Chapter 2541: It's an illness, must treat! (10)

If it was just one or two days, it was still fine but it had been half a month so even Bai Liufeng could tell that something was wrong as he enquired her worriedly.

“Lass Li, what’s happening between you and stinky brat these days? Have the both of you quarrelled?”

Huang Yueli went blank for a moment but subconsciously didn’t want others to find out, “N... Nothing? Why would Father think in this way?”

“Really?” Bai Liufeng stared at her as he didn’t quite trust what she said, “The both of you really didn’t quarrel? Then why haven’t I been seeing the both of you together? By right, the both of you are a couple who had just got married so you should be sticking together every single day! Why is it that the both of you are shut inside your own courtyards and whenever that stinky brat comes to look for you, you don’t even want to bother much about him?”

Huang Yueli pouted her little lips, “Father, you’re really thinking too much! Since when did I ignore him? You’re the one who said that since I’m already married, I should work even harder to cultivate. Based on my current ability and being together with Li Moying, if I run into another danger, it will be very difficult to protect myself! Isn’t this what you said?”

Bai Liufeng replied, “That’s right, I did say that but....”

“There’s no buts! Moying and I are very well, so Father, don’t you worry about it for nothing!”

Huang Yueli expounded Bai Liufeng but she realised that she and Li Moying could not let this drag on.

Even Bai Liufeng who had never liked Li Moying also spoke up for that man, then in the eyes of the others in Blue Profound Sect, she and Li Moying definitely were extremely abnormal!

“But, this man is really too difficult to deal with! Before we were married, he was obviously not like this, why....”

Huang Yueli’s brows wrinkled together for quite a while when she suddenly thought of something and was stunned, “Surely not right? Could it be.... because.... it’s not possible right?”

She recounted everything that happened since the wedding night till today, recollecting all her memories from the start to the end.

The more she tried to recall in detail, the more she felt that her guess was extremely correct!

“So it’s like this... no wonder he actually.... still tried to hide this from me intentionally! No way, I must go find Senior Brother to ask about this!”

Huang Yueli instantly threw aside the Profound Armament which she was refining halfway through as she anxiously ran to where Liu Buyan stayed.

“Senior Brother, Senior Brother, quickly come out! I have something important to ask you!” The moment she stepped in, she cried out loudly as she looked left and right to look for him.

How would Liu Buyan even dare to offend this little ancestor of his so he immediately walked out, “Junior Sister, what’s the matter with you? You’re in such a feisty mood, who offended you again?”

Huang Yueli’s eyeballs rolled as she stared at him, “Senior Brother, you are really not friend enough!”

“What do you mean?” Liu Buyan was stunned.

“Don’t hide it from me, I already know what Moying is hiding from me! Moreover, you’re the accomplice. During our wedding night, you suddenly charge into the bridal room with the others just to cause a disturbance, because you already know the truth, isn’t it?” Huang Yueli accused angrily.

Liu Buyan’s heart thumped hard!

What was going on? Huang Yueli already knew... about that matter?

He had not expected that the secret would actually be exposed so quickly by Huang Yueli?

But this secret should only be known to both himself and Li Moying only?

Moreover, it was Li Moying who didn’t allow him to say so logically speaking, he himself shouldn’t have leaked out the secret right? Then where did Huang Yueli heard this from?

“Junior Sister, you... listen to my explanation!”

Chapter 2542: Don’t be too self-abased (1)

Seeing Huang Yueli’s face as black as the bottom of the pot, seemingly about to fall out with him anytime, Liu Buyan felt a wave of guilt over him.

Huang Yueli hmped coldly, “No need to explain, I already know what had happened! Senior Brother, I know you and him have been good friends in the past so it’s normal for you to help him hide this secret! But regarding this matter, I’m the one who should hold the most right to find out the truth right? If he wants to go for treatment, surely he will need my coordination too, right?”

Liu Buyan’s face instantly changed when he heard that, “Junior Sister, you must know that I’m definitely standing on your side! I did this, it’s all for your own good...”

“What’s good about it? Like us now, it has already affected our married couple’s feelings! If I found out about the truth earlier, I will definitely help him...”

“No no no, you can’t help him!”

“Why? Why can’t I help him? Although I haven’t learnt medical skills for a long time, but this kind of common sense is something that I know about and this kind of illness requires both husband and wife to mutually administer and treat together, doesn’t it?”

