Chapter 1911: Seen through by her? (3)

Feng Xiaoyan stared at her intently, as she pressured her slowly, "How is it? Have you considered carefully already? Once you pass this village, you will not be able to find this shop anymore! I'd advise you to quit while you're ahead and don't be too greedy beyond your means. There is a limit to my patience!"

Huang Yueli smiled as she said, "Will you really give me the seventh levelled medicinal pills?"

Feng Xiaoyan thought that her interest had been piqued and the sight of disdain beneath her eyes started to flow outwards.

Indeed she was a woman who was only after petty gains, so she totally wasn't worthy of her male god Liu Buyan!

She immediately replied, "That's right, I will really give it to you! What identity do I have? Of course whatever I say counts and with so many people here to testify for you, what are you worried about?"

Huang Yueli nodded her head when she heard that.

Feng Xiaoyan immediately cried out in joy, "That means, you agree to leave? That's great, go pack up immediately and tomorrow morning I will...."

"When have I said that I will leave?" Huang Yueli interrupted her, "I only wanted to say that Young Miss Feng you're rather generous, indeed the President's daughter! But I've always never liked to be tormented and since I'm staying well right here, I have no intention to shift houses. I can only take in Young Miss Feng's kind intentions and reject your proposal."

"You... you tricked me??"

Feng Xiaoyan had just started to get excited when she was splashed on her head with a bucket of cold water, and she instantly turned utterly discomfited.

"What on earth do you want? I've already given you so much money!"

Huang Yueli laughed as she pointed out, "I might have the life to take the money, but might not have the life to spend it...."

Feng Xiaoyan's heart thumped hard, and she looked at Huang Yueli in disbelief in fear and trepidation!

She was able to come out with so much money because she already had some plans in her mind, hence she acted so generously!

From what she thought, Huang Yueli was after all an ordinary person and as long as she left the Alchemist Guild's turf, a gorgeous young lady like her totally had no way to protect herself and could be easily eliminated. Moreover.... it would not leave any handle on her at all!

Later on even if Liu Buyan started to probe into this, so many people had seen Huang Yueli leaving the Alchemist Guild after taking the money, no matter how angry Liu Buyan was, he would never go look for Huang Yueli again.

After all, a woman who was only interested in his money, would definitely shatter his heart and send him into extreme disappointment!

Feng Xiaoyan was counting her chickens before they hatched and she felt that Huang Yueli wasn't even a practitioner, and didn't seem to have any family background so she must be inexperienced and could not possibly see through her plan.

But now, from Huang Yueli's tone....

Has she been seen through by her??

While Feng Xiaoyan was in a state of bewilderment, Huang Yueli had already stood up and prepared to leave.

Feng Xiaoyan immediately shot up like an arrow as she blocked her way.

"No way, you haven't agreed to my terms so you're not allowed to leave!"

Huang Yueli's face started to turn chilly, "I've already said that I'm not leaving, what else do you want?"

Although her aim had been seen through by Huang Yueli, she instead had lesser worries as she started to bare her fangs.

"I'm not discussing with you, I'm ordering you, scam out of the Alchemist Guild right now! If your attitude is good, I can still give you some money but since you refused the proffered wine and wished to take the punishment wine, then don't blame me for being impolite!"

Saying that, her right hand waved, "Everyone let's go up and chase this little slut out for me! I want to see, without Divine Doctor Liu here to protect you, just how arrogant can you remain to be!"

Her words had just fallen and all the young ladies all surrounded her.

Chapter 1912: Seen through by her? (4)

The young ladies all started to emit different Profound Energy fluctuations.

Feng Xiaoyan took a few steps upwards as she pressed near Huang Yueli and spoke out complacently, "How is it? Afraid now?"

Huang Yueli's expression was calm as she took a glance at her, "Why should I be afraid of you?"

Feng Xiaoyan saw that she was still so composed and became even more utterly discomfited, "Why should you be afraid? Is your head filled with water? Don't you know? We are all respectable Pill Masters while you are just an ordinary person and you totally have no right to stay in the Alchemist Guild Headquarters! Moreover, you don't even have a single bit of cultivation whereas we... are all practitioners!"

