Chapter 1101: Special Bloodline (1)

Little Phoenix raised its head up right and gave a light cough, attempting to be arrogant.

Huang Yueli saw through his plan immediately and she evilly smiled, "I say.... Wang Cai, you shouldn't have forgotten that we're still in the wilderness and your Sister here hasn't taken any grease for the past few days..."

Little Phoenix shivered and was scared till it immediately stood upright.

"You... why are you scaring an adorable and innocent boy like me! Sp... Speak I'll speak alright."

Deep down his heart, he silently cursed this female demon for her ruthless ways but did not dare to voice out his thinking.

"Actually, when I came out of the Sky Phoenix Ring yesterday, I realised that something was wrong. Haven't you noticed that the air around this array feels very familiar?"

Huang Yueli blinked, "Really? Do you need to make it so profound?"

Little Phoenix angrily retorted, "It's true! Not that I'm deliberately mystifying anything! This array is apparently left behind from the ancient times and the person who set up this array is a peerless expert so he left behind his presence in this array, which is why even after tens of thousands of years, this array hasn't completely dispersed yet!"

Huang Yueli said, "Really? Then why can't I feel anything?"

"Because you're a human and I'm a phoenix. We phoenixes' senses are much more sensitive than humans!"

"Alright, this I've gotta admit," Huang Yueli nodded and questioned again, "Then.... this expert's presence which was left behind, why did it made you feel familiar?"

Little Phoenix continued, "If your five senses are as sensitive as mine, then you'd definitely have the same feeling because this kind of presence, I have sensed it at two other places before!"

The more Huang Yueli heard, the more muddled she became, "Which two other places? Have I been there before too?"

Little Phoenix threw a "you're an idiot" glance as it stared at her, "Of course! These two places, one is the Valiant Martial Manor in South Yue Kingdom and the other is in Celestial Light Academy's Scripture Depository! When you first took out the Blood Feather Silk Cage which your father left behind and when you opened that secret compartment in the Scripture Depository, I sensed a similar presence. Only the other two place's presence weren't as strong as this place!"

A lightbulb lit up in Huang Yueli's mind as though she suddenly understood something but wasn't that clear.

“Then... this means....”

“This means, the peerless expert who set up this array should have a blood relation with you and moreover your father made you look for this, maybe.... It is related to this array.” Little Phoenix explained.

Huang Yueli thought carefully about what Little Phoenix said.

If Wang Cai’s senses hadn’t gone wrong, that would be enough to conclude that this array was related to the item which Bai Liu Feng left for her...

But, wasn’t this just a little too coincidental?

Did she had such dog sh*t luck? At Celestial Light Academy, her clue was cut off and even the item in the secret compartment which Bai Liu Feng left behind was gone. So in the normal course of events, the possibility of her being able to continue investigating was very minute.

But now she was so lucky to reconnect with the broken clue while she was escaping for her life?

A bad feeling arose faintly in Huang Yueli’s heart but she wasn’t able to understand what was wrong.

Little Phoenix looked at her dazed look and couldn’t help but tugged at her dress hem.

“Hey, Female Devil, why are you in a daze? Do you or do you not believe in what I said?”

Chapter 1102: Special Bloodline (2)

Its sparkly eyes were affixed on her when Huang Yueli suddenly stretched out her claw and both her hands pinched Wang Cai’s chubby face, as she kept rubbing and stretching it.

“Female Devil—! You.... what are you planning to do! Let this Little Master go!”

Little Phoenix suffered a ravage and it couldn’t help but started screeching loudly.

Huang Yueli smiled, “I suddenly realised that a brat like you is quite smart and adorable! I’d not expected you to think of such things and actually did me a big favour!”

Little Phoenix kneaded his face which had turned red from the pinching and its ears secretly flushed a pink shade.

“That.... that is definite, I.... I am originally smart and adorable...”

Huang Yueli beamed and continued, “Now all’s good, looks like we will be able to leave!”

