Chapter 1021: All Friends_3

An ordinary human, how could he be so powerful? Even the legendary Demon Country Celestial Emperor who almost unified the world couldn't be stronger than the Ancestor Spirits.

"Uncle Xie, what should we do? Could it be that he is connected to all the Ancestor Spirits?" Bu'Er looked worriedly at Li Xiu, who had already headed to the Fifth Peak, feeling a little panicked.

With just three more peaks, Li Xiu will reach the Celestial Sea Palace. Judging by the current situation, it's likely that Li Xiu is indeed connected to all the Ancestor Spirits. If that's true, no one will be able to stop him from reaching the Celestial Sea Palace.

"Li Boyang is truly cunning to find such a person to fight for him. Although I don't know what he did to make the Ancestor Spirits so favorable toward him, this man is certainly interesting. You might want to consider it; maybe he is your ticket out of the Celestial Sea Palace," Uncle Xie said.

"I will never associate with a person like him. He killed Uncle Lion. I must get revenge for Uncle Lion," Bu'Er said immediately.

"If you are truly unwilling, there is still a way." Uncle Xie smiled.

"What way?" Bu'Er asked hurriedly.

"The Guardians of the Fifth and Sixth Peaks probably have no confidence in defeating Li Xiu, and they will consider Li Xiu's acquaintance with their Ancestor Spirits. Therefore, they will inevitably summon the Ancestor Spirits first. If Li Xiu knows those Ancestor Spirits, he will pass through these stages; if not, he will naturally stop there. However, none of this matters. The Guardian of the Seventh Peak, even without summoning the Ancestor Spirits, is most likely unbeatable for Li Xiu. Just don't summon the Ancestor Spirits and kill him directly." Uncle Xie said.

"Yes, why didn't I think of that? Uncle Seven Extremes will definitely be able to kill him and avenge Uncle Lion." Bu'Er's eyes lit up upon hearing Uncle Xie's words.

Just as Uncle Xie predicted, when Li Xiu reached the Fifth and Sixth Peaks, the Guardians of those peaks summoned the Ancestor Spirits out, but the outcome was the same. Those Ancestor Spirits were already acquainted with Li Xiu and treated him very favorably, allowing him to pass easily.

The demon spirits of the Celestial Sea were already stunned, completely unable to comprehend how a human could be on friendly terms with so many Ancestor Spirits. Moreover, it seemed the Ancestor Spirits had all benefited from Li Xiu.

The Unicorn Demon Spirit followed dejectedly behind Li Xiu, having lost all its previous pride and arrogance.

It dared not be arrogant anymore. All the Ancestor Spirits acted brotherly towards Li Xiu, and perhaps its Ancestor Spirit had also benefited from him. It truly didn't dare provoke Li Xiu any further.

"Aren't you going to summon the Ancestor Spirits?" When Li Xiu arrived at the Seventh Peak, the Guardian Demon Spirit did not outright summon the Ancestor Spirits as the previous demons did.

"You don't need to wait; today no one can save your life." The demon spirit said coldly.

Li Xiu felt a hint of joy and began to carefully observe this Guardian Demon Spirit. He saw that the demon spirit's entire shell was like jade, with a knife box behind its back, containing seven jade knives of various sizes.

"What are you called?" Li Xiu, in a good mood, finally had the chance to fight again. This was the last Guardian Demon Spirit; if he didn't kill it, there wouldn't be any Divine Position Gemstone left to obtain.

"You only need to remember my blade." The Seven Extremes Blade Ghost directly drew a jade knife, pointing at Li Xiu coldly and fiercely, "This blade is called the Sword of Annihilation. Its draw guarantees a kill, unmatched in the world. Remember, you die beneath this blade."

With that, the Seven Extremes Blade Ghost struck with a blade. The blade moved not swiftly but rather slowly; however, this strike carried the weight of a mountain, seemingly cutting through even the void.

Li Xiu was about to wield the Forbidden Spear against the Seven Extremes Blade Ghost, planning to release the Forbidden Light. Suddenly, an electric light flashed from the Celestial Sea Gate.

The electric light struck down like the thunder that creates heaven and earth. The terrifying force caused the mountains to tremble incessantly, and the mere shock of the explosion scattered the Seven Extremes Blade Ghost's blade light.

The Seven Extremes Blade Ghost retreated several steps to stabilize his posture. He witnessed two figures where the lightning had struck.

"Ancestor Spirits..." The Seven Extremes Blade Ghost saw those two figures and had no choice but to bow down, extremely filled with resentment.

"How can this be!" Bu'Er gazed blankly at the two figures on the mountain peak, feeling sick with frustration.

It's no wonder Ancestor Spirits don't protect their bloodline descendants, but they actually come out to protect a human; Bu'Er simply couldn't understand why things had turned out this way.

The only solace was that, due to these Ancestor Spirits' appearance, Li Xiu only killed one King of Gold.

"I told you we would meet again," said one of the figures, smiling at Li Xiu.

One figure was a glamorous woman in luxurious court attire, eerily without a mouth—smooth skin where lips should have been. The other was a gentleman-like man. Ironically, the glamorous woman was the one speaking, although no one knew where her voice came from.

Li Xiu recognized them; they were the high-class lady and gentleman aboard the little train, as well as the last Jade Doll to disembark.

"Sigh, it seems there's no chance of getting the Divine Position Gemstone today." Li Xiu sighed internally, then said to the Ancestor Spirits, "I never expected to encounter you here."

The beautiful woman's smile was peculiar, although she had no mouth, one could sense her smiling. Her soul-stirring eyes formed a crescent-shaped smile, presenting an eerie beauty, yet evoking an unsettling feeling.

The beautiful woman walked to Li Xiu's side, casually raised his hand, disregarding the kneeling Seven Extremes Blade Ghost. Maintaining her peculiar smile, she led Li Xiu toward the stairs behind, saying, "Come, sister will take you to the Celestial Sea Palace to marry."

"What! Marry!" Li Xiu was wide-eyed, doubting if he had heard correctly.

Wasn't he here to fight? What could the beautiful woman mean by taking him to marry?

Chapter 1022: Only by Marrying Is Victory

"Marry?" Li Xiu stared blankly at the beautiful woman, somewhat unclear about what she meant.

The beautiful woman did not explain but pulled Li Xiu towards the Celestial Sea Palace, while the gentleman-like man followed behind like a steward.

"Old Evil Uncle..." Bu'Er looked at Old Evil Uncle, bewildered.

The Ancestral Spirit had unexpectedly brought Li Xiu to the Celestial Sea Palace, which was something she had never anticipated, leaving her unsure of what to do.

"Bu'Er, don't worry. Just follow your own will. As long as you don't lose, no one can force you." Old Evil Uncle said lightly.

