Chapter 541: The main world_I

The young girl's body under his palm seemed to have become a vast sea of stars. The spiritual energy that the old man had patted into song Qing's body was instantly sucked in.

Her life force that had already been cut off began to reignite at this moment. Her severed meridians began to reconnect, and an extremely terrifying and powerful spiritual energy began to repair her broken body.

What kind of miracle was this?

The old man noticed this in horror. He instinctively raised his head and met a pair of eyes that seemed to be open yet not open.

Terrible! It was as if he had awakened something that he shouldn't have! freewebno(v)el

"Who are you?"

He blurted out and asked with a serious expression.

In his eyes, the young girl from before was like an unremarkable ant. He could crush her to death with a light squeeze.

However, when she opened her eyes again, the feeling that she gave the old man was different from before.

Her aura became unfathomable, causing the old man's eyelids to Twitch wildly. A bad premonition welled up in his heart, and he instinctively reached out to accumulate strength again, slapping down on her dantian!

With a loud 'bang', the spiritual energy he had sent out was silently absorbed by her.

'Song qingxiao's' eyes were filled with mockery. Her eyebrows were slightly furrowed, and she looked disdainful.

'Aooo ...' The silver Wolf, who was suppressed on the ground, was far more sensitive than the others. After it 'smelled' the change in song qingxiao's aura, it suddenly struggled madly and roared fiercely in the direction of 'song qingxiao'.

"Third brother..." The beautiful woman called out in a hurry, as if she was having a hard time suppressing the sudden violence of the silver Wolf.

'She' raised her thin eyebrows. The old man in front of 'her' seemed to be just a grain of rice in the vast sea. who are you to ask who I am?"

As soon as 'song qingxiao' said this, the old man broke out in a cold sweat and felt danger approaching.

This person was meticulous and extremely cautious. The moment he sensed that something was wrong, he immediately let go of 'song qingxiao's' arm and turned to retreat.

"Let's go!"

As soon as he finished speaking, he turned into a gray shadow and pounced out.

The silver Wolf on the ground was suppressed by a huge white net. The beautiful woman made a seal with both hands and sent a large amount of spiritual power into the net, firmly suppressing the silver Wolf to the ground.

In the distance, a burly man with a saber in one hand and a neck in the other was filled with killing intent and a ferocious expression.

Neither of them had expected that the old man would flee in such a sorry state at such a critical moment!

“Third brother?” The burly man, who was holding his neck, widened his eyes in shock. Although he did not know why the old man would make such a choice when facing this ‘young girl’ who was about to die, the burly man and the beautiful woman trusted him to the extreme. The two of them quickly looked at each other and ran in the other direction without prior agreement.

However, they were a step too slow.

After song qingxiao steadied herself, she watched as the three of them turned into meteors and fled in different directions. She squinted her eyes.

“Can you leave?”

‘She’ waved her hands, and the surrounding spiritual energy seemed to be driven by ‘her’, forming an invisible iron wall. The three figures that were escaping collided with it at the same time, but were bounced back by this barrier!

The three figures fell back and landed heavily on the ground.

The old man stood up in a sorry state and turned to look in the direction where ‘song qingxiao’ was standing. The girl who was on the verge of death was now standing straight. He could almost see his own panic-stricken face in ‘her’ eyes.

“Senior!” As soon as the old man was stopped, his heart sank. With his strength, it was difficult for him to test what realm the person in front of him had reached.

The old man’s mouth was bitter. He didn’t expect to encounter such a rare thing in the imperial capital tonight. He was really unlucky!

At this moment, he only hoped to be able to escape successfully and report tonight’s incident to the higher-ups.

we don’t mean to offend you. All of this is just at home...

The situation had reversed. The beautiful woman and the burly man stared at the shadow in the middle of the street with extreme vigilance, listening to the old man's sincere request.

In the distance, the silver Wolf was still howling, stretching out its sharp claws to tear at the net that was suppressing it. The spiritual power on the net was scattered by it, and it gradually lost control of it.

In the middle of the street, 'song qingxiao' did not seem to be listening to the old man's explanation. She walked forward.

Every step 'she' took brought about a powerful pressure. Under this pressure, the ritual implement in the burly man's hand let out a 'ding' sound, as if it was trembling. In front of 'her', it could not even raise the thought of resisting.

"I don't care about these small things." Her shadow was elongated under the light, and the terrifying spiritual power came crashing down. Every word she said made the three people's hearts clench, and they didn't even dare to breathe.

"I was able to wake up because of your efforts. In that case, I'll send you on your way." "This is a gift. You should be grateful," she said softly, her tone relaxed and with a smile.

As 'her' voice fell, 'her' body suddenly burst out with an extremely strong spiritual energy. The spiritual energy seemed to have turned into a substance and gradually took shape beside her.

The terrifying power of the 'deity Vanquisher' spread throughout the world, causing the surrounding streets, street lights, and abandoned buildings to tremble as if they could feel the biting cold.

A large number of stones were crushed into dust by the spiritual power. The old man, the beautiful woman, and the injured man were baptized by this murderous aura, their hair flying and their clothes cut into pieces.

"Not good!"

The old man's soul flew out of his body as he circulated all the Ling power in his body to resist this Ling power.

However, in the face of this massive spiritual power, their resistance was like a mayfly in the face of heaven and earth. It was not worth mentioning.

"Who are you?" The terrifying Ling power crashed into the old man's chest, causing the bones in his chest to creak from the pressure.

His spiritual power transformed into three arrows of light, floating beside 'song qingxiao', exuding enough power to destroy the world!

This kind of Divine Art that could materialize spiritual energy and control it at will made the old man's mind flash with inspiration, and he suddenly had an idea.

He was so shocked that his entire body trembled, and he shouted in a hoarse voice,"

"Deity vanquishing spell'? Su Wu ..."

As soon as the old man's desperate cry rang out, the three light arrows turned into a dazzling rain of arrows and pierced through the three people's bodies!

They didn't even have the time to shout before their primordial spirits and bodies were crushed by the 'God destroying technique', turning into a large cloud of blood mist that drifted down.

"Correct." Song Qing chuckled," too bad there's no reward!

The aftermath of the spirit force spread in all directions, and the bricks on the ground and the abandoned shops were affected. With a 'crack, crack', they shattered and collapsed, merging with the blood mist that was flying in the sky and slowly sinking.

However, 'song qingxiao', who was slowly moving forward, seemed to be stepping on the void. The blood mist seemed to be quite afraid of her 'and avoided' her', leaving a clean space beside her.

With a 'howl', the beautiful woman died, and the net that restrained the silver Wolf was quickly destroyed by the silver Wolf. It pounced from the ruins and bit at 'song qingxiao', who was floating in the air..

Chapter 542: The fight (1)

"There's still one fish that escaped the net." Song qingxiao said coldly. She clenched her fist subconsciously, and a few dots of Starlight gathered in her palm. They flickered and before they could take shape, they were scattered by the silver Wolf!

Several sharp and extraordinary long armors reached out to grab 'her'. At the same time, a foul wind blew, and the silver Wolf's ferocious teeth bit her 'neck. It was extremely fierce!

Animals had far more perception than humans. The silver Wolf recognized its companions through their smell rather than their appearance. So, after sensing song qingxiao's change, it did not hesitate to attack.

'She' once again held her hand, and the Starlight in 'su Wu' s palm formed a one-meter-long spear of light, which was placed diagonally in front of her. But the next moment, the silver Wolf opened its mouth wide and bit the spiritual energy into pieces.

The light spear broke apart and turned into star power that scattered in all directions.

At the same time, the silver Wolf's claws carried a huge amount of spiritual power and clawed at 'her' body, as if it wanted to tear her apart.

For some reason, the silver Wolf ignored the suppression of 'his' level and attacked fiercely.

“I forgot that this body’s realm is still very low.” Su Wu laughed bitterly. After he died, he had been living in song qingxiao’s consciousness, waiting for an opportunity.

In the previous trial, when song qingxiao was facing the danger of the undead altar, ‘he’ had taken the opportunity when she was performing the ‘God destroying technique’ to absorb the enormous power of Starlight that had accumulated in the undead altar.

