

When God 1071

Chapter 1071 Farewell (2)

"And then?" Li Xiu only had to hear Jiang Lanling recount the scene at that time to imagine how terrifying it must have been.

"There's no 'then.' In that instant, I was forcibly kicked out of the Destiny Crossroads Station. What happened afterward, I have no knowledge of, and I never went back there again." Jiang Lanling said.

"So, who exactly is that child?" Li Xiu asked, frowning.

"I don't know. When I entered there, Li Boyang was already holding the child, standing in front of the gate. Where he found that child, I know nothing about." Jiang Lanling said bitterly, "Actually, when the child followed me out, although I was terrified, I felt a bit relieved in my heart. If I had kept the child hidden, and Li Boyang couldn't find her, maybe the scenes I saw wouldn't really happen."

"You don't have to look at me like that. No matter what, I am also a part of this world. When the nest is overturned, no egg can remain intact; how could I wish for the world to truly be destroyed?" Jiang Lanling noticed Li Xiu's unusual gaze and explained with a sigh.

Li Xiu didn't doubt Jiang Lanling. She was right; any normal person wouldn't want to see their own world destroyed.

Li Xiu was just a bit puzzled. Li Boyang clearly wanted to use him to open the gate to the outside world. In theory, it should have been him going to the stone gate with Li Boyang, so how did it end up being Zazi?

"Could it be that Li Boyang's plan to use me to leave ultimately failed, so he found Zazi instead? Who exactly is Zazi? Why does she have the ability to help Li Boyang open the gate?" Li Xiu pondered in silence, unable to grasp the key to it all.

"That's all I know. If you don't believe me, even if you kill me, I have nothing more to offer." Jiang Lanling said.

Li Xiu didn't kill Jiang Lanling. He turned and left. Although he didn't learn Zazi's true identity, he knew that Zazi must be significantly connected to Li Boyang.

However, Li Xiu still couldn't comprehend why Li Boyang, who had gone to great lengths to cultivate him, would bother if there was indeed such a suitable choice like Zazi.

After leaving the Jade Royal Court, Li Xiu went to hunt the Divine Position Demon Spirits. Regardless of how things developed, increasing his strength was the priority, and Li Xiu had to proceed with his plan.

For several consecutive days, Li Xiu was constantly hunting Divine Position Demon Spirits at various places in the Land of Trial, and occasionally returned to Longevity Island, but only for a brief stay.

Each time Li Xiu returned, he would take a look at Zazi. But no matter how he looked, it was hard to imagine how Zazi could possibly open the Gate of the World. At least, on Zazi's body, Li Xiu did not sense an energy comparable to the Unparalleled.

Finally, Li Xiu obtained another Divine Position Gemstone, while the old immortal only managed to find one Evil.

When Li Xiu gave the Divine Position Gemstone to the old immortal, he promised to give him two more Evil in return. He had already traced them but hadn't acquired them yet.

Exchanging three Evil for one Divine Position Gemstone, the old immortal felt as if he had struck a great deal and wanted to compensate Li Xiu with some more gemstones, but Li Xiu declined, asking him to continue searching for more Evil.

To Li Xiu, the value of three Evil was absolutely not inferior to that of a Divine Position Gemstone. The only reason Divine Position Gemstones were so valuable now was that no one else could hunt the Divine Positions.

Li Xiu looked at the Evil in the bottle, considering whom to feed it to.

The most suitable recipients for the Evil were undoubtedly the intended bride and the Dragon Vein Spirit. However, the quality of this Evil was just radiant, not the top-tier brilliance. Li Xiu felt that using it to parasitize the bride and the Dragon Vein Spirit would be unfair to them.

Top-tier demons should indeed use top-tier Evil.

Ultimately, Li Xiu decided to give the Evil to the White Night Female Demon. When he summoned her out and opened the bottle, the Evil rushed towards her on its own, indicating its satisfaction with the White Night Female Demon.

The White Night Female Demon did not resist the Evil; she even eagerly absorbed it.

After being parasitized by the Evil, the White Night Female Demon became like a Jedi Knight and Demigod Shana, able to consume Demon Cores to advance in level. Li Xiu fed her the Divine Position Demon Core he had stored. In just a few days, the White Night Female Demon ascended to the Divine Position Level.

Li Xiu spared no effort, continuing to feed the Divine Position Demon Core to the White Night Female Demon, hoping she could grow to the pinnacle of the Divine Position.

Li Xiu discovered that during this period of frenzied hunting of Divine Position Demon Spirits, although he hadn't used any resources from them, the light energy within his body was growing stronger, bringing him closer to Unparalleled.

This situation was something Li Xiu had speculated about before, so he was not flustered.

"I don't have much time left." Li Xiu decided not to hunt any more Demon Spirits and instead returned to Courtyard Seven, calling Chu Jun, Sha Chu, Ah Fei, Jing Li, and the Ye Family siblings to his side one by one.

Before that day arrived, he wanted to leave something behind.

If the world still existed after that day, someone would need to stand up and do something for it.

"Li Xiu, why do I feel like you've been acting strange lately?" Li Ming'Er, holding the sleeping Zazi, looked at Li Xiu with a puzzled expression, scrutinizing him up and down.

Li Xiu glanced at Zazi, who was sucking her thumb in sleep, and smiled as he said, "Ming'Er, how have you been adjusting over this period?"

"Pretty well. Life here is much more meaningful than on Longevity Island." As Li Ming'Er spoke, her eyes naturally sparkled, making her particularly captivating.

Chapter 1072 Farewell (Part 3)

"In a few days, I'm going on a long trip, and I don't know if I'll be able to come back." Li Xiu said.

"What's happened? Didn't you already replace the Chairman to participate in that life-and-death battle? Why is there still something?" Li Ming'Er's eyebrows, like willow leaves, were almost knitted together.

"Do you trust me?" Li Xiu looked at Li Ming'Er and asked.

"Since I left Longevity Island, you are the closest person to me. If I don't trust you, who else can I trust?" Li Ming'Er rolled her eyes at Li Xiu, saying angrily, "Tell me, what exactly happened?"

"If you trust me, then don't ask anything. After I leave, you should take Zai Zai to the City of Light. If I can come back, I will go to the City of Light to find you and explain everything to you. If I can't come back..." Li Xiu paused, then smiled and said, "If I can't come back, you will know everything then."

Li Ming'Er stared at Li Xiu for a long time, remaining silent. Li Xiu was somewhat unnerved by her gaze before Li Ming'Er finally spoke, "If you don't come back, I'll avenge you."

"No need." Li Xiu thought to himself, "Not to mention that you are not a match for Li Boyang, even if you have the ability to kill him, how could I let you bear the name of patricide."