“What treat together, don’t you know that in order to cure Li Moying, what kind of price would you have to pay for it?” Liu Buyan was so anxious that he almost jumped up.

But Huang Yueli had a puzzled look on her face, “What price? Aren’t we already married? Then... isn’t it a very normal thing? I totally don’t suffer from any losses at all?”

Liu Buyan originally thought of many ways to convince Huang Yueli.

But upon hearing this, he suddenly seemed to have reacted to what was happening!

From Huang Yueli's tone, she seemed as though she still doesn't know that in order to really cure Li Moying, what price she would have to pay.... In this case, actually she hadn't read those remnant pages from <<Drifting Cloud Scroll>> in Li Moying's hands yet?

"Ughh, this....."

Huang Yueli was very apt in observing one's body language and on seeing Liu Buyan's expression not quite right, she started to become suspicious, "Wait, Senior Brother, aren't we talking about the same matter? What other matters are you actually hiding from me?"

Liu Buyan silently cried out how lucky he was! He hastily tried to pull the topic back, "No, it's not what you imagined... I already forgot that the both of you had already got married...."

"Really? Such a big matter for me and Moying to get married and you can actually forget about it? Senior Brother, your tone of speaking doesn't seem quite right today?" Huang Yueli remained suspicious.

Liu Buyan hurriedly said, "Junior Sister, you must force me to admit it right? Alright, I just can't stand you and Li Moying being lovey dovey every single day, hence I intentionally hid this from you..."

Saying that, he even put on a hurt and disappointed look intentionally.

From the start, he pretended to be upset but very soon when he recalled that the young lady whom he was secretly in love for so many years had already married.....

That feeling of heartache totally didn't require him to pretend!

Huang Yueli stared at him for a long time, seemingly trying to judge if what he said was true or false.

But Liu Buyan's expression was simply too realistic and she ultimately still relaxed her alertness, "Alright then, I can forget about this this time round but next time, if it concerns Moying's matters, you have to tell me at the first instance!"

"Yes yes yes, Junior Sister's words are something that I do not dare to not listen to!" Liu Buyan agreed immediately.

Huang Yueli nodded her head and said, "Then... do you have.. that kind of medication here?"

Liu Buyan went blank and slightly wasn't able to respond in time, "That kind of medication? What kind?"

Huang Yueli frowned as she looked at him, "Senior Brother, why are you so retarded? Do you need me to spell it out so clearly? It's just.... that kind of medication!"

Chapter 2543: Don't be too self-abased (2)

"Oh... so you're referring to THAT kind of medication....."

On seeing that Huang Yueli about to raise her suspicions again, Liu Buyan reacted instantly as he went alone with the flow of her tone.

But, he was feeling extremely dazed inside his heart.

What on earth was Junior Sister talking about?? What this kind of medication, that kind of medication, why couldn't he understand her completely?

No way, he had to think of a way quickly because he had finally managed to hide it from Junior Sister so he couldn't possibly blow his own cover so quickly!

Huang Yueli hurriedly nodded her head, "That's right, Senior Brother is the Continent's Number One Pill Master so coming up with that kind of medication should be a simple task right? Although I don't know what is the cause of Moying's illness, but I feel that he is still physically healthy so perhaps it might be a psychological problem? This kind of situation only requires the aid of medicinal pills for the first time and in future, there wouldn't be too much of a problem..."

When Liu Buyan heard this point, he finally understood what she was trying to say.

Immediately following that, his lips started to twitch non-stop and his entire body also started to shake.

This was exceeding, so it's actually like this!

His Junior Sister actually felt that Li Moying was impotent!

Huang Yueli kept on talking and wasn't able to get a response from Liu Buyan so she shot a curious look at him, to discover that the expression on his face was extremely strange and she uncontrollably frowned.

"Senior Brother, what's the matter? Why do you look so uncomfortable? Have you eaten something bad?"

Eaten something bad? He was stifling his laughs so much that he was about to suffer from internal injury!

If it wasn't for the fact that Huang Yueli stood right in front of him, he really wanted to roll a few rounds on the ground!

The brilliant, martial, powerful Li Moying who had always been dignified was actually suspected by his bride for being impotent! This was really the funniest joke that he had heard for this entire year!