He borrowed the power of the Starlight to repair his soul.

It was a good opportunity for song qingxiao to be besieged tonight. Just as she was about to die, ‘he’ took the opportunity to appear and take over her body.

She relied on the power she had absorbed at the undead altar to kill the three elders who had surrounded her. She also used a large amount of Starlight power to repair her damaged internal organs.

However, in this way, he had consumed 80 to 90 percent of his accumulated power of Starlight. Now that he was facing the silver Wolf’s attack, he couldn’t kill it immediately.

If ‘he’ was at his peak, even if ‘he’ only had 20 – 30% of his spiritual energy left, ‘he’ would be able to kill him with a move of his finger!

It was really like a tiger falling into the sun and being bullied by a dog!

What made ‘su Wu’ feel the most troublesome was that as ‘his’ spiritual power was exhausted, there was a consciousness that had not been completely destroyed in the sea of consciousness, struggling as if it wanted to break the wall and be reborn.

It was the original consciousness of this body, and she had not completely disappeared.

When the old man killed her, ‘su Wu’ was anxious to escape and was also worried that she would drag him down after she died. Therefore, he could not wait for her to be seriously injured and her consciousness to dissipate. He used his divine sense, which had been nourished by the power of Starlight for a period of time, to forcibly suppress her.

As soon as 'he' appeared, he had no time to kill her remnant consciousness. He first killed the old man and the other two, then recuperated, and then was attacked by the silver Wolf.

This consciousness was extremely tenacious. After 'su Wu' repaired her body, her originally weak soul was gradually recovering!

The act of 'him' nourishing her internal organs earlier seemed to be making a wedding dress for her!

"Not good!" Su Wu was extremely depressed. Song qingxiao's soul became clearer and clearer. This body originally belonged to her, and the compatibility with her was not something su Wu could compare with.

Once she fought for control of her body, 'su Wu' was actually feeling a little strained now that most of her power of Starlight had been consumed.

While "he" was in a daze, the unusually fierce Silver Wolf howled and clawed at "his" chest. The claws pierced into "his" flesh, and under the stimulation of pain, "his" body began to gradually lose control.

The old man had shattered her meridians, but he had not been able to destroy her primordial spirit. This situation really made 'su five' vomit blood.

The worst thing was that under the stimulation of the silver Wolf's claw, the blue blood sealed in her chest seemed to be stimulated by this force and actually trembled slowly. A trace of blood was separated from the seal and slowly integrated into her body!

As soon as the blue blood entered song Qing's body, her consciousness seemed to be nourished and her strength increased greatly.

This situation shocked 'su Wu'. He did not know the origin of the blue blood, but he was extremely afraid of it.

The soul and primordial spirit in the sea of consciousness were getting stronger and stronger. A mere primordial spirit in the spirit condensation realm could actually fight “him” on equal terms. It even felt like “he” wanted to use the divine sense to devour “him.”

The sea of consciousness seemed to have become a battlefield, and the consciousnesses of both sides were clashing. Song qingxiao’s forehead was covered in sweat, and her black eyes gradually turned pale gold. Her pupils turned into needle tips, slowly driving away the black color!

It was not good for either of them to persist. The silver Wolf was interfering on the outside, and song Qing was unwilling to give up on the inside. ‘He’ had already died once and knew the principle of temporary retreat. At this time, ‘fifth su’ was very unwilling, but he still gritted his teeth. When the divine sense occupied her sea of consciousness again, ‘his’ spirit retreated and hid in the depths of her spirit again, waiting for the next opportunity.

When song qingxiao was almost killed by the old man’s palm, she thought she was dead for sure and quickly lost control of her body.

A strange and powerful aura seemed to be released from her soul, suppressing her divine sense to a corner of her consciousness.

That powerful consciousness was slowly occupying her sea of consciousness, as if it would devour her at any time.

Just as her consciousness was about to dissipate, she seemed to hear the howl of the silver Wolf, which woke her up.

As soon as her spiritual sense woke up, she quickly realized that something was wrong and tried her best to resist the aura in her sea of consciousness.

The divine sense was astonishingly powerful and firmly suppressed her. At the critical moment, she tried her best to call the primordial spirit in her mind to wake it up, and only then did she barely resist it.

The danger of fighting and devouring each other’s spiritual power was no less than that of a real enemy. Her divine sense had been consumed by more than half, and when she was barely holding on, her heart moved slightly, and a chill spread from it, which then spread throughout her body, stimulating her consciousness that was on the verge of slacking, and greatly rousing her spirit!

Under the stimulation of this chill, the divine sense that was fighting with her suddenly retreated for some reason!

When song qingxiao opened her eyes in dizziness, the fierce howl of the silver Wolf came to her ears. Its curved claws, like hooked thorns, grabbed her and lifted her up.

A foul wind mixed with a rain of blood blew past her ears. The moment the silver Wolf's sharp teeth were about to pierce her skin, its wet nose moved slightly, as if it had smelled a familiar scent.

A sharp pain spread from her heart to her limbs, clearing her mind.

After realizing her situation, song Qing was shocked. Half of her head was stuck in the silver Wolf's mouth, and she immediately wanted to raise her hand to slap the silver wolf's head.

However, she had just suffered a serious injury. Although her internal organs had been nourished by 'su Five's spiritual energy, and her veins were in the process of being reconnected, they had been shattered by the silver Wolf's claw. Her body was empty and could not summon any spiritual energy.

On the contrary, the spiritual energy on the Wolf's claws invaded her veins and destroyed 'su Wu's' previous recovery process that had been difficult.

At the moment of life and death, her aura changed, and a cold light flashed in her eyes. Under the impact of her aura, the silver Wolf's teeth paused, and it retracted its claws with a 'ao' sound, then turned around and retreated!

The claw retracted along with the flesh and blood, bringing with it a piercing pain!

Song qingxiao vomited a large mouthful of blood, but she was more clear-headed than before.

There was a bloody hole in her chest. The silver Wolf's attack seemed to have added more injuries to her injury. She lost her support and her body fell limply.

After the silver Wolf retracted its claws and landed on the ground, it shot over like lightning and accurately caught her falling body, causing her to fall onto the Wolf's back with a 'bang'!

After Hunchback-ing her, the silver Wolf jumped up and leaped dozens of meters away in a few jumps, quickly escaping from this place!

Song qingxiao grabbed the Wolf's fur and gritted her teeth to prevent herself from falling off.

The wind blew past her ears from both sides. She tried her best to maintain her spiritual sense, not daring to let herself faint.

"Don't go back..." She mumbled, blood dripping from her nose and mouth, covering the silver Wolf's back.

At this time, she simply didn't have the time to think about what had happened earlier. She also didn't know where the old man and the other two had gone when she was unconscious. She immediately sank her consciousness into her sea of consciousness and examined her soul.

The mysterious dagger in his dantian was sleeping quietly. The 'God-killing technique' and the 'confrontation' and 'person' in the nine words secret order didn't change. His body flickered with a few starlights. The 'stellar array' he had absorbed from the dead soul altar was also there, and it hadn't been taken away by the old man..

Chapter 543: Crisis (1)

For many people in the imperial capital, that night was destined to be a sleepless night.

When 'su Wu' used the 'God annihilating technique', his aura spread out and immediately woke up many people who were hiding in the dark!

Not long after the silver Wolf left with song qingxiao, many auras rushed over like meteors.

Song qingxiao could no longer care about the mess she had made. The silver Wolf was unusually fast. It ran in the night, and its long fur flew up and patted her body. It was cold and smooth.

Blood kept flowing out of the Big Hole in his chest. The wind blew in, making it cold and painful.

She could feel her life force rapidly draining away as her blood flowed out. Every time her consciousness was about to sink into darkness, she would bite her tongue to keep herself awake.

However, her mouth was filled with the taste of blood, and her tongue was numb. She trembled all over and smiled bitterly.

He did not die at the old man's hands tonight, but it was very likely that he would die under the silver Wolf's claw.

However, if it wasn't for the stimulation brought by its claw, perhaps her divine sense would have been swallowed up by another more powerful consciousness. The silver Wolf's claw at least gave her some chance to survive. She didn't know whether she should be worried or happy about the current situation.

