

When God 401

Chapter 401 - Undead

Li Xiu dismounted from the Pink Nightmare, observing the bride-to-be floating in the air, then glanced at his finger, realizing the Demon Spirit Ring of the bride-to-be was gone.

With a thought, the bride-to-be transformed back into a ring and returned to his finger.

Li Xiu let out a slight sigh of relief. It seemed the bride-to-be was still under his control, but strangely, she could independently turn into a demon spirit.

"A hungry demon spirit, this is truly the first one. But, these demon spirits have very stable energy. As long as they're not summoned for battle, their energy doesn't deplete. There shouldn't be a concept of hunger. Why is the bride-to-be so peculiar, actually feeling hunger?"

Li Xiu summoned the bride-to-be again and asked, "Are you hungry, right?"

"Hungry..." the bride-to-be replied faintly.

"What do you want to eat?" Li Xiu asked further.

"Ruby," the bride-to-be answered.

Li Xiu retrieved a ruby from his pocket and offered it to the bride-to-be, who politely said, "Thank you, husband..."

Without any visible action, the ruby in Li Xiu's hand emitted strands of red light, absorbing into the bride-to-be's body.

The ruby in Li Xiu's hand lost its color and shattered into powder with a crunch.

"Husband, I'm still hungry," the bride-to-be said again.

The terms accompanying that eerie tone made Li Xiu feel uncomfortable, so he said, "Um, can we change how you call me?"

"Please say, husband." Though the bride-to-be seemed a bit eerie, she appeared to have a good temperament.

"For example, you could call me master," Li Xiu said with a smile.

Upon Li Xiu's suggestion, the bride-to-be suddenly raised her head, her hair slightly parted to reveal a crimson eye as if dripping blood, with blood-like star lines in her pupils. She stared intently at Li Xiu, stating word by word, "Is husband intending to divorce me and reduce me to a servant?"

"No, no, no, that's not what I meant. The term 'master' implies the most intimate person, not what you think. If you don't like it, forget it," Li Xiu hastily explained. The bride-to-be was indeed too frightening, especially with her ghostly appearance and ability to independently transform into a demon spirit. Li Xiu feared she might silently appear beside his bed and strangle him in his sleep.

"I see, I misunderstood husband," the bride-to-be said, lowering her head again, her tone much calmer, restoring its previous eerie and distant quality.

"Since you don't like that term, forget it. I don't have any more rubies now. I'll get some for you when we return," Li Xiu said, having only one ruby with him.

"I'll obey whatever husband commands," the bride-to-be said, transforming herself back into ring form and returning to Li Xiu's finger.

"Truly comes and goes at will; this demon spirit is indeed devilish," Li Xiu chuckled to himself bitterly.

Fortunately, the bride-to-be was relatively obedient. Li Xiu resumed his journey and soon arrived at the Golden Gate.

This deep mountain forest was scarcely populated. The hut where Old Dao lived had long been destroyed, with not a soul around.

He took out the prepared Golden Green Tourmaline and inlaid it onto the gate, entering the Trial Ground.

He didn't have the money to buy so many Trial Badges, so he used gems to open the door.

The dice trial was not difficult for Li Xiu. He easily completed the B-level trial and chose the Attribute Reward.

The trials here had an advantage for him: the completion speed was fast, unlike the time-wasting Dark Maze.

As long as he guessed correctly, he could complete the trial, swiftly progressing through round after round to obtain Attribute Rewards.

Though the attribute increase wasn't substantial, the speed made it gratifying as long as there were enough gems.

After over a dozen tries, he finally obtained an entry ticket, and his Primordial Embryo Quality became 2.2.

At the stone table, since he had previously acquired the Golden Key, nothing was on it this time.

Following the Longevity Lamp into the temple, the human corpses within had long decomposed. With immunity, Li Xiu had no concerns. After leaving the side hall, he discovered the courtyard lacked the two black Gate Guardian Beasts.

Without the Guardian Beasts, there was nothing to kill in the temple, so Li Xiu opened the temple doors, descending the mountain to hunt the Frenzied Beasts.

With the A-level Black Death Demon King leading the charge, the Frenzied Beast hordes appeared as mere experience babies and cash machines to Li Xiu. He only needed to follow and collect items.

Acquiring quality Demon Cores, he fed them directly to the Jedi Knight, aiming to elevate its level to S-grade.

Li Xiu was already planning that once the Jedi Knight achieved S-grade, if Ximen Guan's Lightspeed No. 2 was completed, he would compete for the Super Spirit Gemstone in Red Sand City to see if he could imbue the Jedi Knight with super spirit.

Along the way, he fought several Frenzied Beast hordes without encountering overly strong ones; the toughest was merely A-grade with rainbow colors.

Li Xiu ventured deeper into the forest. The area was covered with rolling woodland, a common person would likely get lost, but Li Xiu had no such worry, continually seeking places where Frenzied Beast hordes congregated.

Chapter 402 - Undead_2

After wandering in the deep mountains for over ten hours, Li Xiu suddenly saw a strange light rising faintly from a distant mountaintop.

He observed it for a while and discovered that the mountaintop didn't have any noteworthy features, though for some reason, there was an aurora-like light changing at the summit.

"Is it the light of a high-level demon spirit?" Li Xiu put away the Black Death Demon King and stealthily headed towards the mountaintop with the Jedi Knight.

The mountaintop seemed nearby, but it took several hours to reach, clearing several Frenzied Beast packs along the way before arriving at the foot of the mountain.

From the base of the mountain, it was clear that this mountain had nothing particularly special about it.

The trees and plants on the mountain were no different from those on nearby hills, and this mountain wasn't that tall. Several mountains nearby were even taller.

In truth, none of these mountains were very tall; the difference wasn't significant, and even mountains over a thousand meters were rare—most were just a few hundred meters high.

Li Xiu climbed the mountain with the Jedi Knight but didn't encounter any Frenzied Beasts.

Near the peak, Li Xiu finally understood where the strange light originated from.

At the top of this small mountain, there was a peculiar tree with yellow leaves and a black trunk that twisted like coral. Full of yellow round leaves, it emitted a hazy glow while a smoky, flame-like aura rose from the trunk, intertwining with the glow to resemble a shifting aurora from afar.

As he scrutinized the strange tree, Li Xiu suddenly focused his gaze.

A peculiar vase was actually standing beneath that strange tree.

The vase towered over a person in height, its snowy white body decorated with blue patterns, resembling a porcelain vase no matter how one looked at it.

A porcelain vase appearing in such a place was bizarre enough. What was even more bizarre was that its neck didn't contain any flowers or plantings, but rather something resembling a human head.

