

Watch Out 371

Chapter 371: rolling (1)

As soon as song qingxiao's words fell, Luo zhiyu felt a wave of killing intent. The killing intent was so cold that it gave him goosebumps, and it made him feel a deep fear from the inside.

She clearly knew that she had already entered the trial and her strength had increased, but her attitude was still so unyielding. This surprised Luo Wu.

He saw the smile on song qingxiao's face. There seemed to be a flash of silver in her eyes.

A line of sight locked onto him. He was like a prey being targeted by a ferocious beast, and that feeling made him shudder.

Number five made a prompt decision. He stopped walking toward song qingxiao and turned around.

'Wuwu-'

At the stairs, a silver beast slowly walked out. Its hair was standing on end. It was elegant and dangerous. This was Luo Wu's first impression.

It was a huge 'dog', but it was more than twice the size of the dog he knew. Its hair stood up like steel needles, and its sharp teeth glinted coldly. Song Qing and Xiao Zeng's words suddenly came to his mind, 'I have a dog ...' Guard the house..."

When number five heard her mention this, he didn't think much of it. But now, he felt as if his heart was being tightly clenched, and he didn't even dare to breathe.

The 'dog' had a pair of shimmering eyes, and its four sharp claws were already exposed. It grinned, revealing its white fangs.

With every step it took, its claws gently touched the ground, making a soft sound. The closer it got to him, the stronger the sense of danger.

Luo Wu was locked in place by its gaze and could not help but take a step back in song qingxiao's direction!

He didn't expect that he would be defeated by a 'dog'! What kind of 'dog' was this? he could actually feel a killing intent from its eyes.

This kind of aura was not something that a pet could have! As an ability user, Luo Wu had participated in several trials, but not only had he failed to suppress this 'dog', but he had also been suppressed by its aura.

Luo zhiyu's heart began to beat wildly. The situation had reversed. He had thought that victory was in his hands when he came, but he had been intercepted by song qingxiao because of his carelessness!

"Do you think that a dog can kill me?"

At this point, Luo zhiyu was a little apprehensive, but he refused to admit defeat verbally. He still forced himself to remain calm.

"Qing Xiao, aren't you looking down on me too much?"

As he spoke, the 'dog' was still walking in his direction. When it heard him mention the word 'dog', the silver' dog 'squinted its eyes, and the fur on its face was pulled out, making it look even more murderous.

It pressed down with its forelimbs and kicked off with its hind legs, and its huge body rose into the air. Its fluffy fur trembled in the strong wind, and Luo zhiyu had never expected this 'dog' to pounce on him so easily.

The killing intent had already arrived and locked his Qi. Luo Wu's vision blurred and the foul wind mixed with the Wolf's howl had already arrived.

The speed, the claws, the momentum, and the shape of the body didn't look like a dog at all. The fighting spirit and the fierce look made it obvious that song qingxiao had a Wolf with her!

Today, the pets that the rich kept were no longer limited to cats and dogs. It was not strange for the aristocrats to domesticate beasts.

However, most of the pets that could be tamed had lost most of their bestiality, killing intent, and wild instincts. Where did song qingxiao get this majestic Wolf?

At this critical moment, Luo Wu's reaction was not slow. He suddenly recalled the two dead experts from the hidden clans on the autumn road!

The two men were powerful. When they were discovered, one of them was killed by a beast. His throat was bitten, and the other was smashed into meat paste. In the beginning, Luo Wu did not suspect song qingxiao even when he found out that the name card he gave her had been left at the scene.

At most, they would speculate that song qingxiao was somehow involved in this case and had something to do with the underworld family.

After all, Luo Wu only had a superficial knowledge of the underworld clans. However, he knew that they had extraordinary strength and were not to be trifled with.

He and song qingxiao were only newbies in the divine trials. In front of a group of behemoths like the underworld clan, they were like ants. They avoided them like the plague, so how could they kill people?

However, when the silver Wolf pounced on him at lightning speed, Luo Wu's pupils contracted as he recalled the neck of the hidden clan's expert that had almost been bitten off!

Those two people were killed by song Qing!

His judgment was wrong!

This Silver Wolf was able to kill the people of the underworld clan. No wonder it had such a strong aura. He was no match for the silver Wolf at the moment.

Luo Wu wasn't stupid. Once he understood this crucial point, he didn't even have the courage to resist. He turned around and ran away without hesitation.

He had just moved when he heard a cold female voice.

"Painting the ground..."

This sentence was vaguely familiar, as if he had heard it somewhere before.

The thought flashed through Luo Wu's mind, but he did not have the time to think about it. The moment song qingxiao's voice came out, the air around him became thin and the temperature dropped. It was so cold that his hair stood on end! It was as if an invisible mountain was pressing down on him, trapping him!

To his horror, he realized that his body seemed to be bound and was not listening to his commands.

His raised foot stopped in mid-air, and a heavy chill locked him down. The silver Wolf's pouncing body brought about a strong wind, and its front paw pressed on his shoulder, pressing him down!

in a flash, Luo Wu did not even notice that song qingxiao had yet to finish her incantation before he was pounced on by the silver Wolf with the force of Mount Tai.

The Wolf's sharp claws pierced into his body and grabbed him firmly, causing Luo Wu's veins to pop out.

It opened its mouth and spat out a foul wind, causing Luo Wu's face to hurt as if it was being pricked by needles.

Its eyes were glowing with a faint golden color due to the intense killing intent.

Its fangs were extremely long and sharp. Luo Wu had no doubt that half of his neck would be bitten off if he were to be bitten.

The teeth were still two or three inches away from Luo zhiyu's neck, but his neck was already shivering. All of his strength had been drained by the silver Wolf's ferocity, and he could only instinctively reach out to grab the Wolf's fur and punch it while enduring the pain.

However, the Wolf's fur was extremely thick and strong. Perhaps it was due to his injury, but the punch had no strength at all. It was offset by the Wolf's thick fur, as if it had no effect on it at all.

"Qing Xiao!" In the moment of despair, Luo Wu's pores loosened, and a large amount of cold sweat oozed out of his body. He screamed,

"Save me!"

"Guh..." His voice was hoarse, like the tone of a broken old bellow that had changed color. It was also trembling, but number five could not care so much at this time.

The moment he shouted, the silver Wolf's action of biting down paused, and its wide-open mouth stopped at his neck.

As the fangs were pressed against Luo Wu's neck, his carotid artery was throbbing violently. It was as if the skin on his neck would scratch the sharp fangs with every throb, causing a sharp pain.

That was not an illusion. He should really have been injured. The sharpness of the Wolf's teeth far exceeded his imagination.

The sharp fangs cut through his skin, and he could feel his blood flowing out. His body was still trembling.

At this moment, Luo Wu felt that this was the closest he had ever been to death!

Chapter 372: Venomous fangs (1)

The silver Wolf's claws were so sharp that they almost pierced through Luo Wu's shoulders, and it lifted his upper body up.

His carotid artery was still beating crazily. Luo Wu was gasping for breath. He was scared out of his wits and did not even dare to shout too loudly. He was afraid that his voice would agitate the wolf. The Wolf's animal instinct was triggered and it lowered its head to bite him.

"Qing Xiao..."

When Luo Wu saw the wolf, he felt that it was dangerous. However, he never dreamed that he would not be able to fight against the wolf in one round. He did not even have the power to fight back.

He had given up all thoughts of resistance and only hoped to beg for mercy from song qingxiao."Save me ..."

He was being stepped on by the silver Wolf. The huge Wolf King almost covered his entire body. The wolf lowered its head and opened its mouth wide, but it did not close it. It had completely suppressed him with a crushing victory.

This was the second time song qingxiao had seen the silver Wolf attack after she had brought it out of the trial space on the demon Island and watched it bite the man from the underworld clan to death.