She definitely couldn't go home. The battle tonight had caused too much of a commotion. When she woke up, she didn't sense the aura of the three people who were chasing her. It was very likely that something had happened.

Once the three of them died, the underworld clans would definitely come to investigate. She was the one who started the whole thing, and song qingxiao was worried that she would be caught when she returned.

There was no place for Captain an to hide. If she was exposed, Captain an would probably be implicated by her.

She forced herself to focus and thought about it. Finally, she came up with a hiding place.

The most dangerous place was also the safest place. If the person who had assassinated her and nurse Lin was indeed related to the Shi family, then what had happened tonight would definitely attract the Shi family's attention.

The old man and the other two were quite powerful, and they should be quite famous in the Shi family. If something happened to the three of them, the Shi family would definitely send people to investigate, and then some of the experts in the Imperial City would be drawn out.

She endured the intense pain all over her body and reached out to Pat the silver Wolf's neck, signaling it to turn around and head in the direction of the city center.

Song qingxiao's slap was weak. After a few slaps, her arm drooped weakly. The silver Wolf was instructed by her and understood her intentions. As expected, it took her to the city center.

Its sense of smell was extremely sensitive. Although it was injured, its movements were still fast, and it knew how to avoid interference from people and surveillance cameras.

In addition, as song qingxiao had guessed, the Masters of the major families in the imperial capital were alarmed the moment the 'God destroying technique' was released. They all rushed to the battle in the western suburbs, so the man and Wolf didn't attract anyone's attention along the way.

Song qingxiao felt as if she was riding on clouds on the back of the wolf, and it didn't take long for them to reach the center of the Imperial City.

This place was once the heart of the Empire's power. However, after the Shi family had released their control over the Empire, the new political center had long been moved away. This place had only become the spiritual symbol of the Empire.

But even so, because the city center was occupied by the nobility of the royal family, the security was still very tight, and there were guards patrolling from time to time.

In the past, song qingxiao was just an ordinary citizen of the Empire and would not have dared to barge in.

However, even though she was severely injured and her life was in danger, these Imperial Guards were still useless to her.

The silver Wolf brought her to the center of the Imperial City, avoiding the patrolling guards like a ghost.

The deeper they went, the fewer Imperial Guards there were on patrol, but this did not mean that the guards were lax. On the contrary, it was possible that there were more guards hiding in the dark.

However, the real experts had all been lured away, leaving behind only some mediocre secret guards. Therefore, a man and a Wolf had barged in without causing any noise.

The silver Wolf kicked its hind legs and flew over a ten-meter-long alarm. It landed steadily in a quiet courtyard. It looked around with its head high, then shook its body and threw song Qing to the ground.

With a loud bang, song Qing let out a muffled groan. Blood gushed out from the wound on her chest, bringing with it a heart-wrenching pain. Her back was once again covered in cold sweat.

She gritted her teeth and held the wound on her chest in pain as she slowly sat up and moved her body to lean back.

She did not know where she was, but since the silver Wolf had put her down here, it should mean that she was safe for the time being.

It was quiet all around. The man and Wolf were hiding in a large, dense bamboo forest. The night wind blew, and there was an endless rustling.

Perhaps because of the silver Wolf's presence, she could not hear the sounds of snakes, insects, rats, and ants around her. Song qingxiao could only hear her heart beating against her broken chest, making 'bang bang bang' sounds.

Every time she hit him, blood would flow out, causing her limbs to turn cold.

She tried to raise her spiritual power, but her body was empty. Her severely damaged veins and arteries were damaged more every time she tried to raise her spiritual power.

The most terrifying thing was that the damage caused by the silver Wolf's claw was not just a superficial wound. It had once devoured the Cerberus 'internal organs, and after its evolution, it had obtained the Cerberus's power of fire. Coincidentally, song qingxiao's back had been scratched by the Cerberus when she was escaping from the trial at the terror Battalion. There were remnants of the flame poison in her body that had never been dispelled, and she had only been suppressing it with her spiritual power.

After tonight's battle, her spiritual power had been exhausted, and she could no longer suppress the flame poison. The flame poison on the silver Wolf's claws reflected each other, burning her veins and vessels. The pain multiplied, making her body drenched in cold sweat and trembling.

At the same time, the blue blood that gushed out of her body began to repair her damaged internal organs.

The continuous healing and injury process caused song qingxiao's veins to feel like thousands of ants were drilling into her heart, and she was in excruciating pain.

She stepped back, leaving a deep bloody mark on the ground.

After the silver Wolf put her down, it slowly lay down and began to lick its own body.

The first thing it licked was the fur on its back. When it escaped with song qingxiao, its body was stained with song qingxiao's blood.

Some of the blood came from her wounds, and some came from the blood she spat out after her internal organs were crushed.

The silver Wolf licked its fur and made a 'shua shua' sound. It was about two to three meters away from song qingxiao. It seemed to have lowered its head, but song qingxiao felt that its attention was always on her.

Her hair stood on end. Her intuition, which had been honed from several life-and-death situations, made her feel a faint killing intent.

Although the wolf had gone through life and death with her, saved her, and treated her like a companion, song qingxiao did not dare to let her guard down.

If it were any other time, she would have absolute trust in the silver Wolf. However, at this moment, she could not help but think of the Wolf's pride and the group of mutated wolves on the demon Island..

Chapter 544: Evolution (1)

After the trial on the demon Island, song qingxiao had gone through two more trials in a row. As she got along with the silver Wolf more and more, she rarely thought about her first acquaintance with the silver Wolf.

This Silver Wolf had first appeared and attacked the camp to take revenge for its tribe.

That day by the stream, they were attacked by a pack of mutated wolves. Mr. Zhou's bodyguards had defeated most of the wolves.

However, these genetically mutated creatures had extremely strong vitality. The bullets might not have been able to kill all the wolves in the first place, especially in the critical situation at that time. Everyone was in a hurry to 'escape', so no one could determine whether the wolves were alive or dead. After the incident, song qingxiao rarely thought about this problem, but she was sure that the wolves were not all dead after the escape.

Song qingxiao remembered very clearly that she had plotted against number two, causing him to be dragged into the bushes by a gray wolf to avoid the pursuit of bullets.

In other words, other than the mutated wolves that were injured by the bullets, the Wolf Pack and the wolves were hiding in the bushes at that time and avoided the disaster.

However, when the silver Wolf appeared, it was already a lone wolf that had left the pack of wolves.

Later on, when he encountered the flood Dragon on the other side of the island, the silver Wolf followed it alone. He could be sure that it had no companions.

Wolves were pack animals. If its companions were still alive, it would be impossible for it to be a lone wolf that left the pack. The only possibility was that before it took action, the pack of wolves had already been wiped out, and it was the only one left.

However, song qingxiao had been with the silver Wolf for a long time and knew how strong it was.

This Wolf was extremely arrogant, and it was not afraid of death in battle. It was also extremely vengeful and petty.

It dared to confront the creature on evil demon Island that had evolved to the level of a Wyrms and even dared to fight it head-on. It tried to snatch the food from the Wyrms's mouth. In addition to courage, its strength was also not to be underestimated.

If there was such a King among the wolves, there should be very few natural enemies in the jungle on another demon Island.

In other words, these destroyed wolves were unlikely to die in the mouths of other creatures. Instead, it was very likely that they were buried in the mouths of silver wolves!

It was too proud! They shouldn't allow such a weak person to be among their companions.

When she was at her peak, she had the ability to counterattack and suppress the silver Wolf, so she was on par with it. Therefore, when they fought, it was a comrade, a companion, and a reliable shield.

However, she was severely injured and on her last breath. To the silver Wolf, she was likely to be a weakling and a burden. Her flesh contained the blood of a flood Dragon and the evolution potion, which could help the wolf King evolve. In the world of wolves, the strong preyed on the weak. If she continued in this state, she would be in danger!

Song qingxiao was extremely anxious. At this time, her meridians were seriously damaged, the spiritual power in her body was empty, and her primordial spirit and divine sense had been consumed a lot in the battle with the consciousness. At this time, she could only place all her hope on the blue blood that spilled from the seal.

