

Widow 112

Chapter 112

As she sat in her seat, the more she thought about it, the angrier she became. However, she did not dare to quarrel with that strong man. After all, she was not as strong as him.

She began to scold Crystal again, "Why did I raise this jinx back then? When she was born as a girl, I should have strangled her directly in the hospital. But Yongping insisted on raising her... He raised such an ungrateful person!"

Her voice was very low. After all, she was afraid of the strong man.

Mia said in a low voice, "Well, Mom, let's not talk about it anymore. We'll arrive Fairby at dawn. When the time comes, we'll ask Crystal about it face to face. Let's have a rest now."

As she spoke, she stole a glance at the muscular man.

Debbie sneered. "Look at you! Your daughter is the eldest daughter of the Evans family. Why are you afraid of him?"