With these words from Old Evil Uncle, Bu'Er breathed a sigh of relief, her eyes becoming resolute: "Of course, I won't lose. I will avenge Uncle Lion."

While they were speaking, the beautiful woman had already brought Li Xiu to the front of the Celestial Sea Palace, walking up the stone steps.

"Old Evil, I've brought the Celestial Sea Palace's son-in-law." The noblewoman Ancestral Spirit smiled at Old Evil Uncle as she spoke.

"Belona, this is not something you should be interfering with." Old Evil Uncle said coldly.

"Old Evil, it seems you've forgotten who is the real master of the Celestial Sea." Noblewoman Belona met Old Evil Uncle's gaze without backing down, still smiling.

Old Evil Uncle said contemptuously, "If you want to be the master of the Celestial Sea, come and try yourself."

"That's exactly my intention." Belona released Li Xiu's hand and slowly walked towards Old Evil Uncle.

As Belona proceeded, the space in front of the Celestial Sea Palace seemed to twist; Li Xiu felt as if the entire space distorted into the face of a savage ghost, intent on swallowing Old Evil standing at the palace door.

Li Xiu recognized Old Evil as the demon spirit that gave him the three lights in the Sea Heaven Trial Ground; he had released him from the Metal Coffin back then.

Li Xiu didn't know the extent of Old Evil's strength, but Belona's terror had already left a profound impression.

With each of Belona's steps, the space twisted inexplicably; despite Li Xiu's power, he felt his body restrained by incomprehensible forces, unable to move.

This was because Belona hadn't targeted him, and the pressure that Old Evil faced directly from Belona was many times greater than what Li Xiu felt.

"Could Belona and the other Ancestral Spirits all be at the Unparalleled Level?" Li Xiu pondered.

As Belona moved forward, Li Xiu noticed even stranger phenomena—the flowers, trees, and plants around the Celestial Sea Palace changed in eerie states.

The branches and leaves of towering trees shrank, blooming flowers withdrew into buds, and the vines covering the mountain walls increasingly shrank, as if time were reversing or a video was playing backward.

Li Xiu felt his body and inner strength waning; he mobilized the Light of Evil Spirits and Forbidden Light to resist Belona's strange power but couldn't withstand it.

There was no doubt; this was the power of the Unparalleled Level. Only by transcending the rules could such defying acts be achieved.

The gentleman-like man walked to Li Xiu's side, and he suddenly felt the pressure disappear, no longer affected by those strange forces.

Turning his head, he saw the gentleman-like man next to him emitting a faint glow and smiling at him.

"Indeed, these guys are all Unparalleled Level," Li Xiu thought to himself.

"Hmph!" Suddenly, Old Evil snorted coldly.

With just this cold snort, the twisted ghost-like space disappeared, and all the bizarre time-reversal phenomena ceased.

Belona paused slightly, looked at Old Evil, and said, "It seems your powers have fully recovered?"

"Your reversal is stronger than before," Old Evil remarked indifferently, "But concerning the Celestial Sea Palace, you're not qualified to meddle."

"I really have no qualification." Belona was not angry, still smiling, and pointed at Li Xiu, saying, "But he is recognized by our Sixteen Ancestral Spirits as the future master of the Celestial Sea Palace. Are you sure you want to stop him?"

"Why?" Old Evil couldn't help but frown upon hearing this.

"No reason, we've chosen him." Belona stated calmly.

"Are humans really trustworthy? Have you all forgotten past lessons?" Old Evil retorted coldly.

"Humans aren't trustworthy, so what are you doing now?" Belona said teasingly.

Old Evil looked at Belona and said, "No room for negotiation?"

"None." Belona responded emphatically.

"If it's a full-scale battle, you won't retreat unscathed," Old Evil said coldly.

"Aren't you afraid others would profit from your fighting?" Belona hinted, glancing toward the beach.

"That would be because of you." Old Evil replied expressionlessly.

"Let's take a step back and follow the rules, let them decide for themselves," Belona suggested.

Knowing this was Belona's bottom line, Old Evil glanced at Li Xiu and said, "Fine, let's follow the rules. If he can defeat Bu'Er, he will be the new master of Celestial Sea Palace."

With that, Old Evil looked at Belona again and said, "If he wins, it means that person wins too. I hope you won't regret your actions now."

"That remains to be seen." Belona said no more, returned to Li Xiu, and cheerfully said, "You don't need to worry about anything; just defeat her and bring home your bride. We have everything else covered."

Chapter 1023: Only Marriage Is True Victory (Part 2)

"What exactly is going on here?" Li Xiu asked with a frown.

"Didn't Li Boyang tell you?" Belona asked quizzically.

"He only told me to represent him in the battle, and said nothing else." Li Xiu was currently eager to know what exactly was happening.

Belona glanced at Old Xie and said, "Do you want to tell the story, or should I?"

"Not even knowing why you're here, do you really intend to give such a thing to this person?" Old Xie said coldly.

Ignoring Old Xie, Belona turned to Li Xiu and said, "This is a long story. Celestial Sea, Longevity Island, and the Bottomless Pit were originally one entity, known as the Spirit Suppressing Palace. It is the origin of life in this world, and all life is nurtured by the Spirit Suppressing Stone within the palace. We, the Sixteen Ancestral Spirits, are the first magical beings nurtured by the Spirit Suppressing Stone, and we also built the Spirit Suppressing Palace."

"Hmph." Old Xie suddenly snorted disdainfully, seemingly unimpressed by what Belona said.

Belona glanced at him and smiled lightly, "Of course, apart from us ancestral spirits, there were also some unexpected occurrences. Due to foreign influences on the Spirit Suppressing Stone, four other special beings were also nurtured, which we called the Evil Spirits. We later suppressed those four Evil Spirits within the Spirit Suppressing Stone. Using both the power of us sixteen ancestral spirits and the stone itself, we created three Spirit Suppressing Beasts to guard the stone, preventing the Evil Spirits from escaping and disrupting the course of life in this world."

Li Xiu, who had already heard some of this from Huang Hun, could now roughly guess that Old Xie was likely one of those four Evil Spirits suppressed within the Spirit Suppressing Stone.

"Being so self-serving, yet dressing it up so grandiosely, truly worthy of the ancestor of magical beings," Old Xie said mockingly.

Belona ignored him and continued, "In fact, this world is a yet-to-be-completed world. Under normal circumstances, the Spirit Suppressing Stone continually nurtures new beings, evolving along with the world until its power is fully transformed into living beings and merged with the world, thus completing it. However, at some point, someone arrived at the Spirit Suppressing Palace and shattered the Spirit Suppressing Stone, derailing the world's evolution. Even now, the world remains incomplete."

"What person could wield such power, capable of shattering the world's origin?" Li Xiu had guessed that the person was the chairman, though he was reluctant to believe the chairman possessed such overwhelming strength.

