

Watch Out 561

Chapter 561: written off 1

Her spiritual power quickly sealed her wound, and her powerful recovery ability made her wound wriggle and begin to heal in a moment. Song qingxiao was expressionless and made another cut with the knife. Blood gushed out again, and in a short while, it filled half a small plate.

As the blood essence flowed out, her face turned slightly pale. Even though a small portion of the seal had been removed tonight, the loss of so much blood was still a significant loss to her.

The silver Wolf was injured, and a small part of it was because of her, while a large part of it was 'beaten' by her. Although she had done it out of self-defense, she still put the plate in front of the silver Wolf.

"Let's eat,"

She kept the dagger and saw that the silver Wolf was still very alert. She opened the door and slowly walked out.

This Wolf was now on guard against her. The tacit understanding that had been cultivated with great difficulty had been broken again after tonight's outing.

She walked to a corner of the veranda outside and slowly sat down. As the night wind blew, she thought about her current situation.

From the accidental assassination to the trial to become a God, many things had happened along the way.

God's trial, the hidden family, the existence of the heavens beyond heaven and the 'divine prison' that su Wu had mentioned had an unknown connection. All of these things had woven into a big net and covered her.

In real life, there were many people who wanted her life, and there was also a powerful remnant soul in her sea of consciousness waiting to possess her. She didn't know when the next trial would come and what kind of crisis it would be. She had parents, but one of them was missing, and the other had no parents. They had no friends, no companions, but a Wolf that lived together, but they also snuggled up to each other and guarded against each other.

Tonight, the starry sky was covered by dark clouds, and the surroundings were dark and quiet.

Her divine sense sensed the sound of the silver Wolf licking the copper plate after she left.

A moment later, the licking sound suddenly stopped, and not long after, the soft sound of claws touching the ground slowly came from behind her.

A giant Silver Wolf slowly walked toward her. When it was about two to three meters away from her back, it stopped.

Song qingxiao didn't look back. The silver Wolf was silent for a while, then took a few steps forward and finally stood beside her. It bent its back and sat down next to her. At the same time, it swung its fluffy tail and gently patted song qingxiao's back.

It couldn't speak, but its movement seemed to be conveying a request for peace.

Song qingxiao turned her head and glanced at it. It looked up into the distance, its ears perked up, and it looked very vigilant. The tail that swept over and hit her back seemed to be an unintentional action.

After the man and the wolf sat down, it was much taller than song Qing and blocked most of the wind.

The smell of blood on its body had not completely faded, and the fur where the scars had fallen off during the trial to escape the terror Battalion had not grown back yet. But this did not make it look majestic. On the contrary, it made it look even more ferocious.

“What’s wrong?” For some reason, song Qing’s cold heart softened a little because of its action. “Are you afraid that you won’t have anything to eat in the future?”

It raised its head, its eyes were bright, and its wet nostrils emitted the sound of air.

The sense of alienation that had appeared in song Qingxin’s heart, under its proud expression, was like a bead of mist in the morning, slowly dissipating. “Mistaken?” She reached out to grab the silver Wolf’s back. When her hand touched it, the back of the silver Wolf under her arm instinctively tensed up when she leaned on it, and then slowly relaxed.

“You’re tactful!” Using her fingers as a comb, her fingertips shuttled through the long Wolf hair, and her expression was very serious. “We’ll forget about the fight between us.”

■Awoo! The silver Wolf opened its mouth and gave a big yawn, as if it was responding to her.

“Companions should travel together.” She said softly, “I won’t abandon you just because you’re injured. I won’t take the opportunity to take your life. You shouldn’t be like this either, do you understand?”

The girl seemed to be complaining to a Wolf. “When I was fighting Cerberus, you were heavily injured and dying. I didn’t treat you like this!”

It was unknown if the silver Wolf understood her words. It turned its huge head and slowly placed its chin on the tip of the young girl’s hair that had not been completely dried by the night wind. After a long time, it raised its head and touched her head with the tip of its nose. It stuck out its tongue and licked her hair!

This was the first time the silver Wolf had shown its closeness to her in the time it had spent with her.

However, song qingxiao’s expression changed. She reached out and pushed its big face away.