He really wondered if Li Moying were to hear this news, what kind of expression would he bore on his face?

But they really couldn't blame Huang Yueli for this because she didn't know the real reason why Li Moying refused to consummate with her and neither would she suspect the feelings that they had for each other.

In this way, the only possibility for the both of not to not be able to consummate was because the man was impotent! It was such a reasonable and logical guess!

Moreover, in this past period of time, Li Moying's important matter that must be kept a secret really was the perfect excuse because of his impotence and self-abuse!

Liu Buyan used his hand to cover his own mouth, as he covered it up by several coughs before he managed to suppress the amusement in his heart.

“Cough cough, Junior Sister, it’s not that I’ve eaten something bad. It’s just that.... I’ve caught a bit of flu and it’s not something major.....”

Huang Yueli took a look at him, “Really? It’s good that you’re alright, then the medication that I need...”

Liu Buyan always laughed out loud, “Ughh, this.... Junior Sister... this illness of his... you can’t be too anxious, and you can’t rush it! You giving him such a ferocious drug like this would cause his body more harm. If he can’t be cured, it might even worsen!”

For that one instance, Liu Buyan really wanted to come out with a vial of the most incredible ferocious drug without a care.

By then, he would be able to see Li Moying being tormented by his desire as he was forced to neither move forward nor retreat backwards!

Anyway, seeing Li Moying running into bad luck was the greatest enjoyment to him.

However, Liu Buyan soon retracted this idea. If Li Moying really wasn’t able to control himself and harmed Huang Yueli, the losses incurred would outweigh the gains!

So no matter how much he wanted to make Li Moying embarrassed, it was impossible for him to do this.

Huang Yueli pouted, “Really can’t do that? Then what should I do?”

Chapter 2544: Don’t be too self-abased (3)

Liu Buyan’s thoughts raced quickly, “Ughh, about this.... I can’t just casually come out with a prescription for Li Moying. I haven’t even checked on the patient’s symptoms and just giving him medication like this is an irresponsible act! So you’d best quickly bring Li Moying over first and let me do a check-up for him!”

And mock him at the same time!

No, not just once, but two, three, four, five times!

Aiyo, he was feeling a tummy ache again! The expression on his face was about to loosen!

Huang Yueli had not noticed his expression but instead delved into deep thoughts, “But this doesn’t seem right? If Moying himself was willing to come check, he wouldn’t have intentionally hid this from me and would have told me long ago! Now that he’s like this, he’s evidently self-abased and is unwilling to let me find out... no way, I have to first think of other ways. If I really can’t cure him, then I’ll bring him over...”

Hearing this, Liu Buyan also started to perk up as he started to load lots of rotten ideas onto her.

“Why not like this! Use this medication here that I have, the medicinal effect is overly intense but if you ingest it with food, the effects would be moderated by quite a lot! Moreover, medicinal cuisines, no matter what, are mostly harmless to the body so there’s no need to worry about the after effects...”

When Huang Yueli heard that, her eyes lit up and she nodded her head, “Senior Brother, what you say is right! I’d better first cook some medicinal dishes for Moying! What suitable prescriptions do you have? The best would be with great medicinal effects and without any side effects!”

Liu Buyan's eyes twinkled as he took the pen, inkstone and paper to start scribbling away. He wrote a prescription for a medicinal cuisine and handed it over to Huang Yueli.

"You can just follow this and cook! Li Moying would know that there would be a problem with most ordinary medicinal cuisines and he might not take it. But this prescription of mine is not commonly seen in the market and he would definitely be taken off guard. What's more, the taste isn't bad at all so he'd definitely be hooked!"

In reality, he was worried that the ordinary medicinal effects would be too strong, and Li Moying would not be able to take it, hence committing the mistake.

Even though the Number One Top Expert's self-restraint was much stronger than most practitioners, but he was going to face his little wife of several decades so who knew what degree could he endure till?

Liu Buyan's prescription was rather nourishing but the symptoms of blood and qi surging was rather obvious. It was not necessary to mate with a woman and just cultivating for an entire night would allow his fire to extinguish.

Huang Yueli kept away the prescription and said gratefully, "Senior Brother, thank you so much!"

Liu Buyan nodded his head and watched her left, somehow feeling a little sympathy for Li Moying.

He wondered tonight, what kind of inhumane torture would he suffer from?

.....