It was described as resembling a human head because from Li Xiu's angle, all he could see was a head of grey-white hair cascading down and couldn't discern if there was a head beneath the hair.

"It would be great if Chu Jun were here." Li Xiu examined it for a long time but couldn't determine whether the vase and its contents were demon spirits.

He didn't smell the scent of a demon spirit, but some demon spirits could hide their aura, so relying solely on scent wasn't necessarily accurate.

Li Xiu decided to move around, trying to get a clear view of whether the vase contained a human head.

But after circling around, either the tree blocked his view or his position was wrong, preventing him from seeing the face.

Li Xiu hesitated about whether to get closer to take a look.

If faced with an S-Class Demon Spirit, he had a fighting chance, but if the vase contained a Super Spirit, he wasn't sure he could escape unharmed.

"One has to survive to become stronger. It's best to be cautious." After some thought, Li Xiu turned to descend the mountain.

Just then, the large vase moved on its own, starting with small side-to-side shakes and slowly turning around.

Without waiting for it to fully turn, Li Xiu spun on his heel and ran downhill.

No matter what that thing was, it had definitely noticed him; it had been motionless until he decided to descend, then chose to move.

This was clearly abnormal. It seemed to want to lure him closer before, but seeing he wasn't approaching, it decided to act out another plan.

Dong! Dong!

He heard the rolling sound of the vase behind him and ran even faster, though this small mountain wasn't steep enough for riding the Pink Nightmare, leaving him to rely on his legs.

"I've collected so many demon spirits, but none can serve as a flying mount?" After a stretch of running, Li Xiu no longer heard the vase rolling behind him, allowing him to breathe a little easier.

Slowing down, he glanced back, almost scared out of his wits.

The large vase had somehow positioned itself right behind him, with the head on the vase now facing him, and the distance between their faces was less than a foot.

How should that face be described? Merely calling it ugly wouldn't do it justice.

The face was wrinkled like old bark, where the eyes should be held even more wrinkles, resembling two chrysanthemums.

The skin on its nose hung down, obscuring its mouth with folds. Although the sight wasn't particularly gory or filthy, it invoked a stronger sense of disgust.

Li Xiu retreated several steps, creating distance, and the Jedi Knight positioned the Samurai Sword defensively in front of him.

The vase didn't make any more moves, but the wrinkles on the head's face twitched like worms, making one's scalp tingle. Finally, two narrow slits appeared where its chrysanthemum-like eyes were.

Since the slits were exceedingly narrow, surrounded by wrinkles and sagging skin, they obscured the whites and pupils, with only a green light visible within the eyes.

The moment his gaze met the vase's, Li Xiu felt his mind cloud over and became dazed, unconsciously moving toward the vase.

Beside him, the Jedi Knight's red eyes dimmed, the Samurai Sword dropped to the ground, and he stood motionless, as if bewitched.

Li Xiu, eyes vacant like a zombie, walked mechanically to the vase.

The flesh on the head's face squirmed, seemingly delighted, as the green light brightened from its eye slits.

Li Xiu was already standing in front of the Vase Monster's head, his face almost touching the repulsive face of the vase-headed creature.

The Vase Monster slowly opened its mouth, the folds on its lips peeling back to reveal white teeth like jagged saw blades. Its crimson tongue licked the lips covered in wrinkles, seeming impatient.

Suddenly, a flash of red light.

With a loud clang, the Fire Lotus Sword in Li Xiu's hand slashed down onto the vase.

He originally aimed for the head, but the head reacted, the vase spun and flew up, and the Fire Lotus Sword missed the head, striking the rotating vase instead.

The vase, which looked like porcelain, endured the full force of the Fire Lotus Sword and Li Xiu's full strength, yet it did not shatter. Instead, the Fire Lotus Sword was deflected.

"You sneaky brat, daring to plot against me." The Vase Monster finally spoke, its voice sharp and grating like a cracked bell, with a hint of effeminacy.

"You plotted against me first." Li Xiu retorted coldly, gripping the Fire Lotus Sword and glaring at the Vase Monster.

He could now be certain that this creature wasn't a demon spirit, but a person.

However, why someone would hide themselves in a vase and in such a place, was beyond his knowledge.

Though one thing was certain, this repulsive Vase Monster probably wasn't strong in combat; it was its eyes that possessed a sinister ability, capable of controlling others' will.

Even a Jedi Knight had fallen victim. This ability was more formidable than the Illusory Sea Clam's.

Luckily, Li Xiu's Spiritual Sense was too strong for such abilities to have any effect on him.

The Vase Monster's constant attempts to entice Li Xiu into looking at its eyes suggested its combat power wasn't high; otherwise, it wouldn't have needed such tactics.

"Able to resist my Ghostly Eye Covering, are you of Commander Level or Elder Level in Longevity Heaven?" The Vase Monster asked, staring at Li Xiu.

"You're from Longevity Heaven too?" Li Xiu queried.

"Bah, as if Longevity Heaven is worthy." The Vase Monster seemed disdainful, even somewhat contemptuous.

"Who exactly are you?" Li Xiu was surprised because, besides Longevity Heaven, he really couldn't think of anyone who would do such bizarre things.

"Hehe, boy, since you seem to be from Longevity Heaven, have you heard of the Undead?" The Vase Monster closed its eyes and chuckled eerily.

Its laughter was bizarre, the wrinkles on its face wriggling, making Li Xiu feel queasy.

"Sorry, I'm not from Longevity Heaven. What are these Undead you're talking about?" Li Xiu said casually.

"Impossible, kid, don't try to fool me. If you're not from Longevity Heaven, how could you be a Trial Taker and possess such a grade of demon spirit?" The Vase Monster suddenly opened its eyes, fixating on Li Xiu, though this time they didn't emit green light.

"These days, Trial Takers are everywhere, you see them all over the streets." Li Xiu casually bluffed, having realized that this Vase Monster had been trapped here for a long time, unaware of what was happening outside.

Even though due to the demon spirit competition, people were now aware of the Trial Takers' true situation, genuine Trial Takers were still few; they weren't everywhere on the streets.

The Vase Monster was actually fooled by him, staring intently at Li Xiu, trying to determine the truth of his words.

"Who are you really?" Li Xiu asked again seeing that the creature was silent.

"Everyone knows the secret of Trial Takers; could it be that Longevity Heaven has already fallen?" The Vase Monster asked, staring at Li Xiu.

"As if Longevity Heaven could fall, it's still a sanctuary coveted by Trial Takers. It's just that ordinary people have no chance to join." Li Xiu fibbed seamlessly, yet made it sound quite believable.

"Who is the president of Longevity Heaven now?" The Vase Monster clearly still didn't buy it.