“Go away!”

She reached out to touch her hair and sniffed it. It had a faint smell of blood.

“I just washed my head and you just ate!”

She rubbed the silver wolf’s head with both hands until the fur on the silver Wolf’s face was messy. She could not stand it anymore and stood up, retreating in a hurry!

Song qingxiao turned her head and watched it run back into the room, thinking that it was going to hide like the last time she cut its nails. Not long after, she saw the silver Wolf holding the edge of the copper plate in its mouth, running back and sitting beside her again.

There was still some blood on the copper plate that had not been licked clean.

It had probably just wanted to bring out the ‘food’ to eat.

It sat down again and licked the plate seriously.

In the past, when it ate, it liked to divide its food and territory, so the other people in the reserve team did not dare to approach it.

When it was eating, it was on guard even when song qingxiao approached it.

But now, she was willing to take the initiative to ‘bring’ the plate over. Did this mean that the silver Wolf trusted her more?

Thinking about it carefully, from the time she brought it out from the demon Island trial until now, from the time it refused to eat the food she fed it to now, it was willing to rely on her to eat. This also meant that in the process of getting along with her, the silver Wolf had slowly adapted step by step.

The living environment on evil demon Island had made it vigilant, cruel, and merciless, and it hunted the weak. It would take a long time for it to change.

Thinking of this, her heart softened a little.

“Maybe we should learn to trust each other more.” She sighed. It was wrong for the fight between the man and the wolf tonight, but so was she.

Perhaps it felt that the other party was a threat to its life, so it was particularly ruthless. When it became ruthless, it forgot that the man and the wolf had fought side by side, and that it had wanted to save its life when it was besieged, however, song Qing spoke gently for a long time, watching the silver Wolf lick the plate clean and still licking the corner of its mouth,” if this happens again, I'll still fight back, maybe even more ruthlessly...

The silver Wolf stopped licking the plate, and after a long while, it swung its fluffy tail and patted her body, as if saying: I can do it too!

Its response made song Qing chuckle. She leaned her head on its body, and the dark clouds in the sky were slowly blown away by the wind, revealing the moon and the stars that were previously hidden..

Chapter 562: News (1)

Under the moonlight, its fur was coated with a layer of light, shining like water waves.

“The weather will be good tomorrow.” She relaxed her guard and enjoyed this moment of peace.

Even though his divine sense sensed someone approaching, he didn't get up. Qing Xiao?” Jiang xiachuan's voice was heard from not far away. He couldn't believe it. “You're still awake?”

It was getting late and Jiang xiachuan had just come back from the martial arts club, looking exhausted.

When he saw that Song Qing was young, he hesitated for a while before greeting her.

Song Qing's small Wolf was already famous in the reserve team. The girl sat next to the silver Wolf. Her temperament was a little cold, but the atmosphere was strangely harmonious and quiet. The giant Wolf that had shown a terrifying side in the training field that day was now sitting beside her, letting her lean on it.

After hearing Jiang Xiachuan's greeting, Song Qing turned around lazily. The silver Wolf only shook its body after she turned around.

"Yup," She took a look at Jiang Xiachuan, who was covered in sweat and seemed to have just returned.

He was alone, and he was used to seeing Yu Yin following behind him. Song Qingxiao thought for a while and understood what was going on.

The reserve team had seen the relationship between Jiang Xiachuan and Yu Yin. This man's goal was different from Tan Wen and Yu Yin. He was determined to enter the reserve team.

However, he usually had to accompany timid girls, so he naturally had no time to practice. He could only work hard in the dead of night after she fell asleep. Didn't Captain say that you took a few days off..."

Because of Tan Wen, Jiang Xiachuan had interacted with Song Qingxiao a few times. However, he spent most of his time on his childhood sweetheart, so he didn't know her as well as Yu Yin.

All they knew was that she had defeated Liu Xiao, who was in the reserve team. She was a powerful newcomer with a terrifying pet of unknown identity.

She had just joined the team, but she was very famous. During the day, the captain had inadvertently mentioned that she had taken a few days off and was going back to see her friends. Jiang Xiachuan did not expect her to come back in just one day.

Yes, I came back in the evening after visiting a friend.

