The Dominance of the Son-in-Law: My Wealthy and Beautiful Wife Novel

Chapter 181: Advising You Not To Seek Death!

Xu Yunxiao only remembered to bring up this issue now, bitterly smiling as she suggested, "How about... you go back to the dormitory to sleep? After my cousin leaves in a few days, you can move back in."

"..."

Qin Feng's heart shattered.

Back in the Southwest, he had been looking forward to sleeping with his wife every day and night.

Finally coming home, yet having to sleep in the dormitory again.

No choice.

He could only helplessly return to Wanfu Building.

Just as he was leaving,

Mother-in-law Li Cuilan stopped him, saying, "By the way, when you go to Wanfu Building, could you make a reservation? Tomorrow, Yanyan's parents are also coming to Lake City to visit. We can host a table at Wanfu Building. Don't worry, just mention Yunxiao's name and the reservation can be made."

Hearing this, Xu Yunxiao hurriedly responded with gloom, "Mom..."

A table at Wanfu Building would cost tens of thousands.

Even if it was relatives visiting, going there seemed too extravagant, especially since she always felt that preparing a meal at home gave it a more familial touch.

"Oh, it's been a long time since I've seen your second aunt and her husband, we naturally have to treat them well,"

Li Cuilan said.

Xu Yunxiao sighed.

She knew that Li Cuilan had felt looked down upon by her aunt's family for many years now, and wanted to show off a bit at Wanfu Building.

"Also, take a day off tomorrow to pick them up from the airport. Yunxiao is busy with work and doesn't have much time,"

Li Cuilan continued to Qin Feng.

Qin Feng acknowledged and left the scene.

...

The next day.

An extremely furious Gao Yunkui, who had been brutally beaten, made a call to Jiang City to request the family's revered "Iron Hand" to come to Lake City for revenge.

However.

After he picked up the call, he exclaimed in shock, "What?! You're saying 'Iron Hand' is hospitalized? And was beaten by someone?!"

Damn it!

After hanging up.

Gao Yunkui was extremely frustrated.

Wei Yunxiang had only given three days to revoke the contract, and he had to settle this matter within that timeframe. Hearing about "Iron Hand's" injuries, it might take at least two or three years in the hospital.

"What should I do?"

Gao Yunkui was very distressed.

At that moment, his subordinate came into the hotel room and handed him Qin Feng's information.

Last night, it was under Qin Feng's word that they had taken action, making him very curious and causing him to spend the entire night looking up information.

After reading the information.

Gao Yunkui finally understood what was happening.

It turns out that Wei Yunxiang obeyed his words because he was seen as a "lucky star" for the Wanfu Building, someone appointed by the advice of the famous Daoist Shifang Taoist.

Shifang Taoist is a world-renowned "Golden Mouth" Daoist.

Anyone or any company he advised almost immediately soared to great heights!

There was even a case of a company owner who was facing bankruptcy with billions in foreign debt and thought about jumping off a building, but had a meal with him and transformed his company from death's door to a market value of over ten billion within a year!

Of course.

This was all hearsay.

As more people noticed Wei Yunxiang's reverence towards Qin Feng as this "lucky star," they couldn't think of any other reason, hence they speculated that the guiding figure might have been Shifang Taoist.

Gradually.

People accepted this.

"Hmph, Wei Yunxiang met Shifang Taoist? That's too fake, even I don't qualify to meet Daoist Shifang, let alone her!"

"They probably want to use this to establish ties with the Xu family, especially since Xu Yunxiao has deep connections with Haohan Company. Rumors say the new boss behind Haohan is also very powerful, and this likely includes people like Fang Wudi."

Thinking about this.

Gao Yunkui's eyes lit up, he muttered: "I heard Xu Yunxiao doesn't fancy that jerk Hang Chengzhi, who's pursuing her and handling the Lake City project. Getting Xu Yunxiao on board might also work..."

He immediately called Hang Chengzhi, demanding he secure Xu Yunxiao within two days!

Of course.

He didn't pin all his hopes on Hang Chengzhi, and quickly made another call for reinforcements to Lake City.

Without "Iron Hand" to assist, but with money, one could still hire other experts. The underground mercenary force was something Jiang City wasn't short of...

Upon receiving orders from Gao Yunkui, Hang Chengzhi immediately called Xu Changjian to ask, "How's it going?"

"Don't worry, it'll be the fifteenth of August in two days. We have a family gathering then. Mr. Hang will propose during that time and with our pressure as well, there won't be any issues, heh heh heh..."

Xu Changjian chuckled sinisterly on the phone.

Morning.

Qin Feng drove Xu Yunxiao's Mercedes-Benz S450, first dropping her off at the company, then heading to the airport to pick up Li Yanyan's parents. Li Yanyan sat in the back, admiring the luxurious interior, and said, "Cousin, not bad, who would've thought you could afford a car worth over a million. I heard that despite being the General Manager, your salary is only around four to five thousand."

"Oh, it's okay."

Xu Yunxiao felt depressed inside.

This was also why her relatives looked down on her, seemingly the General Manager but with not much salary. The latest chapters are always available first on *.

Li Yanyan then looked towards Qin Feng, crossed her legs, munching on a pear, and said, "I see why Aunt insisted on you divorcing and you refused. Is it because once divorced, you'd never be able to afford a car over a million for life?"

Qin Feng couldn't be bothered with her.

Seeing this, Xu Yunxiao defended him, "This car is his."

"What?!" Li Yanyan exclaimed.

"He won it in a lottery, a Mercedes-Benz," Xu Yunxiao added.

"I knew your salary couldn't afford this car," Li Yanyan pouted, looking at Brother Qin, "Talk about dumb luck, tsk tsk, must be because the heavens felt bad for your poverty and took pity on you."

"..."

Xu Yunxiao was speechless.

She intended to speak up for Qin Feng, but ended up making him the target of greater mockery.

Luckily, it seemed Qin Feng wasn't angered.

After a while.

Qin Feng dropped Xu Yunxiao at the company entrance and saw Hang Chengzhi's Porsche again.

Hang Chengzhi was standing beside the car, holding a bouquet, waiting for Xu Yunxiao.

Li Yanyan, witnessing this scene, widened her eyes.

"Cousin, am I seeing this right?! That man is Mr. Hang of Hengyuan Group! He's from our Jiang City, based initially at headquarters, later transferred here as the General Manager to Lake City. Such a talented man, could it be he's taken a liking to you? That's great, marry him and you'll make it big!"

"Stop talking nonsense!"

Xu Yunxiao glanced at Qin Feng, then exited the car.

Seeing Hang Chengzhi approaching with the flowers.

Li Yanyan was almost certain, envy filling her eyes.

But the car had already started moving.

Li Yanyan, discontent, said to Qin Feng, "Hey, what's the rush? Oh—right! You must be jealous, but too afraid to provoke Mr. Hang, right? Haha, just as everyone says, what a loser."

Qin Feng still ignored her, pulling over to the roadside, then calling Fang Wudi, "Hang Chengzhi is currently at Shuimu Company's entrance, you know what to do, right?"

After saying that, he hung up.

Li Yanyan, seeing this, burst into laughter, "Are you stupid? That's Mr. Hang Chengzhi you're messing with. You think the person you called won't cry kneeling before they even reach him? Seriously, you have no clue, I'm dying of laughter here..."

At this moment, Qin Feng turned his head, gave her a grin revealing his white teeth, and said, "Come here a moment."

"What for?"

As Li Yanyan leaned forward, asking.

Little did she know.

As soon as her face got close, Qin Feng landed a slap right on!

Slap!

The slap hit her face, Qin Feng coldly sneered, "I warn you, I usually don't hit women, but if you're asking for it, don't blame me."

Chapter 182 - 182 The House is Too Small!

"You, you... are asking for it!"

Li Yanyan's face burned with shame, about to strike out in anger at Qin Feng.

But Qin Feng's eyes glared sharply, like the blade of a knife, frightening her into stillness, forcing her to swallow her rage.

Qin Feng then continued to drive.

A moment later.

They picked up Li Yanyan's parents from the airport, Li Datong and Li Limei.

As soon as they got in the car, Li Yanyan couldn't help crying, complaining, "Dad, Mom, he hit me, look at my face, he slapped me!"

Li Datong and Li Limei immediately cursed at Qin Feng fiercely.

Qin Feng feigned innocence, saying, "No way, how could I possibly hit someone?"

They examined Li Yanyan's cheek further.

Finding no slap marks, they said, "Enough, we know you look down on this loser, but there's no need to stoop to his level."

"Yeah, how could he dare to hit you?" Li Datong said as well.

"I, I really was hit!"

Li Yanyan pointed at her own face, almost about to cry again.

What she didn't know was that although Qin Feng's slap was very painful, it was done with hidden skill, leaving no visible marks on the surface.

"By the way, how is your boyfriend doing?" her mother Li Limei asked.

This was what they were really concerned about.