"I haven't joined Longevity Heaven, so how would I know who their president is? But I have received a Black Invitation Card; after I join Longevity Heaven and meet that legendary president, I'll tell you who he is. Though I reckon you won't live to see that day; you tried to kill me earlier, and I intend to settle that score." Li Xiu raised his Fire Lotus Sword, preparing to strike the Vase Monster.

"Hold on, if you truly intend to join Longevity Heaven, then you absolutely shouldn't kill me." The Vase Monster chuckled strangely.

"Why not? You're not from Longevity Heaven; what does my joining have to do with you?" Li Xiu asked coldly.

"Do you know of the Blood Seal Stone?" The Vase Monster asked.

"I've heard of it." Li Xiu felt a jolt in his heart.

"If you haven't fallen victim to the Blood Seal Stone, I can teach you a way to avoid its control." The Vase Monster stared at Li Xiu.

"What method?" Li Xiu asked.

Seeing Li Xiu's reaction, the Vase Monster believed him a little more, though it still hadn't completely dropped its guard. It glanced at Li Xiu and said, "Let me have a taste of your blood."

"What tricks are you playing now?" Li Xiu frowned.

"I can determine from your blood if you've been affected by the Blood Seal Stone. If you haven't, then I can trust you and teach you how to counteract the Blood Seal Stone." The Vase Monster explained.

"You don't trust me, so why should I trust you? How do I know you won't use my blood for ill intent? Why don't you first tell me who you really are?" Li Xiu said.

"Who am I? Hehe, I'm an Undead; I've lived with the president of Longevity Heaven for thousands of years. Previously, even your president had to respectfully call me sir; now, who do you think I am?" The Vase Monster laughed, though its voice was more distressing than crying.

"Then... who exactly are you?" Li Xiu asked blankly.

"You really aren't from Longevity Heaven?" The Vase Monster restrained its laughter, looking at Li Xiu suspiciously, thinking he didn't seem to be faking.

If he were truly from Longevity Heaven, hearing what was just said, he should have reacted in some way.

In the past, countless talented individuals joined Longevity Heaven for the secret of immortality.

Yet generation after generation passed, with many promising talents perishing within Longevity Heaven, and few truly achieving immortality.

Chapter 404 - The Legend of the Precious Jade

"I don't have time to chat with you here." Li Xiu raised the Fire Lotus Sword, ready to kill.

Sword shadows slashed towards the Vase Monster, and the large vase unexpectedly floated up, rotating in midair, moving up and down, left and right. Every strike from Li Xiu landed on the vase.

No matter how fierce the Fire Lotus Sword's assault was, the porcelain vase, seemingly fragile and ready to shatter upon touch, blocked every strike without a single mark.

Li Xiu ordered the Jedi Knight to rush over and assist, but upon seeing the Vase Monster's green glowing eyes, the Jedi Knight turned treacherous and slashed at Li Xiu.

Li Xiu dodged the Jedi Knight's blade, retrieving the Jedi Knight immediately.

Fortunately, though the Jedi Knight was bewitched, it was still under control, transforming into a ring and returning to Li Xiu's hand.

"Hehe, kid, you can't kill me, why not we talk a bit more?" The Vase Monster chuckled eerily.

"There's nothing to talk about." Li Xiu turned his mind and began walking down the mountain.

The Vase Monster swayed leisurely as it followed, saying while walking, "Don't you want the method to deal with the Blood Seal Stone?"

"I don't trust you. Who knows if you want my blood to harm me." Li Xiu said coldly.

"Hehe, young man, you're quite suspicious." The Vase Monster continued to chuckle wickedly and said, "Actually, even if you're from the Eternal Heaven, it doesn't matter. But my method is useless for those already controlled by the Blood Seal Stone. If you haven't been controlled, then this method will be effective."

Seeing Li Xiu ignoring him and just walking down the mountain, the Vase Monster became a bit anxious, "If you truly haven't joined the Eternal Heaven yet, we could make a trade. I'll teach you the method to deal with the Blood Seal Stone, and you help me with something."

"I need to know the method first." Li Xiu stopped and stared at the Vase Monster.

"Fine, I can tell you the method right now." The Vase Monster surprisingly agreed without hesitation.

"Aren't you afraid I'll take your benefit and not do your task?" Li Xiu asked in surprise, looking at the Vase Monster.

"Hehe, once you learn what I want you to do, even if I don't give you any benefits, you'd be bound to do it." The Vase Monster laughed eerily.

"Speak then, I'm actually somewhat interested now." said Li Xiu.

"No rush, I'll first tell you the method to counter the Blood Seal Stone." The Vase Monster unexpectedly swiftly revealed the method.

"Are you not worried that I'm from Eternal Heaven now?" Li Xiu was greatly surprised, as the method the Vase Monster spoke of seemed indeed feasible.

"This method only prevents; if you're already in Eternal Heaven, controlled by the Blood Seal Stone, this method is useless to you, knowing it makes no difference. If you're not from Eternal Heaven, using this method to enter it would plant a time bomb, either way, I lose nothing." The Vase Monster chuckled eerily.

"Tell me, what exactly you want me to help you with?" Li Xiu was increasingly curious now.

"Have you ever heard the story of the Jade of He Shi?" The Vase Monster was not in a hurry, speaking slowly.

"Who hasn't heard of the legendary Jade of He Shi?" Li Xiu frowned, not knowing what the Vase Monster was trying to imply.

The Vase Monster laughed, "The story you heard, is it about a jade gatherer named Bian He, who accidentally found a raw stone, believing it was an unparalleled gem, presented the first time to the king but was mistaken for a pebble and had his left foot cut in anger? Later presenting to the second king, again his right foot was cut, ending with both legs broken, he cried day and night at home with the stone. The third king, upon hearing the tale, found him, had the stone opened and polished, finally discovering the unique and unmatched Jade of He Shi, named thereafter after the gatherer?"

"Isn't that the story?" Li Xiu questioned.

"Have you heard, before the jade gatherer found the Jade of He Shi, he saw a pair of phoenixes landing outside the cave, and knowing the legend that phoenixes don't alight where there's no treasure, he found the Jade of He Shi?" The Vase Monster inquired.

"I've indeed heard a similar legend." Li Xiu thought for a moment and said, though the formal Jade of He Shi story did not include this part.

"Have you considered what those mythical creatures, like the True Dragon, Phoenix, and Qilin, really are?"

This question from the Vase Monster slightly stunned Li Xiu; if it were before, he'd say they were mythical entities conjured by human imagination, mere figments.

But under the City of Light, he saw the Unparalleled King resembling a Qilin.