The two were not familiar with each other. After a brief conversation, Jiang xiachuan nodded and left in a hurry.

Song qingxiao was interrupted by him and lost the mood to sit outside.

She returned to her room and cultivated for a night. When she appeared in the team the next day, she even caused some people to be surprised.

Captain Ren didn't seem to be curious about her return. Apparently, Jiang xiachuan had told Captain Ren about her encounter last night.

At this time, a few major events had happened in the imperial capital last night.

Someone came to Captain an's office to change the glass. The urgent news of the day was playing on the TV wall.

The staff of the logistics management Office directed the workers to clean up the glass shards and put them outside. They were very puzzled.

that s strange, Chairman. Why did the glass suddenly shatter? ” The person who spoke was a pretty girl. She smiled and said,” if it wasn't for the fact that the security Department immediately called when there was a commotion here last night and you picked up the call, I would have thought that someone had the guts to break into the East City guard Station, don't you think so? ”

After she said this, she didn't get a response for a long time. She subconsciously looked up in Captain an's direction.

“Speaker an, speaker an ...”

The girl called him twice in a row, and Captain an seemed to be awakened by her voice. “Ah? What’s the matter?”

‘Tm talking about the broken glass in your office.” She repeated what she had just said, but when she mentioned the broken glass, Captain an’s expression changed for a moment, but the girl didn’t notice. She was a little curious.

“What are you looking at, so engrossed?”

She followed Captain an’s line of sight and saw a female reporter on the wall of the television in the office.

.. I m currently in the western suburbs where the incident happened.”

On the screen, many people appeared. The screen swept over the crowd and then landed on the ruins.

The street walls, shops, street lamps, surveillance cameras, and other facilities in this area had all been razed to the ground, making it look extremely desolate.

three years ago, due to the reform in the West District, after the planning... The female reporter was reporting on the situation in the western suburbs. She pointed out that the street had been demolished three years ago, and the government had the intention of rebuilding it. Therefore, the shops and residents along the street had moved away one after another.

After nightfall, due to the serial murders in the western suburbs, no one dared to walk around in such a remote place.

Before last night, there were still abandoned shops and some basic facilities on both sides of the street, but they were strangely destroyed last night. The scene was even more destroyed than after the explosion.

Through the camera, the scene seemed to be filled with smoke and dust. The female reporter interviewed many people, and someone claimed to have heard a thunderous explosion in the middle of the night.

I didn't sleep last night. I saw some light in the sky. I suspect it's an alien invasion! A citizen who was being interviewed entered the camera and said with certainty.

I think it's God's punishment. We've sinned too much! An old lady firmly believed so.

I saw a golden light. Maybe it's an immortal...

The people at the scene had different opinions, and the girl who was curious about how the glass had broken was quickly distracted.

"What do you think, speaker?" The girl couldn't help but turn her head and subconsciously asked Captain an. Captain an frowned and didn't say anything, that's ridiculous. I think it's possible that he's an alien.

A picture of the street before yesterday appeared on the screen, and the female reporter's voice rang out," this is the last video of the street before the incident last night. From the reaction of the on-site equipment to the building's detection, everything disappeared in less than 20 minutes.

In other words, the destruction of the street only took half an hour.

Even if they wanted to destroy it with explosives, they would have to do a series of preparations in the early stages and make a lot of noise.

At first, the girl had jokingly guessed that it was an alien, but when she heard this, she was a little surprised.

On the screen, there was a five-minute surveillance footage of the street before it was destroyed. The surveillance footage showed that the street was empty at that time, and the surrounding cameras captured everything so that no one would miss a single thing.

However, a few minutes later, the video flashed for no reason, as if someone had 'blindsided' it, and nothing could be seen or heard.

The female reporter's face reappeared on the screen. She said very fortunately,

Although last night's incident is still a mystery, I believe that there will be specialized technical personnel to reveal the truth soon. Fortunately, although this place was destroyed last night, the rescue team did not detect any corpses here, so when the accident happened, there should be no casualties, so the residents of the western suburbs can be completely at ease"

Chapter 563: inquire_I

When Captain an heard this, his expression became colder.

His eyes fell on a picture. He tapped on the sensing function with his finger, and the picture was paused.

