 668 - The Mystery of the Monolith

"Save Qi Qi first." Long Chen turned his head and did not look at the stone tablet. Instead, he took Huangfu Qi, who was immersed in the Cyan Witch Liquid, out of the Great Void Realm. The Great Void Realm's area of effect expanded along with Long Chen's strength. With just a diameter of five kilometers, it was already enough for Long Chen to put down everything.

Seeing the girl's green expression, Long Chen's eyes revealed an expression of heartache.

"What should I do?" Long Chen asked.

"Using the Divine Phoenix Bird's blood to replace the Green Shaman's liquid. However, the Divine Phoenix Bird's blood is extremely hot, so if you put this girl in, I'm afraid she'll be burnt to ashes." Cat indifferently said.

"Then what should we do?" Long Chen frowned. He felt that it was strange that the kitten knew about this, because it had never mentioned it clearly before.

This girl is in the Great Void Realm, leave her to me. After a short period of time, I can return a lively little girl to you, but how are you going to repay me?" The little kitten laughed mischievously as it looked at Long Chen proudly.

"fat cat, the three of us have been together for so long, I will not say too much, you have helped me out a lot these few days, and even my life was saved by you, I, Long Chen am a person who repays favors, the better you are for me, the later I will benefit, and I will definitely not treat you unfairly, we can also be considered brothers, right? But perhaps you think that I, Long Chen, am not worthy to be your brother because of what kind of Reincarnation Godly Beast you are? " Long Chen raised his eyebrows and looked at the kitten seriously.

The kitten pretended to be disgusted and said disdainfully, "Enough, don't try to incite me. I'm not a big girl, so I won't take your trick. Go observe the stone tablet, leave the girl to me."

Long Chen snickered.

He knew the kitten would do that.

After getting along with it for so long, Long Chen had a clear understanding of its personality. Although it was a little arrogant and lousy, but in crucial times, it was very reliable.

After saying that, Long Chen let Little Cat go into the Great Void Realm, and at the same time brought Huangfu Qi in. The Divine Phoenix Bird's bloodline was in the Great Void Realm, and Little Cat was half a master in the Great Void Realm.

"Oh right, fat cat, do you want to recover your strength one day?" Long Chen thought for a while and suddenly said that.

In the Great Void Realm, when Cat heard this question, she showed a perplexed expression, then laughed bitterly: "That's impossible, don't think too much for now, I have someone to talk to, and it feels pretty good."

This guy seemed like he had a story.

Long Chen's personality was so, as long as he was a brother, he would definitely help him to the end. Although Cat didn't say anything, Long Chen still remembered what he had said today.

There was nothing impossible, only insufficient strength.

When the little kitten started to busy itself with Huangfu Qi's matters, Long Chen saw that it had started to act like it was, adding that it already promised that Long Chen would not be worried anymore. The matter regarding Huangfu Qi, had finally come to an end.

As for the little wolf, after consuming the Divine Phoenix Bird's beast core, he had turned into his original body in another corner of the Great Void Realm. His entire body was ignited in black flames, and there were occasional golden flames mixed within, these were all flames from the Divine Phoenix Bird's bloodline!

In order to help Long Chen snatch the ancient tombstone token, the wolf cub had also worked hard and did not waste any time. After obtaining the Divine Phoenix Bird's beast core, he had immediately refined it.

He also knew how important ancient tombstone token were to Long Chen.

Everything seemed to be at ease now, the only thing left was the strange stone tablet. Long Chen then turned and looked at the ordinary looking stone tablet. This stone tablet might not have been of this color originally, but its surface was full of potholes, full of the traces of history, and it also seemed as if it was being burned by flames.

If not for the Divine Phoenix Bird crashing down that time, Long Chen would never have realized that there was something strange about this stone tablet.

"The fat cat said that a martial art was left behind in this stone tablet. And this martial art belongs to the sect that was established on this Sky Island a long time ago?" After Long Chen thought of this, he walked towards the stone tablet.