"Then I will wait for you in the City of Light, you have to come back." Li Ming'Er's eyes burned as she stared at Li Xiu, unwavering.

She seemed delicate, but beneath it, there was a stubbornness that Li Qingyi did not possess, unlike Li Qingyi who was understanding and knew to sympathize with others. But this stubbornness used on Li Ming'Er is not a derogatory term, for stubborn people often more easily enter others' hearts because they have already laid their hearts bare before you, without any concealment.

"Alright." Li Xiu agreed solemnly.

Li Ming'Er's face softened a bit, her seductive face assuming a deliberately fierce posture, "If you dare not keep your promise, even if you hide in hell, I will drag you out and give you a good beating."

"When have I ever disappointed you with the things I've promised?" Li Xiu said, taking out the Longevity Treasure Chopsticks he had borrowed and returning them to Li Ming'Er.

"What does this mean?" Li Ming'Er's expression turned cold again, her eyes like daggers staring at Li Xiu.

"In case anything happens, you should first save your life. I don't want to come back and only be able to fulfill my promise at your grave." Li Xiu smiled.

"Bah, who can harm this lady in this lousy place?" Li Ming'Er puffed out her chest with a proud look.

"Better safe than sorry, you take it first." Li Xiu said.

"Alright, I'll take it." Li Ming'Er reached out and accepted the Longevity Treasure Chopsticks, but like a magic trick, placed another Longevity Treasure Chopsticks in Li Xiu's hand, causing him to smile wryly.

"What you give me, I will take. What I give you, you must also take." Li Ming'Er's crescent-shaped eyes looked even more beautiful.

"This... I..." Li Xiu was speechless.

"What? I don't want to find you at your grave to fulfill my promise later." Li Ming'Er interrupted Li Xiu.

"You..." Li Xiu wanted to say something, but was interrupted again.

"Better safe than sorry." Li Ming'Er smiled like a little fox.

"Alright." Li Xiu reluctantly accepted the Longevity Treasure Chopsticks originally carried by Li Ming'Er.

Li Xiu met everyone one by one, even Shale was summoned by Li Xiu to receive some resources and the Light Planting Technique's method.

The only one Li Xiu hadn't met alone was A-Fei.

As days passed, the bride-to-be had already ascended to the Divine Position, but still had only one talent skill to show for it, nothing else could be seen, even the Light of Truth was absent.

In appearance, the bride-to-be had changed greatly from before.

Previously, the bride-to-be's clothing was too simple and plain, apart from a set of red clothes, she didn't even have a pair of shoes, barefoot like a red-clothed version of Sadako.

Now, the bride-to-be was fully adorned with a phoenix coronet and bridal attire, her red wedding dress embroidered with strange patterns, the patterns seemed stitched with red crystal silk, and the phoenix coronet was embedded with countless red gemstones, even the embroidered shoes on her feet were inlaid with rubies.

With each movement, she seemed to pulsate with red glow, as if cloaked in rosy light.

Li Xiu could sense the enormous energy within the bride-to-be's body, but for some unknown reason, even though she had ascended to the Divine Position level, she still couldn't fight; even against the weakest demonic spirit, she would just stand behind Li Xiu.

"Could it be that she can only reveal her abilities after ascending to Unparalleled, or is she fundamentally a useless demonic spirit, no matter how good the quality, what use is it if she can't fight?" Li Xiu was somewhat frustrated.

Originally counting on the bride-to-be to show qualitative changes after ascending to the Divine Position, considering her extreme Aurora quality, she might be of great use, but the result turned out to be useless.

For days Li Xiu had been suppressing the light energy within his body, but already felt he could hardly suppress it any longer. If he hadn't been suppressing it all along, he might have ascended to Unparalleled days ago.

"Once I was desperately trying to upgrade level, now I have to desperately suppress it, this world is indeed peculiar." Li Xiu sighed lightly, came to A-Fei's door, and knocked on her room door.

"Come in." A-Fei saw Li Xiu, just said plainly, didn't ask anything.

Li Xiu handed a string of keys to A-Fei, "These are the keys to the Vault in the City of Light... This is the key to the City Lord's Mansion... This is the key to my personal vault... and this... the key to my old house... visit it whenever you have the time... better tidy it up once in a while..."

"Anything else?" A-Fei took the keys, but still didn't ask anything.

"No." Li Xiu thought for a moment, finally shook his head.

"Understood." A-Fei said expressionlessly.

"That's good." Li Xiu turned around, ready to leave.

"Stop there, don't turn back." A-Fei's voice suddenly sounded behind him, somewhat fierce, but within that fierceness, there seemed to be something else.

"What's up?" Li Xiu stood still, didn't turn back.

A-Fei didn't speak, Li Xiu just felt her coming over, then leaning against his back, her cheek resting on his shoulder, still didn't say anything.

After a long silence, A-Fei suddenly released Li Xiu and said coldly, "Go, don't turn back."

Li Xiu didn't turn back, step by step left until disappearing at the end of the long street, A-Fei said nothing, but tears had already filled her face.

Chapter 1073 Unparalleled

In the highest tower of the Jade Royal Court, Li Xiu sat quietly against the wall, silently waiting for something.

His body seemed to flicker intermittently, as if a bug from an ancient game had appeared, his form occasionally disappearing for a moment, then instantly reappearing.

Li Xiu was nearly unable to suppress his transformation, poised on the brink of ascending to Unparalleled.

Jiang Lanling stood nearby, gazing at Li Xiu with a complex expression. Li Xiu had already informed her that he intended to have his final battle with Li Boyang here and that she could leave, but she chose to stay.

Looking at Li Xiu now, Jiang Lanling felt a bit of trepidation. Such a transformation was nearly impossible for humans, let alone magical spirits.

The signs of Li Xiu's impending rise were evident, the energy emanating from his body already filling her with terror.

Yet, Li Xiu continued to restrain his energy, seemingly unwilling to ascend to Unparalleled just yet.

"You can still leave now," Li Xiu said quietly, his eyes lowered.

"I want to witness this battle with my own eyes." Jiang Lanling did not bother to explain, her gaze firm as iron.

"Very well." Li Xiu spoke lightly, no longer suppressing his energy, though in truth, he could suppress it no longer.

Boom!

A bloody, red aura burst forth from Li Xiu, rising skyward and transforming into a blood-colored curtain, instantly dyeing heaven and earth crimson.

The Jade Royal Court transformed further into a Blood Court, with everything soaked in blood hues.

The color was not merely surface-level; even if the entire castle were split open, the inside would remain blood-red.

