

Widow 233

Chapter 233

Luke was undoubtedly threatening Mark. Mark felt guilty and lost his momentum in an instant.

He knew very well that Harold, the lunatic, would not care about family affection. Even if it was his biological father, Antonio, standing here today, it would also be useless, let alone that he was only Harold's second uncle.

However, he was very unwilling to hand over the power in his hands like this. Originally, the second branch had no right to speak. If he left the White Group, the White Family would completely become Harold's!

Mark still wanted to say something, but Luke suddenly said, "Speaking of which, Mr. White, have you ever found out about the inside story of the car accident that Master White was involved in City T?"

Mark was shocked and looked at Luke in horror.

What... did Harold know?!

leaving any traces behind. It was and said, "I won't let this slide an eyebrow and said, "Mr. White, and turned

one sneered at him on the way, but Mark felt that the whole world was laughing at him, so his face became more and more gloomy.

White Group and took out his phone to make a alive?! He's taking away my power now. Not only can I not get what I want now, but I've lost what I used to side of the phone was silent do you mean?" Mark said angrily, "We are both in the same boat. If I am going down, I'll drag you change his decision. If I were you, I might as well think about what kind of weakness Harold has instead of so angry that he quickly dialed back, only to hear a sweet female voice saying,

believe it and called again, but it