With a distance of over thirty meters between them, Long Chen quickly reached the front of the stone tablet. He was only five meters away from the stone tablet, and even standing in front of it, Long Chen did not feel anything strange about the stone tablet.

"What is the secret?" Long Chen could not feel the power of the stone tablet, so he continued to walk closer. Until he stood close to the stone tablet, and because he did not feel anything special about the stone tablet, his courage grew. He slowly extended his finger and touched the stone tablet.

Because of the death of the Divine Phoenix Bird, the surrounding temperature had suddenly dropped. The high altitude's temperature was much lower than the ground, and the stone tablet was ice-cold to the touch, so he could not feel anything strange.

"Why did the Divine Phoenix Bird hit this place? Why is it fine for my hand to touch it?" Long Chen was a little suspicious. After the first time he was alright, he grew braver, and directly covered the stone tablet with his palm, gently stroking it, and felt the stone tablet's lines. Unfortunately, after walking for an hour, Long Chen had already understood the stone tablet's lines, but he still could not sense what kind of secret this stone tablet held.

Then, Long Chen began to exert strength.

Bang bang bang.

He gently tapped on the stone tablet a few times and a dull sound rang out. It was basically no different from a normal stone tablet.

"Damn, do I need to use the power of the Divine Phoenix Bird's fall to attack? If that's the case, wouldn't I have to carry it and fly out? "

Long Chen cursed somewhat gloomily.

He had thought that as long as he got close, he would be able to learn those so-called martial arts.

"As long as it's a high level martial art, how can you learn it so easily? When the moon comes out when it gets dark, you will concentrate on the stone tablet. If you look at it for more than two hours, you might have obtained something. Remember, I will let you look at it, but it is not as though you are staring at it, but rather feeling the existence of this stone tablet and everything that is happening around it. "

While she was busy, Cat took the time to say this to Long Chen.

"Is it that difficult?" Long Chen was a little speechless. In the past, even if he had obtained battle skills, he had always been too relaxed, so he did not feel that it was rare and precious.

Of course, although the martial arts in the stone tablet were difficult, the strength was definitely stronger than the Soulcatcher claw and the Wind God Leg. Long Chen had seen the power of the Martial Emperor Seal, so the martial arts inside the stone tablet must be at least at the same level as the Martial Emperor Seal.

As for the Five Emperors Seal, it was presumably even more terrifying, because that was a Royal Level battle skill, and he didn't even know which level of the Royal Tier Battle Skills it was. The Five Emperors were the legendary five Divine Martial Stage Realm Rankers that appeared in the Realm of Myriad Kingdoms, and although the battle skill that they left behind was only at the Royal Level, how could it be easy?

As for the Five Emperors' Treasures in the Archaic Graveyard, they were the ones that truly belonged to the Five Emperors.

Of course, to Long Chen, just the Five Emperor Prints were enough to unleash a terrifying fighting strength.

Long Chen didn't dare to think too much about the Five Emperor Prints for the time being, because the Scarlet Emperor Seal and the Golden Emperor Seal had already landed in Zhao Danchen's hands. Only by gathering the Five Great Emperors Seal would Long Chen be able to open the path to cultivate the Five Emperor Prints.

And now, the most important thing was the mysterious combat skill in front of him.

What Long Chen lacked was a powerful offensive skill!

was not lacking in patience, since Little Cat wanted him to wait, then there must be some kind of logic behind it. Thus, he retreated ten meters away from the stone tablet, and following Little Cat's words, carefully sensed every inch of the stone tablet, hoping to comprehend the secret of the stone tablet.

"Wait until the moonlight at night?" Long Chen was not in a hurry.

He had just reached the third stage of the Earth Martial Stage, and there was still a place that needed him to cultivate.

Many abilities still needed to be consolidated before one could unleash even more powerful combat abilities.

It had to be said that the current him, was already standing at the peak of the entire Holy Martial Empire.