Captain an's index finger and thumb moved apart, and the image was enlarged. There was a small pile of light brown sand. It wasn't strange to see soil of this color, but the strange thing was that the ground tiles that had been crushed into powder were gray-white, which made the difference between the two particularly clear.

With his professional intuition, Captain an had a feeling that the color was like the color of dried blood. Unfortunately, he had been transferred to the western suburbs, which was no longer under his jurisdiction. He had not been to the scene, so he was not completely sure.

For some reason, the commotion in the western suburbs reminded Captain an of a group of people.

He wasn't an alien, nor was he a deity who had descended to the mortal world. He was just like the person who had hurt him that day, someone who didn't even put the Shi family in his eyes!

Thinking of this, he took out his phone and made a call. Not long after, someone picked up the phone. Captain an asked about the western suburbs in a low voice, and the person on the other end of the phone said to him in a low voice,"

"There was a murder in the western suburbs. The city center was the first to receive the news."

When the people from the city center arrived, the detection equipment beeped non-stop, proving that there had been a murder here.

but no bodies were found at the scene. Some people found that the color of the soil in several places was wrong. They suspected that someone followed the street in the process of destruction ...

"They only informed our people to go over after they were done packing up. I think the higher-ups know it in their hearts, but they claim that everything is fine!"

The person on the other end of the phone paused and lowered his voice even more.

I think this incident is similar to the previous time when we found the body. However, we went there first and found the body. This time, it was smashed into pieces and mixed in the mud.

His guess was in line with Captain an's thoughts. The people from the city center rushed over first, which made Captain an's sharp sense that this matter had probably alarmed the higher-ups first, and then handed it over to the government department in the western suburbs after handling it.

To be able to attract such attention from the higher-ups, it might really be like the last time he was injured. Some extraordinary figure had sneaked in, but the higher-ups chose to keep it a secret and deal with it in a low profile.

Captain an felt that these things were a little strange. After the person on the phone finished talking about the business, he couldn't help but sigh.

Captain, ah no, speaker, what do you think is wrong with the western suburbs? why do these strange things keep happening one after another? I'm afraid there's really an alien invasion?"

Captain an didn't hear the rest of his words clearly because the image on the TV wall flashed and another piece of news was quickly broadcasted:

two beasts broke into the center of the Imperial City last night... When the female host mentioned the news, Captain an's heart skipped a beat and his expression changed.

For some reason, his gaze fell on the broken window in his office and he remembered the huge Silver Wolf that appeared with song qingxiao last night, at present, the source of the beast has not been confirmed, but it is already under urgent investigation. Residents of the capital city, please be careful when you go in and out. If you encounter it... Please call the police headquarters..."

"Captain, Captain?" Captain an was stunned for a while. The person on the phone called him a few times. He came back to his senses and quickly replied, ""I'm fine."

He used to serve in the Shi family, so he was familiar with some of the conscripts in the Imperial City center. Captain an hesitated for a moment. After the people in the office changed the glass and sent away the girl who had been interested in the western suburbs, he called to ask.

This time, the news was much more accurate than the news. The person on the phone told Captain an that there were indeed two beasts that broke into the center of the Imperial City last night.

The situation was more serious than Captain an had thought. The beasts that had broken into the center of the Imperial City had entered the inner city. The key was that the patrolling guards had not noticed them. It was because the two intruders had made a sound of their own that they had attracted the attention of the guards.

one of them is a very large silver Wolf, and the other one ... When the person mentioned this, he paused and hesitated for a moment before saying,”

“It looked like a Python, but it was very fast. I didn’t see it clearly.”

When he mentioned the silver Wolf, the uneasiness in Captain an’s heart grew stronger. However, because there was also a snake with them, he did not dare to be too sure.

last night, the internal personnel participated in the encirclement and annihilation, but they still failed to catch it. They only injured it and let it escape...

When Captain an heard this, he felt his heart tighten again.

The internal members of the Shi family were no ordinary people. To be able to make them take action and not even kill the two intruders, one could imagine the strength of these two intruders.

“Then, do the higher-ups have any information on the origins of these two intruders?”

