

When God 461

Chapter 461 - Eternal Heaven

"You don't need to inquire about my identity. Didn't I just tell you? You'll naturally find out when the time comes," said the Red Sand City Lord. "I've already said all that should and shouldn't be said. Think it over yourself, then come find me in Red Sand City."

"Alright." Li Xiu hung up the phone, still pondering the words of the Red Sand City Lord.

He's not the Vice President, nor an Elder or the Commander. Excluding these people, it seems like only the President is left within Eternal Heaven. This made Li Xiu highly suspect that the Red Sand City Lord might be the President of Eternal Heaven.

The invitation card previously given to him by the Red Sand City Lord, even Li Qingyi mentioned it was suspicious, lacking a mark for any Commander.

According to Li Xiu's understanding of Eternal Heaven, it is divided into five tiers: ordinary members, super members, Commanders, Vice Presidents, and the President. The identity of Elders is quite special and cannot simply be categorized into one specific position.

The fact that the Red Sand City Lord could introduce Li Xiu to the organization suggests that he is not an ordinary or super member. However, Li Xiu denied the identities of the Commanders, Vice Presidents, and Elders, leaving only the possibility of the President.

In fact, aside from the Commander, neither the Vice Presidents nor the Elders have the authority to recruit new members. This is also why Li Xiu suspects that the Red Sand City Lord is the President of Eternal Heaven.

"If the Red Sand City Lord really is the President of Eternal Heaven, being invited by the President to join Eternal Heaven surely places me in a high position," Li Xiu thought to himself.

He called Ah Fei over and explained in detail about him joining Eternal Heaven.

"I'll go with you," Ah Fei said.

"Don't rush. Let me go to Eternal Heaven first and understand the situation there, then you can join later. Someone has to hold the fort here in the City of Light; we can't all leave at once," Li Xiu said while handing a card to Ah Fei. "Keep the money on this card in case any hurdles come up in the City of Light."

After Ah Fei took the card, Li Xiu thought for a moment and added, "After all, it's just material possession; don't dwell too much on it. Stay alive, and everything else can be dealt with."

"Got it." Ah Fei looked at Li Xiu and said, "You're talking like you're making posthumous arrangements; it's unlucky."

"Your words are the most unlucky," Li Xiu replied gloomily.

After Ah Fei left, Li Xiu went to Ximen Guan's lab, where the old official immediately started berating him as soon as he saw him.

Li Xiu had previously asked Chu Jun to send over the Lightspeed II for repairs, and Ximen Guan was so angry after inspecting it, he almost spat blood.

For others, a set of Demon Armor could last a lifetime, but for Li Xiu, a "lifetime" meant just one or two uses.

After ranting for a while and seeing Li Xiu standing silently, Ximen Guan couldn't help but stop, asking suspiciously, "Kid, what's the matter?"

"I've decided to go to Eternal Heaven," Li Xiu replied.

At first, Ximen Guan was startled by this statement, then frowned and contemplated for a moment before saying, "Some parts of the Lightspeed II are badly damaged and hard to repair, but some components are still usable, and the core is fine. Give me some time to salvage usable parts and build you a new set of Demon Armor."

"Continue working on the Demon Armor, and I'll use it when I return," Li Xiu had no plans to bring the Demon Armor to Eternal Heaven.

"Makes sense; if something goes wrong in Eternal Heaven, even the strongest Demon Armor can't get you out," Ximen Guan chuckled. "Once you're there, check out the Demon Armor team for me; see what those bastards have developed."

"Once I go to Eternal Heaven, please keep an eye on the Ye siblings for me," Li Xiu pondered.

Li Xiu wasn't too worried about the others; they each had their ways to survive, and even without the City of Light, they had other paths.

However, the Ye siblings didn't have as many options. If the City of Light were truly gone, their lives might not be easy.

Their abilities weren't sufficient to establish themselves independently yet possessed things that tempted others, making it easy for them to be manipulated.

"Don't worry; I'll keep an eye on them. That girl Ye Xiyuan has great talent. While you're away, she'll help me test the Demon Armor; how could I possibly let anything happen to her?" Ximen Guan chuckled.

After leaving the lab, Li Xiu went to see Qin Shi and informed her that he would be leaving the City of Light for a while, assuring her that her issues seemed thoroughly resolved and that he could give her a ride back to Tyrone City if she wished.

"Are you that eager to kick me out?" Qin Shi said with some annoyance.

"What? Will you miss me?" Li Xiu teased.

Qin Shi's cheeks flushed slightly, "What nonsense are you saying? I just think there's more opportunity for fortunes here in the City of Light than in Tyrone City, so I wanted to stay and earn more."

"Once your contract with Tyrone City is up, you're welcome here anytime. Things with Kun Sha have gone quite badly; help him out," Li Xiu remarked.

"Of course, I'll adhere to my contract. Do you really need to tell me that?" Qin Shi rolled her eyes at Li Xiu.

"Wait for me to come back. Once I'm back, if there's a chance, I'll take you to the Trial Ground to enhance your physical abilities. Even for a Magic Armor Master, becoming a Trial Taker has no drawbacks," Li Xiu smiled.

"The deal's settled then, and you'll have to personally take me into the Trial Ground," Qin Shi said, blinking her eyes.

"Of course, I'll personally escort you into the Trial Ground. For an outstanding Magic Armor Master like you, if anything happened to you, I'd cry my eyes out," Li Xiu said.

"Isn't that a bit of an exaggeration?" Qin Shi laughed.

Chapter 462 - Eternal Heaven_2

...

Having settled the affairs of the City of Light, Li Xiu set off for the Red Sand City.

Now he had two Super Spirit Entities in hand, which provided him with a certain degree of protection. However, in a place like Longevity Heaven, Super Spirits might not truly be reliable. Fortunately, Li Xiu had another plan; if he encountered an insurmountable obstacle, he would have to devise another solution.

After arriving in Red Sand City, the City Lord did not invite him to a meal this time, but instead engaged in a private discussion with him in the conference room.

"Every year, Longevity Heaven has a fixed time for recruiting new members. An initiation ceremony will be held uniformly. This year's ceremony is still far off, but with my recommendation, you can skip the process and join first. However, one thing is unavoidable," the City Lord explained about the Blood Seal

Stone: "After you arrive at the headquarters, someone will come to you daily, requesting you to drip blood onto the Blood Seal Stone. This cannot be resisted; otherwise, it will be difficult for you to leave Longevity Heaven alive."