Back then, Li Xiu questioned if the mythical beings people spoke of—Qilin, True Dragon, and Phoenix—were in fact magical spirits, only that the term 'magical spirit' didn't exist at that time.

"Are you suggesting those phoenixes were magical spirits?" Li Xiu asked the Vase Monster.

"You're teachable; if the phoenixes were magical spirits, then why did they alight at the location of the Jade of He Shi?" The Vase Monster continued leading.

"If you enjoy being a teacher, I won't accompany you." Li Xiu frowned.

The Vase Monster laughed, "What attracts magical spirits can only be gemstones; jade is considered a gemstone too. In modern terms, such as Phoenix the mythical entities, would be very high-level magical spirits, and the gemstones that could attract them naturally aren't ordinary gemstones either."

Chapter 405 - The Legend of Baoyu_2

"Have you ever heard of the Super Spirit Gemstone?" the Vase Monster asked a few questions before turning back to Li Xiu.

"I suppose nowadays not many people haven't heard of the Super Spirit Gemstone. Are you suggesting that the Heshi Bi is a Super Spirit Gemstone?" Li Xiu was slightly surprised.

"I don't know." The Vase Monster shook its head and said, "After the Heshi Bi was obtained by that king, it passed through many wars and eventually ended up in the hands of a great emperor, who crafted it into the Imperial Seal, which later became a symbol of imperial power. Every hero who aspired to the throne desired to claim that Imperial Seal, to rightfully seize the world."

"In thousands of years of history and turmoil, the Imperial Seal ultimately disappeared." The Vase Monster mentioned, revealing a nauseating smile: "What if I told you those were all legends, and in fact, the Imperial Seal never went missing? From the time of the first emperor, it has always been under the control of Changshengtian. No matter its appearance or disappearance, everything has been secretly manipulated by Changshengtian. Would you believe that?"

"Since Changshengtian acquired it, why would they send it out?" As Li Xiu finished speaking, he had already thought of something, and his body involuntarily shook a little.

He thought of the methods frequently used by Changshengtian: finding a substitute to contract with those sinister Demon Spirit Gemstones, thereby avoiding the negative impacts on people before the contract with the Demon Spirit Gemstone was formed.

If the Heshi Bi is also a Demon Spirit Gemstone and at the same time a Super Spirit Gemstone, then to what extent will the demonic spirit it engenders become powerful?

"A born Super Spirit?" Just thinking about it made Li Xiu's scalp tingle. If a Demon Spirit Gemstone like this truly existed, it would indeed drive anyone to madness.

If what the Vase Monster wanted him to do was to find the Heshi Bi, Li Xiu truly could not refuse.

"It seems you have already realized that the Heshi Bi is very likely both a Super Spirit Gemstone and a Demon Spirit Gemstone. Unfortunately, over the thousands of years, not a single person has successfully contracted with it. Despite all efforts by the people of Changshengtian, even to the extent of gifting it to emperors blessed with great fortune who contended for the world, no one was able to form a contract with it." The Vase Monster said with a cold laugh, "Eventually, the Heshi Bi completely vanished because Changshengtian dared not release it again. That Heshi Bi transformed into an Imperial Seal; with each emperor it passed through who was clothed in great fortune, the demonic spirit within became stronger. Although still uncontracted, it already possessed incredible magic force. The people of Changshengtian were afraid, worried that if the demonic spirit truly emerged, they themselves might not be able to control it, so they had no choice but to seal it away."

"You want me to take the Imperial Seal out of Changshengtian and give it to you?" Li Xiu thought the Vase Monster must be mad. Such a thing, there was no way Changshengtian would let an ordinary member even approach it, let alone take it out.

"Heh heh, there's no need to give it to me. If you have a chance to see it once you've entered Changshengtian, you can contract with it yourself." The Vase Monster's words were somewhat unexpected.

"What benefit is there for you?" Li Xiu asked, frowning.

"Heh heh, if you indeed have the ability to contract with the Imperial Seal, you better be careful. Do you think the leader of the Longevity Association would tolerate someone alive who possesses such a demonic spirit, potentially threatening his position? Even if he allows you to live, wouldn't he also desire the demonic spirit within the Imperial Seal? He's been waiting thousands of years for that demonic spirit."

"So as long as I contract with the Imperial Seal, I will inevitably become an enemy of the leader of the Longevity Association. Is this what you want?" Li Xiu interjected.

"That's right. As long as it can destroy the Longevity Association and that person, I am willing to pay any price." The Voice of the Vase Monster was filled with a hatred that penetrated to the bone: "The reason I've become like this is all thanks to that person, and this grudge, I must repay."

"It's a pity, I haven't even joined the Longevity Association yet. I don't know if I will have a chance to come into contact with the Imperial Seal. Even if I have the opportunity, something that so many fortunate founding emperors throughout the millennia failed to contract with, what makes me think I can succeed?" Li Xiu said.

"Just because you can withstand my Ghostly Eye Covering." The Vase Monster said with a cold smile: "For thousands of years, I have seen many Demon Spirit Gemstones, and many people contracting with Demon Spirit Gemstones. I can assure you, your spiritual force far exceeds that of ordinary people. If you practice Ghostly Eye Covering, which I studied, and fully develop and train your spiritual force, you have a great chance to successfully contract with that Imperial Seal. As for how you can come into contact with the Imperial Seal, that's a matter for you to resolve yourself. To achieve such a great fortune, naturally, you must make some sacrifices."

"Sounds tempting." Li Xiu chuckled.

"If you are interested, come with me. I'll teach you Ghostly Eye Covering." The Vase Monster said as it twisted the vase, heading for the mountaintop.

Li Xiu had no hesitation, following the Vase Monster back to the Yellow Leaf Tree at the mountaintop.

The Vase Monster looked up at the Yellow Leaf Tree and said, "This tree is also a kind of demonic spirit. It cannot move, but it itself possesses incredibly powerful spiritual force, able to use its spiritual force to influence other demonic spirits, making them willingly come to it and perish, turning into its fertilizer and nutrients. Without a spiritually powerful creature, it's impossible to reach its presence."

Chapter 406 - The Legend of Baoyu_3

"There's actually such a magic spirit?" Li Xiu looked at the Yellow Leaf Tree with some surprise, not feeling any influence from it on himself.

"Your spiritual force is different from ordinary people, the Yellow Leaf Tree doesn't dare to emit any spiritual force influence on you. I was very surprised when I first saw you could come here without being affected. I only understood why after realizing you could resist my Ghostly Eye Covering." The Vase Monster looked at the Yellow Leaf Tree and said, "My Ghostly Eye Covering technique was actually inspired by this Yellow Leaf Tree. Unfortunately, I'm not the Yellow Leaf Tree, I don't have its body structure, so I can't emit spiritual force directly like it does and can only use my gaze as the medium."