When Captain an asked this, the man replied in a low voice,”

“The initial suspicion is that there might be a problem with the sea of stars. Do you remember the two people who died in the western suburbs a while ago? Some people suspected that it was the doing of the same two wild beasts. They were all targeted at these ... The family...”

His words were muffled, and he sighed.

“The higher-ups might have the intention of making another trip to the starry sea.” “If the negotiations don’t go well, there might be another dispute,” he continued.

Back then, the Shi clan had gone to the starry sky sea and suffered a great loss, resulting in a massive purge of the Shi clan's private guards. They had yet to fully recover.

After decades of peace, if trouble were to arise again, these people who were currently serving the Shi family would probably have to be prepared to enter the sea of stars at any time.

The opponent of the negotiation was not human and could not be judged by common sense.

Once the war starts, who knows what kind of sacrifices will be made!

Captain an's heart tightened. The two of them were silent for a moment on the phone. The man asked,"

"Do you have any clues?"

His question made Captain an's heart skip a beat. Before he could think, he instinctively said,"

"No, I didn't,"

As soon as he finished speaking, Captain an's hand on the table clenched into a fist, and a hint of hesitation flashed in his eyes.

However, the person on the other end of the phone couldn't see his expression at that moment. Perhaps it was because she trusted him too much, so she didn't even suspect him when he answered so quickly.

"You know, I've been busy with Xiao Lin's case recently."

The man was just asking casually, but when he heard him mention nurse Lin's case, he changed the topic.

Those who were familiar with Captain an knew that he was investigating the nurse's case. They couldn't help but advise him,"

"Don't investigate anymore, just close the case when it's time to close it. The patient's family members aren't even chasing after him, so why are you so concerned? In the end, it would only bring fire to himself. The higher-ups have already made it clear that they don't want you to continue investigating. There are fewer and fewer old friends, and they don't want to see you get into trouble

Chapter 564: Suspicion _1

Captain an's mind was still on the silver Wolf that had barged into the Shi family's house, so he casually replied with a few words before hanging up the phone.

At this time, in the PEI family's house, number six was talking to a serious-looking middle-aged man. The bright and beautiful young girl was sitting impatiently at the side, yawning.

the three of them have been confirmed dead.

As he spoke, the middle-aged man's brows furrowed into a dead knot, half an hour ago, the test results were sent over. The people from the Shi family's research Institute sent back a sample of the spiritual power residue. It showed that it belonged to the three of them, and there was a servant with them!

The Shi family had confirmed that the spiritual power belonged to the three of them, which was far more convincing to the PEI family than the general genetic test.

He rubbed his head in frustration, closed his eyes, and raised his chin in the direction of the table.

"The Shi family also sent this over. Take a look."

There was a broken piece of a weapon on the table. Number six stood up and picked up the broken piece of the weapon. After looking at it for a while, his expression changed.

This weapon belonged to the burly man who was with Sangu. From the broken part, it looked like it had been cut cleanly by someone with an extremely sharp weapon!

However, the burly man's weapon was already a type of spirit weapon. It was connected to his mind and was forged through a special method. It was extraordinarily hard, and it was difficult for ordinary weapons to break it so easily.

Unless the other party's weapon was of the same grade as the burly man's spirit weapon, and it was extremely likely that the other party was not weak, then it would not be able to cut through the burly man's spirit weapon.

Or, the other party's strength could overpower the burly man and forcefully break the spirit weapon with his spirit energy.

However, the second possibility was very unlikely. The cut of the weapon was smooth, and it did not look broken.

Number six explained his analysis, and the middle-aged man closed his eyes and nodded.

Then, number six asked,"

"However, this kind of spirit tool that has already recognized its master, because of the support of spirit energy, its power is much higher than ordinary spirit tools. If it can be cut in a hurry during battle, what kind of weapon can easily do it?"

When she asked this, the middle-aged man's expression froze and he slowly opened his eyes.

"Back then, the few divine artifacts that appeared from beyond the heavens were fine." His gaze seemed to pass over the bright young lady's body. The originally restless bright young lady immediately lowered her head like a cat seeing a mouse.