"I've heard about the Blood Seal Stone. I'm aware of this matter," Li Xiu said, looking at the City Lord. "Where exactly is the headquarters of Longevity Heaven?"

"Cannot be revealed." The City Lord smiled and shook his head: "You don't need to know where that place is. Once you join, find a backer to avoid hardship and suffering."

"Who do you think I should find as a backer?" Li Xiu asked.

"It's not about whom you should find as a backer, but about seeing who wants to pull you over. You think the commanders and elders of Longevity Heaven are like cabbages on the street for you to pick and choose?" The City Lord laughed: "Actually, it doesn't matter whom you choose as a backer. Although there are many factions within Longevity Heaven, it is still fairly balanced at present. They restrain each other, and as long as you join one faction, it will be harder for Wan Chaoxin to cause trouble for you."

"Which faction does Wan Chaoxin belong to?" Li Xiu pondered and asked.

"The Wan family has been commanders of Longevity Heaven for generations and have also produced many elders..." The City Lord roughly introduced some matters about the Wan family.

"All right, everything that should be said has been said. Now you should go in," the City Lord led Li Xiu into his secret chamber and pointed to a metal coffin on the ground.

"Is it necessary to use this?" Li Xiu frowned.

"Without this, no one would dare to take you into Longevity Heaven." The City Lord chuckled.

Li Xiu said no more and pushed open the coffin lid to lie inside.

To his surprise, the inside of the coffin was lined with soft mattresses and pillows, making it quite comfortable to lie in.

"Kid, good luck," the City Lord said as he covered the coffin lid.

Inside the coffin, it was pitch-black; fortunately, Li Xiu possessed the Dark Mirror, so he didn't have to worry about not being able to see anything.

But being able to see was of no use, as there wasn't much to see in such a confined space.

Li Xiu listened intently, but heard nothing; the coffin was excellently sound-proofed, so not a sound could be heard.

After a while, Li Xiu felt the coffin shake, as if it was being lifted, and then it began to jolt continuously.

Sha Chu had previously told Li Xiu that each time she went to Longevity Heaven's headquarters, she was carried inside a coffin.

But Li Xiu sensed something amiss; although the coffin jostled, seemingly as if it were being carried by someone walking.

Yet, from Li Xiu's perception, this was not the sensation of someone carrying a coffin.

Moreover, such a heavy coffin couldn't feasibly be manually carried into Longevity Heaven; a transport vehicle would likely be used.

"Is it a car or a plane?" Li Xiu pondered the coffin's vibrations and silently judged inside.

It should not be a plane, as a plane wouldn't shake this way.

It likely wasn't a train either, as a train wouldn't jolt this excessively. After thinking it over, it could only be a car or similar transport vehicle, as only a car would jolt this way on rough roads.

"Could the headquarters of Longevity Heaven be near Red Sand City? Otherwise, why use a car for transport?" Li Xiu felt something was off.

If the headquarters of Longevity Heaven were truly in the Southern Cross Alliance, things wouldn't be as chaotic; all resources would be controlled by Longevity Heaven long ago.

"Bang!" Li Xiu felt the coffin suddenly give a jolt, then come to a standstill.

"Did it arrive so soon?" Li Xiu was surprised. With his Time Perception ability, it had only been just over an hour, less than two hours, and even by car, it shouldn't have gone too far.

"Could Longevity Heaven's headquarters truly be nearby?" Li Xiu harbored doubts.

While Li Xiu was contemplating, the coffin lid was suddenly opened, and strong light shot in, causing Li Xiu to instinctively squint.

A face blocked the sunlight, appearing in Li Xiu's field of view.

Rather than a face, it was a mask—a bronze mask resembling the face of a terracotta warrior.

"Put this on," the masked man handed a mask to Li Xiu inside the coffin.

Li Xiu took the mask and examined it, finding it similarly a bronze mask, but with a slightly different facial shape compared to the masked man's.

"Must I wear it?" Li Xiu asked while putting the mask on his face.

"Unless you want everyone to know your true identity, then you can choose not to wear it." The masked man said coldly, "Come out and follow me."

Saying this, the masked man turned and walked away.

Chapter 463 - Eternal Heaven_3

Li Xiu quickly emerged from the coffin and began to survey his surroundings, but what he saw left him momentarily stunned.

He discovered that the coffin was actually on a beach, and scattered across the white sand were several metallic coffins, arranged haphazardly and abundantly all over the visible beach.

Li Xiu was shocked to realize that this seemed to be an island, at least the areas within his sight were all surrounded by the ocean.

Red Sand City also has places close to the sea, but there's no sea near Red Sand Main City, even if you drive to the seaside, it would take more than an hour to reach.

Not to mention, this looks like an island, he didn't feel like he had taken a boat, how did he end up on an island?

Seeing the masked figure completely ignoring him and walking ahead, nearly out of sight, Li Xiu hurriedly chased after him.

The beach was flanked by dense forests, with many unfamiliar plants that Li Xiu couldn't use to identify the geographical area.

The masked figure led Li Xiu along a stone path into the forest, and after a short walk through the woods, Li Xiu witnessed a breathtaking scene.

Most people have played with spinning tops, even if they haven't, they've certainly seen them, but who has ever seen a spinning top as large as an island?

Li Xiu saw a gigantic spinning top, or more accurately, a mountain resembling a spinning top standing on the ground.

But this mountain was exceedingly peculiar, it was incredibly narrow where it connected to the ground, resembling the tip of a spinning top, while it grew wider as it ascended, culminating in a mammoth island-like expanse at the top.

Atop that spinning-top-like mountain was a colossal city, with all its buildings pure white, as if carved from alabaster.

This city, seemingly constructed in heaven, when viewed up close, presents an overwhelmingly intense visual conflict.

This prompted Li Xiu to recall an ancient poem: The White Jade Capital above, Five towers and twelve cities. Immortals stroke my head, Let me live long with my hair tied.

Such a wondrous and enigmatic Spiral City, not to mention witnessing it, even dreaming of such a city would never have crossed one's mind.

"Aren't the people who built the city worried that the connection to the ground might sever? That Spiral Mountain looks like it could collapse at any moment..." Li Xiu pondered internally.

The masked figure remained silent, simply leading Li Xiu forward.

As Li Xiu approached, discovering the entire base of Spiral Mountain was a massive basin, he was even more stunned.

Inside that vast basin stood countless enormous ancient gates, erect like gravestones in a cemetery.

Many humans wearing Bronze Masks either flew on magical creatures to the gates or rode flying swords back to the city.