Wishing to become a Pill Master, the most basic requirement was to have a fourth grade talent and above in both Earth and Fire dual attributes. Whereas those who were able to enter the Alchemist Guild Headquarters are all geniuses who would be greatly nurtured, and had at least seventh grade talent.

Although the Pill Master's battle standard was not high and they were not especially hardworking in terms of their cultivation, but at least there was a certain cultivational standard because when they were refining pills, there would be many moments when they needed to rely on their Profound Energy.

So those young ladies present were at least in third stage realm cultivation and whereas Feng Xiaoyan had just broken through to the fifth stage realm!

Although her kind of fifth stage realm probably couldn't even beat an attendant in Blue Profound Sect who was responsible for factotum, but Feng Xiaoyan had assumed that Huang Yueli was an ordinary person and felt that crushing her to death was as easy as crushing an ant.

Huang Yueli took a cold look at her as she said, "You wish to take action against me? Have you ever considered that if Brother Liu came back and found out what you did... what result would it yield?"

Feng Xiaoyan laughed coldly, "So what if Brother Liu finds out? Non Pill Masters are not permitted to enter the Alchemist Guild so there's nothing wrong with chasing you out! Stop the gibberish, it's of no use no matter what you say. I've already given you a chance earlier but you don't know what's good for you, so now... no one can save you!"

Saying that, she directed the young ladies to proceed and capture her.

"Let me, let me! Dealing with this trash, do we even need Eldest Young Miss to take action personally?"

"That's right, she's the one who doesn't know what's good for her. Let's give her a beating then throw her out!"

"Let me have a kick at her too!"

The young ladies all swamped up excitedly!

They originally were filled with envy and jealousy with Huang Yueli and now with Feng Xiaoyan leading the pack, they were all fighting head over heels to teach her a lesson!

Moreover speaking, for someone like Huang Yueli, a trash with no cultivation innate talent at all, she was someone who could be bullied easily and usually it was really not easy to meet with one at all! There's no danger in punching her at all!

Feng Xiaoyan's face revealed a cold smile, as she waited for Huang Yueli to kneel down to beg for mercy.

However, when Huang Yueli looked at these young ladies' movements, she did not reveal any flustered display. Instead her eyes only had the smiling intent of ridicule.

Actually, she herself didn't understand why she wasn't afraid at all.

The disparity between both parties' ability was obvious and she knew that she had no Profound Energy within her at all.

But when she saw these young ladies showing off such clumsy moves, she only found it amusing.

Such kiddy tricks and they dare to claim that they were practitioners? Any practitioner stronger than them by one hundred times who stood before them would reduce them to capitulation!

Huang Yueli's mind suddenly flashed past some images.

As though.... she had once been engaged in a battle with someone else previously. The vivid actions seemed as though it had happened just yesterday.

In an instance, she suddenly felt bouts of dizziness and her feet turned soft and almost fell.

Chapter 1913: Seen through by her? (5)

With a "Pa" sound, a young lady who was dressed in a third grade Pill Master uniform struck a palm strike onto Huang Yueli's chest.

Huang Yueli was caught unaware and felt pain as she gave a full moan.

Feng Xiaoyan originally thought that Huang Yueli had some ace up her sleeve when she saw her being so calm and composed, so she was brooding over it.

In the end, whoever knew that Huang Yueli was actually hit by someone so easily so it looked like she was just putting up a pretence earlier!

Feng Xiaoyan's disdain for her grew and at the same time, she couldn't suppress herself any longer as she wanted to head up personally to pinch the soft persimmon.

The other young ladies also unreconciled to lag behind as they all started to make a grab at Huang Yueli.

"Wu...."

After Huang Yueli was struck, the giddiness lessened and her mind instantly cleared up.

Looking at the sight at the increasing amount of Pill Masters charging towards her simultaneously, in her eyes, those young ladies' speed of hitting out was incredibly slow. All their actions were filled with multiple flaws.

Huang Yueli's body swayed gently and made everyone land an empty strike.

"Eh? What just happened?"

"Where's that little slut? Why did she suddenly disappear to?!"

Huang Yueli was using her own ability to evade them so naturally she started dancing the Agility Dance Steps and in a moment, swung to the back of the young ladies.