The Spirit Suppressing Palace was guarded by sixteen ancestral spirits, all at an unparalleled level, plus the three Spirit Suppressing Beasts. The chairman, though strong, couldn't possibly defeat such formidable entities alone and destroy the Spirit Suppressing Stone, could he?

Belona said, "That person's power was very peculiar, completely different from ours, something even we had never seen before. However, if we were to go all out with one-to-one, the outcome might be unpredictable. One-on-one might be a draw, one-on-two, he'd likely struggle to win, and one-on-three, he had no chance."

"If so, how did he manage to shatter the Spirit Suppressing Stone?" Li Xiu asked.

"Ah, that's because we were too curious. He could always articulate ideas so astounding that we were drawn to him, eager to learn more. No one knew his intentions at the time and confidently believed everything was under control, so we left him inside the Spirit Suppressing Palace, giving him the opportunity he needed," Belona sighed.

"Foolishness, don't blame curiosity and confidence for everything," Old Xie sneered.

"You might be smart, but didn't he also use you?" Belona dismissed Old Xie's comment and continued, "By the time I realized his ambitious intentions, it was too late. The Spirit Suppressing Stone was already shattered. Fortunately, we weren't too late to stop him from stealing the fragments, and we engaged in a fierce battle. Originally, with the combined strength of us Sixteen Ancestral Spirits, defeating him wasn't difficult, but those four Evil Spirits freed from the stone joined the battle, complicating matters. That battle, in fact, caused the division of the Spirit Suppressing Palace into three parts. If only the Spirit Suppressing Stone had been destroyed, the palace wouldn't have been split."

"Matters became complicated, why sugarcoat it?" Old Xie chuckled.

"Fine, in truth, we were defeated and had to retreat from the Spirit Suppressing Palace," Belona glanced at Old Xie, "You're so fond of chiming in, why don't you tell the rest? After all, the remaining issues have little to do with us."

Old Xie blandly picked up the tale, "Both we and that person wanted the fragments of the Spirit Suppressing Stone. After we defeated the Ancestral Spirits, the struggle for those fragments escalated. However, we couldn't kill him, and he wasn't our match either, so an agreement was reached: to allow the Spirit Suppressing Beasts to temporarily keep the fragments, enabling them to repair the stone. Meanwhile, we agreed to cultivate our progeny to duel in battles for the fragments; the winner would claim the Spirit Suppressing Stone."

"If it's about battling for the Spirit Stone, how did marriage plans get involved?" Li Xiu asked, puzzled.

"Hm, that human was truly cunning. Originally, by agreement, the Spirit Suppressing Stone was divided into four parts belonging to Celestial Sea, Longevity Island, Bottomless Pit, and that person. Battles were waged to claim the stone from others. But the person was so despicable, using underhanded means to seize stones rightfully belonging to Celestial Sea, Longevity Island, and Bottomless Pit," Old Xie seemed to despise the individual's methods and was reluctant even to mention them.

Chapter 1024: Only Marriage Counts as Victory (3)

Li Xiu vaguely guessed a little. If the person they were talking about was the president, then he had been to Longevity Island and had Li Ming'Er with the Spirit Suppressing Beast from Longevity Island. Whatever means he used, it could roughly be imagined.

As for how the Spirit Suppressing Stone of the Celestial Sea and the Bottomless Pit fell into the hands of the president, Li Xiu couldn't speculate. It probably wasn't anything fair.

"So it turns out that the Unparalleled King was trapped under the City of Light also due to the president's means." Li Xiu couldn't help but sigh. The president was indeed a ruthless person.

Using the power of one person to be at odds with the entire world, and he not only succeeded.

Of course, the means weren't exactly fair.

Uncle Evil snorted coldly and continued, "He's cunning and sly, and we're not fools. He took the Spirit Suppressing Stones that were rightfully ours, but he never imagined that we also calculated against the Spirit Suppressing Stones that were originally his, so even if he gets all our Spirit Suppressing Stones, he won't be able to completely restore them to their original state."

"So, is the current showdown still about competing for the Spirit Suppressing Stones? That can't be right. I've heard there have been many confrontations before, and each time you won. Even if you won a fragment each time, you should have won them back long ago," Li Xiu said.

"Having learned from past experiences, we naturally can't give him any chance to carry out conspiracies again, so we came up with a special method to ensure he can never take the Spirit Suppressing Stone here unless it's as per the agreement." Uncle Evil said, his tone becoming somewhat angry: "So we re-established a blood contract both sides must adhere to, thinking that we could settle everything through this and win back the Spirit Suppressing Stone fragments he took through despicable means. Yet we never imagined that he found a loophole in the blood contract. Even though he lost, we couldn't get the Spirit Suppressing Stone fragments in his hands."

Li Xiu thought to himself, "The president is truly formidable, making these Unparalleled Demon Spirits suffer losses repeatedly, falling into the same pit several times."

Having seemingly seen through Li Xiu's thoughts, Uncle Evil snorted coldly, "Even with his countless schemes, he can't win against the contract. He still can't take away the Spirit Suppressing Stones. No matter how many calculations, it's all in vain."

"So, if I win, can I get the Spirit Suppressing Stones from your hands?" Li Xiu looked at Uncle Evil and asked.

"No, winning won't help you." Uncle Evil smiled.

"Winning doesn't help? Then what's the point of me being here?" Li Xiu asked.

"Just winning won't help, but if you win, you qualify to marry the little princess of the Celestial Sea, becoming the new master of the Celestial Sea. Only by marrying that little princess can you get the Spirit Suppressing Stone fragment." Belona chimed in.

Now Li Xiu finally understood why before coming, the president kept emphasizing that brute force wasn't the only way to achieve victory.

Li Xiu was still somewhat confused why he must marry the little princess of the Celestial Sea to get the Spirit Suppressing Stone fragment. What was the necessary connection between the two?

Seeming to notice Li Xiu's confusion, Belona continued, "The specifics are difficult to explain. In short, you can only get the Spirit Suppressing Stone fragment by marrying the princess; otherwise, no one can take the Spirit Suppressing Stone fragment away."

Li Xiu looked at Belona strangely and said, "I understand that you all want to help me, but if I truly obtain the Spirit Suppressing Stone fragment, wouldn't it mean you're helping your enemy achieve their goal? Are you really okay with that?"

"Unlike Uncle Evil, we don't think your victory means his victory." Belona smiled while looking at Li Xiu, "You are you, and he is him. The Spirit Suppressing Stone being in your hands doesn't mean it's his."

"You trust him, but I don't. Don't dream about it. I won't give him that opportunity. He absolutely can't win against Bu'Er, and Bu'Er will never marry him. Don't waste your efforts on impossible things." Uncle Evil said coldly.

"Whether it can be won, you have to fight to know." Belona retorted.