The scene was enough to astonish even Li Xiu, who had seen much of the world; Trial Takers and magical creatures rarely seen outside were commonplace here, as if anyone without a magical creature ride would be embarrassed to go out.

Li Xiu finally understood why Longevity City hadn't occupied all the Trial Gates worldwide.

There must be thousands of Trial Gates here, with so many gates nearby, anyone can choose whichever one they wish to enter, so why waste time traveling to distant locations? It's entirely unnecessary.

They only need to control the gemstone mines worldwide, continuously acquiring gemstones to open gates.

The scattered Trial Gates globally weren't worth their time or effort.

"Where exactly is this place? Is it really near the Southern Cross Federation?" Li Xiu wondered to himself.

"Do you have a flying magical creature or contract?" the masked figure asked Li Xiu.

"No," Li Xiu replied, shaking his head.

"Then climb up yourself," the masked figure pointed toward the city and said, "That is the gateway to Longevity City; once there, someone will register your details and arrange your sustenance and lodging."

With that, the masked figure's ring transformed into a dragon-like magical creature, flying him toward Longevity City's gateway without giving any regard to Li Xiu.

"Are all Longevity City residents this indifferent?" Li Xiu didn't mind, assessed the surroundings for a while, then proceeded along the downward stone steps into the basin filled with Trial Gates.

The stone steps led directly to the gateway of Longevity City, but Li Xiu couldn't quite grasp how to ascend that mountain, which was narrow at the base and wide at the top—it wasn't like he could cling to the ceiling like a gecko.

Occasionally, people flew by on magical creatures, and once Li Xiu descended the steps to the ground, he promptly summoned the Pink Nightmare for transportation.

In such a place, a magical creature was perfectly normal, unlike outside, where it needed to be concealed.

Li Xiu rode the Pink Nightmare onward along the stony path, but soon realized a problem.

Within this basin, quite a number of people resided, and on either side of the stone road were clusters of shack-like houses, where people in tattered clothing stood by the roadside or watched him from within their homes with strange expressions.

"Who are these people? How can there be so many individuals resembling beggars or scavengers within Longevity City?" Li Xiu noticed that the shack-like areas not only housed adults but also plenty of men and children, growing ever more perplexed.

This was entirely contrary to his conception of Longevity City—a gathering place for the world's elite.

The Longevity City atop Spiral Mountain very much fit Li Xiu's image of Longevity City.

But the areas below the mountain appeared akin to a slum, completely overturning Li Xiu's understanding.

As Li Xiu was riding the Pink Nightmare forward at full speed, he suddenly saw someone on the road ahead blocking his way.

He had no choice but to stop the Pink Nightmare, sizing up the person obstructing him.

The figure was a tall, ragged man, with a cross-shaped scar on his cheek, lending him a somewhat menacing appearance.

"Your life, I claim it," the man spread his arms, conjuring a blood-red spear that trembled in his grasp, its violent spearhead aimed straight at Li Xiu's chest.

Chapter 464 - VIPs Are Not as Good as Dogs

The eyes of the people on both sides of the stone path were fixed on the man and Li Xiu.

"Do we have a feud?" Li Xiu asked the man.

"No feud," the man replied.

"Then why do you want my life?" Li Xiu asked again.

"For a chance to ascend to Longevity City," the man said slowly, his eyes firmly fixed on Li Xiu.

"Oh, you think killing me will allow you to go to Longevity City?" Li Xiu asked with some surprise. It seemed that Longevity Heaven was not as magnificent as he had imagined. It seemed even more brutal than the outside.

At least he could ascend directly to that celestial city, while these people seemed to have no opportunity to even attempt it.

On the rooftop of a shabby two-story building in the distance, a masked man and a masked woman were watching the situation with Li Xiu.

"Dare to bet with me?" the man said casually.

"How to bet?" the woman asked.

"Bet whether that newcomer Trial Taker can ascend to Longevity City," the man said.

"Bet on what?" the woman frowned slightly.

"If you lose, you'll be mine. I'll ensure your safe return to the city, and no one in Longevity City will dare touch you," the man said.

"What if you lose?" the woman asked, staring at the man.

"If I lose, I'll grant you a chance to return to the city and ensure that no one dares to touch you for three days," the man said.

"Alright, I bet he can enter the city," the woman smiled.

"Only because he has a shining demon spirit?" the man said dismissively.

"No, just because I think he's strong," the woman said calmly.

"Then let's wait and see, don't forget your promise," the man said with a smile.

The woman said nothing more, just watching the two in confrontation in the street.

The man blocking Li Xiu was already impatient, his blood-red spear suddenly thrust out, the dazzling spear aimed directly at Li Xiu's chest, nearly instantly reaching him.

Dang!

Li Xiu drew the Fire Lotus Sword and directly sliced the spear apart.

The man roared, his spear transforming into a furious sea dragon, crazily coiling towards Li Xiu.

Li Xiu sat calmly on the Pink Nightmare, his hand wielding the Fire Lotus Sword seemingly casually, knocking the spear away time and again.

No matter how fierce the man's storm-like spear attacks were, they couldn't even touch a corner of Li Xiu's clothes.

The man's spear skills were decent, but unfortunately too low level, probably just a D-level Trial Taker. Li Xiu could kill him with a single stroke if he wanted.

Suddenly, the man retracted his spear and stepped back, his face pale as he looked at Li Xiu: "Why don't you kill me?"

He realized that Li Xiu's level should be higher than his, making it easy to kill him, but Li Xiu only defended and didn't attack, otherwise he would have died long ago.

"There are a few questions I'd like to ask," Li Xiu said.

"No need to ask, if you can't ascend Spiral Mountain, you'll become part of this place anyway, and then you'll understand," the man said and turned away, disappearing into the slums within moments.

Li Xiu understood the man's meaning, most people here were either those previously invited to Longevity Heaven or their descendants, who couldn't ascend Spiral Mountain.

"Longevity Heaven really is ruthless," Li Xiu frowned slightly, riding the Pink Nightmare and continuing forward.

The people in the surrounding slums, though eager, dared not provoke Li Xiu.

"Looks like I won," the woman smiled.

"Don't rush, the road ahead is long," the man said, leaping down and heading in the direction Li Xiu left.

The woman followed suit, her expression unchanged.

When Li Xiu reached the foot of the mountain, he found that what appeared to be just a small point connecting with the ground from afar was actually much larger than he imagined. The place connecting the mountain to the earth had at least a hundred-meter diameter.

But it's still hard to imagine how such a small area could support the enormous mountain and city above.