Little Phoenix was stunned, “Huh? It wouldn’t be that fast? Although we’ve finally found some clues, but to leave would probably be difficult and the complexity of this array had gone beyond my imagination. From the recollection in my memories, even if it was in the God Realm, this kind of array is very high levelled!”

Huang Yueli, however, seemed to have a plan up her sleeve as she smiled, “Things aren’t as complicated as you think. In actual fact, haven’t you told me earlier the way to break the array?”

“Did I?” Little Phoenix was at a loss.

Huang Yueli nodded, “You did! Twice previously, when I opened the Blood Feather Silk Cage and the secret compartment, I used my blood so it showed that the clues which my father left for me, under normal circumstances, needed to use close relative’s blood before it can be activated.... Since this array is part of the clue which my father left for me, then naturally it would also need....”

“Blood!”

As Huang Yueli spat out the last word, simultaneously she flipped her right hand and retrieved a dagger from her realm ring, as she cut her left index finger without the least hesitation.

Fresh blood immediately poured out.

She shook her finger and let the blood drip onto the ground.

Huang Yueli and Little Phoenix held their breaths as she stared at the ground without blinking.

The moment her blood touched the ground, the entire huge stone array vibrated and the surrounding huge stones started to shake, as though it would collapse at any moment.

Little Phoenix shrieked and moved sideways to hide.

However, the rocks didn’t drop down but suddenly flashed brightly at its original position on the greyed floor tiles. A palm sized stream red thread seemed to be leading the direction forward.

“Wa.... It’s true! This also can!” Little Phoenix cried out in alarm.

However, before one woman and one bird could get excited, the red thread extended to around one meter and suddenly stopped extending.

“This.... what’s going on?” Little Phoenix asked curiously.

Huang Yueli muttered to herself irresolutely, “Should be... because there’s not enough blood?”

“Ah??”

Under Little Phoenix’s confused expression, Huang Yueli picked up the dagger once again and this time round, she slit a cut on her wrist, a rather large one, around half an inch long.

This time, blood continued to gush out from the wound on her wrist and flowed onto the ground.

The red thread extended forward with lightning fast speed as it led out a clear path.

“That’s great, we finally found the way out, Wang Cai quickly catch up!”

Huang Yueli run forward along but its short legs weren’t able to catch up at all as it procrastinated and ran a little. On discovering that he had been shook off a rather huge distance, it cursed lowly and turned back into a Little Phoenix as it spread its wings and tried its best to follow up.

Chapter 1103: Special Bloodline (3)

Just at a distance under three hundred meters away from Huang Yueli and Little Phoenix.

The mysterious man held on to the lambskin scroll and he looked all around searching for their whereabouts.

He had already searched for an entire night but was still unable to discover where Huang Yueli was hiding and as time went by, he started to become more and more impatient and increasingly frustrated.

Yesterday night, he had seen with his own eyes the glaring flame which arose in the array but by the time he managed to rush over, the light had diminished and the array was once again restored to the serene and gloomy look, as the four surroundings were totally silent, not even a bird's chirping could be heard.

"Bai Ruoli, wretched lass, where on earth are you?? I'm the one who has the array map whereas you're just a headless fly which scatters everywhere, but why am I not able to find you? Where on earth have you hidden yourself to??"

He didn't know that Huang Yueli was equipped with the skill of setting up an array and she easily set up an invisible array which successfully cheated him.

After an entire gainless night, the mysterious man started to doubt his life.

But just at this moment, the huge stone array started to vibrate.

Mysterious man had thought something went wrong with the array and was scared stiff.

But this vibration only lasted for ten over breathes before it gradually weakened.

Immediately following that, from not too far away, a red thread suddenly appeared on the ground and the direction which this thread was pointing to was exactly the same as the mark on the mysterious man's map, as it abruptly pointed to the array's exit – the middle of the tall tower!

After a moment, footsteps could be heard from a nearby distance and after the mysterious man hid himself behind a huge rock, he saw Huang Yueli's fleeting figure running towards the exit.

He wasn't anxious to chase after her, but let out a chilly smile.

