Chapter 391: Reaped_I

The gun hits the bird that takes the lead. Whoever walked in front might die early.

Song qingxiao, who had been able to survive in the trial space until now, might have understood this.

However, she clearly knew that there were Tigers on the mountain, but she still chose to go to the Tiger Mountain. Number five also followed closely behind, which was intriguing.

Number six subconsciously turned his head and his eyes met number one and number four. The group of survivors who had survived the axe attack earlier were struggling to get up and rush forward.

'Bang bang bang', the footsteps were getting closer and closer, as if they were following the smell of blood, and the whole ground was shaking.

Number Seven's nostrils twitched slightly, and an anxious look appeared on his face. He reached out and tugged at number six's sleeve.

In a split second, a thought entered number six's mind, "For this mission, the trial space had issued the following requirements: Escape from the terror Battalion.

There was a reward for the success of the mission, but the consequences of failure were not mentioned. It was obvious that it was no different from death.

They had just entered the trial and had already mixed into this group.

Just as number five had said, it was very likely that this was a team that was on the run, and the way out should be ahead.

Even if they knew that the path ahead was full of danger, charging out was the result in line with the game mission. If they retreated, they would be going against the mission goal!

No wonder No. 3 and No. 5 rushed forward without saying anything. Thinking of this, No. 6 immediately pulled No. 7 and chased in the direction where song qingxiao and No. 5 had escaped.

No. 1 and No. 4 seemed to have the same thought as him, and they also chased after him.

After song Qing and Xiao Jue left, they heard number Five's footsteps behind them.

She did not dare to take a single step back as a rain of blood sprayed from the ground as the axes flew back.

The battle behind her was getting bigger and bigger, and the unknown pursuer seemed to be getting closer and closer. When she breathed, she could smell the breath of death in the air.

When the axe flew back, she had noticed the survivors trying to escape, and her face was filled with fear.

As people in the trial arena, these people had a much better understanding of the situation than the trial participants who had just arrived.

No matter what these pursuers were, they should be no less dangerous than the ones in front of them.

Once everyone turned around and was entangled by the thing behind them, they would be stuck in a quagmire and unable to advance or retreat!

It was precisely because of this that song qingxiao made the prompt decision to run forward, even though she knew that number four and the others had ulterior motives and wanted to find a scapegoat to fight first.

The shaking of the ground became stronger and stronger. In just a few seconds, she had already left the group of escapees behind.

‘Wuuu...’

The wind blew past her ears, and she seemed to hear the roar of a wild beast. The speed of the pursuer was much faster than song Qing had imagined.

The moment the escapees behind heard the beast’s roar, they used all their strength to rush forward.

The vibration was getting closer and closer, and someone could not help but let out a muffled groan, followed by a suppressed groan, and then a large amount of water seemed to have been poured on the side of the tunnel walls and above their heads.

After a ‘Peng’ sound of a heavy object falling to the ground, there was a burst of bone-chilling chewing sounds. The bones were bitten until they made a ‘crunch’ sound, and the previous painful groan came to an abrupt end.

Song qingxiao didn’t turn around, but the smell of blood in the air reminded her that the one-sided slaughter had begun again.

A large number of escapees were trampled on the ground like seedlings in the field, and then crushed to death.

The thudding sounds behind her were getting closer and closer, as if they were not far away from her.

At this time, the advantage of her running in the front was obvious. Number two and the others were still behind. If something caught up, they could hold it off for a while!

The tunnel was narrow, making it inconvenient for them to use their hands and feet. It was really disadvantageous for the trial participants. Only by doing their best to escape from this tunnel and find a spacious place to deal with the things behind them could they temporarily escape from the crisis.

Song qingxiao's body tensed up. She gritted her teeth and rushed forward. The wind rushed into her throat, like a sharp blade cutting it.

Fortunately, the tunnel in front of them opened up, and the exit seemed to be close at hand!

Song Qing was delighted. At this moment, the thing that was chasing after him seemed to be about to arrive.

With a 'Dong' sound, the pursuing beast slammed its palms on the ground, causing the tunnel to shake. The walls on both sides of the tunnel trembled under the violent shaking.

The surrounding gravel and sand fell down with a 'Hua Hua' sound. The beast jumped up and hit the top wall with a 'Peng' sound. Its skin and flesh rubbed against the sharp stalactite, making a sharp and harsh sound.

The cone-like stalactites cracked and fell to the ground with a clang.

'Wuwuwu ...', A stinky wind blew over, and the surrounding rocks flew everywhere, hitting the walls. The sound was endless!

Song qingxiao couldn't help but think of the strange flying axe that had taken many lives. The axe was extremely large, probably about a hundred pounds in weight. That size was not something that ordinary people could handle.

Judging from the formation, momentum, movement, and roars of the things chasing them, they should be similar to some kind of fierce beast.

According to this speculation, the chasers and killers of this mission might have a far greater advantage than ordinary humans in terms of body size!

No. 1 and No. 4 seemed to have been caught up. Song qingxiao heard the two of them stop.

The moment the two of them turned their heads, they gasped as if they were shocked by what they saw!

Song Qingxin's heart skipped a beat, and her ears caught a 'whoosh' sound.

The sound came straight to her back, wrapped in a sharp force. She resisted the urge to turn her head and took a breath of spiritual energy. She jumped up, stretched out her long legs, and the tips of her toes stepped on the stone wall of the tunnel. With the force of this step, her figure flew out like a meteor!

A section of broken stalactite passed through the position she was standing at before and stabbed into the stone wall in front of her. It was like a nail, firmly embedded in the wall!

At the same time, there was a 'ka' sound of teeth clenched behind him. Song Qing was less than two meters away from the exit when he flew out.

The exit of the tunnel was deep and dark. Song Qingxin was overjoyed. The beast that had jumped up behind him landed on the ground, making an earth-shaking sound.

After she landed on the ground, she swayed a little from the shock. Just as she was about to rush out of the tunnel, a huge shadow fell from above like a guillotine. It slammed into the ground with a 'clang', sending rocks flying as it sank more than ten centimeters deep into the ground!

If song qingxiao hadn't sensed that something was wrong at that moment and pulled her leg back in time, her leg would have been cut off by the falling thing!

Her back broke out in a cold sweat, and because of the urgent action of retracting her leg, her body involuntarily leaned back..

Chapter 392: The giant (1)

However, number five was standing behind song qingxiao. As she lost her balance and fell back, she got closer to number five and could smell the blood on him.

The relationship between the participants was not peaceful. In addition, the point system of the trial encouraged killing each other. In a situation where it was obvious that there was an ambush ahead, if number five found a flaw, it was inevitable that he would add insult to injury.

At the critical moment, song qingxiao held the dagger and stabbed it into the stone wall to stabilize her body. She didn't want to lie down flat!

As the uneven gravel on the stone wall was cut open, she steadied herself and fixed her eyes on it. What had fallen was the broad axe that had previously flown into the crowd and wreaked havoc. At this time, because of the huge momentum when it landed, the axe handle trembled and buzzed.

When the axe had flown over, she had felt that it was extremely large. Now that she was looking at it up close, she felt that the axe's size was even more shocking.

With a 'Chi' sound, it seemed like someone had let out a long, heavy breath, blowing it into the tunnel.

The smell was stinky, similar to the foul air that had been blown in from the tunnel earlier. It was obvious that the Ambusher had been waiting here for a long time.

However, in just a breath, it was like a gust of wind, which gave song Qing a bad feeling.

After the breath was blown out, a huge palm the size of a cattail leaf fan reached out from the exit of the tunnel, blocking half of the dim light in the tunnel, causing the entrance to sink into even deeper darkness.

‘Hiss!’

Despite song qingxiao’s calm personality, she had already guessed that the person she would face in this trial might be of a large size after seeing the flying hatchets. However, the moment the giant palm appeared, she couldn’t help but gasp!

“F * ck!” Number six’s cry of surprise came from not far away. There was a bit of panic in his voice. He had obviously noticed the strange size of the palm.