The Vase Monster explained the training method of Ghostly Eye Covering in detail to Li Xiu.

After listening, Li Xiu couldn't help but marvel at the Vase Monster's ability to create such a method for training and utilizing spiritual force, indeed a genius.

In essence, this is somewhat similar to how Li Xiu's spiritual sense materializes after crossing the line.

The Vase Monster should also have a talent for spiritual sense, though his spiritual sense isn't as strong as Li Xiu's, it can still match top Magic Armor Masters, and his level of spiritual sense is probably the peak that ordinary humans can reach.

It's just that due to the existence of that line, the Vase Monster's spiritual sense couldn't go further.

Although he couldn't cross the line, the Vase Monster found another way, like a bottle: since the capacity of the bottle is fixed, whether it is filled with water or cotton makes a difference.

The Vase Monster's method is to continually compress and purify his own spiritual force, making his spiritual sense stronger than ordinary people at the same level.

If you consider the spiritual sense of a normal Magic Armor Master as a sponge, then his spiritual sense is a piece of iron.

Although the Vase Monster's spiritual sense couldn't truly materialize like Li Xiu's, it was already capable of affecting other creatures' spirits through his gaze.

This method is of little consequence to Li Xiu; as long as he understands the principle, he can easily achieve it without needing to practice.

"To connect spiritual force with gaze, you must be able to sense the existence of spiritual force with your eyes. Carefully observe that Yellow Leaf Tree, and once you sense the spiritual force it emits, you can link your own spiritual force to your gaze... Focus... Sense with your heart... Use the method I taught you... It's not really about using your eyes to see... The eyes are just a medium... You need to use spiritual force to replace vision..." The Vase Monster continued to impart his experience.

Li Xiu looked at the Yellow Leaf Tree and only then realized that the flame-like, smoke-like presence he saw emanating from it before wasn't real smoke but the wave of spiritual sense.

"Once you can feel the flame-like, smoke-like wave emanating from the tree, you've truly mastered the Ghostly Eye Covering..." The Vase Monster continued from the side.

"No, no... I've already told you... It's not about using your eyes to see... It's about using your spiritual force... Look at how I do it..." The Vase Monster seemed to think Li Xiu was rather dull, saying impatiently.

Li Xiu turned to look at him, seeing the Vase Monster's chrysanthemum-like eyes staring intensely at him. At that moment, they were wide open, glowing with a brilliant green light like two green bulbs.

Li Xiu stood there, motionless, staring into the Vase Monster's eyes.

The Vase Monster laughed hysterically as he approached Li Xiu, his eyes shooting eerie green light that penetrated into Li Xiu's eyes.

As the green light flowed into Li Xiu's eyes, the green light in the Vase Monster's eyes grew progressively weaker.

When the green light in the Vase Monster's eyes completely disappeared, he closed his eyes, and his entire aura vanished as if he had stopped breathing. His head sagged, and the flesh on his face drooped even more.

"Boy... No matter how cunning you are, you're still caught in my trap. I'll use your body well, so just go peacefully..." The Vase Monster's consciousness laughed maniacally within Li Xiu's consciousness.

But in the next second, the laughter vanished from the Vase Monster's consciousness.

"No... This can't be... How is this possible..." The Vase Monster sensed an immensely powerful consciousness, boundless like an ocean.

His prideful consciousness, in the face of that consciousness, was like a drop in the ocean, indescribably tiny, almost negligible.

In the face of that terrifying consciousness, the Vase Monster was left with only panic and disbelief.

He couldn't believe that there could exist a human consciousness this strong in the world, a consciousness that should belong to a god rather than a human.

"What a pity, you're the first human I've met who could cross the line." Li Xiu opened his eyes, green light scattered from them, condensing into points of green light in front of him.

The amorphous green light struggled and twisted in the air, trying to return to the vase's body, but it couldn't move in the slightest.

"Spare me... I was wrong... I can give you anything you want... I can help you obtain the Heirloom Seal of the Realm... I can help you seize Immortal Heaven..." The consciousness of the Vase Monster, transformed into green light, trembled with fear in the air, frantically conveying its pleading thoughts.

Li Xiu merely glanced at it, and the green light instantly exploded in the air, disintegrating into bits of green light that scattered and vanished.

"Humans who should die must die, otherwise they become even more loathsome than monsters." Li Xiu looked at the Vase Monster's corpse and vase with some disgust and summoned the Jedi Knight.

The Jedi Knight drew the Samurai Sword and unleashed the Blood Light Slash on the vase.

The enormous crescent-shaped sword light struck the vase, and with a clang, the vase rolled far on the ground, stopping only when it hit the protruding roots of the Yellow Leaf Tree, yet there wasn't a single mark on the vase.

"What is that vase made of to be so unyielding?" Li Xiu was a bit surprised.

He felt extreme aversion toward the Vase Monster, even downright disgusted, and didn't want to sully himself by going through the Vase Monster's belongings; he just wanted it to completely disappear.

But he hadn't expected the vase to be so peculiar, that even the Jedi Knight couldn't cut through it.

Chapter 407 - Spirit-Eating Tree

"This vase is quite peculiar," Li Xiu slightly frowned, summoning the Black Death Demon King.

One by one, black halos appeared on the ground, and several Black Death Demons crawled out from them.

Under Li Xiu's command, the few Black Death Demons approached the large vase, grabbed the Vase Monster's head, and attempted to pull his corpse out of the large vase.

After a few tugs without success, they exerted a powerful force, unexpectedly tearing off the head completely.

Gazing at the bloody and gruesome scene below, Li Xiu felt a wave of nausea, yet continued to instruct the Black Death Demons to dig out the corpse within.

The sight inside was extremely horrifying, with the Vase Monster's body filling the entire vase.

The bottom of the vase had a narrow opening, into which the Vase Monster's body was crammed, with its neck stretched long, filling the bottleneck, and the body and limbs twisted and crammed together, making it almost indistinguishable what was what.

No wonder it couldn't be pulled out; now, with the Black Death Demons forcibly extracting it piece by piece, parts and blood were scattered everywhere.

Once the entire body was excavated, Li Xiu glanced into the bloodstained vase, and his expression changed slightly.

Inside the large vase grew a bizarre plant, resembling a single bamboo shoot, growing straight within the vase. The bamboo joints were particularly thick, about arm's width, but the middle was very thin, with the thinnest part only as wide as two fingers.

The blood-stained bamboo joint stood upright within the vase; its tangled roots could be seen penetrating into the bottom of the vase, melding with it completely.