Jiang Lanling felt fear gripped her heart, instinctively wanting to retreat. Yet her body refused to obey, moving toward Li Xiu despite her wish to flee.

Panic washed over Jiang Lanling as she attempted to summon the Jade Light. What terrified her even more was that the Light Energy within her seemed to vanish, unable to respond no matter how she called. At that moment, she felt she had become a mortal who had never cultivated.

"Is this the power of Unparalleled?" Jiang Lanling's fear had reached its peak, as Li Xiu's strength surpassed all her understanding.

A creaking sound interrupted Jiang Lanling's thoughts as the grand doors of the Blood Court were pushed open, and a figure slowly entered.

"Li Boyang." Jiang Lanling knew Li Boyang would come, yet seeing him in person, she couldn't help but grind her teeth, her expression complex and unreadable.

Rhythmic footsteps echoed as the frail-looking old Li Boyang ascended the tower, coming face to face with Li Xiu and Jiang Lanling.

"Princess Lan, you shouldn't be here." Li Boyang glanced at Jiang Lanling, speaking blandly.

"I want to watch you die," Jiang Lanling hissed, teeth clenched.

Li Boyang said nothing further nor did he spare Jiang Lanling another glance, his gaze settled on Li Xiu as he remarked with a smile, "You progressed faster than I expected. If you had stayed away from the Land of Trial, you could've enjoyed a few more days. Unfortunately, you're too stubborn, killing too many magical spirits."

"Sooner or later it would have been the same, makes no difference," Li Xiu replied, still sitting against the wall with no intention of standing, simply looking at Li Boyang. "Today, is it true that only one of us will survive?"

"It's not that only one of us can survive, but rather only I will," Li Boyang squinted, answering.

Li Xiu smiled slightly, "If that's the case, can you answer a question for me?"

"You always have many questions, some quite irritating," Li Boyang shifts the topic, saying, "But today is special, I'll grant you this wish."

"Who is Tang Tianzhen?" Li Xiu inquired calmly, unperturbed by Li Boyang's remarks.

Li Boyang seemed to have anticipated Li Xiu's question, replying with a smile, "You guessed right. Because of his existence, I can keep track of Han Ling'Er's whereabouts."

"That's not my question. I'm asking you, what kind of person he is?" Li Xiu asked calmly.

Li Boyang's previous words Li Xiu had already partially guessed.

"To you all, he should be regarded as a Creator God." Li Boyang's answer made Li Xiu frown slightly.

"Creator God?" Li Xiu found the answer unsatisfying.

"I know it's unbelievable, that a world could be created by a single being. If it was the true world, certainly not, but this world is too primitive," Li Boyang said slowly, "Think about the name Tang Tianzhen backwards."

"Tang Tianzhen... True Heaven Tang... True Paradise..." Li Xiu murmured.

"Indeed, he wants to mold this world into a true paradise, but alas, I arrived," Li Boyang smiled.

"Is he from your world?" Li Xiu sighed.

"Only half," Li Boyang's response left ambiguity.

"Why only half?" Li Xiu's Light Energy still flickered, alongside the blood hue, red and blue Light Energy continuously overflowing.

"This question is complex, hard to explain fully. You might understand it as he and I stemming from the same place," Li Boyang seemingly unwilling to elaborate.

Li Xiu slowly stood, his Light Energy igniting with his movements, unable to be contained as red and blue intertwined, fusing into a purple light, seeming to cloak him in radiant film.

Chapter 1074 Unparalleled (Part 2)

"I know, if you don't give it a try, you won't give up. So go ahead. I'm curious to know what kind of being this incomplete world can produce." Li Boyang said as he tore off his robe, his shriveled body swelling and transforming into a muscular monster.

Lines of seals pressed onto his muscles, like life imprints branded onto his body.

"I also want to know how strong the people of that world really are." Li Xiu thought, and blood flowers bloomed like fresh flowers.

The entire castle was like being enveloped by a blood-red Forbidden Flower, its deep crimson color making the originally sky-obscuring blood curtain seem pale.

Jiang Lanling saw a terrifying scene. Under that dark red Forbidden Power, the space seemed to become chaotic, the entire castle was like being strangled by an invisible force, the indestructible Jade Castle shattered, turning into neatly cut blocks, which further smashed into smaller pieces, the entire process repeating incessantly, within an instant, the Jade Royal Court had already turned into ruins.

Jiang Lanling knew that it wasn't that Li Xiu intended to destroy the Jade Royal Court, but his power disrupted the world's rules, causing objects that existed due to these rules to naturally become chaotic and destroyed due to the rule disturbance.

Li Boyang stood among those endlessly shattering blocks, merely watching everything being destroyed without his body being affected.

"The Forbidden Light is indeed the top power in this world. After breaking the rule constraints, its capabilities are truly terrifying. Such a Forbidden Force can strip away the bindings of any material in the world, but such power cannot harm me. I've long been beyond any taboos." Li Boyang said indifferently.

"Is that so?" Li Xiu raised his right arm, curling three fingers, with the index finger and thumb forming an L shape, his whole hand resembling a gun aimed at Li Boyang.

"Bang!" Li Xiu's hand jerked as if firing a shot, and he made a gunshot sound with his mouth.

To Jiang Lanling, this seemed just like a child playing pretend.

Yet, Li Boyang's head suddenly snapped back, his body bending into an arch, the back of his head nearly touching the ground.

A bullet hole-like indentation appeared in the center of his brow, still emitting smoke.

Jiang Lanling was shocked. She hadn't seen any Light Energy appear on Li Xiu's fingers, she had no idea how Li Boyang got hit in the brow.

Of course, what shocked her wasn't that Li Boyang was hit, but that blood was slowly seeping from the bullet hole in his brow. It was the first time she'd seen Li Boyang wounded.

The Demon Country Celestial Emperor, who swept through the Demon Spirit Realm, was nearly invincible, covering the sky with one hand, was wounded by Li Xiu's seemingly childish act.

Li Xiu looked at the injured Li Boyang, but there wasn't a trace of joy. Li Boyang's feet were firmly anchored, his body maintaining that bizarre posture.

The next second, Li Boyang's body snapped back as if the drawn bowstring recoiled, standing straight instantly.

The indent on his brow rebounded immediately, restoring to its original state, without a single trace of injury.

"Not bad, being able to injure my body, your power can just barely be considered the peak of this world. But it's still a bit lacking, continue." Li Boyang looked at Li Xiu without a hint of anger or annoyance, but rather full of eager anticipation.

Li Xiu understood what his 'continue' meant, it wasn't to continue the attack. Li Xiu knew very well that even after breaking the world's rules, the Forbidden Power still couldn't truly wound Li Boyang. His body was simply too strong.