Luo Wu was a trial tester and had been in the trial at least three times. He must have had something to rely on since he dared to come here today. However, none of these means worked in front of the silver Wolf. It was enough to show that the silver Wolf's injuries from the flood Dragon on the island had fully recovered.

"Save you?" She took a step towards number five and said, ""Why should I save you?"

As soon as she moved, the silver Wolf, which had its head lowered, slowly raised its head and turned to one side, revealing one eye. It had a threatening look on its face and let out a low growl.

It was warning song qingxiao not to act rashly! Luo Wu was its spoils of war, so song qingxiao's action was a provocation to it.

Song Qing's little fingers secretly formed a seal to guard against it. He tried to take another step forward. This time, the silver Wolf finally turned its head and showed its fangs.

"Come here." Song qingxiao saw its fierce appearance and immediately stopped. She opened her mouth and called out, but the wolf was still grinning.

After it moved its mouth away, Luo Wu, who was lying on the ground, heaved a sigh of relief. He took the opportunity to gather his strength and propped up his upper body to escape.

However, just as he raised his head a little, the silver Wolf, which was looking at song qingxiao, pressed its furry ears down. As if it had sensed his movement, its claws pressed down slightly, and Luo Wu was pressed back to the ground with a bang.

The back of Luo Wu's head hit the ground heavily, making him dizzy. Before he could cry out in pain, he felt the silver Wolf's claws scratch him deeper, causing him so much pain that his veins popped.

"Wuuu..."

The silver Wolf howled in a low voice. Song Qing frowned as he had underestimated the Wolf's unyielding attitude.

Zhou ye and the others were still upstairs. Today was not a good time to kill Luo Wu as the commotion was too big. Unless she killed everyone to silence them, it would attract too much attention.

She thought for a moment and made a thin cut on her palm with her nail. Blood oozed out. The wolf, who was grimacing, sniffed. After smelling the blood, his eyes immediately changed.

"Come here!"

She ordered again and tried to approach the silver Wolf. The wolf no longer showed an expression of being offended like before, but licked the corner of its mouth.

Song qingjiang shook his hand and the blood in his palm flew out. The silver Wolf was like an arrow, leaving Luo Wu behind and flying out. It accurately swallowed the drop of blood into its throat. After a flash, it jumped into the corner of the stairs, its tail drew a beautiful silver Line, and its figure disappeared without a trace.

All of this happened so quickly that poor Luo Wu was left behind by the silver Wolf before he could even react.

Perhaps it was because the noise downstairs was too loud, Zhou ye anxiously stuck half of his body out from the railing on the second floor, miss song, what happened?"

The moment he came out, the silver Wolf had disappeared. The air was filled with a sense of danger. Before he appeared, song qingxiao had already moved in front of Luo Wu and squatted down to block him. Hearing his question, she looked up and laughed,

"I'm fine. Mr. Luo just fell."

As she spoke, her fingers were still strangling Luo Wu's throat.

"I'm fine." Luo zhiyu wasn't stupid, so he naturally went along with what she said. Zhou ye had only come out to take a look when he heard the sound of the fall, but when he saw that both of them said they were fine, he remembered that Luo Wu had told him not to disturb his 'conversation' with song qingxiao, so he naturally didn't dare to ask any more questions.

"I told you it had nothing to do with me, but you didn't believe me. Now you're calling for help.. Why do you have to do this?"

Chapter 373: Venomous fangs (2)

Song qingxiao stared at him coldly. Luo Wu's face was pale. After escaping from death, his face was covered with a layer of black gas. It was not known whether it was from the pain, fear, or anger after hearing her words. His hands and feet were shaking.

There were several wounds on both sides of his shoulders, which had been scratched by the silver wolves. There were also several cuts on the side of his neck, but none of them were fatal. However, Luo Wu's face was still very ugly, and his lips were faintly purple.

"Indeed, it has nothing to do with you." One had no choice but to bow his head when he was under someone else's roof, and Luo zhiyu's greatest strength was that he knew how to adapt to the situation.

At this point, even though he was certain that song qingxiao was the one who killed the two underworld clans, and one of them was definitely killed by a Wolf, he would never dare to say that in front of song qingxiao.

"I've misunderstood," His life was in song Qing's hands. Although Zhou ye and the others were upstairs, they were just ordinary people. If song Qing wanted to kill him, they wouldn't be able to do anything.

Luo zhiyu began to regret his arrogance in the beginning. He had thought that it would be easy to kill song qingxiao after entering the trial space again and obtaining some benefits. As a result, he had not brought many useful helpers.

Judging from the current situation, she didn't know where her 'pet' came from. Even if he brought help, it wouldn't be of much use.

He didn't dare to play any more tricks. At this time, he only wanted to save his life first, so he said whatever was good,"

Qing Xiao, don't worry. I've already dealt with the matter at the autumn road. The person who picked up the name card can't speak again. He won't sell you out.

He endured the pain and swallowed his saliva. I just want to be friends with you, but I used the wrong method. Why don't you be magnanimous and let me go like a fart?"

This Luo zhiyu was indeed a figure who knew when to yield and when to extend. When he was proud, he was arrogant, but once he lost power, he didn't care about his face anymore. He tried his best to beg and say anything.

Song qingxiao couldn't help but think of the mental hospital scene. When he saw the big man with the gun, he also lowered his voice like this.

She couldn't help but laugh. Luo Wu chuckled when he saw her laugh.

don't worry, I won't tell anyone about what happened today. We've gone through thick and thin together, and we're on the same team. You can just teach me a lesson and let it go, right? "

The situation immediately reversed. Song qingxiao looked at him calmly, her hands still around his neck.

"You're not going to tell me? Why should I believe you?"

Luo Wu was not afraid of her talking, but he was afraid of her not talking. When he heard her speak, he was suddenly invigorated and quickly said,"

“Think about it, I do have a bit of money, but what is it in the eyes of those bastards from the reclusive family? He’s just a nobody that they can fight and kill as they please.”

He was a smart person. From the moment song qingxiao killed the underworld clan’s people, he was sure that she had some kind of enmity with the underworld clan. As he spoke, he tried to curse the underworld clan in order to please song qingxiao. He also secretly pointed out that he and she were on the same team and that they were both insignificant people in the eyes of the underworld clan. He tried to resonate with song qingxiao and let him live.

This person’s strength was average, but his mind was really flexible and his schemes were deep. He couldn’t be underestimated.

if this matter is exposed, that business card is mine. I won’t be able to escape responsibility. Why do I have to get myself into trouble?”

Song qingxiao had said this in the previous conversation, but now Wu Luo was trying to persuade her.

“It’s better to avoid trouble. I can’t wait to keep my mouth shut.”

As he spoke, he looked at song qingxiao’s expression, but to his disappointment, he could not see any joy or anger on her face. Her eyes were like two deep abysses, unfathomable.

Luo Wu was a little disappointed, but he continued,”

“I swear, I really just want a promise from you. I hope that if there’s a chance, I can ask you for a favor. I really didn’t want to talk nonsense. Believe me, Qing Xiao. If you spare my dog life, I will repay you. If you need my help in the future, I will definitely help!”

He saw that song qingxiao was unmoved by his words and quickly added, “”Right, aren’t you short on money? I have it! The money from your mother’s nursing home, the house, anything you want, as long as you make a request!”

Chapter 374: Venomous fangs (3)

Song Qing slightly raised the corner of her mouth and slowly moved her hand away from his neck. When she rubbed the wound on his neck, she used a little force, causing Luo Wu to have goosebumps.

Her fingertips were extremely soft and cold, as if they did not have a trace of warmth. Even without looking, Luo Wu could guess the curve of her slender fingers.

However, he did not have any other thoughts at the moment. Instead, he felt that the finger was extremely cold, like a sharp dagger that could cut his throat in the next moment.

When he grabbed his wound, he remembered the feeling of the Wolf's teeth pressing against his throat. It made his heart tighten and the hair on his back stand up.