If her meridians could be repaired and she could recover some spiritual energy without showing any signs of fatigue, she might be able to escape from danger. However, this wisp of flood dragon blood was really too thin. She had suffered two fatal injuries, and her situation was really terrible.

In addition, the existence of that thread of flame poison caused her recovery to be extremely slow.

Meanwhile, the silver Wolf had already combed its fur. Most of the blood that had flowed out of song qingxiao's body had been licked clean by it. The fur that had been soaked in blood had a strange light pink color in the bamboo forest.

It raised its head and stared at song Qing. The moonlight shone through the gaps in the bamboo forest, making its eyes glow a creepy green.

Song qingxiao closed her eyes. She could feel the Wolf's gaze on her. Her body tensed up and she instinctively summoned the mysterious dagger.

The silver Wolf lay on the ground for a while and slowly got up. As it walked it stepped on the broken bamboo on the ground, making a 'Xi suo' sound.

It stopped at the spot where blood had dripped from song qingxiao's wound. It licked the blood clean, looked up at her, and lay down again.

It was getting closer to him, and this distance was really dangerous.

Song qingxiao gritted her teeth and took a deep breath. The blue blood in her body moved slowly. Under such circumstances, her veins had only been repaired by a small half. It was too slow.

She scanned her body with her divine sense and found that the seal in the middle of her heart was still motionless. The blue blood that had saved her life several times before was actually just a drop in the ocean in this seal.

It was not realistic to completely remove the seal at this time. She simply could not find a way to remove the seal, but she remembered that every time the seal was activated automatically, it was at the moment of her life and death.

Her eyelids concealed the ruthlessness in her eyes. She clenched the dagger tightly, covered it with her divine sense, and used all her strength to raise her arm.

The blade reflected light and the silver Wolf that had been watching her was shocked by her actions. It subconsciously got up and retreated. Its four limbs bent and it opened its mouth to reveal its fangs. Its eyes were sharp.

Just as he was about to pounce, he saw song qingxiao holding the dagger and stabbing it into her own heart!

The tip of the knife pierced through her flesh with a Puchi' sound and went straight into her internal organs, destroying the little life force that she had left.

Song Qing's heart was severely injured. As his heart beat wildly, a large amount of blood began to flow out from the wound. With every beat, song Qing spat out a large amount of blood.

The divine sense covering the dagger stimulated the motionless seal suspended in her heart. As she felt a large amount of life force flowing away, her hands and feet were cold and her body began to Twitch instinctively, the seal that had been motionless all this time suddenly moved!

Song qingxiao grinned, and a small stream of blue blood flowed out. It first flowed through her injured heart, dying her internal organs light blue!

The moment the silver Wolf felt that she was even weaker, it let out a low groan. When it pounced on her, song qingxiao's closed eyes opened.

His eyes turned golden and his pupils shrank to the size of a needle tip.

Large blue scales appeared on her cheeks and body. The Big Hole in her chest that was clawed open by the silver Wolf was quickly squirming and closing up, and soon, she was wrapped in scales!

The damaged internal organs were forcefully repaired by the flood dragon's bloodline, and the broken tendons were reconnected.

Song qingxiao felt as if she was surrounded by Ice and Fire. A violent energy filled her body with the blue blood!

Her upper body felt like it was being roasted by a raging fire, but her lower body felt like it had fallen into an ice cellar. The energy that could not be vented flowed to her lower body, causing her legs to merge together. The scales that covered her long legs wrapped around her, and a thick and long snake tail formed under her body!

When the silver Wolf pounced, she reached out her hand like lightning and grabbed its neck, pressing the wolf King, which weighed more than a few hundred pounds, into the mud with a bang!

A violent force burst out, cutting the surrounding bamboo from root to root, and the sound of it collapsing could be heard.

"What do you want to do?" She spoke coldly, and the long tail under her body slowly moved, sweeping away the bamboo forest that was in the way, suppressing the silver Wolf's struggling body, and slowly tightening the tail..

Chapter 545: Suppression _1

A large amount of Blue Frost mist emerged from the long tail, freezing the torn doth, the surrounding ground, and the silver Wolfs body that was half-buried in the soil!

The silver Wolfs bone armor under her palm was compressed and made a 'clucking' sound. The silver Wolf let out a low groan of unwillingness and blood came out of its nostrils. It was obvious that it had been injured by her palm.

It was Struggling with all its might, but under the suppression of absolute power, it simply couldn't compete with her extraordinary physical body after her evolution.

The soil on the ground was cracked by its claws, and a low roar came from its throat. Its claws occasionally scratched song Qing's small tail and waist, but they could not penetrate the thick scales at all. It only made a rough and unpleasant ear-piercing sound.

Song qingxiao was enjoying the feeling of her evolved body. It was as if her strength was endless, and the fierce Silver Wolf seemed to be squashed to death by her palm with just a little force!

This feeling was too good. The strength of her body resonated with the violent power in her body. It reminded her of the time when her body had just received the evolution potion on demon Island. She felt even better now.

Because she was clear-headed, she could feel the absolute confidence brought about by the unparalleled power. At this moment, she had an instinct to look down on all living things!

It was as if she had transcended all living beings and become a God!

Under the stimulation of power, it made her extremely excited, which gave birth to her killing instinct.

The more the silver Wolf struggled, the tighter her long tail clenched. The wolf King's throat let out a low growl. She looked down at it from above, her eyes cold and ruthless.

The commotion here seemed to have attracted the attention of some people hiding in the dark. She heard the sound of someone approaching. Song Qingxin's killing intent was overflowing. Not only did she not feel nervous, but her blood began to boil. The pleasure of a hunt was coming.

W..The silver Wolf made a sound. It tried to raise its head several times, but she pressed it deeper.

The mud mixed with the blood it spat out stained the corners of its eyes and mouth, making it look a little embarrassed.

It should be proud. It had encountered strong enemies several times and was covered in injuries, almost losing its life, but it had an unyielding battle intent!

No matter how serious its injuries were, it would still shake its body, not show any fear, and stand firmly, unlike now, when it was pressed into the mud by her, and could only breathe with difficulty.

Song Qing's small eyes squinted. The scene of him barging into the battlefield on the demon Island and fighting the evolved Wurm together with her appeared in his mind.

She recalled the fighting spirit she had when she escaped from the terror Battalion and fought alongside Wolf King.

When he was besieged by the old man and the other two, it did not leave him, as if he was a companion and a family member.

She thought of Zhou xueli's teary eyes on the demon Island. She had blocked Mr. Zhou's bullet for her and called her 'child'. In the cold experiment, human emotions could not be erased.

Powerful strength did not allow her to do whatever she wanted. Even if the Nuwa project was successful and her body evolved to the extreme, as professor Yan had said, she was still a human and should not lose herself in power. She should not follow the law of the jungle and treat life like grass. She should be heartless and act based on her instincts. That would be no different from a beast and would be meaningless.

The boiling blood in her heart began to cool down, and the dark golden color in her eyes gradually faded away, turning into black.

The killing intent receded like the tide. Once she controlled herself, the violent power began to be guided by her and no longer rampaged.

The scales on her body also began to fade slowly, and the long tail that was suppressing the silver Wolf slowly loosened. As the power calmed down, the cold air emitted from the tail no longer carried the fierce killing intent as before.

Song qingxiao loosened her grip on the silver Wolf's neck. Her eyes flashed, and she raised her long tail and smacked it on the ground!

The frozen earth on the ground was shattered by her powerful long tail, and the bamboo forest swayed from the aftershock of her power.

As the mud flew, she reached out and grabbed the back of the silver Wolf's neck, lifting its huge and heavy body from the mud pit and throwing it to the side. The collapsed bamboo frame was crushed by its strong body, making creaking sounds.

With her back to the silver Wolf, song qingxiao heard the sound of it trying to get up but falling down several times.

"You have to be good and don't make me angry."

She took a deep breath and suppressed the churning of her internal organs. She opened her mouth calmly and lowered her head to check her body.

Under the stimulation of the blue blood, her heart was beating extremely intensely. The power of the blue blood that flowed out of the seal today was not something that she could fully accept at the moment.