"Bu'Er? Is the young palace master of Celestial Sea Palace called Bu'Er? Which Bu?" Li Xiu's heart stirred, and he asked Uncle Evil intently.

Little Bu'Er and people of the City of Love were killed by the God of Slaughter of the Celestial Sea. That the little princess of the Celestial Sea is also named Bu'Er makes Li Xiu inevitably wonder if there might be some connection between the two.

"You have too many questions. Stop saying so much nonsense. If you challenge, once you enter Celestial Sea Palace, you'll naturally see her. If you're afraid, leave now. As a favor to Belona and the others, I'll make an exception and let you off." Uncle Evil said coldly.

"Although the little princess is human like you, her power is likely already infinitely close to being Unparalleled. You have to be careful." Belona reminded.

Li Xiu nodded, his eyes still fixed on Uncle Evil, staring at him and said, "Can you answer one last question of mine?"

"You really have a lot of questions. Speak, what do you want to know?" Uncle Evil frowned.

"Was the God of Slaughter who exterminated the City of Love you?" Li Xiu stared at Uncle Evil, asking deliberately.

Since Uncle Evil was the Unparalleled Demon Spirit of the Celestial Sea, according to the Unparalleled King's words, the God of Slaughter should be his avatar acting on the altar.

Uncle Evil's face changed, then he immediately said coldly, "How do you know about the City of Love?"

"Why can't I know about the City of Love?" Li Xiu countered.

"Because it's a place that doesn't exist, how could you know about a place that doesn't exist?"

"If it's a place that doesn't exist, then how do you know about it?" Li Xiu countered.

Uncle Evil's expression shifted, and after a while, he said coldly, "No matter where you heard about the City of Love, it means nothing to you, and might even bring you catastrophic disaster. If I were you, I would immediately forget that name to avoid losing my life for a non-existent place."

"I haven't just heard about it. I've been there." Li Xiu said lightly.

"You've been there... That's absolutely impossible..." Uncle Evil's face turned pale, as if he heard something utterly terrifying.

Chapter 1025: Battle with Bu'Er

"Why is it impossible?" Li Xiu asked immediately.

Old Xie Shu did not answer Li Xiu, only muttering to himself, "It's impossible, that place doesn't exist at all, it's impossible for anyone to reach there..."

"I did go there, and I even met little Bu'Er there." Li Xiu continued to throw out more information to provoke Old Xie Shu, hoping he would reveal something useful.

The truth seemed to be right in front of him. Li Xiu couldn't help but glance at the Celestial Sea Palace. He really wanted to rush in and see if the little princess of the Celestial Sea Palace was Bu'Er.

But Li Xiu hesitated. He originally thought this was a duel, but who knew it involved a marriage. If he really went in and it wasn't Bu'Er, and he defeated the little princess, would he marry her or not? If he didn't marry her, he would probably offend everyone. Not only would the Celestial Sea Palace not let him go, but even the president wouldn't spare him.

Upon hearing Li Xiu mention Bu'Er, Old Xie Er was slightly startled, as if he had figured out something. He looked at Li Xiu with a strange expression and finally said, "Go in, maybe it's destiny."

"What do you mean?" Li Xiu was suddenly upset. He had thrown out so much information but gained nothing.

Old Xie Shu said nothing more, just stepped aside, clearly not intending to answer any more of Li Xiu's questions.

Li Xiu looked at Belona and the gentlemanly man. Both nodded at him, and Belona said with a hint of meaning, "Some things, you can only find the answers on your own."

Li Xiu looked towards the Celestial Sea Palace, gritted his teeth, and walked towards its gates.

"I can't believe it, they can't really force me to marry." Li Xiu, with determination in his heart, pushed open the gates and walked in.

The interior of the Celestial Sea Palace was somewhat as Li Xiu imagined. From the outside, it seemed like a huge palace, but once inside, he found it was an ocean, with the sea and sky indistinguishable, stretching endlessly.

On that ocean, a graceful young girl stood on the water's surface, glaring at him with beautiful eyes that contained a hint of malice.

"The resemblance... it's just too much..." At first sight of the girl, Li Xiu felt she resembled little Bu'Er too much. Although the girl looked a bit different, mature and with a well-developed body, the charm between her eyebrows was exactly the same.

"You killed Uncle Lion, I want revenge for him." The girl said to Li Xiu with hatred in her voice.

"Don't you recognize me?" Li Xiu asked Bu'Er.

The ghost of little Bu'Er in the grave could recognize him, so if Bu'Er was indeed little Bu'Er, she should have some impression of him, right?

"Of course, I recognize you. Even if you turned to ashes, I would still recognize you. A blood debt must be repaid in blood." Bu'Er said, biting her lip, "I can give you a chance. Go to the First Peak immediately to watch over Uncle Lion's spirit and repent for your mistakes until you truly understand your errors."

"It wanted to kill me without any mercy. What was wrong with me killing it? Why should I repent?" Li Xiu frowned slightly, as this Bu'Er seemed to have no impression of him at all.

"What exactly is going on? Is Bu'Er truly little Bu'Er? What is the relationship between them? Old Xie said that the City of Love doesn't exist, so what is the truth then? Is the little Bu'Er from the grave real? If that's the case, little Bu'Er should already be dead. Then what's going on with this Bu'Er? Little Bu'Er said her father went to the Celestial Sea, but I didn't see her father, only a grown-up version of little Bu'Er, damn it." Li Xiu's mind was racing, but he couldn't figure out what was going on.

Bu'Er didn't give him time to think further. She reached out her hand, and a revolver appeared in her grasp.

Seeing the revolver in her hand, Li Xiu's heart skipped a beat. That revolver was exactly the one little Bu'Er held, made of carved wood, and identical in shape.

Bang!

Bu'Er raised the gun toward Li Xiu, and the wood-carved gun actually fired a bullet.

"She must be little Bu'Er, otherwise how could there be such a coincidence!" Li Xiu's figure flickered as he dodged the bullet shot by Bu'Er, becoming more convinced that this Bu'Er must have some connection to little Bu'Er, though he still couldn't figure out what that connection was.

Although Li Xiu dodged the bullet, the bullet, glowing with blue light, curved like a missile with a tracker, turning back towards Li Xiu, even faster than before.

Li Xiu didn't dodge again. If the bullet kept accelerating, then avoiding it would only make its speed increase, possibly leaving no chance to dodge in the end.

Instead of being passive, it was better to solve this problem now.

Li Xiu summoned the Forbidden Spear in revolver mode and pulled the trigger in the bullet's direction.

A light bullet shot out fiercely from the gun barrel, colliding with the fast-flying bullet without erring.

Clang!

The Unlucky Bullet collided with Bu'Er's bullet. Li Xiu originally thought that even if it couldn't deflect Bu'Er's bullet, it could at least use the power of misfortune to veer that bullet off course.

