

When God 1111

Chapter 1111 Afterword 5

"Don't worry, with your sister here, no one can bully her. Go ahead with peace of mind." Bao'Er said earnestly.

"A few more things..." After Li Xiu finished speaking, he walked up to the tombstone and pointed to a bright spot on the map, saying, "I'll choose to go there."

"There... won't work..." The tombstone cried out.

"Won't work?" Bao'Er revealed two small tiger teeth, smiling faintly at the tombstone. She and Li Xiu had already realized that the bright spots on the map were ranked by level—the more advanced the place, the more beneficial it would be. Although the tombstone hadn't said so, both Bao'Er and Li Xiu had determined that the place Li Xiu chose was one of the three highest-ranking areas.

"Well... not that it won't work... then choose there..." The tombstone immediately softened.

"By the way, Little Xiu Xiu is so cute, he's going to such a dangerous place to adventure alone. Can't you give him a little gift?" Bao'Er looked at the tombstone with her shimmering big eyes, looking pitiful.

"I'm just a tombstone... I don't have anything to give him... alright... I have a tiny bit of energy here... it might help him a bit during his transformation into a Guardian..." The tombstone said, squeezing a ray of light from its body and injecting it into Li Xiu's body.

"My great-grandmother... I really have nothing left..." Seeing Bao'Er still wanting to say something, the tombstone almost cried out.

"Alright." Bao'Er licked her lips with a sense of unfinished business.

"Please leave a token representing your identity on the Celestial Tomb." The tombstone rejoiced, hurriedly speaking to Li Xiu.

Li Xiu thought for a moment and placed a ring on the grave.

When the ring landed on the grave, the tombstone shone brightly, revealing a strange temporal vortex.

"Bao'Er sis, thank you. Please tell Ling'Er sis I'm sorry, I'll go find her as soon as I get back." Li Xiu said helplessly.

"Okay." Bao'Er pointed to the highest point of the grave, the "Counting the Celestial Mandate" banner, and said mysteriously, "If you encounter any difficulties over there, go find the owner of that banner. Although that person isn't very reliable, they might be of some help."

"Who is its owner?" Li Xiu asked curiously.

But before Bao'Er could answer, Li Xiu was already sucked into the vortex and disappeared in an instant.

"Life energy assessment in progress... Novice Level 1... Guardian 0... Detecting lifeform convertible to Celestial Destiny Guardian... Transforming... Detecting Celestial Destiny Energy... Celestial Destiny Guardian upgraded to Super Celestial Destiny Guardian... Super Celestial Destiny Guardian under the stars with a unique contract with the host... Transforming to Super Lifebound Guardian... Detecting lifeform convertible to Celestial Destiny Guardian... Dragon Vein Spirit transformed to Celestial Destiny Guardian... Energy restructuring... Restructuring failed... This lifeform cannot be transformed into an independent Celestial Destiny Guardian... Detecting lifeform convertible to Celestial Destiny Guardian... Demigod Shana transformed to Celestial Destiny Guardian... Energy restructuring... Restructuring failed... This lifeform possesses dual souls... Cannot transform into an independent Celestial Destiny Guardian... Detecting lifeform convertible to Celestial Destiny Guardian... Jedi Knight transformed to Celestial Destiny Guardian... Energy restructuring... Restructuring failed... This lifeform possesses dual souls... Cannot transform into an independent Celestial Destiny Guardian..." The eerie voice echoed continuously in Li Xiu's mind.