Li Xiu was shocked in his heart; this strange bamboo had apparently grown within the body of the Vase Monster, making it unimaginable how they coexisted inside the vase.

Suddenly, Li Xiu noticed that the blood and flesh residues falling inside during the corpse excavation were disappearing at a visible speed.

Meanwhile, the Blood Bamboo inside the vase seemed to grow slightly thicker.

In just a moment, the bloodstains within the vase completely vanished, the inside turned back to a clear white, yet the Blood Bamboo became even more translucent and crystalline, like blood-dyed crystal.

"Is this Blood Bamboo also a demon spirit?" Li Xiu did not sense any demon spirit aura from the Blood Bamboo.

However, the demon spirits he'd encountered before didn't resemble plants; perhaps their auras differed, explaining why he couldn't detect a familiar demon spirit aura.

Just like the Yellow Leaf Tree nearby, he couldn't detect any demon spirit aura from it either.

As he pondered, Li Xiu glanced at the Yellow Leaf Tree, immediately frowning again.

At this moment, the yellow leaves on the Yellow Leaf Tree revealed green veins resembling blood vessels.

Li Xiu watched for a while, witnessing those green veins multiply, with some leaves turning entirely green.

"I clearly eradicated the Vase Monster's consciousness, so why is it clinging to the tree?" With this thought, Li Xiu signaled the Jedi Knight to draw his sword and slash at the tree.

Like a Sword Light Slash, the Blood Light Slash carved a deep groove in the black tree trunk.

Seeing that the tree could be hacked, Li Xiu ordered the Jedi Knight to keep chopping, sending wood chips flying with each slash, although breaking the tree would still take time.

While the Jedi Knight hacked at the tree, more yellow leaves transformed into green ones, and what was even eerier was the growth of the tree trunk wherever it was cut, often outgrowing the sections lopped off within a single slash.

Before long, all the leaves on the Yellow Leaf Tree had turned green, emanating a faint green light.

The freshly grown wood on the parts wounded by the Jedi Knight already exceeded what was originally cut away.

With bizarre protrusions, it appeared as a scar on the tree bark.

Li Xiu watched for a while, noticing more and more that the scar resembled a human face, and it continued to grow.

Before long, facial features like a mouth, ears, eyes, and nose appeared on the trunk, forming a human face grown on the tree.

Suddenly, the eyes on the tree face opened, revealing green, jade-like eyeballs, lacking pupils and wholly jade-like, similar to an insect's compound eyes.

"Boy, you think you can truly kill me? I had long fused my consciousness with this Spirit-Eating Tree; that flesh body and consciousness within were merely the last remnants," the tree face uttered in an ancient voice.

"That body may be useless now, but the vengeance for killing me shall be repaid in blood and flesh. I will turn your body into fertilizer, nourishing my Spirit-Eating Tree form," the tree face continued, as bizarre green light blossomed from all the green leaves, casting the surroundings into a ghostly and sinister ambiance.

Li Xiu immediately realized what this entity intended, and turned towards the mountain below, witnessing the forest below trembling, with the occasional roar of Frenzied Beasts echoing.

Before long, hordes of Frenzied Beasts charged up from the mountain below, coming from all sides, leaving it unclear how many Frenzied Beasts the forest harbored.

Observing his environment, Li Xiu knew it was too late to flee, but he had no intention to run.

Previously, he had to search everywhere for Frenzied Beasts, and now they were presenting themselves, wasn't it much more convenient?

Summoning Demigod Shana, the Black Death Demon King with a roar summoned all fifty of his minions, and combined with the Jedi Knight, the three demon spirits stood guard on the mountain peak, launching a fierce battle against the Frenzied Beasts charging from below the mountain.

Chapter 408 - Spirit-Eating Tree_2

In the sky, Frenzied Beasts with wings on their backs flew towards them, but luckily their levels were low, and Demigod Shana swiftly dealt with them one by one.

The Frenzied Beasts rushing up from the mountain base grew more numerous, like zombies besieging a city, relentlessly charging upwards, and for every beast that fell, more would trample over its corpse, advancing further.

With a single Blood Light Slash, the Jedi Knight was able to slay several Frenzied Beasts.

At this moment, the advantage of the Black Death Demon King became apparent, as fifty radiant henchmen formed a battle array, guarding the mountaintop, forcibly holding the beasts at bay below.

"You sly boy, possessing so many Top-Grade Demon Spirits, who exactly are you?" asked Tree Face, observing the three Demon Spirits unleash their power in astonishment.

Li Xiu didn't respond, seizing the opportunity to collect the Demon Cores and other items scattered around.

He picked only the quality Demon Cores and tossed them to the Jedi Knight and Demigod Shana, encouraging them to continuously consume the cores.

Suddenly, blue Light Flames ignited on Demigod Shana's body; after consuming a few high-quality Demon Cores, he finally ascended to level C.

While ascending, Demigod Shana continued to battle fiercely, neither his gun nor broadsword ever pausing.

Once his ascension was complete, the power of his bullets increased, and the sword light from his broadsword became even more intense, capable of extending over three meters in length when fully concentrated.

Li Xiu sensed Demigod Shana's information; upon ascending to level C, he awakened a Talent Skill called "Half-Heaven Demon."

Demigod Shana's skills were always enigmatic; previously, the Devouring God's skill had left everyone confused about its purpose.

Devouring God was neither an active skill like Blood Light Slash nor a passive one like Desperate Realm; Demigod Shana had never seemed to use it.

Now, he awakened a Talent Skill named "Half-Heaven Demon," yet he was obviously a Demigod, so why did the skill include the word "Demon"?

"Could it be that Demigod Shana has only a half-god, half-demon bloodline? If so, it should be called Half-Demon; what does Half-Heaven Demon imply, half god and half demon each day?" Li Xiu still couldn't figure out what this Half-Heaven Demon Talent Skill was meant for.

While Li Xiu was puzzled, there was a change with Demigod Shana.

An A-level shining winged Frenzied Beast swooped down from the sky, and Demigod Shana fired a bullet, hitting the beast's chest.

There was a two-level difference between level C and A, and although Demigod Shana had quality on his side, his bullet shouldn't have been able to pierce the body of an A-level shining winged Frenzied Beast.

Yet, this bullet penetrated the winged beast's chest and vanished.

The next second, blue Light Flames ignited within the beast's body, instantly engulfing it entirely.

The winged Frenzied Beast screamed, falling to the ground in agony, and soon the blue flames consumed it to ash, leaving only a Demon Core behind.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Any Frenzied Beast hit by Demigod Shana's bullets or sword light would immediately ignite with blue Light Flames, and even if only slightly injured, the flames would rapidly spread across their body, and soon they would be reduced to ashes.

