

Widow 158

Chapter 158

In fact, it had been a few years since the relationship between Danny and Dora had been dissolved. Four years ago, when he had yet to find out that Crystal was the real daughter of the Evans family, he rarely went home and kept a cold attitude toward Dora.

"We're just getting along with each other." Danny said lightly, "And I didn't scold you."

Crystal was speechless.

How confident could he be to say such a thing?

Crystal closed the menu, and the manager quickly took it. "Then I'll ask someone to serve the dishes. Young Master, do you want a bottle of wine?"

"There's no need." Danny said, "Get some hawthorn water."

The manager nodded and left the private room.

Crystal and Danny were left in the private room. She was in a panic. After all, there was no one to had no choice but Walter again, Danny's face darkened and he said, "I'm not familiar with him." "Why didn't he get caught when he was doing that kind of business?" Crystal asked curiously, "He's trying to abducts women." There was a hint of sarcasm in Danny's voice, and then he said, "Both the parties are willing to do so. Of course, no one called the police.

Crystal's eyes widened. "Why?"

own choice. What does it have to do with him?" Danny said coldly, "He never stepped on the line, so he a law

much that her belly became round and she was a little full. Danny was probably a little surprised.

"You're so skinny, but

She blinked her eyes. "That's why dinner, Crystal wanted to slip away, but Danny to resist him. She could only nod and follow him out of the banquet have you thought about what I told you was at a said, "I'll support you to go to

