

Widow 160

Chapter 160

Antony said, "How can you blame me for my wishful thinking? How many girls have thrown themselves at you over the years? You've never looked at them seriously. You suddenly have a girl by your side. As your younger brother, of course, I have to show my concern."

Danny looked at the traffic in front of him and said, "If you have anything to say, just say it. Don't talk about these trivial things."

Antony said with a smile, "You really understand me... Well, I've been working in the company for several days. Can I..."

"No." Danny said, "You chose this yourself."

"I really don't like these things." Antony said, "I have a headache when I read those reports. I'm begging you to let me go. I think it's enough for our family to have a business genius like you." The Evans family was completely different from that of other wealthy families. Other brothers would fight for the family property. However, among the three sons of the Evans family, only Danny was a businessman. Marcus was a celebrity. Now he had thousands of fans and was called the dream of a billion young girls. Antony was even more worrying and did not care about the family business at all. In college, he insisted on reciting the military school. After being beaten by Daxton, he was determined not to drop out of school.

"Father doesn't want you to join the army." Danny turned on the direction indicator and said lightly, "What are you going to do if you don't come to the company after graduation?"

Antony's voice was a little muffled. "Should I just listen to him? Second Brother can be a star, but why can't I join the army? I'm going to graduate from military school soon. Even if he beats me to death, I won't listen to him."

Danny didn't say anything.
