

Widow 121

Chapter 121

Crystal looked innocent. "I'm just an ordinary poor person."

Everyone was speechless.

An ordinary person could cut all the clothes worth more than 30,000 dollars into pieces in order to vent her anger?!

Mrs. Watson was still not convinced and wanted to say something else. Her sister quickly pulled her and whispered, "Okay, sister! Don't say anything more. Let's go."

"Why should we leave?" Mrs. Watson said, "I must get an explanation today!"

Her younger sister dragged her out of the door and said, "It's enough! Are you really not afraid of death?!"

...What's that?" Mrs. Watson looked at her sister. "What's wrong with you?"

you see the card in that little girl's hand? I just saw it. If I'm not mistaken... it belongs to the stunned. "Which White family are make trouble, you'll be banned from entering all the luxury shops in Fairby in the future!" Mrs. Watson could not help but swallow her in Fairby, so you don't know how terrifying the White family is, especially the one in the White family..." The younger sister looked at the situation in the store and

In the store.

She stared at Crystal and almost wanted to tear

the clothes. However, she cut them into pieces in front cursing. "I'm not done with you today!" As she spoke, she was about to rush quickly stopped Debbie, who struggled desperately. "What are you doing?! What are you doing!? Believe manager frowned and said, "Even if you call the police, it's you who will be arrested. Old lady, I hope you can understand the situation. It's you who made a scene in our store first. We have the right to refuse to Mia had never seen such a scene before. She took Crystal's arm and said, "Are you going to watch them bully your grandma?!"

with an "oh" and turned to say, "Please take her out with you too, Security Guards. They

Mia, "!"