As he stowed away the Pink Nightmare and surveyed the mountain, contemplating how to ascend, he suddenly saw another person walking over.

This person was wearing armor, resembling medieval knight's heavy armor, with Light Pattern shimmering on it, clearly a contract.

As he approached Li Xiu, he charged directly, like a rampaging tank, the Light Pattern grew ever stronger, burning like flames on his body, the terrifying momentum made one doubt even a small mountain would be demolished by him.

"The Fire Knight, one of the four generals of Wansheng Town, why would he come here?" the woman frowned slightly.

The man laughed, "The Fire Knight recently advanced to S-level. He plans to leave Wansheng Town for Longevity City, and with a new Trial Taker arriving, it's quite convenient. With a newcomer's invitation card, he can directly become a member of Longevity Heaven without needing another selection. Of course, the Fire Knight wouldn't miss this opportunity."

"You knew the Fire Knight had advanced to S-level and wanted to go to Longevity City?" the woman looked at the man.

"A game is a game. I let you choose first; it's your choice to pick that newcomer, can't blame me. Rest assured when you're with me, you'll have your benefits, better than being alone in Longevity City," the man laughed.

"Who's to say who'll win or lose," the woman said coldly.

"You think a newcomer can defeat the Fire Knight?" the man said contemptuously, "If he were truly that strong, the Commander who recruited him would have had people escort him directly to Longevity City, why would he need to go this Wansheng path?"

Chapter 465 - A VIP Is Not As Good As a Dog_2

"Who can really understand the ways of the world?" the woman said calmly.

"Haha, well, I wish you sweet dreams and hope that newcomer can defeat the Fire Knight." The man spoke and looked toward the battlefield, but was stunned by what he saw.

The Fire Knight, like a terrifying tank, charged toward Li Xiu. Before reaching him, a warrior glowing with red light appeared in front of Li Xiu.

The blade light flashed, and a massive blood-red crescent blade light cleaved toward the Fire Knight.

The Fire Knight roared in fury, crossing his arms to block the blood-red crescent blade light.

Boom!

The clash of armor and blade resounded thunderously, the armor on the Fire Knight's arms was forcibly shattered by the overwhelming force, pushing him back dozens of steps until he sat down on the ground, blood flowing incessantly down his arms.

The Fire Knight looked at Li Xiu in astonishment, and the man in the distance was equally shocked.

"An S-class demon spirit... That newcomer actually has an S-class demon spirit..." The man was incredulous.

"It seems that I've won this time." The woman spoke and then ignored the man, walking directly toward Li Xiu.

"Spare his life." Just as Li Xiu was about to let the Jedi Knight continue the attack, he heard a familiar voice from behind.

Turning around, he saw a woman in a red leather jacket and boots, wearing a bronze mask and with a full figure approaching. He immediately recognized her as Sha Chu.

Sha Chu beckoned to Li Xiu, signaling him to follow her.

Li Xiu withdrew the Jedi Knight and left with Sha Chu. The two quickly disappeared into the tangled alleys of the nearby slums after entering.

After the Fire Knight got up, he glanced in the direction where Li Xiu and Sha Chu had left, gritted his teeth, and entered the slums as well.

"Why are you here?" Li Xiu looked around at the modestly furnished room, noticing that there was nothing but a bed. It seemed more like a temporary resting place than a home.

"I've lost my Paragon of Virtue and Sin, and I don't have the means to return to Longevity City, so I had to stay here for now and wait for an opportunity." Sha Chu removed her mask, smiling as she said, "I knew you would come, so I stayed in Wansheng Town waiting for you."

"Do members like you have to climb up every time you return?" Li Xiu found such a requirement to be utterly baffling.

"I didn't have to before, but unfortunately, the Commander I used to follow got into trouble, so now I can only rely on myself." Sha Chu sighed.

"What's going on exactly?" Li Xiu furrowed his brow.

"My situation is quite bad now. The Commander who introduced me into the association encountered issues, and the new Commander had grudges against me in the past. Before, with the old Commander's protection, it was fine, but now it's a bit troublesome." Sha Chu explained briefly.

Strictly speaking, only the area on the Longevity City side can truly be considered the heavens of longevity.

This slum-like place below is called Wansheng Town. Most people living in Wansheng Town were initially invited to the heavens of longevity but failed to reach Longevity City. Others are descendants of those brought here to explore the Trial Gate.

Of course, some are members of the heavens of longevity who were exiled here.

These people are generally used to explore new Trial Gates. They can usually enter the Trial Gate, but they need to obtain Gemstones first.

There are no gemstone mines on Spiral Island, and all used gemstones are transported from outside, so it's not easy for people in Wansheng Town to acquire them.

However, if any members of the heavens of longevity need assistance entering the Trial Gate, they might recruit some Trial Takers from Wansheng Town, providing those people with an opportunity.

"I need to return within Longevity City for a handover, but I'm afraid that once I go back, I might not have a chance to come out alive, so I can only stay in Wansheng Town for now." Sha Chu sighed.

"Is your grudge with that new Commander so deep?" Li Xiu asked.

"He used to have designs on me, but I wasn't interested in him. Does that count as a grudge?" Sha Chu said helplessly. "In the past, with the old Commander's protection, he couldn't do anything to me. I was originally hoping that after returning this time, the old Commander would assign me a long-term task so I wouldn't return to the heavens of longevity for a while. I didn't expect that before I even returned to Longevity City, I'd hear of the old Commander's troubles, and now he's become our group's Commander, making things quite troublesome."

Li Xiu laughed, "No wonder people have criminal thoughts with someone as alluring as you."

"Hmph, you really know how to make light of the situation. Anyway, now I'm yours, so you have to help me bear this burden." Sha Chu said lazily, stretching.

"Don't make it sound like there's something between us. I haven't even touched you. We have a purely professional boss and employee relationship." Li Xiu spread his hands.

"We could have something; I wouldn't mind." Sha Chu said with a smile.

"I mind. In a place like this, I don't have such interests." Li Xiu looked around at the dirty and messy slums. "How do you want me to help you?"

"Under which Commander's invitation did you join the heavens of longevity? Can you ask that Commander for help?" Sha Chu asked earnestly.

"I don't know either." Li Xiu recounted to Sha Chu what the Red Sand City Lord had said.

After hearing it, Sha Chu was surprised and said, "How is that possible? Only the six Commanders in the heavens of longevity have the right to invite people to join. If the Red Sand City Lord isn't one of the six Commanders, how could he have the authority to issue an invitation card?"