"She's really Bai Liu Feng's daughter, even though she doesn't have the map which Bai Liu Feng left behind, but she's still able to find the way out! Looks like the inheritance which Bai Liu Feng left behind had indeed been tampered with and only his daughter has the way! But no matter, as long as his daughter is in my hands, that inheritance ... will naturally become mine!"

"Hahaha, Bai Ruoli, never expected this eh? You thought you'd found the way out but actually.... it's only the shortcut to send you to your death!"

He saw Huang Yueli almost disappearing out of his line of sight and got up before following her carefully.

Huang Yueli was still dashing straight forward.

Little Phoenix flew till he was panting and felt that his wings didn't seem to belong to itself anymore.

Female devil, just how big is still array? We’ve already ran for so long and still haven’t seen the exit!

“Stop complaining, we should be reaching soon! Just this bit of distance and you can’t fly anymore, you exercise too little!”

Huang Yueli’s expression remained the same and even her breathing wasn’t messy, so she could still afford to educate Little Phoenix.

They didn’t realised that something was amiss because the red coloured line revealed a segment, other than absorbing Huang Yueli’s blood, it would also cause the huge stone rock array to vibrate!

With so many huge rocks moving about continuously, with its astonishing battle array, it made it very difficult for them to notice any other sounds from the surroundings.

As they ran, after around one hour later, the path before them suddenly became brighter and brighter and although the intensity of the Profound Qi didn’t descend, but the mist inevitably became lighter and lighter.

Huang Yueli increased her speed and ran faster and finally dashed out of the huge rock array’s boundary.

Chapter 1104: Special Bloodline (4)

The image that entered their eyes was a broad and simple yet unadorned high tower. The tower body was very delicate, width was only ten meters yet it was very tall, like a needle pointing towards the sky horizon.

When Huang Yueli saw that, she uncontrollably broke out in cold sweat. Such a slender tower body, it felt like a big gust of wind would be able to blow it down anytime.

However, this tall tower had experienced thousands of years of being windswept and battering of rain and yet it remained immovable, as it stood upright majestically.

Huang Yueli walked forward along with Little Phoenix and suddenly felt something was not right. On turning back, she realised that the array exit which she had left from earlier had disappeared into the mist and even that blinding road sign had also disappeared without a trace.

“Looks like, we can only head towards the tower...” Huang Yueli shrugged.

Little Phoenix patted its wings, “Chi chi chi chi chi!”

— Hurry go in! There might be some clues which Uncle Bai left behind inside! I have a premonition that a huge secret was hiding inside!

Huang Yueli nodded and walked towards the entrance.

The high tower’s main door was made out of bronze and was extremely lofty, the door was carved with complicated patterns.

“Look... this seems like a phoenix?” Huang Yueli pointed to the centre position, that position used an extensive amount of intricate carving methods and a lively image of a phoenix was carved out.

She hadn't heard any answer and curiously turned around.

Little Phoenix's expression was filled with shock.

“Chi chi chi!”

— This carving.... Looks so much like my brother! So martial and heroic, compared to me.... it's just lacking that little bit!

Huang Yueli's lips twitched, “I think you must have gone crazy thinking of your brother? This is the mark left behind tens of thousands of years ago by a peerless expert and your brother had never been to Soaring Heavens Continent right? Moreover, don't all the phoenixes look alike? You can tell which is which?”

— Who said everyone looks the same? We're obviously not the same! For someone as handsome as this little mater, where can you find a second one?

Little Phoenix protested violently but Huang Yueli didn't read the deep meaning behind its words, only feeling that it was as arrogant as always so she didn't probe further.

She placed her hand on the door as she pushed gently.

“Chi——”

Following that was a slight sound as the bronze door flashed a glint of blue light, shocking Huang Yueli so much that she withdrew her hand swiftly.

Her expression looked to be filled in deep thoughts, “Looks like, this door cannot be opened casually, there are several ancient arrays encrypted onto this...”

Before she could finish her words, suddenly Little Phoenix gave a mournful whine as its voice resonated through the skies!

Huang Yueli trembled and before her body could make any reaction, her toes had threaded hard on the ground as she flew out in a slanted direction!