"Is Half-Heaven Demon a burning skill?" Li Xiu was slightly amazed.

Though this ability seemed unremarkable, its effectiveness was extremely useful; one couldn't fight Demigod Shana and sustain injuries without equating them to death.

Li Xiu soon realized this wasn't the skill effect of Half-Heaven Demon; Demigod Shana's normal attacks inherently carried this burning effect.

The actual Half-Heaven Demon skill hadn't been activated, surprising Li Xiu even more.

"This burning capability is basically a skill; how fortunate to have such a boon." Li Xiu opted against forcing Demigod Shana to use Half-Heaven Demon, since the exact nature of the skill remained unknown, and if it required time to recharge, it might be unavailable when genuinely needed.

The number of Frenzied Beasts attracted by the Spirit-Eating Tree remained uncertain, so it wasn't yet time to exert full effort.

The multitude of beasts couldn't break the mountaintop's defenses, and seeing that the Jedi Knight and others still had strength left, Li Xiu redirected his attention to examining the Spirit-Eating Tree and the vase bearing Blood Bamboo.

The Vase Monster claimed his consciousness had merged with the Spirit-Eating Tree, rendering his physical body useless.

Yet, this statement seemed odd; if his physical form was truly unnecessary, why hadn't he fully integrated his consciousness into the Spirit-Eating Tree?

Perhaps he was wary of his consciousness being too strong, wanting to disperse some of it. This, however, seemed illogical.

The only reasonable explanation could be that the Vase Monster lacked the ability to entirely transfer his consciousness into the Spirit-Eating Tree, or he dreaded doing so.

The reasons likely involved the Spirit-Eating Tree or the vase and the Blood Bamboo within it.

Previously, Li Xiu attempted but struggled to destroy the Spirit-Eating Tree, so now he focused on the Blood Bamboo inside the vase.

Li Xiu wielded the Fire Lotus Sword, approaching the vase's opening, relieved that the vase interior was spotless. He pressed one hand against the opening and used the sword in the other hand to jab inside, trying to sever the Blood Bamboo.

He stabbed repeatedly, causing clanging noises as the blade struck Blood Bamboo, yet it failed to leave any marks on the bamboo.

Chapter 409 - Spirit-Eating Tree_3

Li Xiu turned and started stabbing at the roots under the Blood Bamboo, but to no avail.

The tree face, seeing Li Xiu's actions, sneered, "Don't waste your effort, the Demon Spirit Bamboo is not something you can cut down."

"Demon Spirit Bamboo? Could it be that this bamboo is the Demon Spirit Wood grown from a Demon Spirit Body?" Li Xiu immediately understood what this thing was.

Earlier, he hadn't considered this possibility because the vase contained a Vase Monster, not a Demon Spirit, so he hadn't thought the Blood Bamboo was actually Demon Spirit Wood.

"You actually know about Demon Spirit Wood yet won't admit you're from the Land of Immortality," the tree face said sharply, seeming to feel deceived by Li Xiu.

"Just because I'm not from the Land of Immortality doesn't mean I can't know about Demon Spirit Wood," Li Xiu said as he continued to stab, his hands not stopping.

"Demon Spirit Wood is something created by the Land of Immortality, it's top secret even within the Land of Immortality, few know of it. If you're not from there, how could you know about Demon Spirit Wood?" the tree face said with a deep voice.

"Haven't I told you, in this day and age, Demon Spirit Wood is no longer a secret? I've even seen a large ship built with Demon Spirit Wood that can sail across the Black Death Sea. What's a mere Demon Spirit Wood?" Li Xiu, seeing that all his stabs had left no mark, paused his hands.

"Build a ship with Demon Spirit Wood?" The tree face's expression changed slightly, "You're talking nonsense. To build a ship with Demon Spirit Wood would require capturing countless Demon Spirits to grow it. Even if you had so many Demon Spirits, there wouldn't be enough seeds."

"I didn't ask you to believe me; I've seen it, so what does your belief matter?" Li Xiu continued studying the vase and the Blood Bamboo inside, feeling that this Blood Bamboo must be connected to the Vase Monster in some way.

"Hmph, even if you've truly seen a ship made of Demon Spirit Wood, it definitely wasn't grown by the Land of Immortality unless it's something from the Demon Kingdom," the tree face seemed to agree that Li Xiu had no reason to lie and changed his tune.

"Didn't you just say that Demon Spirit Wood was something created by the Land of Immortality? How is it now from the Demon Kingdom?" Li Xiu shrugged.

"What do you know? The technology for growing Demon Spirit Wood by the Land of Immortality was derived from the remaining records of the Demon Kingdom," the tree face said bitterly. "I was the one who originally researched this technology, but that old bastard was so insidious and sly that he used it on me, trapping me alive in the Paradise Elixir Bottle, neither able to live nor die."

"Since the bottle is called the Paradise Elixir Bottle, it must have the power to make people immortal. No wonder you could survive inside; you should thank those who put you in the bottle, gifting you the great fortune of immortality," Li Xiu laughed.

"If you like, when you're on the brink of death, I'll put you in the Paradise Elixir Bottle, so you can also enjoy the great fortune of immortality," the tree face said sinisterly.

"So this bottle can really bestow immortality?" Li Xiu was surprised.

"More than just immortality; it's like sharing longevity with the sun and moon, life with heaven and earth," the tree face laughed in a spine-chilling way, "The Paradise Elixir Bottle was unearthed from a relic in the Demon Kingdom. Originally, it contained mysterious seeds. Only those seeds can grow Demon Spirit Wood. There were only so many seeds, and even if they were all successfully grown, there wouldn't be enough Demon Spirit Wood for a large ship."

"So, the large ship made of Demon Spirit Wood I saw must also be a relic from the Demon Kingdom," Li Xiu said as he examined the Blood Bamboo in the Paradise Elixir Bottle, "Where did the Blood Bamboo here come from?"

"It naturally grew here. After the Paradise Elixir Bottle was found, all the seeds were extracted, but one seed remained rooted to the bottom, and it was left alone. That old bastard calculated against me, trapping me in the Paradise Elixir Bottle. The Blood Bamboo kept growing, piercing into my body, consuming my flesh and blood to grow, while the energy it emitted sustained my life... If I hadn't encountered this Spirit-Eating Tree and thought of using it to transfer my consciousness, I'd be trapped in that Paradise Elixir Bottle forever, neither able to live nor die..." The tree face's teeth gnashed audibly, wood chips falling, revealing deep hatred.