As soon as she calmed down, she no longer released a large amount of excess power. After the scales fell off, the violent energy turned into two opposite forces of Ice and Fire and was locked in her body. They attacked her veins and body. The flames caused her skin to crack. Just as blood flowed out, it was repaired by the cold force. The cycle repeated, forming an extremely torturous and long process.

If it wasn't for the fact that she had already advanced to the spirit focus realm, she probably wouldn't be able to hold on for long and would explode to death if this continued.

However, this power was extremely turbulent. If he didn't control it in time, the consequences would be dire!

She endured the torture in her body and tried her best to keep her breathing steady. She didn't show any weakness and used her long tail to sweep the surrounding soil to fill up the hole she had made!

There were too many traces left behind, so it was impossible to clean them up completely.

The people nearby had heard the commotion and rushed over. She had to leave this place as soon as possible.

After struggling a few times, the silver Wolf stood up on its four trembling limbs. When it heard what she said, it grinned and let out a fierce low howl from its throat.

Song qingxiao struggled to turn her head and look at the silver Wolf. At this time, the silver Wolf looked quite embarrassed. Its four limbs seemed to be unable to support its strong mountain-like body at any time, and its long tail hung on the ground.

There was a large amount of ice, mud, and grass between its fur. Its nostrils and cheeks were also stained with a lot of bloody mud. As it growled, a few bits of mud floated up and down in its nostrils.

Song qingxiao's previous attack had caused great damage to it. When the man and the wolf were besieged tonight, and it was hit by the old man and the big man, it didn't even look so bad.

But even so, it still bared its teeth, and the fur on the back of its neck and back stood up like needles, showing a fierce look.

When song qingxiao turned to look at it, it instinctively lowered its body and opened its mouth even wider, ready to pounce.

For some reason, song qingxiao chuckled when she saw it.

Her smile triggered the chaotic energy in her body, causing her internal organs to be attacked. The intense pain caused her to suck in a deep breath of cold air.

"What are you looking at?" She endured the pain and growled, "you hit me first!"

'Awooo!' The silver Wolf howled at her. Although it was still baring its teeth and looked like it was preparing for an attack, the hair on its neck and back slowly calmed down..

Chapter 546: Discovery _1

Although song qingxiao's fierce counterattack had caused the silver Wolf to suffer a loss, it had strangely erased the estrangement caused by the silver Wolf's previous actions.

As its erect fur smoothed, the faint coldness that song qingxiao had been feeling disappeared.

"Over there!" A few complicated footsteps came from the distance, and the silver Wolf's previously relaxed body tensed up again. It turned its head with difficulty and looked outside through the bamboo forest.

“Let’s leave this place first.” It was not a good time to fight. Song qingxiao had heard the noise, but after suppressing the power, she came back to her senses.

This place was the center of the Imperial City, the base camp of the Shi clan.

The fact that the man and the wolf could successfully escape to this place was related to the commotion in the western suburbs earlier, which led to the transfer of most of the Masters.

If she made a scene now, she was afraid that she would attract these people’s attention again. She was in a special situation now, so she should avoid it for now.

She endured the impact of the force in her veins and hesitated for a moment. She endured the pain and picked up some torn cloth on the ground and pinched it in her hand. She swung her long tail and propped up her upper body.

The strength of her tail was extremely strong. With a slight swing, she leaped a few meters into the bamboo forest with a whoosh.

Even though her legs had given her immense strength, song qingxiao was not used to walking with the long tail. Therefore, she took a few steps and used the long tail to support her body. She grabbed the bamboo and flew forward quickly.

Seeing her leave, the silver Wolf also turned around and followed her without hesitation.

Song qingxiao had wanted to leave this place first, but she had probably caused quite a commotion when she ‘taught the silver Wolf a lesson’ in the bamboo forest, and had attracted the attention of the Shi family.

Her ears picked up more than a dozen heartbeats and breaths. A large number of patrolling Imperial Guards were surrounding her, temporarily blocking her way out.

No matter how calm song qingxiao was, she couldn’t help but feel anxious after sensing the situation.

Since she couldn't go out for the time being, she could only go inside and find a place to calm the violent energy in her body and stabilize her injuries.

Otherwise, once she showed up and was targeted, it would be more troublesome.

After making up her mind, Song Qingxiao turned around and started climbing.

On the other side of the bamboo forest, there were rows of buildings. Although the times were changing and technology was also changing with each passing day, the buildings at the center of the Imperial City still retained the characteristics of the early ancient times and were not infected with the modern style.

She crawled under the veranda. After her body's mutation, her five senses had become incredibly sensitive. The night had no effect on her, allowing her to see every corner of the place clearly.

The violent energy was gradually out of her control. The blood that flowed out of her body was licked by the silver Wolf that followed closely behind her.

As the energy exploded, the scales that were originally hidden on her body reappeared. Her eyes were once again dyed with a dark golden color. Her internal organs seemed to be burned to ashes by the heat wave. Large amounts of sweat were evaporated, causing her to be extremely dehydrated. Her lips were dry and bleeding.

There were an astonishing number of hidden guards around the veranda, and the aura of an ambush could be sensed everywhere. In the distance, several auras were chasing over. From the fluctuations of spiritual energy, these people were at least in the Dao enlightenment realm.

The Shi family was indeed the imperial family, even their ordinary secret guards had reached such a level.

Song Qingxiao's spiritual power was in a frenzy. With her level of strength, she was naturally not afraid of these Dao enlightenment realm secret guards.

However, there were pursuers behind her and people in front of her. If she was entangled by these people, it might be more difficult for her to escape.

Thinking of this, she turned her head and looked at the silver Wolf. She moved her lips and silently reminded, ""Dodge!"

After she finished speaking, she swung her long tail and used this little strength to jump up like an arrow from a bow. Her hand grabbed the roof and her long tail slowly retracted, hiding her figure!

The moment she dodged, the silver Wolf's figure flashed and also hid in the shadows.

As soon as the man and Wolf hid, the person behind them appeared in front of song Qing's small eyes.

There were about seven or eight people in this group, and from their auras, they were all people who had not yet entered the state of enlightenment. Those people rushed over, and just as they were under the roof where song qingxiao was hiding, several spiritual powers quickly arrived in front of them.

When they heard the sound of the wind, the few people who were in a hurry actually stopped. Not long after, a few shadows flashed past the corner of the veranda and appeared in front of them in the blink of an eye, stopping their footsteps.

"Did you find anything?"

Among the people who came later, the leader was a young man in a blue combat uniform with a short sword at his waist. He pressed his hand on the hilt of his sword and asked coldly.

something strange happened at the eastern bamboo forest first. I didn't notice when he came in.

When the few people who had arrived first heard the question, they replied respectfully, ""I've already sent people to check with the heavenly eye to see if they've caught any traces."

However, he was able to avoid the layers of restrictions on the periphery and slip all the way into the center of the Imperial City. Even the secret guards on duty tonight could not detect him, and the heavenly eye might not be able to capture any traces.

a large area of bamboo in the eastern bamboo forest was destroyed by spiritual power. We found some blood stains. The ground and the broken parts of the bamboo have frozen ice. In the places where the soil had been crushed, we found two egg-sized imprints. As soon as the two teams met, not only did they stop chasing, but they also stopped and began to discuss tonight's events.

I initially suspect that this is the trace of the scales. I've already sent someone to take the traces, blood marks, and crushed ice to examine it. At most, there will be an answer in 15 minutes.

Song qingxiao was hiding above the two of them, trying to suppress the violent energy in her body. She listened to the discussion below and hoped that the two of them would leave as soon as possible.

The consequences of unsealing the small amount of blue blood was not something she could fully control at this time. With the leakage of spiritual power, the long tail that was tightly wrapped around the wooden beam began to emit a large amount of cold air. With a slight sizzling sound, frost began to spread out from the connection between her tail and the beam, causing the surrounding temperature to drop.

"judging from the marks left at the scene and the damage done, I think a demonic beast might have barged in." The man who replied seemed to have felt the temperature around him drop. His cultivation had not entered the state of enlightenment, so he could not resist the invasion of this chill. He only felt the hair on his back stand up, and the clothes on his back rubbed against each other, making a very clear 'rustle' sound to him.

only a demonic beast's strong body can cause such destructive power. There's broken ice on the ground. It's very likely that a high-grade bloodline has awakened.