The moment number six’s voice fell, the Palm’s five fingers spread apart and reached straight into the hole, as if it wanted to grab the person inside out!

This palm was shockingly large. If one was caught by it, the owner of this hand would probably be able to crush them to death as if they were a chicken.

The disadvantage of being the first to run had appeared. Song qingxiao was the first to face the danger of being captured.

The palm opened up like an inescapable net, tightly guarding the entrance of the cave and blocking anyone who tried to escape inside.

They could not retreat. The chewing sounds behind them were endless. The remaining survivors had begun to squeeze forward under the pursuit of the unknown beast.

Number five took a step forward. His breathing was very close, as if he had raised his arm.

A Wolf in the front and a Tiger in the back, song Qing and Xiao Shen took a deep breath and advanced instead of retreating!

She used the dagger to stab into the stone wall to stabilize her body. She forcibly lifted her legs and bent them. She kicked at the gap between the five fingers!

Borrowing the force of this stomp, her body was like an arrow released from a bow, passing through the gap between the fingers. With a 'bang', she hit the broad axe that was stuck at the entrance of the cave. Under the huge impact, the broad axe that had been firmly stuck in the cave was tilted and made a sound!

The moment number five saw the huge palm coming, he took advantage of his small body and retreated nimbly.

The giant palm closed in with force, but it grabbed nothing.

Song qingxiao fell out. Before she could check her surroundings, she felt a shadow rise above her head. Then, a huge object came crashing down on her with the force of Mount Tai!

The thing that was pressing down was like a small mountain, and when it fell, it brought a hurricane. She knew in her heart that it was not good, and immediately did not care about getting up, and rolled twice on the ground.

With a loud 'bang', the small mountain crashed down, causing the ground to tremble. Under the pull of this huge force, the rubble from the ground and stone walls fell like a storm.

When the fine stone rain fell on song Qing's body, she felt a burst of pain. She rolled about two or three meters away from the dangerous edge before she supported herself with one hand and jumped up.

Even though song qingxiao had been mentally prepared for the attacker the moment she saw the giant palm, she still shuddered and her pupils shrank when she saw the real face of the attacker.

What appeared in front of her was a cave in the shape of an inverted bowl. The top of her head was about two feet high, and she was standing on a platform that was about ten square meters in size!

The platform was connected to the exit of the tunnel, and the other three sides were cliffs. Opposite the tunnel entrance, a rough black suspension bridge connected the two sides of the valley.

Stalactites of various sizes drooped down from the top of the cave. These stalactites were made of unknown crystals and emitted a green light, illuminating the cave.

A giant about ten meters tall with a strong body was blocking the exit of the tunnel.

The giant's body was covered in green scales. One of his hands was still in the cave, and beside his foot was an axe that had been knocked off course by song qingxiao.

When the foot that he had lifted earlier landed on the ground, dust flew everywhere. It seemed that he was a little surprised that he had failed to kill the ant again. The giant let out a sound of gang Qi from his nostrils and slowly turned his huge head.

As the bone armor moved, it made a 'ka ka' sound like a chain. Song Qing's heart began to beat wildly when the giant turned his head.

In the face of such a behemoth, it would be unwise to resist. Without saying a word, she turned around and rushed in the direction of the suspension bridge.

The giant who was turning his head slowly retracted his hand from the tunnel. He raised his foot again and stomped in the direction of song qingxiao's escape!

He was tall and strong, and his one step was much faster than song Qing's few steps. His foot was like a pillar that held up the sky, and with a 'boom', it struck song Qing's head.

When song qingxiao heard the movement, she pulled her leg back in time, but she still almost hit the foot.

A large amount of dust spread out with his stomp, and the stones on the ground bounced up and scattered in all directions.

The giant had completely turned his head. Song qingxiao was at his feet. He lifted his foot and tried to step on song qingxiao again. When his foot landed, it created a small whirlwind. Song qingxiao dodged to the side and avoided it again.

He lifted his foot and stomped again. Every time his foot landed on the ground, it would make a thunderous sound. The sound spread in all directions, passing through the top of his head and the surrounding stone walls, causing a thousand times more impact on his hearing. It made song Qing's eardrums buzz.

Even though song qingxiao managed to Dodge every time, she was slowly losing her strength. If this continued, she would be in a disadvantageous position.

At this moment, number five and the others who were originally stuck in the tunnel had already rushed out when the giant withdrew his palm.

After they came out, they saw the giant at the entrance of the cave and song qingxiao, who was running away at the foot of the giant..

Chapter 393: first time _1

Number six's eyes widened in shock, and he couldn't even speak for a moment.

In the tunnel, number four, who was in a sorry state and reeking of blood, rushed to the exit. The valley was filled with Thunder. When he saw the giant, he gasped and couldn't help but exclaim,"

"Hey, What's this?"

As the giant stomped his feet several times, song Qing's escape route was blocked. In the dust that filled the sky, song Qing could only be seen dodging left and right rapidly!

The ground continued to rumble. Number four was stunned for a moment. Then, he thought of something. His eyes revealed a look of ecstasy. He subconsciously turned his head to look at number six.

When the two of them looked at each other, they exchanged a look at the same time. The roar of a beast came from the tunnel. It sounded like it was about to rush to the tunnel entrance.

The moment number four and number six's eyes met, they turned and ran in the direction of the suspension bridge without a word.

The pursuers were about to arrive, and the giant was entangled with song qingxiao, who was the first to leave the tunnel.

This giant's appearance was intrepid, and everyone had seen the power of the flying axes before. Fighting with him was not the best plan.

Number six pulled number seven and ran around the giant's leg towards the suspension bridge. Number four was not willing to fall behind. Number one was stunned for a moment, but he reacted and followed.

At the entrance of the tunnel, the last trial-taker rushed out with a pale face. When he saw the giant, his eyes narrowed. Then, he noticed the trial-taker who was running towards the suspension bridge and chased after him without saying a word.

Among the trial-takers, number five, who was the first to come out after song qingxiao, hesitated for a long time. He did not take advantage of this opportunity to run away like number one and the others. Instead, he had just lifted his foot when he fell back to his original place.

Number six had been pulling number seven and running at the front, but he was quick-witted and had already noticed number Five's strange behavior the moment he ran out.

When the trial-takers tried to run in the direction of the suspension bridge and find a way to escape, other than song qingxiao, who was trapped by the giant, only number five ran a few steps and went around the tunnel entrance, then stopped moving.

Suspicion grew in his heart, and he instinctively held number Seven's hand, slowing down his forward charge.

The giant had failed to catch song Qing several times and let her escape instead. At this time, he was a little angry and bent down to grab song Qing.

When he leaned over, he saw a few figures rushing toward the suspension bridge from the corner of his eye. He immediately let out an earth-shattering roar!

“Roar!”

His roar was like layers of Thunder. After passing through the special environment of the cave, his voice was infinitely amplified, and the gravel above his head fell down one after another.

When the sound entered song Qing’s ears, her ears could not withstand the attack of the sound wave. She felt pain and the qi and blood in her body were in turmoil. She quickly sealed her hearing with her divine sense to reduce the shock!

Number four, who was running at the front, felt that something was wrong the moment the giant roared. Number six, who had been almost at the same level as him, had fallen behind a few steps.

Number four was shocked. Then, he heard a deafening roar!

The voice was like an extremely sharp blade, piercing straight into his ears and stirring his mind.

The sound wave shook him so much that his vision turned black and he felt nauseated. There was a huge ‘buzz’ in his ears and he staggered, almost falling to the ground.

He had a splitting headache, and his whole body trembled. His heart felt as if it had been pinched by someone. It stopped beating for half a beat, and then it began to beat madly like a rapid drum.

With this delay, number one, who had been following behind him, immediately overtook number four.

It was unknown what method he used, but he seemed to be unaffected by the sound. In an instant, he had surpassed number four by several steps.

Before the giant's roar ended, he retracted his giant palm that was trying to crush Song Qing and grabbed the giant axe that fell beside his feet instead.