Li Yanyan's boyfriend had been working for Rainbow Cosmetics Company in Lake City, while Li Limei and Li Datong, who looked down on the small place of Lake City, were reluctant about it at first.

But they heard recently her boyfriend was doing well, having been promoted to Design Director of the company, and with an annual salary plus bonuses, he made over a million.

The key was that he was very young, with a promising future.

So, they were eager to meet this future son-in-law.

"He's fine, told him we'll meet tonight."

Li Yanyan thought of her boyfriend and resentfully glared at Qin Feng, planning to have her boyfriend teach him a lesson later and get revenge for her!

"But, my aunt has booked a place at Wanfu Building, said she wanted to treat us, so I told him to postpone it by another day."

Li Yanyan added. Enjoying the story? Discover more on *.

"Wanfu Building?!"

Her parents exchanged a look, surprised, "How can their family afford to dine at Wanfu Building?"

Wanfu Building can be said to be a landmark of Lake City.

Thus, they were not unfamiliar with it.

When Xu Yunxiao had just become the General Manager of Shuimu Company, they were in Lake City and wanted her to treat them to a meal at Wanfu Building to celebrate, but they absolutely refused to go.

It was later revealed that Xu Yunxiao, despite holding the position of General Manager, only had a salary of four thousand, with pitifully low annual bonuses.

"This is even better."

Li Limei's eyes lit up, "Let's invite your boyfriend to join us! It would be a waste of his money to treat us to another meal tomorrow, which is effectively wasting your money, and now we can go to Wanfu Building and save some money too."

"Yes, I think it's a great idea as well."

Li Datong also smiled.

A moment later.

Qin Feng drove and dropped them off at their place.

Mother-in-law Li Cuilan and father-in-law Xu Guosheng had cleaned the house spotlessly, greeting them warmly.

As soon as Li Limei walked in, she looked around and said, "Oh my, sister, how many years has it been, and you are still living in this house! We just bought a new apartment in Jiang City, 140 square meters, in a high-end community. This old neighborhood doesn't even have property management, how can people live here?"

Speaking of which.

She then turned to Li Yanyan and said, "Yanyan, after living here for two days, Mom really feels sorry for you."

"..."

Li Cuilan immediately felt depressed and awkwardly said, "We are also looking to buy a house soon, just haven't found the right one yet."

"Oh? Really? I heard the best community in Lake City is 'Cloud Peak', and the one that's just going to be developed, 'Water Cloud Gorge'. You must be buying in these two places, right?" Li Limei deliberately said.

"...Yes, indeed, we are choosing between these two places." Li Cuilan said.

"That's perfect, I have a friend who's a sales manager at 'Cloud Peak'. I'll call him right away and have him pick out an apartment for you with the best lighting and everything, and he can even give you a discount!" Li Limei said, reaching for her phone.

Li Cuilan was quick to stop her, stammering, "No, no rush, I'll peel an apple for you first."

She did want to buy, but frankly, she had no money.

Now that her daughter, Xu Yunxiao, had her own shares, her net worth was not insignificant either.

However, after absorbing Xu Yaqian's cosmetics company and repeatedly expanding its production scale, it was still in the investment and development stage, owing the bank a large sum of debt. How could she have money to buy a house?

Seeing her guilty look, Li Limei sneered and said to Li Datong, "I knew she was just pretending. How could she possibly afford a house? Let alone one at 'Cloud Peak'..."

Though she had spoken softly,

Li Cuilan still heard it.

Li Cuilan felt aggrieved.

In those days, when Xu Yunxiao, the number one beauty of Lake City, was also the target of wealthy young masters competing for her hand, marrying into a wealthy family seemed like a matter of time.

Back then, Li Limei and Li Datong would flatter her every day.

Ever since Qin Feng showed up.

Their attitude had changed.

So all of this was the fault of that loser, Qin Feng!

As Li Cuilan's feelings of dissatisfaction with Qin Feng grew stronger, she snapped, "What are you standing there for? Didn't you see guests have arrived? Completely oblivious, quickly go pour some tea, you good-for-nothing!"

"Hehehe..."

Seeing this, Li Limei laughed and said, "Sister, actually, I'm quite envious of you."

"Oh? Really?"

Li Cuilan finally cheered up a little and pricked up her ears.

"I've always envied you for having such a compliant son-in-law who neither talks back nor retorts when hit or cursed, so obedient, you even save money on hiring a maid." Li Limei continued.

"..."

Li Cuilan's face turned even more iron blue as she glared at Qin Feng, the resentment in her gaze growing. She secretly swore that she must make Qin Feng and Xu Yunxiao get a divorce!

...

Xu Mansion.

In the living room, grandma and the others all looked troubled and awkward as they watched Hang Chengzhi with a blue and swollen face.

Hang Chengzhi's eyes were filled with anger.

In the morning, Xu Changjian had called to say that there weren't any major issues, and that it would be fine to ask for Xu Yunxiao's hand in marriage on the fifteenth of August.

He thought he had already persuaded the Xu family about Xu Yunxiao and was thrilled.

His boss had ordered it, and he also lusted after Xu Yunxiao's body, so he rushed to find Xu Yunxiao first thing in the morning.

However.

He was cruelly rejected after confessing to Xu Yunxiao.

And that wasn't the end of it.

Just after he left Xu Yunxiao's Company, suddenly a bunch of people rushed over and beat him up.

"Hmph, tell me! How do you plan to explain this?" Hang Chengzhi asked coldly.

Everyone exchanged looks.

Although Hang Chengzhi was just a regional manager, he was not someone the Xu family could afford to offend. All of the Xu family's assets combined might not amount to over five billion, except for Shuimu Company, which had greatly increased in market value through their partnership with Haohan Company, the rest were just a bunch of fragmented small businesses.

But to them, Hengyuan Fourth Construction Group was a colossal entity worth over tens of billions.

So even though he was just responsible for the Lake City region, they did not dare to offend him.

"This..."

Grandma looked troubled.

Xu Changjian also hurried forward apologetically, "Mr. Hang, actually our plan is this..."

Chapter 183 - 183 We Are Family Now!

After hearing Xu Changjian's plan.

Hang Chengzhi furrowed his brows, saying, "Is there no other way besides coercion? Is she really that devoted to that guy?"

"Mr. Hang, it's not about devotion, she doesn't think highly of that loser. It's mainly because she's soft-hearted and wants to repay the favor of 'Chongxi', whether we coerce her or not, once we have her, affection can gradually be cultivated."

Xu Changjian explained.

Upon hearing this, Hang Chengzhi's lips curled into a sinister smile, saying, "Actually, I personally prefer coercion; it makes things more interesting, hehe..."

Xu Changjian breathed a sigh of relief, smiling as he said, "Then it's settled, we'll be family from now on."

"Hold on."

Hang Chengzhi pointed at the wound on his face, saying, "What about this debt then?"

"..."

Everyone glanced at each other upon hearing this.

Unexpectedly, this wasn't enough for him, they decided to settle with money.

Hang Chengzhi smirked and said, "Then give me Shuimu Company!"

"What?!"

Grandma and Xu Changjian were shocked.

His appetite was too big!

Shuimu Company might have been small previously, but ever since it collaborated with Haohan Company, anyone could see its potential. Recently, it increased various investments; though it has not yet profited, given its potential, its market value could increase tenfold in a year!

That is, it might be worth only tens of millions now, but soon it could be worth hundreds of millions!

That's a huge profit.

Grandma had only just managed to get those shares back.

"This won't do, Mr. Hang, you know, Shuimu Company is now the lifeline of our Xu family, you're basically asking for our lives..."

Xu Changjian said with a pained expression.

"How so."

Hang Chengzhi said coldly, "What you mean is, you don't plan to compensate? The person who hit me was arranged by Xu Yunxiao's husband, Qin Feng. He is from your Xu family, shouldn't this debt be paid by you?"

"But..."

"Do you know why I could take the position of General Manager of Lake City?" Hang Chengzhi sneered proudly, "That's because the Group's Chairman is my godmother. I'm just here to train for two years, and after that, I'd directly enter the high-level management of the Group. If my godmother finds out that the Xu family did this to my face, what do you think she'll do..."

Hearing this, Xu Changjian and the others involuntarily shuddered.

They had done their research on Hengyuan Fourth Construction before talking about collaboration with Hang Chengzhi.

Their chairman is a ruthless sixty-year-old woman. Find the source of this chapter at *.

Many competitors.

She had defeated using unfair means, and those who were defeated ended up miserably, either losing everything or their families torn apart.

There was a company valued over a billion.

Suddenly announced bankruptcy during competition with them, and their CEO mysteriously committed suicide.

But they were unharmed.

That's why they easily clinched the deal with Er Long Group's Feng Guoqiang, and the new building project at Water Cloud Gorge as soon as they came to Lake City.

"On the other hand."

Hang Chengzhi continued, "Isn't your plan to use Shuimu Company as a threat to force her to marry me after retrieving her shares? If I am not on your side, guess what Haohan Company would do to you?"

