

Widow 236

Chapter 236

“Fragile,” Harold said. Then, he reached out to rub her and asked, “Does it still hurt?”

Crystal said, “It didn’t hurt much at first, but it hurt even more after you rubbed it twice.”

Harold was speechless.

Crystal saw that the tie was placed aside and quickly reached out to pick it up. She was afraid that Harold would tie her up again, so she looked at him warily.

Harold said, “If I want to deal with you, it’s useless even if you have a gun in your hand.”

Crystal was discouraged. “Why is there such a big gap between us?”

She suddenly remembered something and said, “By the way, I heard a lot of people say that you want to send me back to the Evans family today!”

Harold raised his eyebrows. “Where did these rumors come from?”

He lifted the partition window and asked Luke, “Where did the rumors come from?”