The broad axe was deep in the ground, but at this time, he easily grabbed it and lifted it up. When he pulled it out, a large amount of soil was stirred up.

He held the broad axe in his hand, grinned, and panted. The muscles in his arms bulged, and he threw the axe at the trial-takers who were running toward the suspension bridge!

The axe flew out like a shooting star with a sharp sound. Number six heard a 'whoosh' above his head. The strong wind stung his face, and the numb wound on his ear hurt again, reminding him of the scene where he was almost beheaded by the axe.

He was drenched in cold sweat, and number one, who was running in the front, was the first to bear the brunt!

The axe flew straight at his back. When he heard the wind and felt that something was wrong, it was already too late to Dodge!

The axe weighed more than a hundred pounds. Once it landed, even if the cultivator's physique had been strengthened, he would definitely not be able to escape death.

Number four, who had managed to escape after stopping in his tracks, saw this scene. He could not help but reveal a look of relief on his face, which immediately turned into a deep gloating expression.

The points for this trial were too little. If no one died, each person would only get 2000 points.

In a situation where there were too many monks and too little gruel, only when someone died first would the rest get more benefits!

The broad axe headed straight for number one's back like a Thunderbolt. It was only ten centimeters away from number one's back. In the next moment, everyone felt that number one would not be able to escape and would definitely be sent flying by the axe. Just as his blood was about to splatter on the spot, number one's figure flashed and disappeared!

This time, not only was number four, who was waiting for a good show, stunned, but so was the giant who had thrown the axe. The axe passed through where number one had been standing and flew toward the cliff with a 'whoosh'.

At this moment, on the other side of the platform, the spiritual energy in the air distorted. Number one, who had disappeared on the spot to avoid the huge axe, appeared out of thin air about three to four meters away from where he had disappeared!

"Roar!"

The moment he appeared, the giant let out a roar that was far more furious than before. The sound was so loud that it could pierce through clouds and split stones. He stretched out his giant palm, and the scales on his body protruded. The axe that was originally flying toward the cliff seemed to be guided by a mysterious force. It actually turned around again and flew back with a 'whoosh'!

When number five, who was standing in the middle, saw this, the corners of his mouth curled up imperceptibly. He muttered,"

"Idiot!"

His voice was extremely soft, and it was suppressed by the giant's sound wave.

The others hurriedly covered their ears and endured the pain.

At this moment, there were some survivors who rushed out of the tunnel. However, the moment they rushed out of the tunnel, they were shocked by the sound and blood spurted out of their ears and noses. Before they could step out of the tunnel, they fell head first.

The giant's roar stopped, and the axe flew back into his palm. With a 'bang', it was caught by him.

Number one's body swayed. Before he could cover his ears, the giant who was chasing after song qingxiao seemed to have been completely enraged by number one after his attack failed. He gave up on his original prey and strode after number one!

Number six, who was covering his ears with difficulty, saw this scene and immediately understood the reason why number five didn't strive to be the first one to stand out earlier!

Chapter 394: rush (1)

Once song qingxiao escaped from the giant's pursuit, it was as if she had unloaded a heavy load.

She adjusted her breathing slightly and looked at number one, who was dodging left and right in the middle of the field. She let out a long breath.

No. 1 should have mastered some kind of special ability that allowed him to become invisible freely, similar to No. 2, whom he met during the demon Island trial. However, it was obvious that No. 1's ability was far superior to No. 2's in the demon Island trial scenario. He did not show any uneven breathing when he used his special ability to Dodge several times.

The situation had reversed. No. 1 had attracted the attention of the giant and was running for his life on the platform.

'Dong Dong Dong', the giant strode forward. The ground seemed to shake with every step it took.

He was too tall. Even though number one had a special ability, every step he took was a few meters faster than an ordinary person.

In addition, his body size, strength, and the broad axe he held in his hand caused a great psychological shadow to the escapees he was chasing.

Song qingxiao had been chased by him before, and the pressure he felt could only be understood when he faced this giant.

In the dust, the giant's footsteps were like the sound of war drums, shaking people's blood. When the giant took a step forward, number one's figure disappeared again.

The moment he disappeared, the giant with the broad axe turned around, grinned, and took a long breath through his nostrils.

The moment No. 1 appeared, his eyes widened and he took another big step forward. He said, ""Hmph!"

The broad axe in his hand smashed down in the direction where No. 1 was standing. The sound was loud and the moment the axe fell to the ground, it made a loud Sound of Metal clashing. With a 'ka' sound, a crack was cut in the ground, and gravel flew everywhere.

The power of this smash had the power to split the sky and split the earth. The sound reverberated back and forth in the cave, and it was endless.

Everyone couldn't help but reach out to block the flying gravel and hurriedly dodged. They felt their hearts tremble with the giant's attack.

Although number one had disappeared again with his ability the moment the axe fell, compared to the giant's brutal physical strength, if he used his ability frequently for a long time, it would eventually run out.

Once number one's special ability couldn't hold on, it was only a matter of time before he was chopped down by this giant's axe!

However, with number one's failure as a warning, no one dared to act rashly.

At this time, if anyone ran away first and attracted the attention of the giant, they might end up like number one, being targeted by the giant and carrying the big pot on their back!

No. 1 had been in a hurry to escape earlier to help Song Qing draw away the hatred points from Little Giant. Now that everyone had come back to their senses, no one was willing to do such a stupid thing again.

The situation in the cave was in a dilemma. Everyone was anxious and depressed, but they could not come up with a better idea for a while.

At this moment, many of the survivors rushed out of the tunnel. They were like headless flies, only knowing how to run for their lives.

Some of them rushed out and were trampled under the feet of the giant chasing after No. 1 before they could understand the scene in front of them, turning them into meat paste!

At the entrance of the tunnel, there was a buzzing sound. Song Qingxiao turned around and saw a fugitive with blood all over his face standing at the entrance of the tunnel. His eyes were filled with hope that he had escaped.

However, in the next second, a muffled roar of a beast came from behind him. The smile on his face did not change, but two rows of sharp white saw teeth suddenly appeared on the left and right sides of his waist.

As soon as the beast's roar fell, the saw teeth closed. With a 'Kacha' sound, the man was bitten in two from the waist like a piece of dead wood. Blood burst out and his intestines flowed all over the ground!

The joy in the survivor's eyes had yet to completely fade. After he was bitten, he was still breathing. The moment he instinctively wanted to turn his head to look, a huge red tongue stretched out and pulled the upper half of his body into the dark tunnel.

What followed was a bone-chilling chewing sound. The bone was being bitten to the point of cracking.

The remaining half of his body was still struggling on the ground. This happened in the blink of an eye. Song Qingxiao tightened her grip on the dagger and shivered.

Although the sounds from the tunnel proved that this was not the first time the beast had eaten a human, there was still a difference between what he had seen and what he had imagined.

The chewing sound in the tunnel stopped after a while. As everyone held their breath, a huge dog head with a ferocious face and licking the corner of its mouth appeared in front of them.

With the giant's presence, no one should be surprised by the dog's head. However, the scene of it tearing and swallowing people was still fresh in their minds. Song Qing Xiao did not dare to relax when she saw the dog's head.

The dog's head was dark brown in color, but its eyes were blood red, and it looked ferocious.

There was still blood and flesh between its white teeth. Every time its red tongue licked its mouth, there was blood dripping down its chin. This scene made people shudder.

"Huu." When No. 4 saw that it was only a dog, he heaved a sigh of relief, was that the thing we were chasing? "

As soon as he finished speaking, fear appeared in number two's eyes. Before he could say anything, the dog's head that was sticking out of the tunnel seemed to be squeezed by something.

Whoosh! Whoosh!

A large amount of stone debris was squeezed down from the tunnel entrance and fell to the ground. With a hint of joy in number Four's voice, another Black Dog head of the same size squeezed out from the tunnel entrance.

After its blood-red eyes turned left and right, it seemed to have seen the people on the field, and it let out a deafening roar.