"This..."

Xu Changjian and others exchanged looks.

They thought of having the backing of the Hengyuan Group, which is why they dared to coerce Xu Yunxiao without fearing Haohan Company.

But now, if Hang Chengzhi does not cooperate, they wouldn't dare to proceed.

The shares would revert back to Xu Yunxiao.

"Since it's all about forcing her to marry me, I think Shuimu Company would be more obedient in my hands, right?" Hang Chengzhi said with a smile, "By then if Haohan Company tries to meddle, they wouldn't trouble you, and you wouldn't need to fear their crazy retaliation."

"..."

That's true, but the Xu family is now relying on Shuimu Company, they really can't give it up!

Hang Chengzhi understood this too, and continued, "Don't worry, just give Shuimu Company to me, and I'll make sure all the project materials handled by me are supplied solely by your Xu family, becoming our exclusive supplier!"

"Really, really?!"

Xu Changjian and the others widened their eyes in surprise.

Hang Chengzhi had too many projects on his hands, just the Water Cloud Gorge project alone would let the Xu family's annual turnover exceed last year's by several times!

If they supplied all the materials themselves.

Setting aside the massive profits, the Xu family would also become a major partner of Hengyuan Fourth Construction.

The benefits brought by that were incomparable to Shuimu Company.

"Of course, all projects in Lake City under our company are handled by me, so why not use your family's goods?"

Hang Chengzhi shrugged as he spoke.

After speaking.

Everyone turned their gaze towards grandma.

At this moment, excitement flickered in grandma's eyes.

She wanted to drink some tea to calm her nerves.

But her hand holding the tea cup trembled uncontrollably due to excitement.

Even though the Xu family had suddenly become the second-tier family in Lake City these days, everyone in the circle knew it was all due to Xu Yunxiao's contributions, with nothing to do with the Xu family.

If.

They could rise by collaborating with the Hengyuan Group, people would then direct their admiration towards themselves.

Instead of bringing up Xu Yunxiao whenever the Xu family is mentioned.

Grandma sipped her tea, set down the trembling cup, took a deep breath, and smiled at Hang Chengzhi, "From now on, we are family."

Xu Changjian excitedly waved his fist.

The material company was under his charge, and he could finally replace Xu Yunxiao's position in the Xu family.

...

At night.

After work, the two families headed to Wanfu Building together.

There was only one car.

It might be a tight fit, but it could barely accommodate six people.

So, in the end, they only asked Qin Feng to stay behind, telling him to ride an electric bike to Wanfu Building on his own.

In the words of Aunt Li Limei, people from the countryside like Qin Feng didn't deserve to ride in such a high-level car.

"I say, Yunxiao, you should consider changing men, although a second marriage might somewhat impact finding a good one, surely no one can compare to Yanyan's boyfriend. But anyone is better than that Qin Feng."

Li Limei curled her lips and said, "Speaking of boyfriends, Yanyan has found a very good one, young and already promoted to the position of design director at the company, very promising. Oh right, speaking of Yanyan's boyfriend, invite him too! Since we're all family now, let's get acquainted first."

Having said that, Li Cuilan, albeit reluctant, could only nod.

Sitting in the passenger seat, Li Yanyan immediately called her boyfriend, saying, "Dear, come dine at Wanfu Building! My parents are here, at Wanfu Building, treating you to a grand meal, my parents are nice to you..."

"..."

Li Cuilan and others felt depressed, as if it sounded like the treat was on their family.

Chapter 184: Six Hundred and Eighty-Eight Thousand!

Not long after.

Xu Yunxiao and the others arrived at Wanfu Building, and upon seeing Qin Feng's electric car at the entrance, Li Limei sneered, "Qin Feng, how can you just park your electric car here?"

"Huh?"

Qin Feng was perplexed.

Li Limei continued, "You should park your electric car underneath the bridge outside on the main road. This is a high-end hotel. By parking an electric vehicle here, it's so embarrassing. Ah, country folks really are country folks; you have no idea what dignity is. I bet you've never been to a place like Wanfu Building in your life, right?"

"Uh, I come here every day," Qin Feng said.

"You? Hahaha..."

Li Limei couldn't help but burst into laughter, and Li Cuilan said, "Your son-in-law here is good-for-nothing, acting like he's so impressive, hahaha..."

At that moment, Xu Guosheng, his father-in-law, said, "He really does come here every day. He works here as a waiter."

"What? A waiter?"

Li Limei instantly laughed even harder, clutching her stomach, "Sister, brother-in-law, what am I supposed to say to you? Even though you're from a prominent family, to have someone working as a waiter, hahaha..."

"..."

Li Cuilan was extremely frustrated, shooting Xu Guosheng a cold glare, "If you can't speak properly, then shut up!"

At the same time, her gaze towards Qin Feng became more and more displeased.

Soon.

They arrived at the reserved private room.

Upon entering, Li Limei and the others were astounded!

This private room was a massive 200 square meters, extravagantly decorated, the epitome of luxury. Even the placement of leather chairs and sofas was meticulously chosen, and every decorative detail was filled with an air of nobility.

"Did we go to the wrong room?"

Li Limei's eyes widened in shock.

Such high-class decor wouldn't even be available to just anyone in an ordinary hotel, let alone in Wanfu Building.

Xu Yunxiao also thought they were in the wrong place, but the server at that moment said, "No mistake, this is indeed the room Mr. Qin reserved."

"What?!"

Xu Yunxiao was taken aback and turned to look at Qin Feng.

Seeing Qin Feng nod, she immediately felt a chill in her heart and murmured irritably, "Are you crazy? Why did you book such an expensive room? Let's change to a different one!"

At Wanfu Building, even an ordinary private room for a few people could cost tens of thousands of yuan.

For this ultra-luxurious private room, it must be hundreds of thousands!

"It's not expensive. After all, since we're hosting, we should choose a better room. Don't worry about the bill."

Qin Feng said with a smile.

Li Cuilan then saw Li Limei's family of three marveling at the room and immediately said cheerfully, "Exactly, no matter how expensive, what's a few more bucks? Let's all sit down!"

"Sister, you're really generous. A meal here must cost tens of thousands, right?" Li Limei said.

The server in charge of taking their order politely smiled and said, "This private room has a minimum charge. According to the lowest standard, it's 388,000 yuan."

"..."

Li Limei's family of three had their eyes light up in astonishment, thrilled beyond measure.

388,000 yuan!

Who would be willing to spend so much on a meal? Finally, they had the chance to truly indulge!

Hearing the amount.

Li Cuilan's heart also skipped a beat.

She expected it to be expensive.

But she hadn't thought it would be so astronomically expensive!

Even to satisfy one's vanity, it didn't feel good inside, but she still forced a laugh and said to Li Limei and others, "It's not easy for you to visit, of course I have to treat you well. Right."

The server then continued, "Then I will start preparing the dishes. The set menu you selected, the mid-range package, is 688,800 yuan."

What?!

Everyone was shocked again!

688,800 yuan!

That's almost enough to buy a small apartment!

"I'm sorry, there must be some mistake." Xu Yunxiao couldn't hold back any longer and hurriedly said to the server, "We'd like to switch to a normal private room."

The company was already struggling with its development, and she was frugal in her daily life.

Spending 688,000 yuan on a single meal?

She couldn't do it!

"No switching!"

Li Cuilan was not having it at this point and shouted to Xu Yunxiao, "Everything is already booked, why switch? Besides, it's just over 600,000 yuan, it's not like we can't afford it!"

No choice.

She had always been mocked by Li Limei's family.

If she switched now, she would have even less face in front of them in the future.

"Mom!" This copy was generated from content at *.

"Anyway, I'm not switching! You are worth tens of millions, and as a mother, should I have to swallow my pride just for a meal? Can you bear it!"

"But..."

Xu Yunxiao was feeling down.

Those shares she had were indeed worth tens of millions, and given time, they would quickly turn into hundreds of millions.

But now, grandma had temporarily taken back the shares.

Even if she hadn't.

There was no extra cash to spare.

Just as Xu Yunxiao was wallowing, the waiter said: "President Xu, you do not need to settle the bill for this meal; President Wei has signed for it. So, Miss Xu, please rest assured."

"What?!"

Xu Yunxiao was surprised.

This meal was worth 688,000 yuan, and Wei Yunxiang had actually waived it off?

The others, upon hearing this, were equally astonished.

After the waiter went to arrange the serving, Li Cuilan couldn't stop grinning with joy.

Her own daughter was eating out.

And got everything for free.

Moreover, in such a high-end place, it was really gratifying!

At this moment, Li Limei said in amazement, "Sis, Yunxiao is doing quite well now! Over 600,000 yuan, and it's waived just like that!"

"That's right, you don't know, Yunxiao's company is doing very well now, they have collaborations with big stars like Luo Hongyan and Jiang Yuexin, they often dine together!" Li Cuilan said with pride, "Yanyan, isn't Luo Hongyan your idol? Later on, I'll have Yunxiao introduce you."