However, upon collision, Li Xiu was shocked to find that the Unlucky Bullet was actually devoured by that bullet.

Chapter 1026: Battle with Bu'Er (Part 2)

It shouldn't be described as devouring, more like fusion, as if those two bullets were originally one, immediately merging upon contact.

After the bullet fused with the Forbidden Bullet, its speed increased once again, and ominous red patterns appeared on the bullet that flashed with blue gleam.

Li Xiu had no time to dodge now and could only use the Light of the Death Evil Spirit to meet that bizarre bullet.

Thankfully, the Light of the Death Evil Spirit didn't disappoint Li Xiu, freezing the bullet right before him in midair.

"Can we talk for a moment?" Li Xiu looked at Bu'Er and said.

"What's there to discuss? I would never marry you even in death. Today it's either you die or I perish." Bu'Er said this, raising the handgun to shoot at Li Xiu once more.

Li Xiu had no choice but to use the Light of the Death Evil Spirit to freeze the bullets shot by Bu'Er mid-air.

"Do you know Wu Laodie?" Li Xiu continued to ask.

"No matter what you say, it's useless. I must avenge Uncle Lion." Bu'Er was deaf to Li Xiu's words and pulled the trigger once again.

Seeing her expression, Li Xiu realized she didn't seem to know Wu Laodie, deepening his confusion.

There was no time for further thoughts as the bullets fired by Bu'Er now were faster than any before, even carrying the blue gleam Li Xiu was familiar with.

"Light of the Death Evil Spirit!" Li Xiu was taken aback; Bu'Er's bullets were actually imbued with his Light of the Death Evil Spirit.

Li Xiu quickly comprehended that Bu'Er's power not only can absorb his strength but also simulate his light system abilities.

"It seems the only choice is to defeat her first, otherwise, forget about questioning her, soon I won't be able to protect myself." Li Xiu didn't hesitate any longer, his form moving swiftly, the Forbidden Spear transforming into Gatling mode, crazily sweeping toward Bu'Er from different directions.

In an instant, the horizon was filled with Li Xiu's phantoms, Forbidden Bullets pouring toward Bu'Er like torrential rain.

Seeing the countless bullets about to rain on Bu'Er, she had no room to dodge, nor could her handgun fire rapidly enough to knock down the rain of bullets.

Yet in the next second, Bu'Er vanished from Li Xiu's sight, like a teleportation appearing behind him.

Boom!

The handgun sounded behind Li Xiu, his response incredibly quick, his form fluttering like a butterfly narrowly avoiding the bullet shot almost against his back.

Avoiding the bullet, Li Xiu turned around, catching sight of Bu'Er and his face slightly changed.

Only to see the wooden handgun in Bu'Er's hand had become a Gatling-like Forbidden Spear, starting to spew blue tongues of flame, with raindrop-like bullets flying toward Li Xiu.

Li Xiu moved rapidly, using the Angel's Wings to the fullest to dodge the raindrop-like bullets, yet those bullets seemed alive, relentlessly pursuing Li Xiu, as bullets flew everywhere in the blink of an eye.

"No wonder Old Evil had such confidence, saying I can't beat Bu'Er; this simulation ability added with teleportation ability almost places her in invincibility." Li Xiu's mind raced while his form remained unyielding.

"Using my abilities, it's impossible to defeat me." Li Xiu's expression was firm, his silhouette flickering like a startled swan, dodging bullets while causing them to uncontrollably collide with each other.

Meanwhile, the Forbidden Spear in Li Xiu's hand was also imbued with the Light of the Death Evil Spirit, sweeping toward Bu'Er once more.

Bu'Er's form vanished once again, and Li Xiu could now confirm that it wasn't merely speed but indeed spatial teleportation.

Instead of worry, Li Xiu felt joy, as at the moment Bu'Er reappeared from teleportation, one of his bullets was already before her.

A teleportation skill like that is unlikely to be used consecutively, with surely a brief pause in between, and the bullets Li Xiu previously fired had laid down a trap, forcing Bu'Er to teleport to the designated location.

As Bu'Er teleported, he had already preemptively shot a bullet toward that location, and, as expected, Bu'Er appeared there.

"Now we should be able to have a proper talk." Seeing Bu'Er slightly astonished, Li Xiu knew his guess was correct—Bu'Er's spatial teleportation capability indeed couldn't be used consecutively.

As long as Bu'Er got hit by this unwilling bullet, he could conserve some energy.

But unexpectedly, Bu'Er made a surprising move; her silhouette moved like a butterfly, forcibly dodging the unwilling bullet already in front of her—it was indeed Li Xiu's Angel's Wings.

"Impressive, not only can she simulate my light system ability, but she can effortlessly master my techniques as well—is it her talent, or is it her ability?" Li Xiu mused inwardly.

Bu'Er used the Angel's Wings to charge up again, and Li Xiu could only counter with the Angel's Wings.

Their figures flashed, light bullets flying chaotically, dense water bubbles rose on the sea surface—caused by raindrop-like bullets plunging into the water.

Bu'Er, though she just learned the Angel's Wings, displayed familiarity and adeptness not below Li Xiu.

What's even more terrifying is her power and speed continuously escalating rapidly during the battle, pressuring Li Xiu greatly.

Chapter 1027: Battle with Bu'Er (Part 3)

What you know, others also know, and they are faster and stronger than you. How can you win like this? Moreover, Bu'Er possesses Spatial Teleportation ability. Even if you want to go all out, there's no chance for a decisive strike.

Li Xiu knew this wasn't a solution, and with a thought, a ring on his finger flew out and transformed into a dragon spirit-like light in the air.

This was the Dragon Vein Spirit elevated to a Divine Position after swallowing the shadow of the Black Dragon. Li Xiu intended to use its power to defeat Bu'Er.

After the Dragon Vein Spirit appeared, it let out a roar and then plunged directly into the sea, disappearing instantly.

Bang bang bang bang!

All the bullets fired by Bu'Er followed the trajectory of the Dragon Vein Spirit, falling into the sea and continuously being shot into it.

The Dragon Vein Spirit's effect of being always targeted went into play, attracting all the bullets toward it.

Meanwhile, Li Xiu's Light Bullets hit without obstruction, attacking the astonished Bu'Er from different angles, positions, and times.

Bu'Er used Angel's Wings to continuously evade the Light Bullets, but her fired bullets still failed to fly toward Li Xiu, all falling into the sea instead.

As long as the Dragon Vein Spirit was alive, Bu'Er's bullets could not threaten Li Xiu.

Seeing the light weakening significantly, leaving no room to avoid, Bu'Er was compelled to use Spatial Teleportation again.

