

Weaponsmith 1993

Chapter 1993: Self-sentimental (2)

With no alternative, she had no choice but to run out to check on it.

The apprentices in the other cubicles were along the same corridor and the sound proofing was very bad.

At this very moment, other than Huang Yueli, all the other apprentices were crowded along the corridor.

“Quick, quickly go and take a look. I heard that Divine Doctor Dai sent someone over to ask us all to gather in front, to announce this round of assessment results!”

“What? So fast? Hadn’t Steward Qin said that we must wait until tomorrow morning to get the result?”

“Heavens knows what’s going on? Perhaps Divine Doctor Dai happens to be free so they’re announcing the results earlier?”

“Sigh, no matter if it’s announced earlier or later, the result will still be the same! I only harvested five to six stalks of medicinal herbs this time and the condition wasn’t very good. This time, I will definitely be eliminated! Looks like tomorrow morning I’ll have to separate with Senior Brothers!”

“What are you saying? The medicinal herbs that I harvested are almost the same as your, so probably I’d be chased away as well! Shu Yali was boasting this afternoon that she had successfully harvested fifteen stalks! Indeed one of the more outstanding geniuses within our batch, comparing one against another is so irritating! I really envy her so much!”

When the other apprentices heard that, they also started to exclaim in admiration at Shu Yali’s results.

To be able to harvest a medicinal herb at two levels higher and successfully harvesting so many, this kind of innate talent would at least allow her to become a seventh ranked Pill Master, how would they not envy her?

Shu Yali’s face was filled with complacency as she walked with light steps towards the front hall.

When she submitted the jade box, she was certain that this time she would absolutely be able to get first place!

Moreover her luck was also very good. The success rate of her harvest was much higher than usual, which had exceeded her usual performance.

She self-assumed that having the standard of being able to harvest fifteen stalks, she should be able to show her face in front of Divine Doctor Dai for a moment.

Having suffered grievances in Divine Doctor Dai’s courtyard for an entire three days, she was just waiting for this moment to let the other Pill Masters know that she, Shu Yali’s innate talent superseded those from her generation!

Huang Yueli followed walking out too.

Shu Yali happened to walk past her room door and when she turned back, she saw Huang Yueli's slim and graceful figure.

Her eyes squinted as a surge of jealousy gushed up in her heart.

If one were to ask who she hated the most, the number one person would absolutely belong to Huang Yueli right now!

Originally Huang Yueli who bore such a devastating gorgeous look which could cause harm to the country and people, even monopolizing all of Liu Buyan's attention, had already made Shu Yali extremely uncomfortable. But unfortunately a few days ago, she was slapped on the face by Huang Yueli!

In front of the other Pill Masters, her memorisation wasn't comparable to Huang Yueli and that matter had already become a small episode and laughing point for the others to gossip about while they were idle!

Now she finally had the chance to gain back her face!

Shu Yali intentionally walked next to Huang Yueli and sneered, "Isn't this Young Miss Bai? Are you also out to listen to the assessment results? Speaking of this, I really admire your skin, it's really thick! If I were you, I'd have long dug a hole and hid inside it, where would I find the cheek to embarrass myself?"

Huang Yueli shot a glance at her with a smile which didn't look like a smile.

"I wonder, who's the one who will be embarrassed..."

When Shu Yali heard that, she couldn't help but laughed out loudly, "Hahaha, this is really killing me! Surely you wouldn't have assumed that just casually harvesting the medicinal herb would be considered as successful right? When you submitted it, it was practically a pile of withered dried grass! Are you still dreaming that you will be able to win me?"

Huang Yueli's face still retained a faint smile on her face when she heard her finishing her words.

Chapter 1994: Self-sentimental (3)

"If I really win you, what will you say about that?"

Hearing that, Shu Yali finally stopped laughing as she turned her head back and looked at her suspiciously, "You... what trickery are you up to now?"

Huang Yueli shrugged her shoulders and said, "What other things could I possibly come out with? I only want to remind you not to be too full with your words, in case you overturn your boat like the last time. It wouldn't be worth it to be slapped hard on the face again..."

She spoke gently as her sweet voice sounded melodious even though she was making out threatening words.

However, this tone made Shu Yali feel even more uncomfortable instead!

Thinking of the last time when she completely lost to Huang Yueli, her heart hurt so much as though it was on fire.

“Stop right there!” She moved forward once more and stopped Huang Yueli, “Do you really think that you are able to win? Do you dare to have another bet with me again?”

Huang Yueli stopped her footsteps, “Bet again? Are you certain?”

Shu Yali was actually feeling a little apprehensive because the previous time, Huang Yueli also used the same kind of tone with this kind of indifferent look.

Back then, she felt that Huang Yueli was certain to lose but in the end, the other party was just pretending to be a boar to eat the tiger, scamming her viciously!

Then this time...

Shu Yali bit her lips hard, “I’m certain! This time round it depends on a Pill Master’s real skill, you’ll lose for certain! Later, I also want you to lower your head and apologize to me, admitting that you can’t be compared to me!”

“Then what if I win?”

“If you win, I will stop being a Pill Master anymore!” Shu Yali was agitated and the words shot out of her mouth!

Huang Yueli laughed and said, “There’s no need to do that. Your pill refining innate talent is not so bad so wouldn’t it be a waste to not be a Pill Master? If you lose, no matter what rank Pill Master you become in future, half of the medicinal pills you refine in future must be given to me free-of-charge as compensation, how about that?”

When Shu Yali heard that, she sneered, “Your idea isn’t too bad, intending to let me refine pills for you for free? Too bad.... it’s all daydreaming!”

“Then.... we shall agree on this!”

Huang Yueli didn’t make any more explanations as she smiled and turned to leave.

From the other Pill Masters’ conversations, she had already heard that Shu Yali only managed to harvest fifteen stalks of medicinal herbs, so she definitely could not match up to her.

Even though she didn’t know why she could harvest that many, but only a fool would not take advantage so she naturally wouldn’t let such a good chance go.

In such an easy and simple way, a free indentured labour has been lured into her hands!

The both of them entered the main hall one after another.

A middle aged steward dressed in a grey long robe was already waiting impatiently and on seeing them, he immediately asked, “Are these the last two? Now everyone is finally all here!”

Shu Yali automatically walked up to welcome him as she said, “Master Steward, everyone is here so may I ask who is the number one place for this round and has that person managed to satisfy Divine Doctor Dai? Does that person have any qualification to stay back to be the apprentice?”

The middle aged steward's expression was very strange, "Apprentice? What joke are you cracking? This time round, among everyone in this batch, someone is running high on luck! Divine Doctor Dai had personally witnessed the fruits of your harvest and was so happy that he's going amok. There's a peerless genius here with an extremely high pill refining innate talent, and the future for that person is incomparable to Divine Doctor Liu! He specially asked me to bring her over, preparing to take her in as his direct disciple!"

"What??"

Hearing that, everyone revealed an astonished look, and at the same time, everyone shot their gazes over to Shu Yali.