Chapter 466 - A VIP Is Not As Good As a Dog_3

"I don't know. We'll probably find out once we're inside Longevity City." Li Xiu paused and then continued, "Why don't you wait for me in Wansheng Town? After I get into Longevity City and figure out the situation, you can go back."

"That's probably not possible now," Sha Chu said with a wry smile. "Previously, another fellow wanted to recruit me. I used him and the new Commander to keep each other in check until you arrived. I thought I'd be relieved when you came, but things turned out differently when I crossed him."

"Then there's no other choice. We'll just have to enter Longevity City together," Li Xiu said with a smile.

"You can still laugh?" Sha Chu gave him a sharp look. "Think carefully. If you take me into Longevity City with you, you'll end up offending both a Commander and a powerful figure there even before entering the city. Are you sure you want to bring me along?"

"Why not? I've already got the good stuff that two powerful people are interested in. Why would I give it up?" Li Xiu said with a smile.

"You're the thing," Sha Chu said, annoyed.

Li Xiu shrugged and said indifferently, "Whether I'm a thing or not doesn't matter. The important thing is how we're going to climb that mountain now."

"Didn't you bring Demon Armor?" Sha Chu asked, looking puzzled at Li Xiu.

"No, who knew I'd have to climb a mountain in Longevity Heaven?" Li Xiu said helplessly. Had he known, he would've brought a set of Demon Armor to avoid this trouble.

"What can I say to you?" Sha Chu said helplessly. "Without Demon Armor, climbing that mountain is quite troublesome. It's not an ordinary mountain. Even Trial Takers find it difficult to climb. Every year, many people from Wansheng Town attempt it and end up dying, or if not, they come back maimed."

"Is the mountain really that hard to climb?" Li Xiu asked, surprised.

Although the mountain looks like a mushroom, for ordinary people, it's not easy to climb from the bottom.

However, with a Trial Taker's physique, climbing it with some tools shouldn't be too difficult.

"The first time I came here, the old Commander took me up. Later, when I had the Avenger, I could fly up myself and never had to climb Spiral Mountain. But I heard it has a mysterious magnetic field that possibly alters gravity, making it feel like you're climbing with weights. Without S-grade physique, it's nearly impossible to go up. Trial Takers from Wansheng Town generally wait until they're S-grade to dare climb. Many lower-tier Trial Takers who try meet tragic ends," Sha Chu explained.

"Isn't there any other way?" Li Xiu felt the situation was tricky.

He's only C-grade, and Sha Chu might be at most C-grade, or not even there. The two of them attempting Spiral Mountain is indeed a challenge.

Li Xiu thought about it carefully and realized none of his Demon Spirits could fly.

The Ice Soul Sea Demon can float, but the height is limited and not strong enough to carry them.

"I wonder if Dragon Vein Spirit has the ability to climb mountains," he pondered.

"Looks like we'll be stuck in Wansheng Town, but that's okay. How many Gemstones did you bring? We can try our luck at the Trial Gate; maybe we'll find a flying Demon Spirit." Sha Chu thought it over and proposed.

"That's an idea," Li Xiu agreed and asked, "Is there a place in Wansheng Town to buy Demon Armor, even low-grade ones that can fly?"

Sha Chu laughed and said, "My dear City Lord Li, do you think if there were such Demon Armor here, anyone would leave it unused and still climb?"

"Maybe people just like challenges and want to climb themselves," Li Xiu laughed.

"Stop dreaming about good things; focus on getting a flying Demon Spirit. I know which Trial Gates produce them, but it requires luck for entry tickets and luck to get a Demon Spirit Ring. Do you have enough Gemstones?" Sha Chu asked Li Xiu.

Li Xiu placed his bag of Gemstones in front of Sha Chu: "All the Gemstones I brought are here."

Sha Chu opened it and found just over twenty gems, each one or two carats in size, with a decent variety, including Ruby, Sapphire, Topaz, Spinel, and Diamond, but the quantity was very limited.

"You came to Longevity Heaven with such a small amount of Gemstones?" Sha Chu's eyes widened.

"To be honest, I came to Longevity Heaven to take advantage, so why bring so many Gemstones?" Li Xiu said.

"Your idea... how should I put it... is indeed quite optimistic," Sha Chu was at a loss for words.

"I thought having an invitation card meant being a VIP, but turns out a VIP is no better than a dog," Li Xiu chuckled. "No problem, we don't need flying Demon Spirits to climb; we'll just climb ourselves."

"You think you'll rely on the Jedi Knight to climb? That's difficult, even S-grade Demon Spirits barely fend for themselves on Spiral Mountain, let alone climb carrying two people," Sha Chu shook her head.

"My Jedi Knight isn't just S-grade," Li Xiu said.

"You don't mean to tell me the Jedi Knight is already Super Spirit, do you?" Sha Chu was shocked, staring in disbelief.

She spent immense effort and resources just to elevate the Avenger to S-grade, and never dared to dream of becoming a Super Spirit.

That quick and in so little time, Li Xiu's Jedi Knight reached Super Spirit level; it was unbelievably fast.

Chapter 467 - Carving a Path to Survival

"Just reached Super Spirit, with only one percent Super Spirit Limit, can we ascend Spiral Mountain together?" Li Xiu pondered aloud.

He secretly planned in his heart that if the Jedi Knight couldn't take both of them up Spiral Mountain, he would have to reveal the Dragon Vein Spirit.

Such a life-saving Demon Armor, Li Xiu hadn't planned to expose it so soon.

"One percent Super Spirit is enough. Super Spirit and non-Super Spirit are two completely different concepts. As long as you can achieve Super Spirit, even with just one percent Super Spirit Limit, climbing Spiral Mountain shouldn't be a problem." Sha Chu laughed, "I should have known, someone like you wouldn't come to Longevity Heaven without thorough preparation."

"As long as we can ascend, tell me in detail about the situation in Longevity City." Only after arriving did Li Xiu realize that his understanding of Longevity Heaven seemed too superficial.

"You've already seen it. Longevity Heaven is divided into Longevity City and Wansheng Town. Although Wansheng Town is inhabited by lower-class people, don't underestimate it. Many trial takers in the town have intricate ties with the four major families in Longevity City. Every time a new Trial Gate is developed, it's always the trial takers from Wansheng Town who pave the way first. It's a deep affair. Like the Fire Knight you defeated today, his real name is Mo Ruhai, a member of the Mo Family, one of the four major surnames in Longevity Heaven. For some reasons, he was exiled to Wansheng Town, but as long as his strength is enough, he can return to Longevity City anytime."