Levitation Sword Palace, main hall's study room.

Li Moying was seated upright in front of the table, as he was buried in large amount of ancient classics.

This period of time, he had already sensed that his ability seemed to have met a bottleneck but no matter how he tried his best to cultivate, the speed of ascending was rather limited.

This had already verified <<Drifting Cloud Scroll>>'s remnant pages' content because his primordial spirit had been sliced by half, hence his cultivation for the rest of his life would always be limited and was greatly reduced as compared to in his past life.

Of course, Li Moying's character was overbearing so he naturally wouldn't admit defeat easily.

This period of time, he had been flipping through various ancient classics and manuals and tried to train different cultivation methods, hoping that he would be able to find a way to break through the bottleneck.

"Knock knock!"

Just as he lowered his head and was fully concentrated on researching the cultivation method, the door came a series of knocking sounds.

Li Moying's brows creased impatiently, "Hasn't this Sovereign already said that if there's nothing important, no one is to come disturb This Sovereign?"

Chapter 2545: Don't be too self-abased (4)

His voice was extremely cold and pressuring.

Because he was engaged in a cold war with Huang Yueli in this period of time, Li Moying's mood had dropped to the bottom of the valley, somehow just seeing everything displeasing to his eyes.

No matter if it was Cang Po Jun or Levitation Sword Palace's female attendants, as long as they weren't careful, he would vent his anger on them.

So during this period of time, no one dared to come close to the study room, nor did they dare to defy Li Moying's orders.

The knocking sound outside the study room stopped but very quickly, another three knocks were heard.

Li Moying's fury rose, "Who is that outside, can't you understand human language?"

A man with unfulfilled desire somehow had a bad mood, moreover for Li Moying who had this kind of difficulty which he could not voice out.

However, the person outside the study room did not leave just because of this.

The sweet young lady's voice was heard, "Moying are you still busy? I've made you some supper, do you want to eat a little?"

Li Moying's body jolted, "Li'er?"

He stood up in a second and in just a few steps, he rushed towards the door and pulled it open.

Huang Yueli was dressed in a white flowing dress and her hand was holding on to a large serving tray. Her small and exquisite face was slightly flushed, as her head tilted a little while looking at him.

"Moying, there's nothing important, but... can I interrupt you for a while?"

When Li Moying saw her dainty little face, whatever enormous rage that he had was instantly extinguished. Moreover the reason why he was in a bad mood was originally because he missed her too much.

He hurried over to take the tray from Huang Yueli while the other hand pulled her hand into the study room, "Of course you can, Li'er, you've come over to visit me, how can that be called an interruption? Quickly come in!"

Huang Yueli blinked her large eyes as she followed behind him and entered the study room.

Seeing Li Moying's performance, she was even more affirmative that her guess wasn't wrong.

Li Moying's feelings for her had not changed at all and seeing her made him so joyous and passionate, yet he just didn't touch her....

This was absolutely a problem with his body!

Li Moying put the serving tray on a low table behind the screen and pulled Huang Yueli to sit on the chaise lounge to have a rest as his deep black eyes kept roving around her.

"Li'er, have you been fine these few days? You... you're not angry at me already?"

When he headed out this morning to look for Huang Yueli but he was mercilessly swept out of her room!

Now Li'er actually came to look for him on her own, this really made him extremely surprised!

When Huang Yueli heard that, she first swept a glance at him.

Her icy fleeting gaze made Li Moying's back feel a chill running down his spine and he sat upright immediately, as he fearfully waited for the sentence to be pronounced.

Looking at him in this manner, Huang Yueli couldn't help but burst out laughing, "Alright, seeing you so anxious like this, how am I able to continue getting angry? Moreover speaking, we have already gone through the ceremony and got married, could I continue to keep ignoring you?"

Li Moying looked at her, apparently touched, "Li'er, I... sorry, I know I have made you unhappy but there's something that I really cannot tell you..."

Huang Yueli replied empathetically, "Alright, if you don't wish to say, then don't say it out. I believe that if you are hiding something from me, it's all because you're thinking for me or perhaps you're still not prepared! Anyway, you must believe that no matter what happens, I will be standing by your side and after you have thought it through, you must tell me!"

Li Moying squeezed her hand tightly, so touched that he didn't know what else he should say.