The wolf had already left, but the fear it gave him still dominated him, making him feel like there was a pair of eyes staring at him from behind.

"Qing Xiao ..." He spoke in a panic. Song Qing's small fingertips stopped at his wound and pressed a little harder. A trace of blood seeped out of the wound that had not yet formed a scab.

Luo Wu felt a sharp pain on his neck, but he did not dare to struggle. He only called out carefully, "Qing Xiao ..."

The color of the blood was a little off. Song Qingxiao ignored him and rubbed the blood on her fingertips.

The slightly sticky blood was rubbed away by her, and the edges were blue. It looked like she had been poisoned.

She let go of her hand and slowly stood up. Luo Wu heaved a sigh of relief. He looked as if he had just escaped death. He also wanted to get up.

“Don’t be happy too soon.” Song qingxiao rubbed her fingers and looked at his happy face. She said,”

“If I were you, I wouldn’t have the time to talk nonsense. After all, life is more important than anything else.”

Luo Wu was stunned for a moment. Just as he was about to ask her what she meant, song qingxiao was obviously not going to talk about this anymore. Luo zhiyu’s expression was uncertain. As if he had thought of something, he raised one hand with great effort to touch his throat.

Song qingxiao had touched that part of his body before, and he felt that there was a deeper meaning to her words.

The wound on his neck was not big, as if it had been cut by a thin knife. However, to Luo Wu’s surprise, blood kept flowing.

“Oh, that’s right.”

While Luo Wu was still in a state of shock, song qingxiao suddenly spoke. He looked up and saw song qingxiao turn her head.

“Don’t forget the money you said you would give me.”

“I won’t.”

The corner of his mouth twitched. Just as he was about to say something, he stumbled and hit the corner of the sofa. If he had not grabbed the sofa in a hurry, he would have fallen to the ground on the spot.

Luo zhiyu was taken aback. He had only suffered a ‘small injury’. Even if he had been overly shocked, he should not have been so useless.

His gaze fell between his fingers. After he had covered his neck, his palm was stained with some blood that flowed between his fingers. The color of the blood was enchanting and completely different from normal blood.

Only then did he understand what song qingxiao meant by that sentence. The Wolf's fangs might be poisonous!

Luo Wu wanted to curse in his heart. He did not say another word and immediately clawed at his neck. His nails tore off a piece of flesh that had been cut by the silver Wolf. Blood gushed out. He pressed the wound and sat down cross-legged.

Song qingxiao turned to look at him, smiled, and did not say anything.

Luo Wu's blood on her fingertips had dried up. When she brought it to her nose, she smelled a fishy smell. That kind of fishy smell was not purely the smell of blood, but mixed with something else.

Luo Wu should not have been poisoned. After he found out that he was poisoned, he acted in a hurry. It did not seem like he was pretending. The poison was in his throat, which was cut by the silver Wolf.

The fangs were poisonous, but where did the poison come from?

Her eyes fell on the direction where the silver Wolf had disappeared and she thought for a moment. If the silver Wolf's genes had mutated and it had the function of poisonous fangs during the evolution process, why was she not poisoned when she was bitten by the silver Wolf when she left demon Island?

If the silver Wolf's original fangs were not poisonous, then when did it get the heaven-defying ability of these poisonous fangs?

She remembered the last night at the trial scene on the demon Island. When the silver Wolf attacked the Wurm, it was bitten by the Wurm. In the end, the venomous fangs were broken in its body, but after it recovered, the fangs disappeared without a trace.

She had also been bitten by a flood Dragon before, but because of the evolution potion and flood dragon's blood in her body, she was not afraid of the poison.

When the silver Wolf bit her, it drank her blood and absorbed the dragon's Fang. With the evolution of its genes, it turned the function of the dragon's poisonous Fang into its own use.

If this was the case, it would explain the poison on Luo Wu's neck.

The silver Wolf was the king of genetic mutation. It was already very powerful, and after absorbing the dragon's venomous fangs, it was like a tiger with wings.. If she could take the silver Wolf for her own use, then she would have one more powerful help when she was in trouble!

Chapter 375: Deterrence (1)

Luo Wu's body glowed with red light. In a few seconds, the temperature around him rose rapidly. His clothes were smoking under the high temperature, but Song Qingxiao did not feel any fluctuation of spiritual power. It should be a special skill, similar to the ability of number three in the Zombie's revenge scene.

The poison he was inflicted with should not be light. Otherwise, with this person's cautious nature, it was impossible for him to take the risk and reveal his skills in such a situation!

Song Qingxiao watched coldly as white mist rose from Luo Wu's body. His face turned from green to red, and the blood that had just gushed out of the wound on his neck was burned to ashes by the high temperature, giving off a pungent smell.

But even so, the blood from the wound did not stop, it only slowed down the speed at which it was flowing out.

Two or three minutes later, the sofa beside him started to spark due to the rising temperature. Song Qingxiao saw this and immediately pressed her hand on the sofa.

With her palm as the center, a layer of ice spread rapidly and quickly put out the flame created by Luo Wu. The surface of the sofa was covered with a layer of ice crystals, and the temperature that had just risen dropped again.

Luo Wu's cheeks were swollen. He could feel the change in the temperature around him. He forced his eyes open to take a look. What he saw made his eyes Twitch.

The sofa was cold, but it was not affected by his body temperature. The cold passed through Luo Wu's skin and almost reached his heart.

He turned his wrist, and in the blink of an eye, a pill the size of a peanut appeared in his palm. He stuffed the pill into his mouth without any hesitation and swallowed it without chewing. A few seconds later, the bleeding on his neck gradually stopped. The medicine should have taken effect temporarily.

Song qingxiao saw that his face was slowly swelling. He let out a long breath and the red light on his body disappeared. Number five staggered and grabbed the sofa to stand up. He touched the wound on his throat.

The wound there had temporarily formed a scab, but the area cut by the silver Wolf's teeth still had a thin Purple Line. It was likely that the poison had not been completely eliminated, but at least his life should be temporarily saved.

Luo Wu should know this in his heart. He smiled bitterly and said,"

"Qing Xiao, what poison is this? it's so powerful." His voice was hoarse, as if he had lost a lot of strength. When he spoke to song qingxiao, although he still called her by her name, his attitude was completely different from before.

It was respectful, cautious, and also mixed with a trace of suppressed anger.

Today, he tried to steal a chicken but failed and lost the rice. He almost lost his life, but at this time, he could not vent his anger and could not speak of his suffering.

“Snake venom.” Song Qing looked down on him but did not hide it from him.

Luo Wu did not expect to hear such an answer. He was stunned for a moment, snake venom? How is that possible?”

“It’s up to you to believe it or not.” It was the silver Wolf that had bitten him, but the poison he had been poisoned by should have something to do with the snake’s fangs. It was just that the silver Wolf might have evolved its poison again in the process of evolution.

She was telling the truth. If Luo Wu didn’t believe her, she couldn’t do anything.

Luo zhiyu’s eyes flickered when he heard her words. No one knew if he believed her in the end, but he didn’t ask any more questions.

He did not speak, but song qingxiao said,” by the way, my sofa almost caught on fire. You have to help me fix it.

Luo zhiyu held his breath. The cost of this sofa was nothing to him. However, he was poisoned and his life was not completely saved. Song qingxiao had already started to urge him to pay more, which made Luo Wu furious.

However, he was very shrewd and swallowed his anger after a long while. He gritted his teeth and squeezed out a smile.

“That’s what I should do.”

After he said that, he didn’t want to stay in this place for another minute. He raised his wrist to look at his watch. The watch had been burned by the high temperature of his body and had stopped moving, which made him upset again.

it's getting late. I'll transfer the fees to your account later. If there's nothing else, I'll take my leave.