This was what Li Xiu was waiting for. The Light Energy within him suddenly erupted completely, with Red and Blue Dual Truth Light and the Forbidden Light reaching their peak at once, like a phantom rushing toward an empty spot.

Before Li Xiu could reach there, Bu'Er's figure had already appeared in the same spot, only to flash and disappear again.

She also possessed Angel's Wings and had anticipated Li Xiu appearing at her teleportation spot, so she rushed out at full speed immediately.

"Too naive!" Li Xiu's lips curled into a smile.

Boom!

Just as Bu'Er rushed out, the sea surface suddenly exploded, and a volcano-eruption-like beam of light shot skyward to meet the charging Bu'Er.

The terrifying white beam instantly engulfed Bu'Er, continuously erupting with unstoppable white light, growing ever brighter, like a white pillar connecting the heavens and the earth.

The Dragon Vein Spirit's current strength was of the highest rank among Divine Positions, strengthened by oceanic power, making this strike unimaginably terrifying. Light energy poured unceasingly into the sky, as if without end.

"Looks like you didn't teach her how to fight." Belona smiled at Uncle Xie.

"She doesn't need to know how to fight, as long as she wants to win, she'll never lose," Uncle Xie said calmly.

"Aren't you too confident? No matter how strong she is, she's still not beyond the rules after all; she's only at a Divine Position. Anything's possible," Belona said.

"For other Divine Positions, anything's possible. For her, there's no possibility; under unparalleled, she will win," Uncle Xie seemed very certain that Bu'Er would win.

Belona frowned slightly; a guy like Uncle Xie would never talk nonsense, so he must have his reasons for saying so.

In the Celestial Sea Palace, the Light of Truth emitted continuously by the Dragon Vein Spirit finally dissipated, and Bu'Er, immersed in the Light of Truth, stood unharmed.

Bu'Er, originally clad in white and glowing with holy white light, now emitted a strange black light, which stained her white clothes pitch black; her eyes looked like black holes, absorbing the surrounding light.

"Dual Truth Light?" Li Xiu frowned slightly, looking at the black and white Truth Lights on Bu'Er's body.

"In this world, it's not just you who has dual Truth Lights." Bu'Er's face was expressionless, with an extremely dark light on her body and extremely white light on her skin, making her skin appear whiter than snow in contrast.

At this moment, Bu'Er's eyes seemed devoid of human emotion, only a chilling coldness.

"You must pay the price." As Bu'Er spoke, she raised the wooden pistol already stained black and white by the Truth Light.

But she didn't aim the gun at Li Xiu; instead, she pointed it at her own arm.

As Li Xiu was puzzled about what she intended to do, there was a bang, and Bu'Er actually shot her own arm, piercing a transparent hole through her left forearm.

Li Xiu frowned slightly, wondering if Bu'Er had lost her mind, but then suddenly felt a piercing pain in his left arm.

Looking down, he saw a bloody hole in his arm at the same position as the wound on Bu'Er's arm, but when he looked back at Bu'Er, he found the transparent hole on her arm had disappeared, and even her clothes were restored to their original state.

Li Xiu immediately realized what was happening; Bu'Er's Truth Light was insidious. When she shot herself, the wound instead appeared on Li Xiu.

Li Xiu didn't know how Bu'Er did it or what kind of power this was, and without time to think further, he unleashed all his power and summoned the Dragon Vein Spirit to strike Bu'Er from both sides.

Bang bang!

Bu'Er didn't even look at Li Xiu and the Dragon Vein Spirit, shooting herself again twice, once in the thigh and once in the abdomen.

The shot to the thigh made Li Xiu's thigh bleed profusely, severely hindering his Body Technique.

The shot to the abdomen punched a big hole through the Dragon Vein Spirit, which screamed and fell into the sea.

Bu'Er stood expressionlessly watching Li Xiu charge up with his wounded leg, and then raised her hand to shoot two more times, piercing the other leg and arm.

Li Xiu's advancing body seemed struck by an inexplicable force, involuntarily flying backward, with blood spraying from his twisted arm and leg as if struck by a powerful force.

Li Xiu's limbs were suddenly all broken, and his arms and legs unnaturally twisted and powerless, with blood continuously flowing out of the Flower Armor.

Chapter 1028: Inverting Black and White

Li Xiu's face looked a bit grim; this power was too strange.

Bu'Er's power seemed somewhat similar to Guan Jinghao's Spirit Casting power, but in reality, it was completely different.

Guan Jinghao's Spirit Casting is the power of cause and effect, whereas Bu'Er's power is not of the causal system.

There's no relation between the two; Bu'Er inflicted her own injuries, and if it were the power of cause and effect, it wouldn't rebound onto Li Xiu.

Li Xiu couldn't discern what system that power belonged to at the moment, as it had such an uncanny effect.

"That power is... the Spirit Suppressing Stone..." Belona's face changed slightly, as if Bu'Er's power also surprised her.

"That's right, it's the power of the Spirit Suppressing Stone. Now you should understand why I said Li Xiu cannot possibly win, right? Although Bu'Er isn't Unparalleled yet, defeating her probably won't be easier than defeating one who is Unparalleled. To be her enemy is to be an enemy to the whole world, and unless it is a being beyond the rules, there is no chance of winning at all," Uncle Evil said calmly.

Belona sighed and said, "I should have thought of it earlier, only by allowing the Spirit Suppressing Stone to completely merge with her can Li Boyang's idea be cut off. But have you considered what consequences such actions might bring? If in the future the Spirit Suppressing Stone merges back together, what will happen to Bu'Er?"

"There's no 'if.' The Spirit Suppressing Stone can never fully merge back again, and that is the best result," the old Evil said with a face as determined as iron.

"Is it really the best result? The Spirit Suppressing Stone is the origin of the world, and without its impetus, the evolution of this world is very slow. Even after tens of billions of years, it might still not evolve completely..." Belona looked at the old Evil and said.

"What does that have to do with me?" The old Evil snorted coldly.

Belona sighed lightly: "Can't you feel it? Our evolution has reached the world's limits. If the world cannot continue to evolve, we will struggle to evolve further and will forever stop at this point. Don't you want to see what lies beyond being Unparalleled?"

"What difference does it make whether I see or not? In any kind of world, there is no one under the heavens who can compete with me." The old Evil said proudly.

"Indeed, one-on-one, no one in the Unparalleled realm can match you. But have you forgotten about Li Boyang?" Belona said, "Li Boyang cannot beat you, not even beat me, but even you can't kill him. We both know that he is stronger than you; it's only because he doesn't belong to this world that he is rejected by it. Most of his power is used to resist the world itself. Even so, you still can't kill him. What if one day, he is no longer suppressed by the world, then what?"

