The Dominance of the Son-in-Law: My Wealthy and Beautiful Wife

Chapter 14 - 14 Where Does Money Come From?

"Uh, because... I won the lottery." Qin Feng said with a smile, spreading his hands, "There's a raffle tonight, and if you win the first prize, all expenses are free, and I just happened to win it."

"Raffle? That's too fake! How come I didn't know about it?"

Xu Yunxiao and Li Jie looked at each other.

"If you don't believe it, you can ask President Wei," Qin Feng said.

Wei Yunxiang also came out at this time, and following his words, she said with a gentle smile, "Mr. Qin is right, I had a Feng Shui Master over earlier, who said that tonight there would be a lucky star guest at Wanfu Building, who could bring prosperity and wealth, rising day by day. Whoever wins the prize is that 'lucky star', and in the end, it was Mr. Qin who won."

"So that's how it is..." Xu Yunxiao suddenly realized.

Thinking about it, aside from some dumb luck, there's no way he could get someone like President Wei to waive the bill.

Hearing this, Li Jie felt even more envious.

His luck is just too good!

"Well, we've bothered President Wei enough, we should head home now," Xu Yunxiao said.

"I'll arrange a car for you," Wei Yunxiang said, bending over respectfully.

"No, no, don't trouble yourself!" Xu Yunxiao hastily waved her hands.

She really couldn't bear such respect from such an important figure!

Qin Feng said to Wei Yunxiang on the side, "Alright, you can go back to what you were doing!"

Hearing this, Xu Yunxiao trembled.

He actually dares to talk to President Wei like that, really not afraid of losing his life!

"Speak properly!" She glared at Qin Feng, then hurriedly bowed to Wei Yunxiang in apology, "Sorry, President Wei, don't mind him, he... he just talks like that..."

"It's alright." Wei Yunxiang said, seeing that this was a lady boss, how could she bear it?

She also quickly bent over respectfully.

Xu Yunxiao felt even less worthy, and quickly bent even lower.

Wei Yunxiang bent over further.

Xu Yunxiao bent again.

Wei Yunxiang bent again.

Both were at a stalemate, while Qin Feng on the side felt extremely embarrassed. Is this a competition of who can bow lower?

After leaving Wanfu Building, Xu Yunxiao was very happy and said to Qin Feng, "See, that's the demeanor of a big shot. President Wei is so impressive but still treats people warmly. You should learn something, have some cultivation and quality."

"Alright..." Qin Feng was supremely embarrassed.

Li Jie went to get the car, ready to take Xu Yunxiao back.

But seeing Qin Feng riding an electric bike alone, and recalling his performance tonight, Xu Yunxiao felt conflicted. After hesitating for a while, she said, "No need, I'll go back with him!"

"With him?" Li Jie wondered.

She usually disliked being with him, what happened today?

Even Qin Feng was stunned for a moment, then he immediately smiled from ear to ear, diligently wiped the passenger seat and said, "Come on, dear wife, please take a seat!"

Sitting on the electric bike, Xu Yunxiao looked at his happy appearance and felt strange in her heart.

Had she been too heartless towards him these three years?

Just letting him give her a ride.

He was as happy as a child...

The two of them returned home.

Mother-in-law Li Cuilan started to nag at Qin Feng, "What level of laziness have you reached? You don't even cook dinner! What's the use of keeping you? Such a useless thing..."

"Mom, he went with me to meet a client," Xu Yunxiao defended him.

After all, if it weren't for him tonight, they would probably have been in trouble.

"Him meet clients? He'll just embarrass you! I think he just wants to freeload meals and drinks, seriously, getting more and more useless!"

"And also, in a few days, it's grandma's seventieth birthday celebration, you better not let him go. She's still holding a grudge for not taking the fall for Yeye, don't drag our family down!"

"..."

Qin Feng was already used to these complaints.

In one ear, out the other.

The next day.

After breakfast, Qin Feng was about to leave on his electric bike when he saw Xu Yunxiao's Santana wouldn't start as she was heading to the company. He said, "I'll take you!"

"That's fine," Xu Yunxiao thought for a moment.

The company was facing bankruptcy; saving a bit where possible was crucial.

Qin Feng was secretly thrilled.

Last night, when he was going fast, she kept holding onto him tighter from behind, letting him experience the sweet feeling of close contact. Now he had another chance!