Whereas these inexperienced young ladies who lacked actual combat experiences had a dazed look as they stood on their original spots, totally not realising what had just happened.

Dumb! Too dumb! So dumb until they've reached home!

Huang Yueli kept on shaking her head while standing behind them as she sighed softly, "Just refine your pills properly if you're a Pill Master, why learn from other practitioners to engage in a fight? Aren't you looking for a beating yourself?"

Her mumbling voice wasn't very loud but someone heard her voice and turned around in a fluster.

"Bai Ruoli, she.... she's right behind us!"

Everyone wanted to turn around but Huang Yueli had already made a decision and leaping up high, she kicked the young lady who was last in the line.

As a ninth stage realm peak practitioner in her past life, Huang Yueli's combat experience was extremely rich so even if she lost her memories, battling had become part of her innate ability with no need to think at all.

Her eyesight was extremely sharp so the angle which she kicked in was extremely tricky.

After the young lady at the last position was kicked on the back of her kneecap, her feet weakened and she could not balance herself as she immediately fell.

When her body fell, she coincidentally knocked against the young lady's back who was standing in front of her, and that person also immediately fell down.

Following that was a series of chain reactions, as the sound of falling kept reverberating and quite a number of young ladies all fell onto the ground.

"Hey, who pushed me, who pushed me?"

"Quickly get off me, you're lying on me and I can't breathe!"

"Stop stepping on me! Don't step on my face!"

Amid the bursts of high pitched cries, Huang Yueli walked around the exterior in a leisurely way. When she saw whichever young lady who was trying to get up, she immediately sent a flying kick over.

The bundle of young ladies who had rolled onto the ground usually don't use their Profound Energy to battle so in times of urgency, they totally didn't think about using Profound Energy, only knowing to prop themselves up on the ground to climb up.

But their clothes were all mutually hooked together and with Huang Yueli creating a mess by giving them kicks occasionally, how were they able to climb up in a short span of time?

Not only were they not able to climb up, they even mutually stepped on one another multiple times and there were some whose ribs had been broken by their companions.

Miserable cries and high pitched shrills repeating continuously and the scenario turned disorderly.

Only Feng Xiaoyan was slightly more composed and after the initial fluster had passed, she already realised where the problem was.

Chapter 1914: Seen through by her? (6)

Feng Xiaoyan shouted loudly, "Everyone stop moving and get up one at a time! Don't keep pushing here and there. In this case, everyone just can't stand up!"

She cried out with all her guts but it was a pity because no one heard her words at all.

She could only shout out again, "All of you don't move, let me get up first! Do you hear me? Anyone who dares to move recklessly, I'll show her some colours!"

As the President's daughter, Feng Xiaoyan had enough power to intimidate the others and upon hearing this, the young ladies all became frightened. Although most of them were still unclear of the situation, but many of them heard what Feng Xiaoyan said and didn't dare to move anymore.

However just as she was getting up, she suddenly heard a burst of windy sound from her back.

"Senior Sister Feng, be careful!" The young ladies on the ground all started shrieking.

But Feng Xiaoyan was still not able to react in time as she felt a large push from her butt and immediately after that, her body flew out.

Huang Yueli's flying kick landed precisely onto Feng Xiaoyan's bum, moreover and had intentionally stepped on some ashes in the corner so this kick which landed on Feng Xiaoyan's perky and round bum had a clear and distinct shoe print left on it.

Huang Yueli was in deep thoughts as she looked at the shoe print and sighed, "Brother Liu is so attentive, the shoe which he prepared has such particular patterns on the soles..."

Before she could finish her sentence, a "pong" sound was heard and Feng Xiaoyan had already fallen onto the ground.

Moreover, her face was facing downwards and her butt upwards with her four limbs sprawled out as she fell heavily – a standard posture of falling flat on one's face.

She first landed on the ground and stayed in a daze for ten breaths or so, obviously she had gone into a daze from the fall but following that, she regained her senses and struggled to get up from the ground.

"BAI, RUO, LI—!"

Feng Xiaoyan's voice was akin to a howling beast as she was consumed by rage and irreconciliation!