"So I won't let the Spirit Suppressing Stone reappear in the world. Without its help, he can't free himself from the world's suppression. But you, by helping that Li Xiu, you might actually let him acquire the Spirit Suppressing Stone, and that would be a true harm to this world. Are you trying to destroy this world with your own hands?" the old Evil snorted coldly.

Belona shook her head and said, "Li Xiu acquiring the Spirit Suppressing Stone doesn't mean Li Boyang can get it. Don't conflate them."

"Ridiculous, he's entirely Li Boyang's man, and he's here to take the Spirit Suppressing Stone for Li Boyang. Does he dare defy Li Boyang? Even if he dares to be a traitor, it's already too late. Once the Spirit Suppressing Stone separates from Bu'Er, do you think anyone can stop Li Boyang from obtaining it?" the old Evil said.

"For all your self-praise as the world's number one, it seems you're actually afraid of Li Boyang deep down," Belona mocked.

"As you said, our world hasn't evolved completely, and we struggle to break through levels as he does. I don't deny it. If we were born in the same world, I'd be unrivaled," the old Evil said flatly, with no regard for Belona's provocation.

"You're saying nothing of substance; there is no 'if,'" Belona looked complexly at Li Xiu being brutally beaten within the Celestial Sea Palace by Bu'Er: "You don't have the confidence to defeat Li Boyang, but he does."

"Him?" The old Evil scoffed: "With his meager strength, are you dreaming?"

"Do you know why we haven't appeared in these few millennia?" Belona didn't argue back, she sighed and said.

"Why?" The old Evil was also always curious about this matter.

Although the Sixteen Ancestral Spirits were defeated, they were still the apex of power in the world, and the sixteen ancestral spirits always stayed together; the old Evil himself wouldn't dare say he could take on all sixteen.

The battle at the Spirit Suppressing Palace, they managed to defeat the Sixteen Ancestral Spirits because of the alliance of the Four Great Evil Spirits and Li Boyang.

Even so, they only managed to drive back the Sixteen Ancestral Spirits; killing them wasn't that easy.

Especially now, with the Four Great Evil Spirits scattered in different directions, and one missing, they couldn't possibly cooperate with Li Boyang again, which means the Sixteen Ancestral Spirits remain the strongest in the world, yet they've disappeared for so many years.

"We went to the Time Tunnel." Belona said with a serious expression.

"You went to the Time Tunnel? You've lost your mind?" The old Evil's face changed slightly.

"We never intended to return alive. We thought with the power of our Sixteen Ancestral Spirits, we could use the Time Tunnel to alter past and future; we hoped to return to the time before Li Boyang reached the Spirit Suppressing Palace to stop him from shattering it, thus altering the fate of the entire world..."

Chapter 1029: Inverting Black and White (Part 2)

"I don't believe the Time Tunnel can truly change the past and future; after all, it's just a legend," the old villain said.

"We still don't know if the Time Tunnel has the ability to alter the past and future because not only did we fail, but we also got trapped in the Time Passage, like zombies, for thousands of years," Belona said somewhat sadly.

"What exactly are you trying to say?" the old villain asked impatiently.

"It was Li Xiu who broke the Time Tunnel's restrictions, allowing us to escape," Belona said.

"Even you all were trapped in the Time Tunnel. What makes him capable of breaking its restrictions?" The old villain clearly didn't believe Belona's words.

"That's why I say he can defeat Li Boyang," Belona said, looking towards the Celestial Sea Palace. "Don't underestimate him because he's not strong enough now; he has infinite potential. In that Time Tunnel, we saw his past and that kind of possibility."

"What kind of possibility?" the old villain asked, frowning.

"He and Li Boyang both possess powers that don't belong to this world," Belona said.

"Are my old eyes so failing that I can't see he's from our world?" the old villain snorted coldly.

"I didn't say he's not from our world, just that he has powers not belonging to this world," Belona shook her head.

"Even if Li Boyang gave him another world's power, do you think he can use that to defeat Li Boyang?" the old villain asked.

"No, his power doesn't belong to this world, nor to Li Boyang. I don't know where that power comes from, but I believe he has a chance to defeat Li Boyang," Belona said.

"It's your business to believe in him, but I won't place the fate of myself and the world on a human, nor entrust hope to such intangible things," the old villain said stubbornly.

BANG!

Li Xiu's body developed another bloody hole; despite trying many methods, he couldn't break Bu'Er's strange power.

Bu'Er looked at Li Xiu coldly, a gun in her hand pointed at her own head, the barrel pressed against her temple. With just a pull of her trigger finger, Li Xiu's head would blossom open.

Li Xiu was covered in wounds; even without them, he wouldn't have had time to stop Bu'Er.

"It seems he will falter here. Your judgment is as poor as ever," the old villain said.

"Are you sure you want to fire that shot?" Li Xiu shook off the blood on his hand, looking at Bu'Er.

Bu'Er didn't say a word and directly pulled the trigger.

BANG!

The gunshot made Belona's heart skip a beat. She thought the shot wouldn't fire, but it did.

Belona quickly looked at Li Xiu, not seeing a scene of his brains splattering, nor even a shadow of Li Xiu.

The old villain was also taken aback, his eyes searching within the Celestial Sea Palace but failing to find Li Xiu's figure.

The bullet from the shot Bu'Er fired at her own head didn't manage to eject from the barrel.

Bu'Er seemed to realize something, swiftly teleporting, and immediately using Angel's Wings to change positions continuously upon reappearing.

But Bu'Er never saw Li Xiu, and her heart sank at once.

BANG!

While Bu'Er was still moving swiftly, she suddenly heard a gunshot and felt her forehead hit hard, pupils contracting, her head tilting back uncontrollably, body falling back, tracing a distance in the air before stabilizing her figure.

Li Xiu appeared in front of Bu'Er, sticking closely like a leech, a smoking gun barrel pressed against Bu'Er's chest.

Rat-a-tat! Rat-a-tat!

In the Gatling mode, the Forbidden Spear fired frantically at Bu'Er's chest, light bullets bombarding her relentlessly. Under the continuous explosions, Bu'Er was blasted into the sea, creating waves dozens of feet high.

The old villain's face turned somewhat displeased, even he couldn't discern how Li Xiu managed to hide his figure to approach Bu'Er.

Li Xiu hovered in mid-air, reaching out with a hand, the injured Dragon Vein Spirit surged out from the sea, coming to Li Xiu.

The Forbidden Spear shot repeatedly at the Dragon Vein Spirit's wound, the healing Undying Bullets quickly mending the injuries.

Li Xiu turned the gun on himself, quickly healing his earlier wounds.

He didn't dive into the sea; in fact, he never intended to kill Bu'Er; otherwise, he wouldn't have used the non-lethal Forbidden Bullets just now.

"Old villain, you see it now, don't you? He has infinite potential," Belona said.

"Pity, he has already missed his only chance to win," the old villain snorted coldly.

