

Wedded Bride 39

Chapter 39

"Ye, I am sure that you know who took you away that night, right?"

Ryan Zhou said with a sneer.

"It's Mr. Lu." Autumn replied frankly. "Charles is my husband, so why can't I go with him?" Autumn thought.

Though she thought like this, she did not answer this way. "I am sorry, Mr. Zhou. I have to admit that it is my fault since I did not inform you before leaving. But..... It's my personal affairs, isn't it?"

Autumn looked face to face with Ryan without fear and asked, "Do you come for me for this matter today, Mr. Zhou?"

"Personal affairs?"

Ryan laughed grimly. "You are really hypocritical.

Well, are you looking down on my company, so you are anxious to find another big company? But I have to remind you that Charles Lu has been married and I am afraid that you will regret if you insist on keeping an ambiguous relationship with him."

"Mr. Zhou!"

In fact, Ryan left much freedom for Autumn in this company, so Autumn was always grateful to him.

However, Ryan went too far recently. Though Autumn understood that it was Paula who cast a bone between them, Autumn was still disappointed in him. Therefore, she also turned gravely.

"If you come to talk about this matter with me today, then you can get out now." Autumn had never thought she was inferior to others since she worked at Cloud Advertising Company, not to mention that she had no qualms about this matter. So it was naturally she was not afraid of Ryan's accusation.

"Ye, don't forget who you are talking to!"

The quarrel between them in the office caught the attention of everyone outside. The door of Autumn's office was open, so people could clearly hear their argument. "Why are you doing this? Did I do anything wrong to you?" Ryan asked.

"I have told you that I feel no qualms about this." Autumn replied with an expressionless look, "You are out of competent to work out the case of Shining Company and it is me who helped you to handle that. But now why are you blaming here?"

"How did you help me?"

Ryan kept sneering and then continued, "Are you going to consider Charles even if you still haven't married him yet? Ye, I have trained you for so many years, but I have never expect you are such an ungrateful and vicious person."

Autumn was irritated, so she also laughed scornfully. "Mr. Zhou, you said repeatedly that I let you down. In that case, I am going to resign."

"Resign?"

Ryan came here just to figure out the relationship between Autumn and Charles, but when he heard that she was going to resign, he still felt hard to accept this news. "I am afraid that you have planned it for a long time, right?" Ryan said sarcastically.

"It seems that Paula is right. Autumn is really going to betray me." Ryan thought.

Autumn was very angry at first since she was misunderstood by Ryan, but gradually she calmed down. "Mr. Zhou, I have worked with you for many years, so you should be clear that what kind of person I am.

And I am sure you will figure out the reason why we would argue like this today when you cool down. I don't want to argue with you now. After finishing the case of Shining Company, I will take the initiative to resign."

Autumn stopped for a while and continued, "Now that you hate me so much, I think there is no need for me to stay in your company anymore."

"That will not be unnecessary." Ryan said.

Ryan thought now that she was so eager to leave this company, then it would be meaningless for her to stay here for a single moment. Thinking of this, Ryan added, "You can present your letter of resignation and I will sign directly."

"I will hand this case of Shining Company to Paula and ask her to be responsible for it. Now she is the planning director of our company, so I think it is suitable to hand this case to her. And as for you....." Speaking of this, Ryan sneered and then continued, "You can go wherever you want. But don't worry. I won't treat you unfairly and I will pay all of the money award for you since you have handled many cases for our company during these years. In addition, I will pay you an extra two months' salary. I have done everything called for by humanity and duty I think."

Autumn stared at Ryan quietly. Indeed, she was clear that such a quarrel would occur between them sooner or later. However, she didn't expect this day would come so fast, and she never thought Ryan would be so heartless.

"No. I have to be responsible for the case of Shining Company in personal." It was the last case she accepted in the Cloud Advertising Company, so she was determined to finish it.

"It is no need for you to do that." Ryan further insisted on his opinion. "Aren't you going to resign? Well, I agree with your resignation."

After finishing his words, Ryan turned to leave while Autumn hastily followed him. "Mr. Zhou, I have been responsible for the case of Shining Company from the beginning. Though it has been set in concrete, there will be various problems during performance, so....."

"I have said that it is unnecessary for you to do that." Ryan said chillily to Autumn. "Paula is our new planning director. I believe she has capability to do a good job in co-ordination. This company has been established for so long, but it is not supported by you alone. And it will be in normal operation without you, so you don't have to worry about it. Go ahead and present your letter of resignation soon."

Autumn still want to say something while Paula who looked on beside stepped forward. "Ye, Mr. Zhou is doing it for your own good. Now that you have planned to leave this company, it is better for you to find a new job as early as possible. Mr. Zhou even decided to pay you an extra two months' salary even if it is you who take the initiative to resign. I think he is merciful enough. As for the case of Shining Company, I have promised Mr. Zhou to take charge of it, so you don't have to be worried."

Hearing this, Autumn said nothing but just kept silent.

Seeing this, Ryan turned back to Paula and said, "Paula, go to visit Shining Company now so as to confirm details of our cooperation. Leila, accompany Miss. Ye to ministry of personnel."

Autumn finally gave up. It was meaningless to keep staying here since Ryan had made up his mind.

Going back to her office, she packed up her items and finished the resign process. She felt relieved when she walked out from Cloud Advertising Company.

In these years, Autumn felt heavy in her heart, because she always thought how to repay Ryan. But now she was finally freed from such a burden.

Autumn looked back at the office block of Cloud Advertising Company and then walked out without hesitation.