After a while later, Huang Yueli withdrew his hand and pointed to the medicinal cuisine on the serving tray.

"Moying, you have been in the study room for the past few days and it's been tiring for you. I specially stewed a bowl of medicinal cuisine for you personally."

"Quick, come drink it while it's still warm!" Huang Yueli personally picked up the medicinal cuisine and delivered it to Li Moying's face.

Moying didn't suspect anything and instantly lifted his head to finish it all.

Huang Yueli's lips curled and sat right opposite him and secretly observed his reaction while chatting with him about the official matters.

"Today when I went over to my Father's side, I happened to meet Guardian Yu. I heard that his injury had gradually started to improve and he would study meticulously on Snow Phoenix Palace's arrays with my Father every day. The two of them seemed like old friends on their first meeting and were extremely congenial. I heard that both of them had already decoded a majority of Snow Phoenix Palace's arrays!"

Li Moying's eyes lit up and he expressed happily, "That's really great! As long as these arrays are decoded, the next step should be to head over to Northern Ice Fields to rescue your mother!"

Huang Yueli smiled as she nodded, "It should be so! But my father said that in this short period of time, it's still not possible to head over because he still needs to make more preparations and this time round, he must rescue my mother out in one go!"

“That’s right, Lord Zhan is such an unfathomable person and moreover he works very discreetly.... Help me convey this to Father-in-law, that no matter what kind of support he requires, he can let me know and I’ll gather the entire Blue Profound Sect’s resources to help him!” Li Moying said.

Huang Yueli stuck out her tongue, “I’ve already told Father this long ago! But Father said he doesn’t need you to be a busybody, just take good care of his daughter and that will do!”

“Father-in-law really is.....”

Li Moying sighed softly but his gaze had completely been attracted by Huang Yueli’s sticking out of her little tongue.

That pure and innocent yet dainty little face, under the dim glow of the lights became even more alluring.

Li Moying sensed a scorching warmth scuttering from his lower abdomen and his entire body was extremely hot, which made him unable to sit or stand still.

He wanted to force himself to shift his sight away, but his body seemed as though it didn’t listen to his commands and his eyes were fully concentrated on that pair of pink lips which was opening and closing.

“Moying, Moying? Are you listening to me?” Huang Yueli asked with a tender voice, as her large watery eyes were sparkling.

Watching Li Moying’s stiff expression, she was able to guess that the medicinal cuisine that he ate earlier had already started to take effect.

Li Moying’s face was slightly flushed and after staring at her for a long duration, he suddenly stretched out his hand and locked onto her wrist, pulling her into his arms.

“Mo... ying.... um um!”

His robust and powerful arm wrapped around the young lady’s slender waist, as his kisses anxiously landed on her lips.

In the past ten days, the flame that was continuously suppressed started burning intensely in his heart. At this juncture, it was completely unleashed!

Li Moying’s kisses were like scorching flames, which instantly lit the young lady in his arms instantly.

Huang Yueli completely did not resist as she put her arms around his neck and kissed him back with vigor!

As she was now seated on top of Li Moying’s thigh, she could even distinctly feel Li Moying’s excited reaction.....

Huang Yueli got a little anxious instinctively, but even more than that, she was delighted.

She was just saying, how was it possible for her husband to not have any interest in her? Just this small illness, she would definitely be able to rid him of the illness totally!

Huang Yueli passionately responded to Li Moying's kisses while simultaneously sensing the man hugging her tighter and closer than before.

Suddenly, Li Moying stood up in a second and her body also flew into mid-air at the same time!

Chapter 2547: Don't be too self-abased (6)

Huang Yueli gave off a soft shrill as she sensed herself being carried by her man, placing her gently on the soft mattress by the side which was used for resting purposes.

This time round there shouldn't be any problem!

Although it was a little embarrassing to be intimate in the study room, but now it didn't seem like there was much time to haggle over this...

Huang Yueli was both anxious and excited as she let her thoughts run wild but she suddenly discovered that after Li Moying put her down, he did not lean over as she had expected but instead he stood right up again!

Just like what happened during the past few nights after their wedding, he was prepared to flee once again!

Seeing Li Moying shooting like an arrow to the entrance, Huang Yueli gave a cold humph, "Stop there!"

However, Li Moying didn't stop but instead dashed out directly.

Huang Yueli was crying out in rage as she leapt upwards and chased after him!