His only two opponents, Zhao Danchen, Feng Xuan!

The night came quickly.

In the sky, the moonlight penetrated through the thick fog. By the time it landed on the Sky Island, it had already become quite misty and did not even exist.

"What's the use of this dim moonlight?" Long Chen could not understand no matter how much he thought about it.

In order to save Huangfu Qi, Little Cat should be at the most critical stage right now. Long Chen wanted to rely on himself to comprehend it, so he did not want to disturb it.

Long Chen was already familiar with every little bit of lines on the stone tablet, but even so, he still did not know how to solve the secret inside the stone tablet.

Without the kitten, ordinary people would not be able to decipher this stone monument. After all, there was no one who could persist here for so long without obtaining the result.

"Comprehension isn't the same as observation. The appearance of the stone tablet has already been engraved in my mind. But what can I do about it?"

Long Chen kept thinking.

The faint moonlight shone down, casting Long Chen's shadow on the stone tablet. This was a very normal sight, when Long Chen moved, the shadow on the stone tablet would also move along with him.

When the moonlight shone down, Long Chen had already observed the stone tablet for more than two hours, but there was still no result.

"Could it be that I'm more stupid than others?" Long Chen thought somewhat helplessly.

Therefore, he wasn't in a hurry to look at the stone tablet. He didn't want to get too close, so he hoped that he could unwittingly reveal the secret of the stone tablet.

In his boredom, Long Chen began to cultivate the fourth stage of the Earth Martial Stage's Earth Martial Arts manual.

Chapter 669 - Desolate Divine Seal

As time passed, Long Chen gradually immersed himself within the Earth Martial Arts manual's boxing style, and forgot about the stone tablet. The fourth stage of the Earth Martial Stage's boxing style was even more mysterious, and Long Chen was naturally unable to comprehend it in a short period of time. After cultivating for a while, he felt that there were a lot of obstacles he needed to overcome, so he did not think too much into it and directly stopped the punching style.

Like this, an hour passed.

When Long Chen stopped in the middle of his journey, he had already opened his eyes. In the first moment, he looked at the stone tablet, and just at this moment, he realized that it was a little strange.

Long Chen had already stopped, but his shadow on the stone tablet did not stop. Instead, he continued to practice.

Moonlight slowly poured down onto the stone tablet above Long Chen's head. The stone tablet gradually emitted a dark yellow light, and then transformed into a bright yellow light. As for the human figure inside, he was still practicing a strange type of seal.

"This is ..." Long Chen was startled, and quickly realised that he should have already discovered the secret of the stone tablet while he was in a daze. Thus, he immediately calmed himself down and carefully looked at the figure on the stone tablet.

With just a single glance, he was completely captivated by the movements of the figure on the stone tablet, his entire mind immersed in memorizing them. As the figure moved, his entire being became dreamy.

It was as if he had been sucked into the stone monument.

As time passed, Long Chen's body began to glow with a faint yellow light.

The figure on the stone tablet was unceasingly practising a set of seals. After the set of seals ended, it immediately started anew, and Long Chen had watched the entire set over ten times since the beginning. He had long memorized all of these movements in his head.

However, these simple actions did not mean that Long Chen had learnt this type of combat skill. He only had an empty form now.

Long Chen was completely immersed in the seal technique on the stone tablet.

Suddenly, Long Chen felt that his body had moved to another place and he suddenly opened his eyes. He discovered that he was standing in the middle of a piece of barren land, up to the left and right of him, it was a deathly gray color, and nine nether regions was completely barren and deathly still. However, compared to the kind of desolate silence in front of Long Chen, it was a lot worse.

Grey sand, dense black clouds nearly reached the top of his head. Traces of cold wind wandered around, and an aura of death pervaded the air. Long Chen seemed to have smelled the rotten corpses of many animals and plants.

This rotten stench filled the entire space, and the smell of death filled the air.