When the cold-looking young man in green heard this, his face turned even colder.

"I've really embarrassed myself tonight."

The man who replied looked ashamed, it's all our fault for being useless!

"It's not your fault." The cold-looking young man waved his hand, if it wasn't for the noise at the East bamboo forest, we wouldn't have found any signs of intruders. According to what you said, if it's a demonic beast that has awakened a high-grade bloodline, it's very likely that it came from the starry sea. It's normal that you didn't discover it."

Song Qing's little fingers clenched tightly into the beam, and his internal organs were in unbearable pain under the burning of the violent energy.

The veins on her forehead bulged, and the surging power hit the veins, causing countless small wounds on her skin. Blood seeped out and slowly dripped down.

"It's a pity that something happened in the imperial capital tonight, and the Lords have all been driven out. Otherwise, they wouldn't have allowed intruders to enter this place." The cold-looking young man seemed to be about to leave.

pay more attention. You must guard this place more strictly. If...

As he spoke, he raised his leg and was about to walk away when he suddenly heard a 'drip' sound in the man's ear. It was like a liquid dripping down. It was not like water, but thicker than water. At the same time, a faint smell of blood spread out.

The cold-faced young man's eyes turned, and he pulled out his sword at an unbelievable speed. He used his spiritual energy to sweep in the direction of the water droplet.

"Come out!"

Chapter 547: Alarmed _1

A sharp sword Qi slashed towards the roof beam, splitting the blood droplets that were dripping down!

Song qingxiao cried out in her heart when the blood dripped down. When the sword Qi swept over, she dodged sideways!

With a 'boom', the sword Qi struck the old building, cutting the top beam of the veranda into two. The roof creaked and countless wooden chips fell down!

Song qingxiao also rolled down from the beam. The cold-faced young man only saw a black shadow flash. He immediately drew out a sword flower and injected spiritual energy into it. The sword burst out with a bright light. He held the sword with both hands and swept in song qingxiao's direction again!

No one had expected that the 'demon beast' that had intruded into the center of the Imperial City would be hiding above their heads.

When the others saw him attack, they were so scared that they broke out in cold sweat and took out their weapons.

Those with lower cultivation could not break into the battle circle under the suppression of the cold-faced young man's sword Qi. They simply took out their infrared guns and started shooting in song qingxiao's direction.

Countless red lights flickered and burned through the ground and wooden pillars, creating several fist-sized black holes.

The sword Qi went straight for song qingxiao's waist and tail, but it was blocked by the scales on her tail!

The cold-faced young man was originally very confident in his sword. Although he had just entered the state of enlightenment, because he was a sword cultivator, his moves were far better than cultivators of the same level.

He had used all of his spiritual power in this attack, so even a person in the spirit focus realm might not be able to withstand it with his body.

However, his sword did not seem to hurt the intruder at all. Even the scales on his long tail could not be cut off!

In his daze, before he could clearly see the appearance of the intruder, he heard a gust of wind. Song Qing supported himself with one hand on the ground, raised his long tail and slapped it hard!

With a loud 'boom', the floor was cracked by her power, and a terrifying deep pit appeared. Her long tail broke several wooden pillars, and the roof above her collapsed.

A large section of the broken wall was caught by her long tail, and it flew in all directions like hidden weapons. Many people couldn't avoid it in time and let out injured muffled groans.

A broken brick the size of a palm flew towards the cold-faced youth. He put his sword in front of him, and the brick hit the sword with a 'dang' sound.

Even though the young man used his spiritual energy to block it, the energy on the brick was extremely overbearing and knocked his spiritual energy away. The sword was struck by the spiritual energy and let out a 'crack' sound!

Under the backlash of the power, the young man was pushed back seven or eight steps and spat out a large mouthful of blood.

"So strong!" The moment he spat out blood and got injured, the others saw this and started shooting randomly with their weapons.

At this moment, a Silver Shadow rushed into the battle like lightning. With a low groan, a few secret guards let out a miserable cry and were slapped down. Soon, the dense gunfire was disrupted!

As soon as the silver Wolf entered the battle, the group of people who were already struggling to hold on became even more critical!

The cold-faced young man stood firm and did not rush to join the battle. Instead, he shouted,"

'We've discovered an invader. Over here!'

When he realized that he couldn't win, he started calling for help.

"..''Hearing his shout, song qingxiao smacked him with her long tail!

Its powerful tail was mixed with violent power. Every time it slapped, it brought with it an earth-shattering power, and with a whistling sound, it smashed open several deep cracks on the ground!

Sand and stones flew in all directions, and the ancient building with a diameter of dozens of meters around song qingxiao was completely destroyed. Some of the hidden guards caught in the center of the storm didn't have time to escape and were buried by the collapsed building.

Every time the long tail smacked, the ground would shake violently and create a large whirlwind that blew in all directions!

After releasing a large amount of spiritual power, song qingxiao felt an indescribable sense of relief.

However, in just a short while, that kind of riot came back again.

The more spiritual energy was consumed by the activated blue blood, the more it surged.

Song qingxiao forcibly suppressed the pleasure of blood-devouring that came with her boiling blood and barely suppressed the spiritual power in her body. Seeing the silver Wolf howling and opening its mouth wide to pounce on a secret guard, she pushed her body up with her tail and flew over to the side of the silver Wolf like a meteor, grabbing it into her arms.

The hidden guard who was about to be hit by the wolf closed his eyes subconsciously. Just when he thought that he was going to die, he only felt the sound of the wind beside him. The Wolf's howl disappeared, and in the dust, he only saw a black shadow quickly passing by and disappearing.

“He ran away!” The secret guard shouted as soon as he regained his senses.

The flying gravel above their heads fell down like hailstones, and the people who were lucky enough to escape coughed and climbed out of the buried gravel.

“Which way did he run to?” The cold young man was also swept by the previous violent spiritual power and was pressed under a thick beam. At this time, he pushed the beam away and sat up with a sorry face, gasping for breath.

“Over there!” The hidden guard who had managed to escape pointed in the direction where song qingxiao had disappeared. The cold-looking young man gritted his teeth and said, “chase after her!”

After this battle, it had caused a huge commotion in the Shi family. It was likely that the news would spread soon, and it would not be long before the experts who had been lured away would return.

She wasn't sure about the strength of these people, but she guessed that they were at least as strong as the three experts who had surrounded her before. They might even be far more difficult to deal with than the three.

And this time, that consciousness might not appear again. Even if it did appear, it was unknown if she would be able to drive it away.

There was not much time left for song qingxiao. She had to think of a way to leave before the Shi family's experts returned.

Although her body was extraordinarily strong after the mutation, there were still hidden dangers, like a time bomb. After this delay, it was already very troublesome. She needed to find a place to settle down as soon as possible to recuperate her meridians.

After song Qing had escaped for a distance, the violent spiritual energy in her body swept over again. Under the severe pain in her veins, she let go of her hand, and the silver Wolf jumped down from her arm.

The people who had surrounded her had seen her running in this direction, so the main force would definitely intercept her in this direction.

In the previous battle, these people did not really see her clearly. From the conversation between the two groups of people, this group of people should have recognized her as a demonic beast whose bloodline had awakened.

Beasts mostly acted based on their instincts. If she turned around and ran in the direction of the bamboo forest, this group of people might not be able to react in time.

When she thought of this, she turned around and ran back. The man and Wolf were like headless flies.

Song qingxiao used her extraordinary hearing and perception to avoid the crowd. After running for a long time, she entered a garden.

As soon as he entered the garden, he blocked out all the noise and footsteps outside..

Chapter 548: Enemy (1)

This garden was extremely large and extraordinarily quiet. The garden was shrouded in a faint layer of mist, and a faint fragrance was coming from somewhere, which was quite strange.

After her body had mutated, her vision and perception had greatly improved, but it was as if they were blocked by fog, and she could not use them at all!

As soon as the fog sensed someone had barged in, it moved over. The fog contained an abundant amount of spiritual power. She tried to release her divine sense, but it seemed to be disturbed by the fog and could not be used!