"..."

Li Yanyan pursed her lips, feeling somewhat annoyed and muttered, "No matter how well the company is doing, she is just an employee, earning a fixed salary, what's so amazing about it..."

Seeing Li Cuilan's smug face, Li Limei felt unconvinced.

In a moment.

The dishes were served.

Just then, Li Yanyan's boyfriend Bo Haisheng also arrived.

His hair was shiny, dressed in a suit and wearing elegant glasses, he had the air of a successful person.

Li Yanyan's parents couldn't have been happier, and hurriedly greeted him, "Haisheng, come, come, have a seat, hehe, although it's our first meeting, please don't be shy, feel at home, hehe..."

Li Cuilan was feeling depressed.

It was her treat, but it ended up looking like it was theirs.

The meal soon began.

Li Yanyan introduced him: "This is my boyfriend, he works at Rainbow Cosmetics Company, and he's just been promoted to the position of Deputy Design Director, with an annual salary of over a million!"

As she spoke, her face was full of pride.

Li Cuilan's family, however, kept silent.

They knew she was showing off, but they couldn't refute.

"By the way, Haisheng, what is your educational background?" Li Limei asked further.

"Oh, I'm a graduate of Tsinghua University."

"Wow, that's amazing, indeed, graduates from prestigious schools are different, they have a level of poise and quality above the ordinary people, hehehe..."

As she talked, she glanced at Li Cuilan and the others, seeing them eating silently without a word, she felt even more triumphant.

"Qin Feng, what about your educational background?"

Li Limei turned to look at Qin Feng.

Chapter 185: Toasting Him?

"Oh, high school."

Qin Feng shrugged.

Actually, he didn't even want to go to high school.

But later, Beidou Old Divine Doctor from that time let him leave the Dragon and Tiger Village, in order to disguise his identity should an incident occur, and indeed, an incident happened in the Dragon and Tiger Village three years ago.

"Wow, being able to attend high school isn't bad at all," Li Limei said, "I heard that many kids from the countryside can't even complete middle school, so finishing high school is already quite an achievement."

Her mouth said "it's quite an achievement."

But anyone could hear the pride in her heart.

"No wonder he can only be a waiter, even if my sister wants to help you, without an education you're nothing," Li Yanyan said from the side.

Qin Feng ignored her, his eyes only on Xu Yunxiao, for whom he picked up a piece of meat.

"And this is..."

Bo Haisheng, holding a drink, looked at Xu Yunxiao, and the more he looked, the more familiar she seemed, until finally, he widened his eyes in astonishment and said, "You, are you President Xu of Shuimu Company?!!"

Xu Yunxiao was indeed famous for her beauty.

And with the recent rapid development of Shuimu Company, her reputation had greatly increased.

Of course.

Not everyone had seen her; most had only seen her photos online.

Although Li Yanyan had been dating him for a while, looking down on Xu Yunxiao's family, she had never told him about this relative.

"So it really is President Xu, what an honor, what an honor!"

Bo Haisheng quickly stood up respectfully wanting to shake hands, realized the setting was not suitable, and hurriedly sat down again, but his eyes already showed his admiration for her.

Li Yanyan saw this and felt uncomfortable; she nudged him and said, "Is there a need to make such a big fuss about it?"

"Yanyan, you don't understand, President Xu is a very capable person; in our business generation, she can be called an inspirational 'idol'!" Bo Haisheng said admiringly.

"Idol?!"

Li Yanyan scoffed and said, "You don't know, right? My cousin only holds the position of General Manager but only earns a fixed salary, can't even match a fraction of your income in a year."

"Really?! Doesn't the Xu family run by what President Xu says?"

"How could that be!"

"..."

Qin Feng couldn't stand listening any longer and said: "You might not know, but now in the Xu family, indeed, it's my wife who calls the shots, she holds fifty-one percent of the Xu family's shares!"

"What?!"

Li Yanyan was astounded, looking towards Xu Yunxiao.

Li Limei and others also looked towards her, utterly astonished. The genuine article resides on M|V|L&EMPYR.

Fifty-one percent shares, that was absolutely a large stake, enough to say she was the head of the family!

"Moreover, I heard that the Xu family is now considered the second-tier family in Lake City," Bo Haisheng continued.

Everyone was even more shocked!

A head of the second-tier family, that couldn't be just considered excellent, it was extremely outstanding!

In the entire Lake City among second-tier families, there was not yet a younger generation taking charge as head of the family!

"Yun, Yunxiao, is it really true?"

Li Cuilan also asked in shock.

She knew about the past events, grandma had made concessions allowing her to continue managing the company and even gave her shares, but she didn't know about the fifty-one percent of shares, it was almost like a dream.

"Yunxiao, is what he said really true?"

Li Limei's family of three were also eagerly asking with wide-open eyes.

In the end,

under the eager eyes of everyone, Xu Yunxiao had no choice but to nod.

"Fantastic!!"

Li Cuilan hugged her excitedly and kissed her, "My daughter is really amazing, to actually become the head of the Xu family, she's truly accomplished!!"

Li Limei, Li Datong, and Li Yanyan also raised their glasses to toast Xu Yunxiao: "Yunxiao, such a big deal, why didn't you say anything? Look, your aunt didn't even have time to prepare a red envelope for you, here, your aunt toasts you."

"Cousin, I toast you too, if there was anything wrong before, please don't take it to heart, we are all family after all."

Li Yanyan also flattered.

If Xu Yunxiao was just slightly better than her, she would only be jealous, but being too much better, it was no longer jealousy but worship!

At this moment.

Li Cuilan, who was just depressed, now became lively again, chatting and boasting with Li Limei and others about how amazing her daughter was.

They listened with relish, as if hearing a legendary story.

Xu Yunxiao, however, glared at Qin Feng in displeasure.

Qin Feng knew she was modest, but sometimes if a tiger doesn't show its power, it is mistaken for a sick cat.

"Honey, come, have some braised pork." Qin Feng said with a smile as he offered her meat.

"Yo, yo!"

Li Yanyan saw this scene, curled her lips and said, "I finally figured out one thing, the reason he has been staying at our aunt's house is because my cousin has now become a Big Shot."

Everyone immediately focused their eyes on Qin Feng, their looks full of disdain.

Li Limei even scoffed, "This man, especially men, has no dignity at all, what's the point?"

"Exactly, for money he shamelessly lives under someone else's roof, if I were him, I'd have long smashed my head into tofu and died." Li Yanyan said.

Xu Yunxiao frowned upon hearing this and said, "Auntie, stop talking about it."

"I didn't want to mention it, but it's for your own good." Li Limei said, "With your current status, how can you be with a waiter? If this gets out, won't it be embarrassing?"

"Right!"

Li Yanyan's eyes lit up, suddenly remembering the scene from the morning, smiling and saying, "This morning I saw Mr. Hang Chengzhi from Hengyuan Fourth Construction Group chasing Sister Yunxiao! Mr. Hang has a significant background, although he's only the regional head for Lake City, but his relationship with the chairman is deep, he has great prospects."

"Hengyuan Fourth Construction Group?" Li Cuilan didn't quite understand.

"Anyway, it's a very big company, with a market value over ten billion, ten Xu families can't compare."

"..."

Hearing this, Li Cuilan excitedly grabbed Xu Yunxiao's arm, anxiously asking, "Daughter, is it true? What happened after that?"

"Oh, nothing much, I asked him to leave." Xu Yunxiao said somewhat annoyed, "Can you please stop talking about this? Qin Feng is still here!"

"Who cares about him..."

Li Cuilan curled her lip.

Li Yanyan, turning her gaze to Qin Feng, said: "Qin Feng, aren't you just sticking to my sister for money..."

"I already offered him, but he didn't accept." Li Cuilan said in frustration.

"Aunt, you don't understand."

Li Yanyan said with a smile, "Giving a man a fish is not as good as teaching him to fish, just giving money, what to do when it's gone? He only has a high school education, won't go back to farming, he'll starve sooner or later. Like this, I can ask my boyfriend to find him a job, then he can support himself, my boyfriend is the design director at Rainbow Cosmetics Company, arranging a position is no problem."

"Good idea, haha, then I really owe you one."

Li Cuilan said joyfully.

Li Yanyan then looked at Qin Feng and said, "Here's the deal, you toast my boyfriend, and he'll arrange a job for you at Rainbow Company!"

Chapter 186 - 186 Hello, Mr. Zheng!

Everyone's attention turned to Qin Feng at this point.

Bo Haisheng, with a smug smile, said, "Alright, a toast to you. Later on, I'll arrange a position for you in the company—it's a trivial matter, no problem at all."

"Heh heh."

Qin Feng replied with an indifferent smile, "A toast to you? I'm afraid even your boss would have to toast me if he were here."

"You..."

Bo Haisheng's eyebrows furrowed.