With its roar, the other dog head also barked. The sound interweaved with the noise made by the giant in the cave, and it was so noisy that people's eardrums hurt.

The smile on number Four's face disappeared. This dog was extremely ferocious. One was already so terrifying, but there were two of them in a row.

Number six pulled on number seven, looking worried.

One giant was already very difficult to deal with. Now that there were two such fierce dogs, the situation of the escapees and the trial-takers became even more difficult.

"What do we do?"

Number six asked as he dodged the giant's pursuit of number one. As he spoke, he instinctively looked in the direction of number five and song qingxiao. However, as soon as he finished speaking, he caught the look of shock in number Four's eyes from the corner of his eye.

Number four stared at the entrance of the tunnel. Number six felt a numbing sensation on the back of his neck. He turned his head instinctively and saw a huge black Dog about three meters tall step out of the tunnel entrance and shake its body.

The ground trembled, and what made number four look so surprised was not the giant dog's Mountain-like body, but the two ferocious heads that everyone had seen before. They were now growing on the giant dog's body!

"What, what is this thing?"

At this moment, the two-headed dog turned its head left and right, taking in every corner of the trial arena..

Chapter 395: Two heads (1)

Under the gaze of those blood-red eyes filled with ruthlessness, everyone couldn't help but feel their scalps go numb and their bodies crawling with goosebumps.

The shock that the two-headed dog brought to everyone was even greater than the shock that the giant who was chasing number one gave off.

"What, what is this thing?"

Number six asked in a hoarse voice, but the only response he got was the solemn gazes of the other trial-takers and the thunderous 'bang, bang, bang' footsteps of the giant in the field.

Everyone's heartstrings were stretched to the extreme at this moment. The two-headed giant dog shook its two heads at the same time, pouting and revealing two rows of sharp, saw-like front teeth. Large amounts of saliva dripped from the corners of its mouth, making it look terrifying.

Perhaps it was because it had been running so fast just now, but it was panting.

The escapees who had escaped from the tunnel did not dare to move at all.

Under the gaze of such a terrifying monster, ordinary people simply could not muster up the courage to resist.

The cultivators also felt a chill in their hearts, and no one dared to act rashly for the time being.

The situation was very clear at this time. In the process of escaping from the terrorist camp, it was very likely that the escapees would be chased by the giant two-headed dog behind them.

Song qingxiao suddenly thought of the shepherd Dog. During this trial, the people who were running away were like a group of lambs. They were chased by this monster to the giant who could decide their life and death at will. One by one, they were blocked, and the group was perfectly captured in one go.

The two-headed dog's aura was terrifying, and the eyes on its two heads could see the situation in the field from almost no blind spots. Whoever made a small movement first would most likely attract its attention, and then be attacked by it.

However, if no one moved, they would probably be waiting for death.

The only way to leave this platform was the black suspension bridge that was about a hundred feet away. Everyone had placed their hopes on it, but the problem was who would be the first to get up!

Number one had been using his special ability frequently, and at this time, his breath was obviously a little weak. He couldn't hold on for long. The reason why he hadn't said a word until now was probably because he had anticipated that in this situation of crisis, someone would be unable to hold back and take the blame!

In the strange silence, the two-headed dog lowered its two large heads at the same time, letting out a 'Chi Chi' sound. Not long after, a huge dog head lifted up, raised its head, and let out a long howl. Then, its hind legs bent, and with a kick to the East, its whole body rose into the air.

Number six and number seven were standing on the east side. The moment the dog charged over, number six's expression changed. Just as the two-headed dog was about to jump, he pulled number seven along and moved.

Although the dog's body looked heavy, its movements were fast. Its body turned into an afterimage, and in the blink of an eye, it flew over the heads of number six and number seven!

A thick and stinky saliva dripped from the corner of its mouth and fell to the ground with a 'pa' sound. Number six's heart went cold. Just as he thought that a fierce battle was inevitable again, less than three meters away from him, number one's aura changed. His face was slightly pale, and his forehead was covered in sweat. Suddenly, he appeared!

While number six was still in shock, the two-headed dog that had leaped into the air suddenly let out a roar. One of the dog heads opened its mouth wide and bit in number one's direction!

At the same time, a buzzing sound came from the ground. The giant with the broad axe had also caught up.

Seeing this, number six's eyes were filled with hatred and he shouted angrily,"

"F * ck!"

Number one's hiding spot was coincidentally where number six and number seven had been hiding. It was not a coincidence that he had appeared here. He was probably trying to divert the disaster!

However, this wasn't the time to be calculate with number one. Just as the giant dog's mouth was about to bite number one, number one's figure flickered and disappeared again!

Then, the giant followed.

Perhaps it was because he had failed to kill number one after several attempts, the giant became more and more furious. After losing sight of number one, he lowered his head and looked around the field. Then, he turned around, picked up his axe, and chopped down in the direction of number six and number seven!

When the axe chopped down, it created a whirlwind that seemed to want to drag number six and number seven into the bottom of the axe!

The axe had yet to land, but the aura and killing intent formed an extremely terrifying oppressive force, causing number six's hair to stand on end. Cold sweat seeped out of his body, drenching his clothes!

In the midst of their panic, number six and number Seven's hands separated at the same time, and the two were forced to escape in different directions!

The two-headed dog's teeth clenched together and it fell to the ground with a loud clang. The sound was then drowned out by the sound of the giant axes hitting the ground!

The ground seemed to tremble twice due to the force of the axe, causing everyone standing to feel their legs go soft. With this sound, their hearts tightened.

The giant's axe also missed, and he became even more irritable. Without saying a word, he picked up the giant axe that was chopping at the ground. After looking in the direction of number six and number seven, he seemed to have made up his mind. He picked up the giant axe and chased in the direction of number six!

As soon as he moved, the two-headed dog seemed to have sensed his thoughts and chased after number six.

This situation was similar to the situation in the tunnel.

The two-headed dog was chasing from behind, while the giant was finding a position to intercept. This kind of pursuit and blocking was seamless. Even if number six was a scumbag, he would not be able to escape death if he did not show his true ability!

"Number one, you son of a b * tch!

Number six was flustered and exasperated, and he couldn't help but curse.

In fact, when the others saw number six's end, they couldn't help but feel a lingering fear and their scalps tightened.

Number one's special ability appeared and disappeared unpredictably, and he easily diverted the trouble to the East. This time, it was number six and number seven who were framed by him, but it was hard to guarantee that he would be the next one!

Song Qing continued to sink carefully, while the other cultivators remained unmoved. They were probably planning to split the points after number six died.

However, if number six were to die and the others were to be defeated one by one in the same way, it was very likely that they would all be wiped out in this mission.

However, if he saved number six, he would be burned by the fire. If he didn't save him, he might also die.

Her heart was beating wildly in her chest. At this time, the ferocious two-headed dog had almost caught up with number six's footsteps. On the other side, number seven, who had his eyes closed, seemed to have sensed the danger. He clenched his fist and seemed to be about to move.

At this moment, song Qingxin's mind was spinning. Before number seven could do anything, she suddenly shouted,"

"Everyone, together!"

As soon as she spoke, not only did she attract the attention of the other participants, but even the survivors who had fled could not help but raise their heads.

"Everyone, attack together, or we'll all die!"

She repeated her own words. Number four and the others had incredulous expressions on their faces, as if they were in disbelief that she would say that she would save number six..

Chapter 396: The giant dog (1)

I

Number six was dead for sure. Everyone could see that he didn't have the magical ability of number one. Under the pincer attack of the two-headed dog and the giant, he probably wouldn't be able to last long!

If he died, it would be extremely beneficial to the other cultivators!

Everyone would be able to split his 2000 points and at the same time, they would have one less person to guard against!

Other than No. 7, the other participants were waiting for No. 6 to die so that they could reap the benefits. No one had expected that song Qing would rashly speak up in such a situation.

Number six, who was being chased, was stunned. A look of shock flashed through his eyes. He was about to say something, but the two-headed dog almost caught up to him. He didn't dare to be distracted.

