

Weak B 76

Chapter 76: Don't worry, it's good news!

Absolutely do not wander off, and then she took her sister-in-law He Hui to the lingerie counter, buying two sets for both herself and her sister-in-law.

He Hui felt really embarrassed seeing those bras and panties hanging on the display racks.

She knew that the Friendship Store sold that kind of lingerie, which had come over from across the ocean and could perfectly showcase a woman's curves, but she had never thought of buying any. Unexpectedly, today she was dragged by her sister-in-law to the lingerie section, where not only did she buy two sets for herself, but she also paid for her sister-in-law to get two sets.

To tell the truth, accepting the lingerie her sister-in-law bought for her really made her feel awkward. On one hand, she felt she shouldn't let her sister-in-law spend money on her... Even though it was a gift from her sister-in-law, as the older sister-in-law, how could she casually accept a gift from her?

On the other hand... this kind of lingerie from across the ocean was really rather revealing, and the thought of wearing it made her embarrassed.

However, she truly was happy about it.

After all, there isn't a woman who doesn't like to feel beautiful.

“Big brother, aren’t we going back?”

Seeing big brother Kang Guosheng holding Xiao Ming Han and heading towards the department store not far away, Kang Li couldn’t help feeling puzzled.

“Since we’re out already, let’s just stroll around a bit more with your big brother,”

He Hui said to Kang Li as she walked beside her carrying Xiao Ming Wei. She knew why her husband wanted to go to the department store but didn’t plan to tell Kang Li, thinking to surprise her later on.

As they reached the entrance of the department store, Kang Guosheng said to his wife He Hui and Kang Li, “You guys wait over there under the tree with the kids,” holding Xiao Ming Han in one arm and pointing to a poplar tree about twenty or thirty meters away that was as thick as a man’s embrace, Kang Guosheng’s voice was deep and magnetic, “I’ll be right back.”

After putting Xiao Ming Han down on the ground to stand firm, Kang Guosheng turned and walked toward the department store entrance.

“Sister-in-law, come on, let’s go to the shade of the tree and cool off.”

Holding Xiao Ming Rui’s hand in one hand and Xiao Ming Han’s hand in the other, Kang Li called her sister-in-law He Hui to come to the shade to cool down.

Kang Guosheng came out of the department store after about twenty minutes or so.

“All set?”

He Hui asked with a smile as soon as she saw her husband.

Kang Guosheng nodded, “In a while, the staff from the department store will deliver the items to our compound.”

Picking up Xiao Ming Han, Kang Guosheng responded in a deep voice. Nearby, Kang Li listened to the conversation between her brother and sister-in-law, and after thinking for a bit, she still couldn’t figure it out. She couldn’t help but ask both of them, “Big brother, sister-in-law, what kind of riddle are you two talking in?”

“You’ll know soon enough.”

Kang Guosheng did not directly answer.

“Li Bao, listen to your brother. It won’t be long before you’ll find out what we’re talking about,”

Kissing Xiao Ming Wei's delicate, fair face, He Hui looked at Kang Li with a smile, "Don't worry, it's good news!"

Seeing that she couldn't get a clear answer, Kang Li didn't ask further, and the group headed back to the compound the same way they came.

"What do you think is the family background of that person at Professor Luo's house?"

Looking towards the Luo family's gate, Loo Ping stood at her own gate, chatting with a few women of similar age.

One of the women said, "Who knows that? But Teacher Loo, why do you suddenly ask?"

Loo Ping: "I'm just curious because it seems that relatives have been visiting Professor Luo's home quite frequently these past few days."

"Teacher Loo, you must be seeing things. How often do relatives visit Professor Luo's home? These past few days, I've only seen relatives come today; I haven't noticed it at other times."

Another woman casually mentioned, "Yesterday, I ran into Comrade Qi who said that she and Professor Luo's wife went to our compound along with Professor Luo's wife's father and older and younger brothers. So, I guess the relatives visiting Professor Luo's home today are probably the brothers of Professor Luo's wife."