Li Yanyan also spoke up discontentedly, "You really don't know what's good for you. Do you know how powerful Rainbow Company is? It's a major company with a market value of two billion! And it's backed by a big supporter. Who do you think you are?"

"That's right!"

Li Limei also showed her displeasure, saying, "We kindly offer you this kid a job, and you act so haughty. You deserve to be a waiter for life!"

At this point, Xu Yunxiao couldn't listen anymore. She slammed the table and shouted, "Enough!"

The continuous insults toward Qin Feng erupted in her like a volcano, and she cried out, "Can you please stop already!"

Seeing her appear genuinely angry, everyone fell silent.

Li Limei muttered, "We're doing this for your own good..."

Xu Yunxiao felt extremely frustrated and turned her head towards Qin Feng, "Can't you stand up for yourself? Don't let people look down on you all the time. I really want to defend you, but how can I when you're like this? Even if you're not ambitious, that's fine, but can you please stop boasting? That just makes people disrespect you even more!"

Every time Qin Feng was mocked, her heart ached.

But above all, she was frustrated by his lack of improvement.

Once Xu Yunxiao finished speaking, her eyes were red and swollen.

Li Cuilan, Li Limei, and others saw this and took great pleasure in it, clearly disappointed in Qin Feng.

Qin Feng became serious and said, "Wife, I wasn't boasting."

"Not boasting?"

Li Yanyan and Bo Haisheng sneered, "Do you really think Mr. Zheng, the owner of Rainbow Company worth two billion, would toast to a loser like you? Or do you think you won't ever meet Mr. Zheng, so you intentionally boast, after all, with Mr. Zheng not here you can say anything you like. No wonder Yunxiao is angry, you really are despicable!"

Right at this moment,

a waiter suddenly approached and said, "Excuse me, everyone. Mr. Zheng from Rainbow Company was just passing by outside and heard there were acquaintances here. He wishes to come in to greet everyone, may I ask if that would be convenient?"

"Mr. Zheng?!"

Upon hearing this, everyone was surprised and turned their gaze towards Bo Haisheng.

He was the only one who knew Mr. Zheng.

Bo Haisheng was slightly stunned at first, and then became excited, quickly saying, "Of course, of course, no problem."

After the waiter left,

Li Limei couldn't help but praise him, "Hai Sheng, you really are impressive. Mr. Zheng must have heard your voice just now, so he came especially to see you."

Then she turned to Li Cuilan and others, urging, "Hurry, hurry, everyone straighten up your clothes. Mr. Zheng is worth two billion!"

"Exactly!"

The group excitedly stood up to adjust their clothes and hair.

Even Xu Yunxiao adjusted her unhappy expression at this moment.

Only Qin Feng remained seated, simply eating and drinking.

Seeing this, Li Limei called out urgently, "Hey Qin Feng, are you deaf? Didn't you hear Mr. Zheng is coming? Hurry up, don't embarrass Hai Sheng!" This chapter first appeared on *.

Qin Feng acted as if he hadn't heard.

Li Limei was frustrated and said to Li Cuilan, "Look at this son-in-law of yours, is he worth keeping?"

Li Cuilan displeasingly tapped Qin Feng, "Get up quickly!"

At this time, Xu Yunxiao also shook her head in disappointment at Qin Feng's casual demeanor.

While they were talking,

Zheng Weiwei, dressed in a stunning red dress, walked into the private room on her high heels.

She was in the cosmetics business, her skin radiant.

Her hair was elegantly pinned up, revealing a fair and delicate neck.

Her tall figure, combined with the red dress and high-heeled sandals, showcased an exceptional temperament.

Zheng Weiwei had just walked in when Bo Haisheng immediately bowed respectfully and greeted her, "Mr. Zheng, hello!"

Upon seeing him, Zheng Weiwei was slightly startled and said, "Bo, you're here too!"

Huh?

Bo Haisheng was confused.

From her words, it seemed she hadn't come because she heard his voice?

Li Limei and the others were also very perplexed.

They didn't know that Zheng Weiwei had come because she heard Xu Yunxiao's voice.

Although she had only met Xu Yunxiao once at the Qixi Valentine's dinner, she was the Master's woman; how could she not pay extra attention?

She had faintly heard Xu Yunxiao's shouting and was worried that she might be in trouble, so she came to check.

She hadn't expected it to be a family gathering, with Bo Haisheng from their company also present.

"Mr. Zheng, please have a seat, please have a seat..."

At this moment, Bo Haisheng immediately pulled out a chair and respectfully invited Zheng Weiwei to sit down.

Zheng Weiwei shook her head and said, "No need, just saw an acquaintance, so I came over to say hello."

"An acquaintance?"

Bo Haisheng and the others were taken aback once again.

Besides him, who else here was her acquaintance?

At this moment, Zheng Weiwei's gaze rested on Qin Feng.

Seeing Qin Feng still seated, Bo Haisheng anxiously called him to get up while hurriedly apologizing to Zheng Weiwei, "Mr. Zheng, I'm really sorry, he's from the countryside, he doesn't know any better..."

The others, seeing Qin Yi's demeanor, felt extreme hatred in their hearts.

This was clearly disrespectful to Bo Haisheng!

Zheng Weiwei then heard Bo Haisheng's words, furrowed her brows, and said, "Apologize to Mr. Qin!"

"What?!"

Bo Haisheng was bewildered.

Apologize to Qin Feng? What did she mean?

The others also looked at each other, not understanding what Zheng Weiwei meant.

At this time, Qin Feng casually waved his hand and said uninterestedly, "Forget it, it's nothing."

Indeed.

For someone like Bo Haisheng, akin to an ant, even if he were to kneel, Qin Feng would find it utterly boring.

He looked up again at Zheng Weiwei and said, "I just wanted to prove, he said you wouldn't toast to me, to see if what he said was correct."

"Are you insane?!"

Xu Yunxiao and the others felt a chill at that moment.

He usually shows off and that's fine, but now with Mr. Zheng right here, he still dares to show off, is he seeking death?

They were just about to scold him when suddenly,

Zheng Weiwei immediately went to the table, poured herself a full glass of 68-degree Wuliangye, held the glass with both hands, and respectfully said to Qin Feng, "Mr. Qin, I toast to you!"

"Just sip it," Qin Feng reminded her, "You understand, I mean no disrespect, I just wanted to prove a point in front of certain people."

He did not mean to show off using Zheng Weiwei.

He just wanted to prove to Xu Yunxiao that he was not bragging earlier; otherwise, for just the ants like Bo Haisheng's sneers and mockeries, he wouldn't bother to engage them, let alone have Zheng Weiwei drink.

"I understand."

Zheng Weiwei nodded, but she then tilted back her head and "gulped down" the entire drink!!

"..."

The crowd was stunned.

This was 68-degree baijiu!

She didn't even frown, drinking the full glass in one go...

Chapter 187 - 187 Zheng Weiwei: A Temptation to Err!

The most shocked was Bo Haisheng.

She knew that Mr. Zheng never drinks baijiu.

Once, she had the fortune to accompany the company's executives to discuss business.

At the dinner, the other party was a super big client who could bring tens of millions in profit to the company per year. That big client wanted Mr. Zheng to take a sip of baijiu and then sign the order on the spot, but Mr. Zheng was resolute, no matter how tempting the offer, she wouldn't drink a drop of baijiu as it was her principle.

Unexpectedly, she now toasted Qin Feng with a big glass!

The others were thoroughly dumbfounded at this point.

Just now they were mocking Qin Feng for not knowing what was good for him, just full of hot air, but now Mr. Zheng, worth two billion, actually toasted him!

Seeing this, Qin Feng knew she was showing him respect, which is why she drank it all in one go, so he also stood up, picked up his glass to return the toast: "Okay, I'll drink too."

Following that.

He also tilted his head back and drank it all.

Zheng Weiwei, seeing this, felt an inexplicable sense of...

As a Master, he also drank it all in one go, obviously out of respect for her; the drink just now was too worthwhile!

"Alright, you can go busy yourself now."

Qin Feng said.

Zheng Weiwei responded and then left the place.

The room quieted down.

Everyone stared blankly at Qin Feng, not knowing what to say.

Mr. Zheng, worth so much, actually really toasted him and even drank it all in one go; it was truly unbelievable. This version is sourced from MV3L3MPYR.

"I told you, I wasn't bragging."

Qin Feng said to Xu Yunxiao.

He didn't care about what the others thought, he only cared about her.

Xu Yunxiao at this point was also full of surprise.

Li Yanyan then sneered, saying, "Hmph! You think it's because of your own face? It must be because of my cousin, that's why Mr. Zheng toasted!"

"Exactly!"

Bo Haisheng and the others also came to their senses, "You actually took advantage of Yunxiao's face to show off to everyone, how shameless!"

There was no helping it.

Since Zheng Weiwei wasn't there for Bo Haisheng, it could only be because of Xu Yunxiao, as her status was the highest, with the greatest potential for the future.

The group blamed Qin Yi for this "fox pretending to be a tiger" act.