She was a lady from the Alchemist Guild and her father had honed his skills as an eighth ranked Pill Master whereas for herself, she was also one of the top talents among the younger generation in the Alchemist Guild Headquarters!

With this kind of status, this kind of innate talent, Feng Xiaoyan had been brought up in the palm of others. Even if it was Liu Buyan, he would also treat her courteously since when had she ever suffered such humiliation?

She was so angry that her lungs almost punctured as she gritted her teeth and turned around, wanting to teach Huang Yueli a severe lesson.

However, she had just opened her mouth when Huang Yueli's eyes suddenly widened and burst out into laughter.

"Hahahaha.... Young Miss Feng, aren't you too comical? Hahahaha...."

Huang Yueli pointed to Feng Xiaoyan's face as she laughed so much until she bent over.

Feng Xiaoyan went into a blank and her peripheral view shot from the corner of her eye towards the young ladies who were still on the ground, to discover that they were suspiciously wriggling her bodies and the muscles on their face kept on twitching, putting on a look which seemed as though they wanted to burst out laughing but didn't dared to.

She knew something was amiss and hurriedly shot towards the table to search for a mirror as she looked at her reflection.

With one look, Feng Xiaoyan almost fainted!

Because the young lady in the mirror was totally different from her usual elegant saintly image. Every single part of her, from head to toe, was covered in dirt and ashes. Not only was her clothes dirty, even her face was smeared black, simply looking like a beggar who had just climbed out from a mud pool.

Furthermore, earlier that tumble caused a big bruise swelling up on her forehead and it looked reddish, greenish and purplish, which simply looked too comical.

Chapter 1915: Seen through by her? (7)

Not only so, the bridge of her nose had turned crooked from the fall and two streams of blood flowed downwards, mixing together with the mud on her face. Not only was it comical looking, it was also extremely disgusting!

Feng Xiaoyan was so infuriated that her entire body was trembling.

No wonder Bai Ruoli was laughing so merrily, even those young female Pill Masters on the ground wanted to burst out into laughter!

If it wasn't for the fact that she was the one who turned into this state from the fall, even she also wanted to laugh!

But now, she wasn't able to laugh at all. On the contrary, she had an urge to bang herself against the wall.

Feng Xiaoyan threw the mirror away as she howled angrily, "Bai Ruoli, are you tired of living? How dare you treat me in this manner? Simply looking for death! Today I will absolutely not let you off! I want you to die!"

Huang Yueli then started to restrain her smile but her lips were still curved upwards as she stared innocently with her big eyes.

"I say.... Eldest Young Miss Feng, it's too much of you to say this! You're the one who obviously wanted to beat me up and I'm just acting in self-defence. All these are just an accident..."

"Accident—! Even if it's just an accident, you also deserve to die!"

Not too long later, flustered shuffling footsteps were heard and some guards hurriedly ran over from outside the door.

“Eldest Young Miss, what instructions do you have?”

Alchemist Guild Headquarters not only had Pill Masters, there were also guards who were responsible for protecting them and usually in the entire Guild, there would be a few guards stationed at various locations to serve sentry duty.

But today, as Feng Xiaoyan wanted to teach Huang Yueli a lesson, in order not to be disturbed by anyone else, she deliberately sent away the guards.

They wanted to teach Huang Yueli a lesson but instead were kicked onto the ground by Huang Yueli. Initially, Feng Xiaoyan had forgotten about the guards but later on, she remembered that she could call for help but found it too embarrassing hence she didn't call out at all.

After all, a group of third stage realm and above Pill Masters not being able to take care of an ordinary person who didn't have any Profound Energy. If this spreads out.... it would be too embarrassing!

But now that it came to such a state, she couldn't care less if it was embarrassing or not!

She only knew that she was put into such a miserable state by Huang Yueli, having all her face thrown away so she must exact her revenge viciously!

Feng Xiaoyan was practically screaming her head off, “You're not allowed to laugh! Whoever dares to laugh, I'll make sure that he will never be able to laugh for the rest of his lifetime!”

When the guards heard that, they could only forcibly endure it but all of their shoulders were twitching and their faces had all turned bright red, almost suffocating to the point of gaining an internal injury.