"However, Mo Ruhai was exiled by the Mo Family, so even if he returns to Longevity City, he cannot return to the Mo Family, which is why he wanted to take your invitation card, hoping to join another faction and find a new supporter."

"Wait a minute, what four major families? Aren't there only six Commanders who can recruit members in Longevity Heaven?" Li Xiu frowned.

"The six Commanders are responsible for recruiting from the outside, but before the Longevity Association was established, Longevity Heaven already had eight major families. However, with the passage of time and changes in power, now only four major surnames remain in Longevity City. But that doesn't mean the other four families completely disappeared; they've just merged into the existing four major surnames."

"Currently, Longevity Heaven's four major surnames are Li, Mo, Han, and Sun. The Li family is the lineage of the President of Longevity Heaven. The other three surnames hold roughly equal power in Longevity City. Many of the members and super members who joined later want to marry into the four major families, so their descendants can live in Longevity City, enjoy the benefits of Longevity Heaven from a young age, and undergo trial taker training earlier."

"Isn't the Wan Family one of the four major surnames?" Li Xiu asked, a bit surprised.

"The Wan Family was originally one of the eight major families but later declined. They weren't originally surnamed Wan either. Later, an exceptionally formidable individual emerged, reviving the Wan Family who then adopted the Wan surname. After several generations' efforts, although now not one of the four major surnames, the Wan Family already has the aura of a major family, and there's a chance in the future that the four will become five major families."

"The four major surnames represent Longevity City's indigenous population. Besides them, other original family groups mostly align with the four major surnames. You will understand these more as you go along. Other than the four major surnames, the six groups managed by the six Commanders, these groups primarily consist of trial takers. Besides the six groups, there's a special Demon Armor group managed personally by Vice President Bai, not belonging to any group and without a Commander. All Magic Armor Masters recruited into Longevity Heaven, regardless of which Commander recruited them, must join the Demon Armor group and cannot stay in the Commanders' groups."

"In a place like Longevity Heaven, the Demon Armor group is actually the least favored group. After all, when it comes to high-end combat power, Magic Armor Masters struggle to compete with Super Spirit trial takers. Demon Armor cannot enter the Land of Trial, and is mainly used to guard the Trial Gate, essentially acting as gatekeepers, their status is quite evident."

"Magic Armor Masters admired by the outside world are held in such low esteem here?" Li Xiu was a bit startled.

"It's unavoidable. Magic Armor Masters require high talent and depend too much on Demon Armor. Given the current level of Demon Armor, it's hard to rival Super Spirit trial takers, so low status is quite normal." Sha Chu laughed, "Look at the people of Wansheng Town; many have the talent for Magic Armor Masters. If they wish, many could join the Demon Armor group, but they rather endure hardship to enter the Land of Trial as trial takers, not wanting to be Magic Armor Masters. Thus, you know the status of Magic Armor Masters in Longevity Heaven."

"Outside, when were Magic Armor Masters ever so disliked; here it's the opposite of outside." Li Xiu laughed.

"Besides the six groups and the Demon Armor group, there are two Vice Presidents. Vice President Bai takes charge of the Demon Armor group and some internal affairs, while Vice President Han is elected by the four major families, representing them and comes from the Han Family."

"The ten elders are personally selected and appointed by the President, enjoying very high treatment and honor, but usually don't hold much actual power, often doing the dirty and tiring work of guarding the Trial Gate. However, becoming an elder grants a chance to reach the Super Spirit stage, so many are willing to strive for it, although elder positions aren't easily attainable."

Chapter 468 - Open a New Path_2

After Sha Chu's detailed explanation, Li Xiu roughly understood the main structure of Longsheng Tian, but figuring out the intricate network of relationships wasn't that easy.

There must be countless connections between the four great families and the various groups. The entangled interests and power struggles within even Sha Chu found hard to comprehend.

"To which faction does that old guy, the Red Sand City Lord, actually belong? I used to think he was the president of Longsheng Tian, but it turns out there are so many native forces within Longsheng Tian. However, the four great families probably don't have the authority to invite outsiders or issue invitation cards. It's likely that the Red Sand City Lord being the president of the Longevity Association is still the highest possibility." Li Xiu pondered to himself.

"Alright, that's about all I know. Since the Jedi Knight has already become Super Spirit, climbing Spiral Mountain is more than doable. Let's head to Longevity City now to avoid any long delays leading to more problems." Sha Chu said as he stood up.

"Alright." Li Xiu followed Sha Chu out the door and headed toward Spiral Mountain through the dilapidated alleys of Wansheng Town.

In the muddy alley, pairs of eyes could be seen watching them through door cracks, windows, and wall gaps. Those eyes were filled with puzzlement, curiosity, envy, and even jealousy and resentment.

Only a few elders, who were so old that they could hardly walk, sat on the stone steps outside their doors, fearlessly scrutinizing Li Xiu and Sha Chu with their yellowing eyes.

"Why are there only children and elders?" Li Xiu asked Sha Chu, who was beside him.

"To survive in Wansheng Town, besides entering the Trial Gate, they also need to go fishing at sea. There isn't much land in Longsheng Tian to farm, so food mainly comes from the sea." Sha Chu replied.

"Why not bring in food from outside?" Li Xiu asked with some confusion.

From the time he entered the coffin to entering Longsheng Tian, it was less than two hours. At such a close range, transporting food from the Southern Cross Federation should be entirely possible.

"That, I don't know." Sha Chu evidently didn't know why food wasn't being brought in from outside.

As the two of them were walking, they suddenly heard a creaking sound from a wooden door beside them, and a figure rushed out, spreading their arms to block Li Xiu and Sha Chu's path.

Li Xiu and Sha Chu were both a bit surprised. Blocking their path was only a child who looked about seven or eight years old, wearing just ragged pants with a bare, bony upper torso, appearing both dark and thin.

The child held a knife in hand, the blade small but covered in a mixture of rust and blood-stained color, yet its edge was sharp, glinting blood-red.

Judging by the knife's shape, it seemed like a knife used for killing fish, rather than a weapon for combat.

Just as Li Xiu was about to ask the child why he blocked their way, he saw nearby wooden doors opening one after another, with one child after another stepping out. The oldest was about ten years old, while the youngest was just learning how to walk.

In a short time, both sides of the alley were packed with children like this, blocking Li Xiu and Sha Chu in the middle of the alley.

Each of these children held the same kind of fish-killing knife, and their eyes were all fixed on Li Xiu and Sha Chu.

