

Widow 188

Chapter 188

Crystal made an appointment with Christy for dinner.

Because of Larry's reminder, Crystal did not dare to go alone. Harold was busy also, so she had to call Anthony.

When Antony received the call, he was about to have a gathering with his classmates from the military academy. He stood on the side of the road and asked, "Have dinner with you?"

"Yes." Crystal said, "Are you free?"

Hearing the sweet and delicate voice of a little girl, a group of strong old men next to him immediately began to jeer. "Master Handerson, the girl wants to have dinner with you."

"From hearing her voice, she must be very beautiful. Antony, hurry up and agree to it. We are all men, we're not as important as a little girl."

"Yes, yes. Hurry up and agree to it."