Li Moying heard the footsteps behind him but instead of stopping, he speeded up.

"Young Sect Master Li, what's going on? You're running so fast, if there a ghost chasing after you?:"

One of them was pursuing while the other was escaping and they charged right outside the study room, totally not paying any attention that there was someone else along the corridor.

At this moment when they heard someone speaking, Huang Yueli's footsteps took a halt as she looked astonishedly at the corner, and saw Li Buyan.

"Sen...Senior Brother?" Her eyes widened.

However, in that instance where she stopped, Li Moying disappeared from her sight in just a few flashes.

Huang Yueli's expression stiffened as she stomped her feet exasperatedly, "Damnit, what on earth is wrong with Moying! Why did he run away so quickly! Could it be that he really hates me so much? But everything was perfectly normal at first, why...."

Why was it that they were already at the last step and he fled every single time?

Seeing Huang Yueli about to fly into a rage, Liu Buyan walked over instantly as he placated her, "Junior Sister, don't be angry. What happened between you and Li Moying in the study room? Tell Senior Brother and I'll help you think of a way!"

Huang Yueli pursed her lips and when she recalled that the medicinal cuisine was given to her by Liu Buyan, she finally calmed down a little and said, "Today I followed according to the prescription for the medical cuisine that you gave me and personally brewed a bowl, bringing it over to the study room..."

"Li Moying really drank it?" Liu Buyan's eyes were filled with laughter which revealed that he was gloating over his misfortune, but he concealed it by lowering his head.

Huang Yueli replied, "The stuff that I brought over for him, how could it be possible for him to not drink it? Later on, he indeed became very passionate and we... ughh, anyway, it's just that... but later on he ran off again! I really don't understand, why on earth is he running away!"

Liu Buyan stifled his laughter, just short of almost twitching from it.

He coughed consecutively several times before he suppressed his laughter, "Cough cough, Junior Sister, I have already understood the situation that you mentioned. From the looks of it, Moying's illness should be rather serious so it's probably not something that you can cure with just a bowl or two medicinal cuisines."

"Then what should I do?" Huang Yueil asked worriedly as her brows furrowed.

Liu Buyan replied, "Don't be overly anxious. The most taboo about this kind of illness is to be overly anxious so we can only treat this slowly.... How about this, don't give Li Moying too much pressure first. Go back earlier to rest and I'll have a good chat with him, to convince him to accept my treatment."

Huang Yueli thought over this and frowned as she said, "I'd better talk to him about it. He... doesn't really trust you so if you go and persuade him, he would probably not listen at all!"

Chapter 2548: Don't be too self-abased (7)

However, Liu Buyan shook his head slowly and said, "Junior Sister, you don't understand a man's mentality. He would be even more embarrassed to admit to this in front of you. But in front of me, perhaps he might be frank about this. Go back first, I'll have a good talk with him."

Huang Yueli looked suspiciously at Liu Buyan and pondered over it for a moment before she nodded, "Alright then..."

To tell the truth, she was able to handle all other matters properly but in terms of male-female affairs, she was a total blank.

Although there were countless people who wooed her in her past life, but she was proud and arrogant. Other than Mu Chengying, she had never looked anyone else in the eye at all.

Huang Yueli was devoted totally to climbing the heights of cultivational peak back then and thought that matters related to passionate love were totally not worth paying any attention to.

In her past life, she and Mu Chengying had only gone on to kissing, and totally did not have any other advancements in terms of contact.

It was exactly so, which was why Liu Buyan managed to deceive her with a few mere words.

Huang Yueli also felt that she seemed to have forced Li Moying too tightly so she took Liu Buyan's advice and obediently returned to her bedroom.

On the next morning, she woke up very early and after she finished washing up, she headed straight to look for Liu Buyan.

Out of her expectations was that Li Moying was also in Liu Buyan's pill refining room and from the looks of it, it seemed that he had not left for the entire night.

Moreover, Li Moying and Liu Buyan both had some bruises on their faces, and their expressions were pretty terrible.

Huang Yueli blinked her large eyes as she looked at them in astonishment, "The both of you... did you have a fight yesterday night?"

Li Moying's gaze swept across Liu Buyan coldly and when he turned his head to look at Huang Yueli, his expression instantly turned tender, "Li'er, what were you thinking of? How could we possibly get into a fight?"