As he said this, he glanced at song qingxiao's expression. She didn't look like she was going to stop him. Luo Wu endured the pain and tried to take off his coat. He covered the wounds on his neck and shoulders and took a step towards the door. She stood there without moving.

He was still a little worried about the wolf from before. He didn't know where it was hiding and when it would come out again.

At this moment, Luo zhiyu hated this kind of involuntary situation. He had only taken two steps, but he was still trembling in fear. Although song qingxiao did not move, the previous shocking scene had left a deep shadow in his heart.

He thought for a moment, then raised his head and shouted again,"

"Zhou ye!"

This was the first time that Zhou ye did not agree. He was a little anxious and raised his voice,

"Zhou ye! Zhou ye!"

"I'll say goodbye to him and leave first," he said to song qingxiao with a smile.

As soon as he finished speaking, Zhou ye appeared at the railing on the second floor again. He looked at him and said," young master Luo? "

I have something to do, so I'll be leaving first. You have to pay more attention to miss song and take care of the matter!

Luo zhiyu forced himself to give a few instructions, and Zhou ye agreed to them.

He didn't look too good. Zhou ye didn't know what he had said to song qingxiao, but he didn't dare to ask Luo zhiyu when he saw his strange expression.

With Zhou ye keeping an eye on him, Luo zhiyu quickly walked to the door and left without looking back.

Luo zhiyu's anxious heart finally settled down after he left the room. Song qingxiao couldn't see his current expression, so he dared to pull a long face to reveal his terrible mood.

Today was truly an unlucky day. He was overjoyed when he came, but now, his chagrin and regret multiplied.

The loss of money was secondary, and the failure of his original plans was nothing. The key was that he was lucky to not die, but he was poisoned.

This poison was extremely difficult to deal with, and his special ability could not get rid of it. Moreover, the pills that he had exchanged for at a high price in the trial space had no effect.

He then thought of song qingxiao's previous abilities. He had awakened the fire element, which was supposed to counter song qingxiao's 'ice element'. However, his fire was completely suppressed in front of her. This was enough to prove that song qingxiao's abilities were far beyond his expectations.

No wonder she was so calm and composed. It was clear that after the trial at the mental hospital, she had entered the trial space again and obtained some benefits!

Luo Wu stood there for a moment. When he thought of the wolf again, he shivered. He had a feeling that the wolf was secretly watching him from somewhere in the villa, and he did not dare to stay any longer.

He rushed out as if he was escaping from a disaster. After a while, a car parked outside made a loud engine sound and then drove away like a whirlwind.

The situation was not in her favor, and Luo Wu was not very reliable.

He should have guessed that the people from the underworld clans had died in his hands, but because of his strength, he was forced to hold back. Once he thought that he had the situation under control, it was very likely that he would counterattack.

It wasn't that she didn't think of killing him to silence him, but it was currently broad daylight and Luo Wu had come with Zhou ye and the others, so it wasn't easy for her to do so.

He could have used the silver Wolf to track him, but he had been here before, and then something had happened to him. Moreover, he had died in the same way as Zhao Xian, so it was easy to leave clues.

Moreover, she might not be able to guide the silver Wolf as she wished, so she could only let Luo Wu go for the time being.

Fortunately, he was poisoned. In addition, he was also involved in the deaths of Zhao Xian and song qingxiao. He should be thinking of a way to get rid of the poison before he could get rid of himself. He would not have the time to cause trouble for song qingxiao. This also bought song qingxiao some time.

But no matter what, she was afraid that it would be difficult to stay in this villa that she had just bought for a long time. She had to find another safe and secretive place to stay!

She couldn't continue with her work in the guard Hall. She had to complete all the plans before Luo Wu retaliated.

It was a pity that she was not strong enough. Otherwise, she would not have to hide here and there at this time. However, when she became strong enough, she would not let go of the man who tried to assassinate her in the alley that day, number six who coveted her dagger, the reclusive family who wanted to kill her, and Qian Shan who had appeared in the autumn Festival road..

Chapter 376: Reminiscing (1)

Zhou ye and the others were busy the whole afternoon and finished repairing the door and windows. When song qingxiao was about to pay the fees, Zhou ye smiled and said,

“Young master Luo has already paid.”

He had been on tenterhooks for the entire afternoon, sweating profusely. Fortunately, as song qingxiao had said, nothing strange happened. However, it was inevitable that he would look tired after being so tense for a long time.

He forced himself to focus and looked around.”! didn’t see miss song’s pet.”

“It found a place to rest by itself.” Song qingxiao replied. Zhou ye was a little disappointed,”! still want to take a look.”

After he said this, he saw song Qing chuckling. He didn’t know what was going on, so he laughed as well.”What’s wrong?”

Song qingxiao endured it again and again.

“Luo zhiyu did see it just now.”

“That’s a real pity!” Zhou ye let out a long sigh, which made song Qing laugh again. He then continued, I saw that the door and windows were extremely sturdy and had been specially treated. Miss song’s pet must be very powerful to be able to break it.

Song qingxiao was still laughing because of his sigh. Luo Wu’s current mood was probably the complete opposite of Zhou ye’s. He was probably envious that Zhou ye and the others did not see the appearance of the terrifying Silver Wolf.

“But if there’s a chance in the future, see you.” Zhou ye looked at the time. I still have something to do, miss song. We’ll take our leave first.

Song qingxiao nodded. Before she saw them out, she remembered the glass bead and reminded him again to deliver it to Mrs. Sun's ex-husband. Zhou ye agreed to her request.

After the few of them left, Zhou ye had just gotten into the car when the driver asked, ""Mr. Zhou, do I send you home directly?"

The workers had been busy for the entire afternoon and were all very tired. Zhou ye had stayed in the haunted room for a long time and was a little exhausted at this time.

When the man who was driving asked, he was about to nod and agree, but for some reason, he remembered that before he left, song Qing had told him to deliver this to Ms. Sun's ex-husband as soon as possible.

This item should be very 'important'. Her relationship with Luo zhiyu seemed to be' more solid 'than he had imagined. Zhou ye thought for a moment and said,

"Let's not go back yet. We'll talk after we've delivered the things miss song asked us to."

After they left, song qingxiao released her divine sense. Originally, it was to protect them as she was worried that the silver Wolf would hurt them. However, she heard the conversation between Zhou ye and the others in the car clearly. When she heard that Zhou ye had sent the ghost away in time, the corners of her mouth curled up.

That night, song qingxiao received three million Yuan from Luo Wu. At the same time, she received a call from the sanatorium, saying that someone had paid for her mother's expenses for a year. Luo Wu was a man of his word.

The next few days were calm and Luo Wu should have managed to keep his life. Otherwise, Zhou ye would have sent some news over.

He didn't have the chance to talk nonsense for the time being. The poison in his body was enough to make him suffer.

During this period of time, song qingxiao spent most of her time cultivating at home, other than going out to look for other hiding places.

Her strength was really too weak, and the state of enlightenment was only an entry-level ladder in cultivation. She still had a long way to go.

Half a month passed by in a flash. She had already stabilized her state of enlightenment and often practiced the nine-word secret order. Her mastery of this secret skill was far better than before.

During this time, she also visited the imperial capital. There were heavenly eyes everywhere, and the security surveillance of the Empire was everywhere. This made her plan of hiding in the world basically impossible.

Although she had stepped into the threshold of cultivation, she could sense the position and number of heavenly eyes these days. She could hide if she wanted to, but there would always be a slip-up.

In particular, her enemy was not an ordinary person, but a reclusive family, an unknown existence from 'outer space'. A little negligence could lead to a disaster.

After thinking about it, song qingxiao hesitated. Should she leave the capital for the time being to avoid the underworld family?

The reason why she had stayed here in the past was only because of Tang Yun's obsession. She wanted to wait for her 'father' to return.

In fact, she didn't have any extra concerns about this place. After stepping on the road of God's trial, she had even cut off everything from the past.