"Do you truly wish to continue like this?" Belona asked, somewhat angrily.

"I just don't want to gamble the entire world, at least now I haven't seen the possibility of winning the bet," the old villain said.

Water splashed everywhere as Bu'Er, blasted into the sea by Li Xiu, surged out of the water once again, unscathed, not even her clothes showing a trace of damage. Her once icy gaze had turned even colder.

"Bu'Er, I want to talk to you," Li Xiu sighed.

This was a duel that was impossible to win, not because he couldn't defeat Bu'Er, but because he didn't really want to hurt her.

Chapter 1030: Inverting Black and White (Part 3)

Bu'Er completely ignored Li Xiu, and with the Gatling gun state of the wooden spear, she shot at Li Xiu frantically.

She had already been hit by several types of Forbidden Bullets, such as Inauspicious and Reluctant, but she seemed completely unaffected. The trajectory of the bullets was precise and quickly sprayed towards Li Xiu, and Li Xiu sensed that those bullets were imbued with the power of the Forbidden Bullets.

Li Xiu was somewhat angry too. If it weren't for wanting to figure out the relationship between Bu'Er and Little Bu'Er, fearing that hurting Bu'Er would have a bad impact on Little Bu'Er, he wouldn't have let Bu'Er go so easily just now.

"It seems that unless I subdue her, words are useless." Li Xiu's figure flickered and disappeared again.

"Using the same trick in front of Bu'Er twice is courting death," Old Xie said coldly. "Bu'Er now is like the Spirit Suppressing Stone, equivalent to the origin of this world. Any power she has seen, she can use, and she can do it perfectly. Using the same ability in front of her is completely useless."

But just as Old Xie's voice fell, a bang was heard, Bu'Er's face twisted strangely, as if hit by a heavy punch, and her body flew to the side.

However, no one could be seen attacking her, and even Old Xie couldn't sense Li Xiu's presence.

Bang bang! Bang bang!

Bu'Er's body twisted continuously in mid-air, as if being hit by continuous attacks, taking countless punches, each leaving a patch of blue light on her. The final punch sent Bu'Er, whose whole body was frozen, flying into the sky.

"What did you just say? I didn't hear clearly?" Belona said with a slight smile, looking at Old Xie.

"What kind of power is that..." The shock on Old Xie's face hadn't faded, and this time he was genuinely surprised.

With his ability, he couldn't sense Li Xiu's presence when Li Xiu attacked, and Bu'Er, being the Spirit Suppressing Stone, couldn't sense Li Xiu's presence either. This was terrifying.

"Didn't I tell you? He's different from us. He has infinite possibilities," Belona said.

This time, Old Xie unusually didn't refute Belona.

Crack!

Bu'Er, who looked like an ice sculpture, shattered and emerged. Despite suffering such a strong bombardment from the Light of the Death Evil Spirit, she was unscathed.

Li Xiu looked at Bu'Er, whose black-and-white light flame was raging crazily, with her long hair flying upward, and couldn't help but frown.

Bu'Er's physical strength was extraordinarily abnormal. A typical Divine Position Demon Spirit might be killed by just one punch imbued with the Light of the Death Evil Spirit.

Bu'Er had taken so many punches of the Light of the Death Evil Spirit, and even if she wasn't dead, she should have been injured. Yet she was unscathed, causing Li Xiu to frown.

Bu'Er seemed completely emotionless; the light energy on her body constantly burst forth, but her eyes were extremely cold and indifferent. She wasn't angry at being beaten so hard by Li Xiu, only coldly indifferent.

Li Xiu already sensed that something was wrong with Bu'Er. Anyone else would have had some emotional reaction after being hit like that. Bu'Er's current state didn't seem like that of a normal person at all.

Bu'Er no longer aimed the gun at herself or shot at Li Xiu. Her eyes turned into two colors, black and white, one eye's black light like smoke, and the other eye's white light like clouds.

In the next second, Li Xiu saw Bu'Er's eyes suddenly swap black and white, immediately feeling uneasy, and used the Ultimate Light to vanish.

He had tried before; the ability of the Ultimate Light could escape Bu'Er's sinister power, preventing Bu'Er's gun, which could cause limitless harm, from hurting him.

But this time, the power Bu'Er used was clearly different from before, and Li Xiu couldn't be sure if the Ultimate Light could counter this unknown power.

Bang bang bang!

In the instant Li Xiu turned invisible, he felt a sudden sharp pain on his face, his face getting distorted as his body flew aside.

Then he felt continuous assaults pouring onto his body like a flood, identical to when he just attacked Bu'Er, almost indistinguishable.

Even the power of the attacks was identical, carrying both the Ultimate Light and the Light of the Death Evil Spirit.

But Bu'Er stood there without moving at all, while Li Xiu kept suffering the attacks.

Li Xiu immediately realized that Bu'Er wasn't attacking him; instead, all the power and moves he had used to attack Bu'Er were replaying on his own body.

Others could only see flashes of the Light of Evil Spirits in the air, but couldn't see Li Xiu's figure.

Bang!

Li Xiu's body was blasted into the sky, just like the scene when Bu'Er suffered the final attack, where she was blasted into the sky.

"It's useless; Bu'Er, who is integrated with the Spirit Suppressing Stone, is like a Demigod in this world. He doesn't stand a chance," Old Xie said.

"Are you sure you don't want to reconsider? He has potential," Belona said with some urgency.

Old Xie didn't outright deny Belona this time, indicating that Li Xiu's performance had somewhat shaken him. However, he didn't speak, meaning Li Xiu's performance wasn't enough to make him overturn his decision.

"Not dead yet? Then let's do it again." Bu'Er said coldly, as the black-and-white colors in her eyes swapped again.

Li Xiu immediately felt the continuous onslaught again replaying on his body, with the earlier scene unfolding once more.

Li Xiu tried to evade, but there was no way to dodge, akin to a temporal replay with no choice.

Li Xiu was continually battered, blue light scattering in the sky like fireworks, blossoming continuously.

Bu'Er simply watched everything happen without moving a finger. Even Li Xiu, who had turned invisible, could only be endlessly beaten, powerless to retaliate.

"Is this also the power of the Spirit Suppressing Stone?" A trace of worry flashed in Belona's eyes as she looked at Old Xie and asked.

"Not completely; due to some special reasons, Bu'Er mastered the power to invert the world. Under this power, even if Li Xiu's power can't be emulated, he can still be backfired. I can't clearly explain the specific principle. I named this power 'Inverting Black and White,'" Old Xie said. "Belona, give up. He can't possibly win. For the sake of your Sixteen Ancestral Spirits, if he gives up, we can spare his life."

Belona wanted to say something else but suddenly saw a change occurring inside the Celestial Sea Palace.

A red and a blue light energy surged like intertwining dragons.