Number four couldn't believe it. She turned to look at song qingxiao as if she had gone crazy.

Number one didn't show up for the time being, while number five had a thoughtful expression. Although he didn't agree, he didn't object either. Only number two's expression was gloomy. As soon as song qingxiao finished, he sneered,"

"Why must we all attack together?"

In the cave, the footsteps of the giant and the two-headed dog were like rapid drumming, shaking and distracting.

He had a bad blood with little song Qing, and in the trial space, he was taught a lesson by her because he wanted to test her strength, so he had always harbored a grudge.

Now that he had the opportunity, he took the opportunity to hit him while he was down.

"If we don't take them down, number six will die, and we'll be the next ones." Song qingxiao lowered her eyes and pretended that she didn't hear the sarcasm in number two's words. She released her divine sense to search for number one.

Number one's special ability of invisibility was useless under her divine sense.

"Oh," Hearing this, number two couldn't help but sneer,"

“You make it sound nice, but why should we listen to your command?”

The cultivators were on guard against each other and did their own thing. No one was willing to obey the other, so they naturally refused to listen to anyone’s command.

After number two finished speaking, number four didn’t say anything. However, from his expression, it was clear that he had silently agreed to what number two said.

Song qingxiao heard the hidden hatred in number two’s words and lifted her eyelids.

“Am I discussing this with you?” She asked with a smile.

Number two’s expression changed, and a dark glint flashed in his eyes. He was about to say something when song qingxiao pursed her lips.

No. 1’s concealment ability was far more profound than No. 2’s back on the demon Island.

The aura was well concealed. If she had not been lucky enough to enter the realm before the trial this time, she would not have been able to sense it.

At this moment, the aura was sneakily moving in the direction of the suspension bridge. It was probably trying to escape while number six was holding back giant and the two-headed dog, and he was confronting number four and the others!

Song Qingxin sneered in her heart. At this time, how could she allow number one to protect herself?

Number one’s wishful thinking was destined to never be realized when he met her!

“Come out,”

She shouted in a low voice, and her divine sense turned into an invisible sharp blade, attacking in the direction of number one!

Number Five's eyes were shining, and number Four's expression was puzzled. Just as they were not sure what was going on, number one's painful groan suddenly sounded from the direction of the suspension bridge!

His hidden figure gradually appeared. His face was pale, his forehead was covered in sweat, and his body was trembling as if he was enduring great pain. From song qingxiao's words to number one's current state, how could the other cultivators not understand? he must have wanted to escape, but song qingxiao had used some kind of method to force him out!

When number four saw this, his expression changed drastically.

Ever since he had entered the trial space, he had always been wary of song qingxiao.

When they were in the medium, number four had tried to guess song qingxiao's strength because number five had stayed away from her as soon as she entered.

However, even though number four had overestimated song qingxiao's strength, her action of forcing number one to reveal himself had made number four reevaluate her strength.

"You..."

Number one gritted his teeth in anger.

He had directed the disaster to the East and was excitedly trying to be the first to escape from the suspension bridge. He wanted to use the characteristics of his special ability to prioritize completing the task and save his life. However, he had only run two steps when his sea of consciousness suffered a great blow!

The consciousness that he had gathered was forcibly broken by an even more powerful aura. Under the disorder of his spiritual energy, number one's soul was shaken, and his head was splitting. His special ability lost its effect, and his figure was revealed!

Number one wanted to vomit blood, but song qingxiao's previous divine sense attack had left him with a lingering fear.

The pain of his spiritual sense being attacked was far greater than the damage to his body. The escaping skills that he was so proud of were useless in front of song qingxiao. He had no cover in front of her.

This caused number one to feel terrified, but he did not dare to make a sound under the suppression of song Qing's strength.

"I said, let's attack together." She repeated, "I'm not discussing this with you. her eyes moved away from number one, who did not dare to speak, and swept over number five, number seven, and the others. Finally, her gaze fell on number two, and her eyes turned cold.

I m telling you what to do. Do you understand?"

If she had said this a second ago, number two would have sneered at her. However, when he saw number one's face covered in cold sweat and her gaze on him, he couldn't help but feel a chill down his spine.

After he stopped talking, number four naturally didn't dare to say anything.

Song Qing looked down on number one,"

No. 1 will be responsible for luring the giant away.

Hearing her commanding tone, number one's heart burned with anger. However, the pain of his soul being attacked seemed to have been imprinted in his consciousness. When he heard song qingxiao's words, he felt a headache and did not dare to resist.

Let's deal with that two-headed dog first."

When she said this, her tone was as relaxed as if she was discussing today's weather, which made number two very angry.

Do you think you can solve it just because you say so?"

Everyone had seen the power of the two-headed dog. Ordinary people would not be able to fight back against it. Even if the trial-takers were able to subdue the dog with all their martial arts, they would be crippled.

No one knew how long the road to escape the terrorist camp was.

However, since the two-headed dog and giant had already appeared, it was hard to guarantee that there would be more pursuers and obstacles behind them.

If he were to exhaust his strength here, how was he going to escape? At that time, everyone would probably really be bound together, going in and out together!

"If I can't deal with it, I'll deal with you."

Song qingxiao was getting impatient. She narrowed her eyes and threatened.

Strength was the hard truth. Only the person with the bigger fist could speak in the trial.

Hearing her words, a trace of gloominess flashed in number two's eyes, and he didn't dare to say anything else.

Song qingxiao could see the hatred hidden in his heart, but she made up her mind. Number two couldn't be left alive!

the others, " as soon as they were ready to move, song qingxiao's eyes fell on the fugitives in the field, and her expression was cold,"

"We can cross the bridge first."

Some of the survivors were moved, while others were afraid..

Chapter 397: unconvinced 1

"You guys can't help much." The battle was about to begin, and they were all ordinary people. In the face of such a terrifying creature, staying here would only be a waste of their lives.

no one knows what's on the other side of the bridge. If someone goes there first, they can Scout the way and give us some information and warning in advance.

She spoke her intentions bluntly. Number two rolled his eyes, feeling rather irritated.

She could have tricked them into crossing the bridge as a spy, but she had to make it clear.

This group of characters from the original They were all injured by the pursuers, and their deaths.

scene were a bunch of useless trash, staying behind would only lead to

If they were lucky and crossed the other side of the bridge without being attacked, they could still survive.

At this time, it was an honor for them to be used as a Scout by the trial-taker. If it was number two, regardless of whether he was willing or not, he would be kicked off the cliff if he was unwilling to leave. This piece of trash would not be kept.

Song qingxiao's words made it clear that she was treating them as pawns. These people who were afraid of death would probably not be willing to do so. However, in the team, Song Qingxiao, who had shown the strongest strength so far, had the right to speak. Number one, that trash, had already been subdued by her.

Number six was in a dangerous situation. It would be good if she died, but if she was alive, she would probably be on her side because of number three's help.

Number five didn't say anything, number four was a coward, and number seven and number six had a close relationship. They might join forces.

Of the seven trial-takers, he was the only one who had yet to form an alliance. Thinking of this, number two did not dare to speak again.

After Song Qingxiao's words, the survivors hesitated for a while. To No. 2's surprise, they began to slowly move in the direction of the suspension bridge. "Oh," Seeing this scene, number two sneered. He was filled with anger and wanted to chop these people into pieces.

As soon as these people moved, the giant who had been waiting at the side also moved.

-Ha," He grinned and raised his axe to stop her. Song qingxiao warned him, " "Number one!"

Hrnp!" No. 1 had been caught in her weak spot, and now that he heard her threat, he was extremely depressed. He reached out and took out a small crossbow from his body, aiming it at the giant. "I don't need you to be so long-winded, I know what to do!"

He pulled the trigger, and the small arrow on the crossbow shot at the giant. The thin arrow pierced through the flying dust on the ground and hit the giant's body with a 'nail' sound. However, it was blocked by his thick scales and made a sound of metal clashing.