She didn't have any good friends, classmates, or a mother. But as long as she didn't get caught, number six wouldn't do anything to her before he forced her out.

After making up her mind, song qingxiao received a call before she could even think about where to go.

The call was from Captain an. It had been nearly a month since he was seriously injured that night and almost lost his life. His condition was finally stable.

After he had stabilized his condition, he gave song qingxiao a call, hoping to meet her.

Song qingxiao was actually a little hesitant when she received the call.

That day, she had saved Captain an's life only because she had been touched by Captain an's courage when they were facing Qian Shan. It was just a small effort, and she had never thought of dealing with him again.

Especially after she decided to leave the capital and not work in the guard Bureau, Captain an and the others were almost the same to her. She might not have any contact with them in the future.

This was an extremely dangerous moment for song qingxiao. Luo Wu had already found out that she had killed two men from the underworld clan. The longer she stayed here, the more dangerous her situation would be.

Moreover, on the night that Qian Shan appeared, the fact that she had met with Qian Shan but didn't die was exposed, which was also a problem. Captain an's invitation came just as she was about to leave the capital, and the timing seemed to be perfect. She didn't know if it was intentional or a coincidence.

If he wanted to, he couldn't avoid what was coming.

If it was a coincidence, and Captain an really just wanted to see her, then she might be able to ask Captain an for some help in leaving the capital.

Based on these considerations, she agreed to Captain an's request to meet her.

Captain an was still staying in the Imperial hospital, which was next to the University of Science and Technology. It was the center of the Imperial City's streets, and Royal guards could be seen patrolling the streets.

Song qingxiao walked over early in the morning. She stood at the entrance of the University of Science and Technology for a long time, looking up and staring at the sign for a long time.

It was very early, so there were not many cars going in and out of the school gate. Inside the school gate, students with materials in their hands could be vaguely seen passing by the campus.

"You're much better." She read it seriously and didn't even turn her head when she suddenly spoke.

"I didn't expect to disturb you," Captain an's voice rang out.

Song qingxiao shook her head. When she turned around, she saw Captain an standing about five or six steps away from her. His face was pale and his body was thin.

In fact, she had already sensed Captain an's presence when he came over, even though he had tried his best to hide his presence to avoid disturbing her.

"You like this place?"

He was much thinner compared to the one in song qingxiao's memory. It seemed that qianshan's finger had hurt him greatly. Even though he had survived, he seemed to have aged more than twenty years. His back was not as straight as before.

"When I was young, I wanted to study here." If it was in the past, she would not have said such words, as she would definitely be ridiculed for not knowing the immensity of heaven and earth.

However, now that he had strength, he naturally said these words and no longer had the previous cowardly thoughts.

She was like a butterfly that was slowly transforming, waiting to break out of its cocoon. When she flapped her wings, the sky was high and the sea was wide. In the future, she would be able to roam freely.

on my first day at the guard Station, the first case I received that required personal attention was over there.

After she started, she was willing to say a few words. She turned around and pointed in a direction. On one side of the Imperial City was the West Street. One was inside and the other was outside. It was like the difference between heaven and hell.

She didn't look very excited, but Captain an could hear the undercurrent under her calm expression. His expression was complicated. Following her words, he thought of the difficult situation she had been in when she had first entered the guard Station. It was more or less related to his prejudice against her.

At that time, he only wanted to push a 'black sheep' like her out of his team, but he didn't expect that there would be a time when he would make a wrong judgment, and even more so, he didn't expect that one day, his life would be saved by this girl that he had once looked down on..

Chapter 377: destination (1)

Captain an was wearing loose clothes. Perhaps it was because he had lost too much blood essence after his injury, but he was so thin that he was out of shape. The clothes seemed empty on him.

There seemed to be something hidden at the side of his waist that was moving slightly.

He was silent. He must have felt guilty, but song qingxiao no longer cared about her past.

She smiled and glanced at Captain an. "His life is safe."

With a sweep of her divine sense, she could 'see' Captain an's condition at a glance. There was a weak aura hidden by his waist, which should be a living thing.

His body was equipped with a sensor, probably because it was related to the people from 'beyond the heavens'. The Shi family had saved his life, but his internal organs were severely damaged. Even if he was alive, it would have a great impact on his future. His tendons and vessels were in disorder, and his body was severely damaged. It would be difficult to recover to the extent it had in the past.

"Yes, I am." Captain an wanted to say something but stopped himself. Perhaps he wanted to thank her, but this was the Shi family's territory. His lips moved, but in the end, he did not say anything.

In fact, he still had a lot of questions in his heart. For example, who exactly was song qingxiao? who was the man who appeared on autumn road that night? how did song qingxiao escape from Qian Shan's hands and save his life? and so on...

But in the end, these words turned into silence after they met and were hidden in his heart.

After he was rescued and found out that he was the only one who was found at the scene of the autumn Festival road, he knew that song qingxiao did not want to be exposed.

Captain an wasn't stupid. He recalled the scene after the incident. When they were facing Qian Shan, song qingxiao was much calmer than him. When he attacked Qian Shan, song qingxiao's grab was extremely crucial. The imperial family's doctor once said that the power of the mysterious person's finger at the autumn Festival road wasn't real. Otherwise, he wouldn't have been able to save her even if he was a God.

"It's just that the future can't be the same as before." There was a tree-lined Avenue between the University of Science and Technology and the Imperial hospital that led directly to the forest Park.

The two of them walked along the main road in the direction of the park. Captain an was still recovering from his injuries, so he walked and stopped. Song qingxiao didn't rush him. She accompanied him for a few steps and then stopped to rest.

because of this, I might have gotten a blessing in disguise. I might have been transferred to the eastern city guard Department as the Head of the Department. He twitched the corner of his mouth and revealed a smile."It's considered a promotion."

When he said that he would be promoted, there was not much joy on his face. Instead, he looked a little disappointed.

However, this melancholy expression did not stay on his face for long. After a while, he collected his emotions and asked song qingxiao,”

“And you?”

“He’s been fired,” Song qingxiao was calm, but Captain an was speechless.

Compared to his ‘promotion’ treatment, she was really too miserable. Captain an knew the reason why she was fired. It was probably related to her negligence on duty during her ‘patrol’ at Autumn Festival road that night.

However, Captain an knew a little about her background and didn’t think that she had to take up the job at the guard Hall.

Captain an’s eyelids twitched when he thought of how the other people in the guard Station had ostracized and bullied her. In fact, after confirming that song qingxiao had survived the mysterious man’s attack that night, Captain an knew that she was far more dangerous than he had expected.

It was no wonder that when they were patrolling the autumn road in the middle of the night, everyone else was afraid, but she was the only one who didn’t change her expression.

“What are your plans after this?”

Captain an asked casually. He didn’t expect song qingxiao to answer.

A person like her walked a completely different path from him. It was uncertain if they would meet again in the future. Today’s meeting might be the last time the two of them would contact each other.

“I might rest for a while and walk around,”

Song qingxiao didn't hide it from him. Since Captain an was willing to hide it for her in front of the Shi family, he might not tell her even if she revealed her whereabouts.

Even if he wanted to say that he didn't have any specific plans now, it would be difficult for him to give a reason.

"Rest?"

Captain an was taken aback. After song qingxiao nodded, he furrowed his brows, as if he understood her intention.

"That's good." He turned his head and looked around. There were not many people on the boulevard, but perhaps the two had already reached the edge of the forest Park. The air around them was excellent. He could smell the fragrance of flowers and trees, and he could hear the chirping of birds. It felt like he was far away from the hustle and bustle of the world.

He dragged his legs and walked to the middle of the road. Song Qing looked down on his actions. His eyes flashed and he followed. When he walked to the middle of the road, he opened his clothes and took out a small crystal cage. Inside it was a white mouse with brown spots the size of a baby's fist.