"Then let's continue." Li Xiu had nothing to hesitate about, releasing the constraints, the Evil Spirit Token instantly broke through the rules.

Unlike the Forbidden Light, after breaking the constraints, the Evil Spirit Token didn't burst forth with dazzling brilliance, nor did it shake the world's rules, not even changing anything.

Li Xiu's entire body shimmered with an eerie purple glow, hazy and indistinct, making him look like a purple ghost, seemingly not truly existing within this world.

"Bang!" Li Xiu's handgun shot once more towards Li Boyang.

This time, Li Boyang's body did not tilt back, a purple bullet hole appeared directly on his head, with purple light flowing in the bullet hole.

In just an instant, the purple light flowing from the bullet hole enveloped Li Boyang's entire body, like raging purple flames covered him from head to toe, instantly burning his body to a charcoal-like black.

"Dead!" Jiang Lanling's expression was complicated.

That purple light flame reminded Jiang Lanling of the most terrifying legend in the Demon Spirit Realm.

The Demon Spirits themselves almost have no limit to lifespan, unlike humans whose lives are so brief.

But Demon Spirits also face death, albeit different from human death. The death of a Demon Spirit isn't due to aging, but a form of calamity.

When the fate of a Demon Spirit is exhausted, no matter how powerful that Demon Spirit is, even possessing the ability to destroy the heavens and earth, they too would spontaneously combust, countless purple flames arising within them, incinerating them into dissipated souls, with all their energy returning to nature, leaving not a single trace behind.

Nobody knows where that purple light flame comes from, or why it arises, only that when the purple light flame appears, a Demon Spirit is certain to immolate itself, without exception.

Chapter 1075 - Unparalleled (3)

For those Demon Spirits who self-immolate, it is a calamity, but for other Demon Spirits, it is a grand feast of life evolution.

In the area where the purple flames self-immolate, the Light Energy will increase at an unprecedented rate. If weaker Demon Spirits can stay in that area for a while, they will evolve rapidly in a short period, not only in level but also in quality and Primordial Embryo Quality, experiencing varying degrees of enhancement.

Even some powerful Demon Spirits can gain different degrees of enhancement in that area.

Legend has it that in the history of the Demon Spirit Realm, an Unparalleled Demon Spirit once perished by self-immolation. In the area of his death, some originally very weak Demon Spirit Races, which could barely develop a Light Base, became dominant tribes in just a thousand years.

Therefore, in the Demon Spirit Realm, Demon Spirits refer to this self-immolation calamity as a life sacrifice. As one demon falls, ten thousand arise. This is one of the great miracles of the Demon Spirit Realm.

Li Xiu's power, no matter how you look at it, seems like that legendary purple flame.

As Li Boyang's body was turned into something like charcoal, and that charred form continued to peel away layer by layer, Jiang Lanling's expression grew increasingly complex.

She always wished she could tear Li Boyang limb from limb, wished she could kill him with her own hands, but when Li Boyang was really about to die, she felt no joy, nor the satisfaction she had imagined.

The charred fragments falling from Li Boyang had not yet touched the ground before they turned to flying ash, drifting in the air and disappearing in an instant.

Under the burning of the purple flames, layer after layer of charred skin peeled away. Jiang Lanling originally thought Li Boyang would be consumed in this way, but with the peeling of a charred layer, what was exposed was unexpectedly crystal-clear white skin.

Crack! Crack!

The charring continued to fall away, revealing more and more of the crystal-clear skin. Before long, Li Boyang's figure was fully revealed again.

However, at this time, Li Boyang was completely different from before. If Jiang Lanling hadn't seen Li Boyang when he was young, she might not have recognized it was him.

At this moment, Li Boyang was no longer the thin old man, nor the muscular monster-like brute.

His skin was as lustrous as jade, his eyes like flawless, deep gemstones, with a mane of loose, jet-black hair. His body was long and lean, every muscle forming perfect lines, resembling an immaculate deity walking out of mythology.

Like a natural divine being, Li Boyang's lips parted slightly, and the purple flames outside his body flowed like water into his stomach, with a faint purple aura emanating from his body, resembling clouds and mist streaming from countless pores, clinging to him like clothing or a robe.

"The Spirit Suppressing Stone is the ultimate life, and Purgatory is the ultimate death. The wheel of life and death, yin and yang merge as one. I must thank you for freeing me from the shackles of this world." A smile appeared on Li Boyang's divinely handsome face.

Li Xiu looked at Li Boyang. Even considering their adversarial relationship, he had to admit that Li Boyang was indeed a rare man in the world.

With such appearance and charisma, no wonder he could deceive so many women of different races into falling head over heels for him, even knowing it was a trap, willing to sacrifice themselves like moths to a flame to bear his offspring.

"Is this your true form?" Li Xiu looked at Li Boyang, unsurprised.

The Spirit Suppressing Stone had shattered into four pieces; he absorbed three of them, and the last one was with Li Boyang.

Li Xiu had both the Evil Spirit Token and the Spirit Suppressing Stone, and he had long known that there was a connection between the two.

Li Boyang nodded slightly. Whether due to the transformation in his appearance and aura, at this moment, no matter what Li Boyang did, he no longer had even a hint of his former sleazy demeanor. It always seemed that whatever he did, it was justified.

"I once told you, I stayed for a time in another prison, where I met a man. He was like you all, of mortal flesh, and I initially did not pay him any mind. However, after conversing with him, he spoke profound truths that astonished even me. Those insights, even in my world, could be described as profound truths. It was extraordinary that a mere mortal could comprehend such depths. Alas, he was only mortal, despite his transcendent enlightenment, he was still fated to die."

"I am a prisoner, and I no longer have the face to use my former name. Yet, I greatly admired him, and so I adopted his name. The name Li Boyang comes from this." Li Boyang calmly looked at Li Xiu and said, "The Dao begets one, one begets two, two begets three, and three begets all things. All things carry yin and embrace yang, merging their energies for harmony. Heaven and earth have the Dao, which divides into yin and yang. The balance of yin and yang births all things. I do not belong to this world. To this world, I am an external force disrupting the balance of yin and yang, forsaken by heaven and earth. Only by harmonizing yin and yang can I align with the heavenly Dao and break free from my shackles. The Spirit Suppressing Stone is the extreme yang of this world, and the Purgatory Force is extreme yin. Only these two forces can prevent me from being forsaken by heaven and earth."

"Such a figure, if I could meet him and hear some of his truths once, my life would not be wasted." Li Xiu praised.

"After you leave, I will record what he said and burn it for you." Li Boyang deeply agreed.