At the same time, she gathered all the Profound Qi from her body and a bundle of thunder flame like fire was thrown out towards her back!

As expected, just as she was jumping out, a whetting Profound Qi attacked towards her original position. Although this strike didn't hit her, but when it struck the ground, it caused a huge hole on the tough stone ground.

Huang Yueli turned around to take a look in lingering fear.

Standing not too far behind her was the mysterious man who was chasing after her in hot pursuit yesterday!

Huang Yueli's eyes popped out with surprise as she didn't expect the mysterious man to follow her to this place!

Although yesterday Little Phoenix made a huge commotion while it was advancing, but the huge stone array layout was just too complicated.

Chapter 1105: Real identity of the black robed man (1)

Even though they weren't able to see anyone nearby, but it wasn't as though they wanted to reach a certain position and they could reach that position. There was a ninety nine percent possibility that in the process of finding someone, they might lose their way in the array.

Because of this, although Huang Yueli knew that the mysterious man had also entered the huge stone array, but she wasn't particularly worried.

The possibility of them meeting in the array was just too low!

Moreover, the mysterious man did not have her special bloodline so there was no way he could use her method to walk out from the array.

But even though it was not possible theoretically, but in actual fact.....

That mysterious man had indeed come out.

Huang Yueli quickly calmed down and faced the mysterious man but she was on high alert, ready to face his attack and meet it!

Mysterious man wasn't in any urgency to attack her again but instead he began to laugh sinisterly.

"Bai Ruoli, we meet yet again! I've told you earlier that no matter how you run.... You'd not be able to escape from me so why do you even bother to be so anxious and waste so much effort? Why not coordinate with me obediently and save yourself from being horrified!"

Huang Yueli sneered, "Do you think I'm a three year old kid? That I'd believe your nonsense?"

Mysterious man laughed, "What I'm saying is not fake, to tell you the truth, the reason why I'd be pursuing you non stop is so that I can bring you to this place. Now that you've come here yourself, it saved quite an amount of effort on my end. Now as long as you're willing to help me with a favour, once the matter is done, I can let you off."

Huang Yueli's eyebrows rose, "You tried to capture me just to bring me here, why? This mysterious huge stone array and high tower are obviously an early historical remain but it's never been spread around by anyone so how did you discover this place and what does it have to do with me?"

Mysterious man replied, "As a kid, why is your curiosity so strong? Anyway, now that you can't escape, do you know what's the difference? The difference now is whether you obediently help me, or... I will pressure you to help?"

His tone was starting to become impatient as he intentionally raised his voice, sounding extremely vicious.

Huang Yueli however remained unmoved, "You think I'm not clear minded? If you have one hundred percent certainty to force me to do as you wish, would you even waste so much time talking nonsense to me? Since you have no certainty and want me to help, then you have to tell me clearly. Otherwise I will immediately self-explode. Anyway it's just death and since it can still spoil your plan, it's worth it!"

She intentionally said this and as expected the mysterious man clenched his fists tightly, obviously slightly anxious.

Looks like she had stepped on the mysterious man's vulnerable spot.

Huang Yueli was very sure that the mysterious wanted her alive so that she could help him with his matter otherwise the last time in Celestial Light Academy, he could have killed her.

Just that she didn't know... what motive did this fellow had?

He considered for a moment before speaking out, "Alright, I'll cut the story short. This huge stone array and high tower had already existed here for a long time and the reason why there were no related hearsay was because, firstly, this historical remains was only visible under a particular weather and usually it's invisible. Secondly, most people who enters this huge stone array would be lost in it and eventually trapped and died inside."

Huang Yueli nodded.

At least up to this point, mysterious man was not lying. She had indeed seen many skeletal remains while she was in the huge stone array and that should be those explorers who had starved to death after entering this place some time ago.

Chapter 1106: Real identity of the black robed man (2)

The mysterious man continued, "Some years ago, I unintentionally discovered a piece of treasure map and the mark on top shows the position of this early historical remains, the timing it appears and the way to pass through the huge stone array. Only when I reached the high tower, I realised that I couldn't open the bronze door with the phoenix carving, no matter what. In order to open this door, I've already thought about it for a very long time, all the way until..."