The mouse's eyes were like black beans, and there was a small electronic device hanging around its neck that made it shake its head constantly.

Captain an opened the crystal cage, and the spotted rat jumped out. He pointed at the rat's head with his fingertip and bent over with difficulty to put the rat on the ground.

The little mouse took two steps and ran two to three meters away.

Once it ran away, Captain an lowered his voice.

"The city center is looking for the woman who called that night."

Captain an had said that the city center was investigating, not the Shi family.

Today, the Imperial power and political power had been separated. The imperial family's power had developed in the dark, and they were no longer involved in these matters on the surface. However, at the critical moment, the political power was still in the service of the imperial family and was driven by the Shi family.

In other words, her phone call that night had not been noticed by the Shi family.

Firstly, Captain an's testimony was very important.

Secondly, it should be because of the ghost that night, lang Yin's movements, so that the security guards of the community made a seemingly credible 'proof' that she was at home that night.

These two points had temporarily dispelled the Shi family's suspicions of her. Of course, this had a lot to do with her humble background and ordinary bloodline.

However, the Shi family had temporarily stopped their investigation, but if the city center continued, they might be able to trace it back to her.

In addition to Luo Wu, who was an unstable factor, her temporary retreat was just right.

After Captain an said this, he hurriedly added,"

"If you trust me, I can arrange a place for you." He glanced at the spotted rat that had run more than ten meters away. The rat strolled around in a circle, stood up with its forelimbs, and scratched its head. It seemed to be turning around and coming back.

"I served in the Shi family in my early years and worked in the guard Bureau after I retired." Seeing the spotted rat run back, Captain an made it short.

when I was serving in the Army, I made a few friends who have been through life and death situations with me. If you want to hide, going out is not a solution. You might as well hide under the Shi family's eyes. You should be safe for the time being.

He didn't know that song qingxiao had made enemies with the underworld clans, nor did he know that the two people who had died in the autumn road were killed by song qingxiao.

He only inferred from song qingxiao's escape that night that she was not willing to be exposed for the time being.. Moreover, she might have to hide from the 'expert' who had appeared at autumn road and almost injured him!

Chapter 378: The commotion (1)

Captain an didn't know about Qian Shan's identity, but when he mentioned the Shi family that night, Captain an could tell that Qian Shan didn't think much of the Shi family. This proved that Qian Shan's identity should have some background.

Judging from the Shi family's reaction during this period of time, they should be able to guess the mysterious man's background, even if they didn't say it out loud.

That person was a dangerous person. Song qingxiao had made an enemy out of such a person, so it was best to find someone to protect her.

Hiding under the Shi family's wings should be safe for the time being.

The power of the royal family was beyond the imagination of ordinary people. Captain an had served in the royal family before, and this time, he had been rescued by the Shi clan. What he knew was only the tip of the iceberg. The royal family still had an even greater power hidden in the dark.

If song qingxiao had managed to sneak in and changed her identity, the people from the city center would not be able to find her immediately. Even if they were able to find her, they would not be able to imagine that she was hiding among the Shi family's troops in a short period of time.

At the same time, even if that man appeared again that night, he could still protect her with the name of the Shi family.

Song qingxiao had saved his life, and he was willing to return the favor. He would use some of his connections to help her.

Of course, Captain an didn't do this just to repay the favor. At the same time, he also had his own selfish motives.

He was born in the Empire and was loyal to the Empire. To maintain the peace of the Empire, it was his duty to crack down on evil. It was also his wish in his early years. It was also his duty to gather talents for the Empire.

A person like song qingxiao did not enjoy much of the Empire's preferential treatment. It was unlikely that she would have a place in the Empire. It would not be a pity to lose an expert like her. If he did evil, he would definitely become a great disaster.

Captain an also wanted to use this opportunity to make song qingxiao useful to the Empire.

I'll make the arrangements as soon as possible. I'll find a way to get it done for you within three days.

As soon as he finished speaking, the spotted mouse ran back and stopped at Captain an's feet, squeaking non-stop. He smiled and stretched out his hand, letting the mouse crawl into his palm.

I've been raising this Marten for a few years," he said, then asked song qingxiao, "

"What do you think?"

When song qingxiao came to see Captain an this time, she had the intention of asking him to help clean up the mess. She didn't expect him to suggest such a method, so she couldn't help but feel a little tempted.

With Captain an's help, it was naturally the best. No matter how fast song Qing's strength grew, in real life, Captain an was much more capable than her.

To her, what she lacked the most at the moment was time. She needed to sneak into the Shi family for the time being and hide from the eyes and ears of the underworld clans, Qian Shan, and the others.

However, in this way, her whereabouts would be exposed to Captain an. If he had the intention to sell her out, he would be able to catch her in the Shi family like a turtle in a jar.

She weighed the risks and gains in her heart. Finally, under Captain an's gaze, she looked at the small spotted mouse in his hand and nodded.

"It's pretty good."

Captain an heaved a sigh of relief and smiled. He looked deeply at song qingxiao and did not continue the topic.

When the two reached a consensus, they did not continue to walk into the forest Park. Although Captain an's life was saved, his body had been severely damaged by qianshan's extremely overbearing spiritual power. After walking for a while, he was already a little exhausted, so the two of them turned back.

Song Qing had underestimated him and was prepared to send him back to the hospital.

When the two of them walked out of the shady road, the atmosphere at the Imperial hospital was completely different from before.

At the main entrance of the hospital was a beautiful semi-circular staircase made of white marble. Below it was a clean and spacious square. The environment was elegant and quiet. When song qingxiao and Captain an were taking a walk, there were patients sitting in twos or threes beside the fountain and on some long benches in the square.

However, at this moment, there were obviously many more people, and their auras weren't weak.

As soon as song qingxiao and Captain an arrived, they felt a divine sense sweep over them.

She suppressed her instinctive reaction and suppressed the surging spiritual power in her body. She lowered her head and felt that the spiritual power stayed on her body for a moment. It was as if she did not find anything strange, and then she looked away.

This person's mental strength wasn't deep and was weaker than song Qing's. Therefore, not only did she not notice song Qing's small strength, but she also 'caught' the person with her mental strength.

The person's appearance was unremarkable. He seemed to be an ordinary old man who was sitting leisurely in the square.

How did such a 'master' appear in the Imperial hospital? Song Qing squinted his eyes and took a look. Then, he lowered his head again. He quickly noticed that there were other spiritual forces sweeping over.

There were many people like the old man hidden in the square. Although none of them were very powerful, they had the advantage in numbers.

Captain an wasn't as sensitive as her, but with his many years of experience, he also felt that the atmosphere wasn't right.

"It seems that I have to ask you to send me back to the ward temporarily." He frowned and looked serious. It was not the time for song qingxiao to leave.

He did not know where these people came from and what they were after. It was not the time for her to leave. It would attract attention.

She nodded and pretended to help Captain an back to the hospital. As soon as the two of them went up the stairs and entered the hospital, the atmosphere in the hospital became even more tense. In the large corridor, there were actually two teams of uniformed guards patrolling.

These uniforms were very special. They weren't the uniforms of any Army in the Empire in song qingxiao's memory. Just as she had a trace of doubt in her heart, she heard Captain an lower his voice and say,"

"The Shi family's private guards."

His tone was a little nervous, and so was his body. It should be because this group of Shi family's private guards had a strong background.

Although Captain an's voice was soft, the two teams of private guards were extremely sharp and heard it immediately. A few of them turned their heads in unison, and their eyes fell on the two of them like eagles.

When the hospital staff saw this scene, they quickly came forward and whispered. Song Qing didn't use her divine sense and heard the nurse say,"

He's the captain of the western suburbs Guard Station. Shi si sent him here a few days ago and asked him to take care of him. He's currently living in the 10th room. The person next to him should be a visitor, who registered today." Captain an knew who he was. As soon as the nurse finished speaking, the two men who were about to walk over stopped in their tracks. Before they could speak, they heard a commotion in the distance. Someone shouted,

".. Get fellow Shi to quickly get ready, he's coming!"

