The Dominance of the Son-in-Law: My Wealthy and Beautiful Wife

Chapter 11: Swimming Fish in Heaven!

After three years of marriage, I didn't realize Qin Feng actually possessed such insight.

Could it be that he, who made all these rich kids at the party lost for words, is really my good-for-nothing husband...

What she didn't know was that when Qin Feng lived in the mountains with the Beidou Divine Doctor, they would make Buddha Jumps Over the Wall eight times a week, to the point he got sick of it.

Xiao Man was also feeling quite miserable at the moment, thinking to herself, let you be smug for now, you'll be crying later!

"Alright, let's continue ordering!"

She changed the subject.

"Then let's go with this!" Qin Feng pointed at the menu and said, "Paradise Swimming Fish."

What?!

Everyone was stunned for a moment.

Following that, Xiao Man couldn't help but let out a snort of laughter.

This "Paradise Swimming Fish" is Wanfu Building's signature dish and the most expensive one, costing twenty thousand yuan per serving!

It is said that this kind of fish can only be found in the Malacca Strait and is extremely rare.

Even though Xiao Man wanted to set up Xu Yunxiao, she didn't have the guts to order it, but this guy passed on the recommended Buddha Jumps Over the Wall and instead ordered this dish; it was too hilarious!

"Qin Feng, you, you... are you trying to piss me off?"

Xu Yunxiao was so angry that she felt like spitting blood.

The slight favorable impression she had just formed of him also dissipated completely.

If you think about it.

It's even worse than ordering the Buddha Jumps Over the Wall!

"Honey, don't worry, I'll treat this meal."

Qin Feng comforted her.

"You're treating?"

Li Jie was also quite angered and said, "Everyone knows you only have six hundred yuan of pocket money each month, what are you going to treat us with? Aren't you just going to screw Yunxiao over? I understand that men want to save face, but if you don't have the money, stop pretending to be a big shot!"

Qin Feng was left speechless.

Xiao Man and the others were laughing so hard they were clutching their stomachs, and she said, waving her hand: "Yunxiao, don't be so agitated, we can't get angry over this little thing today when we have important matters to attend to."

While speaking,

she hurriedly passed the menu to the waiter, asking them to serve the food quickly.

Thinking of the pressing matters of today, Xu Yunxiao had no choice but to suppress her anger; as long as the company issue could be resolved, the money spent would be spent, and she'd teach Qin Feng a lesson later on!

The dishes were served quickly.

Everyone was eating and drinking, it was very lively.

But all of them were Xiao Man's friends, no one paid any attention to Qin Feng, Xu Yunxiao, and Li Jie; they were completely ignored.

Xu Yunxiao tried several times to pick up her glass, wanting to toast Xiao Man, to bring up the subject of borrowing money.

But Xiao Man deliberately changed the subject every time.

This made her very frustrated.

What frustrated her even more was that Qin Feng, sitting next to her, was happily enjoying the "Paradise Swimming Fish," it was infuriating!

In a short while, everyone started wiping their mouths with napkins, indicating they had finished eating.

And Xu Yunxiao still hadn't got the chance to talk about borrowing money.

Just when the dinner party was about to disband and she opened her mouth to speak, Xiao Man, with an air of having had her fill of both food and drink, preemptively said: "Right, Yunxiao, what's the plan next? Are we going upstairs to have tea, or something else?"

"Xiao Man!"

Li Jie could not stand it any longer.

Throughout the whole meal, Xiao Man knew full well Xu Yunxiao was here to borrow money but showed not the slightest intention of helping; they had already spent quite a bit on the meal, and now she wanted to go upstairs for tea?

Tea at Wanfu Building is said to be very expensive!

"That's enough, we're all classmates, and Yunxiao is in trouble right now, if you can help, then help, why make such a fuss?"

Li Jie said.

Xiao Man smiled from the corner of her mouth, leaned back in her chair, and said, "Okay! Let's lay it all out then! To be honest, I'm not planning to help!"

The genuine article resides on M|V|L&EMPYR.

"What?!"

Li Jie and Xu Yunxiao furrowed their brows.