He paused, as though he was thinking of what to say.

"After that, you joined Celestial Light Academy and I realised that you have an exceptional talent in armament refining, and there is a possibility that you can help me open this door so I set my sights onto you... look, this to you is an enormous opportunity. If you coordinate with me to open this door, after I enter the high tower, whatever Profound Armaments or Spiritual Medicine or rare treasure, I'll split half with you! What do you think?"

As he was saying, he threw out a bundle of tempting baits as he started to convince Huang Yueli into cooperating with him.

Huang Yueli pretended to be ignorant as she asked, "Really? Just helping you and I will be able to get so much benefits? In the early historical remains, just any kind of treasure are all top rated valuables!"

"Isn't that so!" The mysterious man thought she had been convinced as he hurriedly continued persuading, "What I need you to do is especially simple. You just need to give a little and you will be able to get the treasures from the early historical remains! Such a good thing, once you've passed this village, there'd be no such shop anymore!"

Huang Yueli frowned as she asked, "Your words have aroused my interest.... But I still don't understand. I'm merely an ordinary student in Celestial Light Academy and considered to have a little bit of armament refining skills. But I know nothing about this early historical mechanism so what can I help you with? Are you thinking too highly of me?"

"No matter no matter!" Mysterious man hurriedly replied, "This matter is especially simple and only a talented Armament Master like you can achieve!"

"Pa pa pa!"

Before the mysterious man had finished his words, Huang Yueli couldn't help but started clapping.

Mysterious man was stunned.

Huang Yueli responded, "Your lie have been weaved until it's so real but have you thought that I'm too silly? Your words are full of loopholes, did you think I will believe you? Unintentionally discovered a treasure map and it showed the position of an early historical remain? Where can you find this kind of treasure map, give me one hundred pieces of it! You've tried on several times to kidnap me to this place, just to let me use my armament refining skills to open this door for you? Are you trying to cheat a child?"

The mysterious man was exposed by her on the spot and his expression instantly sunk but he refused to admit it.

"Why? You feel that I'm lying to you? What I'm saying is all the truth! I wanted to cooperate with you sincerely so I told you everything I know. Don't you refuse a toast only to be forced to drink a forfeit!"

Huang Yueli calmly replied, "What you're saying is indeed the truth, but.... you've changed some crucial points slightly. The treasure map should be true but it's not that you discovered it unintentionally. Earlier I open the secret compartment which my father left behind, I immediately was pursued by you. These two matters are definitely linked and your treasure map.... should be retrieved after you tried ways and means to open the secret compartment which my father left behind!"

"You..."

The mysterious man was tongue tied.

He had thought that the words he said earlier was obscured enough but he had not expected Huang Yueli to be able to find any flaws and just using a few words, she managed to deduce the truth.

“The information regarding the treasure map having marked the early historical remains should be true as well, otherwise.... you couldn’t possibly pinpoint my position in such a complicated huge stone array! But.... you’ve kidnapped me here is absolutely not because you fancied my status of an Armament Master, but.... there should be some mechanism which only I can open up? Am I right to say that?”

After Huang Yueli finished her words, the mysterious man immediately fell into silence.

He was utterly shocked. He had not expected Huang Yueli to be such an agile person. Even these were guessed correctly!

On seeing that the truth could not be hidden any further, he might as well told the truth.

“Alright, since you’ve guessed it, then there’s no meaning even if I refused to admit it. Now that you’re already here and have no way of leaving, why don’t you help me open this door. I’ll keep my word on whatever I’ve said earlier, as long as you can help me here, whatever there is inside, I’ll split it with you!”

Huang Yueli laughed coldly in her heart, she wasn’t some innocent young lady who had just came out to experience, so how could she possibly be so naïve?

Mysterious man on several attempts had wanted to take her life and now he’s using some unrealistic promises to cheat her into helping him? She gauged that after she opened the door, not to mention about splitting the treasures, she probably would lose her life on the spot!