What's here?

Song Qing scratched his head in confusion. From afar, he could hear the sound of messy footsteps, mixed with the sound of wheels rolling on the ground. The two teams of private guards couldn't care less about Captain an and his partner. They quickly formed two human walls and cleared a path in the hospital corridor.

In this situation, Captain an stumbled back, and so did song qingxiao. The nurse who was smiling earlier ran over and glared at Captain an. Before she could say anything, she opened the door behind him and was about to push him in. Before song qingxiao could enter, two young men appeared in the distance, followed by a large group of people who were surrounding a man in a wheelchair.

Song qingxiao's gaze fell on the person in the wheelchair. It was a very young man, but he was extremely thin. His nose was sharp, but his lips were colorless. His eyes were half-closed, and his breathing was rapid. He seemed to have fallen into a coma.

An extremely bright and beautiful girl was walking quickly on his right side, looking down at him from time to time.

"Come in first."

The nurse who didn't look too good opened the door and whispered to Captain an. Captain an stepped in. Before song qingxiao entered and was about to look away, the bright girl reached out and was about to touch the young man's forehead.

The young man who seemed to have passed out drooped his head to the left. His face turned around, and a few strands of hair fell down, forming a swaying shadow between his eyebrows.

Her eyes met with the man's half-squinted eyes. The man's pupils were expanding. He didn't have long to live!

Song Qing glanced at him and thought of this. Before he could take a closer look at his face, he had already turned around and entered the ward.

The nurse gently closed the door, blocking out the noise outside. Therefore, she did not notice that when the seemingly unconscious person's eyes met her, his unfocused pupils trembled, and the fingertips hanging outside the armrest of the wheelchair trembled..

Chapter 379: Never before (1)

The bright girl's hand, which was about to reach out to pull his hair, missed. She noticed his subtle movements and followed his unfocused gaze, just in time to see the closed door of the ward. There was only a simple room number on it, and nothing unusual could be seen.

The moment the girl looked up at the door, song Qing's back went numb, as if she was being stared at by danger. She instinctively frowned.

"Hmph!" As soon as the door was closed, the petite and lovely nurse's face darkened, an Ji, you just saved your life and recovered from your injuries. Now you're running around?"

She was petite and looked very young. She was wearing the standard white nurse's dress of the Imperial hospital, revealing a pair of white and straight legs. Her hair was gathered under the nurse's hat, revealing a pretty and fair face. At this moment, she spoke with a serious face, looking a little old.

In song qingxiao's memory, the serious and upright Captain an was like a mouse that had seen a cat. He was bound. I'm meeting a guest, I'm meeting a guest. Miss Lin, didn't I already register?"

"I allowed you to meet guests, but I didn't allow you to go out and meet guests!" The nurse was much shorter than Captain an, but Captain an didn't seem to have any confidence in front of her. He smiled and said,"

I won't dare to do it again. I definitely won't do it again next time.

"There won't be a next time!" The lady walked to the side of the bed and fiddled with an instrument that showed some of Captain an's personal information.

"You were running twenty minutes ago!" it wasn't easy to save your life. The credit for saving you belongs to every doctor and nurse," she said with a pained expression.

"Yes, yes, yes!" Captain an nodded quickly, as if he was already used to such things happening.

for every dose of medicine you use, countless people have worked hard behind it. Their hard work is for the progress of mankind, not for you to squander your life wantonly! The nurse said sternly.

Captain an nodded his head vigorously.

“The time you wasted today is the time that many people long for but don’t have?”

“Yes, yes, yes...”

you don’t value your life. You’ve let down the doctors, nurses, medical scientists, and those who saved you that day...

“Yes, yes, yes...”

Captain an nodded and gave song qingxiao a look for help. “But nurse Lin ...”

“No buts!” The girl got angrier and angrier as she said in a deep voice,” you’ve been too reckless running like this today. As a responsible head nurse, I think you should stay in the hospital for another week to strengthen your Foundation!

“Yes...”

Captain an’s expression changed when he heard that, something’s not right!

“Don’t!” He winked at song qingxiao. qingxiao, tell me.

When the woman heard him mention other people’s names, she seemed to finally realize that there were other people in the ward. She turned to face song Qing shyly, but a sweet and lovely smile soon appeared on her face.

“I’m sorry, I’ve embarrassed myself.”

“It’s fine.” At this time, the female nurse was a completely different person from when she reprimanded Captain an. When she turned around, Captain an heaved a sigh of relief and winked at song Qing, signaling her to change the topic.

Song Qing looked down on him and saw that he was sweating profusely. He did not expect him to be so afraid. He could not help but find it funny and asked again,”

“Just now...”

She had just started, but the nurse seemed to have guessed what she was going to ask. This time, it was the lovely lady who wanted to hide.

Without waiting for song qingxiao to finish, the nurse made a look of realization.

ah, I forgot. Captain an, it’s time to take your medicine!

She quickly slipped away, and the door to the ward closed. Captain an felt as if he had been pardoned. He wiped his head.

“You’ve saved me again,”

His tone was rejoicing, which made song qingxiao want to laugh again.

After a moment of silence, he realized that his actions were very different from the past, so he explained awkwardly,”

“The nurses here are too fierce ...”

"I heard you." The door was pushed open, and the female nurse who had been scared away by song qingxiao earlier was standing at the door with a medicine cart. She said expressionlessly,"

Captain an was at a loss for words. There were injections and other things in the car. Captain an's eyelids twitched when he saw them.

This time, no matter how hard he tried, song qingxiao couldn't save him. Seeing that he had been injected, the nurse took a large amount of medicine and forced him to take it. Then, she pushed the cart away.

He had swallowed a large amount of medicine, and at this moment, it was like a Fishbone was stuck in his throat. He patted his chest and complained," it's either an injection or medicine here, and the nurse ... He lowered his voice, probably because he had heard what he had said.".. She's too fierce. Every day she's in there is like being in jail."

He did not wait for song qingxiao to reply and started counting with his fingers. I said I could be discharged after five more days, but now I have to stay for another week... Before he could finish his words, he had a look of despair on his face.

Song Qing chuckled as she thought of the group of people who had entered the courtyard earlier. The experts who were guarding outside, the Shi family's private guards who were clearing the way, the bright and beautiful young lady, and the dying young man who was sitting in a wheelchair and whose eyes met hers.

Even though they had only met once, song qingxiao was certain that she had never met this person before. However, he had a look of surprise in his eyes at that time, as if he had recognized her. It was as if the two of them had met before and were reunited again.

Her smile gradually faded as she recalled the malicious intent that had seeped through the door after the door was closed, who was the one who just entered the hospital?"

Captain an's posture of swallowing medicine with his head lowered paused, the Imperial hospital was initially used to serve the Shi family.

The Shi family had always been in charge of the hospital.

However, with the passage of time and the change in power, hospitals were gradually opened to the public to receive officials and Noble people, but they mainly served the royal family.

“Most likely...” He hesitated for a moment, then said softly, “”It could be ...”

He coughed twice and tried to stretch his neck. Then, he pulled his neck back and swallowed two mouthfuls of saliva as if there was medicine stuck in his throat. He tried to swallow the medicine with this action.

when I was serving the Shi family, I heard that the legitimate heir of the Shi family had a health problem. There were rumors at that time that he would not live ... Captain an raised his hand and made a ‘three’ sign.

With the rapid development of modern medicine, the average lifespan of humans had reached an unprecedented height.

Song qingxiao had once heard from Luo Wu that the Shi family was one of the most prominent reclusive families in this world.

With the current medical prowess of the Shi family, if there was a rumor that the heir of the Shi family could not live past thirty, it was enough to prove that the heir of the Shi family was indeed suffering from a serious problem.