"Where is this place?" This question had just appeared in Long Chen's mind. He remembered that he seemed to be cultivating the technique on the stone tablet, why did he suddenly come here?

Thinking up to here, Long Chen was a little shocked. This piece of barren land, with the gray air of death surrounding it, spread onto his body. His skin actually felt a kind of numbing pain. It first lost its luster, then turned gray, and then quickly rotted away.

That kind of pain simply made Long Chen want to die.

"What is this place?" Why is it so terrifying? " Long Chen jumped in shock. He immediately used his fastest speed to escape from this place, his speed was indeed fast, and the pain from his body was not enough to stop him from moving forward. He knew that the moment he stopped, he would die in this terrifying wasteland!

Finally, Long Chen saw an oasis in front of him. This oasis was not large, but it was filled with lush green grass, cattle, sheep, and other living things. And the little bridge running.

"There is actually such an oasis in such a place filled with aura of death?" Long Chen was surprised.

This place was simply too strange. Long Chen even felt that he was living in a dream.

Not knowing why he suddenly appeared here, Long Chen anxiously knew exactly where he was, so he quickly headed towards the oasis.

Just as he was about to approach, a roar suddenly came from the sky, shaking the thick black clouds. In front of Long Chen, who was still in shock, a huge grey palm that covered the sky and surrounded the endless gray aura of death smashed onto the oasis with a loud bang, before quickly retracting it.

When the clouds returned to normal again, Long Chen was completely stunned. The oasis that was in front of his eyes previously, had now turned into a piece of barren land, exactly the same as the rest. The oasis from before, was corroded by the gray aura of death, without a single trace.

The gray aura of death lingered around them and did not leave.

In Long Chen's mind, he was still recalling the memory of the gigantic grey palm just now, his eyes glazed over. In the beginning, he was shocked by the terror of the grey palm, because there were many cracks on the surface of the palm. It looked extremely ugly, but what Long Chen cared about was not the unpleasantness of the palm, but the charm of the palm just now.

"Earlier, I was cultivating that sorrowful battle skill before suddenly coming here, and then, that handprint just now ..." There was definitely some sort of connection between them, and Long Chen quickly understood the crux of it. Everything was on that grey arm earlier.

"Does this mean that the deathly hand seal is the battle skill that I want to obtain?" Long Chen's mind was cleared up very quickly, and he carefully sensed that handprint just now. Every hair on his body, he suddenly understood the current state of his heart.

"So, this is a Desolate Divine Seal?"

After thinking it through a little, Long Chen realized that he was still standing in front of the stone tablet. The moonlight had already faded, and the figure on the stone tablet had disappeared, returning to its original normal state.

All of these were things that Long Chen did not care about.

In his mind, he carefully savored the essence of the Desolate Divine Seal. This name was something that Long Chen would only know after obtaining the Desolate Divine Seal. This Desolate Divine Seal was different from the Yellow Martial God Seal that Zhao Danchen had used before, it could even be said that it was a hundred thousand miles away from being a king level medium battle skill. And this Desolate Divine Seal was a king level high level battle skill, amongst king level high level battle skills, it was known as the strongest level!

At the very least, it should be much stronger than the Martial Emperor Seal.

Just taking the Wind God Leg for example, in the three of the moves, the Gale Style, the storm type and the Divine Wind Style, were all mid-level king level offensive skills. However, the difference between the Gale Style and the Divine Wind Style was not just that big.

Based on the terrifying scene of that desolate voice just now, Long Chen could roughly guess how terrifying that Yellow Martial God Seal was.

"The Desolate Divine Seal, also known as the Death Seal, attacks people with the aura of death, which can display two hundred percent of the power." Looking through the form of the Desolate Voice in his memory, Long Chen silently withered out.

From that unknown space, Long Chen saw that the giant palm above his head had drowned the entire oasis. At the same time that he was shocked, he also felt the charm of the Desolate Divine Seal, which made him stronger.