"But now it's all in the past; fate ultimately gave me a chance to turn the tables, letting me find the Spirit-Eating Tree, and now you. Your Spiritual Force is incredibly strong, unlike a human, but your body is pathetically weak. When you're dying and lose consciousness, I can transfer my consciousness into your body using the Demon Spirit Tree. With your body as the foundation, I will surpass that old bastard, and revenge shall be mine."

The tree face laughed arrogantly, "I must thank you for preparing so many Top-Grade Demon Spirits for me. I will make sure to use them well for your sake."

"You're dreaming, but sadly these Frenzied Beasts are not enough to end me," Li Xiu glanced down the mountain at the growing number of Frenzied Beasts. The forest was filled with blood red eyes; countless Frenzied Beasts surrounded the mountain, waiting to charge the peak.

Demigod Shana and the Jedi Knight continued fighting while consuming Demon Cores, but they showed no signs of advancing further.

"No need to hurry; it's coming soon. You'll soon witness the truly terrifying things in this forest," the tree face sneered.

Li Xiu said no more, still studying the Paradise Elixir Bottle and Blood Bamboo. After a while, he sensed some commotion below and rose to check. Frenzied Beasts covered the hill, but a path was being cleared, and at the end of the path, a Demon Spirit was approaching the mountain.

Chapter 410 - Connecting Advancement

Li Xiu examined closely, seeing that the demon spirit was a stag-shaped demon spirit, even more robust than an ox.

Its entire body was pure white and crystalline, with coral-like antlers as clear as crystal, emitting a holy white light.

At first glance, it seemed divine, but its eyes were blood-red, filled with evil and madness.

It trod upon the mountain, causing nearby Frenzied Beasts to desperately avoid it, not daring to block its path even at the risk of trampling each other.

"Radiant Demon Spirit, an S-Class?" Li Xiu scrutinized the white stag demon spirit and commanded the Jedi Knight to intercept it.

The mountain top was limited in size, and if they battled there, it would inevitably affect Li Xiu and other demon spirits.

The Jedi Knight grasped the Samurai Sword, swiftly charging at the white stag with a strange red light glowing on the sword.

Using the momentum from rushing down the mountain, the Jedi Knight leapt, gripping the sword with both hands, striking down at the white stag from above.

The white stag did not evade, raising its head to meet the Jedi Knight's sword with its holy antlers.

Blood Red and pure white demonic light bloomed like flowers, intermingling like a bizarre two-tone demonic blossom.

The nearby Frenzied Beasts touched by the demonic light had their flesh, bones, and bodies severed by the demonic light, each screaming and rolling down the mountain.

This clash resulted in a draw, but in reality, the Jedi Knight was clearly at a disadvantage.

The Jedi Knight slashed using the downhill momentum, whereas the white stag met the attack standing still from below without retreating, showing it was indeed stronger in power and demonic light than the Jedi Knight.

Li Xiu was not alarmed but delighted; although the white stag was stronger than the Jedi Knight, it lacked a Super Spirit. As long as it lacked a Super Spirit, there was a chance to defeat it.

The Jedi Knight engaged in a fierce battle with the white stag mid-mountain, occasionally unleashing explosive Light Flames from the clashes of red and white demonic lights.

On the mountaintop, the Frenzied Beasts continued their frenzied assault, yet the defense line of the Black Death Demon army remained as strong as a fortress. Without any S-Class demon spirit participating, the defense line of fifty A-Class Radiant Black Death Demons could not be breached.

"Your demon spirits are certainly strong; that red warrior demon spirit is likely only A-Class, right? Yet it can fight the S-Class Frenzied Demon Deer King without losing much ground. It is indeed a rare demon spirit. In the future, they will all be the foundation of my resurgence. You had better guard it well and not let it die," the Treeface taunted.

"You said you've lived for millennia, so what era were you born in? What was your status then?" Li Xiu inquired.

"You want to know the origins of the president of the Eternal Sky, don't you?" Treeface sneered.

"Indeed," Li Xiu admitted candidly.

"On the brink of death and still wanting to dig out secrets; your curiosity is indeed strong. It's a pity; I enjoy seeing people die with regret and unanswered questions. You should give up on it," Treeface glanced at the fight on the mountainside and continued, "That Frenzied Demon Deer King is an S-Class Radiant Demon Spirit. Enhanced by the Light of Frenzy, it possesses an immensely strong body and demonic light, almost invincible in close combat. If your demon spirit were S-Class, perhaps it could harm it. Unfortunately, your demon spirit is only A-Class, and its demonic light might not even qualify to harm it."

"Is that so?" Li Xiu said nonchalantly.

While Treeface was about to speak again, suddenly seeing a red light shoot into the sky, the Jedi Knight's body ignited with red Light Flame, with power and demonic light surging simultaneously.

Moreover, each slash condensed the blade light into a Bloodlight Saber.

The Jedi Knight, as if possessed, stood above, wielding the sword in rapid succession, with blade lights already appearing as phantoms.

One Bloodlight Saber after another fell, leaving the Frenzied Demon Deer King overwhelmed, its body instantly slashed with bloodied cuts, the flesh tearing open.

The Frenzied Demon Deer King's antlers shot white light, unable to stop the Jedi Knight who had activated the Desperate Realm.

The Jedi Knight moved like a phantom around the Frenzied Demon Deer King, continuously executing frenzied strikes.

A mournful cry shook the heavens; amidst the continuous slashes, the Frenzied Demon Deer King's head was actually severed by the Jedi Knight.

The Jedi Knight held the Frenzied Demon Deer King's head with one hand, using the other hand to thrust the Samurai Sword into the severed neck, directly extracting the Demon Core from within.

The extracted Demon Core drew an arc, falling into the Jedi Knight's mouth, which he swallowed directly.

Treeface was dumbfounded: "What kind of demon spirit is this? To have slain a Radiant S-Class with just an A-Class."

After swallowing the Frenzied Demon Deer King's Demon Core, the Jedi Knight seemed to have his ferocity triggered, rushing into the Frenzied Beast horde, taking down each beast's head with a single slash.

He only killed those Frenzied Beasts of quality, directly extracting and eating the Demon Cores. In a short time, he had slaughtered nearly all the visible quality Frenzied Beasts nearby, with each Demon Core falling into his stomach.

Li Xiu was delighted to find that the red Light Flame on the Jedi Knight was growing increasingly intense, indicating an imminent upgrade.

"To S-Class!" Li Xiu felt joyful within; this was much faster than he had planned.

This would be his first S-Class demon spirit. With an S-Class demon spirit, could a Super Spirit be far behind?

The upgrading Jedi Knight became even more ferocious, frantically slaughtering amidst the Frenzied Beast horde, swinging the Bloodlight Saber wildly, casting continuous blade lights that split every nearby Frenzied Beast, leaving not one intact corpse.
