

Widow 186

Chapter 186

It was already past one o'clock when Crystal woke up. The secretary had been paying attention to the movements in the office. When Crystal woke up, she hurried in and asked, "Miss Evans, do you feel uncomfortable?"

Crystal felt dizzy for a while and touched her forehead. "I don't seem to have a fever anymore."

The secretary said, "It should be the effect of the medicine. Do you still feel uncomfortable?"

Crystal thought for a moment. "... I'm hungry."

"..." The secretary quickly said, "I'm ordering some food now. What would you like to eat?"

Crystal looked around but did not see Harold. He frowned and asked, "Has Master White eaten yet?"

"No." The secretary said, "Master White is too busy. He's still in the conference room. We usually don't disturb him at times like this."

They didn't have the guts to disturb him.

After all, everyone in the company knew how terrifying Harold was.

her phone and found that it was ten minutes

order two sets of light dishes for me," Crystal

White probably won't finish

persuade Crystal not have misunderstood... I want to secretary replied,

Crystal to finish the meal in the canteen of the White Group. The White Group was a big company.

in the

of porridge because she was sick.

leaned back on the sofa and searched for an inheritor of intangible cultural heritage. Her works were highly praised overseas, especially the Thousand. Carp embroidery. It was vivid a bit rigid. However, when she looked at the Thousand able to come suddenly heard the sound of the door being pushed open. She turned her head

Luke say that Marcus left you on the mountain and left. It was said, “And it’s not