With the help of that palm, Long Chen felt that his comprehension speed became much faster. It just so happened that the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf was refining a Spirit Demon Pill and the kitten was rescuing Huangfu Qi. Long Chen was bored and he immediately started to analyze the battle skills of the Yellow Martial God Seal in front of the stone tablet.

The more he tried to figure it out, the more frightened he became. He thought to himself: This Yellow Martial God Seal is actually similar to the Little Wolf's Nine Hell Devil Ancestral Flame, it can even corrode someone's body and infuse death energy into the enemy's body. Not only is it powerful, it is also a little vicious, if struck by this Desolate Divine Seal, there is basically no chance for it to survive.

Although he was vicious, Long Chen had always been ruthless to his enemies, and this did not conflict with him. Thinking about it, Long Chen was pleasantly surprised, he never thought that before the Five Emperor Prints, he would still be able to obtain such a good battle skill. With this battle skill and the help of the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf, Long Chen believed that his chance of fighting for the ancient tombstone token should increase a lot!

The ancient tombstone token was the true key to Long Chen!

"Zhao Danchen, do you think that you can be unrivalled in the world just by obtaining the Martial Emperor Seal? You will definitely want to find me to fight in the future to wash away your shame. But you know that at this time, I actually obtained a Desolate Divine Seal that is even stronger than your Martial Emperor Seal!

Soulcatcher claw and Wind God Leg were not battle skills with high combat strength, but the power of the Desolate Divine Seal, carried poison gas and death aura, adding on that it did not lose out to the Martial Emperor Seal, in Long Chen's hands, the Desolate Divine Seal would definitely shock everyone with its power, at that time, would just be stunned!

Thinking about it, Long Chen became even more passionate about cultivating this Desolate Divine Seal.

Day after day, he immersed himself within the island, immersed himself in the Desolate Divine Seal's cultivation, and forgot to eat, while Little Cat had long finished the work on hand, and was only waiting for Huangfu Qi to recover in the blood of the Divine Phoenix Bird. As for the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf, it was also in the process of refining the Divine Phoenix Bird's Spirit Demon Core.

"Maybe this time, Little Wolf can directly enter the king level four?" Long Chen thought happily.

Chapter 670 - Great Void Cosmic Dragon

The Spirit Demon Core of the king level four really could let the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf reach the realm of king level four. Ten days had passed and even Huangfu Qi had almost recovered, yet the little wolf still had not woken up from its slumber. The longer the time consumed, the greater the possibility for the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf to reach the king level four.

On this day, Little Cat had already said that Huangfu Qi was almost awake, so Long Chen stopped his Desolate Divine Seal cultivation and brought Huangfu Qi out from the Great Void Realm, placing him on the plaza in the middle of the ruins.

Huangfu Qi was still in the purple barrel, but compared to before, the only difference was that what soaked Huangfu Qi was a type of bright red with golden blood.

This was the Divine Phoenix Bird's blood, so the temperature was extremely high. Standing beside the blood, Long Chen felt that it was like standing beside a Divine Phoenix Bird, it seemed like most of the heat on the Divine Phoenix Bird's body came from its blood. Because he had the protection of the kitten, Huangfu Qi would not let the high temperature burn his wounds.

Huangfu Qi who was inside the Divine Phoenix Bird's blood, the green color on his body had already faded, and what turned into a rosy complexion. Her heart had been beating, but now she was breathing again. It seemed like he was close to waking up.

All of the golden blood in the Divine Phoenix Bird's body gathered at Huangfu Qi's side, and seeped into her body bit by bit.

Moreover, she has the so-called wind meridian in her body. This kind of bloodline, its innate talent is still passable, but she can work a little harder in her life to be able to reach the fifth or even the seventh stage of the Earth Martial Stage! In Holy Martial Empire, there is at least no one else who is stronger than her. "

Thus, even if Long Chen wanted to leave the Holy Martial Empire in the end, he didn't need to worry in his heart.