But she didn’t expose him immediately, instead she questioned, “How do you want me to help you?”

Mysterious man said, “Actually, what you need to do is very simple. I initially didn’t know how to open this door but when you opened the secret compartment using your blood in the Scripture Depository, that gave me inspiration that perhaps the item which Bai Liu Feng left behind had something to do with your bloodline that runs in your body. Earlier you used blood in the huge stone array to reveal the correct pathway, this made me further ascertain that my thinking is right.”

“In that case, what you want, is my..... blood?” Huang Yueli’s brows rose but inside her heart, she wasn’t too surprised.

After the previous few experiences, she had vaguely guessed that the clues which Bai Liu Feng left behind, leaving her to this place, probably had something to do with the bloodline in her so these clues and mechanisms practically all needed her to use her blood to open up.

Only now... that these words came from the mysterious man’s mouth then she must set herself on high alert.

Even if this door’s mechanism really needed her to use her blood to open up, things wouldn’t be that simple and the mysterious man definitely has his own schemes.

The minute she opened the door, he absolutely would destroy the bridge after crossing the river.

She naturally wanted to enter the high tower but she absolutely cannot let the mysterious man in. Don't think that the 'cooperation' which they were talking about now, the both of them knew clearly that there was only one person who could live till the end!

As for now, she was at an absolute disadvantage. Not only did her ability lack far, far away from the mysterious man, furthermore even the map which Bai Liu Feng left behind was in the hands of the mysterious man!

The understanding that this mysterious man had regarding this early historical remains was much higher than hers!

Under these two over layering circumstances, the possibility of her win was equivalent to zero...

Furthermore, she had already delayed for a long period of time so she probably wouldn't be able to continue dragging any more time...

The mysterious man had not kept coercing her was afraid that she might self-explode on the spot. If he could ascertain that she was not going to cooperate then he would definitely take action without any hesitation!

The situation was now so critical but in Huang Yueli's heart, she was becoming calmer and calmer as thoughts flew past swiftly in her mind.

Chapter 1108: Going to throw up (1)

She must find a way to turn the tide around, not only must she not die, she must also obtain the item which Bai Liu Feng wanted her to have...

Suddenly, a lightbulb lit up in Huang Yueli's head which made her eyes turn bright.

This idea.... Although extremely risky, but there was a ninety percent change that she might die under the mysterious man's hands but at least.... There was a string of hope! This was her only chance!

...

Celestial Light Sect.

Early in the morning, the Sect entrance at the main gate was filled with people. They heard that their Young Sect Master Li Moying who had left the Sect for a long time was about to come back and quite a number of people specially came out to welcome him back.

That included Sect Master Murong De who personally graced this occasion.

A huge flying ship gradually appeared in front of everyone's eyes.

Not long after, Li Moying's silhouette appeared before the eyes of everyone.

His reputation in Celestial Light Sect was very high, even surpassing Sect Master by a huge notch so when he appeared, the crowd started to outdo each other in cheering.

"Young Sect Master, you're finally back!"

“Young Sect Master must have gained quite an amount of rewards in this experience right?”

Everyone started to step upwards to greet him however, Li Moying put on a chilly handsome face and didn't bother about anyone as he directly walked past the crowd.

That perfectly contoured good looking face was coated with a layer of frost as his lips pursed tightly and a shocking bitter feeling was emitted from his surroundings.

Those standing around him immediately felt their temperature drop and they all started to shiver, not daring to say anymore words as they automatically opened up a pathway for him to walk.

Murong De walked towards him from a distance away and upon seeing Li Moying, he started to smile passionately.

“Moying ah, you actually came back today, that's great! A few days ago, I heard that your illness acted up in the middle of the night, it almost scared me to death! Luckily your condition was in control later on.”

Li Moying looked at his own Master and his footsteps halted as he indifferently nodded.

“Thank you Master for your concern.”

Murong De continued, “Looking at you, it seems that your recovery this round went rather well? In the past, every time after your illness acted up, you'd need to lie down in bed for several days but today it seems that your condition is quite well. Do you feel uncomfortable anywhere?”