But Xu Yunxiao at this point was extremely puzzled in her heart.

She was clear that her own face wasn't enough to make Zheng Weiwei toast Qin Feng.

And besides, even though on the night of "Qixi Love," she had sent him a birthday gift, their relationship wasn't that close...

Xu Yunxiao looked towards Qin Feng, her eyes full of doubts.

At this moment.

After Li Yanyan and others scolded Qin Yi, seeing that Qin Feng didn't even fart, acting as if he hadn't heard anything, they became even more annoyed and simply decided to ignore him.

"Right, Yunxiao."

At this time, her second aunt Li Limei spoke up, "I remember there's someone in your family who produces clothing, right? Introduce me sometimes, so I can get goods for cheaper, okay? You're all heads of the household now, your word must count for something."

"But they are all small companies."

Xu Yunxiao felt somewhat troubled.

The Xu family had many industries, but aside from Shuimu Company, the rest were small companies. She was aware that her second aunt was after cheaper deals, and if the prices were pushed too low, the small companies would have no significant profit.

Moreover, in the Xu family, it had always been grandma who had the final say. She was far from being head of the household, and aside from her own company, had no say.

Li Yanyan also spoke up at this time, "Cousin, I heard from our big aunt that there will be a Mid-Autumn Festival dinner at the Xu family in two days on August 15th? All the elites of the Xu family will be there, right? Can we go?"

"This..."

Xu Yunxiao felt even more troubled.

The family's Mid-Autumn dinner was just for those of the Xu family's own bloodline. What would it mean for them to attend?

Li Limei also chimed in at this point: "Right, right, what if I go too? The Xu family used to look down on us, but now Yunxiao is successful and has become the head of the household. Us going will bolster our presence!"

"I'm afraid that's not a good idea,"

Xu Yunxiao said.

Seeing her response, Li Limei said, "Can't you even take care of this little matter?"

Xu Yunxiao wanted to explain.

But seeing Li Cuilan getting up, apparently not wanting to be looked down upon again, she waved her hand decisively and said: "Of course it can be done, why not? Daughter, you are now the head of the household. The Xu family should listen to you. What's wrong with bringing a few people, especially since they're our own?"

"Mom..."

Li Cuilan didn't let her protest and continued: "Our family has been oppressed by grandma for so many years. Now that we have finally turned over a new leaf, we no longer need to be afraid of them. Listen to mom, later we'll have your second aunt's family go too; I'm sure they won't dare say anything!"

"..."

Xu Yunxiao, feeling gloomy, rubbed her temples, suffering from a terrible headache.

"That's settled then!"

Li Limei's family was now also excitedly saying.

Dinner was over.

Everyone went their separate ways.

Originally, a hotel was booked for their family of three, but the younger sister insisted on sharing a room with Xu Yunxiao, wanting to build sisterly bonds.

There was no helping it.

Qin Feng had to continue staying at Wanfu Building, his dream of sharing a bed with his wife postponed for another day.

He was heading back to his suite.

Passing by a room in the hallway, two servants came out, carrying clothes that looked familiar, like Zheng Weiwei's red dress from earlier. Qin Feng asked suspiciously, "What happened?"

"Oh, a guest drank too much and has been arranged to rest in a guest room. She was sick all over herself, so we're taking the clothes to be washed," explained the servant.

Hesitating for a moment,

Qin Feng went into the room.

As expected,

the person lying on the bed was Zheng Weiwei.

She had changed into a robe, lying on the bed with a flushed face, her eyes closed, seemingly in great discomfort.

"Excuse me."

Qin Feng sat beside the bed and sighed.

He knew that Zheng Weiwei's condition was due to her drinking a full cup of 68-proof Wuliangye in one go; not just for a woman, even the average man would vomit if he drank like that.

"I'll give you a massage, which will help break down the alcohol in your body, allowing you to have a good night's sleep,"

Qin Feng said again.

Seeing that Zheng Weiwei wasn't fully conscious, he positioned her body properly on the bed and started to lightly rub her temples.

As he rubbed,

Qin Feng started to feel frustrated.

Because Zheng Weiwei was wearing only a thin silk nightgown, leaving her sexy and charming figure hardly concealed. With her breathing, the area around her chest rose and fell, further exciting Qin Feng, especially since he could clearly see that there was no underwear beneath the thin silk nightgown!

The nightgown was also very short.

Her fair, jade-like legs were exposed, stirring up fanciful thoughts.

All this could have been manageable, just close his eyes and endure.

However, as Zheng Weiwei was drunk, she occasionally murmured in her sleep, eliciting even more sensuous feelings from Qin Feng, making his blood surge. And he could also smell her enticing scent.

Therefore,

Qin Feng hastened his massage, hoping to finish quickly and end this ordeal.

He began with the temples, the Fengchi Acupoint, and then changed positions to gently press the Zhongshu acupoint.

The Zhongshu acupoint is effective in treating her nausea, located just below her navel.

Through the thin silk nightgown,

Qin Feng could clearly feel her smooth and delicate belly, flat and without a single trace of excess fat. He felt extremely vexed inside. Such a delicate touch was enough to lead someone into temptation...

Chapter 188: The Parrot Carrier Pigeon!

With his gentle palms.

Zheng Weiwei also seemed to feel wave after wave of comfort, her drunken body uncontrollably began to twist slightly, and she made murmuring sounds.

This twist.

Directly made her already short silk skirt hitch up a bit, giving a glimpse of what was underneath...

"Torture..."

Qin Feng felt extreme agony inside.

Finally.

After massaging the Zhongshu acupoint, only the Zu Sanli was left, just this point to massage, and then he could leave this "Devil" place.

Zu Sanli is located on the outside of the lower leg.

Qin Feng lightly pressed on it.

But who would've thought.

From this angle, what was beneath her silk nightgown was completely exposed.

"Heart like ice, unmoved even if the sky falls, heart like ice, unmoved even if the sky falls..."

He hurriedly bowed his head, closed his eyes, and dared not look.

Afraid that a single glance would make him unable to restrain himself.

Holding her smooth, jade-like leg, he lightly pressed for a moment.

Finally.

The massage treatment was over.

Qin Feng finally heaved a sigh of relief.

Just as he was about to put down her leg, he raised his head and suddenly noticed she had woken up at some point, propping herself with her arms on the bed, half-rising and looking at him blankly.

Her watery eyes were full of tension and astonishment.

Her cheeks were flushed, perhaps from the wine or perhaps from shyness, so red they almost seemed to drip, just watching Qin Feng, unable to utter a word.

When Qin Feng met her gaze.

The panic in her beautiful eyes intensified, then she lay down directly, closing her eyes tight, her breathing became rapid, and her perfect, delicate body trembled slightly.

Like a bride on her wedding night, nervous to death but at your mercy. *isthehomeofthischapter

"..."

Seeing this, Qin Feng hurriedly stood up to explain, "Don't misunderstand, I was only..."

Before he could finish, he heard Zheng Weiwei with her eyes closed, still in a state where her clothes could be manipulated, say nervously, "It—it's okay..."

"I saw you were drunk, so I massaged you to help recover, you should rest well!"

Qin Feng hastily said.

After speaking, he quickly left the place.

His heart was crying!

He was also a healthy young man, with her behaving like that, wasn't she just indulging him in making a mistake...

Back in his own room.

Qin Feng quickly took a cold shower, which calmed the surging heat in his body quite a bit.

Now unable to sleep.

He simply took out the spiritual treasures he bought in the Southwest to take a look.

Besides those for gifting, he still had quite a lot left, such as some spirit talismans, etc.

Of course.

What he valued the most was the medicinal materials for alchemy, as well as the Moon Concealing Stone obtained from the Mu Family and the Dragon Crystal Stone acquired from the White Ghost, Poisonous Insect King.

Taking out the Moon Concealing Stone to look.

The medicinal aura contained within was indeed very strong.

"It must have cultivated soil that is suitable for the growth of rare medicinal materials, because previously seeing the Spirit Treasures refined by the Medicine King, the aura on them was too similar to that of the Moon Concealing Stone, it's a pity that old woman, the Medicine King, has an unpredictable path, otherwise I'd find her and ask..."

Qin Feng sighed.

At this moment.

Suddenly he heard someone shouting: "I know! I know!"

"Who's there!"

Qin Feng subconsciously looked around.

It turned out to be the parrot in the birdcage hanging by the window talking.

"Amazing! I haven't even started to teach, and it can already talk..." Qin Feng walked up to the cage in surprise.

This parrot was obtained at the Dragon Mountain Ancient Dragon Auction.

It was a Spirit Bird.

The starting bid was a hundred million.

But Qin Feng got it after a couple of folds.

"I am a Spirit Bird, I am a Spirit Bird!" The parrot called out at this moment as if responding to Qin Feng's astonishment, followed by another cry, "I know where the Medicine King is, I know where the Medicine King is!"

"Even that you know?" Qin Feng was very surprised.