His friends would be under Long Shan's protection now, and when Long Shan ran out of options in the future, he would probably become a strong Ranker, and the future Holy Martial Empire would belong to Huangfu Qi.

Even if he lost his strength, he would probably wake up from the dream smiling. After all, Long Chen knew that he loved Huangfu Qi so much that it even surpassed his own life. Otherwise, it would be impossible for him to beg Long Chen to save Huangfu Qi even if he knew that he was no match for his.

"Little Cat, what do you think of my potential? "How far can I go?" Long Chen asked.

"You?" The kitten looked at him in disdain and said, "You possess one of the ancient Ten Great Ancestor Dragon's Primordial Blood Spirit Profound Beasts. In terms of potential, no one in this world can compare to you! But you are still too proud. Is the ancestral dragon's inherited blood also that easy to absorb? It will not be easy for you to absorb and refine them all the way here. Therefore, I am unable to guess how much you will be able to increase your strength in the end. "

What it said was more or less the case as well. Even more so, it said that had met with danger, and with the Primordial Blood Spirit Dragon's blood essence, Long Chen's strength grew extremely fast.

"Little Cat, how many Dragon Fighter do you think are left?" Long Chen asked.

"Dragon Fighter? "Hehe, there shouldn't be many left, those dragon's inherited blood essence are almost gone. I don't know where they went, but I remember there are still a lot of them in the Middle Paleogene." The kitten said.

"Then will the inherited blood essence of the other nine great Ancestral Dragons still exist in this world?" Long Chen asked the question that he was most concerned about. He wanted to know if there was anyone who possessed the same level of talent as him.

"No, absolutely no, I also do not know what the situation is with you, for you to actually be able to obtain the blood essence of an Primordial Blood Spirit Dragon is truly shocking. It is impossible for anyone else to obtain the blood essence of the other nine great Ancestral Dragons, even if they can find it, without having the strength of Divine Martial Stage or above, they would basically not be able to obtain it."

"Is that so?" Long Chen thought about the process of obtaining the ancestral dragon blood. It seemed like it was Long Qinglan who had told him that the Dragon Seal manual had the key to him becoming a Dragon Fighter, and then, he had obtained the Primordial Blood Spirit Dragon's inherited blood essence. At that time, the inherited blood essence had been sealed by a restriction that even Ling Xi could remove.

Long Chen was also surprised that he could get the Primordial Blood Spirit Dragon's blood essence so easily.

"This must have been done by my father, right? It seems like everything was arranged by him, but from his tone, it seems like our Long family's position is even bigger than Ling Xi's family. Ling Xi is a member of the Imperial Domain of Sword Soul, and the Long Family is a member of the Sword Soul Imperial Palace, how can their status be higher? " This was the problem that Long Chen couldn't understand no matter how much he thought about it.

Could it be that other than the Three Great Imperial Domains, there were other places?

"However, I do know where the blood essence of an Ancestral Dragon lies." Just at this moment, Cat said something that frightened Long Chen. Long Chen's entire being froze, then excitedly looked at Cat: "cat-lord, is what you said true?"

At this time, the more Long Chen looked at the kitten, the more he liked it and directly called it cat-lord.

This call of "cat-lord" made the kitten feel comfortable. In fact, it had wanted to tell Long Chen this news since long ago, but it just hadn't had the chance.

"Of course it's true. When did this god deceive you?" The kitten said proudly.

"Where is it?" Long Chen asked anxiously.

"Don't be in such a hurry, you can't get it now. What's there to be anxious about? You can't eat hot tofu in such a hurry." The kitten paused for a moment, then continued slowly, "The thing on your chest is called the Great Void Dragon Symbol, and I was sealed within this Great Void Dragon Symbol. Uh, I'll tell you honestly, when I lost to this Ancestral Dragon, that Ancestral Dragon immediately took off a piece of its dragon scales and turned into this Great Void Dragon Symbol, sealing me in this place. This Great Void Dragon Symbol was originally its dragon scales, but based on the reaction between the two of us, as long as you get close to that guy, I should be able to feel it.

