

Watch Out 57

Chapter 57: Sincerity (1)

As number five had said, this was indeed an extremely important piece of news. Song qingxiao instantly understood what number five meant, and goosebumps rose on her back.

The ultimate goal of the trial space was still to encourage killing.

Number five moved towards her without a trace and tried to reach out to touch her calf. Song qingxiao did not know whether to laugh or cry. The sweat on his face did not stop, and it flowed out densely, forming a stream and dripping down.

when the bespectacled man was killing, I hid. I didn't want to take the opportunity to play tricks, and I'm really not a Hunter," he looked in the direction of No. 6 and then moved closer to song qingxiao, ""I'm just afraid of being killed by number six."

As he said this, number six stood still, but her aura slowly changed. Her eyes were deep and dark, as if a storm was brewing.

at the same time, my disappearance is also a form of shock to number six. It can be considered as helping you indirectly, don't you think so? " Number five looked up at song qingxiao, trying to please her. Song qingxiao didn't say anything. Number six laughed and said,"

"Intimidate? Aren't you overthinking things?"

"Hehe." Hearing her disdainful tone, number five didn't feel embarrassed. Instead, he thickened his skin and went along with her words, ""Well said, well said." He wiped the sweat off his forehead and continued, ""Whether I'm thinking too much or not, it's true that you didn't do anything after Qing Xiao went downstairs to kill the spectacled man and went upstairs."

Number six didn't comment. He even thought for a moment and nodded,"

"That's true, I've underestimated you."

In a situation like the trial space, those who could survive were not idiots.

Even in the first trial, luck might protect one for a while, but it could not protect one forever.

The trial this time was extremely dangerous. Half of the six trial-takers had died. The fact that No. 5 had survived until now could not be explained by luck alone.

indeed, at this point, number six no longer had any intention of hiding and nodded happily,” as he said, I was a protector in the beginning.

The mission notification she received was the same as song qingxiao’s. She immediately became a patient after entering the scenario.

When he first attacked song qingxiao, he did have the intention of angering her. If she was a Hunter, after being hurt by him, she would definitely try to kill him to vent her anger.

At that time, she had knocked out the people on the fourth floor and killed the man with the gun. She thought that the man would be a Hunter since he had killed doctor Zhou when he entered the scene. However, after he killed doctor Zhou, he was arrested by the people of the hospital and his identity was changed to that of a hostage. His position changed from a Hunter to one of the people who should be protected.

This was also the signal given by the trial space. The moment the burly man with the gun entered the scene and killed doctor Zhou the moment he saw him, he had lost his identity as a participant and had become a failure in the trial.

In other words, no matter which side won in the end, the man with the gun had already been ‘eliminated’ from the mission.

After number six killed him, he did receive a notification to change his identity. At that time, song Qing went upstairs and number four chased after her. Number six also saw it.

"I was indeed tempted." No. 6 sighed, compared to the passive protection of the people, it's obviously easier to take the initiative to kill.

At that time, she thought that she was the first one to discover this secret among the trial-takers and that she had the initiative in her hands. She was also full of confidence and tried to quickly complete the mission and leave this place.

Number six looked straight into song Qing's small eyes, but I saw your battle with number four. I saw you kill her.

When No. 4 went upstairs, he did not hesitate at all. He killed a patient, heard song Qing's footsteps, and quickly dragged a security guard into the elevator.

On the contrary, song qingxiao was very careful when she went upstairs. She didn't kill a single person from the beginning to the end. It was obvious who they were.

When number four was chasing after song qingxiao, number six had the idea of 'the Mantis stalks the cicada, unaware of the Oriole behind'. However, she saw song qingxiao's trump cards. She had daggers and spells. In the end, she managed to kill the powerful number four and took her whip.

I think I'm pretty good. Compared to number four, if she didn't have a weapon,

I could kill someone like her without any effort.

However, number four had a long whip exchanged from the realm. With the addition of the long whip, it was difficult to estimate his strength, even if I were to fight against number four with the whip, I might not be able to guarantee my victory.

After song qingxiao killed number four, number six was deeply afraid of her and did not dare to attack again. He had been in hiding until now."I don't want to be your enemy."

“Look, she admitted it.” Hearing number six admit it, number Five’s face revealed a happy expression, “”Qing Xiao, we’re on the same side.”

“Who’s with you?”

Song qingxiao lowered her head and glanced at number five. She seemed to be chatting with number five, but her body was tense. She had been on guard against number six.”Since you said that the sides of the protector and the Hunter can change at any time, why should I be with you?”

The current situation was confusing. They were in the camp of protecting the people, but there were still threats that had not been completely eliminated.

Other than the fact that No. 6 had changed from a protector to a Hunter, which was out of song qingxiao’s expectations, doctor ou’s death was also a mystery.

Her words stunned number five, who was sweating profusely. Number six sneered at the scene,” I’m afraid he’s not saying this to exchange information for his life. He probably wants us to kill each other, right?”

“No, no,”

Number five quickly denied it, but number six ignored him and continued, “”The time for the task is approaching. If you want to change your identity to a Hunter, each of you must kill 20 people.”

In other words, hunters also had a number of tasks. For every person they killed, they would get 50 points. In total, they needed to complete 1000 points of tasks.

“If both of us are hunters and we don’t want to kill each other, we need to cooperate. We need to kill 40 people.”

After number six said this, he suddenly sighed. Qing Xiao, take a look. How many people are there in the hospital now? ”

There were a total of 26 patients in the hospital, including patients 5 and 6. Other than Song Qingxiao, there were 11 nurses. One security guard and one doctor each survived. In other words, there were only 39 people left alive in the entire hospital.

Number six had killed the man with the gun, so she had a kill quota. However, if she and Song Qingxiao wanted to complete the task, they would have to kill each other. According to number six, the chances of both of them surviving at the same time were not high. In a situation where there were not enough people, only one person could win.

Song Qingxiao finally realized that when she entered the scenario, Zhang Xiaoyu had mentioned the number of people in the hospital. The trial scenario was filled with hints for her mission.

“I don’t want to be your enemy, but if it’s a matter of life and death, I’ll have to fight to the death.” Number six’s mouth twitched. I’m just afraid that the fisherman will benefit from the fight between the Sandpiper and clam.

Song Qingxiao’s eyes flickered. Number five didn’t say anything. Number six shook his head.

I really wanted to cooperate with you, but I had no choice,” she said with a look of pity. She paused and turned to look at number five. She pointed at him and said, ““Why don’t we get rid of him before we make a move to prevent any future trouble?”

When number five heard that, he was shocked.

He didn’t expect that at this point, even after he had revealed such important information, the two women were still thinking about killing him first even though they were about to fight to the death.

“This isn’t very good, is it?”

Number five was so anxious that he spoke too quickly that he choked on his saliva, which landed on song Qing's foot..