“Go over right now and capture that little slut whose surname is Bai! I must torture her properly!” Feng Xiaoyan gave a chilly smile as she said that.

The guards exchanged glances at each other and didn't dare to question further as they headed directly towards Huang Yueli's location.

Honestly speaking, no matter how they look, from left to right and up to down, they felt that Huang Yueli was just a trash beauty who had no cultivation at all so they totally couldn't understand why Feng Xiaoyan wasn't able to deal with her, and instead being tricked into such a state.

But, they weren't totally worried because the guards were different from these Pill Masters who had cultivation but didn't know how to utilise it. They were genuine practitioners! Furthermore, they were once rather famous top exponents within the four sky regions.

Being a guard for the Alchemist Guild was only a form of payment for their medical fees.

It was impossible to play some petty tricks in front of them. With such a huge disparity in cultivation, no matter how high levelled the Profound Skill was, the effect would be limited.

Chapter 1916: Tragic sight (1)

“Little slut, let’s see where you can hide now, aren’t you very smug earlier! If you immediately kneel down and lick my shoes, I might even let you die a quicker death! How about it?”

Huang Yueli didn’t say a single word but silently observed the surrounding environment.

The more tense the situation was, the calmer she was and this was a psychological effect which only top rated exponents had and that had already entered deep into her bones, becoming part of her instinctive ability.

Feng Xiaoyan saw that she didn’t speak a word and shot a glance towards the guards.

The leader immediately stretched out his hand to grab Huang Yueli, “Wretched lass, still not coming over, kneel down in front of Eldest Young Miss... Arghhhh!”

A white light flashed and a flying dagger flew towards the guard’s face.

The guard had totally not expected that this young lady with no cultivation actually resisted and furthermore, her speed was so fast! Hence he was totally caught off guard and it was until the dagger flew towards his face before he hastily evaded it.

Alas, it was still too late as the flying dagger brushed past his face and slit off a piece of meat from his face. Blood started to spill down along his neck.

The guard only felt a sharp pain and when he used his hand to touch his face, his face was filled with clammy blood and his anger instantly flared up.

Actually, Huang Yueli merely made use of hand gestures and the sharpness of the profound armament. She didn’t have any Profound Energy hence the guard had only suffered a little physical pain which wasn’t life threatening at all.

But he had not expected that he would be injured by a weak young lady who had no cultivation, and it was in front of so many people!

This made him lose all his face at once!

“Little slut, you’re looking for death!”

His embarrassment turned into anger as he used all his strength to pounce towards Huang Yueli!

She knew clearly that based on her ability, there was no way that she could defeat an experienced fifth stage realm practitioner. Moreover speaking, even if she could defeat the leader, how about the four, five guards who were waiting by the side. Where would she find such the ability to do so?

But if she fell into their hands, it was imaginable just how miserable her ending would be....

Huang Yueli’s thoughts raced past quickly and her first thought was to run first then think about the consequences later!

Perhaps if she ran to a place where it was more crowded, Feng Xiaoyan would not dare to be so arrogant.

After all, Liu Buyan dared to leave her here alone, definitely because he felt that it was safe for her over here.

Feng Xiaoyan saw that she was about to escape and she started to become anxious as she shouted loudly to urge those guards, "Chase after her! Quickly chase after her and stop her! You cannot allow her to run out of the boundary of this courtyard!"

The people near this courtyard had already been cleared with some excuse hence she dared to act so recklessly.

But if Huang Yueli were to run towards the front courtyard where the Pill Masters gathered, that would spell trouble.

There were just too many Pill Masters who admired Liu Buyan and especially in the eyes of high ranking Pill Masters, the Alchemist Guild Headquarter's President wasn't someone as important. Liu Buyan was their male god and idol in their hearts.

When Huang Yueli heard Feng Xiaoyan's cries, she knew that her judgement was correct and her speed increased to the point of exerting the energy to take in milk, as she speedily sped towards the courtyard entrance!

However, although her Agility Dance Steps was God grade, but without Profound Energy to support, her speed totally couldn't be compared to a fifth stage realm practitioner.

Chapter 1917: Tragic sight (2)

The guards were even faster than her.

When Huang Yueli was just ten over meters away from the courtyard door, some guards had already blocked off the entrance.