"Such thick skin!" Number one's face showed that he was in pain. After his figure disappeared, he appeared behind the giant again and pulled the trigger. This time, he was lucky. The arrow was shot and pierced between the giant's legs.

This position was really too wretched, even number one was stunned.

The giant's attention was originally focused on the fugitives who were about to cross the suspension bridge. However, the moment the arrow shot into its body, it was stunned.

This place was so sensitive that even the smallest arrow would be detected by the giant.

He turned his hand to grab his butt and felt the arrow stuck in it. The arrow did not go deep. Compared to the giant, it was too small. It was stuck in the gap between the giant's scales.

The arrow obviously did not cause him any harm. He just pulled the arrow out without any pain or breath. However, the anger of being offended and the arrow shot by No. 1 in humiliation were obviously much more serious than the almost negligible damage!

He slammed the giant axe in his hand into the ground seven or eight times in a row, smashing several large pits in the ground. After venting his anger he gently rubbed the 'needle' that was as thin as a cow's hair and crushed it. Then, he picked up the axe and chased in the direction of number one. In his anger, 'he didn't even care about the fugitives and decided to deal with number one ' first!

"It's here again." Number Four's blood was boiling from the sound, and he wanted to pinch his ears.

Immediately after, the giant's 'tap tap tap' sounds of pursuit could be heard. It had already been provoked by number one into true fire.

No. 1 himself had not expected that the arrow he shot would be so effective in attracting the giant's attention.

The giant roared in anger, and the sound waves caused the entire cave to tremble.

The crystals above his head fell with a 'shua shua' sound, and the ground seemed to be shaking because of his anger.

Number one was the first to face the giant's wrath. His scalp went numb, and all the hair on his body stood up.

This feeling was different from the cat-and-mouse teasing giant earlier. He was serious.

"I, I didn't do it on purpose ..." He stammered, not knowing if this big guy understood him.

The giant had already lost all sense of reason and started to charge in his direction.

When he walked, he made a lot of noise. Now, when he ran, it was even more exaggerated. It was as if the whole ground was shaking. With every step he took, the ground would shake a few times. It seemed that if he stomped a few more times, the platform would collapse.

Number one's entire body turned cold. At this time, he had already stepped into this muddy water. He was on the pirate ship, and with Song Qing watching covetously, it was too late to regret. He could only turn around and run away without saying a word. He even cursed,

"Number three, if you don't save me later, I won't let you go even if I become a ghost."

As he was speaking, the giant had already arrived. Even without turning his head, number one could feel the murderous aura coming at him. It made his scalp tingle and his body shiver. He immediately used his special ability and disappeared on the spot in a flash!

Song Qingxiao didn't care what he said, and she didn't care what dirty method number one used to anger the giant. At least he had achieved his goal of attracting the giant's attention. All that was left was for them to deal with this two-headed dog together.

When the giant split his attention to chase after number one, the pressure on the originally dangerous number six was instantly reduced by half, and he could not help but let out a long sigh of relief.

After thinking about it carefully, this flying blame was thrown at him by number one. Now that it was returned, number six felt as good as Zhu Bajie eating a ginseng fruit.

If it wasn't for the two-headed dog behind him, number six would have burst out laughing.

Number one led the giant away. Song qingxiao grabbed her dagger and rushed in the direction of the two-headed dog.

Just as she had expected, number six and number seven had a close relationship. When she moved, number seven also moved.

She took out a soft whip from somewhere and waved it casually. With a crisp 'pa' sound, it expanded in the air and became two to three meters long. The shadow of the whip was like an agile snake, and it went straight for the two-headed dog!

At the same time, Song Qing was stunned to see that number five had also moved!

His body was thin and weak, but he was extremely agile. He ran extremely fast, and the speed of his toes touching the ground was no slower than the whip thrown out by number seven!

The two-headed dog's four eyes had no blind spots. The moment the whip appeared, one of its heads let out a threatening roar. It opened its mouth and turned to bite the long whip. It was ready to deal with this trouble first..

Chapter 398: Go to hell (1)

Number four didn't move, as if he was just watching. Number two, who also didn't make a move, saw him like this and felt a little more at ease. He turned around and laughed at him, scolding,"

"These lackeys."

One of the dog's heads charged at number six, while the other opened its mouth to bite number Seven's whip.

When the whip was in the dog's mouth, something strange happened. The tail of the whip turned into a fist-sized ferocious snake head. It opened its mouth, revealing purple fangs, and bit the tip of the dog's nose.

One could tell at a glance that the fangs were poisonous. If they bit the dog, even if they couldn't kill it, they could at least restrain its strength.

Number five, who was behind the huge dog, saw this scene clearly. He couldn't help but show a happy expression on his face. He stomped his feet and his body rose into the air, jumping onto the back of the two-headed dog.

On the contrary, number four and number two, who were watching from the sidelines, could not help but have their expressions sink when they saw this.

They didn't expect number seven to use such a killing weapon.

If this huge dog had been dealt with the moment it arrived, and the two of them had not made a move, they would probably have been ostracized by the few people who had made a move. The situation would not be good for them!

When number four thought of this, he couldn't help but feel a little anxious.

Previously, he had been afraid of the appearance of this huge dog. Now, he wished that it could show its might and take care of these trial-takers!

"What to do ..." He instinctively turned to look at number two, who had also not made a move. Just as he was about to ask, he realized that number two was not beside him.

In the blink of an eye, he was already sprinting in the direction of the suspension bridge!

"You ..." When number four saw this scene, he was instantly dumbfounded.

While song qingxiao and the others were holding back giant and the two-headed dog, number two wanted to take the opportunity to escape. At this time, he had almost reached the edge of the suspension bridge.

The giant had been angered by number one's arrow and was determined to kill number one. It was as if it didn't see number two's existence and had no intention of stopping him.

Seeing this, number four was overjoyed. Number six was being chased, number Seven's weapon was being held by doghead, and number five was far away from song qingxiao. If he didn't run now, when would he?

As soon as he moved, song qingxiao noticed number two's movement from the corner of her eye and shouted,"

"Number seven, stop him!"

Her voice was heard all over the place, and number two heard it clearly. He knew that the 'he' she was referring to was him.

However, he had already stepped on the suspension bridge, and number Seven's whip was caught by the giant dog. How could he have the time to deal with him?

He was extremely pleased with himself, but the next moment, number two heard a heavy 'ka' sound in his ears.

As the huge dog bit down, number Seven's whip was broken. Before the snake head could bite the dog's nose, it was thrown to the ground and crushed by the two-headed dog's front limbs!

After the whip was bitten off, the remaining half hung down. As soon as song qingxiao finished speaking, number seven heard her order and swung the broken whip at number two without saying a word!

The long whip that she had bitten off gradually grew back as she lashed it out. It was two to three meters long. The smug look on number two's face had not faded away when a 'whoosh' sound was heard. In the next second, a cold and slippery thing wrapped around the side of his waist. With the 'whoosh' sound, it wrapped around his waist several times and firmly wrapped around it, forcibly stopping his forward charge.

Number two turned pale with fright. Before he could react, his body was wrapped by the long whip and lifted into the air.

Once number seven had captured a person, he swung his whip in the direction of the giant!

She was thin, but she was extremely strong. The whip was carrying a person, but she didn't seem to struggle at all.

No. 2 felt his body floating up as the wind blew past his ears. He squinted his eyes and quickly retreated from the suspension bridge. Just as he was about to hit the wall of the tunnel that he had escaped from, the long whip around his waist loosened as if it had a mind of its own.

He heaved a sigh of relief and was about to flip over to land when the tall tunnel behind him suddenly moved.

The moment No. 2 heard the noise, his heart skipped a beat and a shadow appeared above his head.

A huge palm crossed over and accurately caught the falling number two in the middle of its palm.

The Furious giant who was chasing number one happened to meet the trial-taker who came to his door.

"No..."

The moment No. 2 was caught, he let out a heart-wrenching cry.

"Save..."