"That's right, Junior Sister, we've already reconciled and we will not fight! Don't worry!" Liu Buyan hurriedly replied to her as well.

Huang Yueli stared at the both of them, "Do the both of you think I'm blind? If you didn't fight, where did the bruises on your faces come from?"

The both of them were stunned as they took a look at each other.

Liu Buyan coughed, "Cough cough, Junior Sister, you're mistaken! Li Moying's injuries on him... those are caused by the treatment that I've administered. You know, that kind of illness, just relying on medication doesn't have much effect so I have used the golden needle acupuncture and even did fire cupping on him! I've been busy for the entire night! Ai, this illness really isn't easy to treat at all!"

He shook his head and sighed, his shoulders suspiciously shaking.

Li Moying's gaze was as harsh as a blade, as he couldn't have wished for more than to beat Liu Buyan up on the spot!

Yesterday night, in Liu Buyan's pill refining room, after he heard the real reason why Huang Yueli went over to look for him, Li Moying almost spat out blood right there!

Never had he ever imagined that Huang Yueli actually mistook him as having... that kind of illness.

Liu Buyan didn't forget to add on sarcastic remarks, "Don't blame Junior Sister, she's very innocent in this aspect! Moreover speaking, if one didn't know the inside story, I would probably have also thought that you are... impotent!"

When he said that word, Li Moying could no longer control himself as he gave Liu Buyan a punch!

Although Liu Buyan was already prepared and evaded swiftly, but his face was still scratched by the fist wind.

“What rubbish are you sprouting? If it wasn’t you who showed me the remnant pages of the <<Drifting Cloud Scroll>>, would I need to do this?” Li Moying retorted furiously.

Liu Buyan rubbed the wound on his face.

Chapter 2549: Don’t be too self-abased (8)

“Don’t you repay kindness with ingratitude! I’m telling you these, just to save Junior Sister!”

Li Moying gave a cold humph, “If it wasn’t for this, you would have died long ago! Do you think you can still stand in front of Li’er to sprout these rubbish? Don’t think I don’t know, Li’er’s medicinal cuisine prescription is given by you. You are obviously up to no good!”

Liu Buyan replied lazily when he heard that, “So what about it? Who asked you to marry Junior Sister! It’s just some medicinal cuisine and that’s already letting you off easily!”

“Haven’t you thought about this, what would happen if I really lost control of myself? Then it will really be too late for regrets!” Li Moying gnashed his teeth out of anger.

What made him so furious was this.

Although he had confidence in his self-restraint, but when it came to matters concerning Huang Yueli’s safety, he wasn’t willing to take any single risk at all!

Liu Buyan still had a disapproving look on his face, “Don’t I have confidence in your self-restraint? If the Number One Top Expert in Soaring Heavens Continent couldn’t even take such a small amount of medicinal effect, that is really unjustifiable!”

Li Moing replied coldly, “Good, very good!”

When he finished that word, he instantly threw out another fist, waving it towards Liu Buyan!

Liu Buyan was sent flying from it and his body crashed heavily against the wall!

As Li Moying didn’t use any Profound Energy, merely relying on his physical strength, hence Liu Buyan wasn’t hurt too badly. But his posture was extremely dishevelled and that made him fume instantly.

“Li Moying, don’t you think that I’m afraid of you! I find you extremely unpleasing to the eye since long ago! Now that you’ve fulfilled your wish to marry Junior Sister, what else do you want? What authority do you have to come to seek trouble with me?”

Liu Buyan was enraged and he just casted his fist back towards Li Moying.

Li Moying naturally wouldn’t take it lying down so he instantly fought back.

In order not to create a huge commotion to alarm Huang Yueli, the both of them had a silent rapport and didn’t use any Profound Energy.

The two of them were top exponents on a different level and if they were to use physical strength to attack each other, it would be difficult to come out with a victor even after they continue fighting for a few days.

Li Moying and Liu Buyan took turns swinging at each other and they made a din for the entire night all the way till dawn broke before they laid on the floor, totally exhausted.

“You... you beast! You actually.... laid such a heavy hand! You’ve already won Junior Sister over, but you still don’t give in to me during a fight?” Liu Buyan laid on his back as he was totally lethargic but yet he still cursed Li Moying while gritting his teeth.