"Hmph, are you dumb?" Xiao Man pursed her lips and coldly sneered, "Xu Yun and I are sworn enemies, I couldn't be happier that she's in trouble, why would I help her? That's hilarious!"

"You, you..."

Li Jie was extremely angry, "If you never wanted to help, why did you agree to have dinner?"

"Of course, it's for revenge!" Xiao Man arrogantly said with her legs crossed, "Back in school, she always outdid me in everything, now I just want to get some payback!"

Continuing.

She took out an agreement from her bag and threw it on Xu Yunxiao's table: "Of course, my boyfriend would definitely lend the money if you are willing to sign here."

Xu Yunxiao opened the agreement and immediately frowned tightly.

The agreement was very simple.

If Xiao Man lent out eight million, she would own fifty-one percent of the company's shares, becoming the largest shareholder, and Xu Yunxiao would also have to go from CEO to become her personal assistant.

"You, you're dreaming!"

Xu Yunxiao said angrily.

Not to mention becoming her personal assistant, just the fifty-one percent of the shares alone were far more than what eight million could buy; this was simply robbery!

"Unwilling to? But do you have a choice?"

Xiao Man said indifferently.

Xu Yunxiao felt extremely frustrated.

The bank would not grant a loan, the family would not help, Yang Junchao had been beaten up by Qin Feng, and now the only person who could help was her!

If there was a way, why would she come here to be humiliated like this?

The private room fell quiet.

At this moment, Qin Feng spoke up: "Wife, are you here to borrow money? But didn't I give you the eight million long ago?"

He was only now aware that his wife had arranged this dinner party to borrow money.

That shouldn't be the case!

"Can you just shut up!"

Xu Yunxiao yelled in frustration.

If it wasn't for him running off Yang Junchao, perhaps Yang could have been of help, and she wouldn't have to endure this humiliation here!

"You didn't open those two cases?"

Qin Feng said, baffled.

Xu Yunxiao remembered the two cases he had sent during the day.

But were there eight million inside?

Impossible!

She wouldn't believe Qin Feng could come up with eight million even if it killed her!

The only possibility was that he saw she was being bullied badly and deliberately stated that the problem of the eight million had already been solved, in order to thwart Xiao Man's schemes and save some face?

The more Xu Yunxiao thought about it, the more she felt this was the case, so she stood up and said to Xiao Man: "I won't borrow the money, we should be going!"

"Heh, do you think you can just leave?"

Xiao Man sat on the chair, saying with a laugh.

"What do you mean?" Xu Yunxiao frowned.

"I mentioned to the manager while ordering that this meal is on you; if you want to leave, at least you have to settle the bill, right?"

Xiao Man said.

"..."

Xu Yunxiao's heart skipped a beat, having forgotten about this!

The cost of this meal was much more than expected, and the thirty thousand on her card was definitely not enough.

She had hoped that Xiao Man would agree to lend the money, so she could use a part of it to settle the bill.

Now that talks had broken down, she was also out of money!

"I have a hundred thousand here."

Li Jie said.

"A hundred thousand?"

Xiao Man scoffed, clucking her tongue, "Do you know how much this meal cost? Just those ten bottles of limited edition Tequila Lai alone would probably be over six hundred thousand, not to mention the rest; what is ten thousand enough for?"

"What?!"

Xu Yunxiao exclaimed, feeling as if she had plunged into an ice cavern.

The drinks had been ordered by them, and she didn't know they were so expensive; it was clear that Xiao Man and company had come prepared to trap her!

"You, you're going too far!"

Xu Yunxiao said angrily.

"Heh, you said it was your treat, so of course we ordered good drinks," Xiao Man spread her hands and laughed, "Just a friendly reminder, the Wanfu Building is Lake City's largest hotel. You know the consequences of dining and dashing here, I don't need to spell them out, right?"

Xu Yunxiao and Li Jie exchanged glances, extremely anxious.

They had heard of the reputation of Wanfu Building, and once they got a reputation for 'dining and dashing' here, they could forget about staying in Lake City's business circles.

At this moment.

Qin Feng stood up and said, "Wife, don't worry, I'll go pay the bill."