"I won't read the book for now. Rather than reading, I want to live." As Li Xiu spoke, the Light Energy on his body erupted once more.

But this time, the eruption of Light Energy was completely different from before. Li Xiu's body flickered more and more intensely, appearing and disappearing, gradually turning transparent. Through his body, the scenery behind him was unobstructedly visible, until he finally vanished completely.

This was not the end. With that burst of Light Energy, Li Xiu's body gradually reappeared, shifting from intangible to tangible, slowly solidifying, and he reemerged in the sight of Li Boyang and Jiang Lanling. Eventually, his body completely returned to normal, devoid of any brilliance, resembling an ordinary mortal body.

Li Boyang watched Li Xiu's transformation, the smile at the corner of his mouth growing wider; this was the moment he had truly been waiting for.

Li Xiu had truly ascended to the unparalleled.

Chapter 1076: The Final Gift

"Aren't you going to escape?" Li Boyang scrutinized Li Xiu with keen interest.

"Why should I escape?" Li Xiu retorted without hesitation.

"You chose to ascend to unparalleled here, isn't it to lead me into the Time Tunnel? I suppose Jinghao has already told you that only in that Time Tunnel can you kill me. At this point, why cover it up? If you want to enter the Time Tunnel, I'll accompany you," Li Boyang said confidently.

"It's unnecessary," Li Xiu replied blandly.

"Are you doubting Jinghao?" Li Boyang smiled and said, "Then you've misunderstood him. He might deceive anyone, but he would never deceive you. Someone like him typically doesn't have friends, yet he regards you as one. It's puzzling; many would trade everything for his trust, but he remains unmoved. It's those like you who don't value him that he deems as friends. Quite unusual, isn't it?"

"Indeed, I don't regard Guan Jinghao as a friend, not because I look down on him, but because our personalities clash. This doesn't mean I doubt his character; I've never questioned him," Li Xiu responded.

"Since you trust him, why not enter the Time Tunnel?" Li Boyang considered briefly, then realized, "It seems you have a deep-seated prejudice against me, believing I've been manipulating Jinghao from the start, using him to manipulate you, right?"

Li Xiu shook his head again, "You're overthinking. I have no need to enter the Time Tunnel."

"That's quite interesting. Without entering the Time Tunnel, how do you plan to kill me?" Li Boyang found it increasingly amusing.

Li Xiu didn't answer, simply raised his arm, his fingers mimicking a gun, targeting Li Boyang's forehead.

"Your Light Planting Technique is indeed wondrous, refining such profound Light Energy with your body as the seed. Even I can't discern the nature of your Light Energy. Fine, before you turn into my key, let your existence leave one final radiance in this world," Li Boyang stood with hands behind his back, showing no intention to defend or attack.

Bang!

Li Xiu's finger trembled, and a strange force descended directly before Li Boyang as if there had never been an intermediary process.

Jiang Lanling's emotions were complex, her eyes glued to Li Boyang, eager to see whether Li Xiu's attack could hurt him.

Despite Li Boyang's almost invincible body, the power Li Xiu displayed was equally extraordinary.

Previously, he had already revealed two unparalleled forces, which were not his true strength. Jiang Lanling could not be sure if Li Xiu's true power could kill Li Boyang, leaving her heart uneasy.

It was initially thought that Li Xiu's power would be stronger than before, yet this time, his power couldn't even touch Li Boyang's body.

An invisible bullet was blocked by a surge of purple energy. The bullet formed a vacuum shape within the purple aura, advancing slowly. When it was two inches from Li Boyang's forehead, it could move no further.

Looking at the bullet halted before him, Li Boyang said with some disappointment, "I thought your power would be of what degree. It turns out to be just so, somewhat disappointing."

Speaking, Li Boyang reached out, plucked the bullet wrapped in purple like picking fruit, and played with it at will.

"Haven't used any power outside my physique for years in this world. Let's play a bit," with that, Li Boyang flicked his wrist, and the bullet in his hand vanished instantly.

Jiang Lanling's shock was beyond words. As powerful as Li Xiu was, he seemed to have no way against Li Boyang, whose true power was even more formidable than she had anticipated, possibly an invincible existence in the world.

Bang!

With a sudden explosion, Jiang Lanling's eyes widened.

The bullet Li Boyang flicked did not, as she had expected, appear in Li Xiu's body; instead, Li Boyang's own forehead bore a bullet hole.

"How could this happen?" Jiang Lanling was bewildered, unable to understand why, when Li Boyang clearly held the upper hand, the bullet ended up wounding him instead of flying toward Li Xiu.

Looking at the bullet in Li Boyang's forehead, Li Xiu said calmly, "You used the Spirit Suppressing Stone and my Purgatory Force to rid yourself of the world's rejection. But as you said, you were originally an element disrupting the world's balance. Now, you've merged with the Spirit Suppressing Stone and the Purgatory Force, aligning yourself within the cosmic yin and yang. This means you've turned from an outsider to an insider. My power was ineffective against you before because you were outside the rules. Now that you're within, you have no special privileges."

Li Boyang wiped the bullet wound from his forehead, a glance of unfathomable emotion in his eyes, a hint of a smile began to emerge at the corner of his mouth, "So you knew all along, deliberately gave me the Purgatory Force, to bring me into the rules. Excellent, truly excellent, no wonder you were my chosen one. When did you find out?"

"Not too long ago, once I learned you laid so many traps on me, I no longer held any false hopes. You sent me to the Gate of Purgatory, certainly with an ulterior motive," Li Xiu said.

Li Boyang's smile widened, "Being rejected by the world, I couldn't acquire the Purgatory Force, even if I went to the Gate of Purgatory myself, so I had to find someone to help. Yet that place is not survivable by mere humans; fortunately, you appeared."

Chapter 1077 The Final Gift (Part 2)

"You've got what you wanted, so there's nothing more to say. Just as you said, let's see how strong your real power truly is," Li Xiu said, looking at Li Boyang.

"Very well," Li Boyang replied softly, with a sudden wave of his large hand. The vast purple aura around him surged forth like a True Dragon, devouring heaven and earth, swallowing toward Li Xiu.

Li Xiu's vision was engulfed by the purple aura, as if the heavens and the earth were swallowed by it, leaving no place for him to stand, nowhere to hide, nowhere to escape.

Li Xiu stood there quietly, as if he had no intention of dodging or avoiding it. Reaching out with his hand, that vast purple aura covering heaven and earth flowed into his palm like a raging torrent. No matter how vast the purple aura was, it couldn't escape his palm. Within the small space of his palm, it was as if there were a world within a world.

In a moment's time, the heavenly purple aura was all gathered into one hand, transforming into a smoke-like purple ball, held by Li Xiu in his palm.