Song qingxiao was startled. She instinctively wanted to retreat, but when she wagged her tail and turned around, there was still fog behind her. She could not find the exit, and she did not know what kind of danger was ahead.

This situation immediately reminded her of the trial of the return of the living corpse. After Chu ke died, she sealed up the community she lived in with her strong resentment.

When song qingxiao and number two entered, they were also blocked by the fog. No matter how long they walked, they kept walking in circles.

This mist should be some kind of restriction that prevented intruders!

The current situation was similar to the previous one, but this fog was many times stronger than the fog formed by Chu ke's powerful resentment. After all, even with song qingxiao's current strength, she could not see through it at all.

At that time, number two had used a talisman to break through the resentment and disperse the fog, opening up a path of survival.

However, song qingxiao didn't know much about this kind of restriction, and she didn't know anything about talismans and curses. Moreover, this mist was different from resentment, and it was likely that someone with a high cultivation level had used some unknown method to create it.

Since she couldn't break it by force, she had to think of another way. Otherwise, if she were to be trapped in it, it would be troublesome when others came.

This thought came to her mind, and she subconsciously looked at the silver Wolf with messy fur. It didn't seem to be affected much, and it perked up its ears and turned its head to look in another direction.

Song qingxiao's expression changed. In this situation where her divine sense, vision, and senses were all affected by the spiritual power in the fog, the silver Wolf's sense of smell and instinct might be able to play a role at this time.

Thinking of this, she no longer ran around. Instead, she followed the silver Wolf's gaze. After about fifteen minutes, the fog thinned. As far as the eye could see, she could vaguely see hazy buildings and lush trees.

Song Qing was happy. Just as he was about to rush out of the restriction, he heard a woman's voice before he could move,"

It was father who asked me to come over. He wants you to go back immediately."

The voice was sweet, but the tone was cold. What surprised song qingxiao was that the voice was very familiar.

The moment the silver Wolf heard the sound, its ears stood up. It opened its mouth and was about to pounce, but song qingxiao quickly pinched its mouth!

"I'm not going back!" As soon as the sweet female voice finished speaking, another woman's firm voice rang out, rejecting the request of the sweet female voice.

"I've already participated in the trial. Father hopes that you can also enter the trial."

Not far from the corridor, two graceful figures slowly walked over. Through the thin fog, song Qing's small eyes fell on one of the delicate figures, and her pupils shrank.

It really didn't take much effort to find it!

The girl walking on the periphery was wearing a dark green hooded cloak that reached her legs, revealing a pair of straight and slender legs. Her long hair was braided and hung behind her. Even song Qing Xiao could recognize the side of her face that had turned gray. It was number six, the person they had met during the trial at the mental hospital!

After that trial, number six had sent people to hunt down song qingxiao. If she had not been extremely lucky to enter the trial at the critical moment of life and death, the grass on her grave would have been half the height of a person!

It was also because of that time when number six was interested in the mysterious dagger that song qingxiao suspected the identity of her murderer.

Of course, she had to take revenge. However, number six knew her very well, while she knew nothing about number six, so it was difficult for her to do anything.

He didn't expect that he would accidentally barge into the center of the Imperial City tonight and run into number six!

Song Qingxin's heart was filled with killing intent. The boiling power in her body seemed to sense her killing intent and suddenly became more violent.

Number six, who was talking to the other woman, suddenly felt a chill on his back, as if he was being stared at by an extremely dangerous creature.

She stopped in her tracks and looked up instinctively. She then shouted in a low voice, ""Who's there?"

It seemed that after song qingxiao had been chased into the trial, number six had also entered the trial.

The injuries she had suffered in the mental hospital scenario had already healed, and her aura was more restrained than before. Her strength had improved greatly.

Song qingxiao's killing intent was detected by her even through the strange mist.

When number six turned around, even though she knew that the mist was a restrictive spell and she might not have really discovered her and the silver Wolf, song qingxiao's rationality still overwhelmed her instincts. She stared at number six's body and slowly took a step back!

This was not a good time to kill her. Her meridians were in chaos and her power was going out of control.

She had caused such a huge commotion in the Shi family. If she were to take the initiative to kill number six now, she would have to deal a fatal blow. Otherwise, once her identity was exposed, she would be in deep trouble.

Now, as long as she knew that number six was related to the Shi family, she would have many opportunities to kill her when she recovered and investigated number six's identity.

Number six looked around but didn't find anything strange. She frowned and her expression was serious.

She couldn't have been wrong about that trace of killing intent earlier, but when she released her spiritual power to test it again, she didn't find anything strange.

There were only two girls at both ends of the veranda, and no one else was peeking at them. Where did the killing intent that had made her hair stand on end come from?

"Swish!" Her cautious actions caused another girl who was slightly taller than her to sneer, are you too suspicious because you participated in the trial?"

The slightly taller girl turned her head, revealing a bright and beautiful face. It was also a familiar face!

When she had gone to the Imperial hospital to visit Captain an, she had happened to meet a dying member of the Shi family. This girl had been accompanying the young man at the time!

The two of them mentioned the trial, and the meaning revealed by number six's words seemed to be that there was a way to send people in at will, unlike how he had been randomly selected.

If what she said was true, didn't it prove that there might be some secret connection between the underworld clan and the God's trial?

For a moment, countless questions flooded song Qingxin's mind, but the boiling energy hit her veins, and the intense pain distracted part of her attention, making her unable to focus completely.

“This is the Shi family, and these are all restrictions set up by the elders of the Shi family.” The beautiful young lady lifted her chin and said arrogantly, “Even if an ordinary person can break in, they won’t be able to leave and will only be trapped inside.”

Her words didn’t make number six completely at ease. For some reason, she felt a chill spread all over her body after the flash of killing intent, causing goosebumps to appear on her arms and back..

Chapter 549: Assassination (1)

Although the tall girl had made a solemn vow, number six still hesitated for a moment. She reached out and pulled up her hat to cover her face completely. She turned her back to the mist and said,”

“All in all, think carefully about father’s words.”

“There’s nothing to think about.” The bright and beautiful young lady sneered, “ father has allowed you to enter the trial and has already allowed you to meddle in the dark group’s Affairs. In the future, the power behind the PEI family will be decided by you, right? ”

She was a little indignant, since I already have you, it’s obvious that I’m going to be abandoned. Why did you come to me? ”

“Don’t be so willful.” Perhaps it was because the bright young lady had revealed too much information, number six’s tone gradually became a little stern.

As soon as she finished speaking, the bright young girl’s voice rose even higher,”

“What do you mean by willful? I’m your big sister, so mind your attitude!” Don t you know why father asked me to come over tonight? The mess you made last time is still being held back by people!” As soon as number six finished speaking, the bright and beautiful girl said indifferently,” “So what? He’s just an ordinary person, and he can do it with just a move of his fingers.”

Her attitude made number six fall silent for a while, then he suddenly chuckled softly,”

“You can do it with just a finger?”

If she had been as stern as before, the bright and beautiful young girl could still compete with her and not give in. But now, her soft and gentle smile made the bright and beautiful young girl frown.

the people you sent out did not do their job well. Father sent San Gu and the others from the Maple Leaf tribe to follow them. She coldly said, “but did you know that Sangu and the others died tonight?” - What?” When the bright and beautiful young lady heard this, her expression immediately changed.

Song qingxiao, who was hiding in the fog, narrowed her eyes when she heard this.

He didn't know if number six was referring to nurse Lin's death when he said that the beautiful girl had caused the mess. Captain an was still investigating the case, and it could be said that he had been keeping a close eye on it.

She remembered the three people who were chasing her tonight. When they first appeared, the beautiful woman and the big man called the old man in the lead 'third brother'. She wondered if this third brother 'was the same' third Gu 'that number six had mentioned.

If the old man who was chasing him was indeed the 'Sangu' that number six had mentioned, he had almost died in the hands of these three people tonight. Now that he was in such a sorry state, it could be said that it was all thanks to the PEI family.

Song qingxiao closed her eyes. Killing intent was boiling in her heart. She had formed an inexplicable fate with number six. If she didn't kill her today, it would be hard to dispel the hatred in her heart.