He tried to ask for help from the other trial-takers, but before he could finish his words, he was grabbed by the giant and stuffed into his mouth!

With the sound of chewing teeth, the mission prompt in song qingxiao's sea of consciousness changed. Escape from the terror Battalion!

[mission completed: 2333.33 points]

Just as she had expected, the reward points for this mission were flexible.

The others had also noticed the change in points, and their eyes flashed with calculations.

No. 4 also received the notification of the changes in his sea of consciousness, and his heart was beating wildly.

The lesson from number two was still fresh in his mind. If he were to escape now, he would most likely be killed by the other trial-takers and turned into points if he were to be held back by number seven!

He didn't have a choice at all. Number Seven's whip had already been withdrawn, and he might be the next one to run.

He pulled back his feet from the suspension bridge, gritted his teeth, and pounced on the two-headed dog.

The moment number two died, number Five's body had already bounced up. As number Seven's whip was bitten off, it had already lost its effect of restraining a dog head.

After the dog head bit off the whip, it turned its head and opened its mouth in the direction of number five.

The current situation was like him throwing himself into the dog's mouth to seek death.

A strong gust of wind blew, and number Five's expression changed.

He didn't expect number Seven's long whip to be so useless. However, he was in mid-air and had lost the advantage of dodging and retreating.

Number Five's eyes darkened after recovering from his shock. A sharp glint appeared in his eyes. He clenched his fists and was about to do something when song qingxiao arrived!

One of the two-headed dog's heads was still in the position of biting number six. At the same time, it raised its forelimbs and stomped in song qingxiao's direction!

The dog was shockingly huge from a distance, and up close, it was like a mountain. Its four limbs were thick and round like a bucket.

If its kick landed, even if an ordinary person didn't die, they would be seriously injured.

Song qingxiao was holding the dagger. The moment she heard the sound of the wind, the shadow above her head fell rapidly. The dog opened its claws, and its long and sharp nails were like a net made of steel thorns, pressing down on her!

Number five, who was in the air, saw it clearly and was surprised by her slow dodging.

She should be very clear about the dog's power. Number Seven's long whip had been broken in just a single attack. Her dagger looked ordinary, even if it came from the trial space, but this two-headed dog's leather armor was very hard. It might not be effective.

The two-headed dog seemed to have victory in its grasp. It even used one of its two heads to deal with number six, and the other to bite number five. It did not look down on song Qing.

The thought flashed through number Five's mind, but in the next moment, he heard a 'slithering' sound in his ears.

The sound was quite ear-piercing, like the sound of a sharp blade cutting glass. Then something heavy fell to the ground, followed by a mournful bark from the dog head that was about to bite his body.

“Woof...”

Number Five’s expression froze for a moment, and the other dog head let out a similarly shrill dog cry,”

“Woof, Woof...”

The two dog heads shrieked one after another, as if they had suffered a great loss.

At the same time, the dog head that almost bit number Five’s body turned back.

Number five, who had just escaped death, paused for a moment, and his veins popped out.. Just as he had expected, he jumped onto the dog’s back with a bang!

Chapter 399: hand in hand _1

At the same time, the two-headed dog’s thick forelimbs landed on the ground.

Number five, who was riding on it, jolted and was almost thrown off.

Number five quickly lowered his body to avoid being thrown off.

It had no fur on its body, but small protruding scales grew on its skin, firmly wrapping the entire two-headed dog’s body.

Number five reached out his hand and grabbed the two-headed dog. The scales seemed to be made of steel and were extremely hard. It made the two-headed dog look like it was wearing an impenetrable armor.

But under such circumstances, how did number three manage to injure it? in the face of such a huge monster, it was difficult for ordinary people to have the heart to resist it. Just like the group of escapees before, they could only escape under the pursuit of the huge dog and did not dare to resist.

Even if the trial-taker was strong and experienced, number three was able to deal with the situation calmly and even made the huge dog suffer. His strength was probably above his estimation and not below!

Song qingxiao didn't know what number five was thinking at the moment. After the dagger in her hand cut off two toenails of the two-headed dog, the tip of the dagger cut through the thick calluses on the two-headed dog's huge palm and pierced into the palm.

Although the dog's skin was thick, and the two nails had blocked some of her strength, the cut was not deep and only blood was seen, but it was enough to make the two-headed dog angry.

It didn't even care about number five who was on its back and number six who was chasing after it. After its forelimbs fell, both of its heads lowered and bit at song qingxiao!

Song qingxiao, on the other hand, managed to Dodge its stomping attack. She bent her body and sneaked into its stomach, which was its blind spot.

At the same time as her feet pushed off the ground, she circulated her spiritual energy, raised the dagger, and stabbed upwards!

With the help of spiritual energy, the dagger easily cut through the thick scales like cutting tofu. The tip of the dagger sank four or five centimeters into the giant dog.

Song qingxiao grabbed the dagger with both hands at the same time and used the force from the kick to quickly slide to the back of the giant dog's abdomen.

With a 'Chi la' sound, the dagger cut through the two-headed dog's defense and opened a wound nearly half a meter long under its belly.

Stinky blood seeped out, dyeing the scales red.

'Wahhh..."

"Owwuuu..."

The two dog heads missed their bite and let out a series of shrieks. It was obvious that they had suffered a greater loss than before.

Number five was riding on top of it, and his vision was blocked by its strong body, so he did not see the previous scene. However, he could feel that the two-headed dog's muscles had contracted desperately the moment it was injured.

The moment number one, number five, number seven, and song qingxiao attacked, number six, who was being chased, suddenly felt the pressure on him relax. He turned his head in danger and happened to see song qingxiao slip under the dog's body.

The two-headed dog was injured and was furious. The blood and pain turned into anger. Its thick forelegs supported it on the ground, and its hind legs rose into the air. It kicked forward with force, trying to kick song qingxiao out of hiding.

It turned its body upside down, exposing song Qing's small body. When the giant dog raised its legs to kick, she had already heard the wind and rolled to the left a meter away.

He had used too much force and tore the wound on its abdomen. Thick blood dripped to the ground, wrapped in dust, and formed soft beads that rolled on the ground.

The two-headed dog became even more furious after its kick missed. The moment its hind leg landed on the ground, it turned its head and opened its mouth at song Qing with a loud 'ow'.

Song qingxiao was half-lying on the ground. When she saw the head of the giant dog coming at her, she immediately circulated her spiritual power and slapped the ground with her palm.

Under the recoil of the palm, her body bounced up and jumped two to three meters away, avoiding the fierce dog's head.

As soon as she stepped back, she happened to be in number Four's direction. Number four heard the sound and looked up to see that the giant dog had gone berserk. Its eyes were blood red and its teeth were grinding.

Number four was intimidated by its imposing manner. Without a word, he turned around and fled.

The two-headed dog bore a grudge against song qingxiao for hurting it, so it ignored number four, who was running away, and chased after song qingxiao! This time, the chase was different from the previous one. The two-headed dog was extremely fast when it was angry. Its four hooves created wind, and its huge body turned into a shadow. In the blink of an eye, it was behind song qingxiao.

As soon as it opened its mouth, a foul wind and stench came out of its throat!

At the moment of crisis, song Qing's small hands formed a seal and was about to use the 'Lin' spell to trap it. On the dog's back, number five had already climbed up the dog's neck and grabbed the ear of one of the heads!

Number five raised his fist and punched it hard on the head.

His body wasn't big, and compared to the two-headed dog's huge head, his fist was even smaller. However, when this punch landed, it made a loud 'dang' sound.

"Awooo... Aooo..."

The dog head that was attacked let out a scream. One of the dog heads immediately retracted its bite and decided to get rid of number five first!

Number Five's punch landed. He clenched his jaw and repeatedly punched the dog's head.

The dog's head swung around desperately, and its speed in chasing song qingxiao slowed down.

It was normal for number four to run away at the last minute, but to song qingxiao's surprise, number five would help her escape at this time. Taking advantage of the fact that the two-headed dog was entangled by number five, she released her handprint and took the opportunity to widen the distance. Number five clamped the dog's neck with his legs and pulled the dog's ear with one hand. With all his strength, he punched the dog again!