When Huang Yueli saw that the route was blocked, she hastily stopped in her tracks and wanted to turn around.

But the guards behind her had already chased up and formed a circle to surround her. In an instance, she actually had no way to retreat and did not know where she could run to.

Feng Xiaoyan cried out excitedly, "Quick! That wretched lass has nowhere to escape anymore! Quickly catch her!"

Just at this crucial moment, Huang Yueli's peripheral view glanced past the corner of the wall and her mind suddenly swooned for a moment when a strange idea popped up in her mind.....

Her feet tapped and she ran towards the side of the wall.

Her action was so swift and the guards were only concerned about preventing her from running out of the courtyard so they totally did not expect her to suddenly change directions hence allowing her to slip out of their encirclement.

But the guards quickly reacted and all of them started to pursue after her.

“You’re only wasting time like this! You’d better surrender quietly, at least you’d be able to suffer lesser pain!”

“Damn it, how dare you still run!”

Amid the curses, Huang Yueli just ran with all her might towards that place and gradually she was forced into a dead end, without any exit and there were several guards chasing after her.

Feng Xiaoyan gave a cold laugh, “Is this wretched lass silly or what? She actually ran towards the dead end by herself! She’s so dumb that there’s no cure for her! This time round, even if she has wings, it will be difficult for her to fly.... Something’s not right, what’s she doing??”

Immediately following that, the courtyard’s surroundings gave off a loud noise and the entire ground started shaking!

“Rumble! Rumble!”

The four corners of the courtyard all sprouted intense flames which rose to the skies as it spiralled around the entire courtyard, circling inside the building in the middle.

“Something bad has happened, fire broke out, FIRE! Quickly run!”

“Heavens, my skirt is on fire, who can save me!”

“Help, it’s so painful! So terrifying!”

No one had expected such an unforeseen event would happen so suddenly and everyone present was caught unaware. Especially those young female Pill Masters who had never met with such dangers, they all momentarily didn’t know what they should do as they only stood at their original positions and screamed loudly.

The fire rose rapidly and it took a few breaths’ time when it had already consumed the building into its bare skeletal structure.

It burnt so badly that the backbone of the roof started to drop down.

When the guards saw that, they all cried out in surprise, “Eldest Young Miss! Ladies, quickly run! If you don’t, it will be too late!”

The young ladies seemed to have awoken from their dreams as they shrilled with all their might while running out.

The four walls of the room had been consumed in raging fire and there was only the door which was the only exit. That door's boundary was already burning so it would only allow one person to pass through at a time.

The young ladies blocked the entrance, fighting to be the first to squeeze out.

Feng Xiaoyan was amongst the crowd and because she had fallen badly earlier, her entire body was hurting hence she totally could not run fast at all. So naturally she wasn't able to squeeze past the others.

"Wait... wait for me! Damnit, I'm the President's daughter, let me leave first! All of you make way!" Feng Xiaoyan howled.

But in a life and death crisis, who would still remember that she was the President's daughter, everyone was only concerned about saving their own lives!

Chapter 1918: Tragic sight (3)

No matter how Feng Xiaoyan squeezed, she was still pushed to the back and she was so anxious that she was about to go crazy.

Not only that, some unidentified young lady, while trying to squeeze out, even kicked her and caused Feng Xiaoyan to trip and fall.

After the knock by the crowd, Feng Xiaoyan fell flat with a "plop" on to the ground and furthermore, her face was facing the ground again.

This time round she ended up in an even more miserable state because the room was on fire and the entire ground had little small flames so when she fell onto the ground, her clothes lit up immediately and it even burnt her face.

Feng Xiaoyan immediately screamed miserably as she rolled on the ground with all that she had got, hoping to extinguish the flames on her.

But the entire room was burning and it would be fine if she didn't roll around. But now that she rolled, she got into contact with even more flames and the fire on her started to intensify as the flames were all spreading around and very quickly, it enveloped her in the middle.

The guards originally were a little afraid of seeing the monstrosity of the fire and didn't dare to head up to save them, thinking to make the young ladies run out of their own.

But when the room started emitting Feng Xiaoyan's miserable shrills, it gave all of them a huge fright.