Number six also seemed to have thought of something and looked at her guilty sister. She coughed lightly and said,

“However, because those divine artifacts were rare and extremely precious, father and a few elders had to pay a great price to obtain them. Each of them is a token of the family’s inheritance and is in the hands of a few uncles, so how could they appear outside?”

“Yup,” When the middle-aged man heard what she said, he hesitated.

“Maybe I’m thinking too much.”

The people in the room were silent for a moment. After a long time, the middle-aged man sighed.

“That’s not the most important thing at the moment. It’s that we found su Wu’s aura at the scene.” This was the thing that gave him the most headache, he was just arrested by the people of the heavens beyond heaven. On that day, his body was brought back for research. He was already dead. How could his aura reappear here?”

The middle-aged man’s pupils contracted.”After the old monsters from the Shi family went to take a look, they suspected that third elder and the others were killed by su Wu.”

As he said this, he glared at the beautiful young girl.

“If it wasn’t for your willfulness, how could you have attracted such a disaster?” The young girl who had been extremely arrogant in front of number six did not even dare to breathe loudly after being reprimanded by him.

“I think you’re out of your mind. You can’t even tell what’s a big thing and what’s a small thing.” In front of number six, the bright and beautiful girl’s face flushed red from being rebuked. She was somewhat dissatisfied, but she did not dare to open her mouth to refute.

“Father...” Number six frowned, this matter, sister is not...

“Don’t put in a good word for her!” The middle-aged man interrupted his daughter,” she killed people indiscriminately and attracted the attention of ordinary people. However, she caused trouble that can’t be settled! Otherwise, why would I have sent Sangu and the others to keep an eye on them? not only’ did they lose some men, they even caused such a disaster!”

The middle-aged man cursed a few times, but he was still not satisfied. However, looking at the bright and beautiful young girl, he was too lazy to say more.

now that su Wu has appeared, beyond the heavens will send someone to investigate sooner or later. The PEI family is already involved. I’m just afraid that at this time, the Shi family will choose to protect themselves and not help US.

As he said this, he glanced at the beautiful young lady.

go back to the Shi family immediately and get some information from Shi Yue.

Try not to make the Shi family retreat at this critical moment.

When the beautiful young woman heard him say this, she heaved a sigh of relief and hurriedly agreed.

In the end, perhaps because he felt that the middle-aged man also needed his help, he couldn’t help but show a little pride.

Her expression fell into the eyes of number six and the middle-aged man, and the two of them exchanged a tacit look.

The middle-aged man waved his hand, indicating for the beautiful girl to leave.

As soon as she left, the middle-aged man ordered people to call the other members of the family to come over for a discussion.

Taking advantage of the fact that the others had not arrived yet, number six's gaze was still fixed in the direction where the bright and beautiful girl had left earlier. He had a thoughtful expression on his face.

"Father, are you afraid that the Shi family is going to call off the marriage?" When the middle-aged man heard her ask such a question, a trace of surprise flashed across his face, which quickly turned into joy. He was happy for his daughter's keen sense.

"It's good that you're aware of this." However, he shook his head immediately, but the marriage between us and the Shi family can't be canceled so easily!

Hearing this, number six was a little surprised," it's because we have a common goal. On the surface, we're fighting against the grandmasters, but in fact, we're fighting to enter the core of the 'divine prison'.

"Why?"

Only by gathering the power of the underworld families can we become stronger and have more say in the future! He looked deeply at number six, ■ the PEI family's Secret operation will be taken over by you in the future. It's good for you to know more about some things, but it's still too early to tell you some things. With your current strength, you won't be able to touch anything. The middle-aged man didn't want to continue this topic. Even though number six was confused, he waved his hand.

"Tell me about the attack you had on the Shi family last night."

Number six knew that he didn't want to talk about this matter again, so he naturally suppressed his curiosity. Then, with a serious expression, he told him everything that had happened last night. He even mentioned that the demonic beast aura he had hidden in front of the young man was somewhat familiar.

"Demonic beasts ... The sea of stars?" The middle-aged man's brows furrowed even more, during the Battle that year, we had an agreement with the starry sea that we would not offend each other. Was it an accident or a coincidence that they attacked you at this critical time? Or are you trying to make trouble when su Wu's aura reappears?"