"Sea Monster, what do you want?" Chu Sha frowned and shouted into the alley.

Li Xiu had heard from Chu Sha before that there are currently four major forces in Wansheng Town, whose leaders are called the four great generals. Sea Monster is one of them.

With a creak, a wooden door not far ahead opened. An elderly person with white hair and leaning on a crutch hobbled out. The children blocking him all retreated to the sides of the alley, clearing a path.

"Are the esteemed adults preparing to return to Longevity City?" The elder's voice was hoarse, carrying a strong fishy smell.

Looking at the elder, Sha Chu said, "Sea Monster, having these children block our way, what is your intention?"

"Nothing much, just hoping to say a few words to the esteemed adults." Sea Monster looked at Li Xiu and said, "This must be Lord Li Xiu from the City of Light?"

"You know me?" Li Xiu wasn't surprised. When he revealed himself as a Jedi Knight, he had already prepared for being recognized.

"The Spirit Magic Competition and the name of the Lord of Light City have already spread worldwide. Although within this Longsheng Tian, there are no televisions to watch the Spirit Magic Competition, one can hear of your lordship's name and the power of your spirit magic monster from those who have returned from outside." Sea Monster smiled.

"Sea Monster, you should be aware of my current situation. What help do you need from me?" Sha Chu frowned and asked.

"You can't help, but this Lord can." Sea Monster locked his murky eyes on Li Xiu and said.

"Tell me, how can I help?" Li Xiu asked, looking at Sea Monster with interest.

Suddenly, Sea Monster dropped the crutch, knelt on the ground with a thud, and directly bowed before Li Xiu, pleading, "I implore you to provide a path of survival for our children."

The children nearby also dropped their fish-killing knives, kneeling down like Sea Monster and bowing before Li Xiu and Sha Chu.

"What does this mean?" Li Xiu looked at the prostrating Sea Monster in surprise.

Sea Monster, still on the ground without getting up or raising his head, spoke each word clearly, "We are but guilty and lowly people, destined to risk our lives fishing at sea. That is our fate. But these children should not share our fate. They should not see death from birth, should not live their lives without even a glimpse of hope, should not be born here only to die here. I plead with you to give them a path to live."

Chapter 469 - Paving the Way for Survival_3

"Sea monster, have you gone mad? This is the Immortal Heavens, and it has its own rules here. How can we possibly have the ability to open a path of survival for them?" Sha Chu rebuked.

The sea monster raised its head to look at Li Xiu, its expression calm, but its eyes blazing like fire: "No, if there's anyone in this world who can open a path of survival for our children, it is only you, sir, who can accomplish it."

"This is strange, why is it that I'm unaware of having such great abilities?" Li Xiu said as he looked at the sea monster.

"Sir initiated the magic spiritual contest, making the Trial Takers known to the world, allowing all mortals to cultivate. This is a blessing for mortals, and also a fortune for us sinners. If everyone could be a Trial Taker, then the gates of the Immortal Heavens would certainly open wide. Only then would our children have hope, have a survival route. No matter what difficulties arise, please, sir, persist. If there is ever a need for us, even if it means being shattered to pieces, we will not hesitate. Please open a path of life for our children, we are willing to be stones on this path, to build its foundation with bone and blood without regret." As the sea monster spoke, it prostrated itself on the ground again.

Unknowingly, more and more people with a fishy stench came out from the alley and beyond, prostrating themselves on the ground, pleading in unison: "Please open a path of life for our children, we are willing to be stones on this path, to build its foundation with bone and blood without regret."

"Let's go." Li Xiu glanced at the sea monster and the people sprawled on the ground, saying nothing more. He simply called Sha Chu, and walked past them.

These people did not stop them; they only watched as they left, seeing them out of Wansheng Town.

"Most of the people under the sea monster's command are criminals brought in from outside, used as cannon fodder to explore the Trial Gate. Every once in a while, such a group of people are sent in, most die inside the Trial Gate, with a small portion lucky enough to survive, no longer needing to explore the Trial Gate. These children are their descendants. Although these people no longer need to be forced to enter the Trial Gate as cannon fodder, they still have to go out to sea to fish and are called Fishmen, providing food for Longevity City, with little chance of becoming Trial Takers. They are considered the lowest class in the Immortal Heavens."

"After the magic spiritual contest, there are two opinions within Longevity City. Some of the upper echelons believe that since everyone will be a Trial Taker in the future, the Immortal Heavens should reform the current system, including giving the descendants of these Fishmen a chance to become Trial Takers. However, other upper echelons think that Fishmen are just Fishmen, they just need to provide food for Longevity City, there's no need to waste resources letting them become Trial Takers. Anyway, everyone will be a Trial Taker in the future, more Trial Takers can certainly be brought in from outside to be cannon fodder or Fishmen, there's no need to waste resources on these Fishmen."

Sha Chu chuckled bitterly: "The sea monster hopes you can persevere, meaning not only to continue hosting the magic spiritual contest, but also to speak up for these Fishmen in Longevity City and give their children a chance to become Trial Takers."

"I'm not even a member yet, and it seems he has high expectations from me." Li Xiu joked, but his eyes showed no trace of humor.

"This matter arose because of you and the magic spiritual contest. The reason for the reform among the upper echelon is also due to you and the contest. Regardless of your status after entering the city, you will likely face trouble because of it." Sha Chu sighed: "I kept advising you against hosting the magic spiritual contest back then because I feared the Immortal Heavens would be against you. Now, this situation is quite favorable; at least there are still people within Longevity City supporting you in hosting the contest."

"Let's talk when we enter the city." Li Xiu and Sha Chu arrived once more at the base of Spiral Mountain, looking at the towering mountain resembling a heavenly pillar and dome. Despite having seen it once, they couldn't help but feel a sense of awe.

In front of the city gates of Longevity City, a few people dressed in lavish clothing were talking and laughing amongst themselves.

"That Lord of Light City is finally coming, and I am genuinely looking forward to it." A young man with long hair said, smiling.

"It's still uncertain whether he can ascend Spiral Mountain. Perhaps later this mountain may witness him turning into a pile of smashed flesh." A man clad in blue armor said disdainfully.

The long-haired man looked at the two beautiful women beside him and said: "Qingyi, Bai Ying, you've interacted with him, how is his ability, can he ascend Spiral Mountain?"

Bai Ying pursed her lips: "That person has some abilities, but trying to ascend Spiral Mountain might be difficult."