Sure.

However.

He quickly became depressed.

During the rush hour in the morning, the electric bicycle ran slowly and no longer offered that wonderful feeling.

"Wife, that Santana of yours is quite a few years old, right?" Qin Feng asked while riding the bicycle, "I'll get you a new car soon."

"We're almost bankrupt now, and you're still talking about getting a new car. If you can't help, can't you at least worry for me?"

Xu Yunxiao replied, annoyed.

Indeed, the Santana had been driven for quite a few years, and how could she not wish for a better car?

Last night at Wanfu Building, Qin Feng had mentioned the cash in those two boxes, but she simply thought he was giving her a way to save face, so she wouldn't have to ask Xiao Man and the others for help, and she certainly didn't believe it was true.

Qin Feng was unable to explain.

Once she gets to the office and sees the money, she would experience a huge surprise!

In a moment.

They arrived at the entrance of the company.

Xu Yunxiao got off the electric bike and headed inside the company.

As Qin Feng rode away on the electric bicycle, he overheard some people nearby discussing something.

"Did you see? President Xu can't even afford to drive that old Santana anymore, the company must really be finished!"

"Yes, a company's General Manager actually riding an electric bicycle, how embarrassing."

"..."

Hearing them talk, Qin Feng sighed, thinking that he must buy a new car for his wife, as there were still over two hundred million in his account.

But he was in a rush now.

He and Old Fu had an appointment today to go to Haohan Entertainment to handle the handover procedures...

Xu Yunxiao entered her office, closed the door, and was very frustrated.

How could she not have heard those comments?

"Damn it, I really regret letting him drop me off, how embarrassing..."

Xu Yunxiao grumbled.

At that moment.

She suddenly saw two boxes next to her desk and remembered what Qin Feng said the night before, muttering, "There couldn't really be eight million in there, could there?"

Upon further thought.

She mocked herself with a wry smile, "Don't be foolish, relying on the words of your worthless husband, you must be crazy."

But two boxes mysteriously appearing in the office was indeed strange.

She lifted the boxes onto the desk and tried to open them to have a look.

At this glance.

She gasped, her pupils dilating dramatically, her mouth agape in shock!

Money!

A whole two boxes of it!

Exactly eight million!

Xu Yunxiao was stunned.

She didn't expect there really would be eight million! This text was acquired from *.

"This is great!"

She was so moved that she felt a surge in her nose and tears almost spilled out.

In recent days, as a vulnerable woman, she had undergone tremendous pressure because of this sum of money.

Now, the company's crisis was finally resolved!

It took her a while to calm down, she dried her tears and puzzled, "Where did this money come from?"

Was it from Qin Feng?

After all, he was the one who mentioned bringing up two boxes of cash.

But this is eight million, there's no way he could have such an amount!

Unable to figure out the answer, Xu Yunxiao called Li Jie.

When Li Jie heard it, she was also shocked and pondered for a moment before saying, "It must be Junchao!"

"Junchao?" Xu Yunxiao asked.

"Think about it! Besides him, who else could help you? Didn't you call him before the meeting yesterday? He naturally knew about your company's shortage of funds, so he came with the money, but was chased away by your worthless husband, who then brought up the two boxes of money."

Li Jie analyzed.

"That's true!" Xu Yunxiao's eyes lit up, and then she became annoyed, "So, knowing that he was here to deliver money, Qin Feng still chased him away. Not only that, he kept the money that was sent. That's outrageous!"

"I've told you before, just divorce him already; he has no money, no capability, just knows how to pretend!" Li Jie complained, "Look at what he did last night, clearly he had won a prize to get a free meal, yet he insisted he paid for it himself, isn't that trying to show off?"

"Ah!"

Xu Yunxiao sighed, "He even mentioned buying me a car this morning."

"See! That guy knows he's poor, yet he still thinks about showing off, he has too much vanity. A man like that won't achieve anything big. Listen to me, better go with Junchao!"

Li Jie advised again.

Xu Yunxiao felt helpless and said, "I should call Junchao to thank him first!"

After hanging up.

She called Yang Junchao.

But she was informed that his cell phone service had been suspended due to unpaid bills.

Strange.

With his means, how could such a thing like a phone overdue bill happen?
