

Widow 169

Chapter 169

While Crystal was lost in thought, a staff member rushed in and said, "Are you done? The show is about to begin. It will be the grand finale about thirty-five minutes later. Marcus and Katie walked on the red carpet together before, and now everyone outside knows that they are the main characters tonight. The reporters have gathered and waited for a long time..."

But everyone's expression was gloomy.

It was useless even if they found out the person who did it as the truth was that the cheongsam was still ruined and Katie couldn't go on stage with a broken cheongsam.

Marcus said at this time, "If it can't be fixed, I will walk on my own."

Vera said, "Then how can we explain Katie's absence? Besides, this cheongsam is the highlight of the night. If we don't show it to suppress the situation, how will the media report it? Besides..." She glanced at Marcus and said, "Marcus and Katie walked on the red carpet today for work. If Katie didn't show up at all, the relationship between you two would be confirmed."

of fans of the couple. Rumors. were flying all over the world. Although there were only rumors, their fans were clenched her fists. "Who

Vera sneered.

at the beginning for the movie which made her win the trophy. It was all because of Marcus's recommendation that she glanced at Marcus and couldn't help feeling unfair. It was obvious that she knew Marcus earlier and had cooperated with him. However, Marcus liked Katie very much.

her, but Larry lost his interest too quickly. In less than a month, they broke up. Although he did not withdraw the resources he had poured into Vera, it made

Larry rubbed the space between his eyebrows. "If there's no other can go with Marcus.

her clothes were not as good as the cheongsam of withered branches an indifferent look. Vera coughed and said, "I'm doing this for the sake of the event. After all, the theme is meant for couples. How can Marcus appear alone for the

"Vera's proposal is