"Great Void Dragon Symbol, so it's a piece of dragon's scale?" Long Chen was a little speechless, he couldn't blame the Great Void Dragon Symbol being able to unleash such a heaven-defying ability like time reversal.

From Little Cat's words, Long Chen obtained a lot of information.

Firstly, Cat had been defeated by the Ancestral Dragon. If Cat was truly an expert on the same level as the Golden Crow, then the strength of the Ancestral Dragon could be easily guessed. Little Cat always bragged when it spoke. It said that he and the Ancestral Dragon experienced a huge battle, so maybe it was killed instantly by the Ancestral Dragon. Otherwise, would the Ancestral Dragon be able to seal it with just its dragon scales?

Furthermore, the kitten did not know where the ancestral dragon blood was. However, with the help of the Great Void Dragon Symbol, it should be able to find it.

"Where is the blood essence of the Ancestral Dragon?" Long Chen asked excitedly.

"It definitely isn't from the Realm of Myriad Kingdoms's side, it should be from the Imperial Domain's side." The kitten said.

"In other words, the most important thing right now is to go to the Imperial Domain." Whether it was for Ling Xi, Yang Lingqing, or the blood essence of the other ancestral dragon, Long Chen had to go to the Imperial Domain.

Thinking about it, Long Chen confirmed his belief, and his eyes burned with passion!

"Right, Little Cat, what's the name of that Ancestral Dragon? What dragon is this? " Long Chen suddenly asked.

A look of reverence appeared on the kitten's face, and it almost muttered to itself, "Since ancient times, this world has always been the same. Eternal Emperors had a long history. I believe you have already guessed it. This Ancestral Dragon is able to control time, reverse life and death, and travel through time and time, so it is the dragon of time and eternity — — Great Void Cosmic Dragon! "

Great Void Cosmic Dragon!

Hearing this name, Long Chen was deeply shocked one time.

He had guessed it before, but he didn't think that the word 'Eternal' would be used here. In the universe, there was no limit to heaven and earth, and there was no limit to time. And Great Void Cosmic Dragon s were the super strong expert who traveled between heaven and earth, who could manipulate time as he wished, an ancient almighty being!

Blood Dragon, Primordial Blood Dragon, Dragon of Time and Eternity, Great Void Cosmic Dragon! Long Chen had always thought that the name Primordial Blood Spirit Dragon was terrifying enough, but when compared to the Great Void Cosmic Dragon, it seemed to be lacking a little.

Long Chen was silent for a moment, then asked: "Little Cat, will the strength of this Ten Great Ancestor Dragon be clearly defined, compared to the Great Void Cosmic Dragon, what can the Primordial Blood Spirit Dragon do?"

The kitten said, "Ten Great Ancestor Dragon, basically, there is no difference in strength between the strong and the weak, and every one of them are at the peak of time. The difference in strength is not too far, but in comparison to the Primordial Blood Dragon, the Great Void Cosmic Dragon should be a bit superior, not to mention strong or weak, but in terms of rules of time, it should be above killing. The Primordial Blood Dragon is an Ancestral Dragon who has multiplied the rules of killing to the peak, whose name shakes the Dragon Sacrifice Continent, and it might even affect the rest of the world. These are the rules. "

Long Chen was temporarily unable to understand the term rules.

"What are rules?" Long Chen was shocked, and immediately asked.

"Rules?" In general, this world is filled with all kinds of powers, every single one of them has their own attribute, and the power of the heaven and earth is the strongest power in this world. Our power is built on the foundation of the power of the heaven and earth, for example, your true essence, if you do not have the power of the heaven and earth to supplement your true essence, you will eventually run out of true essence.

"You've said so much. What are the rules then?" Long Chen asked.