Seeing this, Li Boyang showed no hint of surprise. Instead, his smile deepened. Looking at Li Xiu, who held the Purple Qi Ball in one hand, he said, "Your Super Bottle Suction can be said to be the most fundamental ability in the world. Essentially, all beings who want to survive are plundering the energy of other beings. This is the fundamental ability of all beings. You've trained the most fundamental ability to this extent. If given the chance to advance further, you might carve out a place for yourself even in my world."

"But unfortunately, your opponent is me," Li Boyang said to Li Xiu, speaking each word clearly.

With Li Boyang's voice, the Purple Qi Ball that was already in Li Xiu's hand underwent a bizarre change. The purple aura within the ball split into two, transforming into the yin and yang attributes, rotating like Tai Chi.

In an instant, the Tai Chi Purple Qi Ball began to reverse-suck Li Xiu's Light Energy, forcibly pulling Li Xiu's Light Energy into the ball continuously.

"Human cultivation is inherently against the heavens, seizing the power of heaven and earth to cultivate one's own laws. By opposing heaven and earth, one is naturally abandoned by them," Li Boyang said to Li Xiu calmly.

As Li Xiu's Light Energy was absorbed into the Tai Chi Purple Qi Ball, the suction power of the ball became stronger and harder to control.

"Gained from heaven and earth...returned to heaven and earth...this is the way of nature..." Li Boyang's voice sounded like the 大道道, his gaze focused.

One second...two seconds...three seconds...nothing happened. Li Boyang was slightly taken aback.

The Tai Chi Purple Qi Ball was still in Li Xiu's hand, without the slightest movement.

Li Xiu looked at Li Boyang and said calmly, "Your Realm of Law is indeed unparalleled, but you've made one mistake."

"What mistake?" Li Boyang frowned and asked.

"Don't play at technology with me...as for technology...no one can beat me..." Li Xiu curled his fingers around the Tai Chi Purple Qi Ball, gripping it as if it were a baseball. His arm stretched backward to its limit, forming a bow-like arc full of explosive strength. Suddenly, he threw the Tai Chi Purple Qi Ball out.

Buzz!

The Tai Chi Purple Qi Ball instantly broke through the limitations of space, disappearing from everyone's vision in a way that defied science.

Boom!

When the Tai Chi Purple Qi Ball reappeared, it had already struck Li Boyang's abdomen. The purple Light Energy exploded, forming a purple Light Energy vortex. For a moment, the entire world seemed to be caught in the vortex. The surrounding space twisted and shattered, being sucked into the whirlpool.

Jiang Lanling, at the peak of a Divine Position, stood at the edge of the vortex and couldn't escape. She was pulled toward the vortex, and no matter how much Light Energy she unleashed, it had no effect. She was about to disappear.

Li Xiu reached out and grabbed her, lifting Jiang Lanling's body out of the whirlpool, and in a flash, she was in front of Li Xiu.

"Let's go, this is not a place where you should stay," Li Xiu said calmly, tossing Jiang Lanling behind him.

Jiang Lanling bit her lip, retreated quickly to distance herself from the battlefield, but did not leave. She still wanted to see the outcome of the battle.

The Purple Qi Vortex swept the heavens and the earth, sucking in so many things. Instead of expanding, it became smaller and smaller, finally transforming into a point, seemingly about to disappear completely.

Jiang Lanling was astonished beyond words. Even though she had never seen this before, she could tell that Li Xiu's attack had manipulated space, forcibly drawing Li Boyang into another space. If the Purple Qi Vortex completely disappeared, Li Boyang would be entirely isolated in another space, and it would be incredibly difficult for him to come out again.

As they watched the vortex shrink to an extreme point, becoming as tiny as a pinhead, it seemed it would vanish like a bubble in the next second.

But suddenly, from the pinpoint of purple aura, a long hand forcibly stretched out, followed by another hand.

The two hands bizarrely tore open the space, pulling it apart like a curtain, revealing a rift from which Li Boyang slowly emerged.

After Li Boyang stepped out, the spatial rift behind him disappeared, and a speck of purple light shattered and vanished like bubbles, completely gone without a trace.

"I came through shattered space, this little trick cannot trap me," Li Boyang squinted at Li Xiu and said, "However, you indeed surprised me. To control power to such an extent, to manipulate space with a single hand, such skill deserves the title Hand of God."

Chapter 1078 The Last Gift (Part 3)

Li Xiu seemed to have anticipated that such a technique couldn't trap Li Boyang, and said calmly, "Let's fight if we're going to fight, why waste words?"

Li Boyang chuckled, "Well, this isn't about me asking you questions, it's more like you're tired of my chatter."

"True, spending too much time with that old guy has rubbed off on me, I've picked up some of his habits, always trying to reason with others. It's not a great habit." The smile on Li Boyang's face gradually faded, "Then let's just use our fists and not our words."

As soon as he finished speaking, Li Boyang took a step forward, and the entire world seemed to shrink with that step. Despite being several miles apart, he was suddenly right in front of Li Xiu, reaching out to grab him with a sky-covering hand, as if this one palm would crush Li Xiu within its grasp.

Li Xiu's gaze sharpened, and he also extended a hand, meeting Li Boyang's hand firmly.

In an instant, the world shattered, the sun and moon lost their light, and the terrifying battle commenced.

Thousands of miles turned to ruins, as the horrifying power swept across the land like a torrent, destroying everything in its path.

Even the mighty Jiang Lanling could only desperately flee the battlefield; the mere shockwaves of that power were enough to shatter her completely.

Yet her speed couldn't escape the shockwaves, and just as she was about to be engulfed, a light screen rose before her, firmly blocking the waves.

A breathtaking woman appeared from the void, emanating divine radiance. The light that blocked the shockwaves came from her body.

Beams of light shot through the sky, rising in different directions, as if countless pillars reached for the heavens.

One beam... two beams... three beams...

Sixteen pillars of light connected in the sky, forming a massive light shield that enveloped thousands of miles, encasing the entire battlefield.

"You... you're not dead..." Jiang Lanling exclaimed in shock upon seeing the divine woman.

Belona didn't turn to look at her, only smiled slightly, "So it was indeed you who helped Li Boyang in the Time Tunnel against us."

"Yes, it was me. If you want to kill me, can you wait until this battle ends? I won't even resist, I'll give my life to you," Jiang Lanling said.

"If you want to die, that's your business, not mine," Belona said dismissively.

"You don't hate me?" Jiang Lanling was slightly stunned.

"If someone attacks you with a knife, do you blame the knife?" Belona retorted.