Li Moying heard about him mentioning his illness and a pain shot through his heart.

He had not been bedridden this round was entirely because Li'er was by his side.

Only the man in her heart was not him so she cannot stay by his side forever. In future if his illness acted up, he would have to face it by himself...

Li Moying's eyes revealed a deep sense of hurt and momentarily he lost all patience to exchange conventional greetings with Murong De.

He hurriedly found an excuse, “Master, I'm a bit tired. Although this round I had regained consciousness much earlier than before but my primordial spirit had suffered some damage so I must quickly return back and go into closed door cultivation to treat my injuries.”

When Murong De heard that, he immediately got worried and said, “How could such a thing happen? Quickly go back and take a rest! Your body is most important and you must not leave any hidden injuries which might cause any influence to your cultivation! Master has some high levelled medicinal pills for treating internal injuries and the Sect's medical herb garden had just received the fifth grade medicinal herb, I'll send all these to you later!”

This disciple of his was an invaluable treasure in Celestial Light Sect.

In future whether Celestial Light Sect were to fly high into the sky, everything would all depend on him!

On hearing Li Moying say that he had suffered internal injuries, Murong De was more anxious than anyone else.

Li Moying calmly nodded, "Thank you Master very much."

He turned around and walked away and all the practitioners behind all broke out into a bustle.

Chapter 1109: Going to throw up (2)

"Young Sect Master is actually hurt?"

"Who on earth could possibly injure a peerless genius like Young Sect Master?"

"That's hard to say. Although Young Sect Master is an all-rounder talent, but he is after all very young and there are so many established peerless experts in Soaring Heavens Continent...."

Regarding the news on Li Moying's Soul Detachment Illness, this to the ordinary disciples of the Sect was a secret so they could only guess secretly.

Just as the crowd was in discussions, suddenly another figure appeared in front of them.

That person was Murong Fei who appeared pale and extremely haggard.

"Ah, it's Eldest Young Miss! Eldest Young Miss actually came back with Young Sect Master!"

"I'd never imagined that both of them took the same flying ship back, could it be that... Young Sect Master and Eldest Young Miss actually went to experience training together?"

"I think that's about right! Hadn't Sect Master always wanted Young Sect Master and Eldest Young Miss to get married? Both of them were childhood friends and from the looks of now, their relationship seemed to have advanced by leaps and bounds..... seems that wedding bells are ringing quite soon!"

The disciples' eyes revealed ambiguous and envious expressions.

Murong Fei, a beauty with exceeding innate talent and with her valuable status, which disciple wasn't interested in her? But too bad she had already been acquiescence as Li Moying's fiancée so the others didn't even dare to compete for her.

When Murong De saw his eldest daughter appearing, he too was stunned.

"Fei'er?? Didn't you say you're going out to gain experience? Why did you return so quickly? Furthermore.... You took the same flying ship as Li Moying?"

Murong Fei had been confined to her room for an entire day and when she got off the flying ship, she was initially filled with indignance but upon hearing the crowd's discussion, she suddenly realised that this.... seemed to be her chance!

Anyway Li Moying had already ditched that wretched lass and now that he was feeling downhearted, it was her best opportunity to avail herself to get in.

If everyone in the Sect thought that the both of them were together, perhaps it might make her father set down their marriage agreement.

Then in no time, perhaps Li Moying might really forget about that wretched lass and become a pair with her.

Anyway.... That wretched lass would definitely be dead meat this time round! So she wasn't afraid that she would come out and disrupt her plans.

Thinking of this, Murong Fei's face revealed a tinge of embarrassed smile as she lowered her head and said softly, "Father... since you've already seen everything, then why are you asking me for?"

Murong De's eyes widened as he was filled with shock and joy.

"Why? You and Moying, could it be.. but in the past, wasn't there a young lass beside Moying? That time Moying went to save her and almost couldn't make it in time for the tournament."

Murong Fei replied, "Eldest Senior Brother and that young lass had already split up, so...."

