

Widow 138

Chapter 138

Mr. Beardsley immediately said, "What reason do I have to help Leland? As a teacher, I am absolutely fair. So many parents here have seen what happened with their own eyes. It is not like Mrs. Bowles is the only one who said that!"

Crystal said, "Then let's check the surveillance."

Mr. Beardsley hurriedly said, "There's no need to be so troublesome! It's obvious who's right and who's wrong. Don't waste everyone's time here. Hurry up and ask Bernard to apologize to Leland, and then ask Bernard's mother to come to the kindergarten tomorrow to talk about withdrawing him from the kindergarten."

Mrs. Bowles looked at Crystal proudly and said, "Did you hear that? Apologize to my baby quickly, or this matter won't end so easily!"

Just as Crystal was about to speak, a little girl's voice rang out. "Mr. Beardsley, you're wrong. It was Leland who bullied Bernard. We all saw him scolding Bernard and his mother and pushing him. Bernard pushed Leland out of fright."