Jiang Lanling was initially taken aback, then her face turned pale, "Someone like me doesn't deserve your hatred."

Belona didn't comment, her gaze fixed on the battlefield, the Light Energy emanating from her grew stronger.

"Who will win this battle?" Jiang Lanling asked again.

"I don't know," Belona replied.

Everything inside the Light Realm had been destroyed. If not for the shield, half of the Demon Spirit Realm would've been ruined by now.

Countless members of the Demon Spirit Race trembled, staring at the flickering Light Realm from afar.

Boom!

With a loud explosion, a sun-like light ignited inside the Light Realm, growing larger and swiftly filling the entire region; even the most powerful beings found the brightness unbearable.

When the light faded away, the Light Realm was silent, as if all were returned to peace.

The Sixteen Ancestral Spirits searched within the Light Realm, soon seeing Li Xiu and Li Boyang hovering in the Light Realm, appearing unscathed.

"Your control and battle techniques have surpassed the level of this world," Li Boyang said, looking at Li Xiu.

"Your techniques are unique," Li Xiu replied.

"Unique? Truly an arrogant word," Li Boyang laughed. "It's a technique of a higher realm. If people of that realm knew a human from a small cosmos described their techniques as 'unique,' they'd be furious. But you do qualify to say it, as although in this world the techniques don't show their true power, you're able to instantly grasp and learn them, which is unusual."

"Now I'm somewhat regretful," Li Boyang suddenly sighed.

"Regretful about what?" Li Xiu asked.

"If I could choose again, I wouldn't have made you the key," Li Boyang said.

"Why?" Li Xiu was surprised Li Boyang would suddenly say this.

"With your talent, if you could follow me out, you might help me fulfill my wish." Li Boyang looked up into the endless void, "But now it's too late, I have no choice. This world can't nurture another creature capable of becoming a key besides you; you're my only option."

"This is destiny," Li Xiu said calmly, unmoved.

"You're right, destiny it is," Li Boyang sighed lightly, "Then let this destiny end."

Li Xiu's face changed slightly, as the Devour Spirit within him activated, his body was soon covered in white porcelain-like armor, shell-like scales quickly merged into one, encasing his entire body.

A pair of white butterfly wings also emerged, making Li Xiu resemble a humanoid porcelain butterfly just emerged from its cocoon.

With the emergence of the Devour Spirit, Li Xiu's body felt bound, as though countless threads from within cells held every one in place.

The next moment, Li Xiu felt a sharp sting in his brain, and the Light Energy within him began to rampage, endless energy spontaneously arising, saturating every cell.

His previously top-tier Unparalleled Body began a new evolution.

"Unparalleled... That's a joke... It's nothing to me... Only by becoming the Cosmic Body do you truly qualify to be my key... this Devour Spirit is my final gift to you..." Li Boyang said, gazing intensely at Li Xiu, eyes filled with Frenzy.

Chapter 1079 The Loser Becomes the Prisoner

Countless light threads drilled out of Li Xiu's body, each thread connected to a cell within him, and in an instant, Li Xiu was entirely enveloped by them, forming a gigantic cocoon of threads.

More terrifyingly, these light threads extended in all directions, stabbing into the light shield formed by the combined efforts of the Sixteen Ancestral Spirits.

Belona and the Sixteen Ancestral Spirits' expressions changed simultaneously, eyes filled with horror.

"Spirit Devouring force... retreat..." the Gentleman Ancestral Spirit shouted angrily.

Even without him saying, the Sixteen Ancestral Spirits wanted to retreat their strength, but they were horrified to discover that their wills seemed beyond their control, clearly wanting to retract their power and retreat, yet their bodies seemed to resist their wills, unable to retreat.

They knew very well that it wasn't their bodies resisting their will, but their wills were influenced by the Spirit Devouring force.

Countless light threads penetrated the light shield, and in an instant, they climbed over it like a spider web, finally connecting to the Sixteen Ancestral Spirits.

The Sixteen Ancestral Spirits were both shocked and angry, desperately trying to break free, collectively roaring: "Li Xiu... don't be controlled by the Spirit Devouring... wake up..."

Their souls seemed pierced by the light threads, like puppet strings, unable to control their own bodies.

"The Spirit Devouring force is stronger than before!" Belona exclaimed, failing to awaken Li Xiu.

"Li Boyang's methods are truly vicious. After modifying the Spirit Devouring, it almost merged with Li Xiu's body. Every growth Li Xiu undergoes allows the Spirit Devouring to grow alongside him, absorbing all the power he gains. Now, Li Xiu has fused with the Spirit Suppressing Stone, and the Spirit Devouring force has also obtained its power. It's no longer the Spirit Devouring force of former days; now it can control the whole world..." The Gentleman Ancestral Spirit's face darkened.

In truth, the other ancestral spirits had already noticed this.

Numerous light threads had passed through the light shield, extending to the corners of the world. On countless demon spirits, a single light thread connected, as if turning them into puppets, their Spiritual Sense invaded and devoured, unable to control their bodies.

The Spirit Devouring originally could devour Spiritual Sense, but it absolutely couldn't devour the Spiritual Sense of all living things like this. Yet now, after merging with Li Xiu and the Spirit Suppressing Stone, the entire world appeared to be a gigantic puppet theater before it, where all marionettes became its string puppets, allowing it to invade Spiritual Sense and extract souls.

As the Spiritual Sense of billions of demon spirits was continuously extracted, flowing through the light threads into the light cocoon, the cocoon became increasingly eerie, seeming to pulsate with life like a heart, with mysterious light flickering inside, brightening and dimming.

Powerful though the ancestral spirits were, they couldn't break free from the light threads, desperately exploding power, roaring thunderously, yet all in vain, their consciousness growing murky.

They were too close to Li Xiu, their souls extracted too severely, powerless to escape.

After being countered by the Spirit Devouring, Li Xiu's body and the Spirit Devouring continuously fused, elevating to a new level, half a step away from Cosmic Level.

The Spirit Devouring, after devouring Li Xiu's Spiritual Sense, gained control, intending to use the world's life force to breakthrough into Cosmic Level.

Li Boyang watched this scene, a strange glint in his eyes, slowly walking toward the light cocoon formed by Li Xiu.

"He hasn't ascended to Cosmic Level yet, it's a bit early to approach now." A voice stopped Li Boyang's steps toward Li Xiu.

Turning his head, he saw Tang Tianzhen, extraordinarily handsome, appearing divine despite lacking any radiance, who had arrived without notice.

"Do I need you to teach me how to act?" Li Boyang ignored Tang Tianzhen, continuing toward Li Xiu.