"Give me food, give me food." The parrot flapped its wings and said.

Upon hearing this, Qin Feng suddenly realized.

This fellow wants to exchange news for food.

He prepared some rice and nuts for it and asked, "Tell me, where is the Medicine King?"

But after only two bites, the parrot spat them out with a "ptooey ptooey" and cried, "Too disgusting, too disgusting!"

"..."

Qin Feng was speechless.

This guy is picky with food?

He prepared some more food for it but it still found it disgusting, even overturning the small dish it was being fed from with its claws.

Qin Feng got angry and said, "You won't eat, huh? Fine then, I'll eat you! The meat of you Spirit Birds is said to have many benefits for one's cultivation!"

Saying that.

He grabbed the parrot and took out a lighter ready to roast it.

The parrot got scared and hastily begged for mercy.

"Hmph, I've put up with you for a long time, you'd better behave, or it's roast meat for me," Qin Feng said coldly, "And from now on, when you talk, try not to repeat everything twice, say it once!"

"Oh..."

The parrot shielded its head with its wings, looking pitiful with tears streaming down its face.

"Spit it out! Where exactly is the Medicine King?" Qin Feng asked.

"Under the big tree."

"Be more specific!"

"Big tree."

"Are you doing this on purpose?"

"She really is under the big tree."

"..."

Qin Feng felt helpless.

It seemed he had overestimated this parrot. It could speak some simple words, but conveying complex ideas was not easy for it, and it wasn't very familiar with place names—it might know the location, but could not express it verbally.

"Right!"

Qin Feng's eyes lit up, he said to the parrot, "You can be a messenger pigeon!"

Saying that.

He immediately wrote a note asking the Medicine King how to use the Moon Concealing Stone, tied it to the parrot's leg and said, "This task is yours, got it?"

"I am a Spirit Bird!"

The parrot cocked its head and hugged its wings, as if being a messenger pigeon was an insult to it.

But then.

Its eyes suddenly gleamed, it quickly nodded to Qin Feng and called out, "I'll go, I'll go!"

"Alright, don't think I don't know what you're thinking."

Qin Feng said, taking out the Gu Worm he had obtained from the Ghost Lady from the ten-thousand-year-old cliff cypress on the windowsill, and placing it on the parrot, "I paid twenty million for you, so if you think of escaping, don't blame me for being ruthless. This Gu Worm can turn you into a skeleton at any moment."

"..."

The parrot, which had just been excited, suddenly looked tearful again.

"Go and come back quickly!"

Qin Feng tossed it out of the window.

Having settled that.

Qin Feng took out the medicinal materials he bought from the Dragon Mountain Black Market, arranged the Alchemy Furnace of Lord Tianji, and tried to refine elixirs according to the Immortal Elixir Manual.

He ground the medicinal materials into powder and placed them in the Pill Furnace.

Then he lit some charcoal underneath.

However, that alone was not enough.

Alchemy is very complicated, it's not just a matter of having the herbs and the furnace.

You need to operate the Pill Furnace with a special circulation of meridians and stir the aura within it with hand movements.

Just like a martial artist can release different moves based on different breath circulation.

It's the same for an Alchemist.

Fortunately, Qin Feng had spent some time with the Luo Shui Divine Doctor, whose reputation as a "Divine Doctor" mainly came from her success in Alchemy.

Very soon.

Qin Feng circulated his breath, his hands formed the Hand Formation, and finally used a sword finger to control and circulate the aura within the Alchemy Furnace...

Chapter 189: Breaking Martial Pill!

The more powerful the elixir, the longer it takes to refine.

Like the Small Rejuvenation Pill.

Usually, not only must the fire remain unbroken, but it often requires inner strength for two hours a day and persistence for thirty-six days to produce a single furnace.

Fortunately, the elixirs he is experimenting with are common and do not take too long.

At this moment, Qin Feng, who prepared to work through the night, discovers with surprise that this small Pill Furnace contains a strange rune array. It only needs to be activated once with his own inner strength, and it will operate on its own!

"Fantastic!"

After discovering this, Qin Feng immediately stops channeling his energy, and the Pill Furnace continues to operate.

This saves a lot of time and effort.

"No wonder so many people are searching for it, this seemingly inconspicuous small Pill Furnace is a supreme treasure!"

Qin Feng exclaims joyfully.

The only downside is the Pill Furnace is too small, each batch can only produce three elixirs.

So, for the next two days, Qin Feng stays holed up in his office refining.

As evening approaches.

In two days, he has refined all the rare medicinal materials purchased from the Dragon Mountain Black Market into three hundred elixir pills about the size of rice grains called "Breaking Martial Pill"!

This includes five Third-grade, twenty Second-grade, and the rest are First-grade.

The purpose is for breaking through in cultivation.

A First-grade Breaking Martial Pill can allow those without inner strength to obtain it.

Just like Fang Wudi could have used this elixir previously.

A Second-grade Breaking Martial Pill can help a Martial Arts Apprentice break into a martial master.

A Third-grade Breaking Martial Pill can help a martial master break into a military general.

Going further is difficult.

After all, the realm above is that of a Grandmaster. Between a Grandmaster and ordinary martial artists there is an insurmountable chasm that can't be crossed merely by using elixirs.

However, even so, these elixirs are still incredibly valuable.

How many martial arts practitioners are desperate to possess inner strength, to become Martial Arts Apprentices, and how many Apprentices spend decades of harsh summers and cold winters to succeed as Wizards.

Not to mention military generals.

Those who can become military generals are typically the venerated elders of large families, like those highly skilled individuals sponsored by the Southwest Eight Kings.

"Still not enough, need to get some more."

Qin Feng looks at the three hundred elixir pills.

He dials Mu Jiangyue.

The moment Mu Jiangyue answers Qin Feng's call, her heart trembles, and she asks, "Is there something you need?" Enjoy the story by reading on *.

"Oh, it's nothing much, just wanted you to help me gather some more medicinal materials."

Qin Feng goes over the materials needed again.

Of course.

Not just for the production of the Breaking Martial Pill.

He also saw a type of elixir in the Immortal Elixir Manual specially made for feeding spirit birds and spiritual beasts, perfect for preparing some for that parrot, so he adds some extra materials.

"Alright, no problem." Mu Jiangyue says.

"By the way, the method to cultivate rare medicinal materials using Moon Concealing Stone might take some more time to research. I'll contact you when it's ready." Qin Feng says.

"Okay."

Mu Jiangyue nods.

Cultivating rare medicinal materials, she didn't harbor much hope since it seemed unimaginable, but Qin Feng's mention again now suggests there might be a chance.

This also starts to excite her.

Not only could they rise with the help of rare medicinal materials, but she might also see Qin Feng again.

"Qin Feng..."

Mu Jiangyue looks at the moonlight outside, the bright moonlight reflected in the calm lake, and on her pale cheeks, she whispers softly, "Happy Mid-Autumn Festival."

"Mid-Autumn?"

Qin Feng is stunned for a moment, then remembers he has been shut in his room for two full days, and quickly says, "Let's talk later, I need to hurry up with my work."

After hanging up.

His wife Xu Yunxiao calls, saying, "Hey, what are you busy with? Did you forget today is the Mid-Autumn festival celebration?"

"I didn't forget, didn't forget, I'm on my way!"

Qin Feng hurriedly replies.

Shaved and washed up, Qin Feng immediately had Wei Yunxiang arrange a car to go to Xu Mansion.

At the gates of the Xu family.

As soon as he got out of the car, it immediately drew envious and scornful gazes.

There was nothing he could do.

Wei Yunxiang had driven an Aston Martin SUV worth over 8 million, too flashy.

"Ha, a poor country bumpkin, just clinging to our Xu family's coattails."

Someone sneered.

"That's why he's sticking around and not leaving."

Another person added.

Qin Feng couldn't care less about these comments, and immediately headed towards the courtyard.

The Mid-Autumn Festival banquet was held in the courtyard.

There were over twenty tables set up according to each family, and as Qin Feng entered, there seemed to be some commotion upfront, as if there was a dispute happening.

He went over to take a look.

It turned out that the person arranging the tables hadn't anticipated that Li Limei's family of three would come, so there were a few chairs short.

Li Limei was very unhappy about it.

"Is this how you treat guests? Just asking for one more table, does it have to be this troublesome?"

Li Limei yelled at Xu Changjian, who had just come over to find out what was happening.

Xu Changjian was dumbfounded.

What even is this?

"This is the Xu family's Mid-Autumn Festival banquet, who are you?" Xu Changjian asked.

"Us? Ha... Been here for almost half a day and you still don't know who we are?" Li Limei said irritably, "I am Yunxiao, your family head's aunt on your grandmother's side, open your dog eyes and see clearly!"

Dog eyes?

Damn!

Xu Changjian was furious.

This was the first time someone called him dog-eyed!

"What's wrong with you? If you're her aunt, why are you causing a scene here!" Xu Changjian said.