“On what basis.... do I have to give in to you? Li’er is already married to me but yet you’re still up to mischief behind my back! I should have killed you instead!” Li Moying was not to be outdone.

The two of them had a stomach full of fury but when day was about to break, they were afraid that Huang Yueli would head over early in the morning hence they stopped.

Liu Buyan said, “Yesterday’s matter, consider it as my wrongdoing but if you don’t wish to make Junior Sister worried, then it’s best that you follow what I say!”

Li Moying’s thick black brows cringed, “What do you mean? You want me to admit... admit that I’m impotent??”

The injury on the corner of Liu Buyan’s lip was still obvious and tugging it would cause a series of pain.

But he was still laughing happily, “There’s no other way! Think about it yourself, Junior Sister is such an intelligent person and you have to hide from her every night, would she just let it go? She would definitely seek out the reason! By then, your secret will be exposed sooner or later so why not just give her an explanation. Impotent is a very good reason.”

“By then you can just say that you’re self-abased and since she likes you so much, she would definitely feel awkward to ask further.” Liu Buyan looked at him while harbouring evil designs.

Li Moying was crying out melancholically as he stared coldly at Liu Buyan. If eyes could kill, Liu Buyan would have been turned into a sieve long ago.

However, Liu Buyan had no restraining fear at all.

Although he had the intention to view this as a joke, but what he said was the truth as well.

Based on the current situation, he could only allow Huang Yueli to continue misunderstanding like this, and that was the best resolution.....

Although Li Moying was not resigned to this, but after considering the past cause and future effect, there was no other better way out, so out of helplessness, he could only admit to this “impotent” label....

Huang Yueli naturally didn’t know the undercurrent that was surging in between them but she didn’t believe that the both of them were merely undergoing treatment for the entire night.

Based on her understanding of these two childish men, it would be strange if they didn’t fight!

But she didn't have time to bother about these now so she immediately asked Liu Buyan, "Senior Brother, you mean to say that Moying symptom is verified? It indeed is... cough cough, that problem?"

Liu Buyan didn't reply immediately, but instead casted a glance towards Li Moying first.

Li Moying clenched his fists tightly and his expression was as ugly as it could be but he didn't say anything to rebut this.

Liu Buyan was silently delighted as he answered Huang Yueli, "That is, Young Sect Master Li had already confessed about his illness and I've already done a detailed examination for him. This illness, it's not a huge thing neither is it neglectable but the treatment process will be slightly longer. Moreover, during the treatment process, physical intimacy should be strictly avoided, just in case! Junior Sister, you must coordinate well with me!"

Huang Yueli nodded her head, "Senior Brother don't worry, if there's anything that you need me to coordinate with, just feel free to tell me."

Liu Buyan smiled, there's nothing for the moment and I'll give Li Moying a prescription so just make him drink it every day and that will do."

Huang Yueli immediately replied, "Alright Senior Brother, I will personally supervise him to take the medication!"

When Li Moying heard their conversation, he almost spat out a mouth of blood!

Liu Buayn really... had such malicious thoughts!

Not only did he make Huang Yueli maintain a distance from him, all physical intimacy must be stopped, and moreover he even gave him a prescription which he needed to drink daily!

Based on his understanding of Liu Buyan, this medication was most likely some tonic which was beneficial for the body, and perhaps it might be some god grade prescription which could aid cultivation.

But it would definitely be something that was very difficult to swallow!

Li Moying originally hated to drink medications and by then, he would have to drink it under Huang Yueli's watchful eyes, not even having a chance to secretly pour it away.....

Li Moying's face flushed pale as Huang Yueli brought him back. He was silently cursing Liu Buyan at the same time, thinking that the next time he met this fellow again, he must beat him up until he was unable to take care of his own living! Yesterday night, he must have punched him too lightly...

...

Ever since Liu Buyan passed the diagnosis of "impotence" on him, Li Moying started the miserable life of having to drink medication every single day.

The only fortunate thing was that Huang Yueli was no longer in a cold war with him, and they were reconciled like in the psat.

But every single time Li Moying tried to get fresh with her, he hadn't even managed to kiss her mouth when Huang Yueli pushed him away resolutely.

“Moying, no! Senior Brother has already said that we cannot be this intimate!”

Li Moying turned melancholic, “I’m just giving you a kiss, it can’t possibly affect my... illness.....”