She had made up her mind not to let number six escape tonight. This person was very scheming and had made an enemy of her. After entering the trial, her strength had improved very quickly. If she did not kill her today, she might be harmed in the future!

It seemed that number six had already entered the trial after she sent people to kill her, and her strength had obviously improved. However, from her aura and spiritual power, she had not entered the state of enlightenment. Song Qing was a little confident in killing her.

As long as he kept his movements quiet, he could think of a way to escape after killing number six.

Number six didn't know that there was a pair of eyes watching her in the dark, but she still felt a little uneasy. She pulled the hat lower until it covered her face completely, then continued," although the strength of Sangu and the others has not reached the level to enter the dark group, they are already the top Masters in the family. Number six had a petite figure and was shorter than the girl, but at this moment, he released his aura, suppressing the girl so much that she couldn't even speak," they all went in just like that. Is this what you meant by ordinary people who can be settled with just a finger?"

"Who, who did this?" The bright and beautiful young girl was already completely flustered as she stuttered.

"I'm not sure," Number six replied coldly," there are traces of su Wu at the scene. Why else do you think the people from the Shi family would rush over?" "Su Wu?" When the bright girl heard the name, she couldn't help but raise her voice. The girl's sharp voice spread through the corridor, isn't he dead?" When she mentioned 'su Wu', her voice trembled.

didn't father say that the people from the heavens beyond heaven personally captured him that day? his corpse was even brought back for research. How is that possible?"

we don't know about the matters between these people, and we don't have the right to interfere. Number six turned around and said sternly,"

"But it involves 'su Wu', and it's very likely to attract the attention of beyond the heavens. Even the PEI family may be involved in this matter and be investigated, we're in troubled times right now. Don't get too carried away in love and dream of marrying into the Shi family and controlling the imperial family. Even if Shi Yue dies, you won't be able to make all the decisions in the Shi family! Are those old monsters in your dark group more stupid than you?" The bright young girl's face turned pale and her fists were clenched tightly. She looked very unconvinced.

Song qingxiao swayed her long tail and moved forward slowly. She was measuring the distance between herself and number six in her heart. When she was getting closer to the edge of the fog, she summoned the dagger in her dantian. Her long tail poked out of the fog at a lightning speed. She took advantage of the situation and jumped straight at number six's back-

"Who's there?"

A deep male voice suddenly rang out. Number six and the bright young girl were shocked. Number six turned around subconsciously and saw a long tail in the night silently rolling toward her.

The scales on the snake's tail glowed with blue light. The wind was cold, and the sharp killing intent hit her face, making her scalp numb.

In her shock, she couldn't Dodge in time. Before she could react, a green sword shadow brushed past number six's side and pierced through song Qing's small body.

With the Shi family's experts being led away, song qingxiao did not expect there to be such a person hiding in the veranda. The sword Qi was extremely powerful, far more powerful than the blue-clothed youth outside the garden earlier. The long sword pierced through her lower abdomen in the blink of an eye, bringing up a string of blood. With a 'plop' sound, it was heavily inserted into the mud, the sword still buzzing and trembling.

Number six was really lucky! Song qingxiao used the force of the sword Qi to endure the pain and jumped back. She landed on the back of the silver Wolf with a 'bang'. She patted the silver Wolf's back, and the silver Wolf knew what she was thinking and quickly retreated with her!

Not long after, a handsome young man holding a scabbard appeared in the veranda. He glanced at number six and the beautiful girl who were still in shock and frowned.

Eh? There was only a faint smell of blood left on the scene. After being pierced by his long sword, the intruder actually had the strength to escape!

The bright girl's face was slightly pale. She had thought that there was no one in the veranda and that she would speak to number six without any scruples. She did not expect that there was someone hiding in the dark.

The two sisters' argument had been seen by the Shi family. He wondered if number six's words of wanting to control the Shi family had been heard by this person.

At the thought of this, she felt both embarrassed and resentful. She didn't know if it was because her secret had been exposed in front of the Shi family or because of the shock of almost being assassinated earlier, but her heart was thumping wildly, and the two people at the scene had heard it clearly..

Chapter 550: Sneaking in_I

At this moment, under the young man's powerful aura, the bright and beautiful young girl was suppressed to the point that she had a feeling of abnormal difficulty in breathing.

He looked in the direction where Song Qingxiao had stopped and waved at the sky.

An Azure light flashed within the mist, and a longsword let out a clear cry before entering the scabbard in his hand with a clang.

"To be able to make it here, he does have some ability." He released his divine sense to search, but the fog restriction that originally prevented outsiders from entering had become Song Qingxiao's cover.

Coupled with the fact that she was being carried by the silver Wolf, the young man's spiritual sense had completely disappeared, as if the intruder had run away at an extremely fast speed.

"He ran so fast? Could it be that there's a secret technique?" He frowned and his expression was a little serious. He then turned to look at the two girls in front of him and asked coldly,

"Did you see who it was?"

Under his gaze, the bright and beautiful girl instinctively took a few steps back.

This young man looked to be around 20 or 30 years old, but his aura was so deep that number six could not detect it at all. A person with such strength was most likely a member of the Shi family's Secret operation.

like a demonic beast," she said, her eyes showing hesitation," I saw a tail rolling over. It looked like a snake's tail...

When number six mentioned the intruder, he still felt a lingering fear.

The killing intent was directed at her, making her shudder.

If it wasn't for the Shi family's people repelling the intruder at the critical moment, she would probably have died here tonight!

In addition to his fear, number six also felt that the aura was somewhat familiar, as if he had dealt with it somewhere before, but he could not recall where.

Under the young man's gaze, she shook her head hesitantly and did not voice her doubts. Instead, she decided to go home and discuss with her elders first."But I didn't see it very clearly."

"Demonic beast?" The young man's eyes flickered, but he did not continue in front of the two girls. He noticed the expression on number six's face, but he did not point it out. Instead, his expression became serious," there are intruders in the Shi family's residence tonight. It's not appropriate to keep any guests. I'll send you out!

When the young girl heard his words, her face turned green and white. There was a look of unwillingness in her eyes, but under the young man's imposing manner, she did not dare to make a sound.

“Many thanks, senior.” On the other hand, number six was the complete opposite. Previously, she had almost died at song qingxiao’s hands, which made her feel uneasy, so it was naturally better to have someone to escort her.

She looked at the bright young girl with some disappointment and pulled her. The bright young girl was reminded by her and reluctantly thanked her.

When the young man saw the two of them off, he looked back again, as if he was a little worried.

We can’t lose the people who live here! However, his previous attack had indeed injured the intruder. Although the intruder had used some unknown method to escape, he could not have escaped far.

He had sent off two of his guests earlier, and he couldn’t let anything happen to them in the Shi family. It wouldn’t be too late for him to rush back then.

Thinking of this, the young man took out a paper crane from his arms and spread out his hands. The paper crane actually ignited in his palm and a golden light flew out from the flame.

After sending out the message, the young man followed number six and the other man.

After these people left, the fog in the garden began to strangely dissipate.

After song qingxiao was injured, the silver Wolf carried her and fled quickly.

The sword Qi was extremely sharp. It passed through her stomach, but it left behind a powerful sword intent, cutting through her internal organs.

However, when the rampaging blue-blooded creature sensed that an unfamiliar and dangerous aura had invaded her body, it seemed to be provoked. It slowly approached the sword intent and devoured the unfamiliar aura.

The two energies clashed, turning her body into a battlefield, stirring her up.

In the midst of the unbearable pain, Song Qing's small ears caught the sound of messy and hurried footsteps. Many auras sneaked into the garden like a swarm of bees.

"The restriction has been removed. Everyone, gather at the East hidden garden. We've received Lord's message that the demonic beasts have already entered the forbidden garden."

As the mist dispersed, the voice entered Song Qing's ears, causing her to have a headache!

There were pursuers outside, and the garden was surrounded.

In her current state, it was impossible for her to force her way in, so she could only continue to hide.

Fortunately, this restriction could not be completely removed in a short time, and most of the remaining people in the Shi family were not yet trained enough. Thus, with the silver Wolf's vigilance and sense of smell, the man and Wolf dodged in the garden and soon saw the ancient building surrounded by several springs..
