

Warning 1011

Chapter 1011 Flirting In The Ward

Clare's POV:

Lennon probably didn't expect me to be so furious and he seemed a little surprised. He reached for my hand and held it tightly. Then he apologized profusely. "I'm really sorry, Clare. I didn't mean to get you all worked up about me. My grandfather has sent a substitute to stand in for me at work for the time being. I'll have a good rest after I hand over my work later."

"Seriously?" I was a little suspicious. "Will you seriously leave your work behind and have a good rest?"

Lennon nodded his head agreeably. "Yes! You flew all the way here to take care of me, so how can I ignore you and focus only on my work?"

He had earned my trust this time and I felt a degree of relief.

Chapter 1012 A Call From A Strange Woman

Clare's POV:

Bryce greeted Lennon and me respectfully and then introduced the middle-aged man beside him to me. "Mrs. Torres, this is Mr. Shaun Potter."

I nodded at the man politely. I was not a member of River Group, so there was no need for me to behave obsequiously.

Chapter 1013 The Truth Of Their Break-up

Kristine's POV:

After I hung up the phone, it took me a while to calm down. I wasn't expecting Clare to answer the phone.

I had been phoning Lennon these days, but he never answered. He eventually blocked me.

Even though I anticipated such an outcome, I decided to keep fighting. For this reason, I called him using my mom's phone today.

When the phone started ringing, I assumed he was willing to give me another chance, and that he still loved me.

My hope, however, was shattered the moment I realized I was actually talking to Clare.

Chapter 1014 Recuperate

Clare's POV:

Lennon was astounded. He looked me in the eye, eager to offer a proper explanation. "This woman who called me must be Kristine. She is my ex-girlfriend. We dated a few years ago."

I nodded my head and said, "I figured."

He seemed so scared. He didn't want me to misunderstand him. So he said anxiously, "But we hadn't contacted each other ever since we broke up. I have no idea why she has been trying to reach me recently. But I haven't answered any of her calls. In fact I blacklisted her. How could she still call me?"

Chapter 1015 Contemptible Ways

Clare's POV:

I was surprised to hear Kristine at the other end of the call. I didn't expect that she had my number, making me wonder how she got it.

Lennon would be the last person to hand over my contact information to her.

I was confused, thinking about how she got my number, but I didn't ask her. I wasn't interested in talking to her at all.

Chapter 1016 Something Happened To River Group

Clare's POV:

After five days, we checked out of the hospital and headed back to New York. Lennon wasn't completely recovered yet. I wanted him to remain hospitalized for a few more days. However, he stated that if he didn't return, something bad might happen. So I accompanied him back home.

I only learned on the flight back to New York that the accident that occurred in Craige had already been made public. There have recently been many criticisms leveled towards River Group.

Furthermore, some people began to wonder if there were any serious problems with the other River Group projects. The River Group stock suffered considerably.

Not until then did I realize why Lennon had to get back to New York so quickly.

Chapter 1017 Cooking Again

Clare's POV:

After work, I made a phone call to Lennon and asked, "How's everything going with you? Would you like to have dinner with me tonight?"

He replied, "Sure, but I still have some work to do. I need some more time to finish. Could you pick me up later?"

He sounded calm. Maybe he was able to resolve the matter smoothly.

After hanging up the phone, I went to the supermarket to buy some ingredients for dinner. Then, I went to Lennon's office and picked him up.

As soon as we got home, I asked him to go get some rest in the bedroom while I went to the kitchen to start cooking.

He hadn't fully recovered yet, so I was going to prepare something nutritious for him.

I wasn't that good at cooking, so when I bought some ingredients earlier, I also picked up a cookbook. I read it and followed all the procedures carefully.

Chapter 1018 Kristine's Shameless Threat

Clare's POV:

I had good conversations over the case with Neville these days, so this out-of-the-blue news left me bewildered. I obviously did not see that coming. Lifting my eyebrows in surprise, I looked at Julie and asked, "And why does Neville want to change his lawyer? Did he say something?"

Julie shrugged. "He has the information that the other party hired Cathleen. And he also somehow knows that you've lost to Cathleen multiple times, so I guess he thinks you're not strong enough to win this lawsuit against her."

Neville did not want any chance of losing this case. To win this case, I was into giving my all to compete with Cathleen. But since Neville didn't think I was capable enough, I would simply respect his decision. As a lawyer, I could see what a client wanted.

Chapter 1019 Overthinking

Clare's POV:

Kristine spoiled my mood terribly.

I took a long time to finish my work and leave for home because I was constantly distracted. I turned off my phone. So I wouldn't receive another call from Kristine. I didn't want her to mess with my head anymore. I didn't want to bring her negativity home.

I wanted to call and ask Lennon if he needed me to pick him up on the way, but since he had been busy recently, it didn't feel right to disturb him. Instead, I went home directly.

But what met my eyes when I entered the living room of our home was unexpected. Lennon was sitting on the sofa with the TV remote in one hand. As far as I remember, watching TV was not his kind of thing, so it felt weird to see him there.

A bright smile appeared on his lips as his eyes fell on me. He stopped the TV immediately and walked over to hug me. "Welcome home, Clare."

Chapter 1020 Solve The Problem With A Call

Clare's POV:

I could tell from the look in Lennon's eyes that he was disappointed. He probably thought I didn't believe him, so I hurriedly shook my head and said, "I didn't mean it like that. I just don't want to bother you. I know you've been stressed out lately, so I hope you can have a good rest after work. Try not to stress yourself out too much."
