

Widow 128

Chapter 128

Crystal said unhappily, "I have a very high IQ."

She didn't know whether Harold believed it or not. Anyway, his tone was like coaxing a child. "Well, you have a very high IQ."

Crystal felt that he was very perfunctory. "I'm serious! I always got the first place when I was studying. Although I didn't do well in the college entrance examination, I was still good..."

Harold opened the car door, and Crystal consciously walked to the passenger seat. She wanted to talk more, but Harold took out a bag of chocolate from the driver's seat and said, "Eat." Crystal held the chocolate in her arms and felt very wronged. "Are you tired of me?"

Harold, "Give me back the chocolate if you don't want it."

Crystal opened the bag and said, "I won't talk anymore."

Crystal had thought before that Harold was so rich that his company should be very big. But when she saw the Ferris building in the central circle of CBD, she was still shocked.

black mask and gave one to Crystal before getting out of

asked, "Is this building

six buildings next to it are all

Crystal, "..."

enough, poverty

having such a big building was already very impressive, but in the end, Harold told her that these six buildings were businesses were not here. He didn't was just wondering how long

the salary you earn from working in the dessert shop, you

Crystal, "..."

thought of something and said, "I forgot that you

now."

take a few days for Alissa's dessert shop to be repaired. She called Crystal and told her that her mother was ill and needed to be hospitalized. Her family had never informed her before, and her father took care of her alone. Alissa spent some time accompanying her in the hospital, rang. She was caught by Harold and picked up the phone with Harold on her back. "Hello,