Seeing the long-haired man looking at her, Li Qingyi pondered: "The Lord of Light City's own level should not be high, at least not yet reaching S-level. If he wants to ascend, he might have to rely on his Demon Spirit. I wondered if he has a Flying Demon Spirit; if he does, it shouldn't be hard to climb. If he doesn't, although that Jedi Knight is already S-level, taking him up might not be easy. It's also unclear who invited him into the guild and why they're not here to receive him."

"I'm also curious as to who brought him here. Joining the guild at this time would indeed be rife with trials and tribulations." The long-haired man laughed.

"If it weren't for the fact that he still owes us something, who would care about his life or death? Consider him lucky. Even if he can't climb up on his own, we'll have to lend him a hand." Bai Ying said, looking at the long-haired man: "Mo liu, we might need you to intervene later."

The long-haired man Mo liu nodded with a smile: "Don't worry. If he's struggling, I will certainly ensure his safety and help bring him up."

Pausing for a moment, Mo liu added: "He didn't kill Mo Ruhai, and that's a favor that needs to be repaid."

"He has good fortune." Bai Ying said with a pout.

...

"Let's do this." Sha Chu took a deep breath, looking resolutely at Li Xiu.

Li Xiu nodded slightly, then summoned the Jedi Knight. With the sword hanging at its waist, the Jedi Knight picked up both Li Xiu and Sha Chu under its arms, its feet powered by energy as it leapt onto the side of the mountain.

Chapter 470 - Longevity Hall

"That guy knows we absolutely would protect his life, so is he desperately risking it?" Bai Ying couldn't help but mock, "This guy really values women over his own life."

Mo Liu laughed and said, "Though a bit reckless, he's quite the man."

The man in blue armor frowned and said, "If one doesn't know their limits, even if he enters Longevity City, sooner or later something big will happen. What exactly does he owe you that you must protect him?"

"At least within half a year, we must keep him alive," Li Qingyi said.

"Let's hope he doesn't enjoy risking his life too much, otherwise even if we want to protect him, we might not be able to," the man said.

In his view, Li Xiu was courting disaster, letting a non-flying demon spirit bring two people to climb Spiral Mountain, what else could this be if not reckless?

The Jedi Knight's feet continuously stepped on the mountain wall, leaping upwards repeatedly.

If this were an ordinary mountain peak, the Jedi Knight could carry two people effortlessly, leaping dozens of meters as if it's child's play. But now each jump only ascends a distance of three to four meters.

This is just the beginning; the truly challenging part is yet to come.

The part below is difficult, but at least they could ascend. It's the area above that is like a dome, where the real test for the Jedi Knight lies.

Li Xiu was clamped under the Jedi Knight's arm; though he didn't need to climb himself, he still felt his body becoming extremely heavy, as if a colossal force was pulling him down.

Li Xiu looked at the increasingly distant ground, seemingly in thought.

"This force doesn't seem to be gravity; although it's similar to gravity, there are still some differences." Li Xiu silently felt the force pulling on his body.

The Jedi Knight's ascending speed got slower and slower, with each jump becoming shorter. This was only halfway, and it already felt like he was about to stop moving.

"I said so, this person loves to risk his life. Having an S-Class Demon Spirit carrying two people up the mountain without using its hands, how can it climb?" Bai Ying looked at Mo Liu and said, "Let's not waste time here; you guide him up."

"Don't rush, let's see first. Rescuing him when he falls won't be too late and can serve as a lesson, so he won't risk his life so much once he enters the city," said the armored man.

"You're right, you must watch carefully and don't really let him fall to his death," Bai Ying instructed worriedly.

"Don't worry, with me here, he won't die," Mo Liu said with a smile.

Seeing that the Jedi Knight hadn't even reached halfway, and was already unable to move, Mo Liu was preparing to summon the demon spirit, when he suddenly saw a strange red glow emanate from the Jedi Knight's body.

"Super Spirit!" Bai Ying and three others were startled simultaneously.

"The Jedi Knight has actually become a Super Spirit?" Mo Liu and the armored man looked at Li Qingyi and Bai Ying with some surprise.

Bai Ying also looked surprised, "No way, wasn't the Jedi Knight only Class A before? How did it become a Super Spirit in such a short time? How is this possible? Even with resources, a demon spirit can't absorb so fast."

Li Qingyi, pondering the Jedi Knight, said, "Last time I saw the Jedi Knight, he indeed was Class A. Being able to advance to Class S in such a short time is surprising enough, but becoming a Super Spirit is truly unbelievable."

"Looks like this Lord of Light City is quite reliable. Since his Jedi Knight has become a Super Spirit, climbing Spiral Mountain shouldn't be an issue anymore, no need for me to act," Mo Liu said with a smile.

"Did you ever consider how his Jedi Knight became a Super Spirit? Where did its Super Spirit Gemstone come from?" the armored man said coldly.

"Sun Gang, are you suggesting something?" Bai Ying looked at the armored man, seemingly realizing something.

"Didn't you say a Magic Armor Master stole the Super Spirit Gemstone? Could the Jedi Knight's transformation be related to that gemstone?" Sun Gang said.

"Probably not, the one stealing the Super Spirit Gemstone is a Magic Armor Master..." Bai Ying pondered.

"Isn't there a Magic Armor Master under him named Frost Leaves?" Sun Gang continued.

"That Frost Leaves Magic Armor Master is indeed strong among Magic Armor Masters, but to say she stole the Super Spirit Gemstone and easily swept aside Wan Chaoxin, still seems impossible," Bai Ying shook his head.

"Qingyi, what do you think?" Sun Gang looked toward Li Qingyi.

Li Qingyi thought for a moment and said, "The timing of the Jedi Knight's advancement does indeed appear coincidental, but just as Bai Ying said, that Frost Leaves Magic Armor Master I've seen too. Her style and that of the Magic Armor Master who stole the Super Spirit Gemstone are entirely different, and I believe that the said Magic Armor Master should be male."

While they were discussing, the Jedi Knight, shining like a ghostly warrior with all its glow, had already reached the dome summit.

At this moment, the Jedi Knight, holding Li Xiu and Sha Chu, stood upside down on the mountain wall.

The Light Patterns on its body emitted terrifying Demonic Light, forcibly pressing its body onto the rock summit.

The Jedi Knight carried the two upside-down on the rock summit, walking as if on flat ground.

"This demon spirit is quite interesting; I was really looking forward to it fighting the Snow Princess, but unfortunately, they didn't encounter each other at the Demon Spirit Tournament," Mo Liu said with interest watching the Jedi Knight.