The one crying out miserably was the President's eldest daughter. If something happened to her, all the guards present would be in huge trouble!

After a long period of time, Feng Xiaoyan was then dragged out by an ashen-faced guard.

Her current state had already been burnt to a crisp and black state, totally immovable as she allowed someone to drag her out so no one knew how her condition was.

The young ladies who followed Feng Xiaoyan here to create troubles were genuinely terrified.

“Heavens! Feng... Senior Sister Feng she.... how did she.... how is she now? Has she..... di....died?”

“But, earlier it was still alright, why did it suddenly catch fire? What on earth happened?”

“Right, earlier everyone was busy trying to teach Bai Ruoli that little slut a lesson and totally didn’t notice if any accident had occurred causing the fire?”

Someone gave a terrified panting sound, “Could it be.... Could it be that wretched lass Bai Ruoli who was causing mischief?”

“How could that be possible? She doesn’t know anything at all and earlier she was pursued until she had no way out, how could she possibly set off the fire? It should be an accident?” Someone immediately denied that idea.

“But speaking of that, where is Bai Ruoli? Could it be that she took the opportunity and slipped away?”

Everyone had just experienced a round of unforeseen event and had long forgotten about Huang Yueli so it was at this moment in time when they finally remembered to look for her.

She wasn’t dumb at all and she finally found a chance to escape so why would she stay at the original spot, waiting for someone to continue creating trouble for her?

If she didn’t leave now, when should she wait till?

At the very moment the fire started, she took the opportunity while the guards’ attentions were shifted and strutted right out of the main entrance openly.

Initially, she didn’t even turn her head back as she walked away but after a distance of around a hundred meters or more, not only did the explosions behind her not stop, instead it intensified and that made her stop in her tracks.

Huang Yueli turned around and gazed at the small courtyard which had already been engulfed by flames and couldn’t help but wrinkled her little forehead as she was filled with puzzlement.

“Strange, what did I just... what did I just do? Could it be that... I’ve accidentally activated a mechanism?”

Chapter 1919: Tragic sight (4)

From the burst of the flames in the courtyard’s surroundings, it was definitely the activation of a mechanism.

Alchemist Guild Headquarters had stored a large quantity of confidential secrets and exquisite levelled medicinal pills so the internal sector was mostly protected by various mechanisms and arrays so this was nothing strange at all.

Liu Buyan had also once warned her not to touch anything that she had never seen before, in case she accidentally triggered off some mechanism and got injured because of that.

But how could she possibly know that below that piece of ordinary looking brick wall, was hiding such an incredible mechanism?

Recalling to the moment earlier, she herself didn't know what was wrong as her fingers seemed as though they were uncontrollable and directly just pressed that piece of brick down.....

It just coincidentally was that mechanism.

This was really strange, how could she possibly know that there was a mechanism there?

Could it be that... she had been tangled by some "dirty things"?

Thinking of this, Huang Yueli's face turned green, "Must have seen a ghost, this Alchemist Guild really is not compatible with me! Brother Liu had just left for a couple of days and so many strange matters happened!"

If it wasn't for the fact that her memory had not returned back to her, she totally wanted to leave.

But now she still couldn't remember anything at all, and without a single bit of cultivation, if she left this place, she didn't know where she was supposed to go.....

The explosions finally attracted other people's attention and not too long later, a large group of people sped towards the small courtyard.

Three mornings later, someone knocked on Huang Yueli's door.

The minute she opened the door, two guards were standing at the entrance.

"Young Miss Bai, we'd have to trouble you to make a trip with us. President wishes to meet you."

Huang Yueli knew that this was definitely because of the farce which had happened three days ago.

Yesterday night she had already heard the female attendant who served her mentioned that Feng Xiaoyan's injuries were extremely serious. Not only did she have a deep burn scar on her face, even her fingers were burnt so badly until it had changed shape.

Although the Alchemist Guild Headquarters had the best medicine for burns in the entire Soaring Heavens Continent, but it wasn't able to treat her scars until it totally resumed her back to her original state so they could only administer the basic treatment while waiting for Liu Buyan to return to treat her.