With a muffled 'boom', the punch hit a blood-red Dog eye.

He was small but strong, and he had hit the weak spot of the dog's head. The giant dog let out a sharp cry of pain.

"Aooo... Wuuwu..."

Under the intense pain, the dog's head swung even harder. Even though number five used all his strength to grab onto one of the drooping dog ears to prevent himself from being thrown off, he was still thrown off after a few times and flew up.

The head that was about to attack song qingxiao retreated and turned its head, wanting to swallow number five in the air!

No. 7, who had just sent No. 2 on his way, had already thrown out his whip and wrapped it around one of the two-headed dog's hind legs. 'Swish, swish,' it went around a few times and trapped it.

Once number seven succeeded, he pulled the whip back with all his might, trying to stop the two-headed dog from devouring number five. However, the dog's strength was far beyond number Seven's imagination. She tightened her grip on the whip, but not only did she fail to restrain the two-headed dog, but the whip was also stretched to the point that it creaked and dragged number seven forward.

in the nick of time, song qingxiao turned around and stomped on the ground, running toward the two-headed dog. Just as number five was about to be bitten by the two-headed dog, she rushed over and grabbed the steel-whip-like dog's tail!

"Stop right there!" She let out a fierce cry, and the spiritual energy in her body surged out. The dark brown dog's tail immediately formed a large frost, and it was frozen. A burst of ear-piercing claws rubbed against the ground. The mountain-like strong dog was forcibly grabbed by her alone!

"Owwuuu..."

The dog's head roared and number Five's figure barely slipped past the dog's mouth. Then, he fell to the ground with a bang and rolled several times before he stopped..

Chapter 400: Side-by-side (1)

With a cracking sound, Blue Ice crystals gradually spread up the two-headed dog's tail, to its tail, to its hind legs, and froze half of its body at an astonishing speed!

When number four, who had turned around to escape, heard the sound, he instinctively turned his head and happened to see half of the two-headed dog's body frozen into an ice sculpture. His face revealed a shocked expression.

"Awooo... Awooo..."

The dog's two heads roared in a frenzy, and the sound reverberated throughout the cave.

Number five, who was still in shock, rolled a few times on the ground before he got up. He also saw this extremely shocking scene.

The lower half of the two-headed dog's body had been completely frozen, like a statue that was standing upright. The ice crystal seemed to have come to life and was climbing upwards. With every inch it climbed up, the dog's barking became louder.

The heads and forelimbs of the two dogs were still shaking wildly, as if they wanted to break free from the shackles.

Every time it struggled, the ice on its body cracked, but as song Qing injected her spiritual energy into it, the cracks were repaired, and the huge dog was frozen in it!

Number three's strength was much stronger than what she had shown before. The huge dog that was nearly five meters tall when it stood up was completely bound by her.

Number six, who was about to pull his hand out of his sleeve, froze. He didn't dare to show any emotion in his eyes. He glanced at number seven and didn't even dare to say a word.

The ice crystals quickly spread to the dog's forelimbs, and its legs were no longer as agile as before.

Was this the end?

As this thought flashed through number Five's mind, the ice had already frozen the two-headed dog's front paws. The light blue Frost had already climbed up to the two-headed dog's neck.

At this moment, the two-headed dog's voice suddenly became even louder, so loud that it was almost unbearable for a human's eardrum!

The top of the cave was attacked by the sound waves, and the crystals above the head fell down with clattering sounds.

As the roars from the two dog heads grew louder, its body began to mutate!

Under the blue ice crystals, its muscles began to expand, and its already huge body began to expand again.

As its body expanded once more, the ice that had frozen it began to crack inch by inch. With a cracking sound, the giant dog let out an extremely high-pitched roar from its mouth. Under the resistance of its brute force, the ice that had trapped it began to crack open, splashing everywhere!

As soon as the two-headed dog's body was freed, its raised forelimbs fell to the ground with a loud bang.

The ground trembled violently. Song qingxiao failed to trap it. Before she could release her hand and retreat, the giant dog was as fast as lightning. It turned its head and opened its mouth. A gust of foul wind and a red flame came out of its mouth.

"Hurry..."

Number Five's pupils contracted as he let out a cry of surprise.

It had happened too quickly, and he was too far away to help. No one had expected that the two-headed dog's body would expand once again. Apart from using its claws and fangs to hurt people, it could also use fire-type spells!

Although song qingxiao was strong, she must have used a lot of energy to trap the dog. Now that the dog suddenly turned around and attacked at such a close distance, song qingxiao would probably have a hard time escaping!

It was too late to escape now. No matter how fast a human was, it was hard to compete with this two-headed dog.

Before number five could finish his sentence, song Qing let go of the dog's tail, put his hands together, and then pulled it away.

A transparent ice shield appeared between her palms. As she spread her arms, it grew bigger and bigger, blocking her body!

“BOOM!” The flames spat out by the two-headed dog were blocked by the ice shield. Under the high temperature, the ice melted rapidly, turning into a large amount of thick fog that enveloped the man and dog head.

At this time, the other dog head also turned around fiercely. It opened its mouth wide, revealing two rows of teeth, as if it wanted to bite song Qing!

Run...” Number Five’s voice rang out. Number six, who had his hands in his sleeves, finally moved.

He took out his hand from his sleeve, and there was something like a flute in his palm. He took the flute and put it to his mouth. He gathered his spirit energy and blew it into the flute!

A melodious sound came from the flute. The sound was driven by spiritual energy. Although it was not exciting, it strangely suppressed the barking of dogs, the roars of Giants, and the sound of footsteps.

The entire cave seemed to be occupied by the crisp sound of the flute. The dog head, which was about to spit fire again, showed a dazed look in its blood-red eyes under the sound of the flute. It paused for a moment, and the flames turned into sparks and sprayed out.

But at this time, the other dog head that was biting song qingxiao was already in front of her. Its mouth was wide open, revealing a mouth full of sharp fangs. Even if the dog’s eyes were slightly dazed, the closed mouth was enough to bite off song qingxiao’s head!

The benefits she had gained from the last trial had been great for her. The moment the flute sounded, she had already activated her consciousness and blocked the demonic sound from her sea of consciousness!

While the others were affected by the music, the spiritual attack of this sound was nothing to her.

As the dog’s head closed, the shadow above it quickly closed.

It was too late to retreat now, so he could only take the initiative!

At the critical moment of life and death, the silver Wolf Totem seal appeared on her wrist. As the giant dog's aura approached, she felt a sharp pain!

The silver Wolf's high and majestic howl resounded in her consciousness, as if it had been offended by the giant dog's provocation, giving rise to an unparalleled anger!

Silver lines appeared on the back of her hand, and the bones on her fingers suddenly made a sound. Her slender nails turned into sharp claws. She didn't have time to be surprised by the change in her body. The next moment, her arm instinctively reached into the mouth of the huge dog and caught its huge, thick tongue.

He held it tightly and pulled hard!

His sharp nails were like an indestructible weapon. With a little force from song Qing, he pulled out the tongue from the root!

"Owwuuu..."

The giant dog that had been confused by the flute's sound earlier let out a world-shaking cry of pain. The sound was so loud that it forcibly drowned out the flute's sound!

Under the reflection of the power, number six was injured quite badly. With a ■WA' sound, he spat out a large mouthful of blood on the flute!

The sound of the flute stopped abruptly, and the magical power disappeared. Number five woke up with a start and realized that he had been in a daze for a moment.

He felt a sense of fear, but he was not the only one who was momentarily dazed. Number one, who had been hiding, also revealed himself. He was quickly discovered by the angry giant and chased after him.

“Aooo... Aooo...”

The two-headed dog’s screams were getting louder and louder. Song Qing Xiao’s hand was covered in blood, and she was holding a terrifyingly large tongue in her palm.

Large amounts of blood flowed down from the two-headed dog’s mouth, dyeing its teeth red.