She thought of the young man from before. It was self-evident who he was. She could not have dealt with such a person before.

Song Qing’s heart relaxed a little. Although she still felt that the malicious intent was very strange, she did not ask further.

Perhaps song qingxiao had seen the side of her that was afraid of the nurse, Captain an was a little embarrassed. Anyway, the matter had been settled. Although she had saved Captain an's life, they were not close. There was no need to stay any longer, so she got up and said goodbye.

When she came out of the hospital, the people who were spying on her with their divine senses were still there. Song qingxiao had left the Imperial hospital. Three days later, she received a call from Captain an in the evening.

"It's done."

His voice was tense and he was suppressing his anger. There seemed to be a murderous feeling.

Song qingxiao could hear the heaviness in his words and couldn't help but ask, "It didn't go well?"

When he offered to help, he had promised to give her three days, but he didn't call her until now. However, his tone had changed.

"No." On the phone, he seemed to be gritting his teeth as he squeezed out the two words. He stopped for a long time after he said that. When song qingxiao thought he wouldn't say anything more, he took a deep breath and said,

"But nurse Lin is dead,"

Chapter 380: Meeting (1)

As soon as Captain an finished speaking, song qingxiao immediately thought of nurse Lin, who had reprimanded Captain an so much that he didn't even dare to breathe.

She had a deep impression of the lady whose personality and appearance were so different, but she didn't expect nurse Lin to die in just a few days.

Song qingxiao felt that something was wrong. She grabbed her phone and asked,”

“How did he die?”

In fact, Captain an only mentioned nurse Lin’s death because the time he had agreed to meet with song qingxiao had already passed. He was just explaining the reason why he called her so late. He didn’t expect song qingxiao to ask him about it.

He hesitated for a moment before he replied,”

“On the day I met you, I was killed on my way home from work.”

“Do you have any leads on the murderer?” When song qingxiao heard this, she felt even more strange.

The scene of nurse Lin being killed on her way home from work reminded her of some unhappy memories. She subconsciously reached for the dagger she carried with her.

“No, I didn’t,” There was anger, self-blame, and a hint of disappointment in his tone. Perhaps it was because he had no one to talk to, but since he had already started, he simply continued, “”The location of her accident happened to be in the blind spots of the heavenly eye.”

As the capital residence of the Empire and the base camp of the Shi family, other than the chaotic and difficult to control western suburbs, the entire Imperial City could be said to be under the surveillance of the heavenly eye. This reduced the number of crimes committed, saving the government a large amount of manpower investment.

However, as an electronic product, no matter how rigorous its design was, there would still be flaws. The electronic eye was replacing manual labor. When it rotated and patrolled, there would theoretically be blind spots. If a person entered the blind spot, the heavenly eye might not be able to capture the intruder.

In order to prevent such mistakes, the city center had set up many cameras all over the imperial capital. These sky eyes were placed in clever positions. When one turned to the other side, the other would turn to capture the camera.

It could be said that even a fly would not be able to hide from the camera under such a tight net. However, Captain an said that after nurse Lin's accident, she happened to be in the blind spot of the heavenly eye.

Song qingxiao's expression turned serious.

Was there a situation where several heavenly eyes turned at the same time? In theory, there was a possibility! However, the possibility of this happening was very low. Even if it really did appear, it would be in a flash. Ordinary people would not be able to catch the time difference at all.

He was able to notice the minute changes in the heavenly eye, kill people in a short time, and then retreat without leaving any traces.

Other than cultivators, song qingxiao could not think of anyone else among ordinary people who could do this.

For cultivators, it was not difficult to avoid the tracking of the heavenly eye, and it was even easier to kill an ordinary woman. If it was her who did it, she was 50 to 60 percent confident that she could do it 'flawlessly', but she was not 100 percent sure. Thus, the person who did it should be stronger than her.

However, nurse Lin was just an ordinary person. What kind of Dao enlightenment realm expert would she provoke to kill her?

"It's such a coincidence," Captain an sighed, actually, she shouldn't have gotten into an accident. It was all because of me that day. His voice was filled with pain, it was that day...

He placed the data instrument that he was supposed to carry with him on the Marten's body, causing the data to fluctuate, which caught nurse Lin's attention.

Captain an was the patient she was concerned about, so she stayed for a while to make sure that Captain an's condition was stable. Who knew that something would happen the night she returned home?

Song qingxiao listened to Captain an's forced calm tone and remembered his interaction with nurse Lin that day. She vaguely felt that Captain an's sadness at this time was not only because he felt guilty because he had something to do with the nurse's death, but also because there were more or less other emotions mixed in.

She recalled the evil thought she felt in the Imperial hospital that day. She had been thinking about it for the past few days.

Other than the life-and-death struggles in the God's trial, she had countless enemies in real life.

Luo Wu was still waiting to see what would happen next. Number six was one, and Qian Shan, who almost killed her at qiuji road half a month ago, was another.

In fact, there was another murderer in the dark. On her first day of work at the guard Station, she had met the killer in the western suburbs after work. Thanks to him, her life had changed.

She thought about it a lot, but it seemed like the evil intention was not directed at her, but at nurse Lin.

"It's none of your business." If the person who killed nurse Lin was really as she had guessed, then it would not make a difference whether nurse Lin left earlier or later that night.

Captain an sighed again, and the sound of someone wiping his face could be heard from the other end of the phone. He obviously took song qingxiao's words as a comfort and didn't take it to heart.

her life is simple, and she has no grudges with anyone... He was a little indignant and his tone was hurried. When he said this, he seemed to be unable to find a target to vent his anger on, and his anger dissipated by half.

I've already applied to be discharged from the hospital and sent a request to the city center. I hope that I can take charge of her case!

He seemed to be making a vow.

"I must catch this murderer myself! Let him understand that he can't just casually Pierce a girl's throat!"

Captain an's emotions were stirred up when he said this, but song qingxiao's mind went blank when she heard it. She couldn't help but shiver.

Nurse Lin had been stabbed in the throat on her way home from work. The way she died was too similar to how she had died!

She grabbed the dagger by her waist, and the sound of heavy rain seemed to ring in her ears. In the alley of the western suburbs, a tall figure with his head lowered was walking towards her, and the cold aura made her shiver.

The moment he brushed past her, he suddenly attacked.

Let's not talk about this anymore. I've prepared a new identity for you. I'll cover up your 'own' whereabouts."

Song qingxiao was immersed in her memories. After a long while, Captain an's voice seemed to come from an extremely distant place, gradually pulling her thoughts back from the dark alley on a rainy night to reality.

Her eyes were half-closed, and her hand was holding the dagger tightly. The killing intent on her body alarmed the silver Wolf that was lying not far away, making its hair stand on end. It raised its head uneasily and looked around vigilantly, letting out a low and urgent howl.

It had been more than half a year since she had almost been killed. It was only now that she could see the shadow of the murderer who had almost killed her in an innocent nurse.

This was truly a coincidence!

Song qingxiao suppressed the turmoil in her heart and let out a silent sigh. If things were really as she had guessed, that nurse Lin's death could reveal the truth of her almost being killed, then she would not let go of the cause of nurse Lin's death.

She had to find out who the person behind this was, but not now.

From Captain an's words, she knew that the person who did this might be stronger than her. If she was involved in this case, her identity might be exposed.

The person who killed him that day should have been like Qian Shan, extremely confident in his strength, drawing his blade and leaving cleanly, never thinking that there would be any survivors.

Because of his low status, he was usually cautious in his actions and did not attract attention, so he did not attract the attention of the killer.

If they found out that he was still alive after nurse Lin's death, it was very likely that he would be killed again.

Song qingxiao suppressed the hatred in her heart and took a deep breath. Her eyes were cold,"

Captain an, I want to ask you for one more thing..