Murong De was very surprised because Li Moying had thought highly of that little fiancée of his. Just one look and one would know that it was a life and death true love, but why did they split up after this period of time?

But towards such a result, he was actually much happier with this.

Because only in this way would he be able to make Li Moying turn into his son-in-law and made him stay in Celestial Light Sect forever.

Unfortunately Li Moying had not been interested in Murong Fei so no matter how he tried to play matchmaker to the both of them, there was no effect at all.

He'd never thought that after he had given up, Murong Fei had used her own charm to let Li Moying bring her alongside him.....

Murong De laughed, "Good, good! Since Li Moying is willing to be together with you, then you must take good care of him. He suffered an internal injury this round so you must aid him in recovering!"

Chapter 1110: Going to throw up (3)

Murong Fei puffed herself up as she agreed without any hesitation.

After she left, the crowd went into another round of discussion as all of them were extremely envious, all thinking that Young Sect Master and Eldest Young Miss's wedding should be nearing.

Li Moying had left swiftly and had not seen the performance which Murong Fei put up.

But those shadow guards who were carrying luggage saw the entire scene.

Mo Er immediately put up a puking expression, "I'm simply going to throw up! I've never seen such a shameless woman before! Our Master had not even looked her straight in the eye, just look at her act, she made everyone thought that she will be marrying Master tomorrow!"

Mo Yi hurriedly covered his mouth, "What nonsense are you sprouting? Be careful that other people heard what you said! Just let her go squander by herself, anyway just based on her, Master would never ever be interested in her!"

Mo Er nodded as he recalled Li Moying's lost soul look as he couldn't help but sigh.

"Third Miss Bai and Master are still the most compatible. It's just a waste, why did the two of them quarrel to such an extent of splitting up?"

Mo Yi wasn't as pessimistic as he patted his shoulders.

"No matter, don't worry. From what I see, Master and Third Miss just had a squabble. Don't think that Master is usually so mighty and awe-inspiring, but he's only just twenty years old so I think he probably acted in a moment of rashness. After his anger had gone past, there is still a chance to reunite."

Mo Er sighed, "I hope so."

In front of the high tower.

"How? Haven't considered properly? I'm warning you, there is a limit to my patience, whether it's to die now or cooperate, I want to hear your answer right now!"

The mysterious man saw Huang Yueli lowering her head and not saying a single word as he finally lost patience and started urging.

Huang Yueli set down her determination as she raised her head and said, "Alright then, since I don't really have much of a choice, I shall cooperate with you but you must keep your promise. After entering the high tower, you must share the treasure with me!"

"Of course! Since you've helped me, how can I mistreat you?"

The mysterious man's lips curled into an icy smile as the black veil which drooped down from the hoodie sheltered his looks, not allowing anyone to see through clearly.

Huang Yueli pretended to hesitate and spoke out again, "N... No way, an oral agreement is not binding. To prove your sincerity, you must take off your hoodie and show me who you really are! I know you must be someone whom I know!"

The mysterious man decisively rejected, "No way!"

Huang Yueli immediately said, "You can't do it? Since we are going to cooperate, you can't even let me see your real looks, so how can I believe that you're not lying to me? Forget it, I better not cooperate with you. Anyway if you want to kill me, I'll just self-explode! Then you won't be able to gain any advantages!"

The mysterious man was so angry that he clenched his teeth but after rearranging his thoughts, after he finished using her, this young lass was going to die anyway. So letting a dead person saw his real identity wasn't that big of a deal.

"Alright then."

He changed his mind and stretched out his hand to remove the hoodie from his head.

On seeing the mysterious man's real identity, Huang Yueli shrieked, "So..... So it's you!"

The mysterious man was actually someone whom she had met, but not very familiar – Celestial Light Academy's Vice Principal Ling Wenbin!

But he had always used a special pill to change his voice, which made Huang Yueli unable to predict who he really was.

No wonder, he could freely enter and leave the Scripture Depository because of his status as Celestial Light Academy's Vice Principal, his understanding of the Scripture Depository was much more than anyone else!