"You dare say I'm sick? Believe it or not, I can make it impossible for you to get by in the Xu family," Li Limei exclaimed.

"..."

Xu Changjian laughed.

The others, upon hearing this, laughed as if they were laughing at a fool.

The entire Xu family knew that Xu Changjian was the most favored successor by Grandma, and here was this outsider making absurd claims.

"Aunt..."

Xu Yunxiao already had a headache, "Stop causing trouble, Aunt, please sit down!"

At this moment.

Grandma came over, asking, "What's happening here, why all the commotion?"

"Oh, nothing, nothing," Xu Yunxiao hurriedly greeted, somewhat embarrassedly, "Just that, my aunt's family is staying at our house these days, and they also came to see you, Grandma."

"That's thoughtful, hehe, then take a seat!"

Grandma said with a smile.

Xu Changjian gave them a stern look, then went to sit next to Grandma.

The banquet soon began.

Everyone began to present gifts to Grandma.

Though not as lavish as those at birthday feasts.

But still jade, coral, and other rare treasures valued from tens of thousands to hundreds of thousands.

When it was Xu Yunxiao's family's turn.

Xu Yunxiao held a delicate box and approached, saying, "Grandma, wishing you peace and prosperity, and good fortune!"

Grandma opened the box, inside was a pair of jade chopsticks, vivid green and exquisitely made.

Grandma was quite pleased.

"I've seen these jade chopsticks before."

Xu Changjian curled his lips, commenting, "They're worth just about a hundred thousand or so!"

Hearing they were worth only a hundred thousand, Grandma's previously happy face turned cold, and she threw the jade chopsticks onto the table with a look of disdain.

Xu Changjian then reproached, "Yunxiao, how can you give Grandma such a cheap gift?"

Chapter 190: Awesome Second Aunt!

"I..."

Xu Yunxiao's gift-giving is about the thought, and she didn't think the pair of jade chopsticks was bad.

Mother-in-law Li Cuilan, seeing this, said with a smile, "That's how it is. As you all know, Yunxiao has made a large investment in her company recently, so the financial situation isn't very rich."

"Not rich?"

Xu Changjian leaned back in his chair and sneered, "Not rich, yet I saw Qin Feng arriving in an Aston Martin worth more than 8 million just now. Didn't take the money to secretly buy a luxury car, did you?"

"How could that be!"

Xu Yunxiao looked incredulously at Qin Feng.

Even Li Cuilan added, "Changjian, could it be that your eyes deceived you? How could he possibly afford such an expensive car!"

"Alright! Even if I was seeing things, I heard the other day that you went to dine at Wanfu Building, and it was in a luxury private room, the meal cost 688,000!" Xu Changjian said, swinging his legs.

Upon his words.

Everyone drew a sharp breath.

688,000?

For a meal?

This was not just luxury, this was extreme extravagance!

If it were for a big project, it would be one thing, but for a family gathering, even the Zhou Family, Liu Family, or Li Family in Lake City wouldn't be that extravagant!

"To spend hundreds of thousands on a meal, yet only give grandma such a cheap gift, that really says something about you."

Xu Changjian spoke.

Grandma's face was turning more and more ashen.

The others murmured amongst themselves, "This Xu Yunxiao, is more and more disrespectful to grandma."

"Exactly, acting as if she's so great."

"I really can't stand people like that."

"..."

Listening to their comments, and seeing that grandma was also very unhappy, Xu Yunxiao wanted to explain.

At that moment.

Second Aunt Li Limei suddenly stood up and shouted at everyone, "Enough!!"

"..."

Everyone turned to look at her, not understanding why she was yelling.

Li Limei, with one hand on her hip and the other pointing at them, shouted, "Are you all rebelling? Is there any way to talk about Yunxiao like this? Each one of you is ungrateful and disrespectful!!"

"You..."

Xu Changjian stood up upon hearing this.

But before he could say anything, Li Limei yelled, "What 'you'? I think the most disgusting person here is you! You, a grown man, always picking fights, are you being feminine? I've never seen a man like you, disgusting!!"

"..."

People were at a loss.

She even dared to scold Xu Changjian!

At this moment, grandma regained her composure and slammed the table, shouting, "Impertinence!!"

"Impertinence?"

Li Limei was not at all afraid of her and, with hands on hips, retorted, "My daughter Yunxiao gave you a gift, and you are complaining? What, if the gift is cheap, it isn't a gift anymore? You judge gifts only by their price, not by the quality? Then we might as well just give you money instead of gifts! What a mercenary!"

"You, you..."

Grandma was so furious she was almost breathless.

The guests at the other dozen or so tables were completely dumbfounded.

To talk to grandma like this.

She was the first one!

Even Qin Feng, who was on the side, was baffled, but couldn't help but mentally give Li Limei a thumbs up...

After a while, grandma finally got her breath back and yelled, "You, you... who let you into our Xu family? Get out, get out of here!"

"Yes! Get out, we in the Xu family don't welcome you!!"

Xu Changjian also joined in the cursing.

Li Limei then crossed her arms and snorted disdainfully, "Think you can kick me out? Who do you think you are? Hmph!"

"..."

Grandma was so furious she didn't have the strength to argue back, glaring angrily at Xu Yunxiao.

Xu Yunxiao hastily tugged at Li Limei, trying to get her to apologize to grandma.

"Apologize to her?"

Li Limei scoffed, "Yunxiao, I'm doing this for you. I know you're filial, but today, as your aunt, we're afraid of no one. It's just an old hag, what can she do to us!"

Old hag?!

Whoosh!!

Grandma's heart nearly stopped, her body trembling with rage.

Xu Yunxiao became anxious, shouting loudly, "Sit down now!"

At this moment, Li Yanyan also chimed in with a smirk, "I think my mom is right. We should respect the elderly, but if they don't respect themselves and always try to press others with seniority, they're just rejecting face when offered. They should see what era it is now."

Qin Feng, who was beside them, couldn't help but give Li Yanyan a thumbs-up.

She's even more fierce than I am!

"Get out, get out now!!"

Grandma was so angry she could hardly breathe.

Xu Changjian, along with other members of the Xu family, hurried back and immediately surrounded Li Limei's group, trying to drive them out.

"Don't move!!"

Li Limei was fearless, pointing straight at Xu Changjian in front, "I'm warning you, try touching me and see? I'll make sure you can't mix in the Xu family at all!"

"What the hell are you?"

Xu Changjian frowned and asked.

Seeing her arrogance, he couldn't help but hesitate.

Li Limei stood with her hands on her hips, full of arrogance, "Asking about my background? Didn't I tell you before? I'm Yunxiao's aunt. You should change your ears, how many times must I say it for you to remember? Yunxiao is the head of the Xu family, and you still dare to cross me?"

"What?!"

Upon hearing this, Xu Changjian immediately burst into laughter, "No wonder you're making a scene here, you're relying on Xu Yunxiao! Hahaha, this is killing me..." Lovethisstory?Showyoursupporton*.

Others also couldn't help but burst into laughter.

They looked at Xu Yunxiao with eyes full of mockery and disdain.

Li Limei, seeing this, scolded, "What's so funny! Yunxiao holds 51% of the shares in the Xu family, so naturally, what she says goes!"

"Hahaha... You probably don't know, do you? Our Xu family has always respected tradition. No matter who holds more shares, the family head has always been grandma." Someone in the crowd laughed loudly, "Yunxiao, are you 'plotting to usurp the position'?"

"I, I didn't..."

"Didn't? Look at the relatives you invited, and you still say you didn't?" Xu Changjian sneered, "Have your wings grown strong, and now you don't even know your own last name?"

Li Limei, seeing everyone laughing at her and Xu Yunxiao, turned to Mother-in-law Li Cuilan, "What's going on? Isn't the Xu family supposed to be under Yunxiao's control?"

Mother-in-law Li Cuilan, seeing the scene, was also very upset, standing up to shout at Xu Changjian, "Changjian, why are you talking about Yunxiao like that? Yunxiao is now the pillar of the Xu family, right? With all the contributions she's brought and holding the largest share, how can you talk about her like that!"

After speaking.

She felt a surge of exhilarating catharsis!

The resentment that had been suppressed in her chest for years finally burst out.

They, from her line, had always been too low in the Xu family's hierarchy, even her as the third sister-in-law, always looked down upon by the younger generation like Xu Changjian, always submissive to them.

Now, to be able to shout at Xu Changjian like this was truly invigorating!

"Pillar of the family? Major shareholder?"

Xu Changjian chuckled coldly again.

"What, is it not true?"

Mother-in-law Li Cuilan said.

Xu Changjian couldn't help but burst out laughing, saying, "Did Yunxiao not tell you that she's already handed over her shares to grandma?"

"What?!"

Mother-in-law Li Cuilan's eyes widened in shock.

Li Limei, who was arguing with the others, also couldn't help but stop.

Including Qin Feng.

Qin Feng, who had been watching Li Limei scolding them, also frowned.