To a Pill Master, a pair of hands was the most important asset and if one didn't have lively fingers, no matter how much innate talent one had, there was no way to refine pills.

When Feng Xiaoyan heard this bad news, she fainted on the spot and when she regained her consciousness, she practically washed her face with tears every day.

But since the Alchemist Guild's President looked for her, that meant that this problem wouldn't be easily solved....

Huang Yueli thought about this and said, "Will the both of you please kindly wait for a short moment."

The two guards were very respectful towards Liu Buyan hence their attitudes were extremely courteous as they waited patiently at the entrance.

When Huang Yueli returned to the room, she took out a small wooden token from the secret compartment by the bedside and stuffed it into her sleeve before following them over to the main hall.

Those present were all veteran Elders in the Alchemist Guild and everyone was whispering in one another's ears, discussing the matter which happened three days ago.

"What on earth is going on? How did a fire suddenly start under broad daylight?"

"I heard that the Books Depository's self-destruction mechanism had been triggered by someone! Within a quarter of an hour, the entire courtyard had burnt to ashes."

Chapter 1920: You're actually such a person! (1)

"Self-destruction mechanism! This... This is just too inconceivable, who activated the self-destruction mechanism?"

"I heard that.... it was Divine Doctor Liu's fiancée?"

"Divine Doctor Liu has a fiancée? What kind of person is she? An Armament Master?"

"What Armament Master? She's just an ordinary young lass who can't be more ordinary than this. She is indeed a beauty but she doesn't have a single bit of cultivation innate talent at all. Not to mention refining armaments, she doesn't even have any cultivation!"

"What kind of joke are you cracking? An ordinary person can casually activate the self

-destruction mechanism? I've been in the Alchemist Guild for twenty over years and even I don't know how to activate these mechanisms!"

“Isn’t that so? So that’s why this incident is too strange! Moreover President’s daughter Feng Xiaoyan was seriously injured in this explosion and it was rumoured that President Feng was extremely anxious over her!”

Just at this moment, the attendant came in to report, “President, Elders, Young Miss Bai Ruoli has arrived.”

“Invite her in.”

Everyone’s eyes widened as they looked out of the door curiously, wanting to take a look at what kind of person was Bai Ruoli!

Most of the Elders lived a secluded life and only had their minds on refining pills so they had totally not met Liu Buyan’s rumoured fiancée.

For so many years, Liu Buyan seemed like a Casanova and actually he had no female partner who he was willing to admit officially so everyone assumed that he had high expectations. They somehow felt that if there was a day when he eventually settled down, the other party would definitely be a talented young lady with outstanding innate talent and brilliant talents....

Although she was beautiful but a beauty without corresponding ability, could only be a vase.

Everyone looked at each other in dismay and even the President Feng Zhensheng looked at Huang Yueli in astonishment.

Huang Yueli paid her respects in an old-fashioned woman’s obeisance way unruffled, as she opened her mouth and spoke in neither servile nor overbearing manner, “President Feng, Elders, may I know the reason why you asked for me to come over?”

Huang Yueli nodded her head.

Feng Zhensheng apparently didn’t believe that as he frowned, “When did the two of you get engaged? Why doesn’t This President know about it at all?”

When Huang Yueli heard that, she felt displeasure but spoke out calmly, “What does President Feng mean by this? You’re not Brother Liu nor my parents or our Masters, so does that mean that when we got engaged, we must inform you? If you have any doubts, why don’t you personally ask Brother Liu himself instead!”

Although Liu Buyan's temper looks mild with a witty style of conversation and was easy to talk to, but Feng Zhensheng knew clearly that Liu Buyan was the kind akin to a smiling tiger and usually he was easy to get along with. But if one really angered him, he wasn't some easy fellow to deal with!

Moreover speaking, Liu Buyan was the Alchemist Guild's living signboard so who dared to offend him?

Thinking of this, Feng Zhensheng's tone softened a little.

"Hur hur, Young Miss Bai is mistaken, I only felt surprised.... Young Miss Bai please have a seat."

Huang Yueli took a seat calmly.

Feng Zhensheng coughed and said, "Young Miss Bai should know why This President had invited you to make a trip over. The fire that happened in the Books Depository a few days earlier, you were present then?"