However, Tang Tianzhen blocked Li Boyang, smiling: "This world evolved incompletely because of you, and the Spirit Suppressing Stone was divided between you and Li Xiu, leaving no possibility for further evolution. Only by letting the Spirit Devour billions of souls can it step onto the cosmic ladder."

"I know what I'm doing, no need for your reminder." Li Boyang sneered, his body emitting purple aura like a torrent, rushing toward Tang Tianzhen like a True Dragon.

Boom!

Tang Tianzhen casually punched out, no radiance on his fist, yet lightly shattered the sky-devouring purple aura, dissipating instantly.

Li Boyang's gaze narrowed: "You're not a prisoner!"

"Did I ever say I was a prisoner?" Tang Tianzhen said indifferently.

"You're a Law Enforcer..." Li Boyang coldly stared at Tang Tianzhen.

"Not." Tang Tianzhen shook his head slightly: "Like you, I was once an Evolver."

"Since you're an Evolver too, being here makes you a prisoner, why speak so nicely." Li Boyang said.

Tang Tianzhen smiled: "It's different. The victor becomes king, the loser a prisoner, only those defeated are prisoners, and I have never been defeated, naturally not a prisoner."

"If you were never defeated, why are you here?" Li Boyang retorted.

"I never deceived you. Didn't I already tell you I came from the Cosmic Level, but unlike you, who was exiled as a prisoner, I came here voluntarily." Tang Tianzhen smiled.

Chapter 1080 Prisoner of Defeat_2

"Ridiculous, even though you have never lost, you are ultimately still an Evolver. The price you pay to enter the small universe is no different from that of a prisoner. If you truly had never been defeated, would you have come here by yourself?" Li Boyang stared at Tang Tianzhen, not believing what he said.

"The aspirations of a victor are not something a loser like you can understand. I have my reasons for coming here, whether you believe it or not, it has nothing to do with me." Tang Tianzhen said with a smile.

"In that case, let's keep to our own business. The previous agreement still stands. After the door is opened, whether you want to go or stay, it's your own business. Don't interfere with me." Li Boyang said, intending to continue toward the Light Cocoon.

"The door must indeed be opened, but what I want is not merely to open the Gate of the World." Tang Tianzhen blocked Li Boyang again.

"What more do you want?" Li Boyang squinted his eyes at Tang Tianzhen.

"I want to watch this world from its birth to its demise." Tang Tianzhen said slowly.

Li Boyang looked at Tang Tianzhen, and after a long pause, suddenly burst into laughter, "I see, it seems you are not confident enough to keep winning."

Tang Tianzhen smiled: "It seems you have understood, so just watch from here, it will be beneficial to you as well."

"You're right, being able to observe the birth and death of a universe is indeed greatly beneficial to me too." Li Boyang said with a smile, but then his face suddenly turned grim, and he sneered, "But I don't like being controlled by others. Just because you want me to watch, I must watch?"

As he spoke, Li Boyang moved slightly, instantly appearing in front of Tang Tianzhen, and punched towards Tang Tianzhen's cheek.

"I do as I please, it's not your place to point fingers here." Li Boyang's gaze was cold as his fist landed on Tang Tianzhen's face.

Tang Tianzhen's face twisted and deformed under the pressure of the punch, but his body stood motionless in place.

His face twisted and deformed, quickly rotating along with his neck, his entire head bizarrely turning a full circle from the force of the punch, like a twisted pretzel.

Yet Tang Tianzhen's face still bore a smile, though the smile became eerie and terrifying on his twisted face.

Bang!

Tang Tianzhen's head bounced back like a rubber band, and Li Boyang's fist was forcefully rebounded, causing his body to involuntarily step back several steps.

"The fact that we can be here together is a great fortune. Out of respect for this chance meeting, I won't hold it against you. Don't make a mistake." Tang Tianzhen said with a smile.

"I, for one, enjoy making mistakes." Li Boyang's long hair fluttered wildly, standing there as if he had never moved.

But on Tang Tianzhen's body, several depressions appeared, on his head, face, chest, arms, and legs, as if pounded by invisible fists, forming fist-shaped dents.

With the last punch, Tang Tianzhen's face caved in completely, and Li Boyang's entire fist was embedded inside.

Bang!

The next second, Li Boyang's expression changed, his fist was suddenly repelled, and his body flew back thousands of miles uncontrollably.

Tang Tianzhen remained standing there, the dents in his body all bouncing back in an instant, restoring to their original state.

"I didn't intend to argue much with a loser. Besides, don't you always want to return to the main universe to start anew? This is immensely beneficial to you, don't seek your own destruction." Tang Tianzhen spoke at a leisurely pace, seemingly not angry in the slightest.

"I've said it before, I hate others pointing fingers at me. If you want me to listen to you, show me whether you have the qualification." Li Boyang said, the purple aura on his body growing thicker, resembling countless beams of rosy light, or like numerous True Dragons descending, as infinite purple aura gathered around him.

"Although you don't know me, I know you." Tang Tianzhen remained as calm as ever, his eyes as tranquil as still waters as he looked at Li Boyang, "Born and forged through trials, with purple energy coming from the east, True Dragon embodying, undefeated in hundreds of battles since your emergence, known as the Purple Dragon Emperor. If not for encountering that ever-victorious being, you wouldn't have ended up a prisoner."

"You do know quite a lot." The purple aura on Li Boyang intensified, the entire heaven and earth seemed to be beneath his feet, overlooking Tang Tianzhen.

"I just want to tell you, your purple energy from the east could not defeat that invincible being through the ages, nor can it defeat me, so why waste your effort." Tang Tianzhen said.

"Is that so?" Li Boyang's eyes seemed half-closed, half-open, the purple aura on his body suddenly surged, transforming into countless purple True Dragons lunging at Tang Tianzhen.

Boom!

One after another of purple True Dragons descended, in an instant, the world shattered, the Light Shield formed by the combined power of the Sixteen Ancestral Spirits shattered instantly.

Belona and the other Sixteen Ancestral Spirits were blasted away by the terrifying force, flying out unknown light-years.

In the place where countless dragons attacked, Tang Tianzhen propped up the sky with one hand, all the endless purple aura was blocked by that palm, unable to harm him in the slightest.

This scene was astonishing, that world-destroying blow couldn't even break through Tang Tianzhen's single palm.

A sinister smile flicked across Li Boyang's eyes, his form suddenly appearing beside the Light Cocoon, throwing a punch towards it.

Just as his punch was about to hit the Light Cocoon, a streak of white suddenly appeared before his eyes.

Tang Tianzhen, dressed in a white robe, somehow appeared in front of Li Boyang, meeting his fist with an outstretched palm, forcefully clasping